In the Cii. yere came Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus from the citie of Rome with a smal company of men, vnto a citie of the see coast and there he bare rule. And it chaunced, that when he came to Antioch the cytie of his progenitours, his host toke Antiochus and Lysias, to brynge them vnto hym. But when it was tolde hym, he sayde: let me not se theyr faces: So the host put them to death. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kyngdome, there came vnto hym wicked and vngodly men of Israel: whose captayne was Alcimus, that wold haue ben made hye priest: These men accused the people of Israel vnto the kyng, sayinge: Judas and his brethren haue slayne thy frendes, and dyuen vs out of our owne lande. Wherefore sende now some man (to whome thou gapest credence) that he maye go and se all the destruction, which he hath done vnto vs and to the kynges lande, and let him be punished with all his frendes and fauourers.

25 Then the kyng chose Barchides a frende of his, whiche was a man of greates power in the realme (beyond the greates water) and fapthfull vnto the kyng: and sent hym to se the destruction that Judas had done. And as for that wicked Alcimus, he made hym hye priest, and commaunded hym to be auenged of the chyldren of Israel. So they stode vp, & came with a great host into the lande of Iuda, sendinge messengers to Judas and his brethren, and speaking vnto them with peaceable wordes: but vnder discepte. * Therefore Judas and his people blyued not theyr sayinge: for they sawe that they were come with a great host.

* 1. mach. 1. 2

After this came the scribes togyther vnto Alcimus and Barchides, trustinge the best vnto them. And fyrst the Assideans required peace of them, saying: Alcimus the priest is come of yseed of Aarō, howe can he discerne vs? So they gaue them loupng wordes, and swore vnto them, & sayde: we wyll do you no harme: neyther your frendes: and they blyued them. But the verpe same daye toke they. Ix. men of them, & slewe them accordynge to the wordes that were wyrtten: * They haue cast the flesh of thy sayntes, & shed theyr bloude rounde about Ierusalem, & there was no mā that wold bury them. So there came a great feare and drede amonge the people, sayinge: there is neyther truthe nor rpyghtousnesse in them, for they haue broken the appoyntmēt and othe that they made. And Barchides remoued his host from Ierusalem, and pitched his tent at Betzcha: where he sent forth, and toke many of them that had forsaken hym: he slewe manye of the people also, and cast them into a greates pyt. Then commytted he y lande vnto Alcimus, and left mē of warre with him to helpe hym. & Barchides hym self went vnto the kyng. And thus Alcimus defended his hye priesthode: and al suche as be- red Israel resorted vnto hym: In so moche that they obtayned the lande of Iuda, and dyd moche euill vnto the Israelites.

* 1. mach. 1. 2

Now when Judas sawe all the myscheffe that Alcimus and his cōpany had done (yea, more then the hye then them selues) vnto the Israelites: he went forth rounde aboute all the borders of Jewrye, and punished those vnsapthfull rennagates, so that they came nomoze out into the countrie. So when Alcimus sawe, that Judas & his people had gotten y upper hande, and that he was not hable to abyde them, he went agayne to the kyng and sayd al the worst of them that he coude. Then the kyng sent Alcimus, one of his chiefe princes, which bare euill wyl to Israel and commaunded hym, that he shoulde vtterly destroye the people.

* So Alcimus came to Ierusalem with a greates host, and sent vnto Judas and his brethren with frendlye wordes (but vnder discepte) sayinge: ther shall be no warre betwixt me and you: I wyll come with a fewe men, to se howe ye do, with frendshyp. Vpon this he came vnto Judas, and they saluted one an other peaceably: but the enemies wer appoynted to take Judas by violence. Reuertlesse, it was tolde Judas, that he came vnto hym but vnder discepte: wherefore, he gat hym a daye from hym, and wolde se his face nomoze. When Alcimus perceyued that his counsaill was be wyped, he went out to fight against Judas, beside Capharsalama: where there were slayne of Alcimus hoste v. M. men: and the resydue fled vnto the castell of Dauid.

After this came Alcimus vp vnto mount Syon: and the prestes with the elders of the people went forth to salute hym peaceably, & to shew him the burnt sacrifices that were offred for the kyng. But he laughed them and the people to scozne, mocked the, despyed theyr offrynges, & spake dysdaynfully: yea, and swore in his wrath, sayinge: * If Judas and his host be not delpyered nowe into my handes, as soone as euer I come agayne (and fare well) I shall burne vp this house. With that, went he out in a greates angre. Then the prestes came in, and stode before the altier of the temple, wepyng, and sayinge.

* For so much as thou (O Lorde) hast chosen this house, that thy name might be called vpon therin, and that it shoulde be an house of prayer and petition for thy people: Be a- uenged winged of this man and hys hoost, & let them be slayne with the sword, remembre þe blasphemers of them, and suffer them not to continue any longer.

When Hicanor was gone from Jerusalem, he pitched his tent at Bethozon, & there a hoost met hym out of Syria. And Judas came to Adarfa with thre thousand men, and made his prayer vnto God, saying: O Lord, because the messengers of kynge Senacheb blasphemed the, the Angell went forth, & slew an hundred foure score and fyue thousand of them. Euen so destroye thou this hoost before vs to daye, þe other people maye knowe that he hath blasphemed thy Sanctuary: and punyssh hym accordyng to his malignities.

And so the hoostes stroke the felde, the thyrtyne daye of the Moneth, * Adar: and Hicanors hoost was discomfyted, and he hym self was first slayne in the battayll. When Hicanors men of warre sawe þe he was kylled, they cast awaye theyr weapons and fled, but the Jewes folowed vpon them an whole dayes iourney, from Adazer vnto Gazara, blowing with þe trumpets, and makynge toles after them. So the Jewes came forth of all the townes there about, and blew out theyr homes vpon them, and turned agaynst them. Thus were they all slayne, and not one of them left.

Then they toke theyr substance for a prey, and smote of Hicanors heade and hys right hande: * which he helde vp so prouidly, and brought it wpth them, & hanged it vp at Jerusalem. Wherfore the people were exceedingly reioysed, & passed ouer that daye in great gladnes. And Judas ordeined, that the same daye (namely the thyrtynth daye of the month Adar) shoulde be kepte in myrrh euery yere. Thus the land of Juda was in rest a lxxij. yere.

The viii. Chapter.

Judas consydering the power and godly pollicy of the Romaynes maketh peace with them. The rescripte of the Romaynes sent vnto the Jewes.

Judas hearde also the fame of the Romaynes, that they were myghty and valeaunt men, & agreeable to all thinges that are required of them, and make peace wpth all men, whiche came vnto them, & howe they were doughty men of strength. Besydes þe it was told hym of theyr battayles, and noble actes whiche they had in Galacia, howe they had conquered them, and brought them vnder trybute: and what greates thynges they had done in theyr daye: howe þe with their wysdome and soveraynour they had wonne the wynter of gold & golde þe are there, & obtayned all the land, wth other places farre from the: howe they had discomfyted & slayne doctore the kyniges þe came vpon them, frome the vntermoste part of the earth, and howe other people gaue the trybute euery yere. Howe they had slayne and ouercome Philip and Perles kyniges of Cethin, and orhermo (in battayll) which had brought theyr ordynance agaynst the: howe they discomfyted great Antiochus kynge of Asia (that wold nedes fyght with them) hauyng an hundred and twenty Elephantes, wth horsemen, charettes, and a very great hoost: howe they toke him selfe alpye, and ordeyned hym (wpth such as shoulde raygne after hym) to paye them a great trybute.

* Per, and to fynd them good sureties and pledge: besydes all this, howe they had taken from him India, Media, & Lidia (his best lades) and geuen them to kynge Eumenus. Agayne, howe they perceauyng that þe Grekes wer compage to vexe them: sent agaynst them a capteyne of an hoost, which gaue them battayle, slew many of them, led awaye their wyues and chyldren captiue, spoyled them, toke possession of theyr lande, destroyed their stronge holdes, and subdued them to be theyr bondemen, vnto this daye. Whereouer, howe that as for other kyngdomes and Iles which some tyme wthstode theym, they destroyed them, and brought them vnder theyr domynyon. But helped euer theyr owne frendes, and those that were confederate with them, and conquered kyngdomes both farre and ny and that whosoeuer heard of theyr renowne, was afrayde of them: for whome they wolde helpe to theyr kyngdomes, those raygned: & whome it lyked not them to raygne, they put hym downe. And howe they were come to great preemynence: hauyng no kynge among them, nether any man clothed in purple, to be magnified there thowowe, but had ordeyned them selues a parlemente, wherein there sat thre hundred and twenty Senatours dayly vpon the counsell, to dyspathe euer the busynes of the people, and to kepe good ordre. And howe that euery yere they chose a Mayre to haue the gouernance of all theyr lande to whome euery man was obedynt, & there was nether cruel wyll nor dyscency on among them.

Then Judas chose Eupolemus þe sonne of Ihon the sonne of Jacob, and Jalon the sonne of Eleazar, and sente them vnto Rome for to make frendshyppe and a bonde of loue with them, that they myght take from them the bondage of the Grekes, for þe Jewes saw that the Grekes wolde subdue þe kyngdome of Israel. So they went vnto Rome (a very great iourney) and came into the parliament, and sayde: Judas Machabeus wth hys brethren and the people of þe Jewes hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bonde of frendshyp and peace wth you, and ye to note vs as your louers

And

The fyrst Booke.

and frendes. And the matter pleased the Romaynes ryght well, wherefore it was wyrtten vp: of the which the Romaynes made a wyrtynge in tables of brasse, and sent it to Jerusalem: that they might haue by them a memo- ryall of the same pece and bonde of frendshipp after this maner: God saue the Romaynes & the people of the Jewes both by see & by land and kepe the swerde and enemy from them for euermore. If there come fyrst any warre vpon the Romaynes or any of theyr frendes thowout all theyr dominyon, the people of the Jewes shall helpe them (as the tyme requyret) and that with all theyr hertes. Also they shall nether geue nor sende vnto theyr enemyes vntales, weapons, money, nor shyp- pes: but fulfyll this charge at the Romaynes pleasure, and take nothyng from them there- fore. Agayne if the people of the Jewes hap- pen fyrst to haue warre, the Romaynes shall stande by them wth a good wyll, accordyng as the tyme wyll suffre. Neither shall they geue vnto the Jewes enemyes, vntales, weapons, money nor shippes. Thus are the Romaynes content to do, & shall fulfyll theyr charge with out any dysceate.

D Accordyng to these artycles, the Romay- nes made the bonde with the Jewes. Nowe after these artycles (sayde they) if any of the parties wyll put to them, or take any thyng from them: they shall do it with the consent of both: & what soeuer they adde vnto them, or take from them, it shall stande fast. And as touchyng the enel that Demetrius hath done vnto the Jewes, we haue wyrtten vnto him saying: wherefore laptst thou thy heuyl pocke vpon the Jewes oure frendes and louers? If they make any complaynt of the agayne vnto vs, we shall defend them, and fyght with thee by see and by lande.

The ix. Chapter.

After the death of Antiochus, Demetrius sendeth his army agaynst Judas. Judas is slayn. Jonathan is put in the chace of his brother. The strife betwene Jonathan and Barchanes. Alcimus is taken with the paiser, and dyeth. Barchanes returneth agayne vnto the hyngs. He chymeth vpon Jonathan by the counsell of certayne wycked persones, and is overcome. The deuce of Jonathan with Barchanes.

Ant. apud. b. i. c. Josephus ca. xii. lib. xii.

In the meane season when Demetrius heard that Antiochus and his hoste was slayn in the felde, he proceeded fur- ther to sende Barchanes and Alcimus agayne into Jewry, and those that were in the ryght wyng of his hoste, with them. So they wente forth by the waye that leadeth vnto Galgala, and pitched theyre tentes before Bethsai which is in arbellis, and wanne the cite & slew much people. In the fyrste Moneth of the Eluere, they brought their hoste to Jerusalem, and rose vp, and came to Barea, with xx. thousand souldiers, & ii. C. horsemen.

Now Judas had pitched his tent at Ephas, with thre thousand chosen men. And when they sawe the multitude of the other army, it was so great, they were sore afrayde, & many conueyed them selues out of the hoste. In so much that there abode no mo of them but eighty hundred men. When Judas sawe that his hoste fayled hym, and that he must needs fyght: it brake his herte, that he had no tyme to gather them together: wherefore the man was in extreme trouble. Nevertheless, he sayde vnto them, that remayned with hym. Up, let vs go agaynst our enemyes, perad- uenture we shall be able to fyght with them. But they wolde haue stopped hym, sayinge: we shall not be able, therefore let vs now saue our lyues, and turne agayne to our brethren, and then wyl we fyght agaynst them, for we are here but fewe.

And Judas sayde: God forbyd that we should fle from them. Wherefore, if our tyme be com- let vs dye manfully for our brethren, and let vs not stayne our honoure. Then the hoste remoued out of the tentes, & stode agaynst the. The horsemen are deuided in two partes: the flying casters and archers went before the hoste and all the myghtie men were foremost in the felde. Barchanes hym selfe was in the ryght wyng of the battayl, & the hoste dyuene in two partes, and blew the trumpets. They of Judas syde blew the trumpets also, and the earth shoke at the noyse of the hostes, and they stroke a feild from the moztow tyl nyght. And when Judas sawe that Barchanes hoste was strongest of the ryght syde, he toke with hym all the hardy men, and brake the ryght wyng of theyr ordre, and folowed vpon the vnto the mount Zion.

Nowe when they which were of the left wyng, sawe that the ryght syde was discomfyt they persecuted Judas & the that were with hym. Then was there a sore battayl, for many were slayne and wounded of both the parties. Judas also hym selfe was kyled, and the remnant fled. So Jonathan and Symon toke Judas theyr brother, and buried hym in his fathers sepulchre in the cite of Modin. And all the people of Israel made great lamentacon for hym, and mourned longe, saying: Alas, this worthy shulde be slayne, which de- uoyered the people of Israel. As for other thynges pertynyng to the battayles of Ju- das, the noble actes that he dyd & of his worthynesse: they are not wyrtten, for they were very many.

And after the death of Judas, wicked men came vp in all the coastes of Israel, and there arose all suche as worke vngodlynesse. In those dayes was there a greate dearth in the lande, and all the countre gaue ouer them selues and theyr vnto Barchanes, & so Barchanes chose wycked men, and made them lordes wher in the land. These sought out & made search for Judas frendes, and brought them into Bachides: which auenged him self vpon them with great despyte. And there came so great trouble in Israel, as was not sens the time of no prophet was sene there.

Then came all Judas frendes together, and layde vnto Jonathas: for so muche as his brother Judas is dead, there is none lyke hym to go forth agaynste oure enempes agaynst Bachides, & such as are aduersaries vnto our people. Wherfore, this daye we make the for hym, to be our prince & captayne in oure battayle. And Jonathas toke the gouernance vpon hym at the same tyme and ruled in steade of his brother Judas.

When Bachides gat knowledge therof, he sought for to sleie hym. But Jonathas and Symon his brother, perceauyng þ, fled into the wyldernes of Thracia with all theyr company, and pitched theyr tentes by the water side of Alphas.

Which when Bachides vnderstode, he came ouer Iordane with all his host vpon þ Sabbath daye. Now had Jonathas sent his brother Ihon (a Captayne of the people) to praye his frendes the Sabouthytes, that they wold lende them theyr ordynance, for they had muche. So the chyldren of Iambry came out of Gadaba, and toke Ihon and all that he had, and went theyr waye withall. Then came word vnto Jonathas and Symon his brother, that the chyldren of Iambry made great maryage, and brought the byrde fro Gadaba with greates pompe: for he was daughter to one of the noblest prynces of Canaan. Wherfore, they remembred the bloude of Ihon theyr brother, and went vp, and had hym selues vnder the shadowe of the mountayne.

So they lyft vp theyr eyes, and looked, & behelde, there was muche a do, and greates reioysing: for the byrdegrome came forth, & his brides and his brethren mete the with tympanes, instrumentes of musycke, and many wayens. Then Jonathas and they þ were with hym, tole out of theyr lurking places agaynst them, and slewe many of them. As for the remnaunt, they fled into the mountaynes, and they toke all theyr substance. Thus the maryage was turned to mournynge, and the noyse of theyr melody into lamentacion. And so when they had auenged the bloude of theyr brother, they turned agayne vnto Iordane.

Bachides hearyng thys, came vnto the very border of Iordane with a great power vpon þ Sabbath daye. And Jonathas sayd to his companye, lette vs get vp, and fyghte agaynst our enemies: for it standeth not with vs to dape as in tyme past: Beholde, oure enempes are in oure waye, the water of Iordane vpon the one syde of vs, with bankes, fennes and woddes of the other syde, so that there is no place for vs to departe vnto.

* Wherfore, crye nowe vnto heauen, that ye maye be deliuered from þ power of your enemyes. So they stroke the battayle. And Jonathas stretched oute his handes to smyte Bachides, but he fled backwarde. Then Jonathas & they þ were with hym, leapt into Iordane, & swynned ouer Iordane vnto him and there were slayne of Bachides side þ day a thousande men.

Therfore Bachides with his host turned agayne to Ierusalem, and buylte vp the castels and stronge holdes that were in Jewrye, Iericho, Emaus, Bethozon, Bethell, Chamnasa, Phara, and Topo, with hyr walles, with portes and with lockes: and set men to kepe them, that they myght vse theyr malice vpon Israel. He walled vp the Cytie Bethlurath, Gazarah, and the castell & prouided them with men and vitayles. He toke also the chiefe mens sonnes in þ countre for pledges, and put them in the castell at Ierusalem to be kepte.

Afterward in the hundred fyfthe and thre yere in the second moneth, Alcimus commaunded, that the walles of the inmost Sanctuary shulde be destroyed, and the buyldinges of the prophetes also. And when he beganne to destroye them, the thynges þ he went aboute, were hyndered, for he was smytten w a palsy, and his mouthe shut, so that he coude no moze speake nor comaunde any of his house: concernynge his busynes. Thus dyed Alcimus in great misery at the same tyme. And when Bachides sawe þ Alcimus was dead, he turned agayne to the kyng, and so þ lande was in rest two yeres. Then all the vngodly men helde a counsell, saying: Beholde, Jonathas and his companye are at ease, & dwell without care. Wherfore, let vs byngne Bachides hither, and he shal take them all in one nyght.

So they wente and gaue Bachides thys counsell, whiche arose to come with a greates host, and sent letters pzeuely to his adherentes, whiche were in Jewrye, to take Jonathas & those þ were with him: but they might not for þ other had gott knowledge of their deuises. And Jonathas toke fyfty men of the countre (whiche were the ryngleaders of the) and slewe the. Then Jonathas and Symon with theyr companye departed vnto the cytie Bethbessen whiche lyeth in the wyldernesse, and repayred þ decaye therof, & made it strong. When Bachides knewe thys, he gathered all his hoste, and sente word to them that were of Jewrye. Then came he and layde sege to Bethbessen, & fought agaynste it a longe season, & made instrumentes of warre. Nowe Jonathas left his brother Simon in þ cytie,

Jii ii and

#1. Bera. r. a.
1. 29 ac. 11. 1. b.

The fyfth Booke.

and wente forth hym selfe into the countre, & came with a certayne nombze, & flewe Dares and his brethren and the chyldren of Phaleron in theyr tentes: so that he beganne to be stronge, & to increase in power.

As for Symon and his compaignie, they wente out of the Cytie, and byente by the instruments of warre, & fought agaynst Barchides, and discomfyted hym. And Barchides was soze vered, because his counsell and traual was in vayne. Wherefore he was wroth at the wycked men (that gaue hym counsell to come into theyr lande) and slewe many of them. Then purposed he with hys compaignie to go awaye into hys owne countre: wherof when Jonathas had knowledge, he sent ambassytours vnto him, for to make peace with hym, and that he shoulde deliuer hym his prisoners agayne. To the whiche Barchides consented gladly, and byd accordynge to hys desyre: yee, and made an othe, that he shoulde neuer do hym harme all the dayes of his lyfe. So he restored vnto hym all the prisoners he had taken oute of the lande of Iuda, and then turned & went hys waye into hys owne lande, nether proceded he any further to come vnto the borders of Iuda. Thus Israel had nomore warre. And Jonathas dwelt at Gathamas, and beganne there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

Chapter.

Demetrius despyeth to haue peace with Jonathas. Alexander moneth warre agaynst Demetrius. Demetrius is slayne. The frendshipp of Ptolomeus and Alexander.

* To Sep. ca.
61...11.11.111.

In the hundred and thre scoze yere came Alexander the sonne of noble Antiochus and toke Ptolomeus, whose cytelys receaued hym, and there he ragued. When Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered an exceedynge great host and went forth agaynst him to fyght. Wherefore Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathas, with louyng wordes, & prayled him greatly. For he sayde: we will fyfth make peace with hym, before he bynde hym selfe with Alexander agaynst vs: elles he shal remembre he cruel that we haue done agaynst hym, his brother and his people. And so he gaue Jonathas leaue to gather an host, to make weapons, & to be confederate with hym, and commaunded the pledges that were in the castel to be deliuered vnto hym.

23 Then came Jonathas to Ierusalem, and red the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the castel. And therefore were they soze asrayde, because they hearde, that the kyng had geuen hym licence to gather an host. Thus were the pledges deliuered vnto Jonathas, whiche restored them to theyr elders. Jonathas also dwelte at Ierusalem, and beganne to builde vp, and to repayre the cytie: commaundynge the workmen to wall it, and the mount Symon rounde aboute wth fre stone, to be a stronge holde, and so they byd. As for the heathen that were in the Castelles whiche Barchides had made vp, they fled: so that euery man left the place, and went into his owne countre. Only at Bethlura remayned certayne of the Jewes, whiche had forsaken the lawe and commaundementes of God, for Bethlura was theyr refuge.

Nowe when kyng Alexander hearde of the promyses that Demetrius hadde made vnto Jonathas, and when it was tolde hym of the battelles and noble actes, whiche he and hys brethren had done, and of the greates traualles that they had taken, he sayde: where shall we fynde suche a man? Well, we will make hym our frende, and be confederat with hym. Upon this he wrote a lette vnto hym, wth these wordes: kyng Alexander saluteh hys brother Jonathas. We haue heard of the, & thou art a valeaunt man, and mete to be our frende: wherfore, thys daye we ordeyne the to be the hie preste of thy people, and to be called the kynges frende. Upon this, he sent him a purple cloyth, and a crowne of gold: that thou mayst conspyre what is for our pte C. Ept, and kepe frendshipp towarde vs.

So in the seuenth moneth of the hundred and thre scoze yere vpon the solempne fraste daye of the tabernacles, Jonathas put the holy rayment vpon hym. Then gathered he an host, and made many weapons. Whiche when Demetrius hearde, he was maruelous sorow, and sayde: Alas, what haue we done, that Alexander hath preuented vs in gettyng the frendshyppe of the Jewes, for hys owne defence?

Yet wyl I write louyngly vnto them also, yee, and promyse them dignities and rewardes, & they may be of my lyde. Whereupon he wrote vnto them these wordes: Kyng Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto the people of the Jewes. Where as ye haue kept your countaunt towarde vs, & contynued in our frendshipp, not enclinyng to our enemyes, we were glad, when we heard thereof. Wherefore, remayne still, & be saythful to vs: and we shall well recompense you for the thynges ye haue done on oure part: we shall releafe you of many charges, and geue you rewardes. And nowe I discharge you & all the Jewes fro tributes, I forgive you the customes of salt, and releafe you of the crowne taxes, of the thyrde parte of sede, & halfe of the frute of trees which is myne owne dewtye. These I leaue for you from this daye forth: so that they shal not be taken of the lande of Iuda, nor of the thre cyties whiche are added ther vnto oute of Samaria and Galilee, from this daye forth.

Jerusalem also w all thynges belonginge therto, shalbe holy and fre, pec, & thynges and trybutes shalbe payne vnto it. As for the power of the castell which is at Jerusalem, I remyt and geue it vnto s hye prest s he maye see in it suche men, as he shal chose to kepe it. I frely deliuer all the Jewes s are prisoners thowout all my realme: so s eue one of them shalbe fre fro paying any trybute, pec, euem of the s catell.

All the solempne feastes, Sabbathes, and moones, the dayes appoynted, the thre dayes before and after s feast, shalbe fre for all the Jewes in my Realme: so that in them no man shal haue power to do any thyng, or to moue any busynes agaynst any of them in any maner of cause. There shal chysty thousande also of the Jewes be wyttten by in the kynges booke, and haue the s wages payde as all other men of warre of the kynges shuld haue: and of them shal be ordeyned certayne to kepe the kynges stronge holdes: pec, and some of them shal be sette ouer the kynges busynesse, that they maye saythfully deale w the same. The Jewes also shal haue pynces of theyr owne, & walke in theyr owne lawes as the kyng hath commaunded in the land of Juda.

And the thre cyties that are fallen vnto Jewy from the countre of Samaria & Galilee: shal be taken as Jewy, and be vnder neither be subiect to any straunge Loyde, but to the hye prest. As for Ptolomais and the lande pretayninge therto, I geue it vnto the Sanctuarie at Jerusalem, for the necessaries of s holy thynges. Moreover, I wyll geue euerye yere sytten thousande syles of syluer oute of the kynges chequer, (whiche pertayneth vnto me) to the worke of the temple: pec, and loke what remayneth (whiche they that had our matters in hand in tymes past haue not payde,) the same shal I geue vnto them also. And besydes all this, the frut thousande syles whiche they take pely of the rentes of the Sanctuarie, shal belonge vnto the prestes that do serue.

Item, who soeuer they be that fle vnto s temple at Jerusalem or within the lybertyes thereof, where as they are fallen into the kynges daunger for any maner of busynes, they shalbe pardoned, and all the goodes that they haue in my realme, shalbe fre. For the buyling also and repayyng of the worke of the Sanctuarie, expenles shalbe geuen out of the kynges chequer: pec, and for the makynge of the walles rounde aboute Jerusalem, for the breakynge downe of the olde and for the setting up of the stronge holdes in Jewy, shal the colles and charges be geuen out of s kynges chequer.

* But when Ionathas and the people

hearde these wordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, nether receaued them: for they remembred the greates wyckednesse that he had done vnto Israel, and howe soe he had vexed them. Wherefore, they agreed vnto Alexander, for he was a Dynce s had dealte frendlye wth them, and so they stode by him alwaie. * Then gathered kyng Alexander a great host, and brought his army agaynst Demetrius. So the two kynges stroke battayle together, but Demetrius host fledde, and Alexander folowed after, and fell vpon them. A myghtye loze felde was it, continuinge tyl the Sonne went downe, and Demetrius was slayne the same daye.

And Alexander sent Ambassyours vnto Ptolomye the kyng of Egypte wth these wordes, sayinge: For so much as I am come agayne to my realme, and am set in the trone of my progenytours, and haue gotten the dominyon ouercommed Demetrius, conquered the lande, and streken felde wth hym, so that we haue dysconforted bothe hym and his host, and spt in the trone of his kyngdome. Lette vs nowe make frendshyppe together, geue me thy daughter to wyfe: so shal I be thy sonne in lawe, and both geue the rewardes, and her greates dygnitie. Ptolomye the kyng gaue answer, sayinge: Happy be the daye wherein thou art come agayne vnto the lande of thy progenytours, and sette in the trone of the s kyngdome. As nowe wyll I fulfyll thy wytyng: but mete me at Ptolomais, that we maye see one another, and that I maye mary my daughter vnto the: accordinge to thy desyre. So Ptolomye wente oute of Egypte wth his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolomais in the Cilicia. Where kyng Alexander mette hym, and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra, and maryed them at Ptolomais wth great worshippe, lyke as the maner of kynges is to be. Then wrote kyng Alexander vnto Ionathas, that he shuld come and mete hym. So he went honorably vnto Ptolomais, and there he met the two kynges, and gaue them greates presentes of golde and syluer, and founde fauoure in theyr syght. And there came together agaynst Ionathas certayne wycked men and vngacious persones of Israel, makynge complayntes of hym, but the kyng regarded them not. As for Ionathas, the kyng commaunded to take of his garmentes, and to clothe hym in purple: and so they byd. Then the kyng appoynted hym to sytte by hym, and sayde vnto his Dynces: Go wth hym into the myddest of the Cytie, and make a proclamation, that no man complayne agaynst hym of any matter and that no man trouble hym for any maner of cause.

So it happened, that when his accusers

In lawe

* Josephus
b. ii. c. xii.

G

The fyfth Booke.

* Joseph. ca.
vi. lib. xiii.
antiq.

* 1. Mac. xiii. a saw the worlshyppe which was proclaymed of hym, and that he was clothed in purple: they fled euerichone. And the kynge made muche of hym, wrote hym amonge his chiefe frendes, made hym a Duke, and partaker of his dominion. * Thus Jonathan went agayne to Jerusalem with peace and gladnes. In the xlv. yere came Demetrius sonne of Demetrius frome Creta into his fathers lande: wherof when Alexander hearde tel, he was ryght sorre, and returned vnto Antioche. And demetrius chose * Appollonius, (which had the gouernaunce of Celsyria) to be his captayne.

So he gathered a great hoost, and came vnto Jamnia, and sente worde vnto Jonathan þat he wold saye: Darest thou withstande vs thy self alone? As for me, I am but laughed to scorn and shamed, because thou prouedst thy strength agaynst vs in þe mountaynes. Nowe therfore, if thou trustest in thine owne strengthe, come downe to vs into the playne felde, and there lette vs proue our strength together: thou shalt fynde, that I haue valeaunt men of warre with me, and shalt knowe whom I am, & the other þat stand by me.

Which saye, that your fote is not able to stande before our face, for thy fathers haue bene twise chaled into thy owne land. And now, howe wylt þe be able to abyde so great an hoost of horsemen and fotemen in the feld where as is nether rocke, stone nor place to fle vnto?

When Jonathan heard the wordes of Appollonius, he was moued in his mynd: wherfore he chose ten thousand men, and went out of Jerusalem, and Symon his brother mette hym for to helpe hym: And they pitched their tentes at Joppa, but þe Cytie kept hym forth for Joppa was an holde of Appollonius: Then Jonathan layde seage to it, and they þe were in the Cytie, for very feare lette hym in and so Jonathan wanne Joppa. Appollonius hearpyng of this, toke thre thousande horsemen, wyth a greate hooste of fote, and wente as though he wold go to Azotus, and came immediatly into the playne felde: because he had so many horsemen, and put his truste in them. So Jonathan folowed vpon hym to Azotus, and there they stroke the battayle. Nowe had Appollonius left a thousande horsemen behynde them ppyely in the tentes. And when Jonathan knewe that suche wayte was layde behynde them, they went rounde aboute the enemyes hoost, and shot dartes at the people from the moynynge to the euenynge. As for Jonathan people, they kepte theyre ordre as he had commaunded them, and the enemyes horses were euer labouryng.

Then brought Simon forth his hoost, & set them agaynst the fotemen. For the hostmen were wery all ready. So he discomfyed them, and they fled. And they that were scattered in þe felde, gat them to Azotus, and came into the Temple of Dagon theyr Idoll, that they myght there saue theyr lyues. But Jonathan set fyre vpon Azotus and all the Cyties rounde about it, and toke theyr goodes and brent vp the temple of Dagon, wyth all them that were fled into it.

Thus were slayne and bzene well nre. viii. M. men. So Jonathan remoued the hoost from thence, and broughte them to Ascalon: where the men of the cytie came forth, & met hym with great worlshyppe. After this went Jonathan and his hoost agayne to Jerusalem, wyth great substance of good. And when kynge Alexander heard these thynges, he thought to do Jonathan more worlshyppe and sente hym a colar of golde, as the vs is to be geuen vnto suche as are of the kynge's next bloude. He gaue hym also the cytie of Accaron (with the landes belonging thereto) in posselion.

The xi. Chapter.

The discencion betwixt Demetrius and Alexander his sonne in lawe. The death of Alexander. Demetrius raggeth after the death of Demetrius. Jonathan is besieged of Jonathan. Demetrius trygeth that no man resisteth hym, sendeth his armye agayne. Symon moueth Antiochus agaynst Demetrius. Demetrius is depuared by the succour of Jonathan. After his depuaraunce he breaketh his cōmāntes that he had made.

Ad the kynge of Egypt gathered an hoost (lyke the lande that lieth vpon þe see thore) and many thys: * & went about thowowd to keate to optayne þe kyngdom of Alexander, & to tope it vnto his owne realme. Upon this he toke his iourney into Syria, & was letten into the Cyties, and men came forth to mete hym: for kynge Alexander had commaunded them so to do, because he was his father in lawe. Now when Demetrius entred into any Cytie, he lette men of warre to kepe it, and thys he dyd thowowe out all the cyties. And when he came to Azotus, they shewed hym the temple of Dagon and Azotus that was bzene vp, with the other thynges whiche were destroyed, the deade bodies cast abrode, & the graues that they had made by the waie syde, for such as were slayne in þe felde. And told the kyng that Jonathan had done al these thynges, to the end that they myght get hym euell wpll. But the kyng sayde not a worde therto. And Jonathan mette the kyng with greate honoure at Joppa, where they saluted one another, and toke their rest. So when Jonathan had gone with þe kyng vnto the water that was called Eleuthens he turned agayne to Jerusalem.

Nowe

Howe Ptolomey had gotten the domynyon of the cyties vnto Seleucia vpon the sea coast imagynynge wicked counceils agaynst Alexander, and sent ambassytours vnto Demetrius sayynge: Come let vs make a bond betweene vs, so shall I geue the my daughter Alexander hath, and thou shalt raygne in the fathers kyngdome. I repente that I gave Alexander my daughter, for he goeth about to slaye me. And thus he sleaundred Alexander, because he wolde haue hadde hys dynasty.

Thus he toke his daughter from hym, gave her vnto Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that hys malice was openly known. And Ptolomey came to Antioch, where he set two crownes vpon his owne head: the crown of Egypt and of Asia. In the meane season was kyng Alexander in Cilicia, for they that dwelt in those places, had rebelled agaynst hym. But when Alexander hearde of this, he came to warre agaynst hym. So kyng Ptolomey brought forth hys host and met hym with a myghty power, and chased hym awaye. Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended, and kyng Ptolomey hys honoure increased. And Zabbid the Arabian inuote of Alexanders heade, and sent it vnto Ptolomey. But the thyrde daye after, kyng Ptolomey hym selfe: & they whom he had let in the stronge holdes, were slayne of host that were within the cyties. And Demetrius raygned in the hundred & seven and thirtie yeare.

At the same tyme gathered Jonathan the sonne of Asahe, to laye siege vnto the castell whiche was at Jerusalem, and so they made many instrumentes of warre agaynst it. Then went there certayne vngodly per-sones (whiche hated theyr owne people) vnto kyng Demetrius: and tolde hym that Jonathan besieged the castell. So when he heard this, he was angry, and immediatly came vnto Ptolomeis, and wrote vnto Jonathan, that he shoulde not laye siege to the castell, but come and speake with hym in all the haste. Neuer-theless, when Jonathan hearde this, he commended to beleage it. He chose also certayne of the elders and prestes of Israel, and put hym self in the parrall, & toke with hym golde chaines, clothyng, and dyuerse presentes: and went to Ptolomeis vnto the kyng, and found hym gracious.

And though certayne vngodly men of his owne people made complayntes vpon hym, yet the kyng intreated hym, as like as hys predecessours had done before: and promoued hym in the syght of all his frendes: confirmed hym in the dyne presthood with all the worshippe he had afore, and made hym his chiefe friend. Jonathan also despyed the kyng, that he wolde make Jewry free, & wold the thre heade cyties of Samaria and the landes pertaynyng thereto: vpon this byd Jonathan promysed hym thre. C. talentes. Wher vnto the kyng consented, and gaue Jonathan writing of the same, conteynyng these wordes: Kyng Demetrius sendeth greetynge vnto his brother Jonathan and to the people of the Jewes. We send you here a copy of the lettre whiche we byd wrote vnto our elder Lathemus, concernynge you ye shoulde knowe it.

Kyng Demetrius sendeth greetynge vnto Lathemus hys elder. As for the sayd saluacione that our frendes the people of the Jewes kepe vnto vs, and for the louynge kyndnes whiche they beare towards vs: we are determyned to do them good. Wherfore, we ordeyne all the coastes of Jewry with thre cyties, Lydda, & Ramatha (whiche are added vnto Jewrye frome Samaria) and all the landes pertaynyng there vnto, to be freely separated for such as do sacrifice in Jerusalem: both concernyng the paymentes whiche the kyng toke yearely aforetyme, and the frutes also of the earth and trees. As for other tythes and tributes that belonged vnto vs, we discharge them therof from this tyme forth. In lyke maner we graunt vnto them all the customs of sale & crowne taxes, whiche were brought vnto vs. And this freedom shall they haue tyme and stedfast, from this tyme forth for euermore. Therfore, let that ye make a copy of these our letters, and deliuer it vnto Jonathan: that it maye be kept vpon the holy mount in a conuenient place.

After this, when Demetrius the kyng saw that his land was in rest, and that no resistance was made hym: he sent a waite all hys host, euery man to hys owne place, except an army of straungers, who he brought from the Isles of the heathen, wherfore all his fathers host had euill wyl at hym. & Howe was there one Triphon (who had bene of Alexanders parte afore) whiche when he saw that all the host murmured agaynst Demetrius he wote to Enualuel the Arabian (who brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander) & laye siege vpon hym, so deliuer hym this pong An-tiochus: that he might raygne in his fathers strate. He tolde hym also, what great euill Demetrius had done, and howe hys men of warre loued hym not: and so remayned there a longe season.

And Jonathan sent vnto kyng Demetrius, to bypue them out whiche were in the castell at Jerusalem, and in the other refuges, for they byd Israel greate harme. So Demetrius sent worde vnto Jonathan, sayynge: I wyl not only do these thyngs for the and the people, but at tyme conuenient I wyl do both the and the people great worshippe.
But now thou shalt do me a pleasure, if thou wylt sende me men to helpe me: for all myne I will aruise

The fyrst Booke

army is gone from me. So Jonathan let him there thousand strong men vnto Antioche, & they came vnto the kyng: wherfoze the kyng was very glad at theyr comyng. But they were of the cytie (euen an hundred & twentie thousand men) gathered them together: and wolde haue slayne the kyng, which fled into his court, & the cytyens kept the stretes of the cytie, and beganne to fygge.

Then the kyng called for the Jewes help which came vnto hym al together, and went abowde thowowe the cytie, and slew the same day an hundred thousand men, set fyre vpon the cytie, gat many spoiles in that daye, and deliuered the kyng. So when the cytyens sawe that the Jewes had gotten theyr wyll of the cytie, & they them selues dysapoynted of theyr purpose, they made their supplicacion vnto the kyng, saying: Graunt vs peace, and let the Jewes ceasse from troubling vs and the cytie, & vpon this they caste awaye theyr weapons. Thus they made peace, & the Jewes gat great woorthynesse in the syght of the kyng, and in the syght of all that were in his realme, & were spoken of thowow out of the kyng dome: and so they came agayne to Ierusalem with great goodes.

So the kyng Demetrius sat in the trone of his kyngdome, and had peace in his lande. Neuerthelesse, he dyscrembled in all that euer he spake, and withdrew hym selfe from Jonathan, nether rewarded hym accordyng to the benefytes which he had done for him, but troubled hym very sore. After this came Tryphon agayne with yonge Antiochus, whiche raygned and was crowned kyng.

Then there gathered vnto hym all the men of waere, whom Demetrius had put away: these fought agaynst Demetrius, which fled and turned his backe. So Tryphon toke the Elephantes, & wanne Antioche. And yonge Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathan, saying: I confyrme the in thy presthode, and make the ruler of .iiii. countrees, that I maye be a fred of the kynges.

Vpon this he sent hym golden vessels to be serued in, and gaue hym leaue to dyncke in golde, to be clothed in purple, and to weare a colar of golde. He made hys brother Simon also captayne, from the coastes of Tyrus vnto the borders of Egypt. Then Jonathan toke hys iourney, & went thowow the cyties beyond the water of Iordane, & all the men of warre of Syria gathered the vnto hym for to helpe hym. So he came vnto Alealon, & they of the cytie receaued him honorably, & from thence went he vnto Gaza, but they wolde not lette hym in: wherfoze he layde sege vnto it, buryng up and spoyllynge the places that were aboute the cytie.

And the cytyens of Gaza submytted the selues vnto Jonathan, which made peace w them, but toke of their sonnes to pledge, sent them to Ierusalem, and wente thowowe the countre vnto Damascus. Now when Jonathan heard that Demetrius & Synces were come into Cades (which is in Galilee) with a great host, purposynge to put Demetrius out from medlynge in the realme: he came agaynst them, and lefte Symon hys brother in the lande which came to Bethsura, & layde sege to it a longe season, and dyscomfyted the. So they desyred to haue peace with hym, whiche he graunted them, and afterwarde put them out from thence, toke the cytie and let men to kepe it. And Jonathan with hys host came to the water of Genesar, and by tymes in the moynynge gat them to the playne felde of Azor.

And behold, the hostes of the heathen mette them in the felde, and layde watche for them in the mountayns: so when Jonathan cam agaynst them, & other (which were layd to watche) rose out of theyr places & fought and they that were of Jonathan syde, fled euerly man, and there was not one of them left except Warathias the sonne of Absalomus and Judas the sonne of Calphi the captayne of the host. Then Jonathan rent hys clothes, layde earth vpon his heade, made his prayer and turned agayn to them in the felde: wher they fought together, & he put them to flight. Howe when hys owne men, that were fled, sawe this: they turned agayne vnto him and helped hym to folow vpon all theyr enemies vnto theyr tentes at Cades. So there were slayne of the heathen the same daye thre thousand men, and Jonathan turned agayne to Ierusalem.

The .xii. Chapter.

Jonathan sendeth Ambassadors to Rome and to the people of Sparta to renewe theyr couenant of frendshipp. Jonathan putteth to flight the prynces of Demetrius. Tryphon taketh Jonathan by dyscrete.

Jonathan seying that tyme was mete for hym, chose certayne men and sent the vnto Rome for to stablish the & to renewe the frendshyppe with them. He sent letters also vnto Sparta and to other places in lyke maner. So they wente vnto Rome, and entred into the counsell, and sayd: Jonathan the hye prest and the people of the Jewes sent vs vnto you, for to renewe the olde frendshyppe and bond of loue: Vpon this the Romaynes gaue them fre passportes, that men shuld leade them home into the lande of Iuda peaceably. And this is the copp of the letters that Jonathan wrote vnto the Spartians.

Jonathan the hye prest with the elders, prestes, and the other people of the Jewes, sende greetynge vnto the Spartians theyr brethren. There were letters sent longe ago vnto Demetrius the hye prest, frome Arius, which then raygned agreed amonge you: that ye are our brethren, as the wytyngge made ther vpon specified. And Onias entreated the ambassadour that was sent, honourablie, and recey-ued the letters: wherein there was mencyon made of the bonde of loue and frendshyppe.

But as for vs, we neede no such wytynges: for we haue the holy booke of scripture for our bandes to our comfoite. Neuerthelesse we had rather sende vnto you, for the remembrance of the brotherhode and frendshyppe: lest we shoulde be straunge vnto you: for it is longe since the tyme that ye sent worde vnto vs.
Wherefore, in the sacrifices that we offere and other ceremonies vpo the hie solempne dayes and other, we alwaye remembre you without ceasinge: (lyke as reason is, and as it be-cometh vs to thynke vpon oure brethren) yea, and are ryght glad of youre prosperous state.

And though we haue had great troubles and warres, so that the higes about vs haue broughten agaynst vs: yet wolde we not be griuous vnto you, nor to other of our louers and frendes in these warres. For we haue had helpe from heauen, so that we are deliue-red, and our enemies subdued. Wherefore we haue Sumenius the son of Antiochus, and his sister the sonne of Jadd, and sent them vnto the Romaynes, for to renewe olde bodeshipp and loue wth the. We commaunded them also to come vnto you, to salute you, & to deliuer you our letters, concernyng the re-membraunce of our brotherhode. And now ye shall wyte well to gyue vs an answer therevnto.

And this is the coppe of the wytyngge, which Arius the kynge of Sparta sent vnto Onias. Arius kynge of the Spartians sendeth gretyng vnto Onias the hie prest. It is founde in wytyngge, that the Spartians and Jewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham. And now we for so much as this is come to our knowledge, ye shall do well, to wyte vnto vs of youre prosperitie. As for vs, we haue wytted our mide vnto you. Our cattel & goodes are yours, & yours ours. These thynges haue we commaunded to be shewed vnto you.

When Jonathas herde, that Demetrius kynge was com forthe to fyghte agaynst him, with a greater hoste the afore, he went from Jerusalem, and met them in the lande of Bethan, for he gaue the no space to come into his owne countrie. And he sent spyes vnto the, thes, which came agayne and tolde him, that they were appoynted to come vpo him in the nyght season. Wherefore whē the same was gone downe Jonathas commaunded his men to watche all the nyght, and to be ready with weapons for to fyghte: and set watchmen rounde aboute the doore. But when the aduersaries herde that Jonathas was ready with his men to battayle, they feared, and were afrayed in theyr bettes, & kindled fyres in theyr tentes, brake vp, and gat the away. Neuerthelesse, Jonathas and his company knewe it not till the morninge, for they sawe the fyres burnynge.

Then Jonathas folowed vpo them, but he myght not ouertake them, for they were gone ouer the water Eleutherus. So Jona-thas departed vnto Arabias (which were called Zabadi) slew them, & toke theyr goo-des. He proceeded further also, and came vnto Damascus, and went thorow all the countre.
But whē his brother toke his iourney and came to Ascalon and to the next stronge holdes, departyng vnto Joppa: and wanne it. For he herde that they wolde stand of Demetrius part: wherefore he let mē of warre in the cytie, to kepe it. After this came Jona-thas home agayne, and called the elders of the people togyther: and deuyded with them for to buyde vpo the stronge holdes in Jewry, & the walles of Jerusalem, to set vp an hie wal betwixt the castel and the cytie, for to separate it from the cytie, that it myght be alone and that men shoulde neither byt nor sel in it.

Vpo this they came togyther for to build vpo the cytie, and for so much as the wall vpo the broke of the west syde (called Appetab) was fallen downe, they reparyed it: And Symon set vpo Abiadab in Sephelah, and made it stronge setting postes & lockes vpo it. Howe whē Triptho purposed to raygne in Asia, to be crowned, & to slaye the kynge Antiochus: he was afrayed that Jonathas wold not suffer him, but fyghte agaynst him.
Wherefore, he went about to take Jonathas and to kyll hym.

So he departed, and came vnto Bethlā.
Then went Jonathas forthe agaynst hym to the battayle with forty thousande chosen men, and came vnto Bethlan also. But whē Triptho sawe that Jonathas came wth so great an hoste to destroye hym, he was a-frayd: and therefore he receyued hym honou-rably, commaunded hym vnto al his frendes, and gaue hym rewardes, and commaunded his men of warre to be as obediēt vnto him as to hym selfe.

And sayd vnto Jonathas: why hast thou caused this people to take such trouble, seinge there is no warre betwixt vs? Therefore sende the home agayne, & chose certayne men to wayte vpo the, and come thou with me to Beolomais: for I will gyue it the, wth the other stronge holdes, men of warre and their officers: As for me, I must depart, this is onely the cause of my comyng. Jonathas belieued hym, and vpo as he sayde, puttyng awaye his hoste, which went into the lande of Iuda. He kept but. iii. d. by hym, wher-of he

*1. mac. 5. c.
Joseph. ca.
151. lib. 104.

The. i. booke

of he sent. ii. M. into Galile, & one thousande went with hym selfe.

Nowe as loone as Ionathas entred into Belomaïs, the cytyens sparrd the gates of the cytie, and tooke hym, and slewe all them with the swerde, & came in with hym. Then sent Triphon an host of footmen and horsemen into Galilee and into the greete playne felde, to destrope all Ionathas company. But when they knew that Ionathas was taken: and all they sayne that wayted vpon hym, they toke counsaill together, and came forth ready to the Battayl. So when they which folowed vpon the, sawe that it was a matter of lyfe, they turned backe agayne. As for the other, they wente into the lande of Iuda peaceably, & betwaped Ionathas, and them that were with hym eynge soze. And Israel made great lamentation. Then all the hepten that were rounde about them sought to destrope the. For they sayd: nowe haue they no Captayne, nor anye man to helpe them. Therefore, let vs ouercome the, and roote out theyr name from amonge men.

The. xiii. Chapter.

After Ionathas was taken, Symon is chosen captayne, of whom Triphon taking his chyldren and moneys for the redemption of Ionathas, kyllid hym and his chyldren. The graue of Ionathas. Triphon kyllid Antiochus, and possideth the realme.
Demetrius taketh trespasse with Symon. Symon winneth Gaza. He possideth the towne of Symon. He marrieth his sonne Jhon captayne.

Nowe when Symon herde & Triphon gathered a great host to come into the lande of Iuda, and to destrope it: and sawe that the people was in great fearfulnesse and care: he came vp to Jerusalem, and gathered the people together, and gaue them exhortation, sayinge: Ye knowe what greete battayles I and my brethren and my fathers house haue fought for the lawe and the Sanctuarie, and what maner of troubles we haue sente: thorow occasion whereof, * all my brethren are slayne for Israels sake, and I am lefte aloone. And now let me not spare myne owne lyfe in any maner of trouble, for I am not better the my brethren: but will anenge my people and the Sanctuarie, our chyldren and our wyues: for all the hepten are gathered together to destrope vs of very malysce.

At these wordes the bettes of the people were kyndled together, so that they cryed w a loude voyce, sayinge: Thou shalt be oure captayne in steepe of Judas and Ionathas thy brethren, or else thou our battayl, & what so euer thou commaundest vs, we shall do it. So he gathered all the men of warre, makinge haste to finish all the walles of Jerusalem, which he made stronge rounde about. Then sente he Ionathas the sonne of Absa-lonus with a fresh host vnto Joppa, which droue them oute that were in the castell, and remayned there hym selfe. Triphon also remoued fro Belomaïs with a greete armye, to come into the lande of Iuda, & Ionathas with hym in warde. And Symon pytched his tentes at Iddus befoze the playne felde.

But when Triphon knewe that Symon stode vp in steepe of his brother Ionathas, & that he wolde warre agaynst hym: he set met segers vnto him, saying: Where as we haue kept Ionathas thy brother, it is for moneys that he is owynge in the kynges accompt, concerning the busynesse that he had in Idd. Therefore, sende nowe an. C. talentes of silver, and his two sonnes for suretye, that whi he is letten forth, he shall not forsake vs, and we shall sende hym agayne. Nevertheless, Symon knewe, that he dissembled in his wordes: yet commaunded he the moneys and chyldren to be deliuered vnto hym: lest he shulde be the greater enemye agaynst the people of Israel: and sape, because he sente hym not the moneys and the chyldren, therefore is Ionathas deed.

So Symon sent him the chyldren and an hundred talentes, but he dissembled, & wolde not let Ionathas go. Afterwarde came Triphon into the lande to destrope it, and went rounde about by the way, that leadeth vnto Idd. But wheresoever they went, theyther went Symon and his host also: slow they that were in the castell, sent messengers vnto Triphon, that he shulde make haste to come by the wyldernes, and to sende them bytayles. And Triphon made ready all his host to come the same night. Nevertheless it was a verye greete snowe, so that he came not in Gaaladithim. And when he dretwe npe Balthama, he slewe Ionathas and his sonnes there, and then turned for to go home into his owne lande.

Then sent Symon for to fet his brothers deede coorse, and buryed it in Modin his fathers cytie. So all Israel betwaped hym w greete lamentation, and mourned for hym very longe. And Symon made vpon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren, a buildinge hye to loke vnto, of fre stone behynde and befoze, & set vp leue pylers, one agaynst another: for his father, his mother and four brethren, and set great pylers rounde about, with armes vpon them for a perpetuall memozye, and carued shippes be the armes that they myght be seene of men saypinge in the see. This sepulchre whiche he made at Modin, standeth yet vnto this dape.

* Nowe as Triphon went forth to walke w the ponge kyng Antiochus, he slewe him trapterously, and ragened in his steepe, crowning hym selfe kyng of Asia, and dyd much euill in the lande. Symon also buyt vp the castles

* 1. M. ac. vi. c.
cf. b. xiv. b castles in Jewry, makinge the stronge with towers, great walles, portes and lockes and layed vp vntayles in þe stronge holdes.

And Simon chose certayne men, & sent them to kynge Demetrius: to despye hym, that he wolde discharge the lande from al bondage, for Tripho had spoyled it very soze. Whereupon Demetrius the kynge answered hym, and wrote vnto hym after this maner.

Demetrius the kynge sendeth gretyng vnto Symon the hye preest his frende, with the elders & people of the Jewes. The golden crowne and precyous stone that ye sente vnto vs, haue we receyued: and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you: yea, and to write vnto oure officers, for to release you, concernyng the thynges wherein we made poultre: and the appoyntment that we make with you, shalbe fytme & stable. The stronge holdes which ye haue buylded, shalbe poure downe. As for anye ouersyghte of faute com-mytted vnto this daye, we forgyue it: and þe same tax that ye oughte vs also. And where as was anye other trespase in Jerusalem, it shall now be no tribute: and loke who are mete amonge you to be in oure court, let them be written vp, that there may be peace betwixt vs.

Thus the yoke of the hepythen was take off Israel in the hundred and leuenteth yere.
And the people of the Jewes began to write in their letters and actes on this maner. * In the xxiij. yere of Symon the hye preest, and prync of the Jewes.

In those dayes wote Symon vnto Gaza, and besieged it round about, where he set up ordinaunce of warre. And wanne a towne, whiche he toke. So they that gat into the towne leapt into the cytie, whiche was in a great feare: In so moche that the people of the cytie rente theyr clothes, and clymed vp vpon the walles with theyr wpues, & chyliden, beseechyng Symon to be at one with them, sayyng.

Ouerwarde vs not after our wicke dnelle but be gracious vnto vs, and we shal do the same. Then Symon for very pytie wolde lyght nomore agaynst them, but put them out of the cytie, and caused the houses (where the ymagis were) to be clenled, and so en-terd the cytye with psalmes of prayse, gy-ng thankes vnto the Lord. So when he had cast all abhominacions out of the cytie, he set such men in it as kept the lawe of God and made the cytye stronge, and buylded a stronge place for hym selfe.

Now, when they in the castell at Jerusalem were kepte so straitly, that they coude not come forth into the countrey, and myght neither bye nor sel: they were very hungrye, and many of them famished to deathe: In so moche that they besought Symon to be at one with them, which he graunted them. So he put them out from thence, and clenled the castell from fylthyngesse. And vpon the xxiij. day of the seconde moneth in the. Cxxij. yere they entred into it with thankesgyuing and braunches of palme trees, with harpes, croudes, tymbals and lutes, synng psalmes, and songes of prayse vnto God, for that the great enemye of Israel was overcome.

And Symon ordeyned that the same day shoulde be kepte euery yere in gladnesse, and made stronge the hyl of þe temple that was besyde the castell, where he dwelte hym selfe with his company. Simon also percepyng that Ihon his sonne was a myghty man of armes, made hym captayne of al the hostes and caused hym to dwel at Gaza.

The xxiij. Chapter.

Demetrius is overcome of Artaces. Symon beinge captayne, there is greace quereynesse in Israel. The couenaunce of frendshipp with the Romaynes & with the people of Sparta is renewed.

In the Cxxij. yere gathered kynge Demetrius his host, and departed vnto Media, to get hym helpe for to fyght agaynst Triphon.

Now when Artaces the kynge of Persia and Media herd, that Demetrius was entred in his borders, he sente one of his princes, to take hym alyue: and to bryng him vnto him.
So he wente and slewe Demetrius hoste, toke him self, bryngt him to Artaces which kept hym in warde. And all the lande of Juda was in rest, so longe as Symon lyued: for he sought the wealth of his people, therefore, were they glad to haue hym for theyr ruler, & to do hym worshipp alwaye.

Symon wanne the cytie of Joppa also for an haueu towne, and made it an entreance into the Iles of the see. He enlarged þe borders of his people, and conquered the more lande: he gat hered vp manye of theyr people that were prisoners: he had the dominion of Gaza, Bethsura and the castell, whiche he clen-led from fylthyngesse, and there was no man that resisted hym: So that euery man tyllid his grounde in peace, the lande of Juda, and the trees gaue theyr frute and encrease. The elders sat al in iudgement, and toke theyr deuyce for the wealth of the land: the yonge me put on worshippe and harnesse vpon them.
He prouyded vntayles for the cyties, & made goodlye stronge holdes of them: so that the fame of his worshipp was spoken of vnto þe ende of the worlde. * For he made peace throrowout þe lande, and Israel was ful of myght and ioye.

Euery man sat vnder his vyne and figtrees, and there was noman to feare them awaye. There was none in the lande to fyght agaynst the, for then the kynges were overcome.

* 2. cor. xxi. 1. a.
iii. reg. xi. a.

The. i. booke

come. he helped those that were in aduersite amonge hys people, he was diligente to se þ lawe kept: as for such as were vngodly and wycked, he toke them awaye. he set vp the Sanctuary, and encreased the holy vessels of the temple.

When the Romaynes and Sparcians had gotten worde, that Ionathas was deed they were ryght soyr. But when they herde that Symo his brother was made hys prest in hys steade, & how he had wonne the lande agayne with the cyties in it: they wrote vnto hym in tables of brasse, to renue the frendshipp, & bonde of loue, whych they had made afore with Judas: and Ionathas hys bretheren. Whych wyptynges were red before the congregacion at Jerusalem.

And this is the copy of the letters, that the Sparcians sent: The Senatours and cytelers of Sparta sende gretynge vnto Symo þ great prest, with the elders, prestes, & the other people of the Jewes they brethren: When your ambassytours that were sente vnto oure people, certifyed vs of your worshippe, honoure and prosperous wealth: we were glad of theyr commynge, & haue wypten the earande whych they spake before the counsel of the people: namely, that Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Jason the Jewes ambassytours are come vnto vs, for to renue the olde frendshipp with vs. Upon this the people consented, that the men shuld be honorably intreathed, and that the copy of theyr earande shuld be wypten in the specyal bookes of the people, for a perpetuall memoire vnto the Sparcians: yea, and that we shulde sende a coppe of the same vnto Symo the great prest. After this Symo sent Numenius vnto Rome, with a golden shylde of a thousande pounde weyght, to cofirme þ frendshipp wth the: which whē the Romaynes vnderstode, they sayde: what thanks shal we receiue agayne vnto Symo & his chyldren? For he hath stablished his brethren, & ouercome þ enemies of Israel. Wherefore they graunted hym to be free. And all they wrote the Jewes in tables of brasse, & nayled it vnto þ pillars vpo þ mount Syon. The coppe of the wyptynge is this.

* August.

The .xviii. daye of þ moneth: Elul in the .Cxxii. yere in þ thyrty yere of Symo þ hys prest, in þ great cōgregacion the prestes, rulers of þ people, & elders of þ cōltre at Asaramē, were these wordes openly declared.

For so much as there was much warre in our lande, therfore Simon the sonne of Mathathias (come of the chyldren of Iareb) and hys brethren put them selues in parell, and resysted the enemyes of theyr people: þ theyr Sanctuary & lawe myght be maynteyned, and vpo theyr people great worshippe: Ionathas in lyke maner, after that he had gouerned his people and ben theyr hys prest: dyed, and lyeth buryed besyde his elders.

After that wolde theyr enemyes haue troden theyr holy thynges vnder fote, destroyed theyr lande, and vsterly wasted theyr Sanctuary. Then Symon withstode them, and fought for his people, spent much of his owne money, weaponed the valeaunte men of hys people, gaue them wagies, made stronge the cities of Iuda, with Bethsura that lieth vpo the borders of Jewry (where the ordinaunce of theyr enemyes lape somtyme) and let Jewes there for to kepe it.

He made fast Joppa also, which lyeth vpo the see, & Gaza that boordeth vpon Asotus, (where þ enemyes dwelt afore) & there he let Jewes to kepe it: and whatsoeuer was mete for the subduynge of the aduersaries, þ layed he therein. Now whē the people sawe the noble actes of Symon, and what worshippe he purposed to do for the, his godly behauiour, & saythfulnesse which he kepte vnto the, and how he fought by all wayes the welth of his people, bycause he dyd all this, therfore they chose him to be theyr prince & hys prest. And in his tyme they prospered well by hym, so þ the heythen were take out of theyr lande: & they also which were in þ cytie of Daud at Jerusalem in the castell (where they went out and despyled all thynges that were about the Sanctuary, and vpo great harme vnto clemynesse) and Simon put men of the Jewes in it, for the defence of the lande and cytie, and set vp the walles of Jerusalem.

And kynge Demetrius confyrmid him in his hys presthode, made hym his frēde, & vpo hym great worshippe. For he herde that the Romaynes called the Jewes theyr frenedes, louers & brethren, how honourably they receyued Symons ambassadours: how the Jewes and prestes consented that he shulde be their prince & hys prest perpetually (tyll God rapled vpo the true prophete) & that he shoulde be theyr captayne to care for the Sanctuary, & to set offycers vpon the workes therof, ouer the lande, ouer þ weapōs, ouer the houses of defence, to make prouisiō for the holpe thynges, & to be obeyed of euery man, & al þ wyptynges of þ land to be made in his name: that he shulde be clothed in purple & golde, & that it shulde be lawfull for none of the people nor prestes to breake any of these thynges, to stande his wordes, nor to call any congregacion in the lande without hym: that he shulde be clothed in purple, & weare a colar of gold: And yf there were anye whiche disobeyed or brake this ordinaunce þ he shulde be punished.

So all the people consented to allowe Symon, and to do accordynge to these wordes: Symon also hym selfe toke it vpon him, and was content to be the hys prest, the captayne and prince of the Jewes and prestes, and to gouerne putteth them all. And they commaunded to make this wyppynge in tables of brasse, and fasten it vnto the compasse of the Sanctuary in an open place: and lape vp a coppe of þe same in the tresurye, that Symon and his posteritie myght haue it.

¶ The xv. Chapter.

Antiochus maketh a covenante of friendship with the Jews, & Triphon is persecuted. The Romaynes wyte letters vnto kynge and nations in the defence of the Jews. Antiochus refusynge the helpe that Symon sent hym, breaketh his covenante.

Moreouer kynge Antiochus þe sonne of Demetrius sente letters from þe Isles of the see, vnto Symon the hye preeist & pryncce of the Jewes, & to all the people, conteynyng these wordes: Antiochus the kynge sendeth greetynge vnto Symon the hye preeist and to the people of the Jewes. For so much, as certayne wycked men haue gotten þe kingdom of our progenitours, I am purposed to chalenge þe realme agayne, and to restore it to the olde estate.

Wherfore, I haue gathered a greate host and made shippes of warre, þe I may go thowyn the countrey, & be auyged of the whiche haue destroyed our lande, and wasted many ciyties in my realme. And therfore, nowe I make the fre also fro al þe tributes, wherof al kynge my progenitours haue discharged þe: and fro other customes (where fro they haue taked the) whatsoeuer they be: yea, I gyue þe to mynste moneye of thynne owne wynde. As for Jerusalem, I wyll that it be holy and fre: & all the weapons and houses of defence, which thou hast buyled, & kept in thynne handes, shalbe thynne. Where as any thing is or shalbe owynge vnto the kynge, I forgyue it the, fro this tyme forth for ever more. And wher we haue obtayned our kingdom, we shall do the, thy people and the temple great worship: so þe poure honour shalbe knowne thowout the whole worlde.

In the Cxxiii. yere went Antiochus into his fathers lande, and all the men of warre came togyther vnto hym, so that fewe were left with Triphon. So the kynge Antiochus folowed vpon hym, but he fled vnto Doza, which lyeth by the see syde: for he saw þe there was myschance comynge vnto hym, & that his land had forsake hym. The came Antiochus vnto Doza with an C. and twety thousande men of armes vpon foote, & eyght thousande horsemen. So he compassed the cytie rounde about, and the shippes came by the see. Thus they beset the cytie by lande & by water, in such maner that they suffred nomā to go in nor out.

In the meane season came * Flumenius (and they þe had ben with hym) from the citie of Rome, haupyng letters wyrtten vnto the kynge and prynces, wherin were conteyned these wordes: Lucius þe mayre of Rome sendeth greetynge vnto Ptolomy the kynge. The ambassadours of the Jewes our frendes beinge sent from Symon the hye preeist, and from the people of the Jewes, came vnto vs for to renue the olde frendshipp and bonde of loue, brought a mynde of golde weying a C. pounde, which we were content to receiue of the. Wherfore, we thought it good to wyrtte vnto the kynge and prynces, to doo them no harme, nor to take parte agaynst them, they: cyties nor countreies, neyther to mayntayne they: enemyes agaynst them. If there be any wycked personnes therfore, fled from they: countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Symon the hye preeist, that he maye punish them accordyng to they: owne lawe.

The same wordes wrote the Romaynes also vnto Demetrius the kynge, to Attalus, Araba, Arsaces and to all regions: as Samanians, to the of Sparta Delo, Mido, Sidon Caria, Sarnos, Pamphilia, Lycia, Alucarnassum, and to the Rhodes, to Faselis, Coo, Sidon, Arado, Gortina, Cnidum, to Cypres and Cyren. And of euerye letter they sente a coppe to Symon the hye preeist and to the people of the Jewes. So Antiochus the kynge brought his host vnto Doza the second tyme to take it: where he made byuers ordynauce of warre, and kept Triphon in, that he shoulde not come forth. The sent Symon to Antiochus two thousande chosen men to helpe him with golde, syluer and other plectious geere: wherwith he, he wolde not receiue the, but brake al the covenante which he made wth Symon afore, & withdrew him self from hym.

He sent Athenobius also a frende of his vnto Symon, for to reason with him, sayng: Be withhold fro me Joppa & Gaza (with the castel that is at Jerusalem) which are cyties of my realme, whose borders pe haue destroyed, and done great euyl in the lande, hauing the dominacyon in many other places of my kyngdome. Wherfore deliuer nowe þe cyties which pe haue taken, with þe trybutes of the places that pe haue rule vpon without þe borders of Jewry: Or els gyue me fyue hundred talentes of syluer: yea, & for the harme that pe haue done in þe cyties, & for the trybutes of the same, other fyue hundred talentes. If no, we shall come and fyght agaynst you.

So Athenobius the kynge's frende came to Jerusalem, & wher he sawe the grete worship and honour of Symon in golde, syluer, & so great plente of ornaments: he maruailed, and tolde Symon as þe kynge commaunded hym: Then answered Symon and sayd vnto hym: * As for vs, we haue neyther takē other mens lades, nor withholde the, but onely our fathers heritage, whiche oure enemyes had vnyghtouslye in possession a certayne tyme. This heritage of oure fathers haue we chalenged in proccesse of tyme. And where

* Just. xi. c. d.

The. ii. booke

where as thou cōplaynest concerninge Ioppa and Gala, they dyd greate harme to oure people and in our lande, yet wyl we gyue an hundred talentes for them.

Reuerthelesse, A thenobius answered him not one worde, but turned agayne wrothfully vnto the kynge, & tolde hym all these wodes, and the great dignitie of Symon, with all that he had sene, and the kynge was very angrye. In the meane tyme fled Triphon by hysse vnto Ditholaida. Then the kynge made Cendebeus captayne of the see coast, & gaue hym an host of foote men and horsmen, commaundynge hym to remoue the host to-warde Jewrye, and to buylde vp the ctye of Cedron, to make vp the portes, and to warre agaynst the people of the Jewes. As for the kynge hym selfe: he folowed vpon Triphon So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia, and be-ganne to bere the people, to treade downe Jewrye, to take þ people prisoners, to slaye them, and * to buylde vp Cedron: where he set horsmen and other men of warre, that they myght come forth and go thowre the streets of Jewrye, lyke as the kynge had commaunded hym.

The. xvi. Chapter.

Cendebeus the captayne of Antiochus dook so put to sight of the sonnes of Symon Ptolomeus the sonne of Abobus killeth Symon & his. ii. sonnes at a banquet Whon killeth them that tye in warre for his lyfe.

Ihen came Ihon vp from * Gaza, & tolde Symon his father, what Cē-debeus hadde doone amonge they people. Upon this, called Symon two of his eldest sonnes, Judas and Ihon, & sayde vnto them: I and my brethren and my fathers house, haue euer from oure youth vp vnto this day foughten agaynst the enemies of Israel, and God gaue vs good fortune to delyuer Israel oft tymes. And now for so moche as I am olde, be ye in stede of me & my brother, to go forth and fyght for our people and the help of God be with you. So he chose xx. v. fyghtynge men of the countrey, with horsmen also, which went forth agaynst Cē-debeus, and rested at Modin.

In the mornynge they arose, and went in to the playne felde: and beholde, a myghty great host came agaynst them, both of fote men and horsmen. Now was there a water brooke betwyxte them, & Ihon remoued the host towarde them. And when he sawe that the people was afrayed to go ouer the water brooke, he went ouer fyrst hym selfe: and the men seing this, folowed hym.

Then Ihon set his horsmen and fotemen in order, the one by the other, for theyr enne-mies horsmen were very many. But when they blew vnto the prestes trompettes, Cendebeus fled w his host, whereof many were slayne, and the remnaunte gat them to theyr stronge holde. Judas also Ihdas brother was wounded at the same tyme. And Ihon folo-wed spyll vpon the ennemyes, tyll he came to Cedron: which he buylde. The enemies fled also vnto towres that were in the felde of Azotus, & those dyd Ihon burne vp. Thus there were slayne two. M. men of them, and Ihon turned agayne peaceably to Jewrye.

And in the felde of Jericho was Ptolomy the sonne of Abobus made captayne: whiche because he had aboundaunce of syluer, and golde (for he had marped þ daughter of Symon the hye prest) waxed proud in his minde, and thought to conquere the lande, pmagnyng falsly agaynst Symon and his son-nes, to destrope them. Now as Symon was goinge aboute thowre the ctyes, that were in the countrey of Jewrye, and carryng for the:
he came downe to Jericho with Nathatias and Judas his sonnes, in the C. lxxv. yere in the. xi. moneth called * Sabat. Then Ptolomy the sonne of Abobus receyued the (but with discepte) into a strong house of his, called Doch, whiche he had buylde, where he made them a banquet.

So when Symon and his sonnes were mercy and had drunk well, Ptolomy stode vp with his men (whome he had byd there) and toke theyr weapons, entred into the ban-ket house, and slewe Symon with his two sonnes, and certayne of his seruantes. Such greate vnfaithfulness dyd Ptolomy in Israel, and recompenced euill for good. Then wrote this Ptolomy þ same vnto kyng An-tiochus, requyring him, that he shoulde sende hym an host to helpe him: and so shoulde he de-lyuer hym the lande, with the ctyes and tributes of the same. He sent other men also vnto Gaza, for to take Ihon: and wrote vnto þ captaynes to come to hym, and he shoulde gyue them syluer, golde and rewardes. And to Jerusalem he sent other, to take it, and the Sanctuarie.

Then came there one before, and tolde Ihon in Gaza, that his father & his brethren were slayne, and how that Ptolomy had st-to slaye hym also. When Ihon herde this, he was sore abashed, and laped handes of them that were come to destrope hym, & slew them for he knewe, that they went aboute to kyll hym.

As for other thynges concernynge Ihon: of his warres, of his noble actes (wherein he behaued hym selfe manfully) of the building of walles which he made, and other of his de-des: They are writen in þ chronicles of his presthode, from the tyme forth that he was made hye prest after his father.

The ende of the fyrst booke of the Machabees.

The

The seconde booke
of the Machabees.

The fyrst Chapter.

The Epistle of the Jewes that dwelt at Jerusalem, sent unto them that dwelt in Egypt: wherein they sheweth them to give thanks for the death of An-tichus. Of the fyre that was hyd in the pye. The prayer of Nehemias.

The brethren of the Jewes whiche be at Jerusalem, and in the lande of Jewrye, with unto those brethren of the Jewes that are thowout Egypt: good fortune, health, and peace.

God be gracious unto you, and thynke upon his covenante whiche he made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob his faythfull servants: and gyve you all suche an herte, that ye may love & serve hym: yea, and perfourme his will with an whole herte, and of a wyllyng mynde. He open youre hertes in his love and in his commaundementes, send you pace, heare your prayers, be at one with you and neuer forsake you in tyme of trouble.

This is here our prayer for you.

What tyme as Demetrius raygned, in Christe yere, we Jewes wrote unto you in the moble and violence that came unto vs. In those yerres, after that Jason departed out of the holy lande and kyngdome, they bent up the postes, and shed innocent bloude. Then made we our prayer unto the Lorde, & were hearde: we offered, and lyghted the candels, kynged for the cakes and bread: * And now come ye unto the feast of tabernacles in the moneth: Cassen.

In the Cxxxviii. yere, the people that was at Jerusalem and in Jewrye, the coun-tyll and Judas hym self, sent this wholsome salutation unto Aristobolus kyng of Idomatar, which came of the generacion of the anointed prestes: and to the Jewes that were in Egypt: In so moche as God hath deliuered vs from grete perilles, we thanke hym bygdlpe. In that we respited so longe a kyng. And why he brought me out of Persia by heapes, to fyght agaynste him and the holy cytie. For as he was in Persia (namelye, the Captayne with the grete host) he perished in the temple of Aneas, because he deceyued thowowe the deuyce of A-neas prestes. For as he was purposed to come dwelt there, Antiochus and his frendes came thither, to receyue moche moneye for a dowry. So when Aneas prestes had layed forth the money, he entred with a smal company into the compasse of the temple, and so they shut the temple.

Now when Antiochus entred by opening the pryncipall entrance of the temple, the prestes stoned the captayne to death, bewed them in peres that were with hym, smote of their bedes, and threw them out. In all thinges God be praised, which hath deliuered the wicked into our handes.

Where as we are now purposed to kepe the purification of the temple upon the xxv. daye of the moneth Cassen, we thoughte necessarye to certifie you thereof: that ye also myghte kepe the tabernacles feast day, and the daye of the fyre, whiche was gyuen vs, when Nehemias offered, after that he had set up the temple and the altar. For what tyme as our fathers were led awaye unto Persia the prestes (which then sought the honour of God) toke the fyre purelye from the altar and hyd it in a valley, where as was a deepe dyke pyt: and therein they kepte it, so that the place was unknowen unto every man.

Nowe after many yerres when it pleased God that Nehemias shoulde be sente frome the kyng of Persia, * he sente the chyldres chyldren of those prestes (which had hyd the fyre) to seke it. And as they tolde vs they founde no fyre but thynke water. Then commaunded he them to drawe it up, & to bypne it hym, and the offrynges withal. Nowe whē the sacrificies were layed on and offered, the preast Nehemias commaunded to spynkle them and the wood with water. When this was done, & the tyme come that the sunne shone, whiche afore was hyd in the cloude: there was a great fyre kyndled. In so moche that every man maruailed. Nowe al the prestes prayed, whyle the sacrifice was a makyng. Ionathas prayed fyrst, and the other gaue answere.

And Nehemias prayer was after this maner: O Lorde God maker of all thynges, thou fearefull and stronge, thou ryghteous and mercyfull, thou that arte onely a gracous kyng, onelye lyberall, onelye iuste, Al-myghty and everlastyng, thou that deli-uerest Israel from all trouble, thou that hast chosen the fathers, and halowed the: receyue the offrynges for the whole people of Israel, preserue thyn owne poeple, and halowe it, gather thole together, that are scatred abrode frome vs: deliuer them that are vnder the heythens bondage, loke vpon them whiche are despyed and abhorred, that the heythen maye knowe and se, how that thou art oure God: Dymysse them that oppresse, & proudelye put vs to dishonour. Set thy people a-gayne in thy holy place: like as Moses hath spoken.

And the prestes songe psalmes of thankefpyng, so longe as the sacrifice endured.
Nowe when the sacrifice was bynt, Nehemias commaunded the grete doones to be spynkled with the residue of the water:

* Which whē it was done, there was kyndled a flame

* Gen. xlii. 8
Num. xxi. 8
iii. 23. b. c

* Gen. vi. 8 1. a. 1. b. c
D

* Deu. xxx. 8

* Jud. vi. 8
1. a. 1. b. c
Eccl. xlii. 8

The. ii. booke

a flame of them also : but it was consumed, thowwe the lyght, that shyned fro the alter. So when this matter was knowen, it was told the king of Persia, that in þ place where the prestes whiche were led awaye, had hyd fire, there appeared water in the stede of fyre: and that Nehemias and his companye, had purifyed the sacrificyes withall. Then the kynge consydryng and pondyng the matter diligently, made hym a temple to proue the thyng that was done. And when he founde it so in dede, he gaue the prestes many gyftes and dyuers rewardes: yea, he toke the with his owne hande and gaue them. And Nehemias called the same place Nehptar, which is as moche to saye, as a clemencyng: but many men call it Nehpi.

The. ii. Chapter.

How Jeremy hyd the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter in the hill. Of the fyve bookes of Jason continued more.

* 11. Mach. 1. c.
* 3. c. xxix. b
* Marc. vi. a

It is founde also in the wytynges of Jeremy the prophet, that he commaunded the whiche were caried away, to take fyre, * as it is sayd afore. * He commaunded them also, þ they shuld not forget the lawe and commaundementes of the Lorde, and that they shoulde not erre in theyr myndes, whē they se ymages of syluer and golde with theyr ornaments. These & such other thynges commaunded he them, and exhorted them, that they shoulde not let the lawe of God go out of theyr hertes.

Den. xxxix. a

It is wyrtten also, how the prophet (at the commaundement of God) charged them to take the tabernacle & the arke with them: and he wente forth vnto the mountayne, where Moles clymed vp, * and sawe the herptage of God. And whē Jeremy came there he founde an open caue, wherein he leyed the tabernacle, the arke, and the aulter of incense, and so stopped the hole. Ther came certayne men togyther also folowynge him, to marke the place, but they could not fynde it. Which when Jeremy perceyued, he reprovod them, sayinge: As for that place, it shalbe unknowne, vntyll the tyme that God gather hys people togyther agayne, and receue them vnto mercy. Then shall God shewe them these thynges, and the maiestye of the Lorde shall appeare, * and the cloude also lyke as it was shewed vnto Moles: and lyke as when Salomon despyed, that the place myght be sanctified, and it was shewed hym.

* 2. Ro. vii. b
* 1. c. viii. b

For he beinge a wysse man, handled honourably & wysely, offeryng vnto God in the halowynge of the temple, when it was synulshed. * And lyke as whē Moles prayed vnto the Lorde, the fyre came downe from heauē, and consumed the burnt offeryng: Euen so, prayed Salomon also, * and the fyre came downe from heauen, and consumed þ burnt offeryng. And Moles sayd: bycause the syn-offeryng was not eaten, therfore is it consumed. In lyke maner Salomon kept the dedication (of halowynge) eynht dayes.

In the Annotacions and wytynges of Jeremye, were these thynges put also: and how he made a lybzarpe, and how he gathered out of all countreys the bookes of the prophetes, of Dauid, the Epistles of the kynges and of the prestes. Euen so Judas also, loke what he learned by experience of warre and suche thynges as hath happened vnto vs, he gathered them altogether, and so we haue them by vs: ¶ If ye nowe desyre to haue the same, sende some body to fetch the vnto you. Where as we then are about to celebrate the purifcation, we haue wyrtten vnto you. Therfore, ye shall do well, if ye kepe the same dayes. We hope also, that the God (whiche deliuered his people, and gaue them all the herptage, kyngdome, priesthode, and Sanctuarpe, * that he prompted them in the lawe) shall shortlye haue mercy vpon vs, and gather vs togyther frome vnder the heauen into his holy place: for he hath sanct vs from great perilles, and hath clemed the place.

As concernynge Judas Machabeus and his byethren, the purifcation of the greatt temple, the dedication of the aulter: yea, and of the warres that cocerne noble Antiochus and * Eupator his sonne, of the wytynges that came downe from heauen vpon those, whiche manfully defended the Jewes. For though they were but fewe, yet defeded they the whole lande, drove awaye the ennemyes host, recovered agayne the temple, that was spoken of thowwe out all the world, deliuered the cytie, doyng theyr best, that þ lawe of the Lorde whiche was put downe, myght with all tranquillitie be restored agayne vnto the Lorde that was so mercifull vnto them. As touchynge Jason also of Cyren, we haue vnderaken copendously to byyng into one booke, the thynges that were comprehended of hym in fyue. For we consydryng the multitude of the bookes, and howe harde it shulde be for them that wolde medle with storyes and actes (and that bycause of so byuers matters) haue vnderaken so to comprehend the storyes: that suche as are disposed to reade, myght haue pleasure & pastyme therein: and that they whiche are diligent in suche thynges, myght the better thynke vpon them: yea, and that whosocuer reade them, myght haue profyt therby.

Reuerthelesse, we oure selues that haue medled with this matter for the shortenynge of it, haue taken no small labour, but greatte diligence, watchynge & trauayle. Lyke as they

* 1. c. vi. b

that make a feast, wolde sayne do other men pleasure: Euen so we also (for many causes) are very well content to take laboure, where as we maye thozly compende, the thynges þ other men haue truly written.

For þe þ buyldeth an house anewe, must make for many thynges, to þ whole buyldinge, but þe that paynteth it after warde, only what is comly, mete, and conuenient to garnish it withal. Euen so do we in þe manner. And why þe that begyn to wyte a story for the fyrst, must with vnderstandynge gather the matter together, for his wordes in order, and diligently take out of euery parte: But þe þ after warde wryteth it, useth fewe wordes, and toucheth not the matter at the largest. Let thys be a pologe for a pologe, now we will we come to thew the matter: for it is but a lyght thing, to make a longe pologe, and to hope in the story it selfe.

The .iii. Chapter.

At the honour done vnto the temple by the kynge of the grecies. Symon desired what treasure in the temple. Heliodorus is sent to take them away. He is beaten of God, & healed at the prayer of Onias.

What tyme as the holy Cytie was inhabyt in all peace and welth and when the lawes were yet very well kepte. (For so was it ordered by Onias the hye pyste and other godly men þ were enemyes to wyedom.) It came therto, þeuen the kynge and princes the selues dyd þ place great wor-thyng, and garnished the temple w great gyf-tes. In so much þ Seleucus kyng of Asia of his owne rentes, bare all þ costes belongynge to the temple of þ offrynges. Then Symon of the trybe of Ben Jamin, a ruler of the temple, laboured to worcke some myschefe in the temple: but þ hye pyste resysted hym.

After thesle, when he myght not ouer-come Onias, he gat hym to Appollonius þ gouernour of Chersa (which then was chefe lord of Celosyria and Phenices) and tolde hym, þ the treasure in Jerusalem was full of innumerable money, & howe that the comon goodnes (whych beloged not vnto the offrynges) was exceeding great also: pee, and howe it was possible, that all these myght come vnto the kynge's power.

Howe when Appollonius had shewed the king of the money, as it was tolde hym: the king called for Heliodorus his steward, and sent hym w a comaundement, to bynge hym the same money. Immediately Heliodo-rus toke his iourney, but vnder a coloure, as though he wolde go thozow Celosyria, and thence to vsser the Cytie, but þys purpose was to fulfyll the kynge's pleynste. So when he came to Jerusalem, & was lounyng-gazed of the hye pyste into the cytie: he tolde what was determyned concernynge the money, and shewed the cause of þys comynge he asked also of it were so in dede. Then the hye pyste tolde hym, that there was suche money layde vp for the vpholdynge of wydowes and fatherlesse chyldren, and howe þ a certayne of it belonged vnto hyrcanus.

Tobias a noble man: and that of all the moneye (whych the wycked Symon had bewyled) there were .iiii. hundred talentes of syluer, & .ii. hundred of gold: pee, & that it were vnpossible for thos mens meanynge to be discreued, that had layde vp theyr money in the place and temple (whiche is had in worshyp thozowe the whole worlde) for the mayntenance and honoure of the same. Althre vnto Heliodorus answered, that the kyng had comaunded hym in any wyse, to bynge hym in the money.

So at the daye appoynted, Heliodorus entered into the temple to order thys matter.
But there was no small feare thozowe oute the whole cytye. The pysters fell downe before the aulter in theyr vestementes, & called vnto heauen vpon hym, * which had made a lawe concernynge stuffe giuen to kepe, that they shulde be safely preserved for such as com-myt them vnto keepynge. Then wdo so had looked the hye pyste in the face, it wolde haue grieved his hert. For his countenance and the chaungynge of his coloure, declared þ inwarde sorowe of his mynde. The man was all in heynesse, and þys body in feare: wderby they þ looked vpon hym, myght perceaue the grete of þys hert. The other people also came out of theyr houses by heapes vnto the comon prayer, because the place was lyke to come into confusyon. The women came together thozow the stretes, & beare clothys about theyr byestes.

The virgyns also that were kept in, ran to Onias, some in the walles, other some loked out of the wyndowes: pee, they all helde by theyr handes towarde heauen, and prayd A myserable thyng was it, to loke vpon the comen people, and the hye pyste being in such trouble. But they besought almyghtie God that the goodes which were committed vnto them, myght be kept whole, for those that had deliuered them vnto theyr keepynge. After thesle, the thyng that Heliodorus was determyned to do, that perfourmed he in the same place, he hym selfe personally being about the treasury with his men of warre.
But the sperte of almyghty god shewed hun selfe openly, so that all they which presumed to obey Heliodorus, fell thozowe the power of God into a great fearfulness and drede.

* For there appeared vnto them an hore, & a terribile man sperryng vpon hym. Dechte in goodly arape, and the hore smote at Heliodorus wth þys foze lere. Now, he that sat in his cypon

* 270. 271. 272.

a 27. 270. 271. 272.

The ii. Booke

upon þe horse had harness of golde upon hym.

Wherouer, there appeared. ii. saye & bentyful ponge men in goodly aray, which stode by hym scourged hym of both the sydes, and gaue hym many stryppes without ceasynge.

*ii. mar. b. c.

E * Wylth that fell heliodorus sodenly vnto þe grounde. So they toke hym vp (beyng compelled aboute wth greute darchnesse) and bare hym out vpon a bere. Thus he that came wth so many runners and men of warre into the sayde treasury, was bozne out, where as no man myghte helpe hym: and so the power of God was manifest and knowne. He lay styl dome also by the power of God desyrtute of all hope and lyfe. And they prayled the Lord that he had shewed hys powre vpo his place and temple, whiche a lytle afore was full of fearre & trouble: and that thowowe the reuela-cyon of the almyghty Lord, it was fylled wth ioye and gladnesse.

Then certayne of heliodorus frendes prayde Onias, that in all haste he wolde cal vpon God, to graunte hym hys lyfe, whiche was geuyng vp the goost. So the hys prest consydered the matter, and leasse the kynge shulde suspecte that the Jewes had done heliodorus some euill: he offred an healtchoke-reynge for hym. Nowe when the hys prest had opteyned hys petcyon, the same ponge men in the same clothynge appeared, and stode besyde heliodorus, sayynge: Thanke Onias the hys prest, for his sake hath þe Lord grauted the thy lyfe: therfore seynge that god hath scourged the, geue hym prayle and thankes, and serue euery man hys myght & power.
And when they had spoke these wordes, they appered nomore.

*ii. mar. b. c.

So heliodorus offred vnto God, made great vobes vnto him, which had graunted hym his lyfe, thanked Onias, toke his hoost and went agayn to the kynge. Then testified he vnto euery man of þe great workes of God that he had sene with hys eyes. And when þe kynge asked heliodorus who were mete to be sent pet once agayne to Jerusalem, he sayde: yf þe haste any enemye or aduersary vnto thy realme, sende hym thither, & thou shalt hane hym punished, yf he escape with hys life: for in that place (no doute) there is a specyall power and workynge of God. For he that dwelleth in heuen, vylteth and defendeth þe place and all that com to do it harme, he punisheth and plagerth them. This is nowe the matter concernynge heliodorus, and the keepynge of þe treasury at Jerusalem.

The. iiii. Chapter.

Simon reposed euill of Onias. Jason testifies the effect of the hys prest corrupted the kynge with wordes. The wicked intent of Jason.

*ii. mar. iii. a

This Simon now (of whō we spake afore) beyng a betwayer of the money & of his owne natural countree, reposed the woist of Onias: as though he had inouch heliodorus vnto this, and as though he had bene a bypnger vp of euil. Thus was he not ashamed to call hym an enemye of the realme, that was so faythful an ouerser and defender of the cite & of hys people: yee, & so feruent in the lawe of God. But when þe malyce of Symon increased so far, that thowowe hys frendes there were certayne manslaughterters comytted: Onias consydered the parrill that myght come thowowe this strete, & how that Appolonius (namely the chiefe Lorde in Celosirya & Phenices) was all set vpon tyranny, & Symons malice increased the same he gat hym to the kynge, not as an accuser of the cytelyns, but as one þe by hym selfe intended the comon welth of þe whole myltitude.

For he sawe it was not possible to lyue in peace, nether Symon to leane of from hys folishnes, excepte the kynge dyd loke there to.
But after the death of Seleucus, when Antyochus (whiche is called the noble) toke the kynghdome: Jason the brother of Onias laboured to be hys prest: For he came vnto the kynge, and promysed hym thre hundred & x. talentes of syluer, & of the other rentes. lxx. talentes. Besydes this he promysed hym pet an. C. & l. Yf he myght hane the scole of the chyldeyn, & that he myght call them of Jerusalem Antiochians. Whiche when the kynge had graunted, & he had gotten þe supreponyre, he began immediatly to drawe hys hymen to the custome of the heathen, put downe the thynges that the Jewes had sette vp of olde, by John the father of Eupolemyus whiche was sent Ambassyroure vnto Rome, for to make the bonde of frendshipp & lone. he put downe all the Jewes & lyberties of þe Jewes and set vp the wyched Statutes. he durste make a syghyng scole vnder the castell, & let saye ponge men to learne þe maners of whores and brothels.

This was nowe the begynnyng of the heathenish & straung couerlacyon, brought in thowowe the vngracious & vnhard wykednes of Jason, whiche shulde not be called a prest, but an vngodly personne. In so much that the prestes were nowe nomore oc-cupped aboute þe scrupce of the aulter, but despysed the temple, regarded not the offryn-ges: yee, gaue their dyspette to lerne to syght to wasle, to leape, to daunce, & to put at the stone, not lettynge by the honoure of the fathers, but lyked the glozy of the Gyckes best of al: for the which they shroue periously, and were greddy to folow their statutes, yee, their lust was in all thynges to be lyke the, whiche afore were they: enemyes & destroyers. Now best to do wychedly agaynst þe lawe of God, shall not escape unpunished: but of thys we shall speake hereafter.

What tyme as the Olympiades sportes were playde at Tyzus (the kynge hym selfe beyng being presente) this vnglacious Jason sent wicked men, bearing from them of Jerusalem which nowe were called Antiochians) in C. machabars of syluer for an offering to hercules. These had they that carped them under such a fashyō, as though they shoulde not haue bene offered but bestowed to other viles. Neuertheles, he that sent them, sent them to the intent that they shoulde be of harm unto hercules. But because of those þ were present, they were geuen as to the making of syppes. And Appolonius the sonne of Antiochus was sent into Egypt, because of the noble men of king Ptolomy Philometor howe when Antiochus perceaued, that he was put out from medlyng in the realme, he sought his owne profyt, departed fro thence came to Joppa: & then to Jerusalem, where he was honorably receaued of Jason, and of the ctye, & was brought in with tocht lyght and with greate prayle: and so he turned hys path vnto Phenices.

After.iii. yere Jason sent Menelaus, the halfbrother of Antiochus, to beare the money into the kyng, & to byng hym answere under necessary matters. But he (when he was prayd of the kyng for magnifying of his power) turned þ presthode vnto hym self byng by.iii. C. talentes of syluer for Jason so whē he had gotten commaundementes fro the kyng (he came haupng nothing þ becoming a prest) but bearyng the stomache of a malytiant, & the wrath of a wyld brute best. The Jason (which had discaued his brother) sepng þ he hym self was be-gynne also, was fayne to fle into the land of þ amonites, & Menelaus gat þ dominyon.
As for the money þ he had promysed vnto the kyng, he dyd nothing therein, when so Antiochus the Ruler of the castell requyred it of him. For Sosistratus was þ man that gat the customs: wherfore they were bothe called before the kyng. Thus was Menelaus put out of the presthod, and Lysimachus his brother came in his steade. Sosistratus also was made Lord of the Citrys.

It happened in the meane season, that þ Carians & Wallacians made insurrecyon because they were geuen for a presente vnto king Antiochus cocubynne. Then came the kyng in all the hast, to sylp them agayne, and to pacify þ matter, leauing Andronicus ther to be his debitor as one mete therfore. Howe Menelaus supposing þ he had gotten a ryght conspirent tyme, stole certayne vesselles of gold out of the temple, & gaue them to An-tonius for a present: & some he solde at Tiberis and in the ctyes therby.

Which when Onias knewe of a suretye, he requyred hym: but he kept hym in a Sanctuary besyde Daphnis, that ieremy by Anti-ochus had geuen Menelaus for hym to Andro-nicus, & prayde hym þ he wolde slaye Onias so whē he came to Onias, he counceiled him craftely to come out of þ Sanctuary geuing hym his hande with a knyfe (howbeit he suspect hym) & then he slewe Onias without any regarde of ryghteousnes.

For the whiche cause not only the Jewes but other nacjons also toke indignacyō, and were dyspleased for the vnrpyghteous deathe of so goodly a man.

And when the kyng was come agayne from Eplicia, the Jewes and certayne of the Greekes went vnto hym, complaynyng for the vnrpyghteous deathe of Onias. Per, An-tiocus hym selfe was soz in his mynde for Onias, so that it pyttied hym, & he wept, re-membryng hys sobrenes and manely beha-uoure. Wherfore he was so hynbled in hys mynd, that he commaunded Andronicus to be stripped out of his purple clothing, & so to be led thowout the ctye: yee, & the vnglacious man to be slayne in the same place: wher he committed his wickednes vpon Onias. Thus the Lord rewarded hym his punishment, as he had deserved. Howe when Lysimachus had done many wicked dedes in þ temple thoro the counsel of Menelaus, and the voyce came abrode: the multitude gathered them together agaynst Lysimachus: for he had carped out nowe much golde.

So when the people arose, and were full of dyspleasure, Lysimachus armed.iii. C. mynstres to defend him: a certayn tyzant beyng theyr capayne, which was growen both in age and woodnesse. But when þ people vnderstode the purpose of Lysimachus, some gat stones, some good stronge clubbes, and some cast athes vpon Lysimachus.

Thus there were many of the wounded, some beyng slayne, and all the other chased awaye But as for the wicked churchrobber hym selfe, they kylled hym besyde þ treasury. Of these matters therfore there was kept account agaynst Menelaus. Howe when the kyng came to Tyrys, they made a complaine vnto him of Menelaus, concerning this busyness and þ ambassitours wer.iii. But Menelaus wēt & promysed Ptolomy, to geue hym much money, yf he wold perswade þ kyng. So Ptolomy went to the kyng into a court (where he was set to gooale hym) & brought hym out of that mynd. In so much that he dyscharged Menelaus from þ accusacyōs, that not with-standyng was cause of al mischief: and those poore men, whiche yf they hadde tolde theyr cause: yee, before the Grecians, they shoulde haue bene indged innocent, them he condemned to death.

Thus were they soone punished, whiche folowed vpon the matter for the ctye, for þ people, & for the holy vessel, Wherfore, they of Tyrys toke indignacyō, and buryed the body of Onias honorably

The.ij. Booke

honorably. And so thorow the countenances of them that were in power. Menelaus remained still in auctoritie, increasynge in malice, to the hurte of the cytelyns.

The. v. Chapter.

Of the signes and tokens sene in Jerusalem. Of the ende & offence of Jason. The pursute of Antiochus agaynst the Jewes. The spoiling of the temple.

At the same tyme Antiochus made hym ready to go agayne into Egypte. Then were there sene at Jerusalem. xl. dayes longe, hostes men, runnyng to and fro in the ayre, whiche had rayment of golde, and speares. There were sene also whole hostes of men weapened, and hostes running in an order, howe they came together, how they held forth theyr sheldes, howe they harnessed men byt wout theyr swordes, & shot theyr darters.

The thyng of the golden wrapes was sene and of all maner of armure. Wherfore euery man prayde, & those tokens myghte turne to good. Howe when there was gone forth a false rumoure, as though Antiochus had bene deed: Jason toke a. M. men, & came sodenly vpon the cytie. The cytelyns came vnto & walles, at the last was the cytie taken, & Menelaus fled into the castell.

As for Jason, he spared not hys owne cytelyns in the slaughter, nether considered he what greates euell it were, to destitute & prosperite of his owne kynsmen: but dyd as one that had gotten the victory of his enemyes, and not of hys frendes. For all thys gatte he not the superuizorie, but at the last receaued confusyon for hys malice, & fled agayne lyke a vagabunde into the lande of the Ammonytes.

¶ ii. mac. iiii.

Finally, for a rewarde of hys wickednes he was accused before Aretas the kynge of the Arabians. In so much that he was sayne to fle from cytie to cytie, beinge despyled of euery man as a forsaker of the lawes, and an abhominable personne. And at the last (as an open encimpe of hys owne naturall countre and of the cytelyns) he was dyspue into Egypte.

Thus he that afore put many out of their owne natyue land, persued from home hym self. He went to Lacedemon, thynking there to haue gotten succoure by reason of kynred. And he that afore had casten many one out vnburyed, was throwen out hym selfe, no man mourning for hym, nor putting hym in his graue: so that he nether enioyed the buryall of a stranger, nether was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

Howe when thys was done, the kynge suspecte, that the Jewes wolde haue fallen from hym: wherfore he came in a greates displeasure out of Egypt, & toke the cyte by violence. He commaunded his men of warre also, that they shulde kyll and not spare, but slaye downe such as with stode them, or clymed by vpon the houses.

¶ i. mac. i. c.

Thus was there a greates slaughter of yonge men, olde men, women, chyldren, and virgynes. In thre dayes were there slayne lxxx. M. fourty thousande put in prysyn, and no lesse solde. Yet was he not content wth this but durst go into the most holy temple (Menelaus that traptour to the lawes and to his owne naturall countre, beinge his gypde) and with his wicked handes toke & holy vessell, which other kynges & cyties had gauen rather for the garnyng and honour of the place, them toke he in his handes vnrwythely, and despyled them.

So mad was Antiochus, that he considered not, howe that God was a lytle wroth for the synnes of them that dwelt in the cytie for the which such confusion came vpon that place. * And why? if it had not happened the to haue bene lapped in many synnes, this Antiochus (as soone as he had come) had sodenly bene punysshed, and shutte out for hys presumptiō. * lyke as heliodorus was, who Seleucus the kynge sent to robbe the treasury. Neuertheles, God hath not cholen the people for the places sake, but the place for the peoples sake: and therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterwarde shall it enioye the welth of them. And lyke as it is now forsaken in & wroth of almyghty God, so when the great God is reconcyled, it shall be sette by in hys wofull agayne.

Howen Antiochus had taken a. M. and viii. C. talents out of the temple, he gat him to Antioche in all the haste, thynking in his pryde, that he myghte make menslaye vpon & dye land, and to go vpon the see, such an hymne had he. He left debytes there, to vex the people: At Jerusalem left he & whyppe a whaygan, in maners moze cruell then hym selfe & let hym there. At Carsum he left Andronicus & Menelaus, which were moze greuous to the citelyns then other. * Now as he was thus set in malice agaynst the Jewes, he sent Apollonius an hated wynter, with xxi. M. commaunding him to slaye those that were of perfecte age, and to sell the women, maydens & chyldre. When he cam now to Jerusalem, he sayned peace, and kept hym still vntill the Sabbath daye. And then he commaunded his men to take them to their weapons (for & Jewes kept holy daye) and so he slew all them that were gone forth to & open play, runnyng here and there thorow & cytie with hys men weapened, and murdered a greates nobbe. * But Judas Machabens which was the tenth, fled into & wyldernes, led hys lyfe there with hys compaigne amonge wyld beasts: and vpon the mountaynes dwellyng shall pynge there and eatyng grasse, lest they shulde be partakers of the fylchynnes.

The. vi. Chapter.

The Jewes are compelled to leaue the lawe of God.
The temple is despoiled. The readers are moued that they shall not abhorre the aduersyte wherewith the Lord afflicte them. The greuous payne of Eleazarus.

Not longe after this, sent the kynge a messauger of Antioch, for to copel the Jewes, to alter & ordinauces of the fathers, and the lawe of God, to despoile the temple that was at Jerusalem, & to call it temple of Jupiter Olimpus: and that they shulde be in Gazarin, as that which dwelt at the place of Jupiter the herberous. This wyched sedycion of the vngodly was heuy vpon all the people: for the temple was full of voluptuousnes, bybbyng and bolling of the heathen, of rybaudes and harlottes together. The women went into the holy place, and bare in that was not lau-full. The altier also was full of vnlafulfull sprynges, which the lawe forbiddeth to laye vpon it. The Sabbothes were not kept, the other solempne feastes of the lande were not regarded. To be playne, there durst no man be knownen that he was a Jewe. In the day of the kinges byrth they were compelled partise to offere: and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrained to were garlandes of Pape, and so to go about to the honour of Bacchus.

Whereouer, thowowe the councel of Ptolemy, there wente out a commaundement in the interpreties of the heathen, that they shulde honore the Jewes in like maner: namely, to compell them for to do sacrifice after the lawes of the Gentiles: & who so wolde not, to put them to death. A piteous thyng was it that. There were. ii. women accused to haue manysied thei sonnes, whome when they had led rounde about the cytie (the babes having at thei brestes) they cast them downe headlynges ouer the wals. Some that were wyt in demnes and had kepte the Sabboth, were accused vnto Phylp, and byente in the bye: because for the feare of God they kept the commaundement so styfly, and wold not despise them selues. Nowe I beseech all those which reade this booke, that they refuse it not for the failles of aduersitye: and Iudge the thynges (if are happened) for no destructyon, but for a chastening of our people. And when God suffreth not synners longe to folowe thei owne minde, but shortly pu-nyshe them, it is a token of his great louynge kyndnes. For thei grace haue we of God more then other people, that he suffreth not so longe to synne unpunysht lyke as other naciōs, & when the daye of iudgemēt cometh, he maye punyshe them in the fulnes of thei synnes. If we synne, he correcteth vs, but he neuer wythdroweth his mercy from vs: & though he punyshe with aduersitye, yet doth he neuer forsake his people. But let this that we haue spoken now with fewe wordes be for a warnyng and exhortacion of the heathen.

Nowe wyl we come to the declaringe of the matter. Eleazar one of the principall Scrybes, an aged man & of a well fauoured couenaunce, was constrained to gape with open mouth, & to eat swynnes flesh. But he de-spysyng rather to dye gloriously then to lyue with shame, offered hym self wyllyngly to the martyrdome. Now when he sawe that he must nede go to it, he toke it pacely: for he was at apoynt with hym selfe, that he wolde consent to no vnlafulfull thyng for any pleasure of lyfe. They that rode by being moued wth pyte (but not a ryghe) for the olde frendshipp of the man, toke hym aspyde pryvely, & prayde hym that he wold let such flesh be byought hym as were lafulfull to eat, & then to make a countenaunce, as though he had eaten of the flesh of sacrifice lyke as the kynge commaunded, for so he myght be deliuered from death, & so for the olde frendshipp of the man, they shewed hym thei kyndnes.

But he beganne to consydre his discreete & honorable age, his noble & worshipful stock and how that from his yowth vpon he had bene of an honest & good conuersacion, yet & how constantly he had kepte the ordynances and lawes commaunded by God, wherfore he gaue them this answer, & sayde: For I rather fyrst be layd in my graue. For it becometh not myne age (sayde he) in any wyse to disfeble, wherby many yonge personnes myght thyne, that Eleazar beinge lxxx. yere olde, and x. were now gone to a straunge lyfe: & so thowowe myne ppoctis (for a lytle tyme of a transytoy lyfe) they myght be dyscained: by this means also shulde I despoile myne age, & make it abhomyable. For though I were nowe deliuered from the tormentes of men, yet shuld I not escape the hande of almyghty god neither alpye nor deade, wherfore I wyl dye manfully & do as it becometh mine age. After by I maye peradventure leane an example of stedfastnes for such as be yonge, yet I shal be a redy mynde & manfully dye an honest death, for the most worship & holy lawes.

When he had sayde these wordes, imme-dyatly he was drowen to the toymēt. Now they that led hym & were myde a lytle afore beganne to take dyspleasure, because of the wordes that he sayd: for they thought he had spoken them of an hye mynde. But when he was in his martyrdome, he mourned & sayde Thou O Lord which hast the holy knowledge: knowest openly, & where as I myght be deliuered from death, I suffre these sore paynes of my bodye: but in my mynde I am wel content to suffre them because I feare thee. Thus

The.ij. Booke

Thus this man dyed, leauyng þe memorial of his death for an exāple, not only vnto ponge men, but vnto all the people, to be stedfast & manly.

The. vii. Chapter.

The punishment of the seven brythren and of theryr mother.

¶ Luc. xi. a.

It happened also þe there wer. vii. brythren (with their mother) taken, and compelled by the kyng: agaynst the lawe, to eate swynnes fleshe: namely wth scourges and lethren whippes. And one of them which was þe chiefe, sayde: What seekst thou and what requyrest thou of vs? As for vs, we are ready rather to suffre deathe, then to offende the lawes of God and the fathers.

Then was the kyng angry, and had brate cauldrons and brasen pottes. Wherby when they were made hote, immediatly he comaūded the tonge of hym that spake fyrst, to be cut out, to pull the skynne ouer hys head, to pare of the edges of hys handes and fete: yee and that in the syghte of hys mother and the other of hys brythren. Nowe when he was cleane marred, he commaūded a fyre to be made and so (whyle there was any breath in hym) to be fied in the caudron: In the which when he had bene longe payned: þe other bryth^r with theyr mother exhorted hym to dye manfully, sayinge: The Lord God shall regarde the truth, and confort vs, lyke as Moyses testifyeth: & declarerth in hys songe, sayinge: and he wyl haue compassiō on his seruantes.

¶ Deu. xxxii.

So when the fyrst was dead after thys maner, they brought the seconde, to haue him in derision, pulled the skynne with the heare ouer hys heade, and asked hym, yf he wolde eate swynnes fleshe, or he were payned in the other membris also thowowt hys body. But he answered boldely, and sayde: I wyl not do it. And so was he tormented lyke as þe fyrst, and when he was euen at the geupnge vnto the goost he sayde: Thou most vngacious personne putttest vs nowe to death, but þe kyng of the worlde shal rayle vs vp (whiche dye for his lawes) in the resurreccyon of euer lastyng lyfe.

After hym, was the thyrde had in derision and when he was requyred, he putte out hys tonge, and that ryght soone, holdyng forth his handes manfully, and spake with a stedfast sayth: These haue I of heauen, but now for the lawe of God I despyse them: for my trust is, that I shall receaue them, of hym agayne. In so much that the kyng and they which were with hym, marueled at þe ponge mans boldnes, that he nothyng regarded the paynes.

Nowe when he was dead also, they vexed the fourth with tormentes in lyke maner. So when he was nowe at hys death, he sayd

It is better that we being put to death of me haue our hope & trust in god, for he shal rayle vs vp agayne. * As for the, thou shalt haue no resurreccyon to lyfe.

¶ Joh.

And when they had spoken to the fyrst, they tormented hym. Then looked he vnto the kyng, & sayde: thou hast power among men for thou arte a mortall man also thy selfe, to do what thou wilt, but thinke not, that God hath forsaken oure generacyon. Abydethe, tary styll a whyle, and thou shalt se the great power of God, howe he wyl punyssh the and thy selfe. After hym they brought the fyre, whiche being at the poynt of deathe, sayde, We not dyceaued (O kyng) for thys we suffre for our owne sakes, because we haue offēded our God, & therfore maruelous thynges are shewed vnto vs. But thynke not thou, which takest in hand to stryue agaynst God that thou shalt escape unpunished.

This excellent mother (woorthy to be wel reported of, and had in remembrance) saw her seven sonnes dye in one day, and suffred it pacyently, because of the hope þe had in God yee, she exhorted euery one of them in especial and that boldly and stedfastly wth pacite wyl dom, wakyng vp her wyuysh thought with a manly stomack, and sayd vnto them: I can not tell howe ye came in my wombe, for I neither gaue you bryth nor soule, nor lyfe. It is not I that toynded the members of your bodies together, but the maker of the worlde, which fastyoned the byrthe of man, and beganne all thynges. Euen he also of his owne mercye shall geue you bryth and lyfe agayne lyke as ye nowe regarde not your owne lelures for hys lawes sake.

Nowe thought Antiochus that she had despyled hym, therfore he let her go with her reproues, and beganne to exhorte þe pongest sonne (which yet was lefte) not only wth wordes, but swoze vnto hym with an othe that he shuld make hym a ryche & welthy man (yf he wolde forsake the lawes of hys fathers) yee, and that he shulde geue hym, what so euer were necessary for hym. But when the ponge man wolde not be moued, for all these thynges, he called his mother, and counceled her to saue her sonnes lyfe. And when he had exhorted her with many wordes, she promysed hym þe shulde speake vnto her sonne. So she turned her vnto hym (laughyng the cruel tyraunte to scozne) & spake with a bolde voyce. O my sonne, haue pitie vpon me, that bare the nyne mothes in my wombe, & gaue the sucke, noysshed the & brought the vp vnto this age.

I beseech the (my sonne) loke vpon heauen and earth and all that is therein, and consydre that God made them and mannes generacyon of naughte: so thalte thou not feare thys hangman, but suffre deathe stedfastly, lyke of the brethren haue done: that I maye receiue the agayne in the same mercie with thy brethren.

Whyle the was yet speaking these wor-des, the ponge man sayde: whome loke ye for wherfore do ye tarpe? I wyl not obey the lawes commaundement, * but the lawe that God gaue vs by Moyses. As for thou that prouest all myscelpe agaynst the Jewes thou shalt not escape the hande of God, for we suffer these thynges, because of oure syn-nes.

And though God be angrie with vs a lytle whyle, for oure chastenynge and refoz-macion, yet shall he be at one agayne with his seruantes. But thou, O shamefull and most abominable personne, whydest not thy selfe thowme wayne hope, in beynge so malicious vpon the seruantes of God: for thou hast not yet escaped the iudgement of the god which is almyghtie, and seyth all thynges.

Wherfore that haue suffered a lytle payne are nowe vnder the couenaunte of euertie longe lyfe: but thowme the iudgemente of God, thou shalt be punished ryghteously for thy payne.

As for me (lyke as my brethren haue done) I sette my soule and my bodye for the lawes of oure fathers, callinge vpon God, that he wyl loone be mercifull vnto our people: yet with payne and punishment: to make þ gaunte, that he only is God. In me nowe my brethren the wrath of almyghtie God is at an ende, which ryghteously is fallen vpon all our people.

Then the kynge beyng kyndled in anger was more cruell vpon hym then vpon all the other, and toke indignacion, that he was so lyghtly regarded. So the ponge man dyed wofully, and put his trust still in the Lord laste of all after the somer, was the mother put to death also. Let this nowe be proung holy, concerning þ offrynges, and extreme crueltye.

C The. viii. Chapter.

Judas gathered together his host. Sicanos is sent agaynst Judas. Judas exhorteth his followers to constantie. Sicanos is overcome. The Jewes geue thanks after they haue put theyre enemies to flight, and purge the spoiles vnto the fatherles and vnto the widowes. Sicanos flyeth vnto Antiochus.

When Judas Machabeus, & they that were with hym, went pry-uily in to the towne, called theyr kynfolkes and frendes to gether, toke vnto them all suche as continued yet in the faythe and lawe of þ Jewes, and brought forth. vi. M. men.

So they called vpon the Lord, that he wolde haue an eye vnto his people, whiche was troden downe of euerye man: to be gracyous vnto the temple that was despoiled of þ vngodly: to haue compassyon vpon þ destruction of the cytie, which was shortly lyke to be layde waste, to heare the voyce of þ bloud that cryed vnto hym: to remembre the most vnrightheous deathes of ponge innocent chyldren, þ blasphemies also done vnto his name and to puny the them.

* Nowe when Machabeus had gathered thys multitude together, he was to myghty for the heathen (for the wrath of the Lord was turned into mercie) he set vpon the townes and Cyties vntowares, bent them, toke þ most comodous places, & slewe many of the enemies. But specially he made such chases by nyght, in so much that his manlynes was spoken of euery where.

So when Philyppe sawe that the man increased by lytle and lytle, and that the matter prospered with him for the most parte: he wrote vnto Ptolomey (which was a captayn in Celosyria and Idenices) to helpe him in þ kynges busynes. Then sent he Sicanos Ba-tracyl (a specyall frende of his) in all the hast and gaue hym of the comen store of the heathen nolesse the. xx. M. barnessed me, to roote out the whole generacyon of the Jewes, hauing to helpe hym one Gorgias a ma of war whiche in matters concernynge battayles, had great experyence. Sicanos ordeyned also the rebute (which the romayns shoulde haue had) to be geuen vnto the kynge out of the cap-turye of the Jewes, namely two thousande talentes. And immediatly he sent to the Cy-ties of the see coaste, requyringe them for to bye Jewes to be theyr seruantes and bond-men, promysynge to sell them. lxxx. and ten for one talent: but he considered not þ wrath of almyghtie God, that was to come vpon hym.

When Judas knewe of this, he tolde the Jewes that were with hym of Sicanos co-mynge. Nowe were there some of them fear-full, not trustynge vnto the ryghteoulnes of God, and fled theyr waye.

But the other that remayned, came together, and besought the Lord, to deliuer them from that wicked Sicanos, whiche had solde them or euer he came nye them: and though he wolde not do it for theyr sakes, yet for the couenaunte that he made with theyr fathers and because they called vpon his holy & glorious name. * And so Machabeus called his men together, namely aboute. vi. M. exhortyng them not to agree vnto theyr enemies * neyther to be afrayd for þ multitude of theyr aduersaries cummyng agaynst them vn-ryghteously: but to fyghte manly, conside-ryng the reproche that they hadde done to the holy place without cause, howe they had de-spoyled and oppressed the cytie: yet, & destruyed the lawes of the fathers. * For they sayd in xxiii. be trust

¶ I. M. ac. 11. a.

¶ I. M. ac. 11. a.

¶ I. M. ac. 11. a.

¶ I. M. ac. 11. a.

¶ I. M. ac. 11. a.

The.ij. Booke

he) trust in theyr weapons and boldnesse, but oure confydence is in the almyghty Lozde, whiche in the twyncklynge of an eye maye both destroye them & come agaynst vs, and al the worlde.

D He exhorted them also to call to remembrance the helpe, & God shewed vnto theyr fathers: * as when there perished an. C. and lxxxv. W. of Sennacheribs people: And of the batayle that they had in Babylō agaynst the Gallacians: howe all the Macedonians that came to helpe them, stode in feare: & how they beyng but only. vi. W. slew an. C. and x. W. thow the helpe that was geuen them from heauen, wherby they also had receaued many benifytes.

Thow these wordes the men toke good hartes vnto them, readye to dye for the lawe and the countree. So he set vpon euery company a captayne, one of hys owne brethren: Symon, Ioseph & Ionathas: geuyng eche one. xv. C. mē. He caused also to read the holy booke vnto them, & to geue them a token of the helpe of God.

* Then he hym selfe beyng captayne in the fore front of the battayle, buckled wth Sicanoz. And God was theyr helpe, in so much that they slew aboute. ix. W. men & compelled the moze parte of Sicanoz hooft to fle, they were so wounded and feble. Thus they toke the money from those that came to bye them, and folowed vpon them on euery syde. But when the tyme came vpon them, they returned, for it was the Sabbath, and therfore they folowed nomoze vpon them. So they toke theyr weapons & spoiles, and kepte the Sabbath, geuyng thanks vnto the Lozde, whiche had deliuered them that daye, and shewed them hys mercy. After the Sabbath, * they distributed the spoiles to the speke, to the fatherlesse, & to wyddowes, and the residue hadde they them selues with theyrs. When thys was done, and they all had made a generall prayer: they besought the mercyfull Lozde to be at one wth hys seruantes.

Of those also that were with Timotheus and Bachides, whiche fought agaynst them they slew. xx. W. wan hys and stronge holdes, and deuyded moo spoiles: euer geuyng an equall porcyon vnto the speke, to the fatherlesse, to wyddowes, and to aged persons.

And when they had diligently gathered theyr weapons together, they layde them all in conuenient places, and the remnaunt of hys spoiles brought they to Ierusalem. They slew also Philarches that wicked personne whiche was with Timotheus, and had vexed many Jewes. And when they helde the thankes geuyng at Ierusalem for hys victory, they bent those that had set fyre on the portes of hys temple: namely Calisthenes, which was fled into an house: & so they gat a bozthy rewarde for theyr wychednesse. As for that most vnglacpous Sicanoz, whiche had brought a thousande marchauntes, to bye Jewes, he was thow the helpe of the Lozde broughte downe euen of them whome he regarded not: in so much that he put of his glapous raiment, fled by see, and came alone to Antioche, with great shame and dishonour whiche he gat thow the destruction of his hooft. Thus he that promysed the Romaynes to paye them theyr tribute, when he toke Ierusalem: beganne nowe to lape playnly, that God was the defender of the Jewes, & therfore not possyble to wounde them, because they folowed hys lawes which God had made.

The. ix. Chapter.

Antiochus willinge to spoyle Hierosolima, in hys way to fight. As he persecuteth the Jewes, he is taken of the Lozde. The sayned repentance of Antiochus. He dyeth.

At the same tyme, came Antiochus agayn with dishonour out of Persia. For when he came to Hierosolima, and undertooke to rob hys temple: and to subdue the cytie, hys people ran together & defended them selues, in so much that he and his were fayne to fle with shame.

And so after that sight, it happened that Antiochus came agayne with dishonour. But when he came to Egbatana, he gatte knowledg what was happened vnto Sicanoz and Timotheus. Nowe, as he was anayng hys selfe in hys wrath, he thought he was able to auenge the iniury & was doneto them, vpon the Jewes: and therfore commaunded to make ready his charet, hastnyng on his iourney, without ceassayng, the iudgment of God prouokynge hym because he had spoken so proudly, that he wolde come to Ierusalem, and make it a graue of hys Jewes. But the Lozde God of Israel, that seyth all thynges, smote hym wth an inuisyble plague, which no man coulde heale.

For as soone as he had spoken these wordes, there came vpon hym an horrible payne of his bowels, and a sore grefe of the armes.

And that was but ryght: for he had martyred other mens bowels wth dyuerse and straunge tormentes, howbeit he wolde in no wyle cease from hys malyce. Yet, he was yet the prouder and moze malicpous agaynst the Jewes: But whyle he was commaunding to make hast in the matter, it happened that he fell downe violently from the charet so that it brysed his body, and byd him great payne.

And

* III. re. rir. d
* Ia. xxi. d. a
* Mac. xii. c.

* I. Mac. xii. d

* II. Mac. xxi. d
* I. Mac. xxi. d.
Deut. xx. d.

And so he that thought he myght com-munde the floudes of the see (so proud was he beyonde the condicion of man) & to wepe the mountaynes in a paye, of balauce, was now brought downe to the grounde, and carped vpon an hozlypter, knowledging the manifest power of God vpon hym: so p the wicked body of his was ful of wozmes which in his payne fel quych out of his flesh: so moche that his host was greued with the smell and stynke of hym. Thus he that a lyle afore thought he myght reache to the barres of heauē, hym myght no man now shpe nor beare for the vehemence of stynke.

Therefore, he beinge brought from his great pyde, began for to come to the knowledge of hym selfe: for the punishment of God warned hym, and his payne increased euer more and more. And when he him selfe myght not abyde his owne stynke, he sayde these wordes: It is reason to be obedient vnto God, and that a man desyre not to be lyke vnto hym. This wycked person prayed also vnto the Lorde, of whom he shoulde haue ob-tayne no mercy. And as for the cite that he came vnto so hastily, to bynging it downe to the grounde, and to make it a graue for deed men: now he desyeth to deliuer it free.

And as touchyng the Jewes, whom he had iudged not worthy to be hurped, but had cast them out for to be deuoured of the foules & wilde beastes, sayinge: that he wolde haue destroyed both olde & sponge: now he is promysed, to make them lyke the citties of Athes. And where as he had spoyled the holpe temple afore, now he maketh promyse to garnish it with greete gyftes, to increase the holp ornaments, and of hys owne rentes to beare the costes and charges belongyng to the offrynges: yea, and that he wolde also become a Jewe him selfe, to go thow euer place of the worlde, and to preache the power of God.

But when his paynes wolde not ceasse, (by the pygtherous iudgement of God was come vpon hym) oute of a very dyspaye he wrote vnto the Jewes, a letter of intercession, conteynyng these wordes: The kynge and prince Antiochus wyslyeth vnto y^e ver-tuous citizens of the Jewes, moche health & good prosperitie.

Ye ye and youre chyldren fare well, and shal chynge go after your mynde: we gine great thankes. In my sycknesse also doo I remembre you lounyngly: for as I came out of Persia, & was taken wth soze a disease: I thought it necessary to care for the comen wealth. Neyther dyspaye I in my selfe, but have a good hope to escape this sycknesse.

But consydyng that my father led an honest somerpyne in the hyper places, and the wed who shoulde raygne after hym, that (if there happened any cotrouersy, or any hard thyng were declared) they in the land might knowe they: these Lorde, that there shoulde be no insurrection: Agayne, when I ponde by my selfe, howe that all the myghtye men, and neyghbours rounde aboute, are layinge wayte, and loke but for oportunitie to doo harme: I haue ordeyned that my sonne An-tiochus shall raygne after me, whom I ofte commended to many of you, when I was in the hyper kyngdomes, and haue wyrtten vnto hym as foloweth hereafter. Therefore, I praye you & requyre you, to remembre the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally, and in especyal (and y^e euery man wpll be faythfull to me & my sonne) for I hope that he shall be of sobye and lounge behaueour, and yf he folowe my deuple, he shalbe indifferent vnto you.

* Thus that murderer & blasphemor of God was soze smitten: and lyke as he had in-treated other men, so he dyed a myferable death in a straunge countrie vpon a mountayne. And his body dyd Philip (that wente with hym) carry awaye: which fearnge the sonne of Antiochus, wente into Egypte to Ptolomy Philometor.

The .i. Chapter.

Judas Machabeus taketh the cytie and the temple he beganeth to helme the actes of Eupator. The Jewes fight agaynst the Idumeans: Timotheus inuaith Jerusaleme, with whome Judas fought battles. Thus men appeare in the apoc to the bryde of the Jewes. Timotheus is slayne.

Machabeus now and hys com-panye (thowowe the helpe of the Lorde) wanne the tple and the cytie agayne, destroyed the aulters and chapels that the hyperthen had buylded thowowe the stretes: clen-sed the temple, * made an other altare of byche stone, and after two yeaeres they of-fired sacrifices, set forth the incence, the lightes and shewbread. When that was doone they fell downe flat vpon the grounde, and besought the Lorde, that they myght come nomore into suche trouble: but yf they synned any more agaynst hym, he hym selfe to chasten them with mercy, and not to come in the handes of chole alcauntes and blasphemous men.

Now, vpon the same daye that the strai-gers polluted the temple, it happened that on the very same daye it was cleansed agayne: namely, * the .xxii. daye of the moneth called Cassen. They kepte .viii. dayes in gladnesse lyke as in the feast of the tabernacles: remembyng, that not longe afore they dede the feast of the tabernacles vpon the mountaynes and in demes lyke beastes. And to the same token they bare grene bowes, byaun-ches and palmes, before hym that had gūe them good fortune to clemte his place. They agreed

* Dru. viii. 3

* 1. ma. iii. 23

* 2. rob. 17. 2

* 1. mac. iii. 2

The. ii. booke

agreed also together, and made a statute, & euery yere those dayes shoulde be solemnly kept of all the people of the Jewes.

Howe Antiochus then (that was called the noble) dyed: it is sufficiently tolde. Now wyl we speake of Eupator the sonne of that wpyked Antiochus, howe it happened with him: & so with fewe wordes to comprehend the aduersitie that chaunced in the warres. When he had taken in þe kyngdom, he made one Lysias (which had bene captayne of the host in Phenices and Syria) ruler ouer the matters of the realme. For Ptolomee that was called Ptolemy, beinge a ruler for the Jewes, and specially, to syt in iudgmet for suche wronge as was done vnto the vnder-toke to deale peaceably with them. For the whiche cause he was accused of the frendes before Eupator: and when he was suspecte to be a traptour (bycause he had left Cypres that Philometor had commytted vnto him: and bycause he departed from noble Antiochus, that he was come vnto) he poysonned hym selfe, and dyed.

Howe when Gorgias was gouernoure of þe same places, he toke straungers and vnder-toke ofte tymes, to warre with þe Jewes. Moreover, the Idumeans þe helde the ströge holdes, receyued those that were dyspyn fro Jerusalem, and toke in hande to warre also.

* But they that were with Machabeus besought and prayed vnto the Lorde, that he wolde be theyr helper: and so they fel vpo the stronge holdes of the Idumeans, and wan many places by strength: Suche as came agaynst them they slewe, and kyled no lesse of all together then twentye thousand. Neuer thelesse some, no lesse then nyne thousand, were fled into two stronge towres, hauinge all maner of ordinaunce to withstand them.

Then Machabeus leauyng Symon, Josephus, zachens, and those that were with them (which were very many) wente to besiege them, & to fight where most neede was. Now they that were with Symon, beinge led with couctousnesse, were intreated for money, thowse certayne of those that laye in the towres: toke. lxx. M. drachmas: & let some of them escape. But when it was tolde Machabeus what had happened, he called þe captaynes of the people together, accusyng those personnes, & they had solde the brethre for money, and let theyr enemyes go. So he slewe those traptours, and immediatly wet in hande with the two towres. And when they had ordred them selues manlye, wpyth theyr weapons and handes, they slewe in the two castels moo then twentye thousande.

* Howe Timotheus: whom the Jewes had ouercome afore, gathered a multitude of straunge people, broughte an hoste also of horsemen of the Asians, to wpy Jewrye by strength. But when he dyed wyne, Machabeus and they that were with hym, & fell to theyr prayer, spynkled asches vpon theyr breedes, beinge geyded with heere cloth about their lopnes, fell downe before the altar, and besought the Lorde that he wolde be mercifull to them, but an enemy vnto theyr enemyes, and to take parte agaynst theyr aduersaries, & accordyng as it is promysed in the lawe. So after the prayer, they went on furthre fro the cytie: and when they came ngyth the enemyes, they prepared them selues agaynst them.

And by tymes in the moynyng at the breake of the daye, bothe the hostes buckled together. * The one parte had the Lorde for their refuge, which is þe gyuer of prosperitie strength and victorie. The other had a maly stomache, which is a captayne of warre.

The battayle now beinge great, & then appeared vnto the enemyes from heauen. Men vpo horsebackes with byldes of golde, leadyng the Jewes, & two of them haung Machabeus betwixt them, that kept hym safe on euery syde with theyr weapons: but shot darteres and lyghtenynge vpon the enemyes: wherthowse they were confounded with byndnesse, & so soze afrayed, that they fell downe. There were slayne of footmen twentye. M. and fyue. C. and fyre hundred horsemen. As for Timotheus hym selfe, he fled vnto Sazer a very stronge holde, wherin Cereas was captayne. But Machabeus and his company layed siege to it chertfully foure dayes.

Now they that were within trustyng to the strength of the place, cursed and banned excreadyngly, and made great crahynge with wpyked wordes. Neuer thelesse, vpon the fyfth daye in the moynyng. xx. yonge men of Machabeus company, beinge set on fyre in their myndes (bycause of the blasphem) came malfully vnto the wal, and with bolde stomaches, they and theyr other companyons clymed vp vpon the towres, vnder takinge to sette fyre vpon the portes, and to burne those blasphemous personnes quicke. Two dayes were they destroyng the castell, whiche when they founde Timotheus (that was crepte into a corner) they kyled him, & slewe Cereas his brother in lyke manner with Appolophanes. When this was done, they songe psalmes, with prayes and thankesgyuyng vnto the Lorde, which had done so great thynges for Israel, and gyuen them the victorie.

The. xi. Chapter.

* Lysias goeth about to ouercome þe Jewes. Success is sent from heauen vnto the Jewes. The letter of Lysias vnto the Jewes. The letter of kynge Antiochus vnto Lysias. A letter of the same vnto þe Jewes. A letter of the Romaynes to the Jewes.

Not

* L. c. xi. b. 1 216. Macha.
b. 16. c

Of longe after this, Lysias þ kynges stwarde & a kynsman of hys, (which had the gouernance of his matters) tooke loze displeasure for thynges that had happened, and when he gathered lxxx. M. of fote with all the host of the horsemen, he came agaynst þ Jewes, thynkyng to wyne the cytie, to make a habitation of the hepten, & and þ tēple wold be haue to be an house of lucre, lyke the other goddes houses of the hepten men, to sel the prestes office euery yere. Not knowyng the power of God, but was wold of mynde, & trustyng in the multitude of his men, in thousandes of horsemen, and in lxxx. Elephantes.

So he came into Jewry & then to Beth-san (a castel of defence) lyng in a narowe place, & furloges from Jerusalem, & wanne a towne, when Machabeus and his cōpany were that the stronge holdes taken, they fell to the; prayers with weepynge & singing before the Lorde. And al the people in the maner besought him, that he wold send an angel to deliuer Israel. Machabeus himsel was the first that made him ready for the battayl, exhortyng þ other that were with him, to ieoparde them selues, & to helpe the brethren. And when they were goinge out of Jerusalem togyther with a ready & mynde, & there appeared before the hoste backe a man in whyte clothynge with harness of golde, shakynge his speare.
Then they prayed the Lorde all togyther, which had thewed them mercy, & were commited in their myndes: in so moche that they were ready, not onely to fight with men, but with the most cruel beastes: yea, and ronne throughe the walles of yzon.

Thus they went on wyllyngly haupnge theiuer fro heauen, and the Lorde merciful moche. They fel myghtely vpo their ene-myes lyke lions, brought downe. xi. M. fote men, & x. horsemen, put al þ other to flight many of the beinge wounded, and some gat away naked. Yea, Lysias hym selfe was faine to flie shamefully, and so to escape. He was helpeles, þ man was not withoute understandyng, but cōspyd by hym selfe that his power was mynished, & pondred how þ Je-wes beinge defende by þ helpe of almyghty God, were not able to be ouercom: wherfore he sent them word, & promysed, þ he wold assent to all thynges which were reasonable and to make þ kyng their frend. To þ which prayer of Lysias, Machabeus agreed, selig in all thynges the comen wealtþ & whatsoe-uer Machabeus wrote vnto Lysias concernyng the Jewes, the kyng graunted it. For there were letters wrytten vnto the Jewes from Lysias, contenyng these wordes.

Lysias sendeth gretyng vnto the people of the Jewes. Ihon and Absalon which were sent from you, deliuered me wrytynge, & requyred me to fulfyll the thynges concernyng the; earande. Therfore loke what might be graunted, I certified þ kyng therof & whatsoeuer was couenient, I agreed ther-to. If ye now wyl be fapthfull in þ matters I shall endeuor my self hereafter also to doo you good. As concernyng other thynges by euery article therof: I haue comitted them to your messengers, & to those whom I sent vnto you, to comune with you of the same, fare ye well. In the. C. and. xlviii. yere, the. xliiii. daye of the moneth Dioscorinthius.

Now þ kynges letter cōtēpned these wor-des: kyng Antiochus sendeth gretyng vnto his brother Lysias. For so moche as our father & is nowe deed, our wyl is, that they which are in our realme, lyue without any insurrection, & euery mā to be diligent in his owne matters. We vnderstand also þ the Je-wes wold not consent to oure father, for to be brought vnto the custome of the Gēties, but they ye to kepe their owne statutes: for þ which cause they requyre of vs also, to lette them remaine styll by the; owne lawes.

Wherfore our mynde is, þ this people shalbe in rest: we haue concluded & determined also, to restore the; temple agayne: that they maye lyue accordyng to the vse & custome of the; forefathers. Thou shalt do vs a pleasure therfore, if þ sende vnto them and agre with the: that when they are certified of oure mynde, they maye be of good chere, and loke to the; owne wealtþ.

And this was the letter, that the kyng wrote vnto þ Jewes: kyng Antiochus sendeth gretyng vnto the consail and the other people of þ Jewes: If ye fare well, we haue our desyre: as for vs, we are in good health.
Demetrius came and tolde vs, howe þ you re-desyre was to come downe to poure people, which are with vs.

Wherfore, those that wyl come, we gyue the free lybertie, vnto the. xxx. daye of the mo-neth of Apriyl, þ they maye vse þ meates of þ Jewes and their owne lawes, lyke as afore: & none of the by any maner of wayes to haue harne for thynges done in ignorance. Demetrius whō we haue set vnto you, shal comē to you at large: fare ye well. In the. C. lvi. yere, the. xv. daye of the moneth of Apriyl.

The Romaynes also sent a letter contēpnyng these wordes: Quintus Metellus and Titus Manlius embassadours of the Ro-maynes, sende gretyng vnto the people of the Jewes. Loke what Lysias the kynges kynsman hath graunted you, we graunte you the same also. But as concernyng the thynges which he referred vnto the kyng, send hyther some with speede, and pondre the matter diligently amonge your selues, that we

The. ii. booke

we maye cast the best to your profyt, for we must departe now vnto Antioche. And therfore wyte shortly agayne, & we may know your mynde: fare well. In þe hundreth. xlviij. yere, the. xv. daie of the moneth of Apryll.

The. xii. Chapter.

Timotheus troubleth the Jewes. The wicked dede of the Jewes agaynst the Jewes. Judas is angyed of them. He setteth fyre on the gate of Jamnia. The pursute of the Jewes agaynst Timotheus. Timotheus is taken and let go by hurt. Judas pursueth Gozi: as. Judas a strange sacrifice for the deed, sheweth the hope of the resurrection.

When these covenantes were made Lysias went vnto the kynge, & the Jewes tyld their groud. But Timotheus, Appolonius the sonne of Gemei, Jerome & Demophon the proude, Ricano: & captayne of Cypres, & they that lay in those places, wolde not let the lye in rest & peace. They of Joppa also dyd euen suche a shame full dede. They prayed the Jewes & dwelte amog them, to go with theyr wyues & chyldren into the shippes which they had prepared and dyd with them, as though they had ought them none euill wyl. For so moch the as there was gone forth a generall proclamation thow we the cytie bycause of peace, they consented thereto, and suspect nothyng: but whē they were gone forth into the depe, they drowned no lesse then. ii. C. of them.

Whē Judas knew of this crueltie shewed vnto his people, he commaunded those that were wth hym to make the ready, exhortynge them to cal vpon God the ryghteous Judge: went forth agaynst those murderers of his brethren. set fyre in the haven by nyght, byt by the shippes, and those that escaped from the fyre, he slewe with þe swerde. And when he had done this, he departed as though he wolde come agayne, and roote out all the of Joppa. But whē he had gotten worde, that þe Jamnites were mynded to do in lyke manner vnto þe Jewes which dwelt amonge the he came vpon the Jamnites by nyght, & set fyre on the haven with the shippes: so that the lycht of the fyre was sene at Jerusalem, vpon a. ii. C. and. xl. furlonges.

Now when they were gone from thence ix. furlonge, in theyr iourney towarde Timotheus. v. thousande men of foote, and. v. hundred horsemen of the Arabians, fought with hym. So whē the battayl was earnest & prospered with Judas thowowe the helpe of God: the respydue of the Arabians beinge overcome, besought Judas to be at one with them, & promysed to geue hym certayne pastures, and to do hym good in other thynges. Judas thynkynge that they shoulde in dede be profitable concernynge manye thynges, promysed them peace: wher vpon they shoke handes, and so they departed to theyr tentes. Judas wente also vnto a cytie, whiche was very fast keppe with byrges, fenced round aboute with walles, and byrers kyndes of people dwellynge therein, called Calpin.

They that were within it, put such trust in the strength of the walles, & in their hope of vitayles: that they wer the flacher in their doinges, cursynge and cursynge Judas wth blasphemyes, and speakynge suche wordes as it becommeth not. But Bachabens callynge vpon the greates Prince of the world (which without any battayl rāmes, or ordinaunce of warre, dyd cast downe the walles of Jericho, in þe tyme of Josue) fell manfully vpon þe walles, toke the cytie, & thowowe the helpe of the Lord made an exceeding great slaughter: In so moche þe lake of two furlonges broode whiche laye ther by, semed to flowe with bloude of the slayne.

They departed they from thence. vii. C. & l. furlonges, and came to Taraca vnto the Jewes that are called Tubianei. But as for Timotheus, they coule not get hym there: for (not one matter dispatched) he was departed from thence, and had sette certayne men in a verpe stronge hold. But Dositheus & Solipater which were captaynes wth Bachabens, slewe those that Timotheus had sette in the house of defence, euen. x. W. men. And Bachabens prepared hym with the. vi. W. men þe were about him, let them in agayn by companyes, and went forth agaynst Timotheus, whiche had with hym an. C. & xx. W. men of foote, ii. W. and. v. C. horsemen.

Whē Timotheus had knowledge of Judas comynge, he sent þe women, chyldren and the other baggage vnto a castell called Carnion. (For it coule not be won, & was harde to come vnto, the wayes of the same places were so narowe) & whē Judas comynge came fyrst in syght, þe enemies were smytte wth feare, thowowe the presence of God: whiche seeth all thynges: In so moche þe they fleyng one bere, another there, were rather dyscorted of their owne people, & wounded wth the strokes of theyr owne swerdes. Judas also was very earnest in folowynge vpon them punishynge those vngodly, & slewe. xxx. W. men of the. Timotheus also hym self fel into the hādes of Dositheus and Solipater, whē he besought with many prayers, to let hym go with his lyfe: bycause he had many of the Jewes fathers & bethen in prison, which (if they put him to death) might be disapoynted. So whē he had promysed fapthfully to deliuer them agayne accordynge to the condicion made, they let him go without harme, for þe health of the brethren. And whē Judas had slayne. xxv. W. he went from Carnion.

Now after þe he had chased away, & slayne his enemyes, he remoued the host towarde Ephraim a stronge cytie, wherin dwelt many byrers people of the hepten, & the stronge ponge men keppe the walles, defendynge the myghtely.

In this cytye was moche ordy-nary and proupyd of darters. But when Judas his company had called vpon almyghty God (whiche with his power breaketh the strength of the enemyes) they wanne the cytye and the we. xxv. of the y were within from thence wente they to the cytye of the Jherusalem, which lyeth. vi. C. furlonges fro Jerusalem. But whē the Jewes which were in the cytye testified, that the citizins deale unlawfully with them: yea, and intreated them in the time of their aduersitie, Judas and his company gaue them thanks, despy-ng them to be friendly styl vnto them: and they came to Jerusalem, the daye least of the weekes beinge at hande. And after the feaste of pentecost they wente forthe agaynst Gorias the gouernour of Idumea, with iii. M. men of fote & iii. C. hoysmen. At which when they met togyther, it chaunced a fewe of the Jewes to be slayne. And Volithus one of y aduersaries a myghty hoysman toke hold of Gorgias, & wolde haue taken hym quicke.
But an hoysman of Thracia fell vpon him, and more of his arme so y Gorgias cleaped into the wynde. When they now y were at Gorgias syde, had foughten longe y were slayne: Judas called vpon the Lord, that he wold be their helper, & captayne of the felde: and with that he began to a manly voyce to crye up a songe of prayse, & a crye, Insomuch that he made the enemyes afrayed, and Gorgias me of warre toke their flight. So Judas gathered his host, & came into the citie of Bethulia. And when y seuenth daye cam vpo y they elensed them selues (as the custome was) & kept the Sabbath in the same place.
And vpon the daye folowynge, Judas & his company came to take by the bodies of them that were slayne, and to burye them in the fathers graues. Nowe vnder the cotes of certain Jewes which were slayne, they founde treasures that they had taken out of the temple, from the ydols of the Jamnites: whiche lawe is forbydden the Jewes by the lawe.
Then every man sawe, that this was y cause why they were slayne.

And so every man gaue thanks vnto the Lord for his rychtous iudgement, whiche had opened the eyngate that was byd. They fell downe also vnto they prayers, and besought God, y the faute whiche was made, myghte be put out of remembraunce. Welsydes that Judas exhorted the people earnestly, to keepe the selues from such synne: for so moch as they sawe before they eyes, y these men were slayne for the same offence. So he gathered of euery one a certayne, in so moch y he broughte togyther two thousande drachmas of siluer, which he sent vnto Jerusalem that there mighte a sacrifice be offered for the ynpdede. In the which place he dyd wel and ryght: for he had some consyderacion & pon-deringe of y lyfe that is after this tyme. For yf he had not thought that they, which were slayne, dyd yet lyue, it had bene superfluous and vayne, to make any vowe or sacrifice, for them that were deed. But for so moch as he sawe, that they which dye in the fauoure & beleue of God, are in good rest and ioye, he thought it to be good & honourable for a reconsoling, to do the same for those which were slayne, that the offence myghte be forgiven.

The xlii. Chapter.

The compassage of Eupator into Jewry. The death of Antiochus: Machabees going to fight agaynst Eupator, moueth his souldiers vnto praye. He kyl-leth. xlii. thousand men in the tentes of Antiochus Machabees the betrayer of the Jewes is taken. Antochus retourneth from Jewry with the Jewes.

In the xlii. yeare gat y Judas y knowledge, y Antiochus Eupa-tor was coming to a great power into Jewry, & Lysias the steward and ruler of his matters with hym haunged an C. and x. M. men of fote, v. M. hoysmen, xlii. Elephantes, and lii. C. charrettes. Wenelaus also ioynd him self with the (but with great discreete) and spake saye to the kyng, not for any good of the countrey, but because he thought to haue bene made some greete man of auctoritie. But the kyng of kynges moued Antiochus mynde agaynst this vigourous person, and Lysias inuourmed y kyng y that this Wenelaus was the cause of all mylchefe: so that the kyng commaunded to take hym, and (as the maner of them is) to put hym vnto death in the same place.

There was also in the same place a towre of L. cubytes hie, heaped with alshes: but about it was so made, that men myghte loke downe on euery syde. Whereinto the kyng commaunded that shamefull person to be cast amonge the alshes, as one that was cause of all vngaciousnesse. And reason it was that the vntyght shulde dye such a death, and not to be buried: for he had done moch mylchefe vnto the sulter of God (whose syde y alshes were holpe) therefore was it ryght, y he hym selfe also shoulde be destroyed with alshes.

But the kyng was woode in his mynde, & and came to shewe hym selfe more cruell vnto the Jewes, then his father was. At which when Judas perceyued, he commaunded the people to call vpo the Lord myght and daye: that he wolde now helpe them also, lyke as he had done alwaye. For they were afrayed to be put from they lawe, from their naturall countrey and from the holy temple: and not to suffer the people (whiche a lytle while afore beganne to recouer) to be subdued a-gayne of the blasphemous nations.

So when they had done this togyther, & and besought the Lord for mercy, with wepyng and fastyng the dayes longe, flat vpon the grounde: Judas exhorted them, to make

Antiochus
vi. b

Antiochus
vi. b

Antiochus
vi. b

Antiochus
vi. b

make them selues readye. But he and the elders together deuised to go forth by night with theyr people, afore the kynge broughte his host into Jewry, and afore he besieged Jerusaleme, and to comyt the matter vnto God.

Wherefore, he ascribed the power of all thynges vnto God the maker of the world, exhortyng his people to fyght manfully (yea euen vnto death) for the lawes, the temple, the cytie, theyr owne natyue countrey, and to defende the cytyzens: and let his host before God. He gaue them also that were with hym, a token of the victorie of God, chosynge out the manlyest yongemen, went by nyght into the kynges paulyon, slewe of the host xiiii. thousand, and the greatest Elephantes with those that sat vpon them.

xl. mar. xl. l.

D Thus when they had brought a greatesse feare and rumoure amonge the tentes of theyr enemyes, & all thynges went prosperously with the, they departed in the breake of the daye, God beinge theyr helper and defender. Now when the kynge perceyued the manlynesse of the Jewes, he went aboute to take stronge places by craft, & remoued his host vnto Bethsura, whiche was a well kepte house of defence of the Jewes: but they were chased awaye, hurt and discomforted.

xl. mar. xl. l.

And Judas sent vnto the that were in it such thynges as were necessarye. In the Jewes host also there was one Rhodocus, whiche tolde the enemyes theyr secretes: but they sought hym out, & whē they had gotten hym, they put him in prys. After this dyd the kynge comen with the that were in Bethsura, toke truce with them, departed, and stroke a battayl with Judas, which ouercame hym.

E But when he vnderstode, that Philippe (whom he had left to be ouerseer of his busynesses at Antioche) began to rebell agaynst hym, he was astonnyed in his mynde: so he yelded hym selfe to the Jewes, & made the an othe, to do whatsoeuer they thought ryght.

Now when he was reconcyled with the, he offered, made moche of the temple, gaue great gyftes vnto it, embraced Machabeus, made hym captayne and gouernoure from Ptolomays vnto the Serrenes.

Nevertheless, when he came to Ptolomays, the people of the cytie were not content with the bonde of frendshipp: for they were afrayed, that he wolde breake the couenaunt. Then went Lysias vnto the seate, and comforted the people, shewed them the cause why: and pacified them. So he came agayne to Antioche. This is now the matter concerninge the kynges iourney, and his returne.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

C By the motion of the Lord, Demetrius sent Machabeus to helpe the Jewes. Machabeus made a covenant with the Jewes, which he put breake through the motion of the kynge. Machabeus commaunded that he should be taken. The boldnesse of Machabeus.

After this peres was Judas informed howe that Demetrius the son of Seleucus was come vnto with a great power and shippes, to take certayne commodious places and countreys, agaynst Antiochus and his captayne Lysias. Now Alcimus (which had ben hys prest, and wilfully despyled hym selfe, in the tyme of the mystryng) seing, that by no meane he coulde be helped, nor haue anye more entrance to the aulter: he came to kynge Demetrius in the hundred and one and fiftie yere, presenting vnto hym a crowne of gold, a palme and an Olive tree: whiche (as men thought) belonged to the temple, and that daye he helde his tonge. But when he had gotten oportunitie for his madnesse, Demetrius called him to counsaile, and asked him, what thynges or counsailes the Jewes leane vnto. He answered: The Jewes that be called Jude (whose Captayne is Judas Machabeus) mayntayne warres, make insurrections, & will not let the realme be in peace.

For I beinge depriued of my fathers honoure (I meane the hys presthode) am come hyther: partly because I was fawthful vnto the kynge, and partly because I sought the profyte of the cytyzens. And why all our people, thorow the wickednesse of them, are not a lytle troubled. Wherefore, I beseech the (O kynge) consider all these thynges diligently, and then make some prouision for the lande & the people, accordyng to the kyndnesse that thou hast offered vnto the. For as longe as Judas hath the upper hand, it is not possible that men can lyue in peace.

When he had spoken these wordes, other frendes also haupnyng euyl will at Judas, set the kynge Demetrius on fyre agaynst hym: which immediatly sent Alcimus (miller of the Elephantes) a captayne into Jewry, commaundyng hym to take Judas hym selfe alyue, but to slaye the that were with hym, and to make Alcimus hys prest of the great temple.

Then the Hephthen which fled out of Jewrye from Judas, came to Alcimus by fleshes, shewyng the harme and decaye of the Jewes to be their welfare. Nowe when the Jewes hearde of Alcimus commynge, and the gathering together of the Hephthen, they sprikled the selues with earth, & besought hym which made them his people, and neuer defended his owne pozeion with euident tokens, that he wolde preserve them still. So at the commaundement of the captayne, they remoued fro thence, & came to a towne called Bessalan. And Symon Judas brother fell in bande with Alcimus, but thorow the sodayne commynge of the enemyes, he was afrayed.

Nevertheless, Alcimus hearinge the manlynesse of them that were with Judas, & the bolde holde stomackes that they had to fyghte for thei naturall countrey, durst not proue the matter with bloudsheddyng. Wherefore, he sent Boliadonius, Theodocius & Vathias thither, to gyue and to take peace. So when they had taken longe aduysment ther vpon the captayne shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one minde: to haue peace. And they appoynted a daye to syt vpon these matters quyetly amonge them selues, the schooles also were brought and set forth.

Whertheleste, Judas commaunded certayn men of armes to wayte in conuenient places, wher thei shulde sodaynly asyle any captiue the enemies. And so they comuned reasonably togyther.

Aricanoz, whyle he abode at Jerusalem, thought hym selfe not vnreasonably, but sent to the people that were gathered togy-ther. He loued Judas euer with his hert, and honoured hym. He prayed hym also to take a wyfe, and to bringe forth the chyldren. So he was lpyed in reast, and they led a comen lyfe. But Aleimus perceyving the loue that was betwixt them, and howe they were agryued togyther, came to Demetrius, & tolde him that Aricanoz had taken straunge matters in hand, and ordeyned Judas (an enemy of the realme) to be the kynges successoure.
Then the kyng was soze displeased, & rhommed the wicked accusacions, which A-leimus made of Aricanoz, he was so prouoked, that he wrote vnto Aricanoz, sayinge: that he was very angrie for the frendshyppe and agaynt, which he had made with Vathabius. Whertheleste, he commaunded hym in all the haste, that he shuld take Machabeus prisoner, and sende hym to Antioche.

Which letters when Aricanoz had sene, he was at his wyttys ende, and soze greued, & he shoulde breake the thynges wherein they had agreed: speciallye, leinge Machabeus was a man that neuer vpd him harme. But because he myght not withstande the kyng, he sought oportunitie to fulfyll his commaunment. Notwithstandyng wher Machabeus saw that Aricanoz began to be churlysh vnito him, & that he intreated hym more roughly then he was wont, he perceyued such vnkindnesse came not of good, & therefore he gathered a fewe of his men, & withdrew hym hither to Aricanoz. Whiche when he knewe Machabeus had manfully pcested hym, he came into the great and moost holy temple: and commaunded the prestes (which were doig their usual offringes) to deliuer him the man. And wher they sware that they coude not tel where the man was whom he sought, he stretched out his hande, & made an othe, sayinge: He will not deliuer me Judas captiue. I shal remoue this temple of God into a playne fild, I shal breake downe the alter, & consecrate this temple vnto Batens. After these wordes he departed.

Then the prestes lyft vp theyr handes to-warde heauen, & besought hym that was euer defender of theyr people, sayinge: Thou, O Lord of al, which hast nede of nothing, wol-dest thou the temple of thy habitation shulde be amog vs. Therfore now O most holy Lord kepe this house euer vndefyled: which lately was cleused. Now was there accused vnto Aricanoz, one Razis an alderman of Jerusalem a louer of the hole cytie, & a ma of good report: which for the kinde hert that he bare vnto the people, was called a father of the Iewes. This ma oft tymes, when the Iewes were mynded to kepe them selues vndefyled, defended and deliuered them, beinge content stedfastly to spende his body and his lyfe for his people.

So Aricanoz willing to declare the hate that he bare to the Iewes, sent foure hundred men of warre to take hym: for he thought, if he gat him, he shulde bringe the Iewes in great decaye. Howe wher the people beganne to run in at his house, to breake the doores, & to set fire on it: he beinge nowe taken, wolde haue defended hym selfe with his swerde: cholsyng rather to dye manfully, then to yelde hym selfe to those wicked doers: & by cause of his noble stock, he had rather haue ben put to extreme crueltie. Notwithstandyng, what tyme as he mysted of his stocke for halfe, & the multitude fel in vpolently betwixt the doores, he ran boldly to the wall, & cast him selfe downe man-fully among the deape of them, which gaue soone place to his fall, so that he fel vpon his bely. Whertheleste, whyle there was yet breath within hym, he was kyndled in his mynde, & whyle his bloud gushyd out exteddyngly (for he was very soze wounded) he ranne throrowe the myddest of the people, and gat him to the topp of a rocke. So when his bloude was nowe goone, he toke out his owne bowels with both his handes, & threwe the vpon the people, callyng vpon the Lord of lyfe & spirite to rewarde him this agayne: and so he dyed.

The xv. Chapter.

Aricanoz goeth about to come vpon Judas on the Sabboth daye. The blasphemye of Aricanoz. Ma-chabeus cōspynnyng vnto the Iewes the bilton both with theyr dyctes. The prayer of Machabeus After the booke of Aricanoz is ouercome, Ma-chabeus commaunded his herd and his handen to be out of, and his tongue to be gauen vnto foules.

Nowe wher Aricanoz herte to Judas was in the countrey of Samaria, he thought wile all his power to stryke a felde with hym vpon a Sabboth daye. Whertheleste, the Iewes were compelled to go with hym, sayde: We do not so cruelly and vnkynndly, but halowe the Sabboth daye, and worshippe hym, that seeth all thynges. For all this, yet sayde the vngacious person: Is there a myghty one in heauen, that commaunded the Sabboth daye

* l. mar. fig. 1

* l. l. m. r. 17. 2

The. ii. booke

* 2700. 57. b.

daye to be kepte: And when they sayde: yea, the Ipayng God, the myghty Lorde in heauen * commaunded the seventh daye to be kepte, he sayde: And I am myghty vpon earth, to commaunde them for to arme them selues, and to perfourme the kynges busynesse. Notwithstanding, he myght not haue his purpose.

Aricanoz had deuyled with greates pydde to overcome Judas, & to bypunge awaye the victorie: But Machabeus had euer a fast confidence and a perfect hope in God, that he wolde helpe hym, & exhorted his people, not to be afrayed at the comynge of the Ireythen: but alwaye to remembre the helpe that had ben shewed vnto them from heauen: yea, & to be sure now also, that almyghty God wold geue them the victory. He spake vnto the out of the lawe and prophetes, puttynge them in remembrance of the battayles that they had stricken afore, and made them to be of a good courage.

So when they bettes were pluckt vp, he shewed them also the disceitfulnesse of the Ireythen, and how they wolde kepe no countaunt nor orde. Thus he weaponed them: not with the armour of chylde and speare, but with wholsome wordes and exhortations. He shewed the a dreame also, wherby howe he made them all glad, whiche was this: he thought that he saw Onias (which had ben hye prest, a vertuous and louyng man, sad, and of honest conuersacion, wel spoken, and one that had ben exercysed in godlynesse fro a chylde) holdynge vp his handes toward heauen, and prayynge for his people. After this, there appeared vnto him an other man which was aged, honourable and glorious. And Onias sayd: This is a louer of the brethren, and of the people of Israel. This is he that prayeth moche for the people and for al the holy cytie: Jeremy the prophete of God. He thought also that Jeremy helde out his ryght hande, and gaue vnto Judas a sword of golde, sayynge: Take this holpe swerde, a gyfte from God, wherewith thou shalt smyte downe the enemyes of the people of Israel.

And so they were well comforted thowowe the wordes of Judas, and toke courage vnto them, so that the yonge men were determined in their mindes to fight, & to byde styll at it: In so moche that in the bynges which they toke in hand, their boldnesse shewed the same, bycause the holpe cytie and the temple were in peryll: for the which they toke moze care then for their wyues, chyliden brethren and kynsfolkes. Agayne, they that were in the cytie, were most carefull for those which were to fyght. Nowe, when they wer all in a hope that the iudgement of the matter was at hand, and the enemyes dyewe npe, the host beinge set in a rase, the elephanten and horsemen euery one standynge in his place: Machabeus confydred the comynge of the multitude, the ordynance of dyuers weapons, the cruellenesse of the beastes, and heide vp his handes to warde heauen, callynge vpon the Lorde & doth wonders, * which groweth not the victory after the multitude of weapons and power of the host (but to the that please hym) accordynge to his owne will. Therefore in his prayer he sayd these wordes.

O Lorde, * thou & dydest sende thyn Angell in the tyme of Ezechiah kynge of Iuda, and in the host of Sennacherib leueth an hundred, foure score and fyue thousand: sende nowe also thy good angell before vs (O Lorde of heuens) in the fearfulness and dyde of thy myghty arme, that they which come agaynst thy holy people to blaspheme them, maye be afrayed. And so he made an ende of his wordes. Then Ricanoz & they were with hym, dyewe npe with shawmes, and songes: but Judas and his company with prayer and callynge vpon God.

With theyr handes they smote, but with theyr bettes they prayed vnto the Lorde: and stoue no lesse then xxxv. thousand men: for thowowe the present helpe of God they wer gloriously comforted.

Now when they left of, & were turnyng agayne with ioye, they vnderstode that Ricanoz hym selfe was slayne with the other. Then they gaue a greates shoute and a crye, prayynge the almyghty Lorde with a loude voyce. And Judas (which was enen ready to spende his body and lyfe for his cytyen) commaunded to smyte of Ricanoz heed, with his arme & hand, and to be brought to Jerusalem. When he came there, he called all the people, & the prestes to the aulter with those that were in the castell, & he wred them Ricanoz heed, and his wycked hande whiche he had presumptuously holden vp agaynst the temple of God. He caused the tonge also of byngodly Ricanoz to be cut in lytle peeces, & to be cast to the foules, & the cruel mans had to be hanged vp before the temple.

So euery man gaue thanks vnto the Lorde, sayng: blessed be he, that hath kepte his place vnderfyled.

As for Ricanoz heed, he hanged it vp vpon the hye castell, for an eydent & playne token of the helpe of God. And so they agreed all together, to kepe that daye holy: namely the xiiij. daye of the moneth Adar, which in the Egyptians language, is called the nexte daye before Nardocheus daye. Thus was Ricanoz slayne, and from that tyme forth the Jewes had the cytie in possession: And per myll I nowe make an ende.

The ende of the seconde booke of the Machabees.

and booke
of the mal ocapone, be up his upon the purch not weapon at pleat
i. The des.
de thone of In b thern oulange before us inelle and ey which lapheme made au e they narrowe, and with but with old: and men: for hep best turning char si-be other.
d a cipe,
d a loutie er readpe crtizim) red, with to Jern-ed all the with thole dem Rica obide de aynt the also of p e pectis, mans dā into the hept his ged is up e playm p agreed namety obich in pte dape as Rica
the Je
And best e of

The newe Testament in englyshe translated after the Greke, cōtayneynge these booke;

The Gospell.
Matthew. Luke.
Marke. Iohn.

The Actes.

The Epistles of S. Paul.

- | | |
|----------------------------|------------------------|
| To the Romanes | The .i. The Galatians |
| The .i. Corinthians | The .ii. The Galatians | | The .ii. Corinthians | The .i. Timothe | | To the Galatians | The .ii. Timothe | | To the Ephesians | To Titus | | To the Philippians | To Philemon | | To the Colossians | To the Hebrews | | The Epistles of S. James. | |
| The .i. of S. Peter | The .i. of S. Iohn |
| The .ii. of S. Peter | The .ii. of S. Iohn |
| The pistle of S. Jude | The .iii. of S. Iohn |
| The Revelation of S. Iohn. | |

Obsecro legite pium omnium fieri obsecrationes, Ma-tionis, pulationis, gratiarum actionis pro omni hominibus, pro regibus, &c. i. Thimo. ii.

GOD SAVE THE KING

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

VIVAT REX

The Gospell of S. Mathew.

The first Chapter. ✠

The genealogie of Christ, and marriage of hys mother Mary. The Angel satisfieth Josephs mynde.

This is the booke of the generaciō of Iesus Christ; the sonne of Dauid, the sene of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac. Isaac begat Jacob. Jacob begat Judas and hys brethren. Judas begat Phares and Saram of Thamar. Phares begat Elrom. Elrom begat Aram. Aram begat Aminadab. Aminadab begat Naasson. Naasson begat Salomon. Salomon begat Boos of Rahab. Boos begat Obed of Ruth. Obed begat Jesse. Jesse begat Dauid the kynge. Dauid the kynge begat Salomon, of her that was the wyfe of Urie. Salomon begat Roboam. Roboam begat Abia. Abia begat Asa. Asa begat Josaphat. Josaphat begat Joiam. Joiam begat Olias. Olias begat Joatham. Joatham begat Achas. Achas begat Ezechias. Ezechias begat Manasses. Manasses begat Amon. Amon begat Josias. Josias begat Jechonias. Jechonias and hys brethren about the tyme they were carped away to Babylon. And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel. Salathiel begat Jozobabel. Jozobabel begat Abiud. Abiud begat Eliachim. Eliachim begat Azor. Azor begat Sadoc. Sadoc begat Achin. Achin begat Eliud. Eliud begat Eleasar. Eleasar begat Matthan. Matthan begat Jacob. Jacob begat Joseph the husbande of Mary of whome was borne Iesus, euen he that is called Christ. ✠

And so all the generacions from Abraham to Dauid, are fourtene generaciōs. And frō Dauid vnto the captiuite of Babylon, are fourtene generaciōs. And from the captiuite of Babylon vnto Christ, are fourtene generaciōs.

The birth of Iesus Christ was on this wyse. ✠ When hys mother Mary was married to Joseph (before they came to dwel together) she was founde with chylde by the holy goost. Then Joseph her husbāde (because he was a ryghteous man, and wolde not put her to shame) he was mynded pryncely to departe from her. But whyle he thus thought, beholde the Angell of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in slepe, sayeng: Joseph thou sonne of Dauid: feare not to take vnto the Mary thy wyfe. For that which is conceived in her, cometh of the holy goost. She shall brynge forth a sone, and thou shalt call hys name Iesus. For he shall saue hys people from theyr synnes.

All this was done that it myght be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the prophet, sayeng: Beholde, a mayde shall be with chylde, and shall brynge forth a sone, and they shall call hys name Emanuel, which is a man interprete, it is as muche to saye as God with vs. ✠

And Joseph as sone as he awoke out of slepe, dyd as the angel of the Lorde had bidden hym: and he toke hys wyfe vnto him, & knewe her not, tyll she had brought forth the first begotten sonne, & called his name Iesus.

The ii. Chapter.

The tyme and place of Christes birth. The wyfe of Joseph, the priest, Christ spych into Egypt, the wyfe of Joseph are slayne. Christ turneth into Galilee.

When Iesus was borne at Bethleem a cytie of Jewry, in the tyme of Herode the kynge: Beholde, there came wyfe men frō the east to Jerusalem, sayeng: Where is he that is borne kynge of Jewes? For we haue sene hys starre in the east, & are come to worshyppe hym.

When Herode the kynge had herde these thynges, he was troubled, and all the cytie of Jerusalem with hym. And whan he had gathered all the chiefe prestes and scribes of the people together, he demaunded of them, where Christ shulde be borne. And they said vnto hym: At Bethleem in Jewry. For thus it is wyrtten by the prophet: And thou Bethleem in the lande of Juda, art not the least amonge the princes of Juda. For out of the thal there come vnto me the chiefe, that shall gouerne my people Israel.

Then Herode (whē he had pryncely called the wyfe men) he enquired of the diligently what tyme the starre appered, & he had them

A ii go to

The Gospel of

go to Bethleem, & sayd: So poure way thy-ther, & search diligently for þe chyld. And whē ye haue founde him, bringe me worde agayne that I may come and worshipp hym alio.

¶ Whē they had herd þe kynges, they departed: and lo, the starre whych they saw in the east, went before the, tyl it came, & stode ouer the place, wherein the chyld was. Whē they sawe the starre, they were exceedinge glad: and went into the house, and founde the chyld with Mary his mother: & fel downe flat and worshipped hym, and opened their treasures & offered vnto hym gyftes, golde, frankincense, & myrrer. And after they were warned of God in slepe (that they shuld not go agayne to herode) they returned into theyr owne countre another waye. ¶

* Mat. 1. 1. b
* Luc. 1. 1. b

¶ Whē they were departed, behold, the angell of the Lorde appered to Joseph in slepe sayenge, aryle, & take the chyld & his mother and fye into Egypt: and be thou there tyl I brynge the worde. For it wyl come to passe that herode shall seke the chyld, to destroy hym. So when he awoke, he toke the chyld and his mother by nyght, and departed into Egypt, and was there vnto the death of he-rode, that it myght be fulfilled, whych was spoken of the Lorde by þe prophete, sayenge:
* out of Egypt haue I called my sonne.

* Mat. 2. 1. a
* Num. 23. 1. c

¶ Then herode whē he sawe þe he was mocked of þe wyse men, he was exceedinge wroth, & sent forth me of warre, & slue al the chyldre that were in Bethleem, and in al þe coastes, (as many as were two yere olde or vnder) accordynge to the tyme, whych he had dilygently knowe out of the wyse men.

* Jer. 31. 1. c

¶ Then was fulfilled that, whych was spoke by þe prophete Jeremye: where as he sayd: in Rama was there a voyce herde: lamentation, weeping, & great mournynge. Rachel weeping for her chyldren, & wolde not be comforted because they were not. ¶ But when herode was deade: behold, ¶ an angell of the Lorde appeared in a slepe to Joseph, in Egypt, sayenge: aryle, and take the chyld & his mother, and go into the lande of Israel, for they are deade which sought the chyldes lyfe. And he arose, and toke the chyld & his mother, & came into the lade of Israel. But when he herde that Archela-us dyd raigne in Jewye, in the rowme of hys father herode, he was afraid to go thither. Forwithstandynge, after he was warned of God in a slepe, he turned asyde into þe parties of Galile, and went and dwelt in a cyte which is called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled whych was spoken by the prophetes: he shal be called a Nazarite. ¶

* Mat. 4. 1. b
* Luc. 1. 1. b
* John. 1. 1. b

The .iii. Chapter. ¶

¶ The baptyme, preachynge and offyce of Iohn, and how Chyke was baptised of hym in Iordane.

¶ In those dayes cam Iohn þe Baptist, preaching in the wyldernes of Jewye, and sayenge: ¶ Repent of þe lyfe that is past, for the kyng dome of heauen is at hande. ¶ For this is he of whome the prophete Esay spake, whych sayeth: ¶ The voyce of a cryer in the wyldernesse, prepare ye the waye of þe Lord: & make hys pathes straghte. ¶ This Iohn had hys rayment of camels heer. ¶ And a gysell of a skynne about hys loynes. ¶ His meat was locustes and wilde honny. ¶ Then wente out to hym Ierusalem and all Jewye, and all the regyon rounde about Iordane, and were baptised of hym in Iordan, confessynge theyr synnes.

¶ But when he sawe many of the Pharises and Saducees come to hys baptyme, he sayd vnto them. ¶ O generation of bypers, who hath taught you to fle from the venge-aunce to come? Brynge forth therfore þe fru-tes that belonge to repentance. And be not of such mynde that ye wold saye w in youre selues: we haue Abraham to oure father.
For I saye vnto you, that God is able to brynge to passe, that of these stonys ther shal ryle vp chyldren vnto Abraham. Euen now is the axe also put vnto the rote of the trees: so that euery tree which bryngeth not forth good frute, is hewen downe, and cast into the fyre.

¶ I baptise you in water vnto repitaunce: ¶ but he that shall come after me is myghtyer then I, whose shoes I am not worthy to beare. He shal baptise you w the holy goost and with fyre: ¶ whose fan is in hys hande, and he wyl purge his floore, and gather his wheate into the barn, but wyl burne the chaffe with vnquencheable fyre. ¶

¶ Then cometh Iesus from Galile to Iordan vnto Iohn to be baptised of hym.
But Iohn forbad hym, sayenge: I haue nede to be baptised of the: and comest thou to me?
Iesus answered and sayd vnto hym: Let it be so nowe. For thus it becometh vs to ful-fyll al ryghteousnes. ¶ Then he suffered hym.
And Iesus when he was baptised, came straghte waye out of the water. And lo: he-uen was open vnto hym: & he saw the spere of God descendynge lyke a doue, and lyghtyng vpon hym. And lo, there came a voyce from heauen sayenge: ¶ This is my beloued sonne, in whom I am well pleased. ¶

The .iiii. Chapter.

¶ Chyke fasted and is tempted: he calleth wyter Andrew, James, and Iohn: and healeth the syche.

¶ I was Iesus: led away of þe sprete, into wyldernes: to be tempted of the deuell. And when he had fasted forty dayes and forty nyghtes, he was at the last an hongred. And whē the tempter came to hym, he sayd: pf thou be the sonne of God commande

* Mat. 1. 1. b
* Luc. 1. 1. b
* John. 1. 1. b

demande, that these stones be made bread. But he answered and sayde: it is wrytten, man shall not lyue by breade onlye, but by every worde p procedeth out of the mouth of God.

Then the deuell taketh him vp into p ho- lyte, & letteth hym on a pynacle of the te- ple, and sayeth vnto hym: pf thou be p some of God, cast thy selfe downe headlyng. For it is writte: He shal geue his angels charge ouer the, & with they: handes they shall holde the vp, lest at any tyme thou dash thy foote agaynst a stone. And Iesus sayde to hym: it is wrytten agayne: Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

Agayne, the deuell taketh him vp into an exceedinge hye mountayne, and sheweth him all the kyngdomes of the world, and the glo- ry of the, and sayeth vnto hym: all these wyl I geue the, pf thou wylt fall downe, & wor- shippe me. Then sayeth Iesus vnto hym: Awayde Satan. For it is wrytten: Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and hym only shalt thou serue.

Then the deuell leaueh hym, and behold, the agels came, & ministered vnto hym. ¶ When Iesus had herde that John was taken, he departed into Galile, and left Na- zareth, and went and dwelt in Capernaum: which is a cytie vpon the see coast, in the bo- ders of zabulon & Neptalim: that it myght be fulfilled which was spoken by Ely the prophete, sayeng: The lande of zabulon & Neptalim, by p waye of the see beyode Jor- dane, Galile of p gentyls: the people whych sat in darkenesse & in the shadowe of death, sawe great lycht: & to the which sat in p re- gion of shadowe of death, is p lycht spryg vp from p tyme, Iesus begane to preach, and to saye: Repente, for the kyngdome of heauen is at hande.

¶ As Iesus walked by the see of Galile he sawe two brythren: Simon which was called Peter, & Andie his brother, casting a net into the see (for they were fshers) & he sayeth vnto them: folowe me, and I wyl make you: (to become) fshers of me. And they straight waye left the nettes, and folo- wed hym.

And whē he was gone forth fro thēce, he sawe other two brythren, James p sone of ze- bedee, & John his brother, in p shyp w zebede- they: father, mēdyng they: nettes, & he cal- led the. And they immediatly left the shyp and they: father, and folowed hym.

¶ And Iesus went about al Galile, tea- ching in they: synagoges, & preaching the gospel of the kyngdome, & healynge all ma- ner of syknes, & all maner of diseale amonge the people. And hys fame spred abroade throughout al Siria. And they broughe vn- to hym al syck people p were taken wyth dy-uers diseases and gryppynge, and them that were possessed with deuels: and those which were lunatyke, & those that had the palsy: & he healed the. ¶ And ther folowed him great multitudes of people, from Galile, & from the ten cyties, and fro Jerusalem, and from Jewry, and from the regions that lye beyonde Jordan.

¶ The v. Chapter.

In this Chapter and in the two next folowynge is contayned the most excellent and louynge sermon of Christ in the mount: whych sermon is the very hepe that openeth the vnderstandynge into the lawe. In this fifth Chapter, specialllye he preacheth of the big- dractudes of blyssynge: of mactlaughter, wrauth and anger, of aduocacy, of swerynge, of sufferyng wjngre and of loue, men to warde a mans enemyes.

When he sawe the people, he wente vnto a mountayne, and whē he was set, his disciples came to him and after that he had opened by mouth, he taught the, sayeng: Blessed are the poore in spete, for they: is p kyngdome of heaue. Blessed are they that mourne: for they shall receaue comforte. Blessed are the meke: for they shall receaue the enheritaunce of the earth. Blessed are they which hōger and they: after ryghteousnes: for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are p merciful: for they shall obteyne mercy. Blessed are the pure in herte: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peace makers: for they shall be called the chyl- dren of God. Blessed are they whych suffre persecucio for ryghteousnes sake: for they: is the kyngdome of heauen. Blessed are ye, when me reuple you, and persecute you, and shall falsely say all maner of euil sayenge agaynst you, for my sake. Reioyse & be glad for great is your rewarde in heuen. ¶ For so persecuted they p prophetes, whych were before you.

¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: But pf salt haue lost the saltnes, what shall be season- ed ther with? It is thence forth good for no thyng, but to be cast oute, and to be troden downe of men. Ye are the lycht of the world. A cytie that is set on an hyll can not be hyd, neither do men lycht a candell, and put it vnder a busshell, but on a candellsticke, and it geueh lycht vnto all that are in p house. Let your lycht so shyne before men. ¶ That they maye see your good workes, & glorifye your father, whych is in heauen.

¶ Thynke not p I am come to destrōye the law, or the prophetes: no, I am not come to destrōye, but to fulfill. For truly I say vnto you: till heauen and earth passe, one iotte or one tytle of the lawe shall not scape, till all be fulfilled.

Whosoever therfore bzeaketh one of these leest commaundementes, and teacheth men so, he shall be called the leest in the kyng- dome of heauen. But whosoever doth & tea- cheth, the same shall be called greate in the

¶ In the kyng-

kyngdome of heauen. **¶

¶ For I say vnto you: except your eigh-tounesse exceede the ryghteousnesse of the Scribes and Pharises, ye cannot entre into the kyngdome of heauen.

*Erod. r. c.
Luce. xv. b.
Deute. b. b.

D Ye haue herde that it was sayd vnto the of olde tyme. ¶ Thou shalt not kyl: whoso euer kylleth, shalbe in daunger of iudgement.
But I saye vnto you: that whosoever is an grepe with hys brother (vnadvisedly) shalbe in daunger of iudgement. And whosoever saye vnto hys brother Racha, shalbe in danger of a council. But whosoever sayth thou foole, shalbe in daunger of hell fyre.

*Job. xlii. b.

Therefore if thou offrest thy gyfte at the aulter, and there remembrest that thy brother hath ought agaynst þe: leaue there thyne offryng before the aulter: and go thy waye first, and be reconcyled to thy brother, and then come and offre thy gyfte. **¶

*Luce. x. g.

¶ Agre wyth thyne aduersary quickely whyles thou arte in the waye wyth hym, lest at any tyme the aduersary deliuer the to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer the to þe minister, and then thou be caste into prison. He rely, I say vnto the: thou shalt not come out thence, tyll thou haue payed the vtmost farthyng.

*Erod. r. c.
Loma. r. i. c.
*Eccl. r. i. c.
Job. xxi. a.

Ye haue herde that it was sayd vnto them of olde tyme. ¶ Thou shalt not comyt adou-trye. But I saye vnto you: that whosoever looketh on another mans wyfe to luste after her, hath comytted adoutrye with her already in hys herte.

*Mat. ix. g.

E ¶ If thy ryght eye hinder the, plucke him out, and cast hym from the. For better it is vnto the, that one of thy members perishe, then that thy whole body shulde be cast into hell. And if thy ryght hande hynder the, cut hym of, and cast hym from the. For better it is vnto the, that one of thy members perishe then þat al thy body shuld be cast into hell. **¶

*Deu. xxi. a.
Mat. x. a.
*Eccl. r. i. c.
*Mat. x. b.

It is sayd, whosoever putteth away his wyfe, * let hym geue her a letter of deuorce-ment. ¶ But I saye vnto you: that whosoeuer doth put away his wyfe (excepte it be for fornicacion) causeth her to breake matrimony. And whosoever marryeth her that is deuorced commytteth adoutrye.

*Luce. x. g.

Agayne, ye haue herde how it was sayde to them of olde tyme: ¶ thou shalt not for-swear thy selfe, but shalt perfourme vnto þe Lorde those thinges that thou swearest.

*Jacob. b. b.

¶ But I saye vnto you: sweare not at al: nether by heauen, * for it is Goddes seate, nor by the earth, for it is hys fote stole: neither by Jerusalem, for it is the cytie of the greates kyng: neither shalt thou sweare by thy head because thou canst not make one hert whyt or blacke. But your communicacion shalbe yea, yea, naye, naye. For whatsoeuer is added more then these, it commeth of euell.

*Esa. lvi. a.
*Mat. x. b.

Ye haue herde that it is sayd: ¶ an eye for an eye: and a toth for a toth. But I saye vnto you, that ye resyst not euell. But: who so euer geue the a blowe on the ryghte cheke, turne to hym the other also. And if any man wyl sue the at the lawe, and take away thy coote, let hym haue thy cloke also. And who soever wyl copell the to go a myle, go wyth hym twayne. Geue to hym þat asketh the, and fro hym that wolde bozowe, turne not thou awaye.

¶ Ye haue herde that it is sayd, * thou shalt loue thyne neighbour, and hate thyne enemye. But I saye vnto you: loue your ene-myes. ¶ Blesse the that curse you. ¶ Do good to them that hate you. ¶ Pray for the which hurte you and persecute you, that ye may be the chyldre of your father which is in heauen for he maketh hys sune to aryle on þe euell, son þe good, & sendeth rayne on þe iust & on þe vniust. ¶ For if ye loue the which loue you: what reward haue ye? Do not the publicans also ruen the same? And if ye make much of your brethren only, what singuler thinge do ye? Do not also the publicans lyke wyse? ¶ Ye shall therefore be perfyete, eue as your father which is in heauen is perfyete. **¶

The. vi. Chapter. **¶

¶ Of Almes, prayer and fastyngs. The fourtheth the carefull keepyng of worldly thynges.

The heade, that ye geue not your almes in the syghte of men, to the intent that ye wold be sene of them Or elles ye haue no reward wyth your father, whiche is in heauen. Therefore whan thou geuest thyne almes, let no trompettes be blowen before the, as the ppoctites do in the synagoges and in þe stretes: for to be praysed of men. Therely, I saye vnto you: they haue theyr reward. ¶ But when thou wilt geue almes, let not thy left hande knowe what thy ryghte hande doeth, that thyne almes maye be in secreete, and thy father whiche seeth in secreete, shall reward the openly. **¶

And when thou prayest * thou shalt not be as the ppoctites are. For they vse to stand prayinge in the synagoges, & in the corners of the stretes, that they may be sene of men.
Therely, I saye vnto you: they haue theyr re-warde. ¶ But when thou prayest: entre into thy chamber, & when thou hast shut thy dore praye to thy father which is in secreete, & thy father whiche seeth in secreete, shall reward the openlye.

But when ye praye: babble not much, as the heathen do: for they thynke it wyl come to passe, þe they shalbe herde for theyr muche bablynges sake. Be not ye therefore lyke vnto them. ¶ For your father knoweth what thynges

Whiche ye haue meade of before ye aske of our father whiche art in heauen, halobe thy name. Let thy kyngdome come.

Thy wyl be fulfilled, as well in earth, as it is in heauen. Geue vs thus daye oure daylye bread. And forgive vs oure dettes, as we forgiue oure debtors. And leade vs not into temptacion: but deliuer vs from euill. For thou art the kyngdome and the power, and the glorie for euer. Amen. Therfore, *yf ye forgiue other men theyr trespasses, your heuyl father shall forgiue you. * (your trespasses) yf ye wyl not forgiue men theyr trespasses, neither shall your father forgiue you your trespasses.

* Wozeouer when ye fast, be not sad as the hypocrites are. For they disfigure theyr faces, that it may appeare vnto men, howe they fast. Verely, I saie vnto you, they haue theyr reward. But thou when thou fastest, anoynt thyne heed, and washe thy face that it appeare not vnto men, how that thou fastest: but vnto thy father, whyche is in secret: & thy father whych seeth in secret, shall reward the openly.

Lape not vp for your selues treasure vpon earth, where the rust & moth doth corrupte, and where theues bryake through, & steale.

But lape vp for you, treasures in heauen, where neither rust nor moth doth corrupte, and where theues do not bryake thorow nor steale. For where your treasure is, there wil your herte be also. ¶

The lyght of the body is the eye. Wher fore yf thyne eye be single, all thy body shall be full of lyght. But and yf thyne eye be wycked, all thy body shall be full of darkenesse.

Therfore, yf the lyght y is in the, be darcke as howe great is that darkenesse.

* No man can serue two masters. For either he shall hate the one and loue the other, or els he will loue the one, and despyle the other: ye can not serue God and Mammon. Therfore, I saie vnto you: * be not carefull for your lyfe, what ye shall eate or drynke, nor for your bodye, what rayment ye shall put on. Is not y lyfe moze woorth the meat:

and the body moze of value then rayment?
Beholde, the foules of y ayer: for they sowe neither do they reape, nor carpe into the barnes: and your heuylly father feedeth them.

Are ye not much better then they?
¶

Whiche of you (by takinge carefull thought) can adde one cubyte vnto his stature? And why care ye for rayment? Consy-der the lilies of the feilde, howe they growe.

They laboure not, neither do they lpyne.
And yet I saie vnto you, that euen Salomon in all his royalte was not arrayed lyke one of these. Therfore, yf God so cloth the haire of the feilde: whych though it stode to dape, is to morowe cast into y fornasle: shall he not much moze do the same for you, O ye of lytle fapth?

Therfore, take no thought, sayeng: what shall we eate, or what shall we drynke, or wherewith shall we be clothed: after al these thynges do the gentyls seke. For your hea-uenly father knoweth, that ye haue nede of all these thynges. But rather seke ye fyrst y kyngdome of God, and the ryghte ouerlasse therof, and al these thynges shall be ministred vnto you. ¶

Care not then for the morowe, for the mo-rowe dape shall care for it selfe: sufficient vnto the dape, is the tranaple therof.

The vii. Chapter

¶ He that byddeth sonnyh and rather iudgement, reppro-ueth hypocryte, & byddeth vnto prayer, warneth to be ware of false prophetes: & wyllyth the hearers of hys woorde to be doers of the same.

Iudge not, yf ye be not iudged, (condempne not and ye shall not be condemned) * For as ye iudge, so shall ye be iudged. * And wyth what measure ye meate, w the same shall other men measure to you. * Why seekest thou a moate in thy brothers eye, but considerest not the beame that is in thyne owne eye? O howe sayest thou to thy brother: (brother) lustre me, I wyl plucke out a moate out of thyne eye, and beholde, a beame is in thyne owne eye. Thou hypocrite, fyrst cast out the beame out of thyne owne eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to plucke out the moate out of thy brothers eye.

Geue not ye that which is holy vnto dogges, nethe cast ye your pearles before swyne lest they treade them vnder theyr fete and y other turne agaynst you, and al to rent you.

A lye, and it shall be geuen you: * Seke y ye shall fynde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you. For whosoener askerh, receaueth and whosoener sekerh, fyndeth: and to hym that knocketh, it shall be opened. Is ther any man amonge you, whych (yf hys sonne aske bread) wyl offer hym a stone? Or yf he aske fyre, wyl he offer hym a serpent? Yf ye the (whan ye are euell) can geue your chyldren good gyftes, how much moze shall your father, which is in heauen, gyue good thynges, yf ye aske of hym.

Therfore, * whatsoner ye wolde y men shulde do to you: do ye euen so to them also.

For thus is the lawe and the prophetes.
¶

Entre in at the straye gate: for wyde is the gate, and broad is the waye that lea-deth to destruccio: and many there be which go in ther at. For straye is the gate, and na-rowe is the waye, whych leadech vnto lyfe, & fewe there be that fynde it. ¶

* Beware of false prophetes, which come to you in she-pes clothynge, but inwardly they are rane-

As iiii nyngte.

nyngte wolues. Ye shal know them by theyr frutes.

* Luke. vi. g

* Do me gather grapes of thornes: or figges of thystles: Eue so euery good tree bringeth forth good frutes. But a cōrupte tree, bynggeth forth euil frutes. * A good tree can not byringe forth bad frute: nether can a bad tree byringe forth good frutes. * Euery tree þ bynggeth not forth good frute, is hewen downe, and cast into the fyre. Wherfore, by theyr frutes ye shal knowe them.

* Math. xxi. c

* Math. xxi. d
Luke. xxi. b

* Math. xxi. b Luke. vi. g
and. xiii. e

For euery one þ sayeth vnto me, * Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kyngdome of heauen: but he that doth the wyl of my father, whych is in heauē. * (He shall enter into the kyngdome of heauen.)

Actes. xxi. c

Many wyl saye to me in þ dape: Lord, Lord, haue we not prophetied thow thy name: * And thow we thy name haue cast out deuyls: And done many myracles thow we thy name: And then wyl I knowlege vnto them: I neuer knewe you.

* Mat. vi. b
Luke. xxi. b

* Departe fro me, ye that worke iniquite.

* Luke. vi. g

For whosoever heareth of me these wordes, & doth the same, I wyl lyken hym vnto a wyse man, which buyt hys house vpo a rocke: and a shouer of rapne descēded, & the floudes came, & the wyndes blew, and bet vpon that house, & it fel not, because it was grounded on the rocke. And euery one þ heareth of me these wordes, & doth them not shalbe lykened vnto a foolysch man, whiche buyt his house vpo sande: and a shouer of rapne descēded, & the floudes came, & þ wyndes blew, & beate vpo that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it.

* Jacob. i. b

* Eccl. xxi. b

* Mat. i. c Luke. xxi. e

And it came to passe, that whē Iesus had ended these sayenges, the people were astonnyed at hys doctrine. * For he taught them as one hauynge power, & not as the scribes

(of them, and the pharisees.)

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

Christ clyeth the leper, healeth the capernaum seruante and many other diseases, helpeh Peters mother in lawe, stylyeth the seruand the wynde, and dyspeth the deuile out of the possessed into the swyne.

* Luke. ix. c
Mat. i. b

When he was come downe fro the mountaine much people folowed hym. And beholde, * there came a leper, & worshypped hym sayeng: * Affer, þ thou wylt, thou canst make me cleane. And Iesus put forth hys hande, and touched hym sayeng: I wil, be thou cleane, and immediatly hys leprosie was clynded. And Iesus sayeth vnto hym: se thou tell no man: but go, & shewe thy selfe to the p̄reke: and offre the gyfte (that) Moyses cōmaunded to be offred) for a wytnes vnto them.

* Leui. xxi. a

* Luke. ix. a John. ix. g

And when Iesus was entred into Capernaum, ther came vnto hym a Centurion, and besought hym, sayeng: * Affer, my seruante lyeth at home syche of the palsey, & is greuously payned. And Iesus sayeth when I come vnto hym, I wyl heale hym. The Centurion answered, & sayd: * My, I am not worthy, that thou shuldest come vnder my rofe: but * speake the word only, and my seruant shalbe healed. For I also my self am a man subiecte to the authorite of another, and haue souldyers vnder me, and I saye to this man: go, & he goeth: & to another come, and he cometh, and to my seruant do this, and he doth it. When Iesus herde these wordes, he maruelled: and sayd to them that folowed him: Verely, I saye vnto you: I haue not founde so great fapth in Israel. I say vnto you that: many shal come from the east, and west, and shal rest with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in þ kyngdome of heauen: but þ chyldren of the kyngdome shalbe cast out into vtter darkenelle: there shalbe wepyng & gnaushynge of teth. And Iesus sayd vnto the Centurion: go thy wape, and as thou beleuest, so be it vnto the. And hys seruant was healed in the selfe same houre.

* And whē Iesus was come into Peters house, he sawe hys wyues mother lyenge in bed, and sicke of a feuer. And he touched her hande, and the feuer left her: and she arose, & mynistrēd vnto them.

When the euen dyē on, they brought in to hym many that were possessed w̄ deuils. And he cast out the sp̄ytes wyth a word, & healed all that were syche, that it myght be fulfilled, which was spoken by Esay þ prophet, when he sayeth: * he toke on hym our infirmities, and bare our synes.

When Iesus sawe much people aboute hym, he cōmaunded that they shulde go vnto the other syde of the water. And a certayne scribe (when he was come) sayde vnto hym: * Master, I wyl folowe the whither soeuer thou goest. And Iesus sayeth vnto hym: the foxes haue holes, and the byrdes of the ayre haue nestes: but the sonne of man hath not where to rest hys heade. And another of the nobber of hys disciples sayd vnto hym: * Master suffer me fyrst to go and bury my father. But Iesus sayd vnto hym: folowe me, and let the deade burpe theyr deade.

* And when he entred into a shyp, hys disciples folowed hym. And beholde, * ther arose a great tempest in the see, in so muche that the shyppe was couered wyth wauers, but he was a slepe. And hys disciples came to hym and awoke hym, sayeng: * Affer, saue vs, we perishe. And he sayeth vnto the: why are ye fearful, O ye of lytle fapth? Ther he arose * and rebuked the wyndes and the see, and there folowed a greate calme. But the men marueyled, sayeng: what maner of man is this, that both wyndes and see obey hym?

* And whē he was come to þ other syde, in to the colitre of the Gergetites, ther met him two mo possessed of deuyles, which cam out of the graues, and were out of measure feare, so that no man might go by that waye. And beholde, they cried out sayinge: * O Iesu sonne of God: what haue we to do wth y?

But thou come hyther to torment vs before the tyme? And ther was a good waie of fro them: a heerd of many swyne, fedyng.
So, the deuyls besought hym, sayinge, yf thou cast vs out, suffre vs to go oure waie into the heerd of swyne. And he sayde vnto them: go poure wapes. Then wet they out, and departed into the heerd of swyne. And beholde, the whole heerd of swyne was caried headlyng in to the see, and perished in the waters. Then they that kepte the, fledd, and wet their wapes into the cytie, and told every thyng, and what had foryned vnto the possessed of the deuyls. And beholde, the whole cytie came out to mete Iesus: & when they sawe him, they besought hym that he wolde departe out of their coastes.

The ix. Chapter.

He healeth the palsy, calleth together from the synners, and cureth. & for his disciples, healeth the woman of the bloody issue: heipeth Iarus daughter, groweth, & depynde men they speake, maketh a domme man to speake, and dyspurch out a deuill.

Entred also into a synnyppe, & passed ouer, and came into hys owne cytie, and beholde, they broughte to hym a man sicke of the palsy, lyeinge in a bed. And when Iesus sawe the fapth of them, he sayd vnto the sick of the palsy: sonne, be of good cheare, thy synnes be forgyuen the. And be-holde: certayne of the Scribes sayd wyth in them selues: this man blasphemeth. And when Iesus sawe their thoughtes, he sayde.
Wherfore thyncke ye euill in poure hartes?
Whether is easer to saye, thy synnes be for-gyuen the, or to saye, aryse and walke? But that ye maye knowe, that the sonne of man hath power to forgyue synnes in erth. Then sayeth he vnto the lycke of y palsy: * arise, take up thy bed, and go vnto thyne house.
And he arose, & departed to hys house. But the people that sawe it, marueyled, and gloryfied God, whych had geuen soch power vnto men.

* And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he sawe a mā (named Mathew) sittinge at the receate of custome, and he sayeth vnto him: folow me. And he arose, & folowed him And it came to passe as Iesus sat at meate in hys housse: beholde, many Publicans also and synners that came, sat downe with Jesus and his disciples.

And when y Pharises sawe it, they sayde vnto his disciples: why eateth poure master wyth publicans and synners? But when Iesus heard that, he sayde vnto them. They that be stronge, nede not the physicyon, but they that are sicke. Soo ye rather and learne what y meaneth. * I wyll haue mercy, and not sacrifice. For I am not come to call the ryghtewes, but synners to repentance. ¶

* Then came the disciples of John vnto him, sayinge: * why do we and the Pharises fast, for the most parte: but thy disciples fast not? And Iesus sayde vnto the: can the byp-degromes chylde:en mourne as longe as the bydegrome is wyth them? But the dayes wyll come, when the bydegrome shalbe taken from them, and then shal they fast. Roman putteth a pece of a new cloth in an olde garmēt. For then taketh he awape the pece from the garmēt, and the rent is mad worse.
Nether do men put new wyne into olde bottels: els the bottels breake, and the wyne runneth out, and the bottels perishe. But they put new wyne into newe bottels, and both are saued together. ¶

* Whyle he thus spake vnto the, beholde, ther came a certayne ruler, and worshipped him, sayinge my daughter is euē now diseased, but come and lape thy hand vpon her, & she shal lyue. And Iesus arose, and folowed him, and (so dyd) his disciples. * and behold, a woman which was diseased with an ysue of bloude twelue yeres, came behynde hym, and touched the hemme of hys vesture. For she sayde wythyn her selfe: yf I maye touche but euen hys vesture onely, I shalbe safe.
But Iesus turned hym aboute, and whan he sawe her, he sayde. Daughter, be of good comforte, thy faith hath made the safe. And the woman was made whole, euē that same tyme. ¶

* And when Iesus came into the rulers house, and sawe the minstrels, and y people making a noyse, he sayde vnto the: get you hence, for y mayde is not deed: but slepeth.
And they laughed him to scozne. But whan the people were put forth, he went in, & toke her by the hande, & (and sayde: damsell, aryse.) and y damsell arose. And this noyse wet abrood into all that lande.

And whan Iesus departed thence, two blynd men folowed him, crying & sayinge: O thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs: And when he was come into the house, the blynde came to him. And Iesus sayeth vnto them: Beleue ye, that I am able to do this?
They saie vnto him: Lorde, we beleue. The touched be their eyes, sayinge: * accordyng to your sayth be it vnto you. And their eyes were opened. And Iesus charged them sayinge. Se that no mā knowe of it. But they, whan they were departed, spread abroode his name in all that lande.

As they wet out, beholde: they brought to him a domme mā possessed of a deuyl. And whan y deuyl was cast out the domme spake.
As v And

* Mat. ix. c.
Mat. xii. a.

* Mat. xii. b.
Mat. ix. c.
Luce. ix. c.

* Mat. ix. c.
Luce. viii. f.

* Mat. ix. c.
Luce. viii. f.
Luce. ix. d. c.

* Mat. ix. b. a.
Luce. viii. g.

* John. xi. b.

* Mat. ix. b. b.

* Mat. xii. b.
Luce. xii. b.

And the people merueyled, sayinge: it was neuer so sene in Israel. But þe pharises sayd. * he casteth out deuyls, thowoe the prince of deuils.

* And Iesus went about all cyties & townes, teachinge in their synagoges, and preachinge the gladtydinges of the kyngdome, and healing euery sicknes and euery diseale amonge the people. But when he lawe the people: * he was moued wth copassion on them, because they were destitute, and scattered abroode, eue as shepe haupnge no shepherde. Then sayeth he vnto his disciples, þe heruest truly is plenteous, but þe labourers are fewe. Praye ye therfore the Lord of the haruest, that he wyll sende labourers into his haruest.

The .x. Chapter.

¶ Christ sendeth out dy. xii. Apostles to preach in Jewry, genneth them charge, teacheth them, & com: to testeth them agaynst persecucion and trouble.

And whā his .xii. disciples wer called vnto hym, he gaue them power agaynst vncleane spyetes, to cast them out, & to heale all maner of sykenesse, and all maner of dysplese.

The names of the .xii. Apostles are these The .xii. Symon whych is called Peter: & Andrew hys brother: James the sonne of zebede, & John hys brother: Philip & Bartholomew: Thomas and Mathew, whych had bene a Publican. James the sonne of Alphe, and Lebbeus (whose surname was Caddus) Simon of Canaan, and Judas Iscariot, whych also be traied hym.

* Iesus sent forth these twelue in nobre, whom he commaunded, saying. Go not into the waye of the gentyls, and into þe cytie of the Samaritans enter ye not. But goo rather to the lost shepe of the house of Israel. So and preache, sayinge: The kyngdome of heauen is at hand. Heale the syche, cleanse the lepers, rapse þe deid, cast out deuyls. * Frely ye haue receaued: geue frely. * Possesse not golde nor syluer nor brasse in poure purses, nor yet scrip towards poure iorney: nether two cotes, nether shooes, nor yet a rodde.

* For the workman is worthy of his meate. But to whatsoeuer cytie or towne ye shall com, enquire who is worthy in it, and there abyde tyll ye go thence. * And when ye come into an house, salute the same. And if the house be worthy, let poure peace come vpon it. But if it be not worthy, let poure peace retourne to you agayne.

And whosoever shall not receaue you, nor wyll heare poure preachynge: when ye departe oute of that house or that cytie, shake of þe duste of poure fete. Verely I saye vnto you: it shalbe easier for the lande of sodom and Gomorra in the daye of iudgement, then for that cytie.

* Beholde, I sende you forth, as shepe among wolues. Be ye therfore wyle as serpentes & innocent as doves. * But beware of men, for they shall deliuer you vp to the councels, and shall scourge you in their synagoges. And ye shal be brought to þe beed rulers, and kynges, for my sake, in wytnes to them and to the gentyls.

But * whē they deliuer you vp, take ye no thought, howe or what ye shal speake: for it shalbe geuen you, eue in þe same houre what ye shal speake. For it is not ye þe spech, but þe spyte of poure father which speaketh in you. * The brother shall deliuer you the brother to deeth, & þe father þe sonne. And the childe shall aryse agaynst their fathers and mothers, and shall put the to deeth: & ye shal be hated of all men for my names sake. * But he that endureth to the ende, shalbe saued.

But * whē they persecute you in this cytie, flye ye into another. For verely I saye vnto you: ye shal not go thowoe all the cyties of Israel tyll the sonne of mā be come.

* The disciple is not aboue þe master: nor þe seruant aboue his Lorde. It is ynough for þe disciple, þe he be as hys master is, & þe seruant be as his Lorde is. If they haue called the Lord of þe house: Beelzebub: how moche moze shal they call them of his household for feare them not therfore. * For there is nothing close, that shal not be opened: and no thyng hyd, that shal not be knowen.

What I tel you in darknes, that speake ye in lycht. And what ye heare in the eare, that preache ye on the house toppes.

* And feare ye not the which kyll the body but are not able to kyll the soule. But rather feare þe, which is able to destroye both soule and body into hell. Are not two lytle sparowes sold for a farthyng? And one of the shal not lycht on the grounde with out poure father. Yee, euen al the heares of your head are nombred. Fear ye not therfore: ye are of moze value then many sparowes.

* Euery one therfore þe shal knowledg me before me, him wil I knowledg also before my father which is in heauē. But whosoener shal denye me before me, he wil I also denye before my father, which is in heauē.

Thinke not * þe I am come to sende peace into the erth. I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance: agaynst his father, & the daughter agaynst her mother, & the daughter in lawe agaynst her mother in lawe. And a mannes foes shalbe they þe are of his owne household.

* He þe loueth father, or mother moze then me, is not worthy of me. And he that loueth sonne or daughter moze then me, is not worthy of me. And he that taketh not hys crosse and

* Mat. xii. b.
mar. iii. b.
Luce. xi. b.
* Mat. vi. b.

* Mat. vi. b.

* Luce. x. a.

* Mat. vi. b.
Luce. vi. b.

* Mat. vi. b.

* Act. viii. b.

* Mat. vi. b.
Luce. ix. a.

* I. Tim. i. c.

* Luce. ix. a.
and. f. a.

* Mat. vi. b.
Actes. xii. g.

and knoweth me, is not worthy of me * he that receaueth his lyfe, shall lose it: and he that gyleth his lyfe for my sake, shall fynde it.
* he that receaueth you, receaueth me: * he that receaueth me, receaueth hym þ sent me. he that receaueth a prophet in þ name of a prophet, shall receaue a prophetes re-warde. And he that receaueth a ryghteous man, in the name of a ryghteous man, shall receaue a ryghteous mans rewarde: * And whosoeuer shall geue vnto one of these lytle ones to drynke, a cuppe of colde water onely (in the name of a discipyle) verely I saye vnto you, he shall not lose his rewarde.

¶ The. xi. Chapter.

John Baptist sendeth his disciples vnto Christ.

And it came to passe, that when Jesus had mad an ende of commaunding his twelue disciples he departed thence, to teache and to preache in the cyties.

* When John beyng in prison hearde the workes of Christ, he sent two of his dysciples, & sayde vnto hym: Art thou he that shalt come: or do we loke for another? Jesus answered & sayd vnto them: Go, and shewe John agayne, what ye haue heard and sene.
* The blynde receaue their syght: the lame walke, the lepers are censed: and the deaf heare, & deed are rayled vp, & the pooze * receiue the glad tidinges of the gospell. And happy is he, that is not offended by me.

* And as they departed, Jesus began to saye vnto the people concerning John. What went ye out into the wyldernes to se? A rede that is shakyn wryth the wynde? Or what went ye out for to se? A man clothed in softe cloyment? Beholde: they that weare softe clothing are in kinges houses. But what went ye out for to se? A prophete: verely I saye vnto you: and moze then a prophete. For this is he, of whos it is wrytten: * Beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy waye before the.

* Verely I saye vnto you: amonge the that are borne of wemen, arose not a greater then John the Baptist. Not withstanding he that is lesse: in the layng dome of heauen is greater then he. From the dayes of John Baptist vntil this daye, þ kyngedome of heauē suffereth violence, and the violent plucke it out of them. * For all the prophetes, and the lawe it selfe prophesied vnto John. And þ ye will receaue it * thys is helyas, whych was for to come. he that hath eares to heare: let hym heare.

* But wher vnto shall I lyken thys ge-neracion: It is lyke vnto chyldre, whiche lyt in the market places, and call vnto their felowes, and saye: we haue pypped vnto you, and ye haue not daunted: we haue mourned vnto you & ye haue not sorowed. For John came nether eatyng nor drynkyng, & they saye, he hath the deuill. The sonne of man came eatyng and drynkyng, and they saye, behold a glutton, & an vnnecessary dryn-cker of wyne: and a frende vnto publicans & synners. And wylsome is iustified of her chylidren.

* Then began he to vphayd the cyties whych moost of his myracles were done in, becaule they repented not of their synnes. Wo vnto the Chorazin: wo vnto þ Bethsaida: for þ miracles whiche were shewed in you had bene done in the cytie of Tyre or Sidon, they had repented of their synnes longe ago in sacke cloth & ashes. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: it shall be easier for Tyre & Sidon at the daye of iudgement, then for you. And thou Capernaum, whych art lyft vp vnto he-uen, shalt be brought downe to hell. For þ the miracles whiche haue bene done in þ, had bene shewed in zodom: they had remayned vntill this daye. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: that it shall be easier for the land of zodd in the daye of iudgement, then for the.

* At that tyme Jesus answered & sayde: I thanke the O father, Lord of heauen and erth, because thou hast hid these thynges fro the wyse and proude, and hast shewed them vnto babes, verely father, euē so was it thy good pleasure. * All thynges are geuen ouer vnto me of my father. * And noman knoweth the sonne but the father: nether knoweth any man the father, saue the sonne, and he to whom soeuer the sonne will open him.

Come vnto me all ye that laboure: and are laden, and I will ease you. * Take my yock vpon you, and lerne of me, for I am meke & lowly in herte: and ye shall fynde rest vnto your soules. For my yocke is easy, * and my burden is light.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

The disciples plucke the eares of corne, beate the ayred hand, helpeth & goeth that was blynde and dourne, and sheweth who is his brother, sister and mother.

At that tyme Jesus went on the Sabboth dayes * thowwe the corne, and his disciples were an hongred, and beganne to plucke the eares of corne, and to eate. But when the Pharises sawe it, they sayde vnto hym: Beholde, thy disciples do that which is not lawfull (for them) to do vpon the Sabbath daye. But he sayd vnto them. haue ye not read what Dauid dyd, whē he was an hongred, and they that were wryth hym? Howe he entred into the house of God, and dyd eate the shewe brea-des which were not lawfull for him to eate, nether for them whych were wryth hym, but

but onely for the prestes: Or haue ye not read in the law, how that (on the Sabbath dayes) the prestes in the temple breake the Sabbath, & are blamelesse: But I saie vnto you: that in this place is one greater then the temple. Wherefore, yf ye wyl what this meaneth * I requyre merce & not sacrifice: ye wolde not haue condemned innocentes.

For the sonne of man also, is Lord euen of the Sabbath daye.

And he departed thence * and went into their synagoge: and beholde, ther was a mā which had his hande dried vp. And they asked him, sayinge: is it lawfull to heale vpo the Sabbath dayes: that they myght accuse him. And he sayde vnto them: which of you will it be, that shall haue * a shepe, and yf it fall into a pytte on the Sabbath daye, wyl he not take it and lyft it out: how moche more then is a mā better then a shepe: Wherefore, it is lesfull to do a good dede on the Sabbath dayes. Then sayeth he to þ mā: stretch forth thy hande. And he stretched it forth. And it was restored vnto health, lyke as the other.

Then þ Pharises went out, and helde a counsell agaynst hym, howe they myght destroye him. But when Iesus knewe it, he departed thence, and moche people folowed him, and he healed the al, and charged them, that they shuld not make him known: that it myght be fulfilled whych was spoken by Elay þ Prophet, whych sayeth: * Beholde: my chyld, whome I haue chosen, my beloued, in whom my soule delieth. I wyl put my sprete vpon hym, and he shall see we ind-gemet to the gentyls. He shall not stryue nere crye, neether shall any man heare hys voyce in þ stretes, a bysed rede shall he not breake, and smokyng flar shall he not quenche, tpyl he sende forth iudgement vnto victorie, & in his name shall the gentyls trust.

Then was brought to him a blind & dōme mā, þ was vered with a deuyll, and he healed him, in somoch, that the blind and dōme, both spake & sawe. And all the people were amased, and sayde: Is not this that sonne of Dauid: * But when the Pharises hearde it, they sayde. This felow bypueth þ deuyls no nother wyle out, but by the helpe of Belzeub the chefe of the deuyls.

But whan Iesus knew their thoughtes he sayde vnto the: Euerie kingdome deuided agaynst it selfe, shall be brought to nought. And euery citie or house deuyded agaynst it selfe shall not stande. And yf Satan cast out Satan, then is he deuided agaynst him selfe how shall then his kingdome endure: Also, yf I by þ help of Belzeub cast out deuyls, by whose helpe do poure chyldren cast them out: Therefore, they shall be pour iudges. But yf I cast out þ deuyls by the sprete of God, then is þ kingdome of God come vnto you:

Or els: how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoyle his Jewels, excepte he fyrst bynde the stronge mā, and then spoyle hys house: * He that is not wyth me, is agaynst me. And he þ gathered not wyth me, scattereth abroad. Wherefore, I saie vnto you, all maner of sinne and blasphemy shall be forgeuen vnto men: but the blasphemy agaynst the sprete, shall not be forgeuen vnto men. * And whosoener speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne of man, it shall be forgeuen hym. But whosoener speaketh agaynst the holy gost, it shall not be forgeuen hym, neether in this worlde, neether in the worlde to come: * & ther make the tree good, and hys frute good, or els make the tree euill, and hys frute euill. * For the tree is known by his frute. O generacion of hyppers, howe can ye speake good thynges, when ye poure selues are euill: * For out of the abundance of the herte, the mouth speaketh. A good mā out of þ good treasure of the herte, byngeth forth good thynges. And an euill man, out of euill treasure, byngeth forth euill thynges. But I saie vnto you, of euery dyell worde that men shall haue spoken, they shall geue accountes in the daye of iudgement. * For out of thy wordes thou shalt be iustified: & out of thy wordes thou shalt be condemned.

Then certayne of the Scribes and of the Pharises asked him sayinge. * Master, we wyl see a sygne of the. But he answered & sayde to them. * The euill and aduonturous generacion: seeketh a signe and ther shall no sygne be geuen to them, but the signe of the Prophet Jonas. * For as Jonas was thre dayes and thre nyghtes in the whales belly, so shall the sonne of mā be thre dayes and thre nyghtes in the hert of þ erth. The men of ninine shall ryle in the iudgement wyth this nacion, & cōdēne it, because they amended at the preaching of Jonas. Beholde, here is one greater then Jonas. * The queene of the south shall ryle in þ iudgement wyth this generacion, and shall cōdemne it: for she came from the vtmost partes of the worlde to heare þ wysdome of Salomō. And beholde, in this place is one greater then Salomon.

When the vnclenne sprete is gone out of a man, he walketh througouth dyce places sekynge rest, and fyndeth none. Then he sayeth: I wyl retourne into my house, from whence I came out. And when he is come, he fyndeth it emptye, and sweper, and garnished. Then goeth he, & taketh vnto him seuen other spretes worse then hym self, and so entreteth he in, and dwelleth there. And the ende of that man is worse then the begynnyng. Ene so shall it be also, vnto this trowarde generacion.

whyle

* Mat. xii. b.
* Luc. vi. b.

* Mat. xiii. a.
* Luc. vi. b.

* Luc. xiii. a.

* Deu. xxi. a.

* Mat. xiii. a.
* Joh. i. g.
and. xi. c.

* Isa. xliii. a.

* Luc. xi. b.

* Mat. xii. b.
* Mat. xiii. c.
* Luc. xi. c.

While he yet talked to þe people: * beholde his mother and his brethren stode wythout besynginge to speake wyth hym. Then one sayde vnto hym beholde, * thy mother and thy brethren stande wythout, desynginge to speake wyth the.

But he answered, & sayde vnto him that tolde hym. Who is my mother? or who are my brethren? And he stretched forth hys hand towarde his disciples, & sayd, * beholde my mother and my brethren. For whosoever doth my will of my father which is in heauen, the same is my brother, sister, and mother. ¶

¶ The xiii. Chapter.

¶ The parable of the sowe, of the tares, of the musterd seed, of the leuen, of the treasure hyd in the field, of the peries, and of the nette.

The same daye wēt Iesus out of þe house, & sat by the see syde, and moche people were gathered together vnto him, so gretly þe wet, and sat in a shyppe, and all þe people stode on the shore. And he spake many thynges to the by similitudes, sayinge: Beholde, the sower went forth to sow. And whan he sowed, some seedes fell by the wayes syde, and the fowles cam, and deuoured them vp. Some fell vpon stony places, where they had not moche erth, and anone they spronge vp, because they had no depnesse of erth: & when þe sunne was vp, they caught heat, & because they had not rote, they withered a waye. Agayne, some fell amonge thornes, and the thornes spronge vp and choaked them. But some fell into good ground, & brought forth frute: some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold. Whosoever hath eares to heare, let him heare.

¶ And the disciples came, & sayde vnto hym: Why speakest thou to the by parables? he answered and sayde vnto them: * it is geuen vnto you to knowe the secretes of the kyngdome of heauē, but to them it is not geuen.

* For whosoever hath, to him shall be geuen: and he shall haue aboundaunce. But whosoever hath not: from him shall be takē awaye euen þe also which he hath. Therfore speake I to them by similitude: for they seyinge, se not: and hearinge, they heare not: neither do they vnderstand. And in the is fulfilled the prophetic of Esaias, which sayth: * wyth þe eares ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand: and sence ye shall se, and shall not perceaue. For these peoples hertes is waxed grosse, & they: eares are dull of hearinge, and they: eyes haue they closed, lest at any tyme they shuld se wyth they: eyes, & heare with they: eares, & shuld vnderstand with their herte, & be conuerted, that I also myght heale them.

* But blessed are poure eyes, for they se: & poure eares, for they heare. Verely I saye vnto you, * that many prophetes & righteous men haue desyred to se those thynges whych ye se, & haue not sene them: & to heare those thynges whych ye heare, and haue not heard them. * Heare ye therfore þe similitude of the sower. Whā one heareth þe word of the kyngdome, & vnderstandeth it not, then cometh þe euill man, & taketh awaye that which was sowne in his hert: this is he, which was sowene by the way syde. But he that receaued the seede which was cast into stony places, þe same is he that heareth the worde, & anone wyth ioye receaueth it, yet hath he no roote in him selfe, but dureth for a season: for whā tribulacyon or persecucion happeneth because of the worde, by and by he falleth. he also that receaued seede into þe thornes, is he þe heareth þe word: and the care of this worlde, and þe dyslaptfulnes of ryches, choke vp the worde, and so is he made vnfertill.

But he þe receaued seede into þe good grounde is he that heareth the word, and vnderstandeth it: which also beareth frute, & bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold.

¶ Another similitude put he forth vnto the, sayinge: ¶ * The kyngdome of heauen is lykened vnto a mā, whych sowed good seed in hys felde. But whyll men slept, hys enemye came, & sowed tares among the wheate, & went his waye. But when the blade was sprong vp, & had brought forth frute, there appeared the tares also. So the seruauntes of the houtholder came, and sayd vnto hym. Syr: diddest not thou sowe good seed in thy felde: fro whēce then hath it tares? he sayde vnto them, the enuious man hath done this. The seruauntes sayde vnto him: wylt thou then that we go, and weede them vp? But he sayde, nay, lest while ye gather vp the tares ye plucke vp also the wheate with them, let bothe growe together vntill the haruest, & in tyme of haruest, I wyl saye to the reapers gather ye fyrst the tares, and bynd them together in sheues to be brent: but gather the wheate into my barn.

¶ Another parable put he forth vnto the, sayinge. * The kyngdome of heauen is lyke to a graine of mustard seed, which a mā tok and sowed in hys felde, whych is the leest of all seedes. But when it is growne, it is the greatest among herbes, and is a tree: so that the byrdes of the ayer come, and make they: nestes in the bryanches therof.

¶ Another similitude spake he vnto them: ¶ * The kyngdom of heauē is lyke vnto leuē, whych a woman taketh and hydeth in thre peckes of meale, tyll all be leuened.

* All these thynges spake Iesus vnto þe people by similitudes: & without a parable spak he nothyng vnto them: that it myght be fulfilled, which was spokē by þe prophet, that sayth: I will ope my mouth in parables: I wyl

* Mat. iiii. b.
Luce. xiii. b.

* Mat. xiii. c.

* Mat. xiii. c.
Luce. xiii. b.

* Luce. xiii. b.

* Mat. xiii. c.

* Mat. xiii. c.
Luce. xiii. b.

The Gospell

will speake forth thynges whych haue bene kepte secreete fro þe beginning of þe world. ¶

* Mar. iiii. c.

Whe the people were sent awaye, the came Iesus into the house. * ¶ And hys disciples cam vnto him, saying: declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the felde. He answered and sayde vnto the. He þe soweth the good seed, is þe sonne of man. The felde is þe worlde. And the chyldren of the kyngdome, they are the good seed: the tares are the chyldren of the wycked: the enemye that soweth them, is the deuyll. The haruest is the ende of the worlde: the reapers be þe Angels. Ene as the tares therfor, are gathered & bzient in the fyre: so shal it be in þe ende of this world.

* Apo. iiii. b.

¶ The sonne of man shal sende forth hys Angels, & they shal gather out of his kyngdome all thynges that offende, & the whych do inquite: and shal cast them into a furnes of fyre. There shalbe wailing & gnaung of teth. ¶ Then shal the righteous shine as the Sonne in the kyngdome of their father. Who soeuer hath eares to heare, let him heare. ¶

* Dan. xii. a.
Sapient. iiii. b
I. Cor. iiii. b. f.

¶ Agayne, the kyngdome of heaue is lyke vnto treasure hid in the felde, the whych a man hath found and hyd: and for loyetherof goeth & selleth all þe he hath, & byeth þe felde.

Agayne, the kyngdome of heaue is lyke vnto a marchaunt man, sekyng goodly pearles, which (whe he found one pzeious pearle) went & solde all that he had, & bought it.

Agayne, the kyngdome of heaue is lyke vnto a net, þe was cast into þe see & gathered of all kynde (of fyes) whych whe it was full me drewe to lād, & sat downe & gathered þe good into vessels, but cast þe bad away. So ¶ shal it be at the ende of þe worlde. The angelles shal come & seuer þe bad fro amonge the good, & shal cast the into a furnace of fyre: there shalbe wailing & gnaung of teth.

* Mar. xiii. b
and. xxi. c

Iesus saith vnto the: haue ye vnderstand all these thynges: They saye vnto hym: ye Lord. Then sayde he vnto them. Therefore euery Scribe which is taught vnto the kyngdome of heaue, is lyke vnto a mā that is an housholder, which bynggeth forth out of his treasure, thynges newe and olde. ¶

* Mar. vi. a.

And it came to passe that whe Iesus had finished these similitudes, he departed the ce: And whan he came into hys owne countre, he taught them in their synagoges, in so moch, þe they were astonied and sayde: whe

* Luke. iiii. c.

* Mar. iii. a.
John. vi. c.

ce commeth this wysdome and powers vnto hym: * is not this the carpenters sonne? Is not hys mother called Mary: and hys byethen, James and Ioses and Simon and Judas: And are not all his sisters with vs? Whence hath he then all these thynges? And they were offended at him. Iesus sayde vnto them: * A prophete is not wythout honoure, same in his owne countre, and in hys owne house. And he did not many mira-

* Mar. vi. a.
John. iiii. b.
John. vi. f.

cles there, because of theyr vnbefese.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

¶ John is taken & beheaded. Christ ledeth frōe them: sende men with. v. loaves & towe fyfshes, and appeareth by nyght vnto his disciples vpon the see.

¶ That tyme, Herode the Tetrarcha heard of þe fame of Iesu & sayd vnto his seruantes: this is John þe Baptist. He is ryen fro the deed, & therfore are miracles wrought by hi. For Herode had take John, & bound hi, & put him in pzeon because of Herodias, his brother Philipps wyf. For John sayd vnto him: * it is not lawfull for þe to haue her. And when he wolde haue put hym to deeth, he feared þe people, * because they counted him as a prophete.

But whe Herodes byrth daye was kepte, þe doughter of Herodias daunted before the, and pleased Herode. ¶ Wherefore he promysed with an othe, that he wolde geue her whatsoeuer she wolde aske. And she beyng instructed of her mother before, sayde: geue me here John Baptistes heed in a platter. And the kyng was sorow. Neuerthelesse, for the othes sake, & them which sate also at the table, he commaunded it to be geue her: & sent turnētours, & beheaded John in the pzeon and his heed was brought in a platter, & geue to þe damsell, and she brought it to her mother. And hys disciples came & toke vp hys body, and buried it: went, and tolde Iesus.

Whe Iesus hearde of it, he departed the ce in a shyppe vnto a desert place, out of the waye. And when þe people had harde thereof, they folowed him on fote and left the cyties. And Iesus went forth, & sawe moch people, and was moued with merci towarde them, and he healed of them those that were syche. And when þe euen drew on, his disciples came to him, saying: this is a deserte place, & þe houre is now past, let þe people departe, that they maye go into the townes, and bye the vitaylles. But Iesus sayde vnto the. They haue no nede to go awaye. Geue ye them to eate. They saye vnto hym: we haue here but v. loaves & two fyfshes. He sayde: byngne the hyther to me. And he commaunded the people to lyt downe on the grasse, & he toke the v. loaves & the. ij. fyfshes, and lyft vp his eyes towarde heaue and blessed. And whan he had broke the, he gaue the loaves to hys disciples, & hys disciples gaue the to þe people. And they dyd all eate, & were suffyled. And they gathered vp (of the fragmentes that remainned.) xij. baskets full. And they that dyd eate, were aboute. v. M. mē, belyde weimen and chyldren.

¶ And streygtht waye Iesus made his disciples to get vp into a shyppe, & to goo before him vnto þe other syde whyll he sent the people awaye. And when the people were sent awaye, he went vp into a mountayne to praye

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

* Mar. iiii. c.

to praye alone. And whē night was come, he was there hym selfe alone. But þe shippe was now in þe myddes of þe see, & was toost with waues, for it was a contrary wynde. And in the fourth watche of þe night. Jesus wēt vnto the walkynge on þe see. And whē þe disciples sawe hym walkynge on the see, they were troubled, sayng: it is some spyrte and they cryed out for feare. But streyght waye, Jesus spake vnto them, sayng: be of good cheare, it is I: be not afraied.

Peter answered hym, and sayde: Lorde, if it be thou, byd me come vnto þe on þe water. And he sayde, come. And when Peter was come doune out of the shippe, he walched on the water, to go to Jesus. But whē he sawe a myghty wynde, he was afraied. And when he beganne to syncke, he cryed sayng: lorde saue me. And immediatly Jesus stretched forth his hād, & caughte hym, & sayd vnto hi: O thou of lyttell fapth, wherfore dydest thou doubt? And whan they were come into þe shippe, the wynde ceased. Then they that were in þe shippe, came and worshipped hym, sayng: of a truthe thou art the sonne of God. And when they were gone ouer they came into the lande of Gennesareth. And when the men of the place had knowledge of hym, they sent out messengers into all that countre rounde about the coast, & broughte vnto hym all that were sicke, & besoughte hym, þe they myght touche the hemme of hys vesture only. And as many as touched it were made safe.

¶ The .xv. Chapter.

¶ Christus resuscitauit his discipulos, & reducit eos in synagoga: & phariseos for transgressores goddes commandment: & iherosolimitanos: & omnes tradidit. The charge that goeth into the mouth defyleth not the man. He besoughte the woman of canaanen daughter, healeth the multitude, and wryth. vii. laues & a fewe thyse thyse: for thei. iiii. men, besyde women and chylidren.

¶ Then came to Jesus scribes and pharisees (whiche were come from iherusalem) sayng: why do thy disciples transgresse the tradicyn of the eldres: for they walsh not theyr handes whē they eate bread. But he answered & sayde vnto them: why do ye also transgresse the commandment of God, because of poure owne tradicyn: for God commaundeth sayng: honoure father and mother, and he that curseth father or mother: let hym be the deeth. But ye saye: euery one shall swe to hys father and mother: what gift shal we shulde haue come of me, the same is turned vnto thy profyte: and so shall he not honoure his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made the commandment of God of none effecte, because of poure owne tradicyn. Ppocrites, full well byd Elape prophete of you sayng: * This people brawnyr vnto me wryth theyr mouth, and honoureth me wryth lyppes, howbeit, theyr hertes are farre from me: but in vayne do they serue me, teachynge the doctrines and preceptes of men.

And he called the people to hym, and sayd vnto them: heare and vnderstande. That whych goeth into the mouth, defyleth not the man: but that whych cometh out of the mouth, defyleth the man.

Then came his disciples, and sayde vnto him: knowest þe not, that the pharisees were offended at this sayng? But he answered and sayde. Euery plāte whych my heauenly father hath not planted, shalbe plucked vp by the rotes. Let the alone, they be þe blynde leaders of the blynde. If the blynde leade the blynde, both shall fall into the dyche.

Then answered Peter & sayd vnto him: declare vnto vs this parable. Jesus sayde: are ye also yet without vnderstandinge? do not ye yet vnderstande, þe whatsoeuer entreteth in at the mouth, goeth into þe hely, & is cast out into the draught: But those thynges which procede out of the mouth, come forth from þe hert, & they defyle þe man. For out of þe herte procede euill thoughtes, murders, breakyng of wedlocke, whoredoms, thetes, falsewitness, blasphemies. These are þe thynges, whych defyle a mā. But to take meate wth vnwalshen hādes, defileth not a man.

¶ And Jesus went thence, & departed into the coastes of Tyre and sydon, & beholde, a woman of canaan (whiche cam out of the same coastes) cryed vnto hym, sayng: haue mercy on me o Lorde, thou sonne of dauid: My daughter is ppytously vbered wryth a deuill. But he answered her nothyng at all, & his disciples came, and besoughte hym, sayng: sende her away, for she crieth after vs: But he answered, & sayde: I am not set * but vnto þe lost shepe of þe housse of israel.

¶ Then cam she, & worshipped hym, sayng: lorde, helpe me. he answered and saide: it is not mete, to take þe chylidrens bread, and to cast it to dogges. She answered and sayde: truthe Lorde, for the dogges eate of þe crōmes, whych fall from theyr masters table. Then Jesus answered and sayde vnto her: O woman, greate is thy faith, be it vnto the, euen as þe wylt. And her daughter was made whole euen at that same tyme.

¶ And Jesus went awaye from thence, and cam nye vnto the see of Galile, and wēt vp into a mountayne, and sat doune there. And moche people came vnto hym, bringyng w them those þe were lame, blinde, deafe, mapymed, and other many: & cast them downe at Jesus fete. And he healed the: in so moche, þe people wondered, whan they sawe the domme speake, þe mapymed to be whole, the lame to walke, and the blynde to se. And they glorified the God of israel.

* Then

The Gospell.

* Mat. viii. a

* Then Iesus called hys disciples vnto hym, & sayde: I haue compassyō on the people, because they cōtinue with me now. iiii. dayes, & haue nothinge to eate: & I will not let the departe fastyng, lest they implayn by y waye. And his disciples say vnto him: whence shulde we get so moche bread in the wyldernes, as to suffyse so greate a multitude: And Iesus sayeth vnto the: howe many loanes haue ye: And they saye: seuen, & a fewe litle fyshes. And he cōmaunded the people to syt doune on the grounde: and toke the seuen loanes, and the fyshes: & after y he had geue thākes, he brake them, and gaue to hys disciples, & the disciples gaue the to the people. And they dyd all eate, and were suffysed. And they toke vp (of the broken meate that was left) seuen baskettes full. And yet, they y dyd eate were. iiii. M. men. besyde wome & chylde. And he sent awaye the people, and toke shyppe, & came into the partes of Magdala.

* Mat. xvi. b

The. xvi. Chapter.

The Pharisees requyre a token. Iesus warneth hys disciples of the Pharisees doctrine. The confession of Peter. The keyes of heauen. The saythfull must beare the crosse after Christ.

* Mat. xvi. b
* Job. vi. b.
* Luk. xi. b.

The Pharisees also w the Saduces, came and tēpted hym & despyed hym y he wold shewe them a sygne from heuen. He answered and sayde vnto them: whan it begynneth to drawe toward euē, ye saye, it wyl be fayre wether, for the skye is reed: And in y morninge: It wil be foule wether to daye, for the skye is glowmyng reed. O ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the outwarde apperaunce of the skye: but can ye not discerne the signes of the tymes: * The frowarde & aduoutrous nacyon requyret h a sygne, and there shall no sygne be geuen vnto it, but the sygne of the * Prophet Jonas. And he lefte them, and departed.

* Luk. xii. g.

* Mat. xxi. c.

* Mat. xxi. d

* Job. vi. b.

* Jonas. ii. a

25

And when his disciples were come to the other syde of the water, they had forgotten to take bread wth the. Then Iesus sayde vnto them. * Take hede and beware of the leuen of the Pharisees and of the Saduces. And they thought in the selues sayinge: we haue taken no bread w vs. Which whā Iesus vnderstode, he sayd vnto them: O ye of lytell faith, why take ye thought wthyn pour selues, because ye haue brought no bread: Do ye not yet perceaue, nether remember those. v. loanes whē there were. * v. M. mē, & how many baskettes toke ye vp: & whether the. vii. loanes whē there were. iiii. M. mē, & how many baskettes toke ye vp: how happeneth it y ye do not vnderstande, that I spake it not vnto you cōcernyng bread, y ye shulde beware of the leuē of y Pharisees, & of the Saduces: Then vnderstode they, how that he had not the beware of y leuē of breed: but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and of the Saduces.

* Mat. xxi. c

* Mat. xv. d.

* When Iesus cam into the coastes of the cite whych is called Cesarea Philippi, he asked hys disciples sayinge: * whom do men saye y I the sonne of mā am: They sayde: some saye y thou art John Baptyst, some helyas, some Jeremias, or one of the nobbe of the prophetes. He sayeth vnto them: but whom saye ye y I am: Simon Peter answered & sayde: * Thou art Christ the sonne of the lyuynge God. And Iesus answered, & sayde vnto hym: happy art y Simon the sonne of Jonas, for sicke & bloude hath not opened that vnto y: * but my father whych is in heuen. And I saye also vnto the y thou art Peter: * vpo this * rocke I wyl buyde my cōgregacion. And y gates: of hell shall not preuaile agaynst it. And I wyl geue vnto y, the keyes of y kyngdō of heuē: And * what soeuer thou byndest in erth, shall be bounde in heuē: & whatsoeuer thou loost in erth shall be lowsed in heuen. f

Then charged he hys disciples, that they shulde tell no man, y he was Iesus Christ. * Fro y tyme forth begāne Iesus to shewe vnto hys disciples, howe that he must go vnto Ierusalem, & suffer many thynges of the elders, & hys Prestes, & Scribes, & must be kylled, and be rayled agayne the thyrde daye. And when Peter had take him a syde, he begā to rebuke hym, sayinge: master, fauer thy selfe, thys shall not happē vnto the: but he turned hym aboute, and sayde vnto Peter: go after me Satan, thou byndest me: for thou sauourest not the thynges that be of God, but those that be of men.

Then sayde Iesus vnto his disciples: * If any mā wil folowe me, let him forlake him selfe & take vp his crosse, & folowe me: * for whoso wil saue his lyfe, shall lose it. Agayne, whoso doth lose hys lyfe for my sake, shall fynde it. For what doth it profet a mā, yf he wyne all y whole worlde: & lose hys owne soule: Or what shall a man geue to redeme hys soule agayne wth all: For y sonne of man shall come in y glory of his father, w his āgels: & * then shall he rewarde euery man accordyng to hys dedes: Clerey I saye vnto you, ther be stondinge here, which shall not tast of deeth, tyll they se the sonne of mā come in hys kyngdome.

The. xvii. Chapter.

The transfiguration of Christ. He healeth the lunaticke, & payeth tribute.

Ad * after. vi. dayes, Iesus taketh Peter, James and John hys brother, and byngeth them vp into an hye mountayne out of the waye, and was transfigured before them: and hys face dyd shyne as the sonne, and hys clothes were as whyte as the lyght

And when they were come to the cytye of Capernaum, they went to receaue tribute money, & to Peter, & sayd: Doth your master pay tribute? He sayeth: yea. And when he was come into the house, Iesus prented him, saying: What thinkest thou, Simon? of who

✠ Wherefore * if thy brother trespass agaynst the, go & tel him his fault betwene him & the alone. If he heare the, I haue wone thy brother: But if he heare not, the take pet w the one or two, that * in the mouth of two or thre wptnesses, every matter may be stablyshed. If he heare not the, tell it vnto the congregacion. If he heare not the congregacion, let him be vnto the as an heathen man, & as a publicā. Verely I say vnto pou: * whatso euer

1947.12.15

* May 7. b Lake. 50 ft. D
* 1. Oct. 11. a

* enq ar. fr. f.
C. H. L. F. B. I. A.

*1.C01.F1.D

* Nat. B-
Nat. T.C

DE * LANC. F.B.B

*Kub. roll. a Lous. fir. b Merle. fir. b of *Deut. xix. 15 be 11. Cor. viii. 12 Deut. xix. 15

CO- * 1002. FOLC
NET

The Gospel

ener ye bynde on earth, shalbe boūde in heauen. And whatsoeuer ye lose on erth, shalbe losed in heuen. I gayne I say vnto you that yf two of you agree in earth vpon any maner of thinge, whatsoeuer they desyre: they shal haue it of my father whych is in heaue for whete two or thre are gathered together in my name, there am I in p myddes of them

Then came Peter to hym, & sayde: Lorde howe ofte shall I forgyue my brother, yf he synne agaynst me: tyll seuen tymes? Iesus sayeth vnto hym: I saye not vnto the vntyll seuen tymes: but seuentye tymes seuen tymes

D Therefore is the kyngdome of heuen lyke ned vnto a certayne man that was a kyng which wolde take accountes of hys seruauntes. And when he had begonne to reken, one was brought vnto hym whych ought hym ten thousande talentes, but for asmuch as he was not able to paye, his Lorde commaunded hym to be solde, & his wyfe & chyldren, & all yf he had: & paymēt to be made. The seruaūt fell downe, & besought him, sayenge: Syr, haue patience with me, and I wyl paye the all. Then had the Lorde pytie on the seruaūt and losed hym and forgaue hym the dette.

So the same seruaūt, went out, & founde one of hys felowes which ought him an hūdred pence: & he layde handes on hym, & toke hym by the throte, sayeng: paye yf thou owest And his felowe fell downe, & besought him sayeng: haue patience wyth me, & I wyl pay yf all. And he wold not, but went, & cast hym into prison, tyll he shulde paye the det. So whē his felowes sawe what was done, they were very sorow, and came, & told vnto they Lorde al yf had happened. Then hys Lorde called him & said vnto him: O thou vngraciōus seruaūt. I forgaue the all that det, whā thou desyrest me: shuldest not yf also haue had compassion on thy felowe, euē as I had pytie on the? And hys Lorde was wroth, & deliuered hym to the iaplers, tyll he shulde paye all that was due vnto hym. So x^p lykewyse shal my heauynly father do also vnto you yf ye from your hertes, forgyue not (eue ry one hys brother) they trespases. I

* Jacob. ii. c. an arch. vi. b
an arch. vi. b

The .xix. Chapter

¶ Christ spake and were concerning marriage, and tea-ched not to be carefull, nor to loue worldly riches.

A As it came to passe: that whē Iesus had fynished these sayenges, he gatte hym from Galile, and came into the coostes of Ieruz^l beyond Jordan, & muche people folowed him, & he healed them there.

The Pharisees also came vnto hym tem-ptyng hym, & sayng vnto hym: Is it lawful for a man to make a deuozement wyth his wyfe for any maner of cause? he answered and sayd vnto them: haue ye not red, how yf he which made mā at the begynnyng: made the man and womā: and sayd, for this cause

1. Cor. xii. b ephe. v. g
1. Cor. xii. b

shal a man leaue father and mother, & shal cleaue vnto his wyfe, & they twayne shalbe one flesh, wherfor now they are not twaine but one flesh. Let not man therfore put aūder, that which God hath coupled together.
They say vnto hym: why byd Moses the comaūde to geue a testimonial of deuozement, & to put her away? he sayd vnto them: Moses (because of the hardnes of your hertes) & suffered you to put away your wyues: But frō yf begynnyng it was not so: I saye vnto you: whosoever putteth away hys wyfe (except it be for fornicaciō) & marryeth another, breaketh wedloke. And who so marryeth her which is deuozed, doth comyt aduoutry.

His disciples say vnto him: yf yf matter be so betwene man & wyfe, then is it not good to marry. he said vnto the: al mē can not comprehēde this sayenge: & saue they to whō it is gyuen: for there are some chaste which are so borne out of theyr mothers wōbe. And there are some chaste, which be made chaste of men.
And there be chaste, whych haue made them selues chaste for the kyngdome of heuē sake he yf can comprehend it, let hym comprehend it. ¶ The were there brought vnto him yf chylde, yf he shulde put his handes on them & praye. And yf disciples rebuked them. But Iesus sayd vnto them: suffer the chylde, and forbyd the not to come vnto me: for of suche is yf kyngdome of heauen. And when he had put hys handes on them, he departed thence.

And behold, one came, & sayd vnto hym:
* good master, what good thyng shal I do yf I maye haue eternall lyfe? he sayde vnto him: why callest thou me good? * ther is none good but one, & yf is God. But yf thou wylt entre into lyfe, kepe yf commaūdemētes. he saieth vnto him: which? Iesus sayde. * Thou shalt not comit man slaughter. Thou shalt not comit aduoutry. Thou shalt not steale: yf shalt not bear false wytnes: honour father & mother: * & thou shalt loue thy neryghbour as thy selfe. The yonge mā sayeth vnto him.
Al these thynges haue I kept frō my youth vp: what lack I yet? Iesus sayd vnto hym, yf thou wylt be perfecte: go and sell (all) that yf hast, & geue to yf poore, & yf shalt haue treasure in heauen, & come & folow me. But whē the yonge man herde that sayenge, he went away sorow. For he had great possessions.

Then Iesus sayd vnto his disciples: vere-ly I say vnto you: * it shalbe hard for yf ryth to enter into yf kyngdō of heuē. And agayne I say vnto you: it is easyer for a camel to go through yf eye of a needle, then for the ryth to enter into yf kyngdō of God. Whē yf disciples herde this, they were extredynglye amazed, sayeng: who the can be sauēd? But Iesus beheide them, & sayd vnto them: w men thys is vnpossible: * but w God al thynges are possible. ¶ The answered Peter & said vnto him.
Beholde

John.
viii.
an arch.
vi. b

* 1. Cor.

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

* 1. Cor.
xii. b

¶ The .xx. Chapter.

And Iesus going vp to Ierusalem, toke his disciples a syde in the waye, & sayde vnto them: * Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, & sonne of man shalbe betrayed vnto

* And as they departed fro Hierico, much people folowed hym. And behold, two blind men syttinge by the waye syde, when they herde þæt Iesus passed by, they cryed sayenge: O Lord thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs. And the people rebuked them, because they shuld hold theyr peace. But they cryed the more sayeng: haue mercy on vs, O Lord thou sonne of Dauid. And Iesus stode still, and called them, and said: what wyl ye that I shall do vnto you: They saie vnto hym: Lorde, that our eyes may be opened: So Iesus had compassion on them, & touched theyr eyes, and immediatlye theyr eyes receaued sight. And they folowed hym.

The.ri. Chapter.

THEY RETURNED INTO JERUSALEM, AND DEPARTED THE MARCHES OUT OF THE TEMPLE, CURSING THE FIG TREE, AND SABBATHS THE PHARISES WITH THE SIMILITUDE OF THE TWO FORMER AND OF THE HUSBANDMEN, THAT SLEW SUCH AS WERE SENT UNTO THEM.

Ad when they dwele ne beto Ierusalem, and were come to Bethphage, vnto mount Oli-uete: then sent Iesus two disciples, saying vnto them go into the towne that lyeth ouer agaynst you, and anone ye shal fynde an asse boude, & a colte wyth her: loose them, & byngeth them vnto me.

The Gospel

me. And yf any man save oughte vnto you, say ye the Lord hath neede of the: & streyght waye he wyl let the go. All thys was done, yf it might be fulfilled which was spoke by the prophete, sayeng: * Tel ye the daughter of Sion: behold, thy kynge cometh vnto the meke, settinge vpon an asse & a colte, the fole of the asse bled to the pocke. The disciples wyl & dyd as Ies^{us} comaunded the, & brought the asse, & yf colte, & put on the theys clothes, & set hym there. And many of yf people spred their garmentes in yf way. Other cut downe braunches fro yf trees, & strawed the i yf way. Moreover, the people yf wyl before, & they yf came after, cryed sayeng: hosanna to yf sonne of David. * Blessed is he that cometh in the name of yf Lord, & hosanna in the hest.

And whē he was come to Ierusalem, al yf cite was moued, sayng: who is this? And the people said: this is Iesus, the prophete of Nazareth (a cytie) of Galile. And Iesus went into the temple of God, & cast oute all them yf solde & bought in the temple, & ouerthrowe yf tables of the mony chāgers, & the seates of them that solde doves, & sayd vnto them: It is wyttē: my house shalbe called the house of prayer. But ye haue made it a denne of theues. And the blynd and the halt came to him in the temple, & he healed them.

When the chiefe prestes & scribes sawe the wonders yf he dyd, & the chylde cryenge in the temple (sayeng: hosanna to yf sonne of David) they dysdayned, and sayde vnto him: hear est thou what these saye? But Iesus sayeth vnto the: why not? haue ye neuer reade. * Out of the mouth of babes & suckelinges thou hast ordeyned prayse. And he lefte them, and went out of the cytie vnto Bethanie, and had hys abydyng there.

In the morning as he returned into the cytie againe, he hōgred: & whē he had spred a fygge tree in yf way, he came to it, & fōude nothyng thereon, but leaues only, & sayd vnto it: A fruit growe on yf hēce forward. And anon the fygge tree withered awaye. And when hys disciples sawe it, they marueled, sayenge. Howe soone is the fygge tree withered awaye? Iesus answered, and said vnto the: Verely I say vnto you: yf ye haue sayth & doubt not, ye shal not onely do thys that is happened vnto the fygge tree: but al so yf ye shal saye vnto thys mountayne remoue, & cast thy self into yf see, it shalbe done. * And al thys whatsoener ye al he in prayse (yf ye beleue) ye shal receaue them.

And when he was come into yf temple the chiefe prestes & yf elders of yf people came vnto hym (as he was teachenge) and sayde. * Whā what authorize doest yf these thynghes? & who gaue the thys power? Iesus answered & sayd vnto the: I also wyl aske of you a certayne thyngh, which yf ye tel me, I in lyk wyse wyl tell you by what authorize I do these thynghes. The baptyme of Iohn: where was it? heuē or of me? And they thought amonge them selues sayeng: yf we save trū beaue, he wyl saye vnto vs: why dyd ye not then beleue hym? But yf we shal save of me, then feare we the people. * For all men hold Iohn as a prophete. And they answered vnto Iesus, & sayd: we can not tel. And he sayd vnto them: nether tell I you, by what authorize I do these thynghes. * What saye ye to thys? * A man had two sonnes, & came to the fyist, & sayd: sonne, go and worke to day in my vineyarde. He answered & sayd: I wil not but afterwarde, he repēted, & went. The came he to yf secōde, & sayd lpkewyse. And he answered, & sayd: I wyl sy, & wyl not. Whe ther of the twayne dyd the wyl of yf father? And they saye vnto hym: yf fyist. Iesus sayeth vnto the: verely I saye vnto you, the publicans & harlotes go into the kyngdome of God before you. For * Iohn came vnto you by yf waye of ryghtcoulnes, and ye beleued him not: but publicans and harlotes beleued hym. And ye (when ye had sene it) were not moued afterwarde woth repentauce, that ye myght haue beleued hym.

Herke another similitude. * Ther was a certayne mā an housholder, whych platted a vineyarde, & hedged it round about, & made a wynepres in it, & built a tower, & lette out to husbādmē, & wyl into a strange coltre. And when yf tyme of yf frute drew neare, he sent hys seruautes to yf husbādmē, that they myght receaue the frutes of it. And the husbādmē caught hys seruautes, & beat one kyllled another, & stoned another. Agayne, he sent other seruautes, mo then yf fyist: and they dyd vnto the lpkewyse. But last of all he sent vnto the his owne sonne, sayng: they wyl stande in a we of my sonne. But whē yf husbādmē sawe the sonne, they said among the selues: * Thys is the heyre: come, let vs kyl hym, & let vs enioy his inheritaunce. And they caught him & thrust hym out of yf wyneyarde, & slewe hym. When yf Lord therof of the vyneyard cometh, what wyl he do vnto those husbādmē? They sayd vnto hym. For as much as they be enel, he wyl cōnelype destrōye the, & wyl let out hys vyneyard vnto other husbādmē, which shal deliuer him the frute in due seasons. Iesus sayeth vnto the: did ye neuer read in yf scriptures. * The stone which the builders refused, the same is become the heade of the corner: this is yf Lordes doynge & it is maruelous in your eyes. Therfore say I vnto you, yf kyngdō of God shalbe taken fro you, and geuen to a nacion which shal byynge forth the frutes therof. And * whosoener fallet on this stone, shal be broken in peces: but on: whosoener it fallet it shal all to grynde hym. And whē the

* Cap. xii. b
Iach. ix. b Iohn. xii. c

* Luke. xii. c Iohn. xii. b Iosaf. xxi. b
Iosaf. xii. c
* Mat. xii. a
* Luke. xii. a

* Mat. xii. b
* Iosaf. xii. c
* Iosaf. xii. c

* Iosaf. xii. a

* Iosaf. xii. a

* Iosaf. xii. c

* Luke. xii. b

* Mat. xii. a
* Luke. xii. a

* Mat. xii. b
* Iosaf. xii. b
* Iosaf. xii. c
* Luke. xii. a

* Iosaf. xii. c
* Iosaf. xii. b
* Iosaf. xii. b

the Priests and Pharisees had heard bys wonder, they perceyued, & he spake of them And they were about to lape handes on him but they feared the people, because they knew hym as a Prophete. And Iesus answered, and spake vnto them agayne by pa-bles and sayd.

The. xxi. Chapter.

The mariage of the kynges sonne. Tribute to be geuen to the Emperour. Christ confuteth the opinion of the Saduces concerning the resurrection & answereth the Scribes vnto bys question.

The kyngdome of heuen is lyke vnto a mā that was a kyng, whyche made a mariage for bys sonne & sent forth bys seruantes, to cal them that were bidden to þe wedding, & they wold not come Agayne, he sente forth other seruantes saying: Tell them which are bydden: beholde, I have prepared my dynner: mynne oxe & my calves are kylled, & al thinges are ready vnto þe mariage. But they made lyght of it, & wente they wayes: one to bys serme place, another to bys marchandise, & the remnant toke bys seruantes, & intreated them shamefully and slewe them. But when the kyng herde thes, he was wroth, and sente forth bys men of warre and destroyed those murderers and bent vp they: cylie.

Thē sayd he to his seruantes: þe mariage is prepared. But they whych were bidden were not worthy. So þe therfore out into the hys wayes: & as many as þe fynde tho to the mariage. And the seruantes went out into the hys wayes, & gathered together all, as many as they coulde fynde, both good & bad, & the wedding was furnished with gastes. Thē the kyng came in to see the gastes, & whē he spyed there a man, which had not on a wedding garment, he sayd vnto hym: frede, how camest thou in hither not hauyng a wedding garment?
And he was euē speechlesse. Thē sayd þe kyng to the ministers: take & bynde hym hāde and feet, cast hym into wyter darkenelle: there shal be wepyng and gnashyng of teth. For they shall be called but fewe are chosen.

Again: Then went the pharisees, & toke counsell how they myghte cāgle him in his wordes And they sent out vnto hym they: disciples with herodes seruantes, sayng: * Master, we knowe þe thou arte true, & teachest þe waye of God truly, nether carest þe for any mā, for thou regardest not the outward appearance of mā. Tell vs therfore: how thinkest thou? Is it lawfull þe tribute be geuen vnto Cesar or not? But Iesus perceyvinge they wokednes, sayde: Why tēpte ye me ye hypocrites? Shew me þe tribute mony. And they shew hym a peny. And he sayd to the: whose ymage & superscripciō: They say vnto hym, Cesar. Thē sayd he vnto the: Geue therfore vnto Cesar, þe thynges which are Ce-sars: & vnto god, those thynges þe are gods. & Thē they had herde thes wordes, they mar-uelled, & left him, & went they way. * The same daye came to him the Saduces (which saye that there is no resurrection) and asked hym sayng: * Master, Moses sayde: that * if a man dye hauyng no chyld, bys brother shalde mary his wyfe, & raple vp seide vnto bys brother. Ther were vnto vs seuen brethren & the fyrst maryed a wyfe, & deceased wout ylle, & left his wyfe vnto his brother. Lyke wyse, the secōde & þe thyrde, vnto the fenseth.

Last of all the womā dyed also. Therfore, in the resurrectiō, whose wife shal she be of the seuē? For they al had her. Iesus answered & sayd vnto the: ye do erre, not knowyng the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection, they nether marie nor are maryed, but are as the Angels in heauen.

But as touchyng the resurrection of the deed: haue ye not red þe whych is spoken vnto you of God, whych sayeth: * I am the god of Abraham & the God of Isaac, & the God of Jacob: God is not a God of dead, but of lyuyng. And when the people herde thes, they were astonnyed at bys doctryne.

Again: But when the Pharisees had herde, þe had put the Saduces to sylence, they came together, & one of the which was (a doctour of lawe) asked him a question, tēptyng hym & sayng: * Master, which is the great commaūdement in the lawe? Iesus sayde vnto hym:
* Thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God w all thy herte, and wyth all thy soule, & wyth all thy mynde. Thys is the fyrst & great commaūdement. And the secōde is lyke vnto it.

* Thou shalt loue thyne neygbboure as thy selfe. In thes two commaūdemētes hange all the lawe and the Prophetes.

Whyle the Pharisees were gathered together, Iesus asked the, sayng: what thyne pe of Christ: whose sonne is he? They sayde vnto hym the sonne of Dauid. He said vnto them: * how then doeth Dauid in spete call him Lorde, sayng: The Lorde sayde vnto my Lorde: * syt thou on my ryght hande tyll I make thyne enemyes thy foote stoler. If Dauid the cal him Lorde, how is he then bys sonne? And no mā was able to answer hym any thyng nether durst any mā (from that daye forth) aske hym any mo questions.

The. xxii. Chapter.

Christ tēpeth vs to the pharisees, scribes and pharites, and propheseth the destruction of Ierusalem.

Then spake Iesus to the people, and to bys disciples, sayng: * The Scribes and the Pharisees syt in Moses seate.
All therfore whatsoeuer they byd you ob-serue, that obserue and do: but do not ye atter they: workes: for they saye, and do not.
* Yee, they bynde together heuy burthens greuous to be borne, & lape them on menes shoulders

* Mar. xii. b
Luce. xi. c
Actes. xxi. b
* Deu. xxi. b

* Gen. i. b
Mar. xii. c
Luce. xi. c

* Deut. vi. b

* Luce. xii. b
Mar. xii. c
Rom. xii. c Gala. ii. b Iaco. ii. b
Mat. ii. b

* Mat. xii. b

* Mat. xii. a

* Deu. xxi. b

* Luce. xii. a Luce. xi. c

The Gospel

Shoulders: but they the selues wil not beaue at them wpyth one of they? syngers. Al they? worshes do they for the intent, that they may be sene of men. They set abrode they? phila teries, and make large the bozders of they? garmentes, and loue the vppermoste seates at feastes, and to sit in the chefe place in cou fels, and gretynge in the market, and to be called of men. 18 abbi.

* But be not ye called Rabbi. For one is your master, euen Christ, & al ye are brethren.
 And call no man your father vpon the erth, for one is your father whych is in heauen.
 Neither be ye called masters, for one is your master, euen Christ. He that is greatest amonge you, shall be your seruaunte. * But whosoever exalterth him self: shall be brought lowe. And he that humbleth hym selfe, shall be exalted. ¶ Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharises, ye hypocrites, for ye hate vnto the kyngdome of heauen befoze men: ye nether go in your selues neyther suffer ye them that come to enter in.

Wo vnto you Scribes, & pharises, ye ypocrites: for ye deuourze wyddowes houses & that vnder a pretence of longe prayer: therefore shall ye be the sore punished.

Woe be unto you Scribes and Pharises, ye hypocrites: for ye compass sea and lande, to make one proselyte: & when he is become one, ye make hym two folde more the chyld of hell, then ye your selues are.

Wo be vnto you ye blynde gupdes, for ye saye, whosoever doth sweare by the temple, it is nothyng: but whosoever sweareth by the golde of the temple, he is gyltye. Ye fooles & blynd: for whether is greater: ꝑ golde oꝛ the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And whosoever sweareth by the altare, it is no thyng, but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is vpon it, he is gyltye: ye fooles & blynd for whether is greater, ꝑ gyfte: oꝛ the altare that sanctifieth ꝑ gyfte: whoso therfoze sweareth by ꝑ altare, sweareth by it, and by all thynges that are there on. And who so sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, & by hym that dwelleth therein. * And he that sweareth by heauē, sweareth by the seare of God and by hym that syteth thereon.

¶ Unto you scribes & pharises, ye ppo-crites. * For ye tyeth myn, & anyle, and co-myn, & haue sette the wayghtier matters of the lawe: iudgement, mercy, & fayth. These ought ye to haue done, & not to leaue & other vndone: ye blind guydes, which strayne out a gnat, and swalowe a Camel.

Whe vnto you scribes and pharises pe prophites: for ye make cleane the vter syde of the cuppe, & of þe platter: but wthin they are full of hyderp and exesse. Thou blynde pharise, cleanse first þe which is wthin the cup & platter, that the outsyde of them maye be clean also.

* Wo vnto pou Scribes & Pharisees, ye ypocrites: for ye are like vnto painted sepul-cres which in dede appaere beautifull out-warde, but are wythin full of dede mens bones & of all fylthynges. Euen so ye also, outwardly appaere ryghteous vnto me. But win ye are full of faynednesse and iniquitie.

¶ Alſo vnto you ſcribes and phariſes. ye ypocrites: ye builde the tombes of the Prophetes, and garniſhe the ſepulchres of the righteous, & ſaye: yf we had bene in ſ dayes of our fathers, we wolde not haue bene parteners wpth them in the bloude of the Prophetes. And ſo ye be wytnelles vnto your ſelues, & ye are the chyldren of them whiche kylled the Prophetes. Fulſpill ye ſynowful the meſſure of your fathers. Ye ſerpentes, ye generacion of wyperes, howe wyll ye eſcape the damnacion of hell.

¶ Wherefore beholde * I sende vnto you Prophetes & wise men, & scribes, and some of them ye shall kill & crucifye: & some of the shall ye scourge in your synagogues, & persecute the from cytie to cytie: & vpon you may come al þy ryghteous bloude which hath ben shed vpon the earth, from the blood of ryghteous * Abel, vnto þy blood of zachary some of Barachias, * whom ye slewe betwene þy temple and the aultare. Merely I saye vnto you: all these thynges shall come vpon this generation. * O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, thou þy killest the prophetes, & stonest the wyche are sent vnto the: how often wolde * I haue gathered thy chyldren together, euen as the henne gathereth her chyckens vnder her wyngges, and ye wolde not: Behold, * your house is lefte vnto you desolate. For I saye vnto you: ye shall not see me hence forth, tyl that ye say: blessed is he, that cometh in the name of the Lord. ¶

The xiii. Chapter.

¶ Christ sheweth his disciples the destruction of the temple, the end of the law, and the tokens of the latter dayes, and warneth them to waite, for the law shall suddenly perishe.

Ad Iesus wente out, & departed from the temple: & his disciples came to him, for to shewe him the buyldynges of the temple. Iesus sayd vnto them: See not all these thynges: Therelike I saye vnto you: there shall not be here left one stone vpon another, that shall not be destroyed.

And as he sat vpon mouste Olivete, his disciples cam vnto him secretly, sayeng: Tel vs: whē shall these thynges be: & what shall be the token of thy comyng & of the ende of the worlde? And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them: * take hede, & no mā deceaue pou. For many shal come in my name, sayenge: I am Christ: & shall deceaue many. Ye shall heare of warres, & tydings of warres: be not troubled. For all these thynges must come to passe

... passe, but the ende is not yet. * Nacion shall
... agaynst nacion, and realme against re-
... and there shall be pestilence, and dōger
... and earthquakes in all places. All these are ... the begynnynges of sorowes.

* Then shall they put you to trouble, and ... shall hyl you & ye shall be hated of all nacions
... for my names sake. And then shall many be ... offended, & shall betraye one another, & shall
... hate one another. And many false prophe-
... shall aryse, & shall deceaue many. * And ... because iniquite shall haue & vpperhand, the ... time of many shall abate. * But he that endu-
... reth to the ende, the same shall be safe. * And
... this Gospell of the kyngdome shall be prea... ched in all the worlde, for a wytnes vnto all ... nacions, and then shall the ende come.

* When ye therfore shall see the abhorma... tion of desolacion (as was spoken of by Da... niel & prophet) stande in the holy place who ... so readeth it let hym vnderstande. Then let ... them whiche be in Jewry, fflye into the mou-
... tynes. And let hym whiche is on the house
... toppe not come downe to fet any thyng out ... of his house. Neither let hym which is in the ... feilde retorne backe to fetch his clothes. Al-
... shall be in those dayes to the & are to chylde, &
... to the & geue sucke. But praye ye that your ... flyght be not in wynter, neither on the Sa-
... bath daye. For then shall be great tribulaci-
... ons: such as was not sence the begynnyng
... of the worlde to this tyme, nor shall be. Yea, & ... excepte those dayes shuld be shortened, there
... shoulde no fleshe be saved: but for the chosens
... sake, those dayes shall be shortened.

* Then yf any mā saye vnto you: lo here ... is Christ, or there: beleue it not. For there ... shall aryse false Chrystes, and false prophe... ts: and shall shewe great miracles, & won... ders. In so much (that yf it were possible) &
... they elect shuld be deceaued: behold, I haue
... tolde you before. Therfore, yf they saye vn-
... to you behold, he is in the deserte, go not ye ... forth: beholde, he is in the secreete places, be-... lieue it not. For as the lyghtenynge cometh ... out of the east, & appeareth into the west: so shall
... the comynge of the sonne of man be.

* For wheresouer a deed harkas is, euen
... there wyll the Eagles also be gathered toge... ther. Immediately after the tribulaciōs of ... those dayes, shall the sunne be darkened: & the
... moone shall not geue her lyght, and the star-
... res shall fall fro heaue, & the powers of heaue ... shall be moued. And then shall appere the to-... hen of the sonne of man in heauen. And then ... shall all the kynredes of the earth mourne, &
... they shall wepe. For the sonne of man comynge in the ... cloudes of heauen, wth power & great glorie.
... And he shall sende his Angels wth the great ... voyce of a trōpet, & they shall gather toge... ther his chosens, from the foure wyndes: euen
... from the hyggest partes of heauen, vntyll the endes therof.

* Learne a symilitude of the fygge tree: *
... when his bzaunches is yet tender, & the lea-
... ues sprōge, ye knowe & sommer is nye. So ... lykwylse ye when ye se all these thynges, be ... ye sure that it is neare, eue at the doores. Cle-
... rely I saye vnto you: this generacion shall ... not passe, tyll all these thynges be fulfilled.
... Heauen & earth shall passe, * but my wor-
... des shall not passe. But of that daye & houre ... knoweth no man, no not the angels of hea-
... uen, but my father only.

* But as the dayes of Noe were so shall al... so the comynge of the sonne of man be. For
... as in the dayes (that went before the floud)
... they dyd eat and drynke, marrye, and were
... marryed euen vntyll the daye that Noe entred ... into the shippe, & knewe not tyll the floud came
... & toke them al away: so shall also the com-
... ynge of the sonne of man be. The which two
... be in the feild, the one receaued, & the other re... fused: two women shall be gryndynge at the ... myll, the one receaued and the other refused.

* Two in a bed: one shall be receaued, & the other refused.
* Wathe therfore, for ye knowe not what ... houre your Lorde wyll come. Of this yet be ... sure, that yf the good mā of the house knew ... what houre the thefe wolde come: he wold
... surely wathe, and not suffer his house to be ... broken vp. Therfore, be ye also ready, for in ... such an houre as ye thynke not, wyl the sonne
... of man come. Who is a faythfull and wyle ... seruaunte, whome his Lorde hath made ru... ler ouer his householde, to geue them meate
... in seASON. Blessed is that seruaunte whome
... his Lorde whan he cometh shall fynde so ... doynge: Cle rely I saye vnto you, that he shall ... make hym ruler ouer all his goodes. But &
... yf that euell seruaunte saye in his herte, my ... Lorde wyll be longe a comynge (and so be-
... gynne to synge hym felowes, yea, and to eat ... & drynke with the dronken) the saue serua-
... ntes Lorde shall come in a day whē he loke-
... th not for hym, and in an houre that he is not
... ware of, & shall hewe hym in peces, and geue
... hym his porcion wth hypocrites: there shall ... be wepyng and gnashynge of teth.

¶ The xxv. Chapter.

¶ The ten virgins, the talents deliuered to the ser-... uantes, and of the generall iudgement.

The which kyngdome of heauen be-... like vnto ten virgins, which toke
... their lāpes, & went to mete the byrd-
... gro. (as the byrd) But fyue of them ... were foolyshe, & fyue were wyle. They that ... were folyshe, toke theyr lāpes, but toke none
... oyle wth. But the wyle toke oyle wth them in ... their vessels wth lāpes also. All wyle byrd... grome tarped, they al slombred & slept. And ... eue at mydnyght, there was a crye made be-
... holde, the byrdgrome cometh: go out to mete
... him. The al those virgins arole, & prepared ... Ab iii they

The Gospell

they: lāpes. So the foolyshe sayd vnto the wyle: geue vs of your oyle: for oure lampes are gone out. But þe wyle answered, sayeng: not so lest there be not ynough for vs & you, but go ye rather to them that sel, and bye for your selues. And whyle they wēt to bye, the bydgrome came: and they that were ready went in wryth hym to the marriage, & þe gate was shut vp. Afterward came also þe other virgins, sayeng: * Lorde, Lorde, open to vs. But he answered & sayde: verely I saye vnto you: I knowe you not. * Watch therfore, for ye knowe netheer the day, nor yet þe houre wherein the sonne of man shall come.

* math. vii. c imat. xxi. d marke. xii. d lube. xii. g

* mar. xii. d lube. xii. b

* * Lpkewyle as a certayne mā ready to take his iorney into a strainge cōūtre, called hys seruauntes, & deliuered vnto them hys goodes. And vnto one he gaue. v. talentes, to another. ii. & to another one: to euery man after hys habilitie, & streyght way departed.

Then he þe had receaued the fyue talentes, went, & occupied w the same, & wanne other fyue talentes. Lpkewyle also he þe receaued two, gayned other two. But he that receaued that one, went & dygged in the erth, and hys lordes money. After a longe season the Lorde of those seruauntes came, and rekened wryth them. And to he that had receaued fyue talentes came, & brought other fyue talentes, sayeng: Sir, thou deliueredst vnto me fyue talentes: beholde, I haue gayned w them fyue talentes mo. hys lord sayd vnto hym: well thou good and faythful seruaūt. Thou hast ben faythful ouer fewe thynges: I will make the ruler ouer many thynges: enter thou into the ioye of thy Lord. He also that had receaued two talentes, came & sayd: Sir, thou deliueredst vnto me two talentes beholde, I haue wonne two other talentes wryth them: hys lord sayde vnto hym: well good and faythful seruaūt. Thou hast bene faythfull ouer fewe thynges. I will make the ruler ouer many thynges: Enter thou in to the ioye of thy Lord.

Then he whych had receaued the one talent, came, & sayd: Sir I knewe þe that þat an harde man: reappng where thou hast not sowē, & gathering where thou hast not strawed, and therfore was I afrayed, & wente & hysd thy talēt in the erth: lo, there thou hast þe thine. hys lord answered & sayd vnto him: thou euil & slouthful seruaūt, thou knewest, that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I haue not strawed: þoughtest therfore to haue deliuered my money to the exchaungers, & then at my cōmpnge shulde I haue receaued myne owne wryth vauntage. Take therfore the talente frō hym, & geue it vnto hym whiche hath ten talentes. * For vnto euery one that hath shalbe geuen, and he shall haue aboundaunce: But he that hath not, from hym shalbe taken a waye, eue that

* math. xii. c
mar. xii. c

whych he hath. And caste the vnpofitable seruaunt into vtter darkenes: there shalbe wepyng and gnashyng of teeth.

* * When þe sonne of man cometh in hys glorie, & all the holy angels with him, then shal he syt vpon the seate of hys glorie, and before him shalbe gathered al nacions. * And he shall separate them one from another, as a sheptherde deuydeth the shepe frō the gootes: and he shall set the shepe on hys ryghte hande, but the gootes on the left. Then shal the kyng saye to the þe shalbe on hys ryghte hande. Come ye blessed of my father, inheret the kyngdome: prepared for you frō the begynnyng of the worlde. * For I was an hongred, & ye gaue me meate. I was thyrstye, & ye gaue me drynke. I was herbourlesse, & ye toke me in. Naked, & ye clothed me. * Syche & ye visited me. * I was in prelson, & ye came vnto me. Then shal the ryghteous answer hym sayeng: Lorde whē sawe we the an hongred, and fed the: or thyrstye, & gaue þe drynke: when sawe we the herbourlesse, & toke the in: or naked, and clothed the: or whē sawe we þe syche, or in prelson, and came vnto the: And the kyng shal answer, and say vnto them: verely I saye vnto you, in as muche as ye haue done it vnto one of the leest of these my brythren, ye haue done it vnto me.

Then shal he saye also vnto them, that shalbe on the lefte hande: * departe from me ye cursed: into euerlastyng fyre: whych is prepared for the deuill & hys angels. For I was an hongred, and ye gaue me no meate. I was thyrstye, and ye gaue me no drynke. I was herbourlesse, and ye toke me not in. I was naked, and ye clothed me not. I was syche and in prelson, and ye visited me not.

Then shal they also answer hym sayeng: Lorde, whē sawe we þe an hongred, or a thyrstye, or herbourlesse, or naked, or syche, or in prelson, & dyd not minister vnto the: Then shal he answer them, sayeng: Verely I saye vnto you, in as muche as ye dyd it not to one of the leest of these, ye dyd it not to me. And * these shal go into euerlastyng payne, the ryghteous into lyfe eternall.

The. xxi. Chapter.

¶ Mary Magdalene anoynteth Christ. They eat the Easterlambe, Christ prayeth in the garden. Judas be trayeth hym. Peter smyth of malice care, Christ is accused by false wytnesses, Peter denieth hym.

¶ And it came to passe, whē Iesus had syned all these sayenges, he sayd vnto hys disciples: * * ye knowe that after two dayes shalbe Easter, & the sonne of mā shalbe deliuered ouer, to be crucified. * Then assembled together the chiefe prestes and the scripes and the elders of the people vnto the place of the hye prest, (whych was was called Caphas) and helde a counsell that they myght take Iesus by subtelte, and kill him. But they sayd: not on the holy day lest there be an vproure amonge the people.

When * Iesus was in bethany, in the house of Simo p leper. ther came vnto hym a woma: hauinge an alabaſter boxe of precious oynement, and poured it on his heed as he sat at the borde. But when hys discyples sawe it, they had indignacion, sayenge: Wherto serueth this wast? This oynement myght haue bene well solde, and geue to the poore. Whē Iesus vnderſtoode that, he sayde vnto them: why trouble ye the woma? For she hath wrought a good worke vpon me.
For ye haue the poore alwayes with you: but me shal ye not haue alwayes. And in p he hath cast this oynment on my body, she hath it to burye me. Clerely, I saye vnto you whereſoener thys Gospell shalbe preached in the worlde, there shal also this p the hath done, be tolde for a memoriall of her.

* The one of the twelue (which was called Judas Iſcariot) went into p these presents, & sayde vnto them: what wyl ye geue me, and I wyl deliuer hym vnto you? And they apointed vnto him thyrty peces of syluer. And fro that tyme forth he sought opor-tunitie to betraye hym.

* The fyrſt day of swete bread, the disciples came to Iesus, sayeng vnto him, wher wylt thou that we prepare for the, to eate p pasche? And he sayde: go into the cytie to such a man, and say vnto him, the maſter sayeth: my tyme is at hāde, I wil kepe mine pasche by the, with my disciples: And p disciples did as Iesus had apointed them, and they made ready the pasche.

* Whē the euē was come, he sat downe with the twelue. And as they dyd eate, he sayde: Clerely, I saye vnto you, that one of you shal betraye me. And they were exceadinge sorowfull, and beganne euery one of them to saye vnto him: Lord, is it I? he answered and sayde: he that byppeth hys hāde with me in the dish, the same shal betraye me.

* The sonne of man truly goth, as it is written of hym: but wo vnto that man, by whom the sonne of man is betrayed. It had ben good for p mā, yf he had not bene bozne.

* The Judas which betrayed him, answered and sayd: maſter, is it I? he sayd vnto him: thou hast sayd. Whā they were eatyng, Jesus toke bread, & whā he had geuen thākes, he brake it, & gaue it to the disciples, & sayd: Take eate, thys is my body. And he toke the cup, & thanked, & gaue it them, sayenge: Drinke ye all of this. For thys is my bloude (which is of the new testament) that is shed for many for p remissiō of synnes. But I say vnto you: I wyl not drynke hence forth of this frute of the vyne tree, vntyll that daye when I shal drynke it newe wyth you in my fathers kyngdome.

* And whē they had sayd grace, they went out vnto mount Oliuete. Then sayeth Iesus vnto the: all ye shalbe offended because of me thys nyght. For it is written. * I wil smyte the shepherde, & the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abrode. But after I am rylen a-gayne, I wyl go before you into Galile. Peter answered, & sayde vnto him: though all men be offended because of the, yet wyl I not be offended. Iesus sayd vnto him, Clerely, I saye vnto the, that in thys same nyght, before the cocke crowe, thou shalte denye me thysle. Peter sayd vnto him: Pee, though I shulde dye wyth the, yet wyl I not denye p: I pke wyl also sayde all the disciples.

* Then came Iesus w them vnto a farne place (whych is called Gethsemane) & sayde vnto the disciples: syp ye here whyle I go & praye yonder. And he toke wyth hym Peter and the two sonnes of zebede, & beganne to ware sorowfull and heuye. The sayd Iesus vnto the: * My soule is heuy, euen vnto the death. Tary ye here: & watch wyth me. And he wēt a lytell farther, & fell flat on his face, and prayed, sayenge: O my father, yf it be possible, let this cuppe passe fro me: neuer-thelesse, not as I wil, but as p wylt. And he came vnto p disciples, & found them a slepe, and sayeth vnto Peter: What coulde ye not watch with me one houre? watch and praye p ye entre not into temptaciō. * The spete is wyllynge, but the flesh is weake.

* He went awaye once agayne & prayed, sayeng: O my father, yf thys cup maye not passe awaye from me, excepte I drynke of it thy wyl be fulfilled. And he came, & founde the a slepe agayne. For their eyes were heuy And he left them & went agayne, & prayed p thyrde tyme, sayenge p same wordes. Then cometh he to hys disciples, and sayeth vnto them. Slepe on now, & take your rest. Be-holde, p houre is at hande, & the sonne of mā is betrayed into p handes of synners. Arise, let vs be gopng: behold, he is at hāde, that doth betraye me.

* Whil he yet spake: lo, Judas one of the nombre of the twelue, came, & wyth hym a great multitude, w swerdes & staues, sent fro the chiefe prestes and elders of p people. But he p betrayed him gaue the a token, sayenge: whom soeuer I kysse, that same is he, hold him fast. And forth wyth he came to Iesus, and sayd, hallo walter: and killed him. And Iesus sayde vnto him: frend, wherfore art thou come? Then came they, and layed handes on Iesus and toke him.

And beholde, one of them whych were with Iesus, stretched out his hāde, and drue hys swerde, and stroke a seruaunte of the hys p prestes,

* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.
* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.
* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.
* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.
* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.

* mat. xxi. 1. e.
* mat. xxi. 1. e.

The Gospell

hve prestes, and smote of his eare. The sayd Jesus vnto him: put vp thy swerde into his sheath.

* Genr. ix. a Iohn. xlii. b Apoca. xiii. c
Ezech. i. d

* For all they that take the swerde: shall perish wth þ swerde. Thynkest thou that I can not nowe praye to my father, and he shall geue me (euen now) more then twelue Legions of Angels: But howe the shall the scriptures be fulfilled: for thus must it be.
In that same houre sayde Jesus to the multitude: * Ye be come oute as it were vnto a theft. wth swerdes and stauers, for to take me. I sat daplie wth you, teachynge in the temple, & ye toke me not. * But all thys is done, that the scriptures of the Prophetes myght be fulfilled. * Then all the disciples forsoke him, & fled. And they toke Jesus, & led him to Cayphas þ hve prestre, where the Scribes and þ elders were assembled. But Peter folowed hym a farre of, vnto the hve prestres palace, & wente in, and late with the seruauntes, to se the ende.

* Lu. xlii. d.
I Mar. xlii. f
Luk. xlii. f.

* Psalms. xxi.
and. xlii.

* Mar. xlii. f
I Mar. xlii. f.
Iohn. xlii. e

* Mar. xlii. f.
Actes. vi. d.

* The chefe prestes and the elders, and all the counsell, sought false wytnes agaynst Jesus (for to put hym to deeth) but founde none: ye when many false wytnesses came, yet founde they none. At the last came two false wytnesses, & sayde: Thys fellow sayde:

* Mar. xlii. f.
Iohn. ix. b
I Mar. xlii. f.

* I am able to destroye the temple of God, and to buyde it agayne in thre dayes. * And the chefe prestre arose, & sayde vnto him: Answerest þ nothyng: Why do these beare wytnes agaynst the? But Jesus helde hys peace. * And the chefe prestre answered and sayde vnto him: I charge the by the lyvinge God, þ thou tell vs, whether thou be Christ the sonne of God. Jesus sayth vnto hym: thou hast sayde. Auerthelesse, I saye vnto you * here after shall ye se the sonne of man sittynge on the ryght hande of power, & co-mynge in the cloudes of the skye.

* Mar. xlii. f.

* Mar. xlii. g
Luk. xlii. g.

* Mar. xlii. g

* The þ hve prestre rent his clothes, saying: he hath spoken blasphemy: what nede we of eny moo wytnesses? Beholde, nowe ye haue herde his blasphemy, what thinke ye? They answered, and sayde: he is worthy to dye:

* Ezech. i. d.

* Then dyd they spyt in hys face, and buffet-ted hym wth fistes. And other smote hym on hys face with the palme of theyr handes, sayinge: tell vs thou Christ, who is he that smote the?

Peter sat wythoute in the palace. And a dāsell came to him, saying: Thou also wast wth Jesus of Galile: but he denied before the all, saying: I woot not what thou sayest Why be was gone out into the porche: a nother wenche sawe hym, and sayd vnto them that were there: This fellow was also wth Jesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denyed wth an othe (sayeng:) I do not knowe the mā. And after a whyle, came vnto him they (þ stode by) and sayd vnto Peter: * Surely þ art eue one of the, for thy speech bewrayeth the. Thā begāne he to curse and to sweare, that he knewe not the mā. And immediatly * the cocke crow. And Peter remembred the worde of Jesu, which sayd vnto him, before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denye me thise:

and he wente out, and wepte bitterly.

The xxvii. Chapter.

Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. Judas hangeth him selfe. Christ is crucified amonge thers. He dieth and is buried, watchmen kepe the graue.

When the moynynge was come, * all the chefe prestes & the elders of the people held a counsaile agaynst Jesus, to put hi to deeth & brought hi bound: & deliuered hi vnto Wicious Pilate þ debite.

Then Judas (which had betrayed hym) seyng that he was condēpned, repented him selfe, and brought agayne the thirty plates of syluer, to the chefe prestes & elders say-enge: I haue sinned, betrayng the innocent bloude. And they sayde: what is that to vs?
Se thou to that. And he cast downe the syluer plates in the temple, and departed * and went and hanged hym selfe.

And the chefe prestes toke the syluer plates, & sayde: it is not lawfull for to put them into the treasure, bycause it is the pyper of bloude. And they toke counsell: & bought with them a potters felde to bury straungers in.
Wherfor þ felde is called * (Haceldema, that is) felde of bloude, vntill this daye. Then was fulfilled, that whych was spoken by Jeremy the Prophete, sayenge: * and they toke thyrty syluer plates, the price of hym þ was valued, who they bought of the chyldren of Israel, and gaue them for the potters felde, ast he Lord appointed me. * Jesus stode before þ debite, and the debite asked him, say-enge: art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus sayeth vnto him: Thou sayest. And whā he was accused of the chefe prestes & elders, he answered nothing. Then sayeth Pilate vnto him: hearest thou not, how many witnesses they laye agaynst the? * and he answered him to neuer a word: in so much that the debite marueled greatly.

* At that fealt, the debite was wonte to deliuer vnto the people a psoner, whome they wold desyre. He had the a notable psoner, called Barrabas. Therfore, when they were gathered together, Pilate sayde:
* whether wyll ye that I geue loose vnto you? Barrabas, or Jesus, whych is called Christ? For he knewe þ for enuy they had deliuered hym. when

When he was set downe to geue iudgement, his wyfe sent vnto him sapenge: haue thou nothyng to do with that iust mā. For I haue suffered many thynges this daye in my hope because of him. * But the chiefe prestes & elders perswaded þe people, that they shulde slay Barrabas, & destroye Iesus. The debite answered, and sayde vnto them: whether of the twayne, wyl ye, that I let loole vnto you? They sayde: * Barrabas. Pilate sayde vnto them: * what shall I do the with Iesus whych is called Christ? They all sayd vnto him: Let him be crucified. The debite sayde: What euell hath he done? But they cryed þe more, sayenge. Let hym be crucified. When Pilate sawe þe he coulde preuaile nothyng, but þe more busynesse was made, he toke water and wasshed hys handes before the people, sayenge: I am innocent of the bloude of this iust person, ye shall se. Then answered all the people, and sayde: * hys bloude be on vs, and on our chyldren. * Then let he Barrabas loole vnto them, and scourged Iesus and deliuered hym to be crucified.

* Then the souldiers of the debite toke Iesus in the comen hall, and gathered vnto him all the company. And they stripped him and put on him a purpel robe, and platted a crowne of thornes and put vpon hys heade, and a rede in hys ryght hande: and bowed þe knee before hym: and mocked him, sayenge: hylde, hylde of the Jewes. And whan they had spyt vpon hym, they toke the rede, and smote hym on the heed.

And after that they had mocked hym, they toke the roobe of hym agayne, and put hys own raiment on hym, & led hym a waye to crucifye hym. And as they came out, * they founde a mā of Cyren (named Simon) whiche they compelled to beare his crosse. * And they came vnto the place which is called Golgotha (þis is to say, a place of deed mes(coules)) and gaue hym vynerger to drynke myngled with gall. And whan he had tasted therof, he wolde not drynke.

Whē they had crucified hym, they parted his garmentes, & dyd cast lottes: yf it myght be fulfilled whych was spoken by the p̄phet. * They departed my garmentes amonge them: and vpon my vesture dyd they cast lottes. And they sat and watched hym there, & stode vpon ouer hys heed the cause of hys deeth, written: * This is Iesus the kynge of the Jewes. * The were there two theues crucified with hym, one on the ryght hande, and another on the lefte.

* They that passed by, reuyled him, wagginge theyr heades, and sayenge: thou that destroyest the temple of God and dydest build it in thre dayes, saue thy self. * If thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse. Likewise also þe hye prestes, mocking him with þe Scribes and elders sayd: he saued other, him self can he not saue. If he be þe kynge of Israel, let him now come down fro the crosse, & we will beleue him. * He trusted in God, let him deliuer hym now, yf he wyl haue him, for he sayd: I am þe sonne of God. The theues also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his tethe.

* Fro þe syxte houre was there darcknes ouer all the lāde vnto the nyynth houre. And about the nyynth houre, Iesus cryed, with a loude voyce, sayenge: Eli, Eli lama sabathani. That is to saye: * my God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? * Some of them þe stode there, whē they herde þe, sayde: This man calleth for helias. And streygth waye * one of them ranne, and toke a sponge, and whan he had fylled it full of vynerger, he put it on a rede, and gaue hym to drynke. Other sayd, let be, let vs se whether helias wil com and deliuer hym. Iesus, whan he had cryed agayne w a loude voyce, yeldd vpon þe goost.

And beholde, þe vayle of the temple dyd rent into two partes, from the toppe to the bottome, and the earth dyd quake, and the stoncs rent, and graues did open: and many bodys of sayntes which slept, arose, & went out of the graues after his resurrection, and came into the holy cytie, and appeared vnto many. * When the Centurio and they that were with hym watchinge Iesus, sawe the earthquake, and those thynges which happened, they feared greetly, sayenge: Trulye, this was the sonne of God.

* And many women were there (behol- dyng him a farre of) whych folowed Iesus fro Galile, ministringe vnto hym. Amonge which was Mary Magdalene, & Mary the mother of James and Ioses, and þe mother of zebedes chyldre. When þe euen was come * there came a ryche man of Arimathea named Ioseph, which also was Iesus disciple. He went vnto Pilate and begged the body of Iesus: Then Pilate commaunded the body to be deliuered. And whan Ioseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a cleane linnen clothe, and layed it in hys newe tombe, which he had hewen out, euen in the rocke, & rolled a great stone to þe doze of the sepulchre and departed. And there was * Mary Magdalene and the other Mary sittinge ouer agaynst the sepulchre. The nexte daye that folowed the daye of preparyng, the hye prestes and pharises came together vnto Pilate sayenge: Syr, we remember that this deceauer sayd whyle he was yet aliv. * After these dayes I wyl arise agayne. Commaunde therefore that the sepulchre be made sure vntill the thryde daye, lest his disciples come, and steale hym awaye & saye vnto the people: he is risen from the deeth, & the laire erroure shalbe worse then the fyrst. Pilate sayd

* Mar. xiii. b

* Mar. xvi. c. Luke. xxi. a.

* Mar. xvi. c. John. xxi. a.

* Mar. xvi. b. John. xxi. f.

* Mar. xvi. b. Luke. xxi. f.

* Mar. xvi. b. Luke. xxi. g.

* Mar. xvi. b. Luke. xxi. g.

* Mar. xvi. b. Luke. xxi. g. John. xxi. g.

* Mar. xvi. b.

* Mar. xvi. c. and. xvi. b. Marke. xvi. a. Luke. xxi. f.

The Gospell

The Gospell of S. Marke.

The fyrst Chapter.

The office of John the baptist. The baptisme of Christ his fastinge, his preachinge, and the callinge of Peter, Andrew, James, and John. Christ healeth the ma with the vncleane sperte, heareth Peters mother in lawe, and clemeth the leper.

The beginning of the gospell of Iesu Christ the sonne of God, as it is wrytten in the prophetes, * beholde, I sende my messenger before thy face which shall prepare thy way before the voice of a cryer in the wilderness.

* prepare ye the way of the Lord and make his pathes strayte. * John did baptise in the wilderness, & preached the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of synnes. And all the land of Jewry & they of Jerusalem, went out unto him, & were all baptised of him in the river of Jordan confessinge theyr synnes.

* John was clothed with camelles heer, and with a gyrdel of a skynne about his loynes. And he dyd eate locustes and wyld honey, and preached, sayenge: * he that is stronger then I, cometh after me, whose sho lachet I am not worthy to stoupe downe, and vnloose. I haue baptised you with water: but he shall baptise you with the holy goost.

And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazareth, of Galile, & was baptised of John in Jordā. And as soon as he was come vp oute of the water: * he sawe heauen open, and the sperte descending vpon him lyk a doue: And there came a voyce from heauen. * Thou arte my deare sonne in whom I deyste.

And immediatly the sperte droue hym into the wilderness: and he was there in the wilderness. xl. dayes, and was tempted of Sathan, and was with wyld beasts.

* And the angels ministered vnto hym. After that John was taken * Iesus came into Galile, preaching the Gospell, of the kyngdome of God. and sayenge: the tyme is come, & the kyngdome of God is at hande * repent, and beleeue the Gospell.

* As he walked by the see of Galile, he sawe Symon and Andrew his brother, casting nettes into the see, for they were fyshers. And Iesus sayde vnto them: folowe me, & I will make you to becomen fyshers of men. And straight way they forsoke theyr nettes, & folowed him. And whā he had gone a lytell further thence, he sawe James the sonne of zebede, & John his brother, which also were in the shyppe, mendinge theyr nettes. And anon he called them. And they left their father zebede sayd vnto them: Ye haue the watch go your waye, make it as sure as ye can. So they wente, & made the sepulchre sure wth watch men, and sealed the stone.

The xxviii. Chapter.

The resurrection of Christ. The hye prestes geue the soldiours money to save Christ was stolen out of his graue. Christ appeareth to his disciples, and sendeth them forth to preach and to baptise.

Vpon an eueninge of the Sabbathes, which da weth the fyrst daye of the Sabbathes, cam Mary Magdalen, and the other Mary, to se the sepulchre.

And behold, ther was a great earthquake for the angell of the Lord descended fro heauen, & came and roulled backe the stone from the doze, & sat vpon it. His countenance was lyke lychtynge, and his rayment whyt as snowe. And for feare of hym the keepers were astonnied, and became as deed men.

* The angell answered, & sayde vnto the women, feare ye not. For I knowe, ye seke Iesus which was crucified: he is not here: he is risen as he sayd. Come se the place where that the Lord was layed: & go quickly, & tel his disciples, for he is risen agayne fro the deed. And behold, he goeth before you into galile, there ye shall se him. So I haue tolde you.

* And they departed quickly from the sepulchre wth feare and greate Joye, & dyd runne, to bring his disciples worde. And as they wēt to tell his disciples: beholde, Iesus met the, saying: All halle. And they came & held him by the fete, & worshipped him. The sayd Iesus vnto the: be not astrapde. Go tell my brethren that they go into Galile, & there shall they se me. Whē they were gon, behold some of the keepers came into the cite & thewed vnto the hye prestes, all the thinges that had happened. And they gathered the together wth the elders, & toke counsell, & gaue large money vnto the soldiours, saying: Saye ye, if his disciples came by nyght & stole him awaye while ye slept. And if this come to the rulers eares, we will perswade hym, & saue you harmeles. So they toke the money, & dyd as they were taught. And this sayenge is norysed amonge the Jewes vnto this daye.

* Then the xi. disciples wēt awaye into Galile, into a mountaine where Iesus had appointed the. And when they sawe hym, they worshipped him. But some doubted. And Iesus came, and spake vnto the sayenge: * All power is geuen vnto me in heaue, & in erth. * Go ye therefore, & teach all nacjons, baptising them in the name of the father, & of the sonne, & of the holy goost: Teaching the to observe all thynges, whatsoeuer I haue commaunded you. And lo * I am wth you alwaye, euen vntill the ende of the worlde.

There endeth the Gospell of S. Marke.

* Mar. xvi. a.
Luke. xxiii. a.
John. xxi. a.

* Mar. xvi. b.
Luke. xxiii. a.

* Mar. xvi. b.
Luke. xxiii. b.

* Math. xi. b.
John. xxi. a.

* Mar. xvi. c.

* John. xxi. b.

her rebode in the tpyr with þ hyzed seruati-tes, and folowed hym.

* And they came into Capernaum: and straight waye on þ Sabbath dayes, he entered into þ synagoge, and taught, and they were astounded at hys learnynge. * For he taught them as one that had auctoritie, and not as the scribes.

* And there was in they synagoge a mā torred with an vncleane sprete, and he cryed sayng. Alas, what haue we to do wpyth the son of Nazareth: arte thou come to destroie vs: I know the what thou art, ene that holy one of God. And Iesus rebuked hym sayng: holde thy peace, and come out of the man. And whan the vncleane sprete had toozneyd hym, & cryed with a loude voyce, he came out of hym. And they were all amased, in so muche that they demaunded one of another amonge them selues, sayng: what thing is this: what newe doctrine is this:
for with auctorite comaunded he the foule spytes, and they obeyed hym. And immediatly hys fame spred abrode throughe out all the regyon borderinge on Galile.

And forth with whā they were come out of the synagoge: they entered into the house of Symon and Andrew, wpyth James and John. But Symons mother in lawe laye sicke of a feuer. And anone they tell hym of her. And he came, & toke her by the hande: & lift her vp: & immediatly þ feuer forsoke her, & she ministered vnto the. And at euen whan þ sonne was downe they brought vnto hym all that were dyscaled, and them that were torred wpyth deuils. And all þ cpyte was gathered together at the doze, & he healed many that were sycke of diuerse diseases, & caste out many deuils, & suffred not the cruells to lynche, because they knewe hym.

And in the moznyng very early, Iesus (when he was rpylen vp) departed, and wēt out into a solitary place, and there prayed.
And Symon and they that were with him, folowed after hym. And whē they had foude him, they sayd vnto him: all men seke for þ.
And he sayde vnto them, let vs go into the nexte townes, that I may preach there also: for therfore am I come. And he preached in they synagoges, in all Galile, and cast the deuils out.

* And there came a leper to hym, beseeching him, and knelyng do wne, and sayenge vnto hym, yf thou wylte, thou canst make me cleane. And Iesus had compassion on him, & put forth hys hande, touched hym, & sayeth vnto hym: I will be thou cleane. And asone as he had spoken, immediatly the leprosy departed fro hym, and he sent him awaye forth with, and sayeth vnto hym. * Se thou saye nothyng to any mā: but get þ hence, berwe the leite to the pzeaste, and offer for thy clensyng those thynges whych Moyses commaunded, for a witness vnto them. But he (allone as he was departed) beganne to tell many thynges, and to publysh the sayenge: in so muche that Iesus coulde nomore opely entre into the cpyte, but was wythout in deserte places. And they came to him fro euery quarter.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

¶ He healed þ mā of þ pallsie, calledth Lenu þ customer, & casteth out deuils.

After a fewe dayes also, he entered into Capernaum agayne, and it was nopyled that he was in the house. And anone many were gathered together, in so muche that nowe there was no roume to re-ceauē them, no, not so much as about þ doze & he preached þ word vnto the. * And they came vnto hym, bynginge one sycke of the pallsie, which was borne of foure men. And whē they coulde not come nye vnto hym for pzeale, they vncouered the roofof the house that he was in. And when they had broken vp þ rofe, they byd (with cordes) let downe the bed wherin the sycke of the pallsie laye.
Whē Iesus sawe they sayth, he sayd vnto the sycke of the pallsie: * sonne, thy synnes be forzguen the.

But there were certayne of the scribes syttyng there, & thynkyng in they hartes: why doth he speake these blasphemies: who can forzeue synnes, but God onely: And im-mediatly whē Iesus perceaued in his sprete that they so thought wpythin them selues, he sayeth vnto them: why thinke ye such thynges in your hartes: whether is it eaiser to saye to the sycke of the pallsie: thy synnes be forzguen the: or to saye, arise, take vp thy bed, and walke: But that ye mape knowe, that the sonne of man hath power in earth to forzgue synnes, he spake vnto the sycke of the pallsie: I saye vnto the: arise, and take vp thy bedde, and get the hēle vnto thyne owne house. And immediatly he arose, toke vp the bed, and went forth befoze them all: in so much that they were all amased, & glorified God, sayeng: we neuer sawe it on this fashyon.

* And he went agayne vnto the see, & all the people resorted vnto hym, and he taught them. And as Iesus passed by, he sawe Lenu the sonne of Alpha, sytting at the receite of custome, & sayde vnto hym: folowe me. And he arose, and folowed hym. And it came to passe that whan Iesus sat at meate in hys house, many publicans and synners sat also together at mete wpyth Iesus and hys disciples. For there were many, þ folowed hy.
And when the scribes and pharises hym eate with publicans and synners sayd vnto hys disciples: howe happye that he eateth, & drynketh wpy

The Gospell

and synners: When Iesus hearde þ. he sayd vnto the: They that be whole, haue no nede of the phyllycon, but they that are syke. * I came not to call the ryghthe wyle, but synners to repentance.

* 1. Timo. 5. c.

* Mat. 12. b.
Luke. 11. c.

And the disciples of Iohn and the Pharisees dyd fast: and they come and saye vnto him. Why do the disciples of Iohn and of þ pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not. And Iesus sayde vnto the, ca the chyldren of the weddinge fast while the byrdgrome is with them: As longe as they haue the byrdgrome with them, they can not fast. But the dayes wpll come, when the byrdgrome shalbe taken awaye from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

D A Roman also soweth a pece of newe clothe vnto an olde garment, els taketh he awaye the newe pece therof from the old, & so is the rent wofle. And no mā powreth new wyne into olde bottels, els þ new wyne doth burst the bottels, and the wyne runneth oute, and þ bottels are marred. But newe wyne must be put into newe bottels.

* And it chausede (agaynst) that he wente thorow þ come felde on þ Sabbath dayes and his disciples, began by þ waye to pluck the eares of corne. And þ Pharisees sayd vnto hym: beholde, why do they on the Sabbath dayes, that which is not lawfull? And he sayd vnto them: haue ye neuer read what Dauid dyd whan he had nede, and was an hungred, both he, and they that were wyth hym? Howe he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the hie prest, and dyd eate the shewbread, (whych is not lawfull to eate, but for the prestes only) & gaue also to them whych were wyth hym?

* Mat. 23. a.
Luke. 11. a.

* 1. Mc. 7. b.

And he sayde vnto them: the Sabbath was made for man, & not man for the Sabbath. Therfore is the sonne of man, Lorde also of the Sabbath.

The. iii. Chapter.

He helpeþ the mā with the dyed hande, choseth his apostles, & casteth out the vncleane spertes, whiche the pharisees ascribe vnto þ deuill. The brother, syster, and mother of Iesus.

* Mat. 23. a.
Luke. 11. a.

A And he entred agayne into the Synagoge, & there was a man there which had a withered hand. And they watched him, whether he wolde heale him on the Sabbath daye, that they myght accuse him. And he sayd vnto þ mā which had þ withered hāde aryse, & stande in the myddes. And he sayth vnto them, whether it is lafull to do good on þ Sabbath dayes, or to do euell? aue lyfe, or to kyll? But they helde theyr

And when he had looked round aboute wyth anger, mournynge on the theyr hertes, he sayth to the mā, stretche thine hande. And he stretched hāde was restored, euen as whole as the other.

* And the Pharisees departed, & streight waye gathered a counsell (with them that be longed to herode) agaynst hym, that they myght destroye him. But Iesus auoyded his disciples to the see. * And a great multitude folowed hym from Galile: and fro Juri, and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and from beyonde Iordane, & and they that dwelled aboute Tyre and Sydon, a greete multitude of me: which (whē they had herd what thynges he dyd) came vnto hym.

And Iesus commaunded his disciples, that a thyp shuld wayt on hym, because of þ people: lest they shulde thronge him. For he had healed many, in so moche that they pressed vpon him, for to touch hym, as many as had plagues. And when þ vncleane spertes sawe him, they fell downe before hym, and cryed, sayinge: thou art the sonne of God. And he straitly charged them that they shulde not make him knowne.

And he went by vnto a mountayne, & called vnto hym whō he wolde, and they came vnto hym. * And he ordeyned the twelue that they shulde be wyth hym, & þ he myght sende the forth to preach: & that they myght haue power to heale sykneses, & to cast out deuyls. And he gaue vnto Symon to name Peter. And he called James the sonne of zebede and Iho, James brother, and gaue the to names Bonarges, whiche is to saye, the sonnes of thonder. And Andrew, & Philip, & Bartholomewe, and Matthewe, & Thomas, and James þ sonne of Alphe, & Thaddeus, and Symon of Canaan, and Judas Iscariot: which also betrayed hym.

And they came into the house, and the people assembled together agayne, so that they had not leysur, so moch as to eate bread. And when they that belonged vnto hym, hearde of it, they wente out to laye hādes vpon him. For they sayde, he is made. And the scribes which came downe from Jerusalem, sayde: he hath Belzebub, and by the chefe deuill, casteth he out deuyls. And he called the vnto him, and sayde vnto them in parables.

How can Sathā dyspue out Sathan? And yf a realme be deuoyded agaynst it selfe, that realme can not endure: And yf a house be deuoyded agaynst it selfe, that house can not cōtinue. And yf Sathan make insurreccyon agaynst hym selfe, & be deuoyded, he cā not cōtinue, but hath an ende: A man can entre into a strong mans house, & take awaye his goodes, excepte he fyrt bynd þ stronge mā, & then spoyle his house. Verely I saye vnto you, all synnes shalbe forgiven vnto mens chyldren and blasphemies wherwith loouer they haue blasphemed: * But he þ speaketh blasphemy agaynst the holy goost, hath neuer forgiveness, but is in daunger of eternal damnacyon.

damnacyn: For they sayde: he hath an vncleane spere. * There came also his mother his brythre, & stode wythout, and sent vnto him to call him out. And þe people sat about him, & sayde vnto hym: beholde, thy mother and thy brythren seke for the wythout. And he answered them, sayinge: who is my mother and my brythren? And whan he had loked rounde about on his disciples, which sat in compasse about him, he sayde: beholde my mother and my brythren. For whosoever doth the will of God, the same is my brother and my syster and mother.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter. ✠

¶ The parable of the sower. Crist telleth the temples of the see, which ob eyed hym.

Add he began agayne, to teach by the see syde. And ther gathered together vnto hym moche people, so greatly that he entred into a shyppe, * and sat in the see, and all the people was by the see syde on the shore. And he taught them many thynges by parables, and sayd vnto them in hys doctrine: herke to: beholde, * there wet out sower to sowe. And it fortunyd as he sowed, that some fell by the way syde, and the fowles of the ayre came, & deuoured it vp: some fel on stony grounde where it had not much earth: & immediatly sprange vp, because it had not depth of earth, but as sone as the sone was vp, it caughte heat: & because it had not rotynge, it wyddered awaye.

And some fell amonge thornes, & þe thorn-es grewe vp, and choked it, and it gaue no frute. And some fell vpo good grounde, and brought forth frute that sprange vp, and grewe, and brought forth, some thyrty folde, and some fyfty fold, and some an hundred fold, and he sayde vnto them: he that hath eares to heare let hym heare.

And when he was alone, they that were about hym wyth the twelue asked hym of the parable. And he sayde vnto them: * To you it is geuen to knowe the mystry of the kingdome of God. But vnto them that are wythout, all thynges happen by parables: þe when they se, they maye se, and not discerne, when they heare, * they maye heare, and not vnderstande: lest at any tyme they shuld fornye, and they synnes shulde be forgeuen them. And he sayde vnto them: knowe ye not this parable? & how then will ye knowe all other parables.

¶ The sower soweth the worde. And they whereof some be rehearsed to be by þe waye syde, are those, where the worde is sowne: and whē they heare, Satan cometh inunediatly, and taketh awaye the worde þe was sowne in theyr hertes. And lyke wyse the other that receaue sēde into þe stony ground, are they: whych when they heare the word, at once receaue it with gladnes, yet haue no rote in the selues, and so endure but a tyme: and anon whā trouble & persecucion ariseth for the wordes sake, they fall immediatly.

There be other also þe receaue sēde in to thorn-es & those are such as heare the word, & the cares of this worlde, and þe dysseptuines of riches, & the lustes of other thynges, enter in & choke the worde, & it is made vnfrutefull: and other there be, þe haue receaue sēde into a good grounde: they are such þe heare þe word and receaue it, so that one corne doth bringe forth thyrty, some fyfty, some an hundred.

And he sayde vnto them: * is the candle lyghted, to be put vnder a bushell, or vnder the table? It is not lyghted to be put an a cabellyk: * For there is nothyng to preynt, þe shall not be opened: nether hath it bene so secret, but þe it shall come abroode. If any mā haue eares to heare, let hym heare. And he sayde vnto them: take heed what ye heare:
* With what measure ye meat, with þe same shall other men measure vnto you agayne.
And vnto you that heare, shall moze be geuen. For vnto hym that hath, shall it be geuen & from him that hath not, shall be taken awaye, euen that whych he hath.

And he sayd: so is the kyngdome of God, eue as * þe mā shuld sowe sēde in þe ground, and shulde slepe, and rype by nyghte & dape:
and the sēde shulde sprynge and growe vp, whyle he is not aware. For the earth bringeth forth frute of her selfe: fyrst the blade, then the eare, after that the full corne in the eare. But when the frute is brought forth anon he thursteth in the sickell, because the heruest is come.

And he sayde: where vnto shall we lyken the kyngdome of God? or wyth what cōparison shal we cōpare it? * It is lyke a graine of mustard seed: whych when it is sowne in the earthe, is lesse then all seedes that be in þe earth: whan it is sowne, it groweth vp, and is greater then all herbes: and beareth great braunches, so that the fowles of the ayre maye make theyr nestes vnder the shadowe of it.

* And with many suche parables spake he the worde vnto them, after as they myghte heare it. But wythout parable spake he nothyng vnto the. But whē they were alone,
* he expounded all thynges to hys disciples.
And the same dape when euen was come, he sayde vnto them: let vs passe ouer vnto the other syde. And they left the people, & toke him, eue as he was in the ship. And ther wer also wyth hym other shippes.

* And there arose a great storme of wynde, & þe waues dashed into þe ship, so that it was now full. And he was in þe sterne a slepe on a pelow. And they awoke hym, & sayde vnto hym: Wastest carest þe not, that we perishe?
And he

* Mat. b. a.
Luk. viii. c.
and. xii. e.

* Mat. b. a.
Luk. viii. c.
and. xii. e.

* Mat. b. i. f.
Luk. viii. c.

* Mat. xii. b.
Luk. viii. c.
and. xii. d.

* Mat. xii. b.

* Mat. xii. b.
Luk. xii. d.

* Mat. xii. e.

* Mat. xii. e.

* Mat. b. i. c.
Luk. viii. c.

The Gospell

And he rose vp, and rebuked the wynde, and sayde vnto the see: peace, be still. And the wynde ceased, and there folowed a greate calme. And he sayde vnto them: why are ye so fearfull? How happeneth it, that ye haue no fawth? And they feared exceedingly, and sayde one to another: who is this? For both wynde and see obey hym.

¶ Ce. v. Chapter.

¶ Christ deliuereth the possessed from þe vncleane spete: the woman from the bloude pisse, and rayseth the captaynes daughter.

And they cam ouer to the other syde of the see into the countre of the Gadarenites. And whē he was come out of the shyp, immediatly there met hym out of the graues a man possessed of an vncleane spete, whych had his abydinge amonge the graues. And no man coulde bynde hym: no not with cheynes, because that whē he was oft en bound wth feters & cheynes, he plucked the cheynes asunder, & brake the feters in peces. Neither coulde any mā tame hym. And alwayes, night and dape he was in the mountaynes and in the graues, cryeng and beatyng him selfe with stones. But whē he had spyed Iesus a farre of, he ranne, & worshipped hym, and cried with a loude voyce & sayde: * what haue I to do wth the? Iesus thou sonne of þe moost hyest God? I requyre the in þe name of God that thou toymēt me not. For he sayd vnto hym: come out of the man thou foule spete. And he asked hym, what is thy name? And he answered and sayde vnto hym: my name is Legion, for we are many. And he prayed him instatly, that he wolde not sende them awaye oute of the countre.

But there was there nye vnto the mountaynes a greate herd of swyne fedyng, & all þe deuels besought hym, sayinge: sende vs into the herd of swyne, that we maye enter into the. And anone Iesus gaue them leaue. And the vncleane spetes went out, and entered into þe swyne. And the herd was carped headlyng into the see. They were almost .ii. thousand, & were drowned in þe see. And the swyne herdes fled, and tolde it in þe cytie, and in the feldes. And they wēt out for to se, what had happened: and came to Iesus, and sawe hym that was vnto the sende & had þe Legiō, sūt both clothed and in hys rpyght mynde, & they were afrayed. And they þe sawe it tolde them, howe it had happened to hym & was possessed with the deuyl: & also of the swyne.

And they beganne to praye hym, that he wolde departe out of theyr coast. ¶ And when he was come into the shyppe, he þe deuell prayed hym, that he myghte be wth hym. Howbeit, Iesus wolde not suffre him, but sayd vnto hym: go to thyne owne house & to thy frendes, and shewe the howe greate thynges the Lord hath done for þe, and howe he hath had compassiō on the. And he departed, and beganne to publyshe in the ten cyties, howe greate thynges Iesus had done for hym, and all men dyd marualpe.

And when Iesus was come ouer agayne by shippe vnto þe other syde, moche people gathered vnto hym, & he was nye vnto the see.

And beholde: there came one of the rulers of the synagoge, whose name was Jairus: & when he sawe him, he fell downe at his fete, & besought hym greatly, sayinge my daughter lieth at poynt of deeth, I praye the come and laye thy hande on her, that she maye be safe & lyue. And he went wth hym, & moche people folowed hym, and thronged hym.

And there was a certeyn womā, whiche had bene dyslealed of an pisse of bloude. xii. yeres, & had suffred many thynges of many phylisyōs, & had spent al þe she had, and felte none amendemente at all, but rather was worse, and worse. When she had herd of Iesus, she came in þe preele behind hym, & touched his garmente. For she sayde: yf I maye but touche his clothes, I shal be whole. And streygth waye the fountayne of her bloude was dryed vp, and she felt in her body, that she was healed of that plague.

And Iesus immediatly felyng in him self that vertue pceaded fro him, tourned him aboute in the preele, and sayd: who touched my clothes? And hys dyscyples sayde vnto hym: þe seest the people thrust the, & askest, þe who did touche me? And he looked roundabout for to se her that had done this thyng. But the woman fearing & trembling (knowing what was done wth in her) came, and fell downe before hym, & tolde hym all þe truthe. And he sayd vnto her: Daughter, thy fawth hath saued the: go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

¶ Whyl he yet spake there came fro the ruler of the synagoges house, certayne whych sayde: thy daughter is deed: why dyslealest þe þe master any further? A lone as Iesus herde the worde þe was spoken, he sayd vnto þe ruler of the synagoge: be not afrayed: onely beleue. And he suffred no man to folow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James. ¶ And he cam vnto the house of the ruler of the synagoge, and sawe the wondryng: and them that wepte and wailed greatly, and went in, and sayd vnto the: why make ye this a doo, and wepe? The damosell is not deed, but slepeth. And they laughd him to scozne. But he put the all out, and taketh the father and the mother of the damosell, and them that were wth hym, and entreth in where the damosell laye, and taketh the damosell by the hand, and sayeth vnto her. Talita, cumi: which is (yf one do interpret it) damosell, I saye vnto þe, aryse. And

And streyght waye the damsell arose, and walked. For she was of the age of twelue years. And they were astonied out of measure. And he charged them straitly, that no man shoulde knowe of it, and commaunded, to geue her meate.

The. vi. Chapter.

Ed: it sendeth hys Apostles to heale them that were oppressed. Of John & Herode. Of the. b. loues. s. ii. lxx. And of the walkynge on the see.

And he departed thence, & came into hys owne countre, and hys disciples folowed hym. And when the Sabbath daye was come, he beganne to teache in the synagoge. And many that hearde hym were astonied, and sayde: from whence hath he these thynges? And what wysedome is this, that is geuen vnto hym: and such vertues he wrought by hys handes? Is not this the carpenter Maryes sonne, the brother of James and Ioses and of Juda & Symon: & are not hys sisters here with vs? And they were offended at hym. Iesus sayd vnto the: A Prophet is not despyed, but in his owne countre, and amonge hys owne kynne, and in hys owne houtholde. And he could there shew no myracle, but layde hys handes vpon a fewe of the folke, and healed them, and marueled, because of theyr vnbelefe.

And he went about by the townes that laye on euery syde, teachyng. And he called the twelue, and beganne to sende them forth two & two, and gaue the power agaynst vnclene spytes. And commaunded the, that they shoulde take nothinge in theyr iorneye: save a rodde onely: no scripppe, no breade, no money in theyr purse, but shuld be shod wth sandals. And that they shuld nodd vnto two cootes. And he said vnto them: wher soeuer ye entre into an house, there abyde, tyll ye departe thence. And whosoever shal not receaue you, nor heare you, whē ye departe thence, shake off the dust that is vnder your fete, for a wyte vnto them. I saye verily vnto you: it shalbe easer for sodom & Gomor in the day of iudgement, then for that cytie. And they went out & preached, that many shoulde repent: & they cast out many deuils: & anoynted many that were sycke with oyle, and healed them.

And kynge Herode herde of hym: for hys name was spreade abroad: and he sayde: John Baptyst is risen agayne fro the dead, & therefore myracles are wrought by hym.

Other said it is Elias: some said: it is a prophet, as one of the prophets. But whē Herode herde of hym he sayd: It is John whome I beheaded, he is risen from death agayne.

For Herode hym selfe had sent forth men to warre, and layed handes vpon John, and shoulde hym, & cast hym into prison for Herodias sake, hys brother Philipptes wyfe (because he had maryed her.) For John sayde vnto Herode. * It is not lawfull for the to haue thy brothers wyfe. Herodias layde wayte for him, & wold haue kylled hym, but she could not. For Herode feared John, & knewynge he was a iust mā & an holy: & gaue him reuerence: & when he hearde hym, he dyd many thynges, and hearde hym gladly.

And when a conuenient daye was come, Herode on hys byrth daye, made a supper to the lordes hys captaynes, & chiefe estates of Galile: & whē his daughter of the same Herodias came in, & daūsed, & pleased Herode & the that sat at bourde also: the kynge sayde vnto his damsell: aske of me what thou wilt, and I will geue it the. And he swore vnto her: what soeuer thou shalt aske of me, I will geue it the, eue vnto the one halfe of my kynngdome. And she went forth, & sayde vnto her mother: what shall I aske: she sayde: John Baptistes heade. And she came in straggot waye with hast vnto the kynge, & asked saynge: I wil, thou geue me by & by in a charger, the head of John Baptyst. And the kynge was soyr: howbeit for hys othes sake, and for theyr sakes whych sat at supper also, he wolde not cast her of. And immediatlye the kynge sent the hangman, and commaunded hys heade to be brought in. And he wente, & beheaded him in the prison, and brought his heade in a charger, and gaue it to the damosell, and the damosell gaue it to her mother. And whan hys disciples hearde of it, they came, and toke vp hys body, and layed it in a graue.

And the Apostles gathered the selues together vnto Iesus, & tolde hym all thynges both what they had done, & what they had taught. And he said vnto the: come ye alone out of the waye into the wilderness, & rest a whyle. For there were many commers and goers, and they had no leasure so much as to eate. And he went by ship out of the waye into a desert place. And the people spyed the whē they departed: & many knewe hym, and came a fote thither out of all cyties, and came thither before them, & came together vnto hym. And Iesus went out & saw: much people, & had compassion on the, because they were lyke shepe, not haupnge a shepherde. And he began to teach them many thynges.

And when the daye was now farre spent, hys disciples came vnto hym, saynge: this is a deserte place, and now the tyme is farre passed, let them departe, that they maye go into the countrey rounde aboute, and into the townes, & bye them bread: for they haue nothinge to eate. He answered and sayd vnto them: geue ye them to eate. And they said vnto hym: that we go & bye two hundred penyworth of breade, & geue the to eate: he sayd vnto the: how many loaves haue ye. So they lokke. And whē they had searched, they sayd:

Ec spue and

* Luc. x. xlii. b

and. xx. d

* Gene. xi. b

* mat. xlii. a

* mat. xlii. b

Luc. ix. b

John. vi. a

* mat. xlii. b

Luc. ix. b

John. vi. a

* mat. ix. b

and. xlii. b

* Luc. xlii. b

* mat. xlii. b

Luc. ix. b

John. vi. a

* mat. xlii. a

The Gospell

fyue & two fythes. And he comaunded them, to make them al syt downe by copanies vpo the grene grasse. And they late downe here a rowe and there a rowe, by hundredes & by fyfties. And whē he had taken the fyue loaves and the two fythes, and loked vp to heauen, he blessed and brake the loaves, & gaue them to hys disciples, to set before them: and the two fythes deuyded he amonge them al. And they all dyd eate, and were satysfied. And they toke vp twelue baskettes ful ther of, and of fyfties. And they that dyd eate, were about fyue thousande men.

 mat. xiiii. c*
 Mat. xiiii. c*
John. vi. b
¶ And streyght way he caused his disciples to go into the shyppe, and to go ouer the see before vnto Bethsaida, whyle he sent away the people. ¶ And as sone as he had sente them away, he departed into a mountaine to pray.

¶ And whē euen was come, the shyp was in the myddes of the see, and he alone on the lande, & he sawe them troubled in rowynge, for the wynde was contrary vnto them. And aboute the fourth watche of the nyghte, he came vnto them, walkyng vpon the see, and wolde haue passed by them. But whan they sawe hym walkyng vpo the see, they supposed it had ben a sperte, & cried out: for they al sawe hym, & were afraped. And anone he talked wpyth them, and said vnto them: be of good cheare, it is I, be not afraped. ¶ And

 mat. xiiii. c*
he went vp vnto them into the shyppe, & the wynd ceased, & they were soze amaled in the selues beyode measure, and marueyled. For they remembred not of the loaves, because they herce was blynded.

And when they were ouer the water, they came into the lade of Genesareth & dwe vpon into the haue. And as sone as they were come out of the shyppe, streyght way they knewe hym, and ranne forth through out all the region rounde aboute, & began to cary aboute in beddes those that were sycke, when they herde that he was there. And whither soeuer he entred, into townes, cyties, or byllages, they layde the sycke folkes in the streetes, & prayed hym that they myght touche & it were but the hēme of hys vesture. And as many as touched hym, were safe. ¶

The vii. Chapter.

¶ The disciples eate wpyth vnwaschen handes. The commaundement of God is transgressed by mennes tradicions. Of the woman of Syrophenicia. Of the Sabbath.

 Mat. xvi. a.*

Ad the Pharises came together vnto hym, and dyuers of scribes whych came from Ierusalē. And when they sawe certayne of hys disciples eat bread with commen (that is to saye, with vnwaschen) handes, they complayned. For the pharises and all the Jewes, excepte they walthe theyr handes ofte, eate not, obseruynge the tradicions of the elders. And whē they come from the market, excepte they walthe, they eate not. And many other thynges there be, which they haue taken vpon the to obserue, as the waschyng of cuppes and cruces, and brased vessels, and of tables.

¶ Then asked him the Pharises & Scribes whych walke not thy disciples accordyng to the custome, ordeyned by the elders, but eat bread with vnwaschen handes: he answered & sayd vnto the: wel prophesied Elyas of you, hypocrites, as it is wyrtten: ¶ Thys people honoureth me wpyth theyr lippes, but theyr herte is farre fro me: howbeit, in vaine do they serue me, teachyng the doctrines & comaundementes of me. For ye laye s comaundement of God aparte, & obserue s constitucions of me, as s waschyng of cruces & of cuppes, & many other such lyke thynges ye do.

¶ And he sayd vnto the: well, ye cast asyde the commaundement of God, to mayntayne your owne constitucions. ¶ For Moyses sayd: honoure thy father & thy mother: & who so curseth father or mother, let him dye s death. But ye saye: a mā shall saye to father or mother, Corban: whych is, what gyfte soeuer commeth fro me, shalbe for thy profyt. And so ye suffre hym nomore to do ought for hys father or his mother, and make the worde of God of none effecte, through your owne constitution whych ye haue ordeyned. And many such thynges do ye.

¶ And when he had called al the people vnto hym, he sayde vnto them: herke vnto me, euery one of you, and vnderstande. ¶ There is nothyng without a man that can despyle hym, whē it entreteth into hym: but the thynges whych procede out of a man, those are they that despyle the man. ¶ If any man haue eares to heare, let hym heare. And when he came into the houle awaye from the people, hys disciples asked him of s similitude. And he sayd vnto the: are ye also so greatly wpyth out vnderstandyng? Do ye not yet perceaue s what soeuer thinge from wout, entreteth into a mā, it cā not despyle hi, because it entreteth not into his hert but into s hely: & goeth out into the draught, pouryng out all meates.

¶ And he sayd: that whych commeth out of a man despleth the man. For from wpyth in euen oute of the herte of men procede euell thoughtes, aduouty, fornicacion, murder, theft, couetousnes, fraude, deceyte, vncleynes, a wycked eye, blasphemyes, pryde, foolyshnes: all these euell thynges come from w in, and despyle a man. ¶ And from thence he rose, & went into s borders of Tyre & Sidō & entred into an house, & wold s no mā shuld haue knowe. But he coulde not be hyd. For a certayne woman (whose daughter had a foule sperte) as soone as she herde of hym, came, & fell at hys fete. ¶ The woman was a Greke out of s nacio of Syrophenicia, & she besought brought hym, that he wold cast out the deuill from her doughter. But Iesus sayd vnto her: let the chyldren fyrst be fed. For it is not mete, to take the chyldrens bread, and to cast it vnto whelpes. She answered & sayde vnto hym: euen so Lorde. & neuerthelesse the whelpes also eat vnder the table of the chyl-drens cromes. And he sayd vnto her: for this sayenge go thy waye, the deuill is gone out of thy doughter. And when she was come home to her house, she founde that the deuill was departed, and her doughter lyenge on the bedde.

* And he departed agayne from the coastes of Tyre and Sidon, and came vnto the see of Galile theozow & myddes of & coa-stes of the ten cryties. * And they brought vnto hym one that was deaffe and had an impediment in hys speche, and they prayed hym to put hys hande vpon him. And whē he had taken hym asyde from the people, he put his fingers into hys eares, and dyd spyt, & touched hys tonge, and looked vp to heauen, and syghed, and sayd vnto hym: Ephata, that is to saye be opened. And strayght waye hys eares were opened, and the stryng of hys tonge was lousyd, and he spake playne.
* And he comaunded them, that they shulde tell no man. But the more he forbad them, somuche the more a great deale they published, sayenge: he hath done al thynges wel, he hath made both & deaffe to heare, and the dumme to speake. K

C The viii. Chapter.

The myracle of the seuen loues. The Pharisees aske a signe. The leuen of the Pharisees. The blynde receaueth hys syght.

In those dayes * whē ther was a very great company, and had nothyng to eate. Iesus called hys disciples to him and sayd vnto them: I haue compassion on the people, because they haue now ben with me the dayes, and haue nothyng to eate: & if I sende the awaye fastyng to theyr owne houses, they shall saynt by the waye. * For the myght of them came from farre. And his disciples answered hym: where shulde a man haue bread here in the wyldernes to satisfye these? And he asked them: howe many loues haue ye? They sayd: seuen. And he comaun-ded the people to syt downe on the grounde.
And he toke the seuen loues, and whē he had gouen thankes, he brake, and gaue to his disciples, to set befoze them. And they dyd sette them befoze the people. And they had a fewe small fyshes. And when he had blessed, he comaunded them also to be set befoze them.
And they dyd eate, and were suffyled. And they toke vp of the broken meate that was left seuen baskettes full. And they that dyd eate: were aboute foure thousande. And he sent them awaye. K

And anon he entred into a shyp with his disciples, and came into the parties of Dal-manutha. * And the Pharisees came forth, and beganne to dispute wpth hym, sekynge of hym a signe from heauen, tēptyng hym And when he had syghed in hys spete, he sayeth: why doth this generaciō seke a signe Merely I saye vnto pou, there shal no signe be geuen vnto thys generacion. And he lefte them, and went into the shyp agayne, and departed ouer the water.

And they had forgotten to take bread w them, nether had they in the shyp with them more then on loofe. And he charged them, sayeng: * Take hede, beware of the leuē of the Pharisees, and of the leuen of herode.
And they reasoned amonge them selues say-enge: We haue no bread. And Iesus knewe it, & sayeth vnto them: why take ye thought because ye haue no breade? perceaue ye not yet nether vnderstāde: haue ye pour hert yet blynded: haue ye eyes, and se not: and haue ye eares, and heare not: Do ye not also remē-ber: * Whē I brake fyue loues amōge fyue thousande men, how many baskettes full of broke meat toke ye vp? They say vnto him, twelue. * Whē I brake seuen amōge foure thousande, howe many baskettes of the leauynge of the broke meat toke ye vp? They sayd: seue. And he sayd vnto them: how happeneth it that ye do not vnderstande?

* And he came to Bethsappda, and they brought a blynde man vnto hym, & desyred hym to touche hym. And he caught & blynde by the hande, and led hym out of the towne: and when he had spyt in hys eyes, & put hys handes vpon hym, he asked hym if he sawe ought. And he looked vp, & said: I se the men: for I perceaue the walke as they were trees.
After that, he put hys handes agayne vpon hys eyes, & made hym se. And he was restored, and sawe euery man clearly. And he sent hym home to hys house, sayenge: nether go into & towne, nor tel it to any in & towne. K

* And Iesus went out, & his disciples into the townes that longe to the crytie called, Celarea & Philippi. And by the way he asked hys disciples, sayeng vnto the: whom do me saye & I am? And they answered: some saye, that thou art John Baptist, & some saye, he lias. Agayne, some saye, that thou arte one of the nombze of the Prophetes. And he said vnto them: but whom saye ye that I am? Peter answereth & sayeth vnto hym: * thou art very Christ. And he charged the, & they shuld tel no mā of him. And he began to teach the how that the sonne of mā must suffer many thynges, and be reprobued of the elders, & of the hye prestes, and scrybes, and be kylld, & after thre dayes aryse agayne. And he spake that sayenge openly. And Peter toke hym Ec ii asyde

* mat. xvi. a Luce. ix. b
John. vi. b

* mat. xvi. b Luce. xii. a

* mat. xii. g

* mat. xv. b

* mat. xvi. c
Luce. ix. c

* mat. xvi. c
Luce. ix. c
John. vi. g

* mat. xvi. c
Luce. ix. c
John. ix. c

The Gospell

aspde, and began to chpde hym. But he turned about, and loked on his disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying: So after me Satan. For thou sauerest not the thynges that be of God, but the thynges that be of men.

* And when he had called the people vnto hym wth hys disciples also, he sayde vnto them. Whosoever wyl folowe me, let hym forsake hym selfe, & take vp hys crosse, and folow me. For whosoever wyl saue his lyfe, shal lose it. But whosoever shal lose his lyfe for my sake & the gospels, the same shal saue it. For what shal it profyt a mā, yf he winne all the worlde, and loose hys owne soule: or what shal a man gyue to redeme hys soule wth al agayne? Whosoever therfore shal be ashamed of me and of my wordes, in this aduoutrous and synfull generacion: of hym also shal the sonne of man be ashamed, whē he cometh in the gloire of hys father with the holy angels.

The ix. Chapter.

The transfiguration. The iunatpke is healed. The disputacion who shulde be greatest. Offences are to be dyden.

And he sayd vnto them: Verely, I say vnto you: * Ther be some amonge the that stande here, whych shal not tast of death, tyll they haue sene the kyngdome of God come wth power.

* And after syxe dayes Iesus taketh Peter and James, and John, and leadeth them vp into an hye mountayne out of the waye alone: and he was transfigured before them. And hys rayment dyd shyne, & became very whyte, euen as snowe: so whyt as no fuller can make vpon the earth. And there appeared vnto the helias wth Moyses. And they talked wth Iesu. And Peter answered and sayth to Iesu: Master, here is good beyng for vs: let vs make also iii. tabernacles, one for the, and one for Moyses, and one for helias. For he wylt not what he sayd: for they were afraied. And there was a cloude that shadowed them. And a voyce came out of the cloude, saying: * This is my beloued sonne: heare hym. And sodenly when they had looked rounde aboute, they sawe no man moze then Iesus only wth them.

* And as they came downe fro the hyl, he charged them, y^t they shulde tel no man those thynges that they had sene, tyll the sonne of man were rysen fro death agayne. And they kepte that sayinge wth them, & demaunded one of another, what the rysyng from death agayne shulde meane. And they asked hym, sayinge: why then saye the scribes, that helias must fyrst come? he answered and sayd vnto them: * Helias verely when he cometh fyrst, restoreth all thynges. And the sonne of mā (as it is wyrtten of hym) shal suffre many thynges, & be let at nought. But I saye vnto you, that helias is come, & they haue done vnto hym whatsoeuer they wolde, as it was wyrtten of hym.

And whē he came to hys disciples, he saw much people about them, & the scribes disputyng wth the. And straght waye al the people (when they behelde hym) were amased, & ran to hym, & saluted hym. And he asked the scribes: what dispute ye amonge the? * And one of the company answered, and said. Master, I haue brought vnto y^e my sone, whych hath a dōme spere. And whensoever he taketh him, he teareth him, and he someth, and gnaweth with his teeth, and pyneth a waye. And I spake to thy disciples that they shuld cast hym out, and they coulde not.

He answered hym, & sayeth: O fapbles nation, how lōge shal I be wth you: how lōge shall I suffer you? Wrynge hym vnto me. And they brought hⁱ vnto hym. And asone as the spere sawe hym, he tare him. And he fel downe on y^e ground, wallowing & coming. And he asketh his father: how lōge is it ago sene this happened hym? And he sayde: of a chyld: & oft tymes it hath cast hym into the fyre, & into the water, to destrope hym. But yf thou cast do any thyng, haue mercy on vs and helpe vs. Iesus sayd vnto hym: yf thou couldest beleue * all thynges are possible to hym that beleueth. And straght waye the father of the chyld cryed wth teares sayinge: Lorde, I beleue, helpe thou myne vnbelefe.

When Iesus sawe y^t the people came runnyng together vnto him, he rebuked y^e foule spere, saying vnto him: Thou dōme & deffe spere, I charge the come out of hym, and entre nomoze into hym. And y^e spere (when he had cryed, & rent hym fore) came out of hym and he was as one that had ben deade, in so much that many sayd, he is dead. But Iesus caught his hāde, & lyft him vp: and he rose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked hym secretly: why coulde not we cast hym out? And he sayd vnto the: this kynde can come forth by nothyng but, by prayer and fastyng. *

* And they departed thence, & toke their tozney thozow Galile, and he wold not, that any man shulde knowe it. For he taught his disciples, and sayd vnto them: * the sonne of man shal be deliuered into the handes of mē, and they shall kyll hym: and after that he is kylled, he shall aryse agayne the thyrde day. But they wylt not what he sayde, and were afraied to aske him. And he came to Capernaū. And when he was come into the house, he asked them: what was it y^e ye disputed amonge your selues by y^e way? And they belde they: peace: for by y^e way they had reasoned amonge them selues who shuld be the cheffest. And when he was set downe, he called the twelve to hym, and said vnto the: yf any mā desyre

* mat. xvi. d.
and. r. b Luk. ix. c
and. xiii. f

* mat. r. c Luk. xii. b

* mat. xvi. d.
Luk. ix. c

* mat. xvi. d.
Luk. ix. c

* mat. xiii. d
and. xvi. b Luk. ix. c. fr
Mar. i. b.
Luk. xii. a

* mat. xvi. d
mar. i. b

* mala. xiii. b

* Luk. xiii. a desyre to be fyrst, the same shal be last of al, and seruant to all. * And he toke a chyld, & set hym in the myddes of them, and when he had taken hym in hys armes, he sayde vnto them: whosoever receaueth any such a chyld in my name, receaueth me. And whosoever receaueth me, receaueth not me, but hym that sent me. I

John answered hym, saying: * Master we saw one cast out deuels in thy name, and he foloweth not vs: and we forbad hym, because he foloweth vs not. But Iesus sayde: forbyd hym not. For * ther is no man which (yf he do a myracle in my name) can lyghtly speake euell of me. For he y is not against vs, is on oure parte. * Whosoever shall in my name geue you a cup of water to drynke because ye belonge to Christ, verely I saye vnto you: he shall not loofe hys rewarde.

* And whosoever shall offende one of these lytel ones, y beleue in me, it were better for hym, yf a myllstone were hanged about hys necke, and he were cast into the see. * Wherfore yf thy hande hynder the, cut it of. It is better for the, to enter into lyfe maymed, the (haupnge two handes) to go into hell, into the place that neuer shalbe quenched, where * their wyome dyeth not, and the fyre goeth not out. And yf thy fote be a hynderaunce vnto the, cut it of. It is better for the to go halte into lyfe, then (haupnge two fete) to be caste into hell, into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched: where they wyome dyeth not, and the fyre goeth not out. * And yf thyne eye hynder the, plucke it out. It is better for the to go into y kyngdome of God wpyth one eye, then (haupnge two eyes) to be cast into hel fyre: where they wyome dyeth not, and the fyre goeth not out. I

Euery mā shalbe salted with fyre. * And euery sacrifice shalbe seasoned wpyth salt. Salt is good. But yf the salt be vnfauey, what shall ye season therwpyth: haue salte in your selues: and haue peace amonge your selues: one wpyth another.

¶ The .x. Chapter: ¶

¶ Coldeuocement. The xijth man questioneth wpyth Christ. Of the sonnes of yehudee. Bartymeus y blynde man.

And when he rose from thence, he went into the coastes of Iurye throughe the region that is beyonde Iordane: And the people resorted vnto hym as fellethe, and as he was wont, he taught the agayne. And the Pharises came, and asked hym. Is it lawful for a man to put away hys wyfe: to proue hym. And he answered and sayd vnto them: * What dyd Moyses byd you do? & they sayd: Moyses suffered to wyrt a testimoiall of deuocement, and to put her a waye. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: For the hardnes of your herte ye wrote thys precept vnto you. But at the fyrst creation, * God made them man and woman. Therfore: shal a man leaue hys father & mother, and byde by hys wyfe, * and they twayne shalbe one fleshe. So then are they now not twayne, but one fleshe. Therfore, what god hath coupled together let not man separate. I

And in the house hys disciples asked him agayne of the same matter. And he sayeth vnto them. * Whosoever putteth away hys wyfe, & marieth another, breaketh wedloke to her warde. And yf a woman forsake her husbande, and be maryed to another, she commyteth aduoutre. I * And they broughte chyldren to hym, that he shulde touch them. And hys disciples rebuked those y broughte them. But when Iesus sawe it, he was displeased and sayd vnto them: Suffer the chyldren to come vnto me, forbyd them not. For of such is the kyngdome of God. Verely I saye vnto you, whosoever doth not receaue y kyngdome of God: as a chyld, he shal not entre therein. And whē he had takē the by in hys armes, he put hys handes vpon them, & blessed them. I

* And when he was gone forth into the waye, ther came one rynnge and kneled to him, & asked him: * good Master, what shal I do, that I maye enheret eternall lyfe? Iesus sayd vnto hym: why callest thou me good? There is no mā good but one, which is god. Thou knowest the commaundementes: bryake not matrimony: kyl not: steale not: beare no false wytnes: defraude no man: honoure thy father and mother. He answered and sayde vnto hym: Master, all these I haue obserued from my yowth. Iesus behelde hym, and fauoured hym, and sayd vnto him: one thyngge thou lackest. * So thy waye: Sel that thou hast, and geue to the poore, and yf thou hast treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me. I And take vpon my crosse vpon thy shulders. But he was discōforted because of that sayenge, and went a way mournyng for he had great possessions.

And whē Iesus had looked roude aboute, he sayd vnto hys disciples. * howe vneasye shal they that haue money, entre into the kyngdome of God. And the dyscyples were astonnyed at his wordes. But Iesus answered agayne, and sayeth vnto them: chyldre howe harde is it for them, that trust in money, to entre into y kyngdome of God. It is easyer for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for the ryche to entre into the kyngdome of God. And they were astonnyed out of measure, sayeng bet wene the selues: who then can be saued? Iesus looked vpon them, & sayde: wpyth men it is vnpōssible, but not wpyth God: for wpyth God all thynges are pōssible.

And Peter begane to saye vnto hym: Lo

Ec iii we

* Gene. i. d
* 1. Cor. vi. d
* Mat. xix. a
* Ephr. b. g
* Gen. ii. d

* Mat. b. c
* and. xix. a
* Luke. xvi. b.

* Mat. xix. b
* Luke. xvi. b.

* Mat. xvi. a
* Luke. xvi. a

* Mat. xix. b
* Luke. xvi. b.

* Mat. xix. b
* Luke. xvi. b.

* Mat. xix. c
* Luke. xvi. c

* 1. Cor. vi. d.

The Gospell

* Mat. xix. c
Luke. xlii. f.

* we haue forsaken all, & haue folowed the. Jesus answered, & sayde: Verely I say vnto you, ther is no mā that hath forsaken house, or brethre, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wyfe, or chyldren, or landes for my sake and the Gospels, but he shall receaue an hundred folde nowe in this lyfe, houses and brethre, and sisters, and mothers, and chyldren, and landes wpth persecucions: & in the world to come, eternall lyfe. * But many y are fyrst, shall be last: & y last, fyrst. And they were in y waye goynge vp to Ierusalem. And Jesus went befoze them, and they were amased, & folowed, and were afrayde.

* Mat. xix. b.
Luke. xlii. f.

* Mat. xxi. c.
Luke. xxi. c.
Luke. xxi. f.
Luke. xlii. e.

And Jesus toke the twelue agayne, and beganne to tell the what thynges shuld hapen vnto him. * Beholde, we go vp to Ierusalem, & the sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the hye Priestes and vnto the Scribes: & they shall condemne hym to death, and shall deliuer hym to the gentyls, and they shall mocke hym, and scourge hym, spyt vpon hym and kyl him. And the thyrde daye he shall ryle agayne.

* Mat. xx. c.

* And James & John the sones of zebede came vnto hym, sayenge: After: we wold that thou shuldest do for vs whatsoeuer we desyre. he sayd vnto them: what wolde ye y I shulde do for you? They sayde vnto hym: graunt vnto vs, that we maye sytte, one on thy ryghte hande, and the other on thy left hande, in thy glozpe. But Jesus sayd vnto them: Ye wote not what ye aske: Can ye drynke of the cuppe, that I drynke of: and be baptyfied wpth the baptyme, that I am baptyfied wpth? And they sayd vnto hym: that we can. Jesus sayde vnto them: ye shall indeede drynke of the cup that I drynke of: and wpth y baptyme that I am baptyfied wpth all, shall ye be baptyfied in: but to syt on my ryght hande, & on my left hande, is not myne to geue, but it shall happen vnto them, for whom it is prepared.

* Mat. xx. b.

* Mat. xx. b.
Luke. xxi. c.

* And when the ten hearde it, they began to dysdayne at James and John. But Jesus when he had called them to hym, sayde vnto them: ye knowe, that * they whych are sene to beare rule amonge the people, raygne as lordes ouer them. And they that be great amonge them, exerceple auctorite vpon them. Reuerthelesse, so that it not be amonge you: but whosoener of you wylbe great amonge you, shall be your mynister. And whosoener wylbe chiefe, shall be seruaunt of al. For the sonne of man also came not to be mynistered vnto: but to mynister, & to geue his lyfe for the redemption of many.

* Mat. xx. b.

* Mat. xx. b.
Luke. xxi. g.

And they cam to hierico: * And as he wēt out of y cytie of hierico wpth his disciples, and a great nombze of people: blynde Bartymeus the sonne of Tymeus, late by y hye wayes syde beggynge. And when he hearde that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to crye, and saye: Jesus, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me. And many rebuked hym, that he shulde holde his peace. But he cryed the more a great deale: thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Jesus stode styll, and commaunded hym to be called: And they called y blynde, sayenge vnto hym: Be of good comfozte: ryle. he calleth the. And he threwe awaye his cloke, and rose, and came to Jesus. And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto hym: what wylte thou that I do vnto the? The blynde sayde vnto hym: Master, that I myght se. Jesus sayde vnto hym: go thy waye, thy fapth hath saued the. And immediatly he receaued his syght, & folowed Jesus in the waye.

The. xi. Chapter.

Christ ryseth to Ierusalem. The figge trees blypeth vp. The hyers & sellers are cast out of the temple. The Pharises question wpth Christ.

And when they came nye to Ierusalem vnto Bethpaze and Bethany, belydes mount Oliuete, he sedeth forth two of his disciples, & sayeth vnto them: Go poure waye into the towne, that is ouer agaynst you. And as sone as ye be entred into it: ye shall fynde a colte bounde, wheron neuer mā sate: lose hym, and brynge hym hether. And yf any man saye vnto you: why do ye so? Saye ye, that the Lorde hath neede of him: and streyght waye he wyl sende him hither. And they wente they waye, and founde the colte tyed by the doze wthout in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed hym. And dyuers of the that stode there, sayd vnto them: * What do ye loofynge the colte? And they sayd vnto them, euen as Jesus had commaunded. And they let them go. And they brought the colte to Jesus & caste they garments on hym: and he sate vpon hym. And many spede they garments in the waye. Other cut downe braiches of the trees, and strawed them in the waye. And they that wente befoze & they that folowed cryed, sayenge: hosanna: * blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. Blessed be the kingdome, that cometh in the name of hym that is Lorde of oure father Dauid: hosanna in the hyest.

* John.

B

* John.

And the Lorde entred into Ierusalem and into the tple. And when he had looked rounde about vpon all thynges, and nowe the euentide was come, he wente out vnto Bethany wpth the twelue. * And on the morowe whē they were come out from Bethany, he hongred. And when he had spied a figge tree a farre of, hauinge leaues, he came to le, yf he myghte fynde any thyng to heron.

* Mat.

And whan he came to it, he founde nothyng but leaues:

but leaues: for the tyme of fygges was not yet. And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto the fygge tre: neuer man eate fruit of the here after whyle the worlde standeth. And hys disciples hearde it.

And they came to Ierusalem. And Iesus went into the temple, & begane to cast out them that solde and bought in the temple, & overthrowe the tables of the money chaungers, & the stoles of them that solde dones: and wolde not suffer, that any man shuld carrye a vessel thowow the temple. And he taught sayenge vnto them: * is it not wyrtten: my house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nations: But ye haue made it a denne of thenes.

And the Scribes and hye prestes hearde it, and sought howe to destroye hym. * For they feared hym, because all the people marvelled at hys doctryne. And when euen was come, Iesus wente out of the cytie. * And in the mornynge as they passed by, they sawe the fygge tre dyed vpp by the rotes. And Peter remembered, and sayde vnto him: master, behold, the fygge tre whych thou cursedst, is withered awaye. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: haue confidence in God.

* Verely I saye vnto you, that whosoener shall saye vnto this mountayne: remoue, & call thy selfe into the see, and shall not doute in hys herte, but shall beleue that those thynges which he sayth shal come to passe, what soeuer he sayeth he shall haue. Therefore I saye vnto you, * what thynges so euer ye desire whyle ye praye, beleue ye receaue them, and ye shall haue them. And when ye stande to praye, * forgyue, yf ye haue ought agaynst any man, that poure father also whych is in heauen, maye forgyue you poure trespasses.

And they came agayne to Ierusalem. * And as he walked in the temple, ther came to him the hye prestes, & the Scribes, & the elders, and saye vnto hym: by what auctorite doest thou these thynges: and who gaue the thes auctorite, to do these thynges: Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them: I wyll also aske of you a certayne thyng and answer ye me, & I wyll tell you by what auctorite I do these thynges. The baptisme of Ihs, whether was it fro heauē or of me: Answer me. And they thought in the selues, saynge: yf we saye, fro heauē: he wyll saye why then dyd ye not beleue him: but yf they had said, of me, they feared the people. For all men couised John, yf he was a verie prophete. And they answered & said vnto Iesu: we ca not tel. And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto the: nether wyll I tell you by what auctorite I do these thynges. &

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

¶ The vineyard is let out. Sent to Cesar that belongeth to Cesar. Of the Saduces, of the doctors of lawe: howe they muste be eschued: the offsprynge of the good wyddowe.

And he beganne to speake vnto them by parables. A certayne man platted * a vineyard, and compassed it aboute wth an hedge, and ordeyned a winepresse, and buylt a towre, and let it out to hye vnto husbandmen, and went into a straunge countrey. And whē the tyme was come, he sent to the husbandmen a seruaunte, that he myght receyue of the husbandmen of the frute of the vineyard. And they caught hym, and bet hym, and sent hym awaye agayne emptye. And mozeouer, he sent vnto the an other seruaunt, and at hym they cast stones, and brake his heed, & sent hym awaye agayne, al to reupled. And agayne, he sent an other, and him they kyllled: and many other, beatynge some, and kyllynge some.

And so when he had yet but one beloued sonne, he sent hym also at the last vnto them, saynge: they wyll feare my sonne. * But the husbandmen layd amongst the selues: this is the heyre: come * let vs kyll him, & the inheritance shalbe ours. And they took hym and kyllled him, and cast him out of the vineyard. What shal therfore the lord of the vineyarde do: he shal come, and destroye the husbandmen and let out the vineyarde vnto other. Haue ye not red this scripture: * The stone which the buylders dyd refuse, is become the chiefe stone of the corner: this is the Lordes doynge, & it is marvelous in our eyes. They wēt about also to take hym, & feared the people. For they knewe, yf he had spoken the parable agaynst the. And they left hym and went thei way.

* And they sent vnto hym certayne of the Pharises & Herodeses seruautes, to take him in his wordes. And as sone as they were com they sayd vnto him: Master, we knowe that thou arte true, & carest for no mā: for thou couldest not shew outwarde appareance of men, but teachest the waye of God truly: Is it lawfull to paye tribute to Cesar, or not: Dughe we to gyue, or ought we not to gyue: But he vnderstode thei symulacrys, and sayd vnto the: Why tempt ye me: Gyue me a peny, yf I maye le it. And they brought it: And he sayth vnto the: Whose is this ymage, & superscription: And they sayd vnto hym: Cessars. And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto the: * Gyue to Cesar the thynges that belonge to Cesar: and to God, the thynges whiche pertyne to God. And they marvelled at hym.

¶ There came also vnto hym the Saduces, * which saye yf there is no resurrection. And they asked hym, saynge: Master: * Moles wrote vnto vs, if any mans brother dye, and leaue hys wyfe behynde hym, and leaue no chyldren: that his brother shoulde take hys wyfe, and rayse vp seed vnto his brother.

¶ There were seuen brethren, and the fyrst took a wyfe: and when he dyed, left no seede ¶ Ec. iii. behynde

* mat. xxi. d
Luce. xxi. d E. sap. b. a
John. ix. c
Iere. xli. c

* Mat. xxi. d
* ge. xxi. d Luce. xxi. c

* p. a. c. b. i. c
* Mat. xxi. d Actes. iiii. d

* mat. xxi. d
Luce. xxi. b

* rom. xii. d
mat. xxi. c
and. xxi. c

* Mat. xxi. d
Actes. xxi. d
Luce. xxi. c
I. deu. xxi. b.

The Gospell

behynde hym. And the seconde toke hy; and dyed nether left he any seed. And the thyrde lyke wyse. And seuen had her, & left no seed behynde the. Last of all the wyse dyed also. In the resurrection therfore when they shal ryse agayne: whose wyse shall she be of the? For seue had her to wyse. And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them: Do ye not therfore erre because ye vnderstande not the scriptures, nether the power of God: For whē they shal ryse agayne fro deeth, they nether marry, nor are marryed: but are as the angels, whych are in heauē. As touching the deed, & theyr ryle agayn: haue ye not redde in þe booke of Moses, how in the bulshe, God spake vnto hym, sayinge: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac, & the God of Jacob: he is no God of deed, but þe God of liuinge. Ye are therfore greatly deceaued.

* And whā ther came one of the Scrybes, and had hearde them disputynge to gether (and perceaued that he had answered them well) he asked hym: whych is the fyrst of all the commaundementes? Iesus answered hym, the fyrst of all the commaundementes is: heare O Israel: & The Lord oure God, is Lord onely: And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God wyth all thy hert, and wyth all thy soule, and with all thy mynde, and wyth all thy strenght. This is the fyrste commaundement. And the seconde is lyke vnto this: & Thou shalt loue thy neyghbour as thy self. Ther is none other commaundement greater then these.

And the Scribe sayde vnto him: well master, thou hast sayd the truthe, for ther is one God, & ther is none but he. And to loue hym wyth all the herte, and wyth all the mynde, & wyth all the soule, & wyth all the strenght and to loue a mans neyghbour as hym selfe is a greater thyng, then all burnt offerynges and sacrificyes. And when Iesus sawe þe he answered discretely, he sayde vnto hym: Thou art not farre from the kyngdome of God. And no man after that, durst aske him any questyon.

And Iesus answered & sayde, teachinge in the tēple: howe saye þe Scrybes & Chyrlis þe sonne of Dauid: for Dauid hym selfe inspired wþ þe holy goost, sayd: * The Lord sayde to my Lord, syt on my ryght hande tyll I make thyne enemyes thy fote stole. Dauid hi selfe calleth hym Lord: & how is he the bys sonne? And moche people heard him gladly.

And he sayde vnto them in his doctrine: be ware of þe Scribes, which loue to go in lōge clothynge: & loue salutaciōs in the market places, and the chiefe seates in the congregacyōs, and the vppermost roumes at feastes: whych deuoure wydowes houses, & vnder a ppretence, make longe prayers. These shall receaue greater dampnacyon.

* And whan Iesus sat ouer agaynst the treasury, he behelde, * howe the people put money into the treasury. And many þe were ryche, cast in moch. And ther cam a certayne pooze wydowe, and she threwe in two mites, whych make a farthinge. And he called vnto him his discyples and sayeth vnto the. Verely I saye vnto you, that this pooze wydowe hath cast moore in, then all they whych haue cast into the treasury. For they all dyd cast in of their superfluyte: but she of her pouerte, dyd cast in all that she had, euen all her lyuynge.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter. ¶

¶ The ende of the wyrd. The daye and the houre is unknowen.

¶ And as he went out of the temple, * one of his discyples sayde vnto hym: Master, se what stones, and what buildynges are here. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto hym: Seest thou these great buildynges? There shal not be left one stone vpon another, that shal not be throwen downe. And as he sat on mounte Olyuete, ouer agaynst the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrey, asked hym secretly: tell vs, when shal these thynges be? And what is the signe when all these thynges shal be fulfilled? And Iesus answered the, and began to saye: * take hede, lest any man deceaue you. For many shall come in my name sayinge: I am Chyrlis, and shall deceaue many.

When ye shal heare of warres, and tydinges of warres, be ye not troubled. For such thynges must nedes be. But the ende is not yet. For they shal nacyd aryle agaynst nacyon, and kyngdome agaynst kyngdome. And ther shal be erth quakes in al quarters and famyshment shal ther be, and troubles. These are þe begynnynge of sorowes. * But take ye hede to your selues. & For they shal bynge you vnto the counsels, and into þe synagoges, and ye shal be beaten, per, and shal be brought before rulers & kynges for my sake, for a testimoniall vnto the. * And the Gospell must fyrste be publyshed among all nacpons.

* But whē they leade you & present you, take ye no thought, nether ymagina forghade what ye shal saye: but whatsoeuer is geuen you in the same houre, that speake. For it is not ye þe speake, but the holy goost. The brother shal deliuer vp the brother to deeth, and the father þe sonne: and the chydren shal ryle agaynst the: fathers & mothers, and shal put them to deeth. And ye shal be hated of all men for my names sake. But whoso endureth vnto þe end, the same shal be safe.

* Wo: ouer

1 Cro. iii. b.
Mat. xii. c.
Luce. x. f.

* Mat. xxv. b.

1 Deu. vi. a.
mat. xii. b.

* Luc. xii. b.
mat. xii. b.
roma. xiii. c.
Gala. v. c.
Iaco. ii. b.
mat. v. g.

* Mat. xii. b.
Iaco. v. a.

* Mat. xii. a.
Luce. x. g.

The xxiij. Chapter.

¶ Chap. Magdalen anointed Christ. The easter labe is eaten. Christ is taken. Peter denieth him. wch many other thynges that were demaunded of Christ.

After two dayes was Easter, and the dayes of swete bzyede. And hye prestes & scribes sought, howe they myght take hym by crafte, & put hym to deeth. But they sayde: not in the feast daye, lest any busynes arys amonge the people. And whan he was at Bethania, in the house of Symon the leper, euen as he sate at meate, ther cam a woman hauping an alabastrer boxe of opyntment, called Narde, that was pure & costly: and she broke the boxe, & powred it on his heed. And ther were some, that were not content with in the selues, & sayde: what neded this waste of opyntment? for it myght haue bene solde for more then thre hundred pens, & haue bene geuen vnto the poore. And they grudged a-gaynst her.

And Iesus sayde: let her alone, why trouble ye her? she hath done a good worke on me. For ye haue poore wch you all wayes: & whan soeuer ye will, ye maye do them good: but me haue ye not alwayes. She hath don p she could: she came a fowre hande, to anoint my body to burying. Verely I saye vnto you: wheresoeuer thys Gospell shalbe pre-ched thowow out the whole worlde: this also that she hath done, shalbe rehearsed in remembrance of her.

And Judas Iscarioth, one of the twelue went awaye vnto hye prestes, to betraye hym vnto them. Whan they herde that, they were glad, and promysed that they wolde geue hym money. And he sought, howe he myght conueniently betraye hym.

And the fyrste daye of swete bzyede (wher they offered Pasche) his disciples sayd vnto him: where wylt thou go & prepare, that thou mayest eat the Pasche? And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, & sayeth vnto the: Go ye into the cite, & ther shal mete you a man bearing a pitcher of water, folow hym. And whither soeuer he goeth in, saye ye to the good man of the house, & master sayeth: where is the greest chāber, where I shal cate pasche wth my disciples? And he wyl shewe you a greate parlour, paved and prepared: there make ready for vs. And his disciples went forth, and came into the cite, and founde as he had sayde vnto them: and they made ready the Pasche.

And whan it was now euen tyme he came with the. xij. And as they sate at bord & dyd eate Iesus sayde: Verely I saye vnto you: one of you (that eateth with me) shal betraye me. And they began to be sore, & to saye to him one by one: is it I? And another sayde:

Ec v is it

Moreover, when ye se the abhominacion of desolacion (wherof is spoken by daniel the prophet) stand where it ought not: let him that is with you, flye vnder stand. Then let the that be in Ieruse, flye to the mountaynes. And let him that is on the house toppe, not go downe into the house, nether entre therin, to fetch eny thyng out of his house. And let hym that is in the fild, not turne backe agayne vnto the thynges which he left behynd him, for to take his clothes with hym. Also shall he then to them that are with chylde, and to them that sue suck in those dayes. But praye ye that your flyght be not in the wynter. For ther shalbe in those dayes such tribulacion, as was not from the begynnyng of creatures (which God created) vnto this tyme, nether shalbe. And except that the Lord shuld shortē those dayes no fleshe shulde be saued. But for the electes sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

And then, yf eny man saye to you, lo here is Christ: lo he is there, beleue not. For falle Christes & false prophetes shall ryle, & shall shewe myracles & wonderes, to deceaue yf it were possible, euen the electe. But take ye hede: behold, I haue shewed you all thin-ges before.

Moreover, in those dayes, after that tri-bulacion, the sonne shall were darke, and the moone shall not geue her light, & the starres of heauen shall fall: & the powers which are in heauen, shall moue. And then shall they se the sonne of man commynge in the cloudes, wch grete power & glory. And then shall he sende his angels, & shal gather together his electe fro the fowre wyndes, fro the ende of the erthe, to the vtremost parte of heauen.

¶ Learne a similitude of the figge tree.
Whan his bzyanche is yet tender, and hath brought forth leaues, ye knowe the summer is nere. So ye in like maner: whan ye se these thynges come to passe: vnderstand, that he is nere euen at the doores. Verely I saye vnto you, that this generacio shal not passe, tyll these thynges be don. Heauen and erth shal passe, but my wordes shall not passe. But of that daye & tyme knoweth no man: no not the angels whych are in heauen: nether the sonne himselfe: saue the father only.

¶ Take hede, watche & praye, for ye know not when the tyme is. As a man whych is gone into a straunge contrey, and hath left his house, and geuen his substaunce to his ser-uautes, and to euery man his worke, and commaunded the porter to wathe. Wathe ye therfore, for ye know not wher the master of the house wyl come, at euen, or at mydnyght, whether at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning: lest yf he come sodenly, he finde you slepyng. And that I saye vnto you, I saye vnto all wathe.

The Gospell

is it I: He answered & sayd vnto them: It is one of the. xii. euen he that dyppeth wyth me in the platter. The sonne of mā truly goeth as it is wrytten of him: but woe to that man by whom the sone of mā is betrayed. Good were it for that man, yf he had neuer bene borne.

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. b
L. Coz. xli. e

* And as they dyd eate, Iesus toke bread: and whan he had geuen thanks he brake it and gaue to the and sayde: Take, eate, this is my body. And he toke the cup, & when he had geuen thanks he toke it to them & they all dranke of it, and he sayd vnto the: This is my bloude of the newe Testamēt, whych is shed for many. Clerely I saye vnto you: I wyll dyyncke nomore of the frute of the vyne: vntyll that daye, that I dricke it new in the kyngdome of God. * And when they had sayde grace: they went out to mount Oliuete.

* mat. xxi. c.

And Iesus sayeth vnto the: All ye shalbe offended because of me this nyght. For it is wrytten: * I wyll smyte the shepheard, & the shepe shalbe scattered: But after that I am rylen agayne, I wyll go into Galile before you. Peter sayde vnto hym: And though all men be offended, yet wyll not I. And Iesus sayeth vnto him: Clerely I say vnto y, that this daye, enē, in this night before the cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt denye me thre tymes. But he spake more vehemently: no, yf I shulde dye with the, I wyll not denye the.

* iacha. xlii. c.
mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. b
Iohn. xii. d

D

Lpkewys also sayde they all. * And they came into a place whych was named Gethsemani. And he sayeth to his disciples: Syp ye here, whyle I go asyde, and praye. And he taketh wyth him Peter & James & John, & began to waire abashed, & to be in an agony, & sayeth vnto them: * My soule is heuy, enē vnto the deeth, tarye here and watche. And he went forth a lytle & fell downe flat on the grounde, & prayed: that yf it were possible, y shoure myght passe fro hym. And he sayde: * Abba father, all thynges are possible vnto the, take awaye this cup from me. Neuerthelesse, not that I wil: but that thou wilt, be done.

* mat. xxi. b

* mat. xxi. b
Iohn. xii. d

* mat. xxi. b
Luce. xxi. b

E

And he cam & founde the slepyng, & sayeth to Peter: Simon, sleepest thou? Couldst not thou watche one houre? Watche ye, & praye, lest ye entre into temptation: the spyete trulye is readye, but the flesch is weake. * And agayne he wēt asyde, & prayed, and spake y same wordes: And he returned, & founde the a slepe agayn. For their eyes were heuy: neither wist they, what to answer him. And he came the thirde tyme & sayde vnto the: slepe dens forth, & take youre ease, it is ynough. The houre is come, beholde, the sonne of mā is betrayed into the hādes of synners. Ryse vp, let vs go. Lo, he that betrayeth me, is at hāde. * And immediatly whill he yet spake,

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e

cometh Judas (whych was one of y twelue) & with him a greate number of people with swordes and stauces from the hye prestes and Scrybes & elders. And he that betrayd him, had geue the a general toke, sayng: Whosoener I do kysse, that same is he: take him & lead him away warely. And as sone as he was come, he goeth streyght waye to him, & sayeth vnto him: Master, Master, & kysled him: And they layde they hādes on him, and toke him. And one of them y stode by, dyue out a swearde, & smote a seruant of the hye preast, and cut of his eare.

And Iesus answered & sayd vnto them: * ye be come out as vnto a thefe w swordes and w stauces, for to take me. I was dayly wyth you in the tēple, teachyng, & ye toke me not: but these thynges come to passe, y the scriptures shuld be fulfilled. * And they all forsoke hym, & ranne awaye. And there folowed him a certayne postge mā, clothed in lynne vpo y bare, & the pougēme caught him, & he left his linnen garment, & fled fro the naked. * And they led Iesus awaye to the hyest preast of al, & with him came al y hye preastes, and the elders, & the Scrybes. And Peter folowed hym a greate waye of (enē tyl he was come into the palace of the hye preast) and he sat with the seruantes, and warmed him selfe at the fyre.

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e
Iohn. xii. d

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e
Iohn. xii. d

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e

* And the hye preastes & all the councel sought for wytnes against Iesu, to put him to deeth, & found none: for many bare false wytnes against him, but they wytnesses agreed not together. And ther arose certayne, and brought false wytnes agaynst him, sayng: We herd him saye: * I wil destroye this temple that is made with handes, and wythin thre dayes I wyll builde another, made without handes. But yet they wytnesses agreed not together.

* mat. xxi. c.
Iohn. xii. d

* mat. xxi. c.

* mat. xxi. c.

* mat. xxi. c.

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e
Iohn. xii. d

* And the hye preast stode vp amongest the, and asked Iesus, sayng: answerest y nothyng: Howe is it y these beare wytnes against the? But he held his peace, & answered nothyng. Agayne y hyest preast asked him, & sayd vnto him: Art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed? And Iesus said: I am.

* And ye shal se the sonne of mā sprynginge on the ryght hāde of power, & commyng in y cloudes of heuē. Then y hye preast rēt his clothes, & said: what nede we eny further of wytnesses: Ye haue heard blasphemy, what thincke ye: and they all condemned hym to be worthy of deeth. And some begā to spyt at him, & to couer his face, & to beate him w fylles, & to saye vnto him: Areade: And the seruantes boffeted him on the face.

And as Peter was beneth in the palace ther cā one of the wenches of y hyest preast and * when she sawe Peter warminge hym selfe, she loketh on him, & sayth: wait not y also,

* mat. xxi. c.
Luce. xxi. e
Iohn. xii. d

also wth Iesus of Nazareth: And he denyed, sayinge: I knowe hym not, nether wote I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porche, and the cocke crewe. And a damsell (whan she sawe him) begane agayne to saye to them that stode by, this is one of the. And he denyed it agayne. And anon after, they that stode by, sayde agayne to Peter: surely thou art one of them, for thou art of Galile, & thy speache agreeth thereto. But he began to curse, & to sweare, sayinge: I knowe not the man of whom ye speake. And agayne the cocke crew, and Peter remembred the worde that Iesus sayd vnto him: before the cocke crowe twyse, thou shalt denie me thre tymes. And he beganne to wepe.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

Of the passion, death, and buriall of Chyſte.

And anon in the dawninge * the hye p^{re}stres helde a counsell wyth the eld^{er}s and the s^{cr}ybes, and the whole congregacyon, and bounde Iesus, and ledde hym awaye, & deliuered hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked hym: art thou the kynge of the Jewes? And he answered, & sayd vnto him: thou sayest it. And y^e hye p^{re}stres accused him of many thynges. So Pilate asked hi agayne sayinge: * Answerest thou nothing? Behold, how many thynges they lay vnto thy charge. Iesus yet answered nothing, so that Pilate marvelled.

At that feast Pilate dyd deliuer vnto the prisoner: whomsoever they wolde desyre. And ther was one that was named Barab^{as}, whych laye bound with them that made insurreccyon: he had commytted murder. And the people called vnto hym: and began to desyre hym, that he wolde do, accordyng as he had ever done vnto them. Pilate answered the sapenge: Will ye that I let loose vnto you the kynge of the Jewes? For he knewe, that the hye p^{re}stres had deliuered hym of enuy. But the hye p^{re}stres moued the people, that he shulde rather deliuer Barab^{as} vnto them.

Pilate answered agayne, and sayde vnto them: * What wyll ye then that I do vnto hym, who ye call the kynge of y^e Jewes? And they cryed agayne: crucifie hym: Pilate sayd vnto the, what euyl hath he done? And they cryed the moore feruentlye: Crucifie hym: And so Pilate wyllinge to content the people, * let those Barab^{as} vnto the & deliuered v^p Iesus (when he had scourged hym) to be crucified.

And the souldiers leed hym awaye into y^e common hall, and called together the whole multitude, & they clothed hym with purple, & they platted a crown of thornes, & crowned hym withall, & beganne to salute him: Hail ye kynge of the Jewes. And they smote hym, on the heed wth a rede and dyd spit vpon hym & bowed their knees, & worshipped hym.

And whē they had mocked hym, they toke the purple of hym, & put his owne clothes on him, & ledde hym out to crucifye hym. * And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (the father of Alexander and Rufus) whych came out of the feld, to beare his crosse. * And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha (whych is y^e of a man utter. C^oprete it: the place of deed mens sculles) and they gaue hym to drinke, wyne mingled with myre, but he receaued it not.

And when they had crucified hym: they parted hys garmentes, castinge lotes vpon them, what euery man shulde take. And it was aboute y^e thirde houre, & they crucified hym. And the tytle of his cause was wyrtre: The kynge of the Jewes. * And they crucified with him two theues, y^e one on the right hande, & the other on his lyfte. And the scripture was fulfilled whych sayeth: * he was counted amonge the wycked.

* And they that went by, rayled on hym: wagging their heedes, & sayinge: A wretche thou that destroyest y^e temple, and buyldest it in thre dayes: saue thy selfe, & come doune from the crosse. Lyphewyle also mocked hym the hye p^{re}stres amonge them selues with y^e s^{cr}ybes & sayde, he saued other men, hym selfe he cannot saue. Let Chyſt the kynge of Israell descende now fro the crosse, that we maye se, & beleue. And they that were crucified wyth him checked hym also.

* And whē y^e syxte houre was come, darknes arose ouer all the erth, vntyll the nyynth houre. And at the nyynth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, sayinge: Eloi, Eloi, lama sabathani: whych is (y^e of one interpret it) * my God, my God why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stode by, when they hearde that, sayd: behold, he calleth for helias. * And one ran, and fylled a sponge full of veneger, and put it on a rede, & gaue hym to drinke, sayinge: let him alone, let vs se whether helias wyll come and take hym downe.

But Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue v^p the goost. * And the vayle of y^e temple dyd rent in two peces, from the topp to y^e bottome. * And when y^e Centurion (whych stode before him) sawe, that he so cryed, and gaue v^p the goost, he sayde: truly this man was y^e sonne of God. * Ther were also wemen a good waye of, beholding hym: amonge whom was: Mary Magdalen, and Mary the mother of James the lytle: & of Ioses, & Mary Salome * (whych also when he was in Galile had folowed hym & ministered vnto hym) and many other wemen, whych came v^p with hym vnto Ierusalem.

And now when y^e euen was come (because it was

The Gospell

* Mat. rrv. b.
* Luke. rrv. g.
* John. rrv. g.

it was the daye of preparing that goeth before the Sabbath. * Joseph of p. cite of Aramathia a noble Coucellour which also looked for the kyngdome of God, came. & wote in boldely vnto Pilate, & begged of hym the body of Iesu. And Pilate merueled, that he was already dead, and called vnto hym the Centurion, and asked of him, whether he had bene any whyle dead. And whē he knewe the truth of the Centurio, he gaue the body to Joseph. And he bought a linnen clothe, & toke him downe, and wraped hym in the linnen cloth, and layd him in a sepulchre, that was hewen out of the rocke. And Mary Magdalen and Mary Ioses beheld where he was layde. ¶

¶ The. rvi. Chapter. ¶

¶ Christ is risen agayne, and aperteth to the Anoyntes to whom he cometh the preachinge of the Gospell.

Ad when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalen, & Mary Jacob, & Salome, bought sweete odoures, for they myght come, & anoynt him. * And early in the morninge the fyrst daye of the Sabbath they came vnto the sepulchre, when the Sonne was risen. And they sayd among them selues: who shal rolle vs awaye the stone from the doore of the sepulchre? And when they looked, they sawe how that the stone was rolled away, for it was a very greate one. And they wote into the sepulchre, & sawe a younge man sittynge on the ryght syde, clothed in a longe whyte garment, & they were afrayed. * And he sayeth vnto them, be not afrayed: ye seeke Iesus of Nazareth, whych was crucified. he is risen, he is not here. Beholde the place where they had put hi. But goo your waye, and tell his disciples, & Peter, that he goeth before you into Galile there shal ye see hi, as he sayd vnto you. ¶ * And they wote oute quickly, and fled from the sepulchre. For they trembled & were amased. Neither sayde they any thyng to any man, for they were afrayed. ¶

* Mat. rrv. b.
* Luke. rrv. a.
* John. rrv. a.

* Mat. rrv. b.
* Luke. rrv. a.

* Mat. rrv. b.
* Luke. rrv. a.

* Luk. rrv. b.

¶ When Iesus was risen early the fyrst daye after the Sabbath, he appeared fyrst to Mary Magdalen, out of who he had cast seven deupls. And she went, and tolde them they were with hym, as they mourned & wepte. And they, whan they herde that he was alive, and had appered vnto her, beleued it not. * After that, appeared he vnto two of them in a straunge fygure, as they walked, & went in to the country. And they went & tolde it to the remnaunt. And they beleued not these also. ¶

¶ Afterwarde he appeared vnto the cleue as they sate at meate: and cast in theyr teeth their vnbelefe, and hardnes of herte: because they beleued not them whych had sene that he was risen agayne fro the dead. And he sayd vnto the: * Goo ye into al the world and preache the gospell to all creatures, he that beleueth and is baptised, shalbe saved. But he that beleueth not, shalbe dampned.

And these tokens shal felowe them that beleue. * In my name they shal cast out deuyls, they shal speake wpth newe tonges, they shal dyspue awaye serpentes. And yet they dyspne any deadly thyng, it shal not hurte them. They shal laye their handes on the speke, & they shal recouer.

So then, when the Lord had spoken vnto them, he was receaued into heauen, and is on the ryght hande of God. And they went forth, and preached euery where: the Lorde workynge with them, and confyrmyng the worde with myracles folowing.

¶ The ende of the Gospell of S. Marke.

¶ The Gospell of S. Luke.

For as moch as many haue taken in hand to set forth the declaraciō of those thynges, which are most surely to be beleued among vs, euen as they deliuered the vnto vs which from the begynning sawe them the selues wpth theyr eyes, and were ministers of the thynges that they declared: (I determined also) as lone as I had searched out dply gently all thynges fro the begynnyng) that then I wolde wyte vnto the, good Theophilus: that thou myghtest knowe the certente of those thynges whereof thou hast bene informed.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ The conception and birth of Iohn the Baptist. The conception of Christ. The thankfull songes of Mary and zachary.

There was in the dayes of he rode the kyngde of Iurie, a certayne Preste named zacharias * of the course of Abia. And his wyf was of the daughters of Aarō: and her name was Elizabeth: they were both ryghteous before God, & walked in all the lawes & ordynances of the Lorde, that no man coulde fynde fauour in the. And they had no chyldre, because that Elizabeth was barren, & they booth were now well stricken in age.

And it came to passe, when zachary executed the Priestes office before God, as his course came (according to the custome of the priestes howe the Lorde had shewed greate mercy vpon here and they reioysed with her.

The Gospell

* Gen. xlii. b
* 110. lxx. a
* Lucii. xii. a.

And it fortuned that in the eighth daye, they came to circuncise the chyld: and called his name zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and sayde: not so but he shalbe called John. And they said vnto her: There is none in thy kynrede, that is named with this name: And they made sygnes to his father, howe he wold haue he called. And he asked for wytyng tables, and wrote, saynge: hys name is John. And they marvelled all. And hys mouth was opened immediatly, & his tong also, & he spake, and praysed God. And fear came on all the that dwelt nye vnto them. And all these saynges were noyed abroade throughout all the countre of Iurie: and all they that herde the layde them vp in their hertes, saying: What manner of chyld shall this be: And the hande of the Lorde was with hym.

And his father zacharias was filled wth the holy goost, and prophesied saynge:

* psal. cxxxv. c

Prayed be the Lorde God of Israel, for he hath visyted and redeemed hys people: And hath raysted vp an horne of saluacyon vnto vs in the house of his seruaunt Dauid.

Euen as he promysed by the mouth of his holy prophetes, which were sens the woide began. That we shuld be saued fro oure enemies, and from the hand of all that hate vs.

That he wold deale mercifully with oure fathers, and remember his holy couenaunt:

* Ge. xlii. c.

* And that he wolde performe the oorde, which he sware to our father Abraham, for to geue vs.

* Esay. lxxv. c.
* 111. c.

* That we deliuered oute of the handes of oure enemies, myght serue him wthout feare, all the dayes of oure lyfe, in such holynesse & rightewlnesse as are accept before him. And thou chyld shalt be called the Prophet of the hieft: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lorde, to prepare his wayes: to geue knowledge of saluacyon vnto hys people for the remission of synnes. Through the tender mercy of oure God, wherby the daye spring from an hye hath visyted vs.

* Esay. ix. c.
* 111. c.

* To geue lyght to the people that were in darcknesse & in the shadowe of deathe, to gyde oure fete into the waye of peace. And the chyld grewe and wored strong in sperte, and was in wilderness, tyll the daye came, when he shulde shewe him selfe vnto the Israelites.

The seconde Chapter.

Of the birth and circumcysion of Christ. How he was receaued into the temple, how Simeon and Anna prophesied of hym, and how he was founde in the temple amonge the doctours.

And it chaunced in those dayes: that ther went oute a commaundement from Augustus the Emperour, that all the world shulde be taxed. And thys taxing was the fyrst, & executed wherby Syzenus was leftenaunt in Syria. And euery man went vnto hys owne cytie to be taxed. And Joseph also ascended fro Galile, out of a cytie called Nazareth, into Ierusalem: vnto the cytie of Dauid, whych is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house & linage of Dauid to be taxed with Mary his spoused wyfe, which was with chyld.

And it fortuned that whyle they were there her tyme was come that she shulde be deliuered. And she brought forth her fyrst begotten sonne, and waped him in swadling clothes, and layd him in a maunger, because ther was no rowme for the in the ynne.

And ther were in the same region shepherdes, watchinge and kepinge the flocke by nyght. And lo, the angell of the Lorde stode harde by them, & the brightnes of the Lorde shone rounde aboute the, and they were sore afrayed. And the angell sayde vnto the: Be not afrayed. For behold, I bringe you tydings of greate ioye, that shall come to all people: for vnto pon is borne this daye in the cytie of Dauid, a sauour whych is Christ the Lord. And take this for a sygne: ye shal find the chyld wrapped in swadling clothes, & layd in a maunger. And streygth wape ther was with the angell a multitude of heauently lowders, praysing God: & saynge: Glory to God on hye, and peace on the erth, & vnto men a good wyll.

And it fortuned, as sone as the angels were gone a waye from them into heauē, the shepherdes sayde one to another: let vs go now enen vnto Bethlehem, and se this thing that we heare saye is happened, whych the Lorde hath shewed vnto vs. And they came wth hast, & founde Mary & Joseph & the babe layd in a maunger. And when they had sene it, they published abrode the saying, which was tolde them of that chyld. And all they that hearde it, wondred at those thynges which were tolde the of the shepherdes. But Mary kepte all those saynges, & pondered them in her hert. And the shepherdes retourned, praysyng and lauding God for all the thing: & that they had herde and sene, enen as it was tolde vnto them.

And whē the eighth daye was come the chyld shulde be circuncised: his name was called Iesus: whych was named of the Angel, before he was concyued in the wybe.

And when the tyme of their purificacion was come, they brought him to Iherusalem, to present him to the Lorde (as it is wyrtten in the lawe of the Lorde: euery man chyld that fyrst openeth the matris, shalbe called holy to the Lord) and to offer (as it is sayde in the lawe of the Lord) a payre of turtle doves, or two ponge pignons. And beholde, ther was a man in Iherusalem

* 111. c.

* Gen. xlii. b
* 110. lxx. a
* Lucii. xii. a.

* Gen. xlii. b
* 110. lxx. a
* Lucii. xii. a.

* Gen. xlii. b
* 110. lxx. a
* Lucii. xii. a.

Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. And the same man was iuste & godly, & looked for the consolacion of Israel, and the holy goost was in him. And an answer had he receaued of the holy goost y^e he shoulde not se deeth, except he fyrst sawe the Lordes Christ. And he came by inspiracion into the temple.

And when the father & mother broughte in the chyldre Iesus: to do for him after y^e custome of the lawe, then toke he hym vp in his armes, & sayde: Lorde, now lettest thou thy seruant departe in peace, accordyng to thy promys. For myne eyes haue sene the saluacion: whych thou hast prepared before the face of all people. A lyght to lighten the gentyls, & the glozy of thy people Israel.

And his father & mother: meruayled at those thynges, whych were spoken of hym: And Simeon blessed them, and sayde vnto Mary his mother: beholde, this chyld is sett to be y^e fall and vpyling agayne of many in Israel, & for a sygne whych is spokē against And moreouer, the swearde shall pearce thy soule y^e the thoughtes of many hertes maye be opened.

And ther was a Prophetesse, one Anna, daughter of Phanuel of the trybe of Aser: whych was of a great age, & had lyued withyn husbunde. vii. yeres from her virginite. And she had bene a wedowe about. iiii. score & .iii. yere, whych departed not from the temple, but serued God wryth fastynges and prayes nyght & dape. And she came forth y^e same houre, and prayled y^e Lorde, and spake of hym, to all the that looked for redempcyon in Jerusalem.

And whan they had perfourmed all thynges accordyng to the lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galile, to their owne cite Nazareth. And the chyldre grewe, and wered strong in sperte, & was fylled with wysdome, and the grace of God was vpon hym.

And his father & mother went to Jerusalem euery yere at the feaste of easter. And when he was. xii. yere olde, they went vp to Jerusalem after the custome of the feaste dape. And whan they had fulfyllid the dayes, as they returned home, the chyldre Iesus a bode styll in Jerusalem, & his father & mother knewe not of it: but they supposyng hym to haue bene in y^e company, came a dayes thre & sought hym among their kynfolke and acquaintaunce. And when they founde hym not, they went backe agayne to Jerusalem, and sought him. And it fortuneth that after. iii. dayes, they founde him in the temple, sittinge in the middes of the doctours, hearyng them, and posyng them. And all that heard him, were astonnyed at his vnderstandyng & answers.

And when they sawe him, they marueyled. And his mother sayde vnto hym: sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? Behold, thy father and I haue soughte the, sozowfge. And he sayd vnto the: how is it y^e ye soughte me? Wist ye not, that I must goo aboute my fathers busynesse? And they vnderstode not that sayng whych he spake vnto them. And he wet downe wth them, & came to Nazareth, & was obedient vnto them. But his mother kept all these sayenges together in her hert. And Iesus prospered in wysdome & age, and in fauoure, with God and men.

The. iii. Chapter.

The preachinge, baptyme, and perfonement of Iohn. The baptyme of Christ, and a rehercall of the generation of the fathers.

In the fyfteneth yere of the raigne of A Cyberius the Emperoure, Pontius Pilate beyng lefenaunt of Jewrie, and herode beinge Tetrarch of Galile, & his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of the Tracomites, and Lysaniath the Tetrarch of Abylene (whan Anna and Cayphas were the hie prestes) y^e worde of the Lord came vnto Iohn the sonne of Zacharias in the wyldernes. And he came in to all the coastes aboute Jordan, preachinge baptyme of repentaunce for the remission of synnes, as it is wyrtte in the booke of y^e wordes of Esayas the prophet, sayenge: The voyce of a cryar in wyldernes: prepare ye y^e waye of the Lord, make his pathes straght. Euery valley shalbe fylled, and euery mountayne & hyl shalbe broughte lowe. And thynges that be croked, shalbe mad streygth: & y^e rough wayes shalbe mad playne: & al flesch shal se the Saluacion of God.

Thē sayde he to the people, that were come forth to be baptysed of hym. Ope y^e raceyon of vipers, who hath taughte you to fye from the wyath to come? Byngye forth therfore due frutes of repentaunce, & begyn not to save wryth in poure selues: we haue Abraham to oure father. For I saye vnto you. God is able of these stonys to raipe vp chyldren vnto Abraham. Now also is the axlepyde vnto the rote of the trees: euery tree therfore whych bringeth not forth good frut is hewen downe, & cast into the fyre.

And y^e people asked him, sayinge: what shall we do then? He answered and sayeth, vnto the: he that hath two coates, lett him parte wryth hym that hath none, & he y^e hath meate, lett him do lyke wyle.

Then cam y^e publicans also to be baptysed, & sayd vnto hym: Master, what shal we do? And he sayde vnto them: requyre no more, then that whych is appoynted vnto you.

The soud pources lyke wyle demaunded of him, sayinge: and what shal we do? And he sayde vnto them: hurt no man: nerther trouble any mā wrongfully: and be content wryth your wages.

as the

* Luke. ix. c. and. xxiii. c.

* Luk. xxi. a.

* Mat. iii. a. Iohn. i. h.

* Esay. xl. a. Iohn. i. c. Mat. iii. a.

* Mat. iii. b.

* Mat. iii. b. a. b. c.

* Mat. ii. c.

The Gospell

As the people were in a doubte, & all men mused in theyr hertes of John, whether he were very Christ. John answered & sayd vnto the all: * I baptise you with water, but one stronger than I shall come after me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to vnloose: he shall baptise you with the holy goost, & w fyr: * whych hath bys fanne in bys hande, & wyl pourge his floore, and gather the corne into his barn: but the chaffe wyl be burne with fyre that neuer shall be quenched. And many other thinges in his exhortacion preac hed he vnto the people.

* Then herode the Tetrarch, when he was rebuked of hym for herodias bys bro ther Philippes wyfe, & for all cruelties which herode dyd: added this aboue all, and layed John in prison.

And it fortuneth that when all the people receaued baptisme (* whē Iesus was bapti sed and dyd praye) the heauen was opened, and the holy goost cam downe in a bodely shape lyke a doue vpon him, and a voyce cam from heauen, which sayde: * Thou arte my beloued sonne, in the do I delecte.

And Iesus him selfe begane to be aboute thirty yere of age, so that he was * supposed to be the sonne of Ioseph: which was sonne of hely: which was the sonne of Matthat whych was the sonne of Leui: whych was the sonne of Melchi: which was the sonne of Ianna: whych was the sonne of Ioseph whych was the sonne of Matathias: which was the sonne of Amos: which was sonne of Raum: whych was the sonne of hely: which was the sonne of Ragge: which was the sonne of Maath: whych was sonne of Matathias: whych was sonne of Semei: whych was the sonne of Ioseph: which was the sonne of Iuda: which was the sonne of Ioanna: whych was the sonne of Abela: whych was the sonne of zobabel: whych was the sonne of Salathiel: which was the sonne of Aeri: which was the sonne of Mel chy: whych was the sonne of Addi: whych was the sonne of Coosam: whych was the sonne of Helmadan: which was the sonne of her: which was sonne of Ielo: which was the sonne of heliezer: whych was the sonne of Joiam: which was the sonne of Mattha: whych was the sonne of Leui: whych was the sonne of Simeon: whych was the sonne of Iuda: whych was the sonne of Ioseph: which was the sonne of Ionam: which was sonne of heliachun: which was the sonne of Melcha: which was the sonne of Menā: which was the sonne of Matpartha: whych was the sonne of Nathan: whych was the sonne of Dauid: whych was the sonne of Jesse: which was the sonne of Obed: which was the sonne of Soos: which was sonne of Salomon: which was sonne of Dauid which was the sonne of Aminadab: whych was sonne of Aran: which was sonne of Esro: whych was sonne of Phares: which was the sonne of Iuda: whych was sonne of Jacob: which was sonne of Isaac: which was the sonne of Abraham: which was the sonne of Charra: which was sonne of Ra chor: which was sonne of Saruch: whych was sonne of Ragau: whych was sonne of Phalec: whych was the sonne of Heber: which was the sonne of Sala: which was sonne of Cainā: which was the sonne of Ar pharat: which was sonne of Sem: whych was the sonne of Noe: which was the sonne of Lamech: which was the sonne of Matu sala: which was the sonne of Enoch: whych was sonne of Jareth: whych was sonne of Malalel: whych was sonne of Cainā: which was the sonne of Enos: which was sonne of Seth: which was the sonne of Adā which was the sonne of God.

The. iiii. Chapter.

Iesus is led into the wyldernes, and fasteth all the tyme of bys temptacion, ouer cometh the deuill, goeth into Galile: preacheth at Nazareth and Capernaum, the Jewes despyse hym, the deuils knowlege hym, he cometh into Peters house, healeth his mother in law, & both greates myracles.

Iesus beyng full of the holy goost, & returned from Iordan and was led by the sprete into wyldernes, and was xl. dayes tempted of the deuill. And in those dayes dyd he eate nothyng. And when they were ended, he afterwarde hon gred. And the deuill sayd vnto him: if thou be the sonne of God commaunde thys stone that it be bredd. And Iesus answered hym, sayng: It is writen: man shall not lyue by breed only, but by euery worde of God.

And the deuill toke him into an hye mo untayne, and shewed him all the kyngdoms of the worlde, euē in the twyncklyng of an eye. And the deuill sayde vnto hym: all this power will I geue the euery whyle, & I glory of them: for they are deliuered vnto me, and to whomsoeuer I wyl, I geue it. If ther fore wylt thou fall downe before me & worshipp me, they shall be all thyn. Iesus answered and sayde vnto hym: hence from me Satan.
For it is writen: Thou shalt worshippe the Lorde thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.

And he caried hym to Ierusalem: and set him on a pynacle of the temple, and sayd vnto him: If thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hens. For it is writen:
* he shall geue bys Angels charge ouer the,
to kepe the, and in theyr handes they shall beare the vp, that thou fallst not thy foot agaynst a stone. And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto hym, it is sayde: & thou shalt not tempte the Lorde thy God. And as sone as all the tentacion was ended, the deuill de parted from him for a season:

✠ And

And Iesus returned by the power of the sperte, into Galile, & there went a fame of hym thowowe out all the region. And he taught in theyr synagoges and was commended of all men.

And he cam to Nazareth where he was noursed and (as hys custome was) he went into the synagoge on the Saboth dape, & stode vp for to rede. And there was deliuered vnto him the boke of y^e Prophet Esay.

And when he had opened the boke, he stonde the place, where it was wyrtten. The sperte of the Lorde vpo me, because he hath anoynted me: to preache the gospel to the poore he hath sent me: to heale y^e brynnyng, to preache deliuerance to the captiue, and syghet to the blynde: frely to let all lybertie the that are brynd, & to preache the acceptable yere of the Lorde.

And he closed the boke, & gaue it againe to the mynister, and sat downe. And y^e eyes of all them that were in the synagoge were fastened on hym. And he began to saye vnto them: This dape is this scripture fullylled in your eares. And all bare hym wyrtten, and wondred at the gracious wordes whych proceeded out of hys mouth. And they sayd: Is not this Iosephs sonne?

And he sayd vnto them: Ye wyl utterly say vnto me this Proverbe: Whilist he heale the selfe. What locuer we haue herd done in Capernaum, do the same here y^e wher we are in thine owne countre. And he sayd: Verelype I saye vnto you: No Prophet is accepted in hys owne countre.

But I tell you of a tructh: many wyrtten were in Israel in y^e dayes of helias, whiche heu was that thre yeres & sire monethes, when great famyshment was throught out all the lade, and into none of them was helias sent, came into Sarepta helydes Sydon, vnto a woman that was a wydowe.

And many lepers were in Israel in y^e tyme of heliseus the Prophet: and none of the was clenfed, saynyng Naaman the Syria.

And al they in the synagoge, whiche they herd these thinges, were fylled with wyrt and rose vp, & thurst hym oute of the ctye, & led hym ene vnto the edge of the hyll (wher the ctye was buylt) & they myght cast hym downe headlyng. But he departed, & went hys waye ene thowowe the myddes of them.

And came downe to Capernaum, (a ctye of Galile) and there taught them on the Saboth dayes. And they were astonysed at hys doctrine: for his preaching was with power. And in the synagoge ther was a man whych had an vncleane sperte of a deuyl & cryed wyth a loude voyce, saynyng: let me alone, what haste thou to do wth vs, thou Iesus of Nazareth: Art thou come to destruye vs? I knowe the what thou arte, euen the holy of God. And Iesus rebuked hym saynyng: holde thy peace, & come out of hym.

And whiche the dyuel had thowen hym in the myddes, he came out of hym, & hurt him not. And feare came on them all, and they spake amonge them selues saynyng: what maner a thyng es this? For wyth authorite and power he commaundeth the foule spertes, and they come out. And the fame of hym was spred abrode thowowe out euery place of the countrey rounde about.

And when he was rylen vp & come out of the synagoge he entred into Symons house. And Symons mother in lawe was taken wyth a great feuer, & they made intercession to him for her. And he stode ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and the feuer left her. And immediatly she arose, & ministered vnto them.

When the Sunne was do wne, all they whiche had sycke, take wth dyuers dyseases, brought them vnto hym: and he layd hys handes on euery one of them, and healed them. And dyuels also came out of many, crynyng & saynyng: thou art Christ the sonne of God. And he rebuked the, & sufferd the not to speake: for they knewe that he was Christ.

As lone as it was dape, he departed, and wet into a deserte place, & the people soughte hym and came to hym, and kept hym that he shulde not departe from them. And he sayd vnto them: I must preache the kyngdom of God to other ctyes also: For therfore am I sent. And he preached in the synagoges of Galyle.

The v. Chapter.

Christ preached in the hyll. The disciples to take at and folowe hym. He clenfed the leper, healeth the man of the palsey, calleth together the customers, and eateth wyth open synners.

It came to passe that (whiche the people pressed vpon hym, to heare the word of God) he stode by the lake of Genesareth: & sawe two shyppes stande by the lake syde, but the fyshermen were gone out of them, and were walshyng theyr nettes. And he entred into one of the shyppes, (whych pertayned to Symon,) and prayed hym that he wolde thrust oute a lytell from the lande. And he sat downe, and taught the people out of the shyppe. When he had lestre speakyng, he sayd vnto Symon: Launche out into the depte, and let shyppe your nettes to make a draught. And Symon answered and sayd vnto him: Master, we haue laboured all nyght, and haue taken nothyng. Neuerthelesse, at thy commaundement I wyl loose forth the nette. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multytude of fyshes. But they net brake, & they becked to theyr felowes (whiche were in the other shyppe) that they shulde come, and helpe helpe them. And they came: and fylled both the shypes that they soncke agayne.

The Gospell

When Symon Peter sawe thys, he fell downe at Iesus knees, sayenge: Lorde, go from me, for I am a synfull mā. For he was astonied, & all that were wth hym, at the draught of fyshes, whych they had taken: & so was also James and John the sonnes of zebede, whych were parteners wth Symō And Iesus sayd vnto Symō: feare not, fro henceforth thou shalt catch men. And they brought the shypes to lande, * and forsoke all, and folowed hym. ¶

* mat. xiii. d

E * And it fortuned that when he was in a certayne cytie: beholde, ther was a mā full of leprosy, & when he had spyed Iesus, he fel flat on hys face, and besought him, sayenge: Lorde, if thou wylt, I canst make me cleane.

* mat. xiii. a
* mar. i. d

And he stretched forth hys hande, & touched hym, sayeng: I wyl, be thou cleane. And immediately he leprosy departed from hym. And he charged hym, that he shoulde tell no man: but go (sayeth he) * & shewe thy selfe to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing accordyng as Moses commaunded, for a wytnes vnto the

* Luc. xiii. a

But so much the more went there a fame abrode of hym, and much people came together to heare, and to be healed of hym from theyr infirmities. And he kept hym out of synagoge in the wyldernesse, and gaue hym selfe to prayer.

D * And it happened on a certayne daye: he taught: and there sat the Pharises & doctours of the lawe, whych were come out of all synagogs of Galile & Jewry, & Ierusalem. And the power of the Lorde was present, to heale them. * And beholde, men brought in a bed, a man whych was taken wth a palsy, and they sought meanes to brynge hym in, & to laye hym before him. And whē they could not fynde on what syde they myght brynge hym in (because of the pzeale) they went vpo the toppe of the house & let hym downe thowrow the tpyngge, bed and all, euen in synagoge before Iesus. When he sawe theyr sayth he sayd vnto hym: man, thy synnes are forgiven the. And the Scribes and the Pharises began to thynke, sayenge: What fellowe is thys, which speaketh blasphemy: * who can forgive synnes but God only?

* mat. ix. a
* mar. ii. a

E But whē Iesus perceyued theyr thoughtes, he answered, & sayde vnto them: What thynke ye in your hartes? Whether is easier to saye thy synnes be forgiven the, or to saye ryse vp, and walke? * But ye may knowe that the sonne of mā hath power to forgive synnes on earth, he sayde vnto the sycke of synagoge: I saye vnto the: arise, take vp thy bed, and go vnto thy house. And immediately he rose vp before them, & toke vp hys bed (whereon he laye) and departed to hys owne house, praysyng God. And they were all a-

* mar. ii. c
* Luc. xiii. d
and, xiii. d

* mat. ix. a
* mar. ii. c
Act. v. a. 15. d maled, and they gaue the glorie vnto God. And were fylled with feare, sayenge: We haue sene straunge thynges to daye. ¶

* And after this, he went forth, & sawe a Pharise named Leuy, spytyng at synners of custome, and he sayde vnto hym: folowe me. And he left al, and rose vp, and folowed hym: And Leuy made hym a greate feast in hys owne house. And there was a great company of Publicans and of other that sate at meate wth them. * And the Scribes and Pharises murmured agaynst hys disciples, sayenge: Why do ye eate & drynke wth Publicans and synners? And Iesus answered & sayd vnto them: They that are hole, nede not the Physicion: but they that are sycke. I came not to call the ryghteous, but synners to repentance.

* mat. xiii. a
* mar. ii. c
* Luc. xiii. d

And they sayd vnto hym: * Why do the disciples of John fast often, and praye, and the disciples of the Pharises also: but thynke ye make the chylidren of the weddyng fast, whyle the bydegrome is wth them? The daye wyl come, when the bydegrome also shalbe taken awaye from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

* mat. xiii. a
* mar. ii. c
* Luc. xiii. d

He spake also vnto them a similitude. No man putteth a peece of a newe garment, into an olde vesture, for if he do, the breake the newe, and the peece that was take out of the newe, agreeth not with the olde. And no man putteth a newe wyne into olde bottels. For if he do, the newe wyne wyl burst the bottels, and runne out it selfe, & the bottels shall perishe. But newe wyne must be put in to newe bottels, and both are preserved. No man also that drynke the olde wyne, straght waye can awaye wth newe: for he sayeth the olde is better.

The vi. Chapter.

¶ He receyved hys disciples, that plucked the eares of corne, he healeth the man wth the wyched hande, chooseth hys twelve Apostles, maketh a swete sermon, and teacheth to do good for euill.

E happened on an after principall Sabbath, that he wente: & thowrow the corne felde, and hys disciples plucked the eares of corne, and dyd eate, and rubbed them in theyr handes. And certayne of the Pharises sayde vnto them: Why do ye that whych is not lawfull to do on the Sabbath dayes? And Iesus answered them, and sayd: * haue ye not red what Dauid dyd, when he hym selfe was an hongred, & they whych were wth hym: howe he went into synagoge of God, and dydde take and eate the shewe breade, and gaue also to them that were wth hym: whych are not lawfull to eate, but for the preastes only? And he sayd vnto them: The sonne of man is Lorde also of the Sabbath daye.

* mat. xiii. a
* mar. ii. c
* Luc. xiii. d

* Luc. xiii. d

* Luc. xiii. d

* en. 1

And

* And it fortuned in another Saboth also, that he entred into the Synagoge, and taught. And there was a man, whose ryght hande was dyed vp. And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he wolde heale on the Sabboth day, that they might fynd how to accuse hym. But he knew their thoughtes, and sayde to the man whych had the withered hande: Ryse vp, & stande forth in the myddes. And he arose and stode forth. Then sayd Iesus vnto the: I wyl aske you a questio: Whether is it lawfull on the Sabboth dayes to do good, or to do euyl: to saue ones lyfe, or to destroie it? And he behelde them all in compasse, and sayd vnto þ man: stretch forth thy hande. And he dyd so: & his hande was restored agayne as hole as þ other. And they were fylled with madnesse, and communed togither among them selues what they myght do to Iesu. ¶

And it fortuned in those dayes: þ he wēt out into a mountayne for to praye, and continued all night in prayer to God. And as sone as it was daye, he called his disciples, & among them he chose. xii. whō also he called Apostles. Symon whom he also named Peter, & Andrew his brother. James and John, whi wh and Bartholomewe, Mattheu & Thomas, James the sonne of Alpheus, and Symon whych is called zelotes, and Judas James sonne, and Judas Iscariot, the same þ was the traytour.

* And he came downe with them, & stode in the playne felde, and the compaigne of hys disciples: and a greates multytude of people (out of all Jewry and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast: of Tyre and Sydon) whiche came to heare hym, and to be healed of their dysceases: & they that were vexed with foule spytes and they were healed. And all þ people pressed to touche him, for they went ver tur out of hym, and healed them all.

And he lyft vp his eyes vpon the disciples and sayd: * Blessed be ye poore, for yours is the kyngdome of God. Blessed are ye þ hōger now, for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that wepe now, for ye shal laughe. Blessed shall ye be when mē hate you, and thrust you out of their company, and ryle on you, and abhorre your names as an euill thinge, for þ sonne of mā sake. Reioyce ye in that daye, and be glad: for beholde, your reward is great in heauen. ¶ For thus dyd their fathers vnto the prophetes.

* But wo vnto you that are ryche: for ye haue your consolaciō. Wo vnto you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Wo vnto you that now laughe: for ye shal wepe and wepe. Wo vnto you when all men prayse you: for so dyd they fathers to the false prophetes.

But I saye vnto you whiche heare: Love your enemyes. Do good to them which hate you. Blesse them that curse you. And praye for them whych wrongfully trouble you. And vnto hym that smyteth the on the one cheeke, offer also the other. * And hym that taketh a waye thy gowne, forbyd not to take thy cote also. Gyue to euery mā that asketh of the. And of hym that taketh awaye thy goodes, aske them not agayne. * And as ye wolde that men shulde do to you, do ye also to them lyke wyse.

* And yf ye loue the whiche loue you, what thanke haue ye: for synners also loue theyr louers. And if ye do good for them whiche do good for you, what thanke haue ye: for sinners also do enē the same. And yf ye lende to them of whō ye hope to receyue: what thāke haue ye: for synners also lende to synners, to receyue such lyke agayne. But loue ye your enemyes, and do good, and lende, lokynge for nothyng agayne: and your reward shal be greates, and ye shal be the chyldren of the hyst: for he is kynde vnto the vnkynde and to the euell.

* Be ye therfore mercifull, as your father also is mercifull. * Judge not, and ye shal not be iudged: Condemne not, and ye shal not be condemned. Forgiue, and ye shal be forgyuen. * Gyue, and it shal be giuen vnto you: good measure and pressed downe, & shaken together, and rūnyng ouer shal men gyue into your bosomes. * If or with þ same measure that ye mete withal, shall other mē mete to you agayne.

And he put forth a similitude vnto them: * Can the blynde leade the blynde? Do they not both fall into the dytche? * The dyscypple is not aboue hys master. Euery man shalbe partyte, euen as his master is. * Why seekest thou a moote in thy brothers eye, but conspyrest not the beame þ is in thyne owne eye? Cyther how canst thou saye to thy brother: Brother, let me pul out the moote that is in thyne eye, whē thou seekest not the beame that is in thyne owne eye. Thou hypocrite, caste out the beame out of thyne owne eye fyrst, & then shalt thou se partytly, to pull out the moote that is in thy brothers eye. ¶

* For it is not a good tree, that bynggeth forth euell frute: neyther is that an euell tree that bynggeth forth good frute. For euery tree is knowen by hys frute. For of thornes do not mē gather fygges, nor of busshes gather they grapes. A good man out of þ good treasure of his hert, bynggeth forth þ which is good. And an euell man, out of the euell treasure of hys herte, bynggeth forth that whych is euell. * For of the aboundance of the herte, hys mouth speaketh.

Why call ye me * Lorde Lorde, & do not as I bid you: whosoever cometh to me & heareth my sayenges, and doth the same, I wyl geue you to whom he is like. * he is lyke a wyrd. ii. man man which buyt an house, & dygged depe, and layde the foundation on a rocke. When the waters arose, the floude bet vpo þ house and coule not moue it. For it was grounde vpon a rocke. But he that heareth & doeth not, is lyke a man that wythout foundation buyt an house vpo þ earth, agaynst which the floude dyd beate: and it fel immediatly. And the fall of that house was great.

The Gospell

The viij. Chapter.

¶ He dealeth the captaynes seruauit, rapeth the wy-domes sonne, enformenth the dysciples, whom John Baptist sent vnto hym, commendeth John, reproceth the Jewes, and eateth wyth the Pharise. The woman waiteth vpon Iesus wyth her teares, and he forgyueth her her synnes.

* Mat. xiii. a
John. iij. f

When he had ended al hys sayenges in the audience of the people, * he entred into Capernaum. And a certayne Centurios seruauit whych was deare vnto hym laye speke, and was in parell of death. And when he herde of Iesu, he sent vnto him the elders of the Jewes, he sechynge hym that he wolde come, and heale his seruauit. And when they came to Iesus they besought him instantly, sayenge: he is worthy that thou shuldest do thys for hym. For he loueth our nacion, and hath buyt vs a synagoge. And Iesus went wyth them.

* Mat. xiii. a

¶ And when he was now, not farte from the house, the Centurion sent frendes to him sayenge vnto hym: * Lorde, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy, þ thou shuldest enter vnder my rooffe. Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto þ: but say thou the worde, and my seruauit shal be hole. For I also am a man set vnder power, and haue vnder me souldyers, and I saye vnto one go, & he goeth, & to another, come, & he cometh: and to my seruauit, do thys, and he doth it. When Iesus herde this, he maruailed at hym, and turned hym aboute, & sayde to the people that folowed hym: I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great fayth, no, not in Israel. And they that were sente, turned backe home agayne and founde the seruauit hole that had ben speke.

¶ And it fortuneth after thys, þ he went into a cytie which is called Naïm, and many of hys dysciples went with him, & much people. When he came nye to the gate of the cytie: beholde, there was a deade man carped out, which was the only sone of hys mother and she was a wpdowe, and much people of the cytie was wyth her. And whē the Lorde sawe her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her: wepe not. And he came nye, & touched the coffin: & they that bare hym stode styll. And he sayd: Ponge man, I saye vnto the, aryse. And he that was deade, sat vp, & began to speake. * And he deliuered hym to his mother. And there came a feare on the al

* Mat. ix. xxi. d Luce. iiii. f Actes. ix. xx.

And they gaue the glozp vnto God, sayng: * A great Propete is risen vp amonge vs, and god hath vpsited his people. ¶ And thys rumoz of hym went forth thowowe out al Jewrye, and thowowe out all the regions whych lye rounde about.

¶ And the disciples of John thewed him of all these thynges. * And John called vnto hi two of hys disciples, and sent them to Iesus sayenge: Art thou he þ shulde come: or shal we loke for another? ¶ Whē þ men were come vnto hym, they sayd: Iohn Baptist sent vs vnto the, sayenge: Art thou he that shulde come: or shal we wayte for another? And in that same houre he cured many of they: in firmities and plages, and of euell spytes, & vnto many that were blynde he gaue syght. And he answered, and sayde vnto them: go pour waye & bryng wynde agayne to John what thynges ye haue sene and herd, how þ * the blynde se, the halt go, the lepers are cle sed, the deafe heare, the deade ryse agayne: to the pooze is the glad tydinges preached, and happy is he that is not offended at me.

¶ And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speake vnto the people concernynge John. ¶ What went ye out in to the wyldernesse for to se: a rede shakyn w the wynde? But what went ye out for to se: A man clothed in soft raymēt? Behold, they whych are gorgeously appareled, & lyue delicately are in kynges courtes. But what went ye forth to se: A Propete? Yea, I say to you, and moze then a Propete. Thys is he, of whom it is wyttē: * Behold, I sende myne aungell before thy face which shal pre pare thy waye before the. For I saye vnto you amonge womens chylidren, is there not a greater Propete then John Baptist. He uertheles, he that is lesse, in the kyngdome of God is greater then he. ¶

¶ And al the people, & the Publicans þ herd hym, iustified God, & were baptised wyth þ baptyeme of John. But the Pharises & lawers despyed the counsell of God agaynst the selues, and were not baptised of hym.

¶ And the Lord sayd: * ¶ Wher vnto shal I lyken the men of thys generacion: and what thyng are they lyke? They are lyke vnto chylidren sytynge in þ market place, & cryenge one to another, & sayeng. We haue py- ped vnto you, & ye haue not dauid: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept. For John Baptist came, neyther eatynge bred nor drynkyng wyne, and ye say he hath the dyuel. The sonne of man is come, & eateth & drynketh, and ye say: behold a gloutinous mā, and an vnrational drynker of wyne a frende of Publicans and synners. And wyl dome is iustified of all her chylidren.

¶ And one of the Pharises despyed him þ he wolde eate wyth hym. And he went into the

The Gospell

D And they came to hym, and awoke him sayenge: Master, Master, we are lost. Then he arose and rebuked the wynde and the tēpast of water, and they ceased, & it wared calme. And he sayd vnto the: where is your fayth? They feared and wondred amonge them selues, sayenge: What (thynke ye) is this: for he commaundeth both the wyndes and water, and they obey hym. I And they sayled vnto the regio of p̄ Saderenites, whych is ouer agaynst Galile.

* mat. viii. b marke. b. a

And whē he went out to lande, there met hym out of the ctyie a certayne man, which had a deuyl lōge tyme, and ware no clothes neyther abode in any house: but in graues. When he sawe Iesus and had cryed, he fell downe before him, and wā a loude voice said: *What haue I to do with the Iesus, p̄sone of the God most hyst: I beseech the tozmēt me not: for he commaunded the foule sprete to come out of the man. For oftentymes he had caught hym, & he was bounde with chaines, and kept with fetters: and he brake the bandes, and was carped of the sende into wyldernesse.

* mat. viii. b
marke. b. a

E And Iesus asked hym sayenge: What is thy name? And he sayd: Legion, because many deuyls were entred into hym. And they besought hym that he wolde not comaunde them, to go out into the depe. And ther was there, and herde of many swyne, sedyng on an hyll: and they besought hym, p̄ he wolde suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then wēt p̄ dyuels out of the mā and entred into the swyne. And p̄ herd rānc headlyng wā violence into the lake, & were choked. When the herdmen sawe what had chaunced, they fled, and tolde it in the ctyie, and in the villages.

And they came out to se what was done, and came to Iesus, and founde the man (out of whom the dyuels were departed) sytting at the fete of Iesus: clothed, & in hys ryght mynde, and they were afrayed. They also whych sawe it, tolde them by what meanes he (that was possesed of the dyuel) was healed. And al the multitude of p̄ Saderenites, besought hym, p̄ he wolde departe frō them for they were takē wth great feare. *And he gat him vp into p̄ thyp, & returned backe agayne. Then the man (out of whom the dyuels were departed,) besought hym that he myght be with him. But Iesus sent hym a-waye, sayenge: Go home agayne to thynne owne house, & shewe what thynges so euer God hath done for p̄. And he went his way & preached thozowe oute all the ctyie, what thynges soeuer Iesus had done vnto hym.

* mat. viii. b
marke. b. b

I

And it fortunēd p̄ when Iesus was come agayne, the people receyued hym. For they al wayted for him. *And behold, ther came a mā named Jairus (& he was a ruler of the

* mat. ix. b
marke. b. c synagoge) & he fel downe at Iesus fete prayenge him, that he wold come into hys house for he had but one daughter only, vpo a. xii. yere of age, and she laye a dyeng. But as he went, the people thronged hym.

*And a woman, haupng an issue of blood xii. yeres (whych had spent al her substance vpon phisicions, neyther coulde be holpen of any) came behynde hym, & touched p̄ hem of hys raymēt: and immediately her issue of blood stauched. And Iesus sayd: Who is it p̄ touched me? Whē euery mā denyed, Peter (& they that were with hym) sayd: Master, the people thrust p̄ & were the, & sayest thou who touched me? And Iesus sayde: Some body hath touched me. For I perceyue, that vertue is gone out of me. When the woman sawe that she was not hypd, she came trembling, & fel at his fete, & tolde him before al p̄ people, for what cause she had touched hi, & howe she was healed immediately. And he sayd vnto her: Doughter, be of good confort: thy fayth hath saued the, go in peace.

Whyle he yet spake, there came one from p̄ rulers of the synagoges house, which said to hym: thy daughter is dead, dyscase not p̄ Master. But when Iesus herde that worde he answered p̄ father of p̄ damosell: *Feare not, beleue only, & she shal be made hole. And when he came to the house, he suffered noman to go in with him, saue Peter, James & Iohā & the father & the mother of p̄ maybd. Euery body wept, & sorowed for her. And he sayd: Wepe not. The damosell is not deade, *but slepeth. And they laughed hym to scoorne, knowyng p̄ she was deade. And he thrust the all out, & caught her by the hāde, & cryed sayeng: Mayde, aryse. And her sprete came agayne, & she rose strayght waye. And he comaunded to geue her meate. And p̄ father & p̄ mother of her were astonied. But he warned them that they shulde tell no man what was done.

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

The ix. Chapter.

I He sendeth out p̄ twelue Apostles to preach. Herode beareth tel of hym. He feedeth. v. m. men, wth. d. loaves. p̄. ii. fishes. the disciples confesse hym to be the sonne of God. he crastygureth hym selfe vpon the mount, becometh the possesed, and teacheth hys disciples to be low: ly. They desyre vengeance, but he represseth them.

Iesus called the * .xii. together, & gaue them power and authorite ouer al dyuels, and that they might heale diseases. And he sent them to preache p̄ kyngdome of God, *and to heale the sycke, and he sayd vnto them: Take no thyng to your iorney: neyther staffe nor scrippe, neyther breade, *neyther money, neyther haue two coates: & what soeuer house ye enter into, there abyde and thence departe. And whosoever wyll not receyue

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

* mat. ix. b

repe you, whē ye go out of p̄ctie, shake offe the very dust from your fete, for a testimony agaynst them. And they departed & went thorow the townes, prachynge the Gospel and healynge euery where. ¶

* And herode the Tetrarche hearde of al that was done by hym, & doubted, because that it was sayd of some, that John was ry-sen agayne from death: & of some, that he-lias had appeared, & of some, that one of y^e old prophetes was risen agayne. And herode said: John haue I behaded: but who is this of whom I heare such thynges: And he desyred to se hym.

And the Apostles returned: & tolde him al that they had done. * And he toke them, and went asyde into a solitarie place nye vnto y^e ctie that is called Bethsaida. Which when the people knew, they folowed hym. And he receyued them, & spake vnto them of y^e kyngdome of God, & healed them that had nede to be healed. And when y^e daye began to weare awaye, then came the xii. & sayde vnto hym:

Sende the people awaye, that they may go in to the townes & next villages & lodge, & get meate, for we are here in a place of wyldernes. But he sayd vnto them: Spue ye the co-rate. And they sayde: We haue no mo but. v.

loanes & two fyshes, except we shulde go & bye meate for al this people. And they were about. v. men. And he sayd to hys disciples: Cause them to syt downe by fyfties in a company. And they dyd so, & made them al to syt downe. And he toke the fyue loanes & the two fyshes, & looked vp to heauen: & blessed the bryake, & gaue to the disciples, to set before the people. And they al dyd eate, & were satisfied. And there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskettes ful of bry-ken meate.

* And it fortuned as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, & he asked them sayenge: ¶ Who saye the people that I am: They answered, & sayd: John Baptist: some saye helias, & some say that one of y^e olde prophetes is risen. He sayd vnto them: But who saye ye that I am: Symon Peter answered, and sayd: * thou arte the Christ of God. And he warned and commaunded the that they shulde tell no mā that thyng say-enge: * the sonne of man muste suffre many thynges, & be repproued of the elders, & of the p̄yestres, & scribes, & be slayne, & r̄ise a-gayne the thyrde daye.

And he sayd to them all, yf any man wyl come after me, let hym deny hym self, & take vp his crosse dailly, & folowe me. * For who louer wyl save hys lyfe shall lose it. But whosoever doth lose his lyfe for my sake, the same shall save it. For what auntaungeth it a man yf he wyne the whole worlde, & lose hym selfe, or runne in damage of hym selfe:

For who so is ashamed of me, & of my wor-des, of hym shall y^e sonne of man be ashamed, when he cometh in hys maiestye, & in the ma-iestye of hys father, & of the holy aungels. I tel you of a trueth: * there be some standyng here, whych shall not tast of death, tyll they se the kyngdome of God.

* And it fortuned that about an. viii. day-es after these saynges, he toke Peter & John & James, & wet vp into a mountayne to pray And as he prayed, the fashyon of his countenaunce was chaunged, & hys garment was whyte, & shone. And beholde, there talked w him two mē which were Moyses & helias, y^e appeared in the maiestye, & spake of his departyng, whych he shulde ende at Ierusalem.
But Peter & they that were with him, were deuy wryth slepe. And whē they awoke, they sawe hys maiestye, and two women standyng wryth hym.

* And it chaunced as they departed from him, Peter sayde vnto Iesus: Master, it is good beyng here for vs. Let vs make also thre tabernacles, one for the, & one for Moses & one for helias (and wylt not what he sayd.) While he thus spake, ther cam a cloud & ouersadowed the, & they feared whē they were come into the cloude. And there came a voyce out of the cloude, sayenge: * This is my deare sonne, & heare him. And as sone as the voyce was past, Iesus was foude alone.
And they kepte it close: and tolde no man in those dayes, anye of those thynges whych they had sene.

* And it chaunced that on the next day (as they came downe from the hyll) muche people met hym. And beholde, a man of the company cryed out, sayenge: Master, I beseeche the behold my sonne, for he is all that I haue & se, a spyte taketh hym, & sodenly he cryeth & fo: (he knoweth and) feareth hym, & he someth agayne, & wryth much payne departeth from hym, when he hath rent hym. * I besought thy disciples to cast him out, & they could not.
Iesus answered & sayde: O fapthlesse & cro-ked nacyon, howe longe shall I be with you, & shall suffre you: Wrynge thy sonne hyther.
As he was yet a commynge, the fende rente hym, & tare hym. And Iesus rebuked the vncleane spyte, & healed the chyld, & deliuered hym to hys father. * And they were all amased at the myghty power of God.

¶ But while they wondred euery one at al thynges which he dyd, he sayde vnto his disciples: Let these saynges syncke downe into your eares. For it wyl come to passe: y^e the sonne of man shall be deliuered into the han-des of men. * But they wylt not what that worde ment, and it was hyd from them, that they vnderstode it not. And they feared to aske hym of that sayng. And there entred a thought amoung them which of them shulde D. iiii. be the

* mat. r. c.
marc. viii. b Luce. xii. a

* mat. r. b. marc. viii. c

* mat. r. viii. a marc. ix. g

D
* mat. r. b. a marc. ix. a

* mat. r. b. d marc. r. viii. b marc. ix. b Luce. ix. d
* deu. r. viii. c.

E
* mat. r. viii. b marc. ix. b.

* mat. r. viii. c marc. ix. c

* marc. i. c Luce. iiii. b

* mat. r. b. c marc. viii. b
Luce. ix. c
and. r. viii. f

The Gospel

*mafi.rblia. marke.ir.c Zuke.rtil.f

* enarb. r. d.
Euke. r. c
John. r. c

* 9000.11.5

*ttt.1300.1.c

* nat. bill.c *

*Xcui, rri, b.

* 101.132.515.D

1

Enrich, Jr. p. 5

* 1111 1 1111
 1 1111
 1 1111

3

1

10

1

4000

¶ The .x. Chapter. ✠

¶ We sendeth the. lxx. before hym to preache, & spurne them a charge how to bebaue them selues. p. 127. ¶ his heauenly father, auns wereth the. Scrybe that tempted hym, & by the example of the Samaritan. ¶ Writeth who is a mans neighbour. ¶ Martha receyveth the. ¶ We send her home, Mary Magdalene is diligent in hearing his word.

三 prophets & kinges haue despised to se those things which ye se, and haue not sene them and to heare those things whych ye heare, and haue not hearde them.

And beholde, a certayne lawyer stode vp, and tempted hym, sayinge: *Master, what shall I do, to inheret eternall lyfe: he sayde vnto hym: What is wyrtten in the lawe? howe redest thou? And he answered & sayd: The Lord thy God, with all thy hert, & with all thy soule, & with all thy strenght, & with all thy minde: & thy neyghbour as thy selfe. And he sayde vnto hym: Thou hast answered ryght. Thy do & þ shalt lyue. But he wyllynge to iustifye him selfe, sayd vnto Jesus: And who is my neyghboure?

Jesus answered, & sayde: A certayne man descended from Ierusalem to hierico, & fell among theues, which robbed him of his ray-ment, and wounded him, & departed, leuyng hym halfe dead. And it chaunced, that there came downe a certayn prest that same way, & when he saw him, he passed by. And lykewise a leuite, when he wet nye to the place, came, & looked on him, & passed by. But a certaine Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came vnto him: and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him, & wet to, and bounde vp his woundes, & poured oyle & wyne, & set hym on his own beast, & brought hym to a comen ynne, & made prouision for hym. And on the morrow, when he departed, he toke out two pence, & gaue the to the host, and sayd vnto hym: Take cure of hym: & whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come agayn, I wyll recompense the. Whiche nowe of these thre thynkest thou, was neyghbour vnto hym? fel amonge the theues? And he sayd: he that shewed mercy on hym. The sayd Jesus vnto hym: Go, and do thou lyke wyse.

¶ It fortuneth that as they went, he entered into a certayne towne. And a certayne woman, named Martha, receaued hym into her house. And this womā had a syster, called Mary, whych also sat at Jesus feete, and hearde his word. But Martha was cōbryed about much scrupynge, & stode & sayd: Lord, dost thou not care, that my syster hath left me to serue alone? Wych her therfore, that she helpe me. And Jesus answered, & sayd vnto her: Martha, Martha, þ art carefull, & troubled about many thynges, verely one is nede-ful. Mary hath chosyn the good part, which shall not be taken awaye from her.

The. xi. Chapter.

¶ He teacheth his disciples to praye, & to shew out a deuill, and reduceth the blasphemous Iudas. They receyue signes and tokens. He teacheth with þe Iudas, and reuoceth the pprophete of the Pharisees & scribes, and þe Iudas.

¶ And it fortuneth as he was praying in a certayn place: when he cealed one of his disciples sayde vnto hym: Lord, teach vs to praye, as Iohn also taught þys disciples. And he sayde vnto them: when ye praye, saye: *Our father which art in heauen, halowed be thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy will be fulfilled, eue in earth also as it is in heauē. Our daylye breade geue vs this daye. And forgeue vs our synnes.

For euen we forgeue euery man that tres-passeth vs. And leade vs not into tempta-cyon. But deliuer vs from euell.

And he sayde vnto them: *If any of you shall haue a frende, & shall go to him at mydnyght, and saye vnto hym: frende, lende me thre loanes, for a frende of myne is come out of the waye to me, and I haue nothyng to set before hym, and he withyn answer, and saye: trouble me not, the doore is nowe shut, and my chyldre are with me in the chamber I can not ryse, and geue the. I say vnto you though he wyll not aryse, and geue him, because he is his frende: yet because of his im-portunite he wyll ryse, and geue hym as many as he nedeth. And I say vnto you: *Aske, and it shall be geuen you. Seeke, and ye shall fynde: knocke, & it shall be opened vnto you.
For euery one that asketh, receaueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and vnto him that knocketh, shall it be opened. If þe sonne shall aske breade of any of you, that is a father, wil he gyue him a stone? Or if he aske fysh, wil he for fysh geue hym a serpent? Or if he aske an egge, wyll he offer hym a scorpion? If ye then beyng euell, can geue good gyftes vnto your chyldren, howe much more shall your father of heauē geue the holy spere to them that desyre it of hym.

¶ And he was castynge oute a deuell, and þe same was domme. And when he had cast out þe deuell, þe domme spake, & the people wondred. But some of them sayd: *he casteth oute deuels thowowe Beelzebub the chefe of the deuels. And other tempted hym and requyred of hym a sygne from heauen.
But he knowynge they thought, sayd vnto them: Euery kyngdome deuiled agaynst it selfe, is desolate: and one house doth fall vpon another. If Satan also, be deuyded a-gaynst hym selfe, howe shall his kyngdom endure? Because ye say, that I cast oute deuels thowowe Beelzebub. If I, by the helpe of Beelzebub cast out deuels, by whose helpe do poure chyldren cast them oute? Therfore shall they be poure iudges. But if I, by the the synger of God cast out deuels, no doubte the kyngdome of God is come vpon you.

¶ When a stronge man armed, watcheth his house, þe thynges that he posselleth are in peace. But whe a stronger then he commeth vpo hym, and ouercommeth hym, he taketh from hym all his harnes (wherin he trusted) & deuydeth þys goodes. he that is not with me, is agaynst me. And he that gathered not with me, scattereth abroode.

¶ When

*marke. vi. b

B

*mat. xii. a.
Iohn. xvi. f.
Iacob. i. a.

*mat. ix. b marke. vii. b.

*mat. ix. b marke. iii. b

*mat. xii. c

The Gospell

* Mat. xii. d

* When the vnclene sprete is gone oute of a man, he walketh throughe dyre places, le- kynge reste. And when he fyndeth none, he sayeth: I wil retorne agayne vnto my house wher I came out. And when he cometh, he fyndeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he and taketh to hym leue other spretes worse then hym selfe, and they enter in, and dwell there. And the ende of that ma is worse then the begynnynge.

And it fortuned, that as he spake these thinges, a certayne womā of the company lyfte vp her voyce, and sayd vnto him: happye is the wombe that bare the, & pappes whych gaue the sucke. But he sayd: Yee, happy are they that heare the word of God, & kepe it.

¶ When the people were gathered thynke to gether, he began to say: This is an euill nacyon, * they seke a sygne, and there shall no sygne be geuē them, but the sygne of Jonas p̄ prophete. For as Jonas was a sygne to the Ninuites, so shall also the sonne of man be to this naciō. ¶ The queene of the South shall r̄se at the iudgement, with the men of this naciō, & condemne them: for she came from the v̄most partes of the earth, to hear p̄ wyddom of Salomō. And behold, a greater then Salomon is here. The mē of Ninie shall r̄se at the iudgement with this nacyon, and shall condemne them: for they were broughte to repentauce, by the preaching of Jonas. And behold, a greater then Jonas is here.

* Mat. xii. e

* Mar. xii. b

* Iohn. vi. d

* Jonas. ii. c

* Iff. Ireg. x. a

* Para. ii. a

* Mat. xii. b

¶ * No man lyghteth a candell, and putteth it in a p̄eupe place, nether vnder a bushell, but on a candellstycke, that they which come in, maye se p̄ lyght. ¶ The lyght of the body, is the eye. Therefore when thyn eye is synge, all thy body also shall be full of lyght. But yf thyn eye be euill, thy body also shall be full of darknes. Take hede therfore, that the lyght whych is in the, be not darkened. ¶ If all thy body therfore be cleare, haupng no part darke, the shall it all be full of light, euen as whē a candell doeth lyght the wyth byghtnes.

* Mat. xii. b

* Mar. xii. b

* Luke. xii. c

* Mat. xii. c

¶ And as he spake, a certayne Pharise besoughte hym to dyne wyth hym, and Iesus went in, and sate downe to meate. When p̄ Pharise sawe it, he maruailed, that he had not fyrst washed before dynen.

* Mat. xxiii. c

¶ And p̄ Lorde sayd vnto him: * Now do ye pharises, make cleane the out syde of the cup, and the platter, but your inward parte is full of rauenyng and wyckednes. Ye fooles, dyd not he (that made that which is without) make p̄ which is within also? Neuerthelesse, * geue almosse of that ye haue, and behode, all thinges are cleane vnto you. ¶ But wo vnto you Pharises, for ye tythe mynt and rewe, & all manner herbes, and passe ouer iudgemente and the loue of God. These ought ye to haue

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xxiii. c

done, and yet not to leaue the other v̄ndone.

¶ Wo vnto you Pharises, for ye loue the vppermoste seates in p̄ synagoges, and gretinges in the market. ¶ Wo vnto you Scribes and Pharises: ye p̄pocrites, for ye are as graues which appeare not, and the mē that walke ouer them, are not ware of them.

¶ The answered one of the laweares, and said vnto him: Master, thus sayinge, thou puttest vs to rebuke also. And he sayd: * Wo vnto you also ye laweares: for ye lade mē with burthens, whych they be not able to beare, and ye pour selues touch not p̄ packes wyth one of youre fyngers: ¶ Wo vnto you, * ye buyde the sepulchres of the Prophetes, and youre fathers kylled them, truly ye beare wytnes, that ye allowe the dedes of youre fathers, for they kylled them, & ye buyde their sepulchres. ¶ Therfore sayde the wyddome of God: * I will sende them Prophetes and Apostles, and some of them they shall slaye, and persecute: that p̄ bloude of all Prophetes (whiche is shed from the begynnynge of the world) maye be requyred of thys generacyon, from the bloude of * Abel, vnto the bloude of zachary, whych perished betwene the aulter and the temple. Verely I saye vnto you: it shall be requyred of thys nacyon.

¶ Wo vnto you laweares: for ye haue taken awaye the kepe of knowledge, ye entred not in your selues, and them that cam in, ye forbade. ¶ When he thus spake vnto them, the laweares and p̄ Pharises began to were busse aboute hym, and capciouly to aske him many thinges, layenge wayte for hym, and sekynge to catche some thynge, oute of his mouth, wherby they myght accuse hym.

¶ The. xii. Chapter. ¶

¶ The leuen of the Pharises. Christe comforteth his disciples agaynst persecuciō, warneth them to beware of couctousnes, by the similitude of a certayne ryche man, he wil not haue the co hangen vpon earthely thynges, but to watche, and to be readye agaynst his comynge.

¶ So there gathered to gether an innumerable multitude of people (in so muche that they trode one another) he beganne to say vnto his disciples: fyyste of all * beware of the leue of the Pharises, which is ypocryse. ¶ For there is nothyng coucted, that shall not be v̄coucted: nether hyd that shall not be knowen. ¶ For what thinges ye haue spokē in darkenes, shall be heard in p̄ lyght. And that whych ye haue spoken into the eare, euen in secrete places, shall be preached on the toppe of the houses. ¶ I saye vnto you my frendes, be not afrayed of them that kyll the bodye, and after that haue nomore, that they can do. But I will shewe you, whom ye shall feare. Feare him, whiche

* Mat. xii. d

* Mar. xii. b

* Iohn. vi. d

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

* Mat. xii. c

* E. sa. Ivi. b

whiche after he hath kyled hath power to cast into hell. Yee, I say vnto you: fear him.
Are not fyue sparowes bought for two farthynges? And not one of the is forgotten of God. Also euē the very heeres of your heade are all nombred. Feare not therfore: ye are more of value then many sparowes.

I say vnto you: euery one: whosoever con-fesseth me before men, hym shall the sonne of man knowledge also before the aungelles of God. And he that denyeth me before me, shall be denyed before the angels of God. And who soeuer speaketh a word against the sonne of man, it shall be forgiven hym. But vnto hym that blasphemeth the holy goost, it shall not be forgiven. When they bypunge you vnto the synagoges, and vnto the rulers, and officers, take ye no thought, howe, or what they shall answer, or what ye shall speake.
For the holy goost shall teach you in the same houre, what ye ought to saye.

¶ One of the company sayde vnto hym: Master, speake to my brother, that he deuid the inheritaunce with me. And he sayde vnto him: Man, who made me a iudge, or a deuider, ouer you? And he sayde vnto them: take hede, & beware of couetousnes. For no mā lyfe standeth in the boundaunce of the thyn-gys which he possesseth. And he put forth the a similitude vnto the, sayinge: The grounde of a certayn ryche man brought forth plenty full frutes, and he thought within him self, sayinge: What shall I do: because I haue no rowme where to bestow my frutes? And he sayde: This wyll I do. I wyll destroye my barnes, and buylde greater, and therein wyll I gather all my goodes that are growen vnto me, and I wyll saye to my soule: Soule, thou hast much goodes layed vp in store for many yeres, take thy ease, eate, drinke be merry. But God sayde vnto him: Thou foole, this nyght wyl they fetch awaye thy soule agayne from the. Then whose shall those thynges be, whych thou hast prouy-ded. So is it with him that gathereth ryches to hym selfe, and is not ryche toward God.

And he spake vnto his disciples: Therfore I say vnto you. Take no thought for your lyfe, what ye shall eate: neyther for the body what ye shall put on. The lyfe is more then meate, and the bodye is more then rayment.
Consider the rauens, for they neyther sowe nor reape, which nether haue stoor house nor barn, and God feedeth them. Howe much are ye better then feathered foules?

¶ Which of you (with his takyng thought) can add to his stature one cubyte? If ye the be not able to do that thyng which is least: why take ye thought for the remnaunt? Consider the lyllys howe they growe. They laboure not, they spynn not: and yet I say vnto you, that Salomon in all his royaltie, was not clothed lyk one of these.

¶ If God so clothe the grasse (whiche is to dawe in the felde, and to morowe is cast into the fornaice) how muche more will he clothe you, O ye of lytle fayth? And aske not ye what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drynke, neither clyme ye vp an hyle: for all suche thynges do the heathen people of the world seke for. Your father knoweth, that ye haue nede of suche thynges. Wherefore I sear ye after the kingdome of God, & all these thynges shall be ministred vnto you. ¶ Feare not lyttell stock, for it is your fathers pleasure, to geue you the kingdome. Sell ye that haue, and geue almes. And prepare your bagges, whych were not olde, euen a treasure, that fayleth not in heauen, where no thefe commeth, neyther mothe corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there wil your herte be also.

¶ Let you loynes be gerde aboute, & your lyghtes brennyng: (in your handes) & ye pour selues lyke vnto men, that wapte for the Lorde, when he wyll retorne from the weddyng: that whan he commeth and knocketh they may open vnto him immediatly. Hap-pye are those seruantes, whome the Lorde (when he commeth) shall fynde wakinge.
¶ Verely I saye vnto you, that he shall geue hym selfe, and make them to lytte downe to meate, and walke by, & minister vnto them.
And if he come in the seconde watch, yee, if he come in the thyrde watch, and fynd them so, happy are those seruantes. This vnderstande, yf the good man of the house knew what houre the thefe wolde come, he wolde surely watch, and not suffre his house to be broken up. ¶ Be ye therfore ready also, for the sonne of mā wyl come at an houre when ye thynke not.

¶ Peter sayde vnto hym: Master, tellest thou this similitude vnto vs, or to all men?
And the Lorde sayd: who is a faythfull and wyle stwarde, whom his lord shall make ruler ouer his housholde, to geue them theyr duety of meat in due season? happy is that seruaunt, whome his lord shall fynde so cometh, shall fynde so doynge. Of a trueth I saye vnto you that he wyll make him ruler ouer all that he hath. But and if the seruaunt saye in his herte: My Lord wyll deferre his com-yng (and shall begynne to smytte seruantes and maydens, & to eate and drynke, and to be dronken) the lord of that seruaunt wyl come in a dawe whē he thynketh not, and at an houre, whan he is not ware, & wyl hewe him in peces, and geue him his reward with the vnbelievers.

¶ The seruaunt that knewe his masters wyll, and prepared not hym selfe, neyther dyd acordyng to his wyll, shall be beaten with many ¶ Mat. vi. 19.

¶ Tim. vi. 17.
¶ Eccl. xxi. 12.
¶ 1. Pet. i. 17.

¶ Mat. xix. 21.
¶ Mark. x. 21.

¶ Mat. vi. 19.
¶ 1. Tim. vi. 17.
¶ Eccl. xxi. 12.
¶ 1. Pet. i. 17.

¶ Mat. xxi. 12.
¶ and. xxi. 12.
¶ Mark. xxi. 12.

¶ Mat. xxi. 12.
¶ Mark. xxi. 12.

¶ 1. Pet. i. 17.

¶ Mat. xxi. 12.

¶ 1. Pet. i. 17.

The Gospell

many stryppes. But he that knewe not, and dyd commytte thinges worthe of stryppes, shalbe beaten wpyth fewe stryppes. For vnto whom so euer muche is geuen, of him shalbe much required, and to whom men haue commytted much, of him wpyll they aske y more.

I am come to sende fyre on earthe, & what is my desyre, but that it were already kyndled: For withstādyng I must be * baptised with a baptyne: and how am I payned, tyl it be ended: * Suppose ye, that I am come to sende peace on earthe: I tell you naye, but rather diuision. For fro hence forth there shalbe fyre in one house diuided, thre agaynst two, and two agaynst thre. The father shalbe diuided agaynst the sonne, and the sonne agaynst the father. The mother agaynst y doughter, and the doughter agaynst y mother. The mother in law agaynst hy: doughter in law, & the doughter in law, agaynst hy: mother in law.

He sayde also to the people: * When ye se a clond ryle out of the west, straght wape ye say: ther cometh a shower, and so it is. And when ye se the south wynd blowe, ye saye: it wyll be hote, and it cometh to passe. Ye ppoctres, ye can discerne the outwarde apperance of the skye and of the earth: but how happeneth it, y ye can not sayll of this tyme: Per, & why iudge ye not of your selues what is ryght?

* When thou goest with thyne aduersary to the ruler, as thou art in the wape, geue diligence that thou mayest be deliuered from hym, lest he bypnyng the to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer the to the saylar, and y saylar cast the into prison. I tell the, thou shalt not departe thence, tyl thou haue made good y vtmost myte.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

Of the Galileans whom Pilate slew, and of those that dyed in synne. The similitude of the figge tree. Christ healeth the speche woman. The parable of the mustarde seede and leuen. Fewe enter into the kyngdom, Christ reprooueth Herode and Jerusalem.

Here wer present at y sam season, certayne men that shewed hym of the Galyleans, whose bloude Pilate had myngled w their own sacrifice. And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them: Suppose ye that these * Galyleas were greater synners then all the other Galyleans, because they suffered such punishment: I tel you naye: but except ye repent: ye shal all lyke wyle perishe. Or those. xviij. vpo which the towre in Siloe fell, and slewe them, thynke ye that they were synners aboue all me that dwelt in Jerusalem: I tell you naye: But except ye repent ye shal all lyke wyle perishe.

¶ He tolde also this similitude: a certayn man had a figge tree planted in his vyneyard, and he came, and sought frute thereon, and found none. Then sayd he to the dyeller of hys vyneparde: beholde, thys thre yere haue I com, and sought frute in thys figge tree, and fynde none: cut it downe, why com byeth it the ground: and he answered & sayd vnto him: Lorde, let it alone thys yere also, tyl I dygge rounde about it, and donge it, to se whether it wyl beare frute: & yf it beare not then, after that shalt thou cut it downe. And he taught in one of their synagoges on the Sabboth dayes. And behold, there was a woman, whiche had a spere of infirmitie. xviij. yeres, and was bowed together, and coulde in no wyle lyfte vp her heade. When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, & sayde vnto her: Woman, thou arte deliuered from thy disease. And he layd his handes on her, & immediatly, she was made straighe, & glorified God. And y ruler of the Synagoge answered with indignacyon (because y Iesus had healed on the Sabboth daye) and sayde vnto the people: There are. vi. dayes, in whiche men ought to worke, in them come, that ye may be healed, and not on the Sabboth daye.

But the Lorde answered hym, and sayde: Thou ypocrite, dothe not eche one of you on the Sabboth daye * loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade hym to the water: And ought not this doughter of Abraham, whom Satā hath bound (lo. xviij. yeres) be loosed from thys bonde on the Sabboth daye: And when he thus sayd, all his aduersaries were ashamed, and all y people reioysed on all the excellēt dedes, that were done by hym.

Then sayde he: what is the kyngdome of God lyke: or wherto shal I compare it: * It is lyke a grayne of mustarde seede, whiche a man toke, and sowed in hys garden: and it grewe and waxed a greute tree, and the fowles of the ayre made nestes in the bryanches of it.

And agayne he sayde: where vnto shal I lyken the kyngdome of God: * It is lyke leuen, whiche a woman toke, and hyd in three peckes of meale, tyl all was leuened. And he went thorow all cyties and townes, teachinge and sojorneyng towarde Jerusalem. Then sayde one vnto hym: Lorde, are there fewe that be sauēd: And he sayd vnto hym: I saye vnto you: ye wyl seke to enter in, & shal not be able. When the good mā of the house is rylen vp, and hath shut to the doze, and ye begynne to stande wthoute, and to knocke at y doze, saying: Lorde, Lorde, open vnto vs, & he shal answer, & saye vnto you, (I knowe you not whence ye are.) ¶ The shal ye begyn to say: we haue eaten & dronken in thy presence, & thou hast taught in our stretes. And he shal saye: I tell you, I knowe you not

Whiche of you disposed to buylde a towre, setteth not downe before, and counteth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to perforce it: lest after he hath layd the foundacion, and is not able to perforce it, all þe beholde it, begynne to mocke hym, sayinge: this man beganne to buylde, & was not able to make an ende.

The Gospell

¶ An ende? What king goinge to make bap-tisme agaynst another kynge, setteth not downe fyrst, and casteth in his mynde, whether he be able with ten thousande, to mete hym, that cometh agaynst him with .xx. thousande? Or els whyle the other is yet a great waye of, he sendeth ambassatours, & despyeth peace. So lykwys, who so euer he be of you, & forsaketh not all & he hath, he can not be my dysciple. ¶

* Math. v. b
* Marke. ix. g.

* Salt is good, but yf salt haue losse the saltnes, what shalbe seasoned ther w? It is neyther good for the lande, nor yet for the donge hill, but men cast it oute at the doores.
He that hath eares to heare, let hym heare.

The .xv. Chapter. ¶

¶ The lowngre merce of God is openly set forth in the parable of the hundreth shepe, and of the sonne that was lost.

* Math. ix. b
* Luke. b. f

¶ Then resorted vnto him *all & publicanes and synners, for to heare hym. And the Pharises & scribes murmured, sayenge: He receaueth synners, and eateth with them. But he put forth this parable vnto them, sayenge:

* Mat. xliii. b

* What mā of you hauyng an hundred shepe (yf he lose one of the) doth not leaue nynty & nyne in the wilderness, & go after & whiche is lost, vntill he fynde it? And whan he hath found it, he layeth it on his shulders w ioye.
And asson as he cometh home, he calleth to gether his louers & neyghbours, sayeng vnto the: Reioyce with me, for I haue founde my shepe, which was lost. I saie vnto you, that likewyse ioye shalbe in heauē ouer one synner that repenteth, more the ouer nynty and nyne iuste persons, which nede no repetaunce. Cyther what woman (hauyng ten grotes, yf she lose one) doth not lyght a can-dell, and swepe the house, and seke diligently tyll she fynde it? And whan she hath founde it, she calleth her louers & her neyghbours together, sayenge: Reioyce wyth me, for I haue found y grote which I had lost. Lykewys I saie vnto you, that ther be ioye in & presence of & anngels of God ouer one synner * that repenteth. ¶

* Luke. b. f

¶ And he sayd: A certayne man had two sonnes, and the younger of them sayd vnto the father: father, geue me the porcyon of & goodes, & to me belongeth. And he deuided vnto them his substance. And not lōge after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all that he had together, he tok his iorney into a farre countrey, & ther he wasted his goodes with riotous lyuing. And whā he had spent all, there arose a great derty in all & lande, and he began to lack, & went, and came to a citezen of the same countrey, & he sent him to hys farme, to kepe swyne. And he wolde sayne haue fylled hys bely wyth & coddys & the swyne dōd eate: & no mā gaue vnto him

* Jo. xxi. a

¶ The he came to him selfe, and sayd: howe many byrd seruantes at my fathers haue breed ynough? and I perishe wyth hōger. I wyl arysle, & go to my father, and wyl saie vnto him: father, I haue sinned agaynst heauen & before &, & am no more worthy to be called thy sonne, make me as one of thy byred seruantes. And he arose, & cam to hys father. ¶ But when he was yet a greete waye of, his father sawe him and had compassiō, and ranne, & fell on his necke and kissed him.
And the sonne sayd vnto him: father, I haue sinned agaynst heauen, and in thy sight, & am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.
But the father sayd to his seruantes: bring forth the best garmente, and put it on him, & put a ryng on hys hande, and shoes on hys fete. And bynge hyther that fat caulfe, and kylle it, and let vs eate and be merce: for this my sonne was dead, and is alpye agayn, he was lost, and is founde. And they began to be merce. The elder brother was in the feld: and whan he came & dyuwynt to the house, he heard mynstrelsy and dauncyng, & called one of his seruantes, and asked, what those thynges mente. And he sayd vnto him: thy brother is come, & thy father hath kylled the fat caulfe, because he hath receaued him safe and founde. And he was angrye, and wolde not go in. The came hys father out, and entreated him. He answered and sayd to his father: Lo, these many yeaeres haue I done the scrupce, neyther brake at any tyme thy commaundment, and yet gauest thou me neuer a kid to mak merce wyth my feldes: but asson as this thy sonne was come (which hath de-uoured thy goodes with harlotes) thou hast for his pleasure kylled the fat caulfe. And he sayd vnto him: Sonne, thou arte euer wyth me, & all that I haue, is thynne: it was merce that we shulde make merce and be glad, for this thy brother was deade, and is alpye a-gayne: and was lost, and is founde. ¶

The .xvi. Chapter. ¶

¶ The parable of the wycked mammon. Not one tye of Gods wyrd shall perishe. Of the ryche man: and of the poore Lazarus.

¶ And he sayde also vnto his disciples. ¶ Ther was a certayne ryche man, whiche had a ste-warde, and the same was accused vnto him that he had wasted his goodes. And he called hym, and sayd vnto hym: howe is it, that I heare this of the?
Geue accōptes of thy stewardshyppe. For thou mayest be no longer steward. The ste-warde sayde wythin him selfe: what shall I do, for my master taketh away from me the stewardshyp? I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed. I wot what to do, that wyl I am put out of the stewardshyp, they maye receaue me into theyr houses.

¶ So whan

So whan he had called all his masters together, he sayd vnto þe fyrst: howe much owest thou vnto my master? And he sayd: an hundred tonnes of oyle. And he sayd vnto him: take thy byll: & syt downe quickely, and wypte fyfthe. Then sayd he to another: howe much owest thou? And he sayd: an hundred quarters of wheate. he sayd vnto him: Take thy byll, & wypte foure scoore.
And the Lord commended the iustste stewarde, because he had don wysely. For þe children of this world are in theyr nacyon, wylthen the children of lycht. And I saye vnto you: make you frendes of þe vnrightheous Wammon, that when ye shal haue neede, they may receaue you into euery lastynge habitations. ¶

¶ He that is saythfull in that whiche is least, is saythfull also in muche. And he þe vnrightheous in the least: is vnrightheous also in much. So then, yf ye haue not be sayth-full in þe vnrightheous Wammon, who will belene you in that whiche is true? And yf ye haue not bene saythfull in another mannes business, who shal geue you þe which is your owne? ¶ No seruaunt can serue two masters: for ether he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to þe one, & despyse the other. Ye can not serue God & Wammon.
All these thinges hearde the Pharises also,
which were couetous, and they mocked him.
And he sayd vnto them: Ye are they whiche murther your selues before me: but God knoweth your hertes. For that which is hyghly esteemed among men, is abhominable in the syght of God. ¶

¶ The lawe and the Prophetes raygned vntill John, and sence that tyme, the kyngdome of God is preached, and euery man stryueth to go in. ¶ Calper is it for heauen and earth to peryshe, then one tytle of the lawe to faile. ¶ Who so ever forsaketh his wyfe, and marryeth another, commytteth a badou-tye. And he whiche marryeth her that is deuoyed from her husbande, commytteth ad-nourtye also.

¶ Ther was a certayne ryche man, whych was clothed in purple and fyne whyte, and lured deliciously euery daye. And there was a certayne begger, named Lazarus, whiche laye at his gate full of sores, desirynge to be mashed with the cromes, whych fell fro þe ryche mans boorde. ¶ (and no man gaue vnto hym.) The dogges came also, and licked his sores.
And it fortuneth, that the begger dyed, and was carryed by the aungels into Abrahams bosome. The ryche man also dyed, and was buried.

And beyng in hell in tormentes, he lyste by his eyes, and sawe Abraham a farre of, and Lazarus in his bosome, and he cryed & sayd: father Abraham, haue mercye on me, & send Lazarus, that he maye dyppe þe tippe of his finger in water, and cole my toge: for I am tormented in this flame. ¶ But abraham sayde: Sonne, * remember that thou in thy lyfe tyme, receauedst thy pleasure, and cotra-ryt wyse, Lazarus receaued payn. But now is he comforted, and thou arte punished.

Beyond all this, betwene vs and you there is a greatespace set, so þe they whych wolde go fro hence to you, can not: neyther maye come from thence to vs.

Then he sayd: I praye the therfore father, sende him to my fathers house. (For I haue fyue brythren) for to warne them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham sayd vnto hym: they haue Moses and the Prophetes, let them heare them. And he sayd: naye father Abraham, but yf one com-vnto them from the dead, they wil repent.
He sayd vnto hym: Yf they hear not Moses and the Prophetes, neyther wil they beleue thought one rose from death agayne. ¶

¶ The xxij. Chapter.

¶ Christe teacheth his disciples to ouercome ocrasions of euill, one to forgyue another, and faste to tride in God, and no man to presume in his owne works. He healeth the ten lepers, speaketh of the latter dayes and of the ende of the world.

¶ He sayde vnto the disciples: it can not be, but offences wyll come.
¶ Neuerthelesse, * wo vnto hym, thowoe whome they come. ¶ It were better for hym, that a mylstone were hanged about his neck, & he cast into the see, then that he shuld offend one of these lytle ones. Take hede to your selues.
¶ Yf thy brother trespas agaynst þe, rebuke hym: and yf he repent, forgyue hym. And thoughe he synne agaynst the seuē tymes in a daye, and seuen tymes in a daye tourne a-gayne to the, sayinge: it repenteth me, thou shal forgyue hym.

And the Apostles sayde vnto the Lord: in creas our sayth. And the Lord sayde: ¶ Yf ye had sayth lyke a grayne of mustard seede, and shulde saye vnto this Syccampne tree, plucke thy selfe vp by the rootes: and plante thy selfe in the see, it shulde obey you.

¶ Who is it of you, yf he hadde a seruaunte plowynge or fedynge catell, that wyll saye vnto him when he cometh from the felde: Go quickly, & syt downe to meat, and sayth not rather vnto him, dyse, wderst I maye sup, and gyd vp thy selfe, and serue me, tyll I haue eaten and dronken: and afterwarde eate thou, and dunke thou? Woth he thanke that seruaunt, because he dyd þe thynges that were commaunded vnto him? I trowe not.
So lykwysle ye, whan ye haue done all those thinges which are commaunded you, saye: we are vnprofitable seruauntes. We haue done, that which was our duty to do.
¶ And it chaunced as he wnt to Jerusalem, that he

* Sala. vi. a.

* mat. xxiij. a ¶ Marke. ix. f

* mat. xxiij. c ¶ Luc. xxi. d ¶ Eccle. ix. b

* mat. xxiij. b ¶ Luc. xxi. c. j

The Gospell

that he passed thorow Samaria & Galile. And as he entred into a certayne town, ther met hym ten men that were lepers. Whych stode a farr of, & put forth theyr voyces, & sayd: Jesu master, haue mercey on vs. Whe he sawe them, he sayde vnto the: * So thew your selues vnto the prestes. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were clesed. And one of them, wha he sawe that he was clesed, turned backe agayn, & wpth a loude voyce prayesed God, and fell downe on hys face at his fete, and gaue him thanks. And the same was a Samaritan. And Jesus answered, and sayde: are there not ten clesed? But where are those nyne? There are not founde that returned agayne, to gyue God prayse, save only this strainger. And he sayd vnto him: arple, go thy way, thy fayth hath made the whole.

E When he was demaunded of the Pharises, when the kyngdom of God shuld come, he answered them, and sayd: The kyngdom of God shall not come wpth waytyng for, neyther shall they saye, Lo here, Or lo there. For beholde, the kyngdome of God is with in you

And he sayde vnto the disciples: the dayes wyl come, when ye shal desyre to se one daye of the sonne of man, and ye shal not se it.

* And they shall saye to you: He here. He there. So not after them, nor folowe them: for as the lychtynng that appeareth out of the one parte that is vnder heauen, and shyneth vnto the other parte which is vnder heauen, so shall the sonne of man be in his dayes.

* But first must he suffre many thynges & be refused of this nation.

And as it happened in the dayes of Noe: so shall it be also in the dayes of the sonne of man. They dyd eate & drynke, they maryed wyues, and were maryed, euen vnto the same daye that Noe wente into the Arke: and the floude came, and destroyed them all. Lyke wyse also as it chauced in the dayes of Lot. They dyd eate, they dranke, they bought, they solde, they planted, they buylded. But euen the same daye that Lot wente oute of sodom, it rayned wpth fyre and byrmstone from heauen, & destroyed them all. Eue thus shal it be in the daye, when the sonne of man shall appeare.

G At that daye he that is on the house top, and his stuffe in the house: let hym not come down to take it out. And let not him that is in the feld turne backe agayne to the thynges that he lefte behynde. * Remember lottes wyfe. * Whosoever wyl go aboute to saue his lyfe, shall loose it: & whosoever shall lose his lyf, shall saue it. I tell you, in that nyght there shalbe two in one bed, the one shalbe receaued, the other shalbe forsaaken. * Two shalbe agryndynge together: the one shalbe receaued, and the other forsaaken. * (Two in the feld, the one shalbe receaued, and the other forsaaken.) And they answered, and sayd to him: where Lorde? he sayd vnto them: * whersoever the body shalbe, thither wyl also the Egles be gathered together.

The xvij. Chapter.

He teacheth to be fervent in prayer continually. Of the wharpe & the publicane. The kyngdome of God be longerd vnto chyliden. Chyldre answered the ruler, and promysed reward vnto all such as suffer losse for his sake, and folowe hym. The bynde man is referred to his sege.

A And he put forth a parable vnto them, signyfeng that men oughte alwayes to praye, and not to be weery, sayenge: There was in a certayne cytie a iudge, whych feared not God, nether regarded man. And ther was a certayne wydowe in the same cytie, and she came vnto hym, sayng: auenge me of myne aduersary. And he wolde not for a whyle. But afterwarde he sayde within hym selfe: though I fear not God, nor care for man, yet because this wydowe is importune vpon me I wyl auenge her, lest she come at last & raple on me. And the Lorde sayde: heare what the vnrighteous iudge sayeth. And shal not God auenge his electe, whych crye daye and night vnto hym? yee, though he deferre the, I tell you, he wil auenge the, & quickly. * Neuerthelesse, whan the sonne of man cometh, shall he fynde fayth on the earth.

* And he told this parable vnto certayne which trusted in them selues, that they were perfyte, and despyled other. Two men went vnto the temple to praye: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publican. The Pharise stode and prayed thus wpth hym selfe: God, I thanke the, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniuste, aduouterers, or as this Publican. I fast twyse in the weke, I gyue the of all that I possesse. And the Publican standing a farr of, wolde not lyfte vp hys eyes to heauen, but smote vpon hys brest, sayng: God be merciful to me a synner. I tell you, this man departed home to his house iustified, more then the other.

* For euery one that exalteth him selfe, shalbe brought low. And he that humbleth hym selfe, shalbe exalted.

* They brought vnto him also yong chyliden, that he shulde touche them. When hys disciples sawe it, they rebuked them. But Jesus (whan he had called them vnto hym) sayd: Suffre chyliden to come vnto me, and forbyd them not. For of such is the kyngdome of God. Verely I saye vnto you: who so euer receaueth not the kyngdome of God as a chylde, shall not enter therein. * And a certayne ruler asked hym, sayng: good master: what ought I to do, to obayne eternal lyf? Jesus sayd vnto him: Why callest thou me good?

* Lev. xlii. a Mat. vii. a

* Mat. xxi. b
Mat. xxi. c

* Mat. xxi. c
Mat. xxi. d
Mat. xxi. e
Gene. vii. b

* Gene. xxi. f

* Mat. xxi. b

* Gene. xxi. f
Mat. xxi. b
John. vi. b
Luke. ix. c

* Mat. xxi. b
Mat. xxi. b

The xix. Chapter.

Of zachus, and the ten seruantes, to whome the talentes were deliuered. Christ spaketh to Jerusaleme, and wepeth ouer it.

And he entred in, & went thorow Hierico. And beholde ther was a man named zachus, whiche was a ruler amonge the Publi- cans, and was ryche also. And he sought meanes to se Iesus, what he shuld be: and coulde not for the pzeasse, because he was lytle of stature. And he ranne before, & clymed vp into a wyld figge tree, to se hym for he was to come that waye. And whē Iesus came to the place, he lokēd vp and sawe hym, and said vnto hym: zachē, come downe at once, for to day I must abide at thy house. And he came downe hastily, and receaued hym ioyfully. And when they sawe it, they all grudged, saynge: he is gone in to tarpe wth a man that is a synner.

And zachē stode forth, and sayd vnto the Lord: beholde Lord, halfe of my goodes I geue to the pooze: and yf I haue done any man wronge, I restore hym foure folde. Iesus sayd vnto hym: thys dape is health hap- pened vnto thys house, because that he also is become the chyld of Abraham. * For the sonne of man is come to seke, & to saue that whych was lost.

And as they herd these thynges he added thereto a parable, because he was nye to Jerusaleme, and because they thought, that the kyngdome of God shulde shortly appeare. He sayd therfore: * a certayne noble man went into a farrē countre, to receaue hym a kyngdome, and to come agayne. And he cal- led hys ten seruantes, and deliuered them ten pounde, sayenge vnto the: Occuppe tyl I come. But hys cytelings hated hym, & sent a message after hym, sayenge: we wyl not haue thys man to raygne ouer vs.

And it came to passe, that when he had re- ceaued his kyngdome, he returned, & comaū- ded these seruantes to be called vnto hym (to whom he had geuen the money) to wot howe much euery man had done. The came the first, sayeng: Lord, thy poude hath gay- ned ten poude. And he sayd vnto him: wel thou good seruant: because thou hast bene faythfull in a very lytel thyng, haue thou authorite ouer ten cyties. And another cam sayenge: Lord, thy poude hath made fyue pounde. And to the same he sayde: be thou also ruler ouer fyue cyties.

And another came, sayeng: Lord, behold here is thy poude, whiche I haue kept in a naphin: for I feared the, because thou arte a strypte man: thou takest vp that thou lay- dest not downe, & reapest that thou ydddest not sowe. He sayeth vnto hym: * Of thyne is good: None is good, saue God onely.

Ec owne

Thou knowest the comaūdemētes: & Thou shalt not compt aduoutre: & Thou shalt not kyll: Thou shalt not steale, & Thou shalt not beare false witness: honoure thy father and thy mother.

And he sayd: all these haue I kepte from my youth vp. Whē Iesus herde that, he said vnto hym: Yet lackest thou one thyng. * Sell all that thou hast & distribute vnto the pooze, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me. Whē he herd thys, he was sorowful: for he was very ryche.

Whē Iesus saw that he was sorowful, he sayd: how what difficultie shall they that haue many, enter into the kyngdome of God: it is easier for a camell to go thorow a needles eye, then for a ryche mā to enter into the kyng- dome of God. And they that hearde it, sayd: And who can then be saued? And he sayde:

The thynges whych are impossible wth men, are possible wth God.

Then Peter sayd: * Lo, we haue forsake all and folowed the. He sayd vnto them. Ele- uer I save vnto you: ther is no man that hath forsaken house either father or mother, or brethren, or wyfe, or chyldren (for the kyngdome of Goddes sake) whych shall not receaue much moze in this world, and in the world to come, lyfe euerlastyng.

* Iesus toke vnto hym the twelue, and sayd vnto them: * Behold, we go vp to Jeru- salem, & all shall be fulfilled, that are wyrt- ten by the Prophetes, of the sonne of man. For he shall be deliuered vnto the gentylis, & shall be mocked, and spytfully entreated, and lytted on: & when they haue scourged hym they shal put hym to death. * And after thre dayes he shal aryse agayne. * And they vnder- stode none of these thynges. And this sayeng was hyd from them, so that they perceaued not the thynges whych were spoken.

* And it came to passe, & as he was come nye vnto Hierico, a certayne blynde mā sat by the waye syde, beggyng. And when he hearde the people passe by, he asked what it meant. And they sayd vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by. And he cryed, sayeng: Iesus thou sone of Dauid, haue mercy on me. And they whych went before, rebuked hym, that he shulde holde hys peace. But he cryed so much the moze: * thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me. And Iesus stode still, and comaūded hym to be bzought vnto him. And when he was come neare, he asked hym say- eng: what wylte thou that I do vnto the? And he sayd: Lord, that I may receaue my syght. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: receaue thy syght: thy fayth hath saued the. And im- mediately he receyued hys syghte, & folowed hym, prayyng God. And all the people, whē they sawe it, gaue prayse vnto God.

The Gospell

owne mouth, wyl I iudge the, thou couldest uaunt. knewest thou y I am a straye mā, takeinge vpon that I layde not downe, & rea-pyng that I dyd not sowe? And wherfore gauest not thou my money into the bancke, and at my commynge I myght haue requy-red myne owne wyth vauntage?

And he sayd vnto the that stode by: take from hym that posside, and gyue it hym that hath ten pounce. And they sayd vnto hym: Lorde, he hath ten pounce. For I saye vnto you, that vnto euery one whych hath shall be geuen (and he shall haue aboundaunce) & from hym that hath not shall be taken awaye, eue that whych he hath. Moreover, those myne enemies, (whych wolde not that I shoulde raygne ouer them) bypunge hyther, & slee the before me. And when he had thus spoken, he proceeded forth, takyng his iourney, to go vp to Ierusalem. I

And it fortuneth whē he was come nye to Bethphage & Bethany, besydes y mouit whych is called Olivete, he sent two of his disciples, sayeng: go ye into y towne, whych is ouer agaynst you: Into the whych allone as ye are come, ye shall fynde an asse colte tyed, wheron yet neuer mā sat. Loose hym, & bypunge hym hether. And yf any man aske you, why do ye loose hym: thus shal ye saye vnto hym: The Lorde hath nede therof.

They that were sent, went they way, & founde, euen as he had sayd vnto them. And as they were a losyng the colte the owners therof sayd vnto the: why loose ye the colte?
And they sayd: for y Lorde hath nede of hym And they broughte hym to Iesus, and caste they rayment on the colte, & let Iesus theron. And as he wente, they spredde they clothes in the waye.

I And when he was nowe come nye to the gopenge downe of the mount Olivete, the whole multitude of y disciples began to re-ioyce, & to prayse God wyth a loude voyce for all y myracles y they had sene, sayenge: blessed be the kynge that commeth in the name of the Lorde: peace in heauen, and glory in the hyst. And some of the Pharises of the company said vnto him: Master rebuke thy disciples. he sayd vnto them: I tell you, that yf these holde they peace, then shall the stones crye.

And when he was come neare, he be-helde the cytie, and wept on it sayenge: Yf thou haddest knowen those thynges whych belonge vnto thy peace, euen in this thy day, thou wouldest take hede. But nowe are they hydden from thyne eyes. For the dayes shall come vpon the, that thy enemies also shal cast a baie aboute the, & compass the rounde, and kepe the in on euery syde, and make the euen wyth the grounde: and thy chyldren whych are in the. And they shal not leaue in the one stone vpon another because thou knowest not the tyme of thy visitacion.

And he went into the temple, & beganne to cast out them that solde therein, and them that bought, sayeng vnto the: It is wyrtte my houle is y houle of prayer: but ye haue made it a denne of theues: And he taught dayly in the temple. But the hie Priestes & the scribes and the chiefe of the people aboute to destroye hym: & coulde not fynde what to do. For al the people sticke by him when they herde hym.

The xx. Chapter.

There aske Christ one questio, & he askech them another The parable of the vyneparde. Of trespase to be geuen vnto a sinner, & how Christ stoppeth y mouthes of the Saducees, Ad it fortuneth in one of those day-es (as he taught the people in y te-ple and preached the Gospell) the hie Priestes and the scribes came together wyth y elders, and spake vnto him sayenge: Tell vs by what authorite doest thou these thynges: Either who is he y gaue the this authorite? Iesus answered and said vnto them: I also wyl aske you one thyng, and answer me. The baptyme of Ioh: was it from heuen or of me? And they thought in them selues, sayenge: Yf we saye from heauen, he wyl saye: why then beleued ye hym not? But and yf we saye: of men, all the people wyl stone vs. For they be perswaded, y John is a Prophete. And they answered, y they coulde not tell whence it was. And Jesus sayd vnto the: nether tell I yon, by what authorite I do these thynges.

Then beganne he to put forth to y people this parable. A certayne man planted a vyneparde, & let it forth to husbandmē, and wente hym selfe into a straunge countre for a great season. And whē the tyme was come he sent a seruauit to the husbandmen, that they shoulde gyue him of the frute of the vineparde. And they bet hym, & sent hym awaye emptye. And agayne, he sent yet another seruauit. And hym they dyd beat, and entrea-ted hym shamefully, and sente hym awaye emptye. Agayne, he sente the thyrd also, & hym they wounded, and cast hym out. Then sayd the Lorde of the vyneparde: what shal I do? I wyl sende my deare sonne: perad-uenture they wyl stode in awe of hym, whē they se hym.

But when the husbandmē sawe hym, they thought within them selues, sayeng: this is the heyre, come, let vs kyl him, that the enheritance maye be oures. And they cast him out of the vyneparde, and kylled him. What shal the Lorde of the vyneparde therfore do vnto them? he shal come, and destroye these husbandmen, and shal let out his vynepard to other. When they hearde this, they sayd: God forbid.

And he behelde them, and sayde: what is this

* Mat. xxi. b
and. xxi. c

* Marke. xii. c Luce. xix. c

* Mat. xxi. c Marke. xi. a

* Mat. xxi. a
Mat. xi. a

* Mat. xxi. b Luce. xxi. g
and. xxi. b Marke. xi. b
John xxi. b
Ioh. xxi. b

* Abac. i. c

* John. xi. a

* Yere. lii. a
Mat. xxi. a

* Mat. xxi. a Luce. xxi. a thys then that is wyrtten: * the stone that the buylders refused, the same is become the head of the corner: Whosoever doth stonble upon that stone, shalbe broken: but on who ouer it falleth, it wyll grynde hym to pow der. And the hye prestes and the scrybes the same houre wente aboute to laye handes on hym. * And they feared the people. For they perceaued that he had spoke thys similitude agaynst them.

And they watched hym, & sent forth spyes whych shuld sayne the selues rygheous me, to take hym in hys wordes, and to deliuer hym vnto the power & authorite of p debite And they asked hym, sayenge: Master, we knowe p thou sayest and teachest ryght, ne ther conydest p the outwarde apparell of anyma, but teachest p wape of God tru th. Is it lawfull for vs to geue tpybute vnto Cesar, or no? he perceaued they craftynes, & sayd vnto the: * why tempt ye me? Shew me a peny, whose ymage and superscrip tion it is: They answered and sayd: Cesar.
And he sayd vnto them: geue then vnto Ce sar, the thynges whych belonge vnto Cesar and to God the thynges that pertaine vnto God. And they coulde not reppone hys say enge before the people: and they maruailed at hys answere, and helde they peace.

Then * came to hym certayne of the Sa duces, & whych denye p there is any resur rection. And they asked him sayeng: * Ma ster Moyses wrote vnto vs, p any mannes brother dye hauninge a wyfe, & he dye wyth out chyldren, p then hys brother shulde take hys wyfe, and rapse vp seede vnto hys bro ther. Ther were therfore seuen brythre, and the fyrst toke a wyfe, & dyed wythout chy ldren. And the seconde toke her, and he dyed chyldlesse. And the thyrde toke her: and in her wyfe the resydue of the seuen, & lefte no chyldren behynde them, and dyed. Last of al the woman dyed also. Nowe in the resurrec tion, whose wyfe of them shal she be: For seuen had her to wyfe.

Jesus answered and sayd vnto the. The chyldren of this worlde mary wyues, & are maryed: but they whych shalbe soured wor thy of that worlde and the resurrection fro p dead, do not mary wyues, nether are ma ryed, nor yet can dye any more, for they are equall vnto the angels, and are * the sonnes of god, in as much as they are chyldre of the resurrection. And p the dead shal rise againe: Moyses also sheweth besydes the bushe: wh he calleth: the Lorde, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac, and p God of Jacob.
For he is not a God of dead, but of lyuynge for all lyue vnto hym. Then certayne of the pharises answered, and sayde: Master, thou hast well sayde. And after that durst they not aske hym any question at all.

And he sayd vnto the: * howe saye they p Christ is Dauids sonne? And Dauid hym selfe sayeth in p boke of the psalmes: * The Lorde sayd vnto my Lorde: syt thou on my ryght hande tyll I make thyn enemyes thy fote stole. Dauid therfore calleth him Lorde: and how is he then hys sonne?

Then in the audience of all the people, he sayde vnto hys disciples: * beware of p scri bes, whych wyll go in longe clothynge: and loue greetynge in the markets, & the best seates in the synagoges, and the chiefe row mes at feastes, whych deuoure wyddowes houles saynyng longe prayes: the same shal receaue greater dampnation.

¶ The. xxi. Chapter.

¶ Christ sheweth the poore wyddowe, scilicet of the destruction of Iherusalem, of false teachers, of the colles and troubles for to come, of the ende of the worlde, and of hys owne commynge.

¶ He behelde, * he sawe t he ryche me, which cast in they offerynge vnto p treasury. he sawe also a cer tayne poore wyddowe, whych cast in thyrther two mites. And he said: of a trouth I saye vnto you, * that thys poore wyddow hath put in more then they all. For they all haue of they superfluite added vnto the of ferynge of God: but she, of her penury hath cast in all the substance that she had.

And vnto some that spake of the temple how it was garnysed wyth goodly stone & and Jewels, he sayd: * The dayes wyl come in the which (of these thynges whych ye se) there shal not be lefte one stone vpon ano ther, p shal not be throwe downe. And they asked him sayeng: Master, when shal these thynges be, & what sygne wyl ther be when such thynges shal come to passe?

And he sayd: * take heede, that ye be not de ceaued. For many shal come in my name, & saye that they are Christ: and the tyme draw eth nere. folowe ye not them therfore.
But when ye heare of warres and sedicions be not afraied. For these thynges must first come to passe, but the ende foloweth not by and by. Then sayde he vnto them: * Nacion shal ryle agaynst nacion, and kyngdome a gaynst kyngdome, and greute earthquakes shal be in all places, and honger, and pestilence & fearfull thynges. And greute sygnes shal ther be from heauen.

But before al these, * they shal laye hādes on you, and persecute you, deliuerynge you vp to the synagoges & into pylons, and shal byngne you vnto kinges & rulers for my na mes sake. And thys shal chaunce you for a te stimoniā. Be at a sure poynt therfore in poure hertes, not to stude before, what ye shal answer: for * I wyl gyue you a mouth & wyldome, wher agaynst, al pour aduers e ii saries

The Gospell

The .xxii. Chapter. ✠

* Actes. vi. c
* Mat. xxi. b

caries: shall not be able to speake nor resyst. Forcower ye shalbe betrayed of poure fathers & mothers & brethren, & kynnsfolke & frendes, & some of you shall they put to death. And hated shal ye be of al me for my names sake & ther shal not one here of your brade perpythe. Possesse ye your soule by patience.

* Mat. xxii. b
* Mark. xii. b
* Dan. ix. g

✠ And when ye se Jerusalem beseged with an host, then be sure that the desolacion of the same is nye. Then let them whych are in Jewye, fflye to the mountaynes. And let the which are in the myddest of it, departe out. And let not them yare in other countreys, enter therein. For these be the dayes of vengeance, that al thynges which are wyrtte maye be fulfilled. But wo vnto them that be wyth chylde, & to them that gyue sucke in those dayes: for there shalbe greute trouble in the lande, & wrath ouer all thys people. And they shal fall thowowe the edge of the swearde, and shalbe led awaye captiue into all nations. And Jerusalem shalbe troden downe of the gentils, vntyl the tyme of the gentyls be fulfilled.

* i. Thes. ii. b

* Mat. xxiii. c
* Mark. xii. c
* Joel. ii. c
* Eze. xxxviii. f

✠ And ther shalbe sygnes in y Sonne, and in the Moone, and in the starres: and in the erth: the people shalbe at they wyrttes ende, thowowd by spayre. The see and the water shal roar, and meynes hertes shal fayle them for feare, and for lokynge after those thynges whych shal come on the earth. For the powers of heauen shal moue. And then shal they se the sonne of ma come in a cloud wyth power and great gloire. When these thynges begynne to come to passe: then loke vp, and lyfte vp your heades, for your redemption draweth nye.

* Mat. xxiii. c
* Mark. xii. c

✠ And he shewed the a similitude: behold the fygge tree, and all the trees, when they shote forth they buddes ye se and knowe of your owne selues that somer is then nye at hande. So lykwysle ye also (when ye se these thynges come to passe) be sure, that y kyngdome of God is nye. Verely I saye vnto you: thys generacion shal not passe, tyll all be fulfilled. heauen and earth shal passe but my wordes shal not passe.

* Eccl. xxi. c
* and. xxxviii. b
* Roma. xii. b

✠ take hede to your selues lest at any tyme your hertes be overcome wyth surfetyng and dronkenes and cares of thys lyfe, and so the daye come vpon you vnwares. For as a snare shall it come on al them that dwel on the face of the whole earth: wach ye therfore continually, and praye, that ye may escape all these thynges that shal come and that ye maye stande before the sonne of man.

* Job. xlii. a

In the daye tyme, he taught in the temple: and at nyght, he went out, and abode in the mount that is called Oluyet. ✠ And all y people came in the moynge to hym in the temple, for to heare hym.

✠ This is betrayed. They ate the Easter lamb. The institution of the sacrament. They streue who shalbe greater, he reprimed them. He prayeth this tyme vnto the mount. They take hym and bryng hym to the hie priestes house: Peter denieth him thrise, & they bryng hym before the counsell.

he feast of swete bread due nye whych is called Easter, and y hye priestes, & scribes: sought how they myght kyll hym, for they feared the people: ✠ The entred Satan into Judas, whose spy name was Ica-rioth (whych was of the nobbe of y twelue) and he wente hys waye, and comuned with the hye priestes and offycers, howe he myght betraye hym to them. And they were glad and promysed to gyue hym money. And he consented, and sought oportunitie to betraye hym vnto the, when the people were away.

✠ Then came y daye of swete bread when of necessite Passeouer must be offered. And he sent Peter & John, sayenge: go & prepare ys the Passeouer, that we maye eate. They sayd vnto hym: Where wylt thou, y we prepare? And he sayd vnto the: Beholde, when ye enter into the cytie, ther shal a man mete you, bearyng a pytcher of water, him follow into the same house that he entreth in, and ye shal saye vnto the good man of the house: The master sayeth vnto the: where is y gess chaber, where I shall eate Passeouer w my disciples? And he shal shewe you a greute parlour paved. Ther make ready. And they went and founde as he had sayd vnto them, and thy made ready the Passeouer.

✠ And when the houre was come, he satte downe, & the xii. Apostles wyth hym. And he sayd vnto them: I haue inwardly despyred to eate thys Passeouer wyth you, before that I suffre. For I saye vnto you: hence forth I wyl not eate of it any more, vntill it be fulfilled in the kyngdome of God. And he toke the cup, and gaue thanks and sayd: Take thys, and deuynge it amonge you. For I saye vnto you: I wyl not drynke of the frute of the vyne, vntill the kyngdome of God come.

✠ And he toke breade, and whē he had geuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue vnto the sayenge: Thys is my body, whych is geuen for you. Thys do in the remembraunce of me. Lykwysle also when he had supped, he toke the cup, sayenge: Thys cup is the newe testament in my bloude, whych is shed for you.

¶ Pet behold, y haue of him that betrayeth me, is wyth me on the table. And trulpe the sonne of ma goeth, as it is appoynted: But wo vnto that mā by whom he is betrayed. And they beganne to enquerre amonge them selues thens, whych of them it was, þ̄ shuld do it.

 ¶ And there was a stryfe amōge them, whych of them shulde seme to be þ̄ greatest.
 And he sayd vnto them: the kynges of naci-ons ragne ouer them: and they that haue authorite vpon them, are called gracious Lordes. But ye shal not be so. ¶ But he that is greatest amonge you, shalbe as the yon-ger: and he that is chiefe, shalbe as he that doth mynister. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serueth? Is not he þ̄ sitteth at meate? But I am amōge you, as he þ̄ ministrerth. Ye are they, whych haue bydden wyth me in my temptacions.
 And I apoynt vnto you a kyngdome, as my father hath apoynted to me: that ye may eat and drynke at my table in my kyngdome, & sit on seates, iudgyng the twelue trybes of Israel. ¶

And the Lord sayd: Symō, Simon, be holde: Satan hath despyed to synne wyth thee: but I haue prayed for thee, that thy fayth faile not. And when thou arte con-uerted, strength thy brethren. And he sayde vnto hym: * Lord, I am readye to go wyth thee into prison, and to death. And he sayd: I tell the Peter, the cocke shal not crowe this daye, tyll thou hast thyselfe denyed that thou knowest me.

And he sayd vnto them: * whē I sent you without wallet and scrippe and shoes lacked ye any thyng? And they sayd, no: Then he sayd vnto them: but now he that hath a wallet, let hym take it vp, and lyke wyse his scrippe. And he that hath no swearde, let hym sel his coate, and bye one. For I say vnto you, that yet the same whych is wyrtten, muste be perfourmed in me: * euen amonge synners was he reputed. For those thynges whych are wyrtten of me haue an ende. And they sayd: Lord, behold, here are two swear-des. And he sayd vnto them it is ynough.

¶ And he came out, and went: as he was wente to mouste Oliuete. And the disciples folowed him. And whē he came to the place, he sayd vnto them: * praye, lest ye fall into temptation.

¶ And he gate hym selfe from them, about a stonys cast, and kneled downe, and prayed sayenge: Father, yf thou wilt remoue this cup from me. Neuerthelesse, * not my wyll, but thyne be fulfilled. And there appeared an aungell vnto hym from heauen, confortyng hym. And he was in an agonye, and prayed the longer. And hys sweate was lyke dropes of bloude, trycklyng downe to the ground. And when he rose vp from prayer and was come to hys disciples, he founde the slepyng for heuynesse, and sayd vnto them: Why slepe ye? Ryse, and praye, lest ye fall into temptation.

¶ Whyle he yet spake: behold, ther came a company, and he that was called Judas one of the twelue, went before them, and preas-sed nye vnto Iesus, to kysse him. But Iesus sayde vnto hym: Judas, betrayest thou the sonne of man wyth a kysse: whē they whych were aboute hym sawe what wolde folowe they sayd vnto hym: Lord, shall we symte wyth swearde? ¶ And one of the smote a seruant of þ̄ hye preste, & stroke of hys ryghte eare. Iesus answered & sayde: suffer ye thus farreforth. And whē he touched hys eare he dealed hym.

¶ Then Iesus sayde vnto the hye prestes & rulers of the temple & the elders which were come to him. Ye be come out, as vnto a thefe wyth sweardes and stauers. When I was daylye wyth you in the temple, ye stretched forth no handes agaynst me. But this is euē your verye houre, and the power of darckenes. Then toke they hym, and led hym, and brought hym to the hye preastes house. But Peter folowed afarre of.

¶ And when they had kyndled a fyre in the myddes of þ̄ palace, and were set downe together, * Peter also sate downe amōge them.
 But when one of the wenches behelde hym, as he sate by the fyre (and looked vpon hym) she sayde: this same felowe was also wyth hym. ¶ And he denyed hym, sayenge: womā, I knowe hym not. And after a lytle whyle an other sawe hym, and sayd: thou arte also of them. And Peter sayd: man, I am not.

¶ And about the space of an houre after, an other assymed, sayenge: verely this felowe was wyth hym also, for he is of Galile.
 And Peter sayd: mā I wote not what thou sayest. And immediatly whyle he yet spake, the cocke crowed. And þ̄ Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter. ¶ And Peter remem-bred the worde of þ̄ Lord, how he had sayd vnto hym: before the cocke crow, thou shalt deny me thysse. And Peter went out & wept bitterly.

¶ And the mē that toke Iesus, mocked him and smote hym: & when they had blyndfol-ded hym, they stroke hym on þ̄ face, & asked hym, sayenge: arede, who is it that smote the And many other thynges dyspytfully sayd they agaynst hym.

¶ And allone as it was daye, the elders of the people and the hye preastes and scripbes, came together, and led hym into the counsell, sayenge: art thou verye Christ? tell vs: And he sayd vnto them: yf I tell you, ye wyll not beleue. And yf I aske you, ye wyll not answer me, nor let me go. ¶ Here after shall the sonne of man sit on þ̄ ryght hande of the power of God. ¶ Then sayd they all: art thou then the sonne of God? he sayd, ye say that I am. And they sayd: * what neede we any further wytnes? For we our selues haue herde of hys owne mouth.

* mat. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c
 John. rrb. c

* mat. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c
 John. rrb. c

* mat. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c

* Luke. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c

* mat. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c

* mat. rrb. c
 mark. rrb. c

The Gospell

The .xxiii. Chapter.

¶ Jesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. The women make lamentation for hym. He prayeth for his enemies, for geuech the these vpon his right hand, and dyeth on the crosse, and is buried.

* mat. xxviii. a marke. xv. a
Job. xliii. c

¶ And the whole multitude of them arose, and led hym vnto Pilate. And they beganne to accuse hym, sayenge: we found this felowe peruertryng the people, & forbyddynge to pay tribute to Cesar: sayenge, that he is Christ a kynge. And Pilate apposed hym, saynge: Arte thou the kynge of the Jewes? He answered hym, and sayde: thou sayest it. Then sayde Pilate to the hie Priestes, and to the people: I fynde no faute in this man. And they were the moze fearce, sayenge: he moueth the people, teachynge thowowe out all Jewrye, and beganne at Salile, euē to this place.

* Luke. iiii. a

¶ When Pilate herde mencion of Salile he asked, whether the man were of Salile. And as soon as he knewe that he belonged vnto Herodes iurisdicciō, he sent hym to herode whych was also at Ierusalem at that tyme. And when herode sawe Jesus, he was exceeding glad. For he was desirous to see hym of a longe season, because he had herde many thynges of hym, & he trusted to haue sene some miracle done by hym. Then he questioned with hym many wordes. But he answered hym nothyng. The hie priestes & scribes, stood forth and accused him strayle. And herode with his men of warre, despyed hym: and whē he had mocked him, he arrayed hym in whyte clothynge, and sent hym agayne to Pilate. * And the same daie Pilate and herode were made frendes together. For before they were at variaunce.

* Actu. iiii. a

¶ And Pilate called together the hie Priestes and the rulers, and the people, and sayd vnto them: ye haue brought this man vnto me as one that peruertereth the people. And beholde, I examyn hym before you, & fynde no faute in this mā, of those thynges where of ye accuse hym: No, nor yet herode. For I sent you to hym: and lo, nothyng worthy of death is done to hym. I wyl therfore chaste hym, and let hym loose. * For of necessite, he must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.

* mat. xxviii. b
marke. xv. a
Job. xliii. a

¶ And all the people cryed at once, sayenge awaye with hym, and deliuer to vs Barababas: (whych for a certayne insurreccion made in the cytie and for murder was caste in prison) Pilate spake agayne to them willinge to let Jesus loose. But they cryed, sayenge: Crucifye hym. Crucifye hym. He sayde vnto them the thyrde tyme: what euill hath he done? I fynde no cause of death in hym: I wyl therfore chaste him, and let hym go. * And they cryed with loude voyces, requyrynge that he myght be crucified. And the voyces of them & of the hie priestes prevayled.

¶ And Pilate gaue sentence, that it shoulde be as they requyred * & he let loose vnto the hym that (for insurreccion & murder) was cast into prison, whō they had despyed, and he deliuered vnto them Jesus, to do with hym what they wolde. * And as they ledde hym awaye, they caught one Simon of Syren, commynge out of felde: and on hym layde they the crosse, that he myght beare it after Jesus.

¶ And there folowed him a great company of people, and of women * whych bewailed and lamented him. But Jesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd: Ye daughters of Ierusalem, wepe not for me: but wepe for your selues, and for your chyldren. For beholde, the dayes wyl come, in the whych they shal saye: * happy are the baren and the wombes that neuer bare, and þe pappes whych neuer gaue sucke. Then shall they begynne to say to the mountaynes, fall on vs: and to þe hilles, couer vs. For yf they do this in a grene tree, what shalbe done in the drye.

¶ And there were two euill doers led with him to be slaine. * And after that they were come to þe place (whych is called Calvary) there they crucified hym, & the euill doers, one on the right hande, and the other on the lefte. Then sayd Jesus: father forgiue them for they wote not what they do. * And they parted his raimēt and cast lottes. And the people stode, and behelde.

¶ And the rulers mocked hym with them, D sayenge: he saued other me let him saue hym selfe, yf he be very Christ, þe chosen of God. The louders also mocked hym, and came, and offered hym vynerger, & sayde: yf thou be the kynge of þe Jewes, saue thy selfe. * And a superscripcion was wyrtten ouer hym, in letters of Greke, and Latin, and hebrewe: This is the kynge of the Jewes.

¶ And one of the euill doers whych were hanged, rayled on hym, sayenge: Yf thou be Christ, saue thy selfe and vs. But the other answered and rebuked hym sayenge: fearest thou not God, sayng thou art in þe same dampnation: We are ryghteously punished for we receaue accordyng to our dedes. But this man hath done nothyng amysse. And he sayde vnto Jesus: Lorde, remember me, when thou comest into thy kyngdome. And Jesus sayd vnto hym: Verely I saye vnto the: to daye shalt thou be with me in Paradyse.

¶ And it was aboute the syxt houre. And there was darchenes ouer all the earth, vntill the nyynth houre, and the Sonne was darchened

* mat. xxviii. c marke. xvi. a

And the bayle of the temple dyd euen thow the myddes. And when Jesus had cryed wth a loude voice, he said further into thy handes I comēde me sprete.
And when he thus had sayd, he gaue vp the gost. ¶ When the Centurio sawe what had happened, he glorified God, sayenge: Here was a ryghteous man. And all the people that cam together to that syght and saw the thynges whych had happened, smote theyr brestes, and returned. And all hys ac-quaintaunce, and the wemen that folowed hym fro Galile, stode a farre of, beholdinge these thynges.

¶ And beholde ther was a mā (named Joseph) a counsellour, and he was a good man and a iuste: the same had not consented to the counsil & dede of them, whych was of Ara-mathia, a citie of the Jewes, which same also was baptyzed for the kingdome of God: he wet into Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus and toke it downe and wrappd it in a lynnen cloth, and layed it in a sepulchre y^e was newe in stone, wherin neuer mā before was layed. ¶ And that day was the preparyng of the Sabboth, and the Sabboth drew on. The wemen that folowed after, whiche had come wth hym from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and howe hys body was layed.
¶ And they returned & prepared swete odours and oynmentes: but rested the Sabboth daye, accordyng to the commaundment.

¶ The. xxiii. Chapter. ¶

¶ The wemen come to the graue: Christ apareth vnto his two disciples that go towards Emmaus, standeth in the myddes of all hys disciples, openeth theyr vnderstandinge in the scriptures, greeueth them a charge, and ascēdeth vp to heauen.

But vpon the fyrst daye of the Sabbothes, very early in the mornynge, they came vnto the sepulchre, and brought the sweete odours whych they had prepared, and other wemen wth the.
¶ And they founde the stone rowled away fro the sepulchre, and they wente in: but founde not the body of the Lorde Jesu. And it happened, as they were amased ther at: Behold two men stode by them in shynynge garmentes. ¶ And as they were afrayde, and bowed downe theyr faces to the earth, they sayd vnto them: why seek ye the lyfynge amonge the dead? he is not here: but is risen. Remember howe he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile, sayenge: that the sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of synfull men, and be crucified, & the thyrde daye rise agayne.

¶ And they remembred hys wordes, & returned from the sepulchre, & tolde al these thynges vnto those eleuen, & to all the remnant.
¶ It was Mary Magdalene, & Joanna, and Mary Jacobi, & other that were wth the, whych tolde these thynges vnto the Apostles. And theyr wordes seemed vnto them fained thynges, nethe beleued they them. ¶ The arose Peter and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and sawe the linnen clothes layde by them selfe, & departed, wondrynge in him selfe at that whych had happened.

¶ And beholde two of them went that same daye to a towne (called Emmaus) whych was from Jerusalem aboute thre score fol-longes, and they talked together of all these thynges that had happened. ¶ And it chaun-ced, that whyle they communed together & reasoned, Jesus hym selfe dyne neare, & went wth them. But theyr eyes were holden, that they shulde not knowe hym.

¶ And he sayd vnto them: What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another, as ye walke, & are sad? And the one of them (whose name was Cleophas) answered, and sayd to hym: arte thou onely a straunger in Jerusalem, and hast not knowen the thynges which haue chauced there, in these dayes? he sayde vnto them: what thynges?

¶ And they sayd vnto him: of Jesus of Nazareth, whych was a prophete, myghty in dede, and worde, before God and all the people: and howe the hys prestes, & our rulers deliuered hym to be condemned to death: & haue crucified hym. But we trusted that it had bene he whych shuld haue redeemed Israel. And as touchynge all these thynges, to daye is euen the thyrde daye, that they were done.

¶ Pea, and certayne wemen also of our copany made vs astonnyed, which came early vnto the sepulchre, & founde not hys bodye: and came, sayenge: that they had sene a vision of aungels, whiche sayde that he was alyue. And certayne of them whych were wth vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the wemen had sayde: but hym they sawe not.

¶ And he sayd vnto them: O fooles & slow of herte, to beleue al that the Prophetes haue spoken. ¶ Ought not Christ to haue suffred these thynges, and to enter into hys glory? And he began at Moses, and al therophe-tes, and interpreted vnto them in al scriptures whych were wyrtten of hym. And they drew nye vnto the towne, whych they went vnto. And he made, as though he wold haue gone further. ¶ And they constreyned hym sayenge: abyde wth vs, for it draweth to-warde nyght, and the daye is farre passed.
¶ And he went in to tarpe wth them.

¶ And it came to passe, as he sat at meate wth them, he toke breade, and blessed it, & broke, & gaue to them. And theyr eyes were opened, and they knewe hym: and he vanished out of theyr syghte. ¶ And they sayd bee iii. twene

The Gospell

The Gospell of Saynt John.

The fyrst Chapter. ✠

The surrallpynge bysch of Ch:st. and how he became man. The testimony of John: The callinge of And:we, Peter: &c.

betwene the selues: did not our hertes burne within vs, whyle he talked with vs by the waye, and opened to vs the scriptures? And they rose vp the same houre, and returned agayne to Jerusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, saying: the Lorde is rysen in dede, and hath appeared to Simon. And they tolde, what thinges were done in the way, & how they knewe hym in breakynge of bread.

In the thus spake, ✠ Jesus hym selfe stode in the myddes of them, and sayde vnto the: peace be vnto you. ✠ (It is I, feare not) But they were abashed and afrayed, and supposed that they had sene a spynite. And he sayde vnto them: Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughtes aryle in your hertes? He holde my handes and my fete, that it is euen I my selfe. Handle me and se: for a spynite hath not fleshe and bones as ye se me haue.

And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his handes and his fete. And whyle they yet blyened not for ioye, and wondered, he said vnto them: ✠ Haue ye here any meat? And they offered hym a pece of a broyled fish and of an honye combe. And he toke it, and dyd eate before them.

And he sayde vnto them: ✠ These are the wordes whiche I spake vnto you, whyle I was yet with you: that all must nedes be fulfilled, whiche were wyrtten of me in the lawe of Moyses and in the prophetes, and in the Psalmes.

E Then opened he theyr wyrttes, that they myght vnderstande the scriptures, and sayd vnto the: Thus is it wyrtten: and thus it behoued Ch:st to suffer, & to ryle agayne from death the thyrde daye & that repentance and remission of synnes: shoulde be preached in his name amonge all nacions: ✠ and must begyn at Jerusalem. And ye are wytnesses of these thinges. ✠ And beholde, I wyll sende p promise of my father vpon you. ✠ But tarpe ye in the cytie of Jerusalem, vntyll ye be endued with power from on hye.

In he led them out into Bethany, and lyft vp his handes, and blessed them. ✠ And it came to passe, as he blessed them, he departed from them, and was carped vp into heauen. And they worshipped hym, and returned to Jerusalem with great ioye, and were continually in the temple praplyng & laudpyng God. ✠ Amen.

Ch:stendeth the Gospell of Saynt Luke.

✠ + ✠

In the begynnynge was the worde, and the worde was with God: and God was the worde. The same was in the begynnynge w God. ✠ All thinges were made by it: and withoute it, was made nothyng that was made. ✠ In it was lyfe, and lyfe was the: lyght of men, and the lyght shyneth in darkenelle: and the darkenelle cōprehended it not.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came as a wytnesse to beare wytnesse of the lyght, that all men throughe hym myght blyue. ✠ He was not that lyght: but was sent to beare wytnesse of the lyght. That lyght was the true lyght, which lygeth euery man that cometh into the worlde. He was in the worlde, and the worlde was made by hym: and p worlde knewe hym not.

He came among his owne, and his owne receyued hym not. But as many as receyued hym, to them gaue he power to be the sonnes of God: euen them that blyened on his name which were bozne, not of bloude, nor of the wyll of the fleshe, nor yet of the wyll of man: but of God.

✠ And the same worde became fleshe, and dwelt amonge vs: ✠ and we sawe the gloire of it, as the gloire of the onely begotten son of the father, full of grace and truthe. ✠

✠ John beareth wytnesse of hym, and crieth, saying: This was he of whō I spake whiche though he came after me, wente before me: for he was before me. ✠ And of his fulnesse haue all we receyued: euen grace for grace. For the lawe was gyuen by Moyses, but grace and truthe came by Jesus Ch:st: ✠ Roman hath sene God at any tyme.

The onely begotten son which is in the bosome of the father, he hath declared hym.

✠ And this is the recorde of John: whē the Jewes sent prestes and Leuytes fro Jerusalem, to aske hym: what art thou? And he confessed and denyed not, and sayd playnely I am not Ch:st. And they asked hym: what then? art thou helyas? And he sayth: I am not.

✠ Art thou that prophete? And he answered: no. Then sayde they vnto hym: what art thou, that we maye geue an answer to them that them that sent vs. What sayest thou of thy sister he sayde: * I am þ' voyce of a clar in the wilderness, make stragge the waye of þ' Lorde, * as sayde the prophete Elapas.

And they whiche were sent, were of the pharises. And they asked hym, & sayde vnto hym: why baptisest thou then, yf thou be not Christ, nor Elias, nether þ' prophete?
John answered the saying: * I baptise with water, but there standeth one amonge you, whom ye knowe not, he it is whych though he came after me, was before me whose sholatchet, I am not worthy to vnloose. These thynges were done in Bethabara beyonde Jordan: where John dyd baptise. ¶

The nexte daye, John seeth Jesus comyng vnto hym, and sayeth: * beholde the lambe of God, which taketh awaye þ' synne of the worlde. This is he of whom I sayde: After me cometh a man, which went before me, for he was before me, and I knewe him not: but that he shuld be declared to Israel, therfore am I come baptysing with water.

* And John bare recozde, sayinge: I sawe the spete descende from heauē, lyke vnto a dove, & abode vpon hym, and I knewe hym not. But he that sent me to baptise in water, the same sayd vnto me: vpon whō thou halt se the spete descende, and tary spyll on hym, the same is he whych baptyseth wyth þ' holy goost: And I sawe, and bare recozde, that he is the sonne of God. ¶

The nexte daye after, John stode agayne, and two of hys disciples, and he behelde Jesus as he walked by, and sayeth: beholde the lambe of God. And the two disciples heard hym speake, and they folowed Jesus. And Jesus turned about, and saue them folowe hym, & sayeth vnto the: what seke ye? They sayde vnto him: Rabbi (whych is to saye yf we interpret it, Master) wher dwellest þ'?
He sayeth vnto them: come & se. They came & saw where he dwelt: & abode w hym that daye. For it was about the tenth houre.

One of þ' two which hearde John speake, and folowed him, was Andrew Symō Peters brother. The same founde hys brother Symō fyyst, and sayeth vnto hym: we haue founde Messias (which is by interpretaciō, anoynted) and brought him to Jesus. And Jesus behelde him, and sayd: thou art * Simon the sonne of Jonas, thou shalt be called Cephas: which is by interpretation a stone.

The daye folowynge, Jesus wolde go into Galile, and foude Philip, and sayeth vnto hym: folowe me * Philip was of Bethsaida the cytie of Andrew & Peter. Philip foude Nathanael and sayeth vnto him: We haue founde hym, of whome * Moses in the lawe and the prophetes dyd wyte, Jesus the sonne of Joseph of Nazareth. And Nathanael sayd vnto hym: can there eny good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip sayeth vnto him: come and se.

* Jesus sawe Nathanael comynge to hym, & sayeth of hym. Beholde a ryght Israélite, in whō is no gyle. Nathanael sayeth vnto him: wher knowest thou me? Jesus answered and sayde vnto him. Before that philip called the, when thou wast vnder the fygge tree, I saue the. Nathanael answered and sayde vnto hym: Rabbi, thou art eue þ' very sonne of God, thou art the kynge of Israel.
Jesus answered, and sayde vnto hym: Because I sayd vnto the, I saue the vnder the fygge tree, þ' beleuest. Thou shalt se greater thynges the these. And he sayeth vnto hi: Ve-rely, verely, I saue vnto you: hereafter shall ye se hauen open, & þ' angels of God ascendinge and descendinge ouer the sonne of man.

¶ The ii. Chapter. ¶

¶ Christ turned the water into wyne, and purged the hyeres and sellers out of the temple.

And the thyrde daye, was ther a marriage in Cana a cytie of Ga-lile, & the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus was called (þ' hys disciples) vnto the marriage And when the wyne fayled, the mother of Jesus sayeth vnto him: they haue no wyne.
Jesus sayeth vnto her: woman: what haue I to do with the, myn houre is not yet com.
Hys mother sayeth vnto þ' ministres: whatsoeuer he sayeth vnto you, do it. And there were standynge there, syxe water pottes of stone after the maner of the purtyng of the Jewes, contaynyng two or thre fyryngs a pice

Jesus sayeth vnto the: spyll the water pottes wyth water. And they fylled the vp to þ' brym. And he sayeth vnto them: dyaue out now, & beare vnto the gouernour of the feast.
And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was turned into wyne and knewe not whence it was (but þ' mynistres whych dyne the water knew) he calletþ þ' bypdygrome, and sayeth vnto hym.
Every mā at the begynnynge doth set forth good wyne, and when men be dyronche, then that whych is worse. But thou hast kept þ' good wyne, vntyll now.

Thys begynnynge of myracles dyd Jesus in Cana of Galile, and shewed hys glory, & his disciples beleued on him. ¶ After this he wēt downe to Capernaum, he & hys mother, and hys brethren, and his disciples, and there contynued not many dayes.

* ¶ And þ' Jewes Easter was eue at hāde and Jesus went vp to Ierusalem, and founde syttynge in the temple, those that solde oren and shepe and doves, and chaungers of money. And when he had made (as it were) a scourge of smal coardes, he dyone them all ¶ v out

* Luke. ii. g

* Mat. xiii. b
* Mat. xiii. b
* Luke. xiii. b

* Mat. xxi. b
* Mat. xxi. c
* Luke. xxi. g

The Gospell

out of the temple, wyth the shepe & ore, and powzed out the chaigters money, and ouerthru the tables, & sayd vnto the that solde doves: haue these thynges bece, & make not my fathers house an house of marchaūdise.
And his disciples remembred it & is wyrtten:

* psal. lxxxv. b

* the zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me.

D Then answered & Jewes and sayde vnto him: what tokē thewest thou vnto vs, seing that thou dost these thynges? Jesus answered and sayd vnto them: * Destroye this temple, and in thre dayes I wyll reare it vp.

* mat. xxi. f marc. xiii. f

Then sayde & Jewes. xlvj. yeres was thys temple a buyldyng, & wylt thou reare it vp in thre dayes? But he spake of the temple of hys body. Allone therfore as he was rypen from deeth agayne, his disciples remembred & he thus had sayd: And they beleued & scripture, & the wordes which Jesus had sayde.

When he was in Ierusalem at Easter in & feast day: many beleued on hys name, whē they sawe hys miracles whych he dyd. But Jesus dyd not comit hym selfe vnto the, because he knewe all men, and neded not, that eny mā shuld testifye of him. * For he knew what was in man. †

* Ier. xlii. b apoc. i. b

The.iii. Chapter. †

¶ The communicacyon of Christ wyth Nicodemus.
The doctrine and baptysm of John, and what wryt-teth he beareth of Christ

There was a mā of the pharises named Nicodemus, a ruler of & Je-wes. * The same cam to Jesus by nyght, & sayde vnto hym: Rabbi,

* Iohn. vii. g

we knowe that & parte a teacher come from God: for no man coulde do such miracles as thou doest, excepte God were w hym. Jesus answered & sayde vnto him: Verely, verely, I saye vnto the, except a man be bozne from aboue, he cannot se the kyngdome of God.
Nicodemus sayeth vnto him: how can a mā be bozne whē he is old: can he enter into his mothers wombe and be bozne agayne? Jesus answered: * verely, verely, I saye vnto the, excepte a man be bozne of water and of the sprete, he cannot enter into & kyngdome of God. * That whych is bozne of the flesh, is fleshe, and that whych is bozne of & sprete is sprete. Maruayle not thou that I sayde to &, ye must be bozne frō aboue. The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the soude therof * but canst not tell whence it cometh & whither it goeth. So is euery one that is bozne of the sprete.

* Iohn. iij. b and. iij. b
Iu. iij. a.

† Rom. viij. a

* Eccl. i. a

Nicodemus answered & sayde vnto hym how can these thynges be? Jesus answered & sayde vnto hym: art & a master in Israel, & knowest not these thiges? Verely, verely I say vnto the we speake & we do knowe, & testify & we haue sene: & ye receaue not oure wytnes. If I haue tolde you, earthly thyn-ges, and ye beleue not: howe shal ye beleue, pf I tell you of heauenly thynges?

* And no man ascēdeth vp to heauen, but he that came doune frō heauen, euen & sonne of man whych is in heauen.

* And as Moyses lyfte vp the serpent in & wildernes, euen so must the sonne of man be lyfte vp, that whosoever beleueth in hym, peryshe not, but haue eternall lyfe. †

* For God so loued & worlde, that he gaue is only begottē sonne, that whosoever beleueth in hym, shuld not perishe, but haue euerlasting lyf. * For God sent not his sone into the worlde, to cōdempe & worlde: but that the worlde throug h hym myght be saued. he & beleueth on hym, is not condēpned But he that beleueth not, is condēpned all ready, because he hath not beleued i & name of & onely begottē sonne of God. And thys is the condēpnacyon: * that lyght is come into the worlde, & men loued darcknes more then lyght, because they dedes were euill.
For * euery one that euill doeth, hateth the lyght: nether cometh to the lyght, lest his dedes shulde be reponed. But he that doth trueth, cometh to the lyght, that his dedes maye be knowen, howe & they are wrought in God. †

After these thynges came Jesus & his disciples into & lande of Jewry & there he tarped wyth them, * and baptised. And John also baptised in Enon beydes Salim, because there was much water there, and they came and were baptysed. * For John was not per-cast into prelson.

* And there arose a questyon betwene Johns disciples and the Jewes, aboute pu-rifyinge. And they came vnto John, & sayde vnto him: Rabbi, he & was with the beyode Jordan (to whom thou bearest wytnes) be-holde the same baptiseth * & all men come to hym, John answered, & sayde: a man can re-ceae nothinge, except it be geuen him from heauen. Pe your selues are wytnesses * both that I sayd: I am not Christ, but am sent be-foze him. he that hath & byrde, is the byrde-grome. But the frende of the byrdegrome, whych standeth and heareth hym, reioyleth greatly because of the byrdegromes voyce.
Thys my ioye therfore is fulfilled. he must increace, but I must decreace.

he that cometh from an hye, is aboue all: & he that is of the erth, is earthly, & speaketh of the erth. he that cometh from heauē, is aboue all, and what he hath sene and hearde, that he testifieth: and no man receaueth hys testimonie. he that hath receaued hys testi-monie, * hath set to hys seale, that God is true. For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the wordes of God. * For God geueth not the sprete by measure vnto hym. The father loueth the sonne, & hath geuen all thynges into

into

into hys hande. * He þ beleeueth on the sonne þat euerlastinge lyfe: he þat beleeueth not the sonne, shall not se lyfe, but the wrath of God abyrdeth on hym. **¶

¶ The. iij. Chapter.

¶ The louinge communicacion of Christ woth the woman of Samaria by the wellis spde: Howe he healed the rulers sonne.

¶ Soone as þ Lord knew, how the pharysies had hearde, þ Jesus made and baptised moo disciples then Iohn (though that Jesus hi selfe baptised not: but his disciples) * he lefte Jewy, and departed agayne into Galile. For it was so that he must nedes go thowowe Samaria. ¶ The came he to a cytie of Samaria (which is called Sychar.) Besydes the possellon * that Jacob gaue to hys sonne Joseph. And there was Jacobs well. Jesus then beyng wepye of his iourney, sate thus on the well. And it was about the syxte houre: and there cam a woman of Samaria to dra we water. Jesus sayeth vnto her: geue me drinke. For his disciples were gone away vnto the towne, to by meate. Then sayeth the woman of Samaria vnto hym: howe is it, þ þ beinge a Jewe, askest dryncke of me, whyche am a Samaritane. * For the Jewes medle not with the Samaritans. Jesus answered and sayd vnto her: þf thou knowest the gyfte of God, and who it is that sayeth to the geue me drinke, thou woldest haue asked of him and he wold haue geuen * the water of lyfe.
The woman sayeth vnto hym. Syr, þ hast nothyng to dra we with, & the well is depe: from whence then hast thou that water of lyfe? Art thou greater the our father Jacob whych gaue vs þ well, & he him selfe dracke therof and his chyldren, and his catell?

Jesus answered and sayd vnto her: whosoeuer dryncketh of thys water, shall thyrst agayne. But whosoever dryncketh of the water that I shall geue him, shall neuer be-more a thyrst: but þ water that I shall geue hym, shall be in hym a well of water, spyr-yngge vp into euerlastinge lyfe. The womā sayeth vnto him: Syr, geue me of that water, that I thyrst not, nether come hyther to drawe. Jesus sayeth vnto her: Go, call thy husbād, and come hyther. The woman answered and sayde vnto hym: I haue no hus-bād. Jesus sayde vnto her: Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husbād. For thou hast had foure husbādes, & he whom thou now hast, is not thy husbād. In þ saydest thou truely.

The woman sayeth vnto hym: * Syr, I perceave that thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in thys mountayne: & þe saye that in Ierusalem is the place, where men ought to worshyppe. Jesus sayeth vnto her: woman beleeue me, the houre cometh, when þe shall (nether in thys mountayne, nor yet at Ierusalem) worshyppe the fathers. Þe worshyp þe wote not what: we know what we worshyppe.

* For saluacyon commeth of the Jewes: But the houre commeth & now is, whē the true worshypers shall worshyppe the father * in sprete, & in the tructh. For suche the father also requyret to worshyppe hym.

* God is a sprete, and they that worshyppe hym, must worshyppe hym in sprete and in the tructh.

The woman sayeth vnto hym: I wote, þ Messias shall come, whych is called Christ.
Whē he is come, he wyl tell vs all thynges. ¶ Jesus sayeth vnto her: * I that speke vnto the am he. And immediatly came hys disciples & marueyled that he talked with þ woman. Yet no man sayd: what meanest thou or why talkest thou wyth her? The woman then lefte her waterpot, and went her waye into the cite, & sayeth to the men: Come, se a man whych tolde me all thynges that euer I dyd. Is not he Christ? Then they wente out of the cytie, and came vnto hym.

In the meane whyle his disciples prayed him, saying: Master, eate. he sayd vnto the I haue meate to eate, that þe knowe not of.
Therfore sayd the disciples amonge the sel-ues: hath eny man brought hi ought to eat?
Jesus sayeth vnto them: my meate is to do the will of him that sent me, & to finishe hys worke. Saye not þe: there are yet foure mo-nerthes, & then commeth haruest? Behold, I saye vnto you: lyfte vp poure eyes, and loke on the regions: for they are whyte all ready vnto haruest. * And he that reapeth, receaueth reward, and gathereth frute vnto lyfe eternall: that boeth he that soweth, & he that reapeth, myght reioyse together. And herin is the saying true, that one soweth and another reapeth. I sent you to reape þ, wheron þe bestowed no labour. Other men laboured, and þe are entred into theyr labours.

Many of the Samaritans of that cytie beleued on him, for the saying of the womā. which testified that he told her all that euer she dyd. So, whē þ Samaritans were com-vnto hym: they besought hym, þ he wolde tary wyth them. And he abode there two dayes. And many moo beleued because of hys owne wordes, and sayde vnto the woman. Rowe we beleeue, not because of thy sayinge: for we haue herde him oure selues, and know that thys is euen Christ, the Sa-uioure of the worlde. **¶

After two dayes he departed thence, and went awaye into Galile. * For Jesus hym selfe testified, that a prophet hath none ho-noure in hys owne countree. Then, as sone as he was come into Galile, the Galileans re-ceaued him: whan they had sene all the thynges that

* Erod. xlii. c

* Roma. i. s

* i. Cor. xiii. c

* Mat. xxi. b
* Mar. xxi. g
* Luke. xxi. c
* Iohn. ix. d
and. f. c.

* Mat. ix. b
* Luke. x. a

* Ioh. xxi. b

* Mat. xxi. f
* Mar. xi. a
* Luke. ix. c

The Gospell

ges that he dyd at Ierusalem at þe dawe of þe feast. For they went also vnto the feast dawe. So Iesus cam agayne into Cana of Galile.

* Iohu. ii. a

* Mat. xii. a
* Luke. vii. a

* And there was a certayne ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum. As sonne as the same berde that Iesus was come out of Jewry into Galile, he went vnto him, & besought him, that he wolde come downe, and heale his sonne. For he was euen at þe poynt of death. The said Iesus vnto hym: excepte ye see signes & wonderes, ye wyll not beleue. The ruler sayeth vnto him: Syr, com downe ouer that my sonne dye. Iesus sayeth vnto him: So thy wawe, thy sonne lyueth. The man beleued the worde that Iesus had spoken vnto him. And he went hys wawe. And as he was now goyng downe, þe seruantes met him, & tolde him, sayinge: thy sonne lyueth. Then enquired he of them the houre, when he begonne to amende. And they sayd vnto him: Yesterday at þe seuenth houre, the feuer left him. So the father knew, that it was þe same houre, in the which Iesus sayde vnto him: Thy sonne lyueth. * And he beleued, and all his household. * This is agayne the second myracle, that Iesus dyd, whan he was come out of Jewry into Galile.

* Act. xiii. a

The v. Chapter.

¶ He healeth the man that was sicke eynge & thir: tie peare. The Jewes accuse hym, he answereth for hym selfe, and reprooueth them.

¶ After this was there a feast dawe of the Jewes, and Iesus went vp to Ierusalem. And there is at Ierusalem, by the slaughter house, a pole (whych is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethle da) hauynge fyue porches, in whiche laye a great multitude of sicke folke, of blynde, halt, & wythered, waytinge for the mouynge of þe water. For an angell went downe at a certayne season into the poole, and stered the water. Whosoever then fyrt (after the sterynge of the water) stepped in, was made whoole of whatsoeuer displease he had. And a certayne man was there, whych had bene diseased. xxxviii. yeres. When Iesus sawe hym lye, & knewe that he nowe longe tyme had bene diseased, he sayeth vnto hym. Wylt thou be made whole? The sicke man answered him: Syr, I haue no man when the water is troubled, to put me into þe pole: But in þe meane tyme, whyle I am about to come, another steppeth downe before me.

* Mat. ix. a
* Marke. ii. b
* Luke. v. c
* Actes. xii. b and. ix. f

Iesus sayeth vnto hym: ryse, take vp thy bed, & walke. And immediatly the man was made whole, and toke vp hys bed, and walked. And the same dawe was the Sabbath. The Jewes therfore sayde vnto hym that was made whole: It is the Sabbath dawe, it is not lawfull for the to cary thy bed. He answered them: he that made me whole, sayde vnto me: take vp thy bed, and walke

Then asked they hym: what man is that, whych sayd vnto þe: take vp thy bed & walke? And he that was healed, wryte not who it was. For Iesus had gottē hym selfe away, because that there was p̄calse of people in that place.

* Afterwarde, Iesus founde hym in the temple, and sayde vnto hym: beholde, thou art made whole, synne nomore, lest a worse thinge happen vnto the. The man departed & tolde the Jewes, that it was Iesus which had made hym whole. * And therfore the Jewes dyd persecute Iesus, and soughte the meanes to slea him because he had done these thinges on the Sabbath dayes. And Iesus answered them.

* My father worketh bytherto, and I worke. Therfore þe Jewes soughte the moze to kyll hym, not onely because he had broken the Sabbath: but sayd also that God was hys father and made hym selfe equall wyth God.

¶ Then answered Iesus, & sayde vnto the: verely, verely, I saye vnto you: the sonne can do nothing of him self, but that he seeth þe father do. For whatsoeuer he doeth, that doeth the sonne also. For the father loueth þe sonne, and sheweth hym all thynges that he him selfe doeth. And he wyll shewe hi greater workes the these, because ye shulde maruaile. For lyke wyse as the father rapeth vp the deede, and quyketh the, euen so the sonne quyketh whom he wyll. * Neither iudgeth the father any man: but hath comitted all iudgement vnto þe sonne, because that all men shuld honoure þe sonne, euen as they honoure the father. He that honoureth not the sonne, the same honoureth not the father which hath sent hym. Verely, verely, I saye vnto you. * He that heareth my worde, & beleueth on him that sent me, hath euerylastyng lyfe, and shall not come into dānacion: but is scaped from deeth vnto lyfe.

¶ Verely, verely, I saye vnto you: þe houre shall come, & nowe it is, when the deede shall heare þe voyce of the sonne of God. And they that heare shall lyue. * For as the father hath lyfe in hym selfe, so lyke wyse hath he geuen to the sonne to haue lyfe in hym selfe: and hath geuen him power also to iudge, because he is the sonne of man. Maruaile not at this: for the houre shall come, in þe which all that are in the graues, shall heare hys voyce, and shall come forth: they that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of lyfe: and they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of damnacion. *

* I can of myne owne selfe do nothinge. As I heare, I iudge, and my iudgement is iuste, because I seeke not myne owne wyll, but the wyll of the father whych hath sent me. * If I shulde heare wytnes of my selfe, my wytnes my witness were not true. Ther is another þ beareth wytnes of me: & I am sure, that þ wytnes whych he beareth of me, is true.

* He sent vnto John, & he bare wytnes vnto the trueth. But I receaue not þ recozd of man. Neuer thelesse, these thynges I sape that ye myght be safe. He was a burnyng, & a shynyng lpyght, & ye wold for a season haue reioysed in hys lpyght. * But I haue greater wytnes, then the wytnes of John. & for the woꝝkes whych the father hath geue me to synspise, þ same woꝝkes that I do, beare wytnes of me, & þ father hath sent me. And þ father him selfe which hath sent me, & hath borne wytnes of me: Ye haue not heard his voys at eny tyme, nor sene hys shape, hys word haue ye not abyding in you. For who he hath sent, hym ye beleue not.

Search the scriptures, for in the þe thynke ye haue eternall lyfe: and they are they which testify of me. And yet wil ye not comto me, that ye myght haue lyfe. I receaue not prayse of men. But I knowe you, that ye haue not þ loue of God in you. I am come in my fathers name and ye receaue me not.
* If another come in hys owne name, hym will ye receaue: how ca ye beleue, which re-ceaeu honoure one of another, & seke not the honoure that cometh of God onely?

Do not thynke that I will accuse you to my father. There is one þ accuseth you: euē Soyles in whose trust. For had ye beleued Soyles, ye wold haue beleued me: for he wrote of me. But ye ye beleue not his wit-tynges: how shall ye beleue my woꝝdes? ¶

¶ The. vi. Chapter.

¶ Jesus fedeth fyue thousande men, departedt awaye that they shuld not make hym kyng, and reponeth the scheyr hearers of hys woꝝde. The carnall are offended at hym.

After these thynges, Jesus went hys waye ouer the see of Galile, which is the see of Tyberias: and a great multitude folowed hym, because they sawe hys miracles which he dyd on them that were diseased. And Jesus went vp into a moun-taine, & there he sat wth his disciples. And easter, a feast of the Jewes was nye. ¶

* When Jesus then lyfte vp hys eyes, & sawe a great cōpany com vnto hi, he sayeth vnto Philip: whence shall we by breed, that these may eate? This he sayde to proue him for he him selfe knewe, what he wold do.

Philip answered him: two hundred peny-worthe of breed are not sufficient for them: þ every man maye take a lytell. One of his disciples (Andrew, Symon Peters brother) sayeth vnto him: There is a lad here, which hath fyue barley loaves and two fyshes: but what are they among so many? And Jesus sayd: Make þ people lyt down. There was much grasse in þ place. So þ me late downe in nombre, about fyue thousande. And Jesus toke the breed: And whan he had geuen thankes, he gaue to the disciples, and þ disciples to the that were set down. And lyke-wyle of the fyshes as moche as they wolde.

¶ When they had eaten ynough, he sayeth vnto his disciples: gather vp þ brokē meate whych remaineth, þ nothyng be lost. And they gathered it together, and fylled twelue baskettes wth the brokē meate of the fyue barly loaves: whych broken meate remayned vnto them that had eaten. ¶ Then those men (when they had sene the myracle that Jesus dyd) sayd: this is of a trueth: & þ same prophete, þ shulde come into the worlde. ¶ ¶ When Jesus therfore perceaued, that they wold come, and take hym vp to make hym kyng, & he departed agayne into a mountayne hym selfe alone.

* And when euen was now come, hys dysciples wē do vnto the see, & gat vp into a shyppe: and came ouer the see vnto Capernaui. And it was now darcke, and Jesus was not come to them. And þ see arose with a greete wynde that blew. So when they had rowen about a. xlv. or. xxx. furlonges, they sawe Jesus walkyng on the see: & drawing nye vnto the shyppe, & they wer afrayed. But he sayeth vnto the: It is I, be not afrayde. ¶ The wold they haue receaued hym into the shyp, and immediatly the shyp was at the lande whither they went.

¶ The daye folowynge wān the people (which stode on þ other syde of the see) saue that there was none other shyp there, saue þ one where into hys disciples were entred & that Jesus went not in wth his disciples into þ shyp, but that his disciples wer gone awaye alone (howbeit, there cā other shyppes fro Tyberias nye vnto the place, where they dyd eate bred, after that the Loꝝde had geue thankes) when þ people therfore sawe that Jesus was not there, neither hys disciples, they also toke shyppyng, and came to Capernaum, sekynge for Jesus.

¶ And when they had founde hym on the other syde of the see, they sayde vnto hym: Rabbi, whē camest thou thither? Jesus answered the, and sayde: verely, verely I sape vnto you: ye seke me, not because ye sawe þ myracles, but because ye dyd eate of the loaues, and were fylled.

* Labour not for the meate which perisseth, but for that whych endureth vnto euertlastyng lyfe, whych meate the sonne of man shall geue vnto you. ¶ For hym hath God the father sealed.

¶ Then sayd they vnto hym: what shall we do, that we myghte worke the woꝝkes of God? Jesus answered & sayd vnto the: this is the worke of God: that ye beleue on hym, whome þ Luke. vii. c John. i. vi. b

þ Luke. vi. d

þ an. at. r. i. i. f. e
þ an. at. r. i. i. f. e

The Gospell

* Math. xii. c
and. xvi. a Mark. viii. b Luce. xi. d

* Exod. xvi. b

* Mat. xvi. c

whom he hath sent. They sayd therfore vnto him * what signe shewest thou then, that we maye se, & beleue the? What doest thou worke? Our fathers dyd eate Manna in the desert as it is writte. he gaue the bzeed from heauen to eate. Then Iesus sayde vnto the: verely, verely I saye vnto you: Moyses gaue you not that bzeed from heauen: * but my father geueth you the true bzeed from heauen. For the bzeed of God is he, whiche cometh downe from heauen, and geueth lyfe vnto the worlde.

Then sayd they vnto him: Lord euermore geue vs thys bzeed. And Iesus sayde vnto them: I am the bzeed of lyfe. he y cometh to me shall not hunger: and he that belueth on me shall neuer thirst. But I saye vnto you: that ye also haue sene me, and yet ye beleue not. All that y father geueth me shall come to me: and him that cometh to me, I cast not awaye. For I came downe fro heauen: * not to do that I will, but that he wil, which hath sent me. And this is the fathers wyll whych hath sent me, that of all whych he hath geuen me, I shall loose nothyng: but rapse them vp agayne at the last daye. And this is y will of him that sent me: that euery one whych seeth the sonne, and beleueth on him, haue eueralsting lyfe. And I wyl rapse him vp at the last day. The Jewes the murmured at him, because he sayd: I am y bzeed (of lyfe) which came downe from heauē: And they sayde: * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Joseph, whose father & mother we knowe?

* Luce. xii. e

* John. vi. e

* Mat. xii. g
Mark. vi. a

How is it the y he sayeth, I cam downe fro heauen? Iesus answered and sayd vnto the: Murmure not amonge youre selues.

* John. vii. g

* No man can come to me, excepte the father which hath sent me, drawe him: And I will rapse him vp at y last daye. It is writen in the Prophetes: * and they shall be all taught of God. Euery man therfore y hath hearde, and hath learned of the father, cometh vnto me. * Not that eny mā hath sene the father, saue he which is of God the same hath sene the father.

* Isa. lii. b
i. John. ii. d

* Ex. xvi. d Deuter. xix. b Judges. vi. g
and. xiii. d
John. i. c
i. John. xiii. b

Verely, verely I saye vnto you: he y putteth his trust in me, hath eueralsting lyfe. I am that bzeed of lyfe. Your fathers dyd eate Manna in the wylernes, & are deed. Thys is that bzeed, whych cometh downe from heauen, that a man maye eate therof, & not dye. I am that lyfynge bzeed, whych came downe from heauen. If eny mā eate of thys bzeed: he shall lyue for euer. * And the bzeed y that I will geue, is my fleshe, whych I wyl geue for the lyfe of the worlde.

* Luce. xvi. e

The Jewes therfore stroue amonge them selues, saying: how ca this felowe geue vs y flesh of his to eate? Then Iesus sayde vnto them: * Verely, verely I saye vnto you excepte ye eate the fleshe of the sonne of man and dryncke hys bloude: ye haue no lyfe in you. Whoso eateth my fleshe and dryncketh my bloud, hath eternall lyfe, & I wyl rapse him vp at the last daye. For my fleshe is meate in dede: and my bloude is dryncke in dede. he y eateth my fleshe & dryncketh my bloude dwelleth in me and I in hym. As the lyuing father hath sent me, and I lyue for y father: Euen so he that eateth me, shall lyue by y meanes of me. This is y bzeed, whiche came downe fro heauē: not as youre fathers dyd eate Manna, & are deed. he that eateth of this bzeed, shall lyue euer.

These thynges sayd he in the synagoge, as he taught in Capernaum. Many therfore of his disciples (whē they had herde thys) sayd: this is an harde sayinge: who can abyde the hearynge of it? Iesus knewe in hym selfe, y his disciples murmured at it: & he sayd vnto them: Noth thys offende you: What and ye shall se y sonne of man ascende vp thither where he was before? It is the spiete that quykkeneth, the fleshe proffeteth nothyng. The wordes y I speake vnto you are spiete and lyfe. But there are some of you that beleue not. For Iesus knewe from the begynninge, whych they were, that beleued not, & who shulde betraue him. And he sayde: therfore sayd I vnto you: that * no mā can come vnto me, excepte it were geuen vnto hym of my father.

* John. vi. e

From y tyme many of his disciples went backe, & forsoke hym, and walked nomore with him. Then sayde Iesus to the twelue: will ye also goo awaye? Then Symon Peter answered hym: Lorde, to whom shall we go? Thou halste the wordes of eternall lyfe, & we beleue and are sure that thou arte Christ the sonne of the lyfynge God. Iesus answered the: haue not I chosen you twelue, and * one of you is a deuyll: he spake of Judas Iscariot the sonne of Symon. For he it was, that shulde betraue hym, drynge one of the twelue.

* Mat. xvi. b
Luce. xii. e
John. vi. e

* Luce. xii. e
John. vi. e

C The. vii. Chapter.

Iesus cometh to Ierusalem at the feast, teacheth y Jewes & reprooueth them: Ther are diuerse opynions of him amonge the people. The pharisees rebuke the dyssciples, because they haue not brought him, & eate wyth hys odenus for takynge hys part.

After these thynges, Iesus went aboute in Galyle: for he wolde not go about in Jewry because that the Jewes sought to kyl hym. The Jewes * feast of tabernacles was at hande. His brethern therfore sayde vnto him get the henc, and go into Jewry, that thy disciples also maye lethe thy workes that thou doest. For there is no mā that doeth eny thyng in secret, and he hym selfe seeketh to be knowne openly. If thou do soch thynges, shewe thy selfe to y worlde.

* John. vi. e

* John. vi. e

* John. vi. e

* John. vi. e

* John. vi. e

for his brethren beleued not in him.

Then Iesus sayde vnto them: My tyme is not yet come: but your tyme is all waye ready. The worlde cannot hate you. * But me it hateth: because I testify of it, that the workes therof are euill: So ye vp vnto this feaste. I wyl not go vp yet vnto this feaste, for my tyme is not yet full com. What he had sayde these wordes vnto them he abode still in Galile. But as sone as his brethren were come, then wet he also vp vnto the feaste, not openly: but as it were pryncely. The Iowes sought him the Iewes at the feaste, & sayde: * where is he? And moche murmure was there of him amonge the people. For some sayde. * he is good, other sayde naye, but he deceaueth the people. Howbeit: no man spake openly of him, for feare of the Iewes.

¶ Nowe when halfe of the feaste was done, Iesus went vp into the temple, and taught. And the Iewes marueyled sayinge: howe knoweth he the scriptures, seyinge y he neuer learned? Iesus answered them, & sayde: My doctrine is not myne: but hys y sent me. If any man wyl be obedient vnto hys will, he shal knowe of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe. He y speaketh of him selfe, seeketh his own praysse: But he that seeketh his praysse that sent him the same is true, & no vnyghty welnes is in hym.

* Wyl not Moses geue you a lawe: & yet none of you kepeth y lawe: why go ye about to kyll me? The people answered and sayd:

Thou hast the deuyl: who goeth about to kyll the? Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them: * I haue done one worcke, and ye all maruaile. Moses therfore gaue vnto you y circumcision: not because it is of Moses: but of the fathers. And yet ye on the Saboth daye, circuncise a man. If a mā on the Saboth daye receaue circumcision without breakeinge of the lawe of Moses: disdayne ye at me, because I haue made a man every whyt whoole on the Saboth daye? * Judge not after the viter apereunce, but iudge with a rightewys iudgement.

Then sayde some of them of Ierusalem: is not this he, whom they go about to kyll? But he speaketh boldly, and they saye no thing to him. Do the rulers knowe in dede y this is very Christ? Howbeit * we knowe this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

The cried Iesus in y temple (as he taught) sayinge: ye both knowe me, and wher I am ye knowe. And I am not come of my selfe: but he that sent me is true, whom ye knowe not. But I knowe hi. (And yf I saye y I knowe him not, I shalbe a lyer lyke vnto you, but I knowe hym) for I am of hi, & he hath sent me. * The they sought to take hym: but no mā layde handes on him, because his houre was not yet come: * Many of the people beleued on hym, & sayd: when Christ cometh, will he do moore miracles the these, that this mā hath done?

The pharises hearde that the people murmured such thinges concerning him. * And the pharises and hye prestes sent ministers to take him. The sayde Iesus vnto the: Per am I a lytell whyle wyth you: & then go I vnto him that sent me. Ye shall seke me, and shall not fynde me: & where I am, thither can ye not come. Then sayde the Iewes among them selues: whyther will he go, that we shall not fynde him? Will he go amonge the gentyles (which are scattered abroode) & teach the gētyles? What maner of sayinge is this that he sayde, ye shall seke me, & shall not fynde me: and where I am, thither can ye not come?

In the last daye, that great daye of the feaste Iesus stode, and cryed, sayinge: * If any man thyrst, let hym come vnto me, & dryncke. He that beleueth on me (as sayeth y scripture) out of hys belly shall flowe riuers of water of lyfe. But this spake he of y spyete, whych they that beleue on hym, shal receaue. * For y holy goost was not yet there, because Iesus was not yet glorified.

¶ Many of the people therfore (whē they heard this sayinge) sayd: of a truerth this is a prophete: but other sayde: this is Christ. But some sayd: Hal Christ come out of Galile? * Sayeth not y scripture, y Christ shal come of y seed of Dauid: & out of the towne of Bethleem where Dauid was? So was ther dissensyon among the people because of him. And some of the wold haue taken hym but no man layed handes on him. The came the ministers to the hye prestes and pharises. And they sayde vnto them: why haue ye not brought him? The ministers answered: neuer mā spake as this mā doeth. Then answered the pharises: are ye also disceaued? Doth eny of the rulers or of the pharises beleue on him? But this comen people whych knowe not the lawe, are cursed. Nicodemus sayeth vnto them (* he that came to Iesus by nyght, & was one of the) Doth our lawe iudge eny mā, before it heare hym, & knowe what he hath done? They answered, & sayd vnto hi: art y also of Galile? Search & loke for out of Galile aryleth no prophete. And euery man went vnto hys owne house.

¶ The viij. Chapter.

A woman is take in adoultre. Christ disnereth her. The frendes of such as folowe Christ, whiche they accuse to haue the deuyl within hym, and go about to kyll him.

Iesus wet * vnto mount Oliuete, and early in y morninge he came agayne into the temple, and all y people cam vnto him, & he sat downe, & taught them. And y scribes and pharises

* John. viij. d

* Mat. xxi. b
* Marke. xii. a
* Luke. xi. d

* John. viii. c
* and. xii. d

* Mat. ix. a

* John. xii. c
* and. vi. d
* Luke. vii. c
* Mat. xxi. b

* Mathe. x. a
* Mat. xi. a

* John. xii. a

* Mat. xxi. a
* Marke. xii. a
* Luke. xix. e

The Gospell

* Luke. xx. b.

riſes brought vnto hym a woman taken in aduouty: & whā they had ſet hir in ſ myddes, they ſaye vnto hym: Maſter thys woman was taken in aduouty, euē as the dede was a doyng. * Moſes in the lawe commaunded vs, that ſuche ſhuld be ſtoned. But what ſayeſt thou? This they ſayd to tempt hym that they might accuſe hym. But Jeſus ſcouped downe, and with hys ſpynger wrote on the grounde. So, whā they continued aſkynge hym, he lyfte hym ſelfe vp, and ſayd vnto the: let him that is amonge you without ſpyne, caſte the fyrſt ſtone at her. And agayne he ſcouped downe, & wrote on the ground. And aſſone as they heard this, they wēt out one by one, beginning at the eldeſt. And Jeſus was lefte alone, and the woman ſtandynge in the myddes. Whē Jeſus had lyfte vp himſelfe, and ſawe no man, but the woman, he ſayde vnto her: woman, where are thoſe thyne accuſars: hath no man condemned the? She ſayde: No mā, Lord. And Jeſus ſayde: Nether do I condemne the. Go and ſpyne nomore. ¶

* John. v. c.

* John. i. a
17. a. 19. g

* Then ſpake Jeſus agayne vnto them ſayinge: * I am the lyght of the world. He that foloweth me, both not walke in darcknes but ſhall haue ſlyght of lyfe. The phariſes therfore ſayd vnto him: thou beareſt recorde of thy ſelfe, thy recorde is not true. Jeſus answered, and ſayd vnto the: thought I beare recorde of my ſelfe, yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whēce I came, and whither I go. But ye can not ſel whence I come, and whither I go. Ye iudge after the fleſhe, I iudge no man. And yet I iudge, my iudgement is true. For I am not alone: but I & the father that ſent me. ¶

* Mat. 17. d
Deu. 17. d
and. 17. d
Mat. 17. d
11. Cor. 1. d
1. Tim. 1. d
1. Cor. 1. d

¶ It is alſo wyrtten in poure lawe, that the testimony of two men is true. I am one that beareth wytnes of my ſelfe, & the father that ſent me, beareth wytnes of me. Then ſayd they vnto him: where is thy father? Jeſus answered: ye nether knowe me: nor yet my father. If ye had knowe me, ye ſhulde haue knowe my father alſo. Theſe wordes ſpake Jeſus in the treaſury, as he taught in the temple, and no man layde handes on hym * for his houre was not yet come. ¶

* Mat. 17. d

* John. 17. d
and. 17. d

¶ Then ſayde Jeſus agayne vnto them: * I go my waye, & ye ſhall ſeke me, & ſhall dye in your ſynnes. Whither I go, thither can ye not come. The ſayde the Jewes: wyl he kyll him ſelfe: becauſe he ſayth: whither I go, thither can ye not come? And he ſayde vnto them: ye are fro beneth, I am from aboue. Ye are of this world, I am not of this world. I ſayd therfore vnto you, & ye ſhall dye in your ſynnes. For * ye ſhall beleue not that I am he, ye ſhall dye in your ſynnes. ¶

* Mat. 17. d
John. 17. d

¶ The ſayde they vnto him: who arte thou? And Jeſus ſayeth vnto them: Euē the very ſame thyng that I ſpeake vnto you. I haue many thynges to ſaye, and to iudge of you. Yet, & he that ſent me, is true. * And I ſpeake in the world, thoſe thynges, whych I haue heard of hym. Howbeyt they underſtoode not that he ſpake of hys father. Then ſayde Jeſus vnto them: when ye haue lyfte vp an hys the ſonne of man, then ſhall ye knowe, & I am he: and that I do nothing of my ſelfe but * as my father hath taught me, euē ſo I ſpeake theſe thynges: and he that ſent me, is w me. The father hath not left me alone, for I do all wayes thoſe thynges that pleaſe hym. ¶ As he ſpake thoſe wordes, * many beleued on hym. ¶

* John. 17. d
and. 17. d

* John. 17. d

¶ Then ſayde Jeſus to thoſe Jewes, whych beleued on hym: If ye continue in my worde, then are ye my very diſciples, and ye ſhall knowe the trueth: and the trueth ſhall make you free. They answered hym: We be Abrahams ſeed, and were neuer bōde to any man: howe ſayeſt thou then: ye ſhall be made fre? ¶

* John. 17. d
and. 17. d
1. Cor. 1. d

¶ Jeſus answered the: verely, verely I ſaye vnto you, that wholoener comitteth ſinne, is the ſeruaunte of ſynne. And the ſeruaunt abydeth not in the houſe for euer: But the ſonne abideth euer. If ſonne therfore ſhall make you fre, then are ye fre in dede. I know that ye are Abrahams ſeed: but ye ſeke meanes to kill me, becauſe my word hath no place in you. I ſpeake that whych I haue ſene wyth my father: and ye do that, whych ye haue ſene wyth your father. They answered and ſayde vnto him: Abraham is our father. Jeſus ſayeth vnto them: If ye were Abrahams chyldren, ye woulde do the dedes of Abraham. But now ye go about to kyll me, a man that hath tolde you the trueth whych I haue heard of God: thys dyd not Abraham. Ye do the dedes of your father. Then ſayde they to him: We were not borne of fornicatio. We haue one father euē God. Jeſus ſayde vnto them: yf God were your father, truly ye wold loue me. For I proccaded forth, and came fro God. Nether cam I of my ſelfe, but he ſent me: Why do ye not knowe my ſpeache? Euē becauſe ye cannot abyde the hearing of my worde. ¶

¶ Ye are of your father & deuyll, and the luſtes of your father wyl ye ſerue. * He was a murderer from the beginning and abode not in the trueth, becauſe there is no trueth in him. Whē he ſpakeſt a lye, he ſpakeſt of his owne: For he is a lyar, & father of the ſame thyng. And becauſe I tell you the trueth, therfore ye beleue me not. ¶

* John. 17. d
and. 17. d

¶ Whych of you rebuketh me of ſynne? If I ſaye the trueth, why do not ye beleue me? * He that is of God, beareth Goddes wordes. Ye therfore heare them not, becauſe ye are not of God. ¶ Then answered the Jewes

* John. 17. d
and. 17. d

the Iues, & sayde vnto hym: Saye we not well, that thou art a Samaritan, & hast þe dyuell. Iesus answered: I haue not the de- uill: but I honour my father, & ye haue dis- honoured me. I seeke not myne owne pryse: there is one that seketh, and iudgeth.

Verely verely, I saye vnto you: þe man þe I saye, he shall neuer se death. The Iues sayde vnto hym: Howe knowe we that thou hast the dyuell. Abrahā is dead, & the prophetes, & þu sayest: þe man kepe my sayng, he shall neuer tast of death. Art thou greater then oure father Abraham, whiche is dead: and þe prophetes are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

Iesus answered: Þe I honour my selfe, myne honoure is nothing. It is my father, þe honoureth me, which ye saye, is your God, & ye haue not knowen hym: but I knowe him. And þe I saye, I know him not, I shal be as ylar lyke vnto you. But I know him, and kepe hys sayenge.

Your father Abraham was glad to se my sayng: & he saue it, & reioyced. Then sayde the Iues vnto him: thou arte not yet. I pere- dynt, & hast thou sene Abraham? Iesus sayde vnto them: Verely verely, I saye vnto you: Abraham was borne, * I am. & the toke they by stones, to cast at hi: But Iesus hyd him selfe, & went out of the temple. ¶

¶ The ix. Chapter. ¶

¶ Christ maketh the man to se that was borne blynde.

¶ As Iesus passed by, he sawe a man whiche was blynde fro his byrth. And his disciples asked of say- inge: Master, who dyd synne, this man, or his fa- ther & mother, þe he was borne blynde? Iesus an- swered: Neither hath this man synned, nor yet his father & mother: but that þe worke is of God shuld be thewed in hi. I must worke the workes of hym that sent me, whyle it is daye. The nyght commeth, whē no man can worke. As longe as I am in the world, * I am the lyght of the world.

¶ As he had thus spokē, he spat on þe grounde, & made claye of the spittle, & rub- beth the claye on the eyes of þe blynde, & sayde vnto him: Go, washe the in the pole of * Si- loe, which (by interpretation) is as moche to saye as, sent. He went his waye therfore, & washed, & came agayne, seing. So þe neygbdours and they þe had sene him before (howe that he was a beggar) sayde: Is not this he þe sat & begged? Some sayde: this is he. A- gayne, other sayde: * (as, but) he is lyke him.

¶ He him self sayde: I am euen he. Therfore sayde they vnto him: Howe are thyne eyes opened? He answered & sayd: The man þe is called Iesus, made claye, & anointed myne eyes, and sayde vnto me: Go to the pole Si- loe, and washe. And whan I went and was- shed, I receyued my syght. Then sayde they vnto him: where is he: he sayd: I ca not tel.

¶ They brought to the Pharises, him that a lytel before was blynde: & it was þe Sab- both daye, when Iesus made the claye, and opened his eyes. Then agayne the Pharises also asked hym, howe he had receyued hys syght. He sayde vnto them: he put claye vpo myne eyes, and I washed, and do se. Ther- fore sayd some of the Pharises: this man is not of God, because he kepeth not the Sab- both daye. Other sayde: * howe can a man þe is a synner, do suche miracles? And there was a strepe amonge them. They spake vn- to the blynde man agayne: what sayest þu of him, because he hath opened thyne eyes? he sayde: * he is a prophete.

¶ But the Iues dyd not beleue of the man (howe þe he had bene blynd, and receyued his syght) vntill they called the father and mo- ther of hym þe had receyued hys syght. And they asked them, sayenge: Is this your sonne whome ye saye was borne blynde? howe doth he nowe se then? his father and mother an- swered them, and sayd: we knowe, that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blynde: but by what meanes he nowe seeth, we can not tell. Or who hath opened hys eyes, can not we tell. He is olde ynough, as he hym, let him aunswere for him selfe. Suche woordes spake hys father and mother, because they feared the Iues. For the Iues had cōspyred alredy, that þe any man dyd confesse that he was Christ, * he shulde be excommunicat out of the Synagoge. Therfore sayd his father and mother: he is olde ynough, as he hym.

¶ Then agayne called they þe man that was blynde, and sayde vnto hym: Gyue God the prayse: we knowe that this man is a synner: he answered therfore, and sayd: Whyther he be a synner or no, I can not tel. One thing I am sure of: that where as I was blynde, nowe I se. Then sayd they to hym agayne: what dyd he to þe? howe opened he thyne eyes? he aunswered them: I tolde you yet- whyle, & ye dyd not heare. Wherefore wolde ye heare it agayne? Wyl ye also be his disci- ples? Then rated they hym, and sayde: We thou hys disciple. We are Moses disciples. We are sure, that God spake vnto Moses. As for this felowe, we knowe not frome whence he is.

¶ The man answered, and sayd vnto them: this is a marvelous thing, that ye wote not frome whence he is, and yet he hath opened myne eyes. For we be sure, that God hea- reth not synners. But þe any man be a wor- shipper of God, and obedient vnto his wil, him heareth he. Sece the world began, was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one

* Mat. xii. a. mar. ii. d. Luke. vi. a. John. b. b. and. bii. c.

* John. vii. g. and. f. d.

* John. vii. f.

* Job. xii. f.

The Gospell

of one that was borne blynde. If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothig. They answered, & sayde vnto him: thou art all together borne in synne, & dost thou teache vs? And they cast him out.

G Jesus heard that they had excommunicate him: and when he had founde hym, he sayde vnto hym: dost thou beleue on the sonne of God? he answered & sayde: Who is it Lord that I myght beleue on? And Jesus sayd vnto him: Thou hast sene him, & he it is that talketh with the. And he sayde: Lord, I beleue, & he worshipped him. And Jesus sayde vnto him: I am come vnto iudgement into this worlde: & they which se not myght se: and that they which se, myght be made blynde. And some of the Pharisees which were wth hym, hearde these wordes & sayde vnto hym: are we blynde also? Jesus sayd vnto them: * If ye were blynde, ye shulde haue no synne. But now ye saye: we se, therfore your synne remaineth.

The .x. Chapter.

Christ is the true shepherde, and the doze of the shepe be cetereth the truth, and therfore the Iews take vp stoness to cast at him, and call his preaching blasphemie, and go about to take him.

A Verely verely, I saye vnto you: he that entred in by the doze into the shepefold, but clymmed vp some other waye, & same is a thefe and a murtherer. But he that entred in by the doze is the shepherde of the shepe: to hym the porter openeth, and the shepe heare his voyce, & he calleth his owne shepe by name, and leade them out. And when he hath sent forth his owne shepe, he goeth before them, and the shepe folowe him: for they know his voyce. A straunger will they not folowe, but will flye fro him: for they knowe not the voyce of straungers. This Douer spake Jesus vnto them. But they vnderstode not what thinges they were, which he spake vnto the.

B Then sayd Jesus vnto them agayne. Verely verely, I saye vnto you: * I am the doze of the shepe. All (euen as many as came before me) are theues and murtherers: but the shepe byd not heare them. I am the doze: by me yf any man enter in, he shalbe safe, & shal go in and out, & fynde pasture. A thefe cometh not but for to steale, kyll, & to destroye. I am come, & they myght haue lyfe, & that they myght haue it moze aboundantly.

I * I am the good shepherde. A good shepherde gyueth his lyfe for the shepe. An hyred seruaunt, & he which is not the shepherde (neither the shepe are his owne) seeth the wolfe comynge, and leaueth the shepe, and flyeth, and the wolfe catcheth, and scattereth the shepe. The hyred seruaunt flyeth, because he is an hyred seruaunt, & careth not for the shepe. I am the good shepherde, & knowe my shepe, and am knowen of myne. * As my father knoweth me, euen so know I also my father. And * I gyue my lyfe for the shepe: & other shepe I haue, whyche are not of this fold. Them also must I bringe, & they shall heare my voyce, & there shalbe one fold and one shepeherd. * Therfore doth my father lone me, because I put my lyfe from me, & I myght take it agayne. No man taketh it fro me: but I put it away of my self. I haue power to put it from me, and I haue power to take it agayne. This comaundement haue I receyued of my father. There was a dissencion therfore agayne amonge the Jewes for these sayenges, & many of them sayde: * he hath the dyuell, & is mad: why beare ye hym? Other sayde: * these are not the wordes of him that hath the dyuell. Can the dyuell open the eyes of the blynde?

I And it was at Ierusalem the feaste of the dedicacion, and it was wynter: and Jesus walked in the temple, euen in Salomons porch. Then came the Iues rounde aboute him, and sayd vnto him: howe longe dost thou make vs doute? If thou be Christ, tell vs playnely. Jesus answered them: I tolde you, and ye beleue not. The workes that I do in my fathers name, they beare witness of me. But ye beleue not, because ye are not of my shepe. As I sayde vnto you: my shepe heare my voyce: And I knowe them, & they folowe me, & I gyue vnto them eternall lyfe & they shall neuer perishe, neyther shal any man plucke them out of my hande. My father which gaue them me, is greater then al, and no man is able to take them out of my fathers hande: I and my father are one.

Then the Iues agayne toke vp stones, to stone hym wth the hall. Jesus answered the: many good workes haue I shewed you fro my father: for which of them do ye stone me? The Iues answered hym, sayenge. For thy good workes sake we stone thee not: but for thy blasphemie, & because that thou denynge a man, makest thy selfe God. Jesus answered them: Is it not wytt in your lawe: * I sayde, ye are goddes: If he called them goddes, vnto whom the worde of God was spoken (and the scripture can not be broken concernyng hym whom the father hath sanctified, and sent into the worlde). Do ye saye that I blaspheme? because I sayde, I am the sonne of God? If I do not the workes of my father, beleue me not. But yf I do, and yf ye beleue not me, beleue the workes: that ye maye knowe & beleue, that the father is in me, and I in hym.

A Agayne they went about to take him: & he escaped out of the hand, & went awaye agayne beyonde Iordan, into a place where John before had baptised, & there he abode. And many resorted vnto hym, and sayde: John John dyd no miracle, but *all thinges that John spake of this man were true. And many beleued on him there.

The xi. Chapter.

Christ rayseth Lazarus from the dead. The hye prestes and pharises gather a counsell agaynst him. He getteth him out of the waye.

A Certayne man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania the towne of Mary, and her syster Martha. It was Mary which annoynted Iesus with oyntment, & wyped his fete wth her heare, whose brother Lazarus was sicke. Therefore, his systers sent vnto hym, sayeng: Lord, behold he whos p^r louest, is sicke. When Iesus herd that, he sayde thys infirmite is not vnto death: but for the prayse of God, that p^r sone of God *myght be praysed by the reason of it. Iesus loued Martha and her syster and Lazarus. When he had hearde therefore that he was sicke, he abode two dayes styll in the same place where he was.

Then after p^r, sayd he to his disciples: let vs go into Ier^usalem agayn. His disciples said vnto hym: Master, p^r Jewes lately *sought to stone the, & wilt thou go thither agayne? Iesus answered: are there not xii. houres of the daye? If any man walke in the daye, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the lyght of thys worlde. But if a mā walke in p^r nyght he stumbleth, because there is no lyght in hym. Thys sayd he, and after that he sayde vnto them: oure frende Lazarus *sleepeth, but I go to wake hym oute of slepe. Then saide his disciples: Lord, if he slepe, he shal do well ynough. Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death, but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall slepe. Then sayde Iesus vnto them: playnely Lazarus is dead, and I am glad for your sakes, that I was not ther because ye maye beleue. Neuertheles, let vs go vnto him. Then sayd *Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto the disciples: let vs also go, that we maye dye wyth hym. The went Iesus, and founde that he had lye in his graue foure days already. Bethany was nye vnto Ierusalem, about fyftene furlonges of, ad many of the Jewes came to Martha and Mary to confort the ouer their brother. Martha assone as she hearde that Iesus was commynge, went and met hym: but Mary sat styll in the house.

Then sayd Martha vnto Iesus: Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not dyed: neuerthelesse, nowe I knowe that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God wyll gyue it the. Iesus sayd vnto her: Thy brother shal r^{ise} agayne. Martha sayd vnto hym: I knowe that he shal r^{ise} agayne in the resurrection at the last daye. Iesus sayd vnto her: I am the resurrection and the *lyfe: he that beleueth on me, ye though he were dead, yet shall he lyue. And whosoener lyueth and beleueth on me shal neuer dye: Beleuest thou thys? She sayde vnto hym: yea Lord, I beleue that thou art Christ the sone of God, which shuld come into the worlde. And assone as he had so sayde, she wente her waye, & called Mary her syster secretly, sayenge: The Master is come, and calleth for p^r Assone as she heard that she arose quickly, and came vnto him. Iesus was not yet come into the towne: but was in that place where Martha met hym. The Iues the which were with her in the house & comforted her, (when they sawe Mary that she rose vp hastily, & went out) folowed her, sayenge: She goeth vnto the graue to wepe there.

Then when Mary was come wher Iesus was, and saue him, she cometh nye vnto his fete, and sayeth vnto him: Lord, *if I had *dest bene here, my brother had not ben dead. When Iesus therfore sawe her wepe (and p^r Iues also wepinge which came with her) he groined in the sprete, & was troubled in hym selfe, and sayde: Where haue ye layde him? They sayde vnto him: Lord, come, and se. And *Jesus wepte. Then sayde the Jewes: Behold, how he loued him. And some of the sayde: coulde not he whych *opened the eyes of the blynde, haue made also, that thys man shulde not haue dyed? Iesus therfore agayn groined in hym selfe, and came to the graue. It was a caue, and a stone layde on it.

Iesus sayde: take ye awaye p^r stone. Martha the syster of him that was dead, sayd vnto hym: Lord, by this tyme he stinketh. For he hath bene dead foure dayes. Iesus said vnto her: Sayd I not vnto p^r, that if p^r diddest beleue, thou shuldest se the gloire of God? The they toke awaye the stone from p^r place wher he that had bene dead, was layd. And Iesus lyft vp his eyes, and sayde: Father, I thanke the, that thou hast hearde me. Howbeit, I knew, that thou hearest me alwayes but *because of the people which stande by. I sayde it, that they maye beleue, that thou hast sent me.

And when he thus had spoken, he cryed wth a loude voyce: Lazarus, come forth. And he that was dead, came forth, bounde hande & fote with graue clothes, & his face was bounde with a naphyn. Iesus sayd vnto the loofe him and let him go. Then many of the Iues which came to Mary (*had sene p^r thinges which Iesus dyd) *beleued on him. But some of them went thepy wayes to the pharises, & tolde the what Iesus had done.

Then gathered the hye prestes & the pharises a counsell, & sayde: what do we? For thys mā doth many miracles. If we let hym scape thus, all men will beleue on him, and p^r Romayns shal come, and take awaye both our towne and the people. And one of them

ff. ii. named

The Gospell

* Job. xlii. b

named Caiaphas being the hye priest & same yere sayde vnto them: Ye perceyue nothing at all, nor consyder, that it is expedient for vs, that one man dye for the people, & not y all the people perye. This spake he not of him self, but beyng hye priest that same yere he prophesied that Iesus shulde dye for the people, and not for the people onely, but y he shulde gather together in one, the chyldren of God, that were scatered abroade: * Then from y dape forth they toke counsel together, for to put hym to death.

* Mat. xxi. a
* Marke. xxi. a
* Luke. xxi. a

Iesus therfore walked no more openly amonge the Jewes: but went his way thence vnto a coutry nye to a wyldernes, into a cytie which is called Ephraim, & there cōtinued with his disciples. And y Jewes Easter was nye at hāde, & many went out of y coutry vp to Jerusalem before the Easter, to purify them selues. The sought they for Iesus & spake amōge them selues, as they stode in the temple: What thynke ye, seynge he cometh not to the feast dape? The hye prestes & Pharises had gyuen a commaundement, that yf any man knewe where he were, he shulde shewe it, y they myght take him. ¶

* John. vii. b

* John. ix. e

The xii. Chapter.

¶ Chap. anopnteth Christes fete. Judas murmured Christe crucified her, and ledeth into Jerusalem.

* Mat. xxi. a
* Marke. xxi. a
* Luke. xxi. a

Ihen Iesus (foure dapes before Easter) came to Bethany, wher Lazarus had bene dead, who he ray sed fro death. There they made him a supper, & Martha serued, but Lazarus was one of them that late at y table with him. * The toke Mary a poude of opyntment (called Nardus, perfect & precious) & anointed Iesus fete, & wyped his fete with her heare, & the house was fylled with the odoure of the opyntment. * Then sayd one of his disciples: euen Judas Iscarioth Simōs sonne, which after ward betrayed him/ why was not this opyntment solde for thre hundred pence, & geuen to the poze? This he sayd, not y he cared for the poze, but because he was a thefe & had the bagge, & bare y whych was gyuen. Then sayd Iesus: Let her alone, against the day of my buryng hath she kept this. For the poze alwayes shal ye haue w you, but me haue ye not alwaye.

* Luke. vii. f

* Mat. xxi. a
* Marke. xxi. a

* Job. xlii. b

Muche people of the Jewes therfore had knowledge y he was there. And they came not for Iesus sake onely, but y they myghte se Lazarus also whom he ray sed from deth. But the hye prestes helde a counsell, y they myght put Lazarus to deth also, because y for his sake many of the Jewes went away and belened on Iesus. ¶

* John. xi. b

* Mat. xxi. a
* Marke. xi. a

* On the next dape moche people y were come to the feast, when they hearde that Iesus shuld come to Jerusalem, toke braunches of palme trees, & went forth to mete hym, & cryed: Hosanna, & blessed is he that in y name of the Lord, cometh kynge of Israel. And Iesus got a ponge alle, & late thereon, as it is wyrtten: feare not daughter of Sion, be holde, thy kynge cometh spitting on an asses colte. These thynges vnderstode not his disciples at the fyrste: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they y such thynges were wyrtten of him, and that such thynges they had done vnto hym. The people y was with him (when he called Lazarus out of his graue, and ray sed him fro death) bare recorde. Therfore met him y people also, because they heard that he had done such a miracle. The Pharises therfore sayde amonge them selues: perceyue ye, howe we preuayle nothyng: beholde, (all the hys) worlde goeth after hym.

* There were certayne Grekes amonge them, that came to worshyp at the feast: the same cam therfore to Philip (whych was of Bethsaida a cytie of Galile) & desyred hym sayng: Syr, we wolde sayne se Iesus. Philip came and tolde Andrew. And agayne Andrew & Philip tolde Iesus. And Iesus answered the, sayenge: the houre is come, that the sonne of man must be glorified.

* Verely verely, I saye vnto you: except the wheate corne fall into the ground, & dye it bydeth alone. Yf it dye, it byngeth for the muche frute. * he that loueth hys lyfe, shal dystrope it: & he that hateth hys lyfe, in this world, shal kepe it vnto lyfe eternal. Yf any man minister vnto me, let him folowe me: * where I am, ther shal also my minister be. Yf any man minister vnto me, hym wyl my father honoure. ¶

Now is my soule troubled, & what shal I saye: ffather, delpyer me from this houre: but therfore came I into this houre. Father glorifye thy name. Then came ther a voyce from heauen, sayng: I haue both glorified it, & wyl glorifye it agayne. The people therfore that stode by & heard it, sayd: y it thundred. Other sayd: an Angell spake to him: Iesus answered & sayd: this voyce came not bycause of me, but for your sakes.

* Now is y iudgement of this world: * now shal the prync of this world be cast out. And I (yf I were lyft vp from the erth) wil drawe all men vnto me. This he sayde: signifying what death he shoulde dye. The people answered him: We haue heard out of the lawe: that Christ bydeth euer: & howe sayest thou, the sonne of mā must be lyft vp? who is that sonne of man? Then Iesus sayd vnto them: yet a lytle whyle is the lyght w you. * Walke whyle ye haue lyght, lest the darknesse come on you. he that walketh also in the darke, woteth not whither he goeth. Whyle ye haue light, beleue on the light that ye maye be the chyldren of the light. ¶

¶ The

These thynges spake Iesus, & departed, & hyd him selfe from them. But though he had done so many myracles before the, yet beleued not they on hym, that the sayenge of Esayas the prophete myghte be fulfilled, which he spake: * Lord, who shal beleue our sayenge? And to whom is the arme of y lord declared? Therfore could they not beleue, because that Esayas sayeth: agayne & he hath bynded theyr eyes, & hardened theyr hert, & they shulde not se wpyth theyr eyes, and least they shulde vnderstande wpyth theyr herte, & shulde be conuerted, & I shulde heale them. Such thynges sayd Esayas, when he sawe hys glozpe, & spake of hym. Neuertheles, amonge the chere rulers also, many beleued on hym. But (because of the pharises) they wolde not be acknowen of it, * least they shulde be excommunicate. & For they loued the prayse of men, more the y prayse of god. Iesus cryed, and sayd: he that beleueth on me, beleueth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth me, seeth hym that set me. * I am come * a lpyght into the worlde that whosoener beleueth on me, shulde not byde in darkenes. And yf any mā heare my wordes, & beleue not, I iudge hym not. For I came not to iudge y worlde: but to saue the worlde. he that refuseth me, & recepueth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth hym. The word that I haue spokē, the same shal iudge him in the last dape. For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the father which sent me: he gaue me a commaundement, what I shulde saye, & what I shulde speake. And I knowe that his commaundement is lye euerlastyng. What soeuer I speake therfore, euē as the father bad me, so I speake.
 ¶ The. xliij. Chapter.
 ¶ Ch. xliij. wascheth the disciples feete, tellyth the of Ihu: how he trapecture, and commaundeth them earnestly to loue one another.

BEfore the feast of Easter, when Iesus knewe y hys houre was come, y he shuld depart out of this worlde vnto the father. Whē he loued hys dyssch were in the worlde, vnto the ende he loued them. And when supper was ended, after that the dyuell had put in y herte of Judas Iscarioth Simōs sonne, to betray hym Iesus knowynge that * the father had gyven all thynges into hys handes, and that he was come fro God, & wente to God: he rose from supper, & layde asyde hys vpper garments: & when he had take a towel, he gyrded hym selfe. After that, he poured water into a bасыn, & beganne to washe the disciples fete, & to wyppen them wpyth the towel, wherwpyth he was gyrded.

Then came he to Simon Peter. And Peter sayd vnto hym: * Lord, dost thou washe my fete? Iesus answered & sayd vnto hym: * What I do, y wote it not nowe, but y shal knowe here after. Peter sayeth vnto hym: y shal neuer washe my fete. Iesus answered hym: yf I washe the not, thou hast no part wpyth me. Symon Peter sayeth vnto hym: * Lord, not my fete only, but also the handes and the head. Iesus sayeth to hym: he that is washed, nedeth not, saue to washe his fete but is cleane euery whit. And ye are cleane, * but not all. For he knewe who it was that shulde betraye hym. Therfore said he: ye are not al cleane: So after he had washed theyr fete, & receiued hys clothes, & was set downe he sayd vnto them agayne: wote ye what I haue done to you: Ye call me Master & Lord & ye saye well, for so am I. yf I then poure Lord and Master haue washed poure fete ye also ought to washe one anothers fete. For * I haue gyuen you an ensample that ye shuld do, as I haue done to you. ¶ Here ly verely, I saye vnto you: the seruante is not greater then his master, neither the messenger greater then he that sent hym.

yf ye vnderstande these thynges & happy are ye, yf ye do them. I speake not of you all I knowe whom I haue chosen. But that y scripture may be fulfilled: * he that eateth bread wpyth me hath lyft vp his hele agaynst me. Now * tell I you before it come: y when it is come to passe, ye myghte beleue y I am he. Verely verely, I say vnto you: * he that recepueth whosoener I sende, recepueth me. And he that recepueth me, receiuet hym that sent me.

When Iesus had thus sayd, he was troubled in sprete, and testifyed and sayde: Verely verely, I say vnto you: that * one of you shal betraye me. Then y disciples looked one on another, doubtyng of whome he spake.

Ther was one of Iesus disciples, (which leaned on hym) * euē he whom Iesus loued.

To hym beckened Simon Peter therfore, that he shulde aske, who it was of whom he spake. he then whē he leaned on Iesus byest sayd vnto hym: * Lord, who is it? Iesus answered. he it is whom I gyue a sop. And he wet the bread, & gaue it to Judas Iscarioth Symons sonne. And after the soppe, Satan entred into him. Then sayd Iesus vnto hym: that thou doest, do quickly. That wilt no man at the table, for what intent he spake vnto hym. Some of them thought because * Judas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto hym: hys thole thynges that we haue nedde of agaynst the feast: or that he shulde gyue some thyng to the poore. If none then as he had receyued the soppe, he went immediately out & it was nyght. Therfore whē he was gone out, Iesus sayde: * Nowe is the sonne of mā glorified. And God is glorified by hym. yf God be glorified by hym, God shal also glorify him by hym selfe: and shall straght wape glorifye hym.

The Gospell

* I pte chyliden, yet a lytle whyple am I * Job. 6. c. wryth you. * Ye shall seke me, and as I sayde * Job. 13. a vnto þe Jewes, whither I go, thither can ye not come. Also to you saye I now: * A newe commaundement gyue I vnto you, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you, that euē * 1. John. 13. c. so ye loue one another. * By thys shal al mē knowe that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another. Symon Peter sayd vn to hym: Lorde, whither goest thou? Iesus answered hym: whither I go, thou canst not folowe me now, but * thou shalt folowe me * Job. 13. f afterwarde. * Peter sayde vnto hym:
 * Actes. 1. a Lorde, why can not I folowe the nowe? * I * Mat. 23. b wyl leoparde my lyfe for thy sake. Iesus an
 * Luke. 22. b swered hym: wylt thou leoparde thy lyfe for * Job. 23. c my sake? Merely verely, I saye vnto the: * þ cocke shal not crowe, tyll thou haue denyed me thysle.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

¶ He ermych his disciples wryth consolacion agaynst trouble, and promysed them the hoie good.

And he sayd vnto his disciples: let not your herte be troubled. Ye beleue in god, beleue also in me. In my fathers house are many mansions: If it were not so I wolde haue tolde you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you, I wyl come agayne, & receyue you, euen vnto my selfe: that * where I am, there * Job. 13. d may ye be also. And whither I go, ye know and the waye ye knowe.

Thomas sayth vnto hym: Lorde, we know not whither thou goest. And how is it pos sible for vs to knowe the waye? Iesus sayth vnto hym: I am the way and the truth, and the * lyfe. * No man cometh vnto the father * Job. 1. a but by me. If ye had knowen me, ye had kno * and. 1. c wen my father also. And now ye knowe him
 * Job. 1. c and haue sene hym.

Whilip sayth vnto hym: Lorde, shewe vs þe father, & it sufficeth vs. Iesus sayth vnto hym: haue I bene so longe tyme wryth you, & yet hast thou not knowen me, Wilip: he that hath sene me: hath sene my father. And how sayest þe the: shewe vs the father? Beleuest þe * Job. 1. f not, that * I am in the father, and the father in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the father that dwelleth in me is he that doth þe workes. Be leue me þe I am in the father, & the father in * Job. 1. f me. Or els beleue me for the workes sake.

Merely verely, I saye vnto you: he þe ueth on me, the workes that I do, the same shal he do also, & greater workes then these shal he do, because I go vnto my father.
 * And whatsoeuer ye aske in my name, that
 * Mat. 23. b wyl I do, that the father maye be glorified * Luke. 22. b by þe sonne. If ye shal aske any thyng in my * Job. 1. a name, I wyl do it. * If ye loue me, kepe
 * Job. 1. b my commaundementes, & I wyl praye the fa * Job. 1. c ther, and he shal gyue you another comfoz ter, that he maye byde wryth you for euer: enē the spere of trithe, whome the worlde can not receyue, because the worlde seeth hym not, nether knoweth hym. But ye knowe hym. For he dwelleth wryth you, and shal be in you. * I wyl not leaue you comfortles, but wyl come to you.

¶ Yet a lytle whyple and the worlde seeth me nomore: but ye se me. For I lyue, & ye shall lyue. That daye shal ye knowe that I am in my father, and you in me, and I in you.

* He that hath my commaundementes, & kepeth them: the same is he that loueth me.
 And he that loueth me, shal be loued of my father, & I wyl loue him, & wyl shewe myne owne selfe to hym. * Judas sayth vnto hym: (not Judas Iscariot) Lorde, what is done that þe wylt shewe the thy selfe vnto vs, & not vnto þe worlde? Iesus answered & sayde vn to the: if a mā loue me, he wyl kepe my say enges, and my father wyl loue hym, and we wyl come vnto him, & dwell wryth hym. he that loueth me not, kepeth not my sayenges And the worde whych ye heare, is not myne but the fathers whych sent me.

¶ These thynges haue I spoken vnto you, beyng pet present wryth you. But the comfoz ter whych is þe holy goost: whom my father wyl sende in my name, he shal teache you all thynges, & byng al thynges to your remem braunce whatsoeuer I haue sayd vnto you.

¶ Peace I leaue wryth you, my peace I gyue vnto you. Not as the worlde gyueth, gyue I vnto you. Let not your hertes be greued, nei ther feare. Ye haue herde howe I sayd vnto you: I go, and come agayne vnto you. If ye loued me, ye wolde verely reioyce, because I sayde: I go vnto the father, for the father is greater then I. * And now haue I shewed you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye myght beleue. Hereafter wyl I not talke many wordes vnto you. For þe prync of thys worlde cometh, and * hath nought in me. But that the worlde may knowe that I loue the father. And as þe father gaue me commaundement, euen so do I. * I pte, let vs go hence.

The. xv. Chapter.

¶ The true vyne, the husbandman and the braynches & doctrine of loue and a swete comfoz agaynst per tucion.

I am * the true vyne, and my father is the husbandmā. Euery brayche that beareth not frute in me he wyl take awaye. And euery braynche that beareth frute, wyl he poutge, if it maye byng forthe moze frute. * Howe are ye cleane thowowe þe wordes which I haue spo ken vnto you. Byde in me, and I in you. As the brayche can not beare frute of it selfe, ex cepte byde in the vyne: nomore can ye, ex cepte ye abyde in me. I am the vyne, ye are þe braynches haunches. he that abyde in me, and I in him, the same byngeth forth much frute. for without me can ye do nothing. If a mā byde not in me, he is cast forth as a bzaūche is wythered: & men gather them: and cast them into the fyre, & they burne. * If ye byde in me, & my wordes abide in you: aske what ye wyll, and it shalbe done for you. & Here in is my father glorified: that ye bear much frute and become my disciples.

As the father hath loued me, euē so haue I also loued you. Continue ye in my loue. If ye kepe my cōmaundementes, ye shal abyde in my loue, euē as I haue kept my fathers cō maundementes, and byde in his loue. These thynges haue I spokē vnto you, that my ioy myght remaine in you, and that your ioye myght be full.

* This is my cōmaundement, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you. Greater loue hath no man, then this: that a man be lowe his lyfe for his frendes. Ye are my frē des, if ye do whatsoeuer I cōmaunde you. henceforth call I you not seruaūtes: for the seruaūt knoweth not what his lord doeth.
But you haue I called frendes: for al thyng es that I haue hearde of my father, haue I opened to you.

Ye haue not chosen me, but I haue chosen you, and ordeyned you, to go, & bynge forth frute, and that your frute shulde remaine. & whatsoeuer ye aske of f father in my name he maye geue it you. &

* This commaunde I you, that ye loue together. If the worlde hate you, ye knowe it hateth me befoze it hateth you. If ye were of f worlde, the worlde wolde loue his owne dowber, because ye are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of f worlde: ther fore the worlde hateth you. Remember the worde that I sayde vnto you: the seruaunt is not greater then the lord: * If they haue persecuted me, they wyll also persecute you.
If they haue kept my sayeng, they wil kepe yours also.

* But al these thynges wyll they do vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowen hym that sent me. If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they shuld haue had no synne: but now haue they nothyng to cloke theyr synne wythall. he that hateth me, hateth my father also: If I had not done amonge them the workes which none other man dōd, they shuld haue had no synne. But now haue they both sene, & hated: not onely me, but also my father. But this happeneth that f sayeng myght be fulfilled, & is writ ten in theyr lawe: * they hated me without a cause. & But when the cōforter is come whom I wyll sende vnto you from the fa ther: (even the sprete of truth, whiche proce deth of the father) he shal testify of me. And ye shal beare wytnesse also, because ye haue bene wyth me from the begynnyng.

The. xvi. Chapter.

Consolacion agaynst trouble. Prayers are heard for owne Christ.

These thynges haue I sayde vnto I you, because ye shulde not be offe ded. * They shal excommunicate you: yea the tyme shal come, that whosoever kylleth you, wil thinke that he doth God seruice. * And suche thyn ges wil they do vnto you, because they haue not knowen the father, neither yet me. But these thynges haue I tolde you, that when f tyme is come, ye maye remember then, that I tolde you. & These thynges sayde I not vnto you at the begynnyng, because I was present with you.

* But now I go my way to him f sent me, & none of you asketh me whither I go.
But because I haue sayd such thynges vnto you, your hertes are ful of sorow. Neuerthe les, I tell you the truthe, it is expedient for you, that I go away. For if I go not a way that cōforter wyll not come vnto you. But if I departe, * I wyll sende hym vnto you.
And whē he is come, he wyl rebuke f worlde of synne, and of rpghteousnes, and of iudge ment. Of synne, because they beleue not on me. Of rpghteousnes, because I go to my father, and ye shall se me nomore. Of iudge ment, because * the pynce of this worlde is iudged already.

I haue yet many thynges to saye vnto you but ye cannot beare them a way now. How beit when he is come (whych is the sprete of truth) he wyl leade you into al truth. he shal not speake of hym selfe: but what soeuer he shall heare, that shal he speake, and he wyl shewe you thynges to come. he shal glorify me, for he shall receyue of myne, & shal shew vnto you. * Al thynges that the father hath are myne. Therefore sayde I vnto you, that he shal take of myne, & shewe vnto you. &

* After a whyle ye shall not se me, & agayne after a whyle ye shal se me: for I go to the father. Then sayde some of hys disci ples betwene them selues: what is this that he sayth vnto vs, after a whyle ye shall not se me, & agayne, after a whyle ye shal se me: & that I go to the father? They sayd ther fore: what is this f he sayth: after a whyle? we can not tell what he sayth. Iesus percey ued that they wolde aske hym, and sayde vn to them. Ye enquire of this betwene your selues, because I sayd after a whyle ye shall not se me, and agayne after a whyle ye shal se me. Clerely verely, I say vnto you: ye shal wepe and lamente, but contrarywyle, the worlde shal reioyce. Ye shall sorowe, but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioye.

A woman when she traunpleth, hath so At iiii. rowe

The Gospel

rowe, because her houre is come : but allone as she is deliuered of the chylde, she remembereth no more the angur she, for ioye that a man is bozne into the worlde. And ye nowe therfore haue sorrowe : but I will se you a-gayne & your vertes shal reioyce, and your ioye shal no man take from you. ¶ And in that daye shal ye aske me no questiō. ¶ Clerely verely, I saie vnto you : * whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name, he will geue it you. Hyther to haue ye asked nothing in my name. Aske, and ye shall receaue : that your ioye maye be full.

These thynges haue I spokē vnto you by prouerbes. The tyme wyl come, whē I shal no moze speake vnto you: by prouerbes: but I shal shewe you playnly from my father.
At that daye shall ye aske in my name. And I say not vnto you that I wyl speake vnto my father for you. For the father hym selfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me, & haue belued, that I came out from God. I went out from the father, & came into the worlde.
Agayne, I leaue the worlde, and go to the father.

hys disciples sayd vnto hym: Lo, nowe talkest thou plainly, & speakest no prouerbe Nowe are we sure, that * thou knowest all thynges, and nedest not, that any mā shulde aske the any question. Therfore beleue we, & thou camest from God. & Iesus answered them: Now ye do beleue. * Behold, y^e houre draeth nye, & is alreadye come, & ye shal be scattered euery man to his owne, & shal leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone. For * the father is wth me.

These wordes haue I spoken vnto you, that in me ye myght haue peace. For in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion: but be of good chere I haue overcome the worlde.

The .xvii. Chapter. ✠

The most hartre and lounge prayer of Ch/ist vn:
to hys fath er, fo; all such as receiue the truth.

These wordes spake Iesus, & lyfte vp hys eyes to heauen, and sayde: father, * the houre is come: glorifyf thy sonne & thy sonne also may glorify the: as thou hast giuen hym power ouer al thete, that he shuld giue eternal lyfe to as many as thou hast giue hym. Thys is
 * lyfe eternal that they myght knowe the, & only true God & Iesus christ who & hast set.

I haue glorified the on þ earth.* I haue synphed the worke, whych thou gauest me to do. And nowe glorifye thou me (o father) wpth thyne owne selfe, with þ glozp. which I had wpth the, per the worlde was. I haue declared thy name vnto the mf, which thou gauest me out of þ world. Thyne they were and thou gauest them me, & they haue kepte thy worde. Nowe they haue knowen that al thynges whatsoeuer thou haste geuen me are of the. For I haue gyuen vnto them the wordes whych thou gauest me, & they haue receyued them, and haue knowe surely, that I came out from the: and they haue beleued, that thou dydest sende me.

I pray for them, I pray not for *^o world but for them : which thou hast giuen me, for they are thyne. And al myne are thyne, and thyne are myne, and I am glorified in them And nowe am I not in the world, & they are in the worlde, and I come to the. Father holy, kepe thozowe thyne owne name, the whiche thou hast giuen me, & they also may be one, as we are. Whyle I was with them in ^o world, I kept the in thy name. * Those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but that lost chylde, & that scripture myght be fulfilled.

Now come I to the, & these wordes speak I in þ world, that they might haue my ioye full in them. I haue giue them thy worde, the worlde hath hated them, because they are not of the worlde, euen as I also am not of þ worlde. I delyre not that thou shouldest take them out of the world: but that thou kepe them from euell. They are not of the worlde, as I also am not of the worlde. Sa ctifye them thorow thy truth. Thy word is the truth. As thou dyddest sende me into the worlde, euen so haue I also sent the into the worlde, and so: they? takes Sanctifye I my selfe that they also myght be sanctified thro rowe the truth.

Neuertheles, I praye not for them alone but for the also which shal beleue on me tho rowe they preacheinge: that they al may be *one, as thou father art in me, and I in the, & they also may be one in vs: that they world may beleue, that thou hast sent me: And the gloze whych thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they maye be one, as we also are one. I in the, and thou in me, that they maye be made perfecte in one, and that the world maye knowe, that thou hast sent me, & haue loued them as thou hast loued me.

Father, I wyl that they which thou hast giuen me*be wyth me where I am, & they maye se my glory, which thou hast giue me for thou louedest me before the making of the worlde.*O ryghteous father, & worlde also hath not knowe the: but I haue knowe the: and these haue knowen, that thou hast sent me. And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and wyl declare it, that the loue wher with thou hast loued me, maye be in them, & I in them. F

The xviii. Chapter.

¶ Christ is betrayed. The wordes of his mouth simple the officers to the grounde. Peter smecteth of an anker rate, Jesus is brought before Anna. Caphas and Pilate.

zulassen

When Jesus had spoken these wordes, he went forth with his disciples ouer the broke of Cedron, where was a garden, into which he entred & his disciples. Judas also which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft tymes resorted thither with his disciples. Judas the after he had receaued a bonde of men, (& ministers of the hye prestes & Pharysees) came thither with lanternes, & sper-baydes and weapōs. And Jesus knowyng all thynges that shuld come on hym, wente forth, and sayde vnto them: whom seke ye? They answered hym: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus sayeth vnto them: I am he. Judas also whiche betrayed him, stode with them. A lone the as he had sayd vnto them, I am he, they wente bac warde & fel to the ground. Then asked he them agayn: whom seke ye? They sayde: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered: I haue tolde you, that I am he. Ye seke me therfore, let these go the y wape that the sayng myght be fulfilled whych he saith: of them whiche thou gauest me, haue I not lost one.

Then Symon Peter haupnge a sworde, drew it, and smote the hye prestes seruaunt, and cut of his ryght eare. The seruauntes name was Malchus. Therfore sayeth Jesus vnto Peter: Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: shall I not dryncke of the cuppe, whych my father hath geuen me? Then the company and the capayne, and mynisters of the Jewes toke Jesus, and boude hym, and led hym a way to Anna fyrst: for he was fasther in lawe vnto Caphphas, which was the hye prest that sam pear. Caphphas was he, whych gaue counsell to the Jewes that it was expedient, that one man shuld dye for the people.

And Symon Peter folowed Jesus, and so dyd another disciple: the disciple was known vnto the hye prest, and wet in with Jesus into the palace of the hye prest. But Peter stode at the doze wythoute. Then went out that other disciple (which was known vnto the hye prest) and spake to the damsell that kepte the doze, and brought in Peter. Then sayde the damsell that kepte the doze, vnto Peter. Arte not thou also one of this mānes disciples? he said: I am not. The seruauntes and the ministers stode ther, whych had made a fyre of cooles: for it was cold, & they warmed them selues. Peter also stode amonge them, and warmed hym.

The hye prest then asked Jesus of his disciples and of his doctrine. Jesus answered hym: I spake openlye in the worlde. I neuer taught in the Synagoge, and in temple whither all the Jewes resort, and in secrete haue I sayde nothyng. Whyddest thou ask me? I like them whiche herde me, what I haue sayd vnto them. Behold, they can tell what I sayd. When he had thus spoken, one of the ministers whych stode by, smote Jesus on the face, saying: answerest thou the hye prest so? Jesus answered hym: If I haue euyl spoken, beare wytnes of the euell. But if I haue wel spokē, why smitest thou me? And Annas sent him boude vnto Caphphas the hye prest.

Symon Peter stode, & warmed hym selfe. He sayd they vnto him: arte not thou also one of his disciples? he denyed it, and sayd: I am not. One of the seruauntes of the hye prestes (his colyn whose care Peter smote of) sayd vnto him: dyd not I see thee in the garden with hym? Peter therfore denyed agayn: immediately the cocke crew. Then led they Jesus from Caphphas into the hall of iudgement. It was in the morning, and they them selues wet not into the iudgement hall lest they shuld be defiled, but they myght eate Pasceouer. Pilate then wente out vnto them and sayd: what accusacon byynge ye agaynst this man? They answered and sayd vnto him: If he were not an euell doer we wolde not haue deliuered him vnto the. Then sayd Pilate vnto the: take ye hym, & iudge hym after your owne lawe. The Jewes therfore sayd vnto hi: It is not lawfull for vs to put any man to deeth. That the wordes of Jesus myght be fulfilled which he spake, signyfing, what deeth he shuld dye.

Then Pilate entred into the iudgement hall agayn, and called Jesus, and sayd vnto him: art thou the kyng of the Jewes? Jesus answered: sayst thou that of thy self, or dyd other tell it of me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jewe? Thyne owne naciō and hye prestes haue deliuered the vnto me. What hast thou done? Jesus answered: my kyngdome is not of this world. If my kyngdome were of this world, then wolde my mynisters surely fyght, that I shuld not be deliuered to the Jewes, but now is my kyngdome not from hence. Pilate therfore sayd vnto him: Art thou a kyng the? Jesus answered: thou sayest that I am a kyng: for this cause was I borne, & for this cause came I into the world, that I shuld beare wytnes vnto the trueth. And all that are of the trueth heare my voyce. Pilate sayd vnto him, what thing is trueth? And whan he had sayd this, he went out agayne vnto the Jewes, and sayeth vnto the: I fynde in hym no cause at all. Ye haue a custome, that I shuld deliuer you one loofe at Easter. Wyl ye that I loofe vnto you the kyng of the Jewes? Then cryed they all agayne, saying: Not hym, but Barrabas: the same Barrabas was a murtherer.

The xix. Chapter.

Christ is crucified. He committeth his mother into John, apich and is buried.

f. v. Then

The Gospell

¶ Then Pilate toke Iesus therfore, and scourged hym. * And the souldyers woude a crowne of thornes, and put it on his heade. And they dyd on hym a purple garmēt. * (and came vnto hym) & sayd: haille kyng of the Jewes, & they smote him on the face. Pilate wēt forth agayne, & sayd vnto them: beholde, I hyngge hym forthe to you, that ye may knowe, that I fynde no faute in hym. Then came Iesus forthe, wearynge a crowne of thorne, and a robe of purple. And he sayth vnto them: behold the man. * Whē hys prestes therfore & ministers saw hym, they cryed, sayng crucify hym, crucify hym. Pilate sayth vnto the: Take ye him, & crucifye him, for I fynde not cause in him. The Jewes answered hi: We haue a law, & by our lawe he ought to dye, because: he made hym selfe the sonne of God. * When Pilate hearde that sayng, he was ymore afrayde, and went agayn into the iudgement hall, & sayeth vnto Iesus: whence arte thou? But Iesus gaue hym none answer. Then sayde Pilate vnto hym: Speakest thou not vnto me? knowest thou not, that I haue power to crucifye the, and haue power to loose the? Iesus answered: Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynst me, * except it were geue the frō aboue. Therfore, he that deliuered me vnto the hath the more synne. * And frō thence forth sought Pilate meanes to loose hym, but the Jewes cryed, sayng: Vt thou let him go, thou arte not Cēlars frende. For * whosoeuer maketh hym selfe a kyng, is agaynst Cēlar. When Pilate hearde s faing, he brought Iesus forth, and sat downe to geue sentence in a place y is called the pauement, but in y hebreue tonge, Sabbathā. It was y preparyng daye of the Easter about y syrt houre. And he sayeth vnto the Jewes: behold your kyng? They cryed, away w hym, away w hym, crucify hi. Pilate sayth vnto the: Shall I crucifye your kyng? The hys prestes answered: we haue no kyng but Cēlar. * The deliuered he hym vnto them, to be crucified. And they toke Iesus, and led hym awaye. * And he bare hys crosse, * and wēt forth into a place, whych is called y place of dead mē's sculles. But in hebreue, Golgotha, where they crucified hym, & two other w hym, on eyther syde one, & Iesus in the myddes. And * Pilate wrot a tytle, & put it on the crosse. The writing was: Iesus of Nazareth kyng of y Jewes. This tytle red many of the Jewes. For the place where Iesus was crucified, was nye to the cytie. And it was wyrtten in hebreue, and Greke, and Latē. Then sayde y hys prestes of the Jewes to Pilate: wyrtte not kyng of the Jewes, but that he sayd: I am kyng of the Jewes. Pilate answered: what I haue wyrtten, that haue I wyrtten. Then the souldyers, * when they had crucified Iesus, toke hys garmētes, and made foure partes, to euery souldyer a part, & also hys coote. The coote was wythoute seme, wrought vpo thowow out. They sayd therfore amonge them selues: Let vs not deuide it, but caste lottes for it, who shall haue it. That y scripture might be fulfilled, sayng * They parted my rayment amonge them, and for my coote dyd they caste lottes. And the souldyers dyd such thynges in dede. There stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, & hys mothers syster, Mary the wyfe of Cleophas & Mary Magdalene. Whē Iesus therfore saw his mother & y disciple standing, * who he loued, he sayeth vnto his mother: woman, beholde thy sonne. Then sayde he to y disciple: behold thy mother. And frō that houre the disciple toke her for his own. After these thynges, Iesus knowyng that all thynges were now performed, that * the scripture myghte be fulfilled, he sayth: I thys. So there stode a vessel by, full of wyner. * Therfore they filled a spōg w wyner & wounde it aboute with sfope, & put it to his mouth. Asone as Iesus the receaued of y wyner, he sayd: * It is fynished, & bowed his head, & gaue vp the goost. The Jewes therfore, because it was the preparyng of the Sabbath, that the bodys shulde not remayne vpo the crosse on y Sabbath daye. (for that Sabbath day was an hye day) besought Pilate, that they legges myght be broken, & that they myght be taken downe. Then came y souldyers, & brake the legges of y fyrst, & of y other whych was crucified with hym. But when they came to Iesus, & sawe that he was dead alreadye, they brake not his legges: but one of y souldyers wth a speare thrust hum into y syde, & forthwyth came there oute bloude and water. And he that sawe it, bare recorde, & his recorde is true. And he knoweth y he saith true y ye might beleue also. For these thynges were done, y the scripture shulde be fulfilled. * Ye shal not breake a bone of hym. And agayne another scripture sayeth: * they shal loke on him, who they pearled. * After thys, Ioseph of Aramatia (whych was a disciple of Iesus: but secretlye for feare of the Jewes) besought Pilate, that he might take downe y body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. * (he came therfore, & toke y body of Iesus) And ther cam also Nicodemus (which at y begynning cam to Iesus by night) & brought of myrr and aloes myngled together, about an hundred pounde waight. Then toke they the bodye of Iesus, & woude it in lynnē clothes w the odoures, as the maner of y Jewes is to burye. And in the place wher he was crucified, there was a garden, and in y garden a newe

* mat. xxviii. c
marke. xvi. b

* mat. xxviii. c marke. xvi. a
Luke. xxi. b

* Ier. xlii. c
I. Iohn. vi. b

* I. Iohn. vi. a
I. Iohn. vi. b
I. Iohn. vi. c
I. Iohn. vi. d
I. Iohn. vi. e

* Acte. xiii. b

* mat. xxviii. b
marke. xvi. c
Luke. xxi. c

* Heb. xiii. c

* mat. xxviii. b
marke. xvi. c
Luke. xxi. c

the sepulchre, wherein was neuer mā layd. There layde they Iesus therfore, because of the preparyng of þe Sabbath of the Jewes, for the sepulchre was nye at hande. I

The xx. Chapter.

There receyved of Christ, which appeared to Mary Magdalene and to all his disciples, to their greates comfort.

In the fyrst day of the Sabbathes cam Mary Magdalene earlye (when it was yet darke) vnto the sepulchre, and saw the stone take awaye fro the graue. The her name, & came to Symon Peter, & to the other disciple, whom Iesus loved, & sayeth vnto the: They haue take awaye þe Lord out of þe graue, & we can not tell wher they haue layde hym. Peter therfore wet forth, & that other disciple, & came to the sepulchre. They came both together, & the other disciple dyd out runne Peter, & cam fyrst to þe sepulchre. And whā he had stouped downe, he saw the lynne clothes lyeg, yet wet he not in. The same Symon Peter folowynge hym, & wet in to the sepulchre, & saw þe lynne clothes lye, & the napken þe was about his head, not lyeng wyth þe lynnen clothes, but wrappyd together in a place by it selfe. Then went in also that other disciple, whych cam fyrst to the sepulchre, & he saw, & beleued. For as yet they knewe not the scripture, that he shuld rise agayne from death. Then the disciples went awaye agayne vnto their owne house.

Mary stode without at þe sepulchre wepyng. So as she wept, she bowed her self in to þe sepulchre, & seeth two aungels clothed in white, sytting, the one at þe head, & the other at the fete, wher they had layde the bodye of Iesus. They saye vnto her: womā, why wepest thou? She sayth vnto the: for they haue taken awaye my Lord, & I wote not wher they haue layd him. Whē he had thus sayd she turned her self backe, & sawe Iesus standynge, & knewe not þe it was Iesus. Iesus sayeth vnto her: womā, why wepest thou? Whō sekest thou? She supposinge þe had bene a gardener, sayeth vnto him: Syr, if þe haue bozne hūn hēce, tel me wher þe hast laid hym, & I wil fet hym. Iesus sayeth vnto her: Mary. She turned her self, & sayd vnto hi: Rabboni, whych is to saye, master. Iesus sayeth vnto her: Touche me not, for I am not yet ascended to my father. But go to my brethren, & say vnto them: I ascende vnto my father & your father: & to my God, & your God. Mary Magdalene cam & tolde the disciples, þe had sene the Lord, & that he had spoken such thynges vnto her.

In the same daye at nyght, which was the fyrst daye of þe Sabbathes, whē the doores were shut (wher þe disciples were assembled together for feare of the Jewes) cam Iesus, and stode in þe myddes, & sayeth vnto them:

peace be vnto you. And whē he had so sayd, he shewed vnto them his handes, & his syde. Then were þe disciples glad whē they sawe the Lord. Then sayd Iesus to the agayne: peace be vnto you. As my father sente me, euen so sende I you also. And whā he had sayd those wordes, he brythed on them, and sayeth vnto the: Receaue ye the holpe goost. Who so euers synnes ye remyt, they are remytted vnto them. And whoso euers synnes ye retayne, they are retayned.

In But Thomas one of þe twelue (whych is called Didimus) was not wthē when Iesus came. The other disciples therfore sayd vnto him: we haue sene þe Lord. But he sayd vnto the: except I se in his handes þe prynt of þe nyles, & put my fynger into þe prynt of þe nyles, & thrust my hand into his syde, I wyl not beleue. And after viii. dayes agayn his disciples wer wthē, & Thomas wthē. The same Iesus when þe doores were shut, & stode in the myddes, and sayd: Peace be vnto you. After that sayde he to Thomas: bryngge thy fynger hether, & se my handes, & reach hyther thy hande, & thrust it into my syde, & be not faithlesse, but beleuing. Thomas answered & sayd vnto hi: my Lord, & my God. Iesus sayeth vnto hym: Thomas, because thou haste sene me, thou haste beleued, blessed are they þe haue not sene, & yet haue beleued.

In And many other sygnes truly dyd Iesus in þe presence of his disciples, whych are not wyrtten in this booke. These are wyrtten that ye myght beleue, that Iesus is Christ þe sonne of God, & that (in beleuyng) ye might haue lyfe thowowe his name.

The xxi. Chapter.

He appeared to his disciples agayne by the see of Tiberias, and commaundeth Peter to fede his shepe.

Afterwarde dyd Iesus shewe hym selfe agayne, at þe see of Tiberias. And on this wise shewed he hym selfe. There were together Symon Peter & Thomas (whych is called Didimus) & Nathanael of Cana in Galile, & þe sonnes of zebedei, & two other of his disciples. Symon Peter sayeth vnto them: I wyl go a fyshynge. They saye vnto him: we also wyl go wyth þe. They wet they wape, & entred into a shipp immediately, & þe nyght caught they nothyng. But whā the morning was now come, Iesus stode on þe shore: neuerthelesse the disciples knewe not þe it was Iesus. Iesus sayeth vnto them: Chyldren, haue ye any meate? they answered hym, no. And he sayeth vnto the: cast out þe net on the right syde of the shipp, & ye shall fynde. They cast out therfore, & anon they were not able to dryue it for the multitude of fyshes.

Then sayd þe disciple whō Iesus loved vnto Peter: It is þe Lord. Whē Symon Peter herde þe it was þe Lord, he geyd hym coote vnto hym

* Job. xvi. d.

* 1. Cor. xii. a
* 1. Cor. xii. a
* 1. Cor. xii. c
* 1. Cor. xii. c

* 1. Cor. xii. b

* 1. Cor. xii. g

* 1. Cor. xii. f

* 1. Cor. xii. a

* 1. Cor. xii. e
* 1. Cor. xii. e

The Actes

The Actes of the Apostles

The fyrst Chapter. ✠

The ascencion of Christe. Mathias is chosen in the stead of Judas.

In former treatise (deare Theophilus) we haue spoken of all þat Iesus beganne to do & teach, vntyll þe dawe in whych he was taken vp, after þe he thoroowe the holy goost, had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles, whome he had chosen, to whome also he shewed hym selfe alpye after his passiõ (and that by many tokens) appearing vnto them fourty dages, and speakyng of the kingdom of God, and gathered them together, * and commaunded them, that they shulde not departe from Jerusalem: but to waite for the promes of the father, * wherof (sayth he) ye haue heard of me. For John truly baptysed with water, but ye shalbe baptysed with the holpe goost after these fewe dages. When they therfore wer com together, they asked of him, sayyng Lorde, wylt þu at this tyme, restore agayne the kyngdome to Israel: And he sayde vnto them: * It is not for you to knowe the tymes, or the seasons, whych the father hath put in his owne power: but ye shal receaue power, after that the holy goost is com vnto you. And ye shalbe wytnesses vnto me, not onely in Jerusalem but also in all Jewry and in Samary, and euen vnto the worldes ende.

And when he had spoken these thynges, while they behelde, he was takẽ vp an hye & a cloude receaued hi vp out of theyr sight: And while they looked stedfastly vp toward heauẽ, as he wente, beholde, two men stode by them in whyte apparell, which also sayd: ye men of Galile, why stande ye gasyng vp into heauen? This same Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, * shal so com, euen as ye haue sene hym go into heauẽ. Then returned they vnto Jerusalem, fro the mount (that is called Oluyete) which is fro Jerusalem a Saboth dages iorney. And whẽ they were come in, they went vp into a pariler, where abode both Peter and James, & John and Andzewe, Philip and Thomas, Barthelmew & Matthewe, James sonne of Alpheus, and Simõ zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. These all continued with one accorde in prayer and supplicacion with þe weme, and Mary the mother of Iesu, and with his bzyethren.

And in those dages Peter stode vp in the myddes of the discyples, and sayde (the nombze vnto hym (for he was naked) & sprang into þe see. The other discyples came by shyp, for they were not farre fro lande, but as it were two hundred cubites, & they drewe þe net wth fyshes. Aflone the as they wer come to lãd, they sawe boote coles, & fyshes layde thereon, & breade. Iesus sayeth vnto the: * brynge of þe fyshes which ye haue now caught. Simõ Peter wõt vp, & drewe þe net to the lande full of greate fyshes, an hundred &. lvi. And for all there wer so many, yet was not þe net brokẽ. Iesus sayeth vnto them: come, & dyne. And none of þe discyples durst aske hym: what art þu: For they knewe þe it was þe Lorde. Iesus then came, & toke bread, and gaue them, and fyshes lyke wyse. This is now þe thirde tyme that Iesus appeared to his discyples, after that he was risen agayne from death.

E So when they had dyned, Iesus sayeth to Simõ Peter: Simõ Ioãna, louest thou me moze then these: he sayd vnto hi: ye Lorde, þu knowest, þe I loue þe. he sayth vnto him: fede my lãbes. he sayeth to hym agayne þe secõde tyme: Simõ Ioanna, louest þe me: he sayeth vnto hym: Yee Lorde, thou knowest that I loue þe. he sayde vnto him: fede my shepe. he sayd vnto hym þe thyrde tyme: Simõ Ioanna louest thou me: Peter was soze, because he sayde vnto hym the thyrde tyme: louest thou me, and he sayd vnto hym: Lorde, thou knowest all thynges, thou knowest that I loue þe, Iesus sayeth vnto hi: fede my shepe.

A Merely, verely, I say vnto the: when thou wast yonge, þe greidedst thy selfe, & walkedst whyther þe woldest, but when thou art olde, * thou shalt stretch forth thy handes, and an other shal gyde the, and leade the whyther þe woldest not. That spake he, signyfenge by what death he shulde glorifye God.

And whẽ he had spokẽ this, he sayeth vnto hym: I folowe me: Peter turned about, and sawe the discipule, * whom Iesus loued, folowyng (which also leane on his bzyeste at supper, and sayd: Lorde, which is he that betrayeth the?) When Peter therfore sawe hym, he sayeth to Iesus: Lorde, what shal he here do? Iesus sayeth vnto hym: If I wyl haue him to tarpe tyl I com what is that to the folow thou me. Then went this sayyng abroode among þe bzyethen, that that discipule shulde not dye. Yet Iesus sayde not to hym, he shal not dye, but yf I wil that he tary tyl I come, what is that to the? The same discipule is he, whych testifyeth of these thynges, and wrote these thynges. And we knoge, þe his testimony is true. There are also many other thynges, whych Iesus dyd, the whych yf they shulde be wyrtten euery one, I suppose, the world coulde not contayne þe bookes that shulde be wyrtten.

There endeth the Gospell of Saynt John.

* Luk. xxi. 1.

* Job. xli. 7.

* Job. xli. 7.
Actes. xli. 8

* John. xli. 7.
and. xli. 7.
and. xli. 8

* John. xli. 7.

number of names that were together, were about an hundred and twenty. ¶ Pe men and herthe, this scripture must nedes haue bene fulfilled, whiche the holy goost thowow the mouth of Dauid speake befoze of Judas, which was gyde to them that toke Iesus. For he was nobred wth vs, and had obtained felowshipp in this ministracyō. And the same hath now possessed a plat of ground wth the rewarde of iniquitie: and when he was hanged, he burste asunder in the myddes, and all his bowels gushed oute. And it is known vnto all the inhabyters of Ierusalem, in so muche that the same felde is called in theyr mother tong, Acheldema, that is to saye the bloude felde.

For it is wyrtten in the boke of Psalmes: My habitacyon be voyde, and no man be dwelling therein. * and his Byshoppe let another take: Wherefoze of these men which haue companied with vs (all the tyme that the Lorde Iesus had all his conuersacion amonge vs, begynnynge at the baptyme of Iohn, vnto that same day that he was taken vnto vs) muste one be ordeyned, to be a wytnes with vs of his resurrection.

And they apointed two, Ioseph whiche is called Barabas (whose surname was Iudas) and Mathias. And whē they prayed, they sayde: thou Lorde which knowest the hartes of all mē, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen: that he maye take the roume of this ministracion and Apostleshipp, from whiche Iudas by transgression fell, that he myght go to his owne place. And they gaue forth theyr lottes, and the lot fell on Mathias, and he was counted with the eleue Apostles. ¶

¶ The .ii. Chapter. ¶

The commynge of the holy goost. The sermons of Peter befoze the edyfyng of Ierusalem, and the increase of the churchfull.

When the fiftie dayes were come to an ende, they were all with one accord together in one place. And suddenly there came a sounde fro heauen, as it had bene the commynge of a myghty wynde, and it fylled all the house, where they sate, and there appeared vnto them cloven tonges lyke as they had ben of fyre, and it sate vpon eche one of them, * and they were all fylled wth the holy ghoost, and began to speake with other tonges, euen as the same spete gaue them vterance.

¶ Ther were dwelling at Ierusalem, Jewes, deuoute mē, out of euery naciō of them that are vnder heauen. When thys was noyed about, the multitude came together, & were assembyed, because every man heard the speake with his owne language. They wōdred all, & marueyled, saying amonge them selues: behold, are not al these which spake, of Galilee? And how heare we euery mā his owne tonge, wherein we were borne? Parthians, & Medes, & Elamites, and the inhabyters of Mesopotamia, and of Iury, & of Capadocia, of Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphilia, of Egypte, and of the parties of Lybia, whiche is besyde Syren, and straungers of Rome, Jewes and Proselytes. Grekes and Arabians: we haue heard them speake in our owne tonges the greates woordes of God. ¶ They were all amased, and wondred, sayinge one to another: what meaneth this? Other mocked, sayinge: these men are full of new wyne.

¶ But Peter stepped forth with the eleue and lyft vp his voyce, and sayd vnto them: ¶ Pe men of Jewrye, and all ye that dwell at Ierusalem, be this knowen vnto you, & with your eares heare my wordes. For these are not dronken, as ye suppose, sayng it is but the thyrde houre of the daye. But tps is that whiche was spoken by the Prophete Joel: And it shall be in the last dayes, sayth God, of my spete I wil powre oute vpon all fleshe.

* And your sonnes & your daughters shall prophesye, and your younge men shall vylions, and your olde men shall dreame dreames. And on my seruantes, & on my hande maydens I will poure oute of my spete in those dayes, and they shall prophesye. And I will shewe wonders in heauen aboue, & tokens in the earth beneth, bloude and fyre, and the vapoure of smoke. ¶ The sonne shall be turned into darknes, and the moone into bloude befoze that great & notable daye of the Lorde come. And it shall come to passe, that whosoener shall call on the name of the Lorde, shall be saved. ¶

¶ ¶ Pe men of Israel, heare these wordes: Iesus of Nazareth a mā approued of God among you with myracles, wonders and sygnes, which God dyd by hym in the myddes of you (as ye your selues knowe) hym haue ye taken by the handes of vnrightheous persones, after he was deliuered by the determinate counsell & knowledge of God, & haue crucified and slayne him: whome God hath rayled vp, & loosed the sorowes of death, because it was impossible, that he should be holden of it. For Dauid speaketh of hi. ¶ Afoze had I sawe God alwayes befoze me, for he is on my ryght hande, that I shoulde not be moued: Therfoze dyd my hert reioyce, & my tonge was glad. Moreover, also my fleshe shall reste in hope, because I wyl not leaue my soule in hell, neyther wyl I suffer thynne holy to se corrupcion. Thou hast shewed me the wayes of lyfe, thou shalt make me full of ioye wth thy countenance. ¶

¶ Pe men and brether, let me frelye speake vnto you of the patriarke Dauid: For he is both

The Actes

is both dead & buried, and hys sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this daie. Therfore saynge he was a prophete, and knewe that God had sworne wryth an othe to hym, that Christ (as concernyng the fleshe) shoulde come of the frute of hys loynes, and shuld sytte on his seate, he knowyng this before, spake of þe resurrection of Christ: that hys soule shoulde not be left in hell: neyther his fleshe shoulde be corrupted. This Iesus hath God raised vp

* Actes. i. 8

* wherof we all are wytnesses.

Sence nowe that he by the ryght hande of God is exalted, and hath receaved of the father the promise of the holy ghooste, he hath shed forth this ^(wynde) which ye nowe see, & heare. For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but he sayeth: * The Lord sayd to my Lord: syt thou on my ryght hande, vntill I make thy foes thy foote stole. So therfore, let all the house of Israell knowe for a suretye, þe God hath made that same Iesus (whom ye haue crucified) Lord and Christ.

* Gal. ii. 8
* Gal. ii. 8

When they heard these, they were pricked in theyr hartes, & sayde vnto Peter, & vnto þe other Apostles: Ye men & brethren, * what shall we do? Peter sayde vnto them: repente of your synnes, and be baptysed euery one of you in þe name of Iesus Christ for the remission of synnes, and ye shall receaue the gyfte of þe holy goost. For the promise was made vnto you and to your chyldren, & to all that are a farre of, euen as many as the Lord our God shall call. And w many other wordes bare he wytnes, and exhorted them, saying: Haue your selues from this vntowarde generation. Then they that gladly receaued his preaching, were baptised: and the same day there were added vnto the about thre thousande soules.

* Luke. iii. 8

And they continued in þe Apostles doctrine & fellowship, & i breaking of bread, & i prayers. And feare came ouer euery soule. And many widders & signes wer shewed by þe Apostles ^(at Jerusalem. And greates feares came vpon all men.) And all that beleued, kept the selues together, and had all thynges comen, and solde theyr possessions and goodes, & parted them to all men, as euery man had nede. And they continued dayly wryth one accord in þe temple, & brake bread fro house to house, & dyd eate theyr meat together, w gladnes & singlenes of herte praysyng God, & had fauoure wryth all the people. And þe Lord added to the congregation dayly, such as shoulde be saued.

Chap. ii. Chapter.

The hall is restored to his sect. Peter preacheth Christe vnto the people.

Peter and John went vp together into the temple at the nyynth houre of prayer. And a certayne man, that was halte from hys mothers wombe, was brought, who they layde daylye at the gate of þe temple (whyche is called beutyfull) to aske almes of the that entred into the temple. When he saw Peter & John that they wold go into þe temple, he desyred to receaue an almes. And Peter fastened hys eyes on hym wryth John, & sayde: loke on vs. And he gaue hede vnto them, trusting, to receaue some thyng of them. Then sayde Peter: Syluer and gold haue I none, such as I haue geue I the. In þe name of Iesus Christe of Nazareth * ryle vp, and walke. And he toke hym by the ryght hande, and lyfte hym vp. And immediatly hys fete & ancle bones receaued strength. And he sprange, stode, & walked, and entred wryth them into the temple, walkyng, and leappynge, and praysynge God.

* Actes. i. 8

And all the people sawe hym walke, and prayse God. And they knewe hym, þe it was he, whyche sat and begged at the beutyfull gate of the temple. And they wondred, and were sore astonyed at that which had happened vnto hym. And as the halte which was healed, helde Peter and John, all the people ranne amased vnto them in the porch that is called Salomons.

* Actes. iii. 8

When Peter sawe that he answered vnto the people: * Ye men of Israel, why maruaile ye at this, or why loke ye so on vs, as though by oure owne power or strength we had made this man go? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified hys sonne Iesus, whom ye deliuered, & denyed in the presence of Pilate, when he had iudged hym to be loosed. But ye denyed the holy and iuste, & desired a murtherer to be geuen you, & kylled * þe Lord of lyfe, who God hath raised from death: of the which we ar wytnesses. And his name thowowe the sayth of his name, hath made this man sounde, who ye se, and know. And þe sayth which is by hym, hath geuen to hym this health in þe presence of you all.

* Actes. iii. 8

And nowe brethren, I wote that thowowe ignorance ye did it, as dyd also your rulers. But God (whyche before had shewed, by the mouth of al his Prophetes, how that Christ shuld suffer) hath thus wryll fulfilled. Let it * repete you therfore, and couerte, that your synnes maye be done away. * When þe tyme of refreshyng cometh, which we shal haue of the presence of the Lord, and when God shal sende him, which before was preached vnto you, þe is to wryte Iesus Christ, whyche must receaue heauen, vntill þe tyme that all thynges, whyche God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holye Prophetes, sence the world began, be restored agayne.

* Actes. iii. 8

Moses truly sayde vnto the fathers: * A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of youre brethren, yhe vnto me:

* Actes. iii. 8

me hym that ye heare, in all thynges whatsoeuer he shall saye vnto you. For the tyme wyl come, that euery soule whych wyl not heare that same Prophecie, shalbe destroyed from amonge the people. All the Prophetes also from Samuell and thence forth (as many as haue spokē) haue in lykewyse tolde of these dayes.

Ye are the chyldren of the Prophetes, and of the couenaunte, whych the God made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham: * Euen in the seide shal al þe kynredes of þe earth be ble-sed. For it whā God had rayled vp his sone Jesus vnto you, he sente hym to blesse you, that euery one of you shulde turne from his wyckednes. ✠

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

The Apostles are taken & brought before the counsell. They are for þood to preache, but they turne them vnto praye, and are moze obedient vnto God: then vnto men.

So they spake vnto the people, the prestes and the rulers of the temple, and the Saducees came vpon the, taking it greuouly that they taught þe people, and preached in Jesus the resurrection fro death.
And they layde handes on them and put the in holde, vntil þe next daye, for it was now euentide. Howbeit manye of them whych hearde the wordes, belueued, and the nombꝛe of the men was aboute fyue thousande.

And it chaunced on the morowe, that they rulers, and elders, and scribes, (and Annas the chiefe prest, and Caphphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kynred of the hye prestes) gathered together at Jerusalem. And whā they had set them before them, they asked: by what power, or in what name haue ye done this?

Then Peter full of the holy goost, sayd vnto the: ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, ye we thys daye be examined of þe good dede that we haue done to the sicke mā by what meanes he is mad whole: be it knowen vnto you al, and to all the people of Israel, that by þe name of * Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God ray-led agayne fro death: euē by hym doth thys man stande here present before you whole.

* This is the stone which was cast alyde of you buylders, which is become þe chiefe of the corner. Neither is ther saluaciō in any other.

* For amonge men vnder heauen there is geuen none other name, wherin we must be saued. ✠

When they sawe the boldnesse of Peter & John, and vnderstode that they were vnlern-ed and laye men, they marueyled, and they knewe them, that they had bene with Iesu, and beholdinge also the man (whych was healed) standyng with them, they could not saye agaynste it, but commaunded them to go alyde out of the counsell, & counseled among them selues, saying: * What shall we do to these men? For a manifeste sygne is done by them, and is openly knowe to all them that dwel in Ierusalem, and we can not denye it.

But that it be nolyd no farther among the people, let vs threate & charge them, þe they speake hence forth to no man in thys name. D

And they called them, * and commaunded the, that in no wyse they shulde speake, nor teach in the name of Iesu. But Peter & Iho answered, & sayde vnto them: whether it be ryght in þe syght of God, to herke vnto you moze then to God, iudge ye. For we can not but speake, that whych we haue sene & heard.
So threathened they the, and let them go, & founde nothyng to do to punyssh them, because of the people. For al men prayled God because of * that which was done: for þe mā was aboute forty yere olde, on whō thys myracle of healyng was shewed.

Asone as they were let go, they came to theyr felowes, and shewed all that the hye prestes and elders had sayd. And when they hearde þe, they lyft vp theyr voyces to God with one accorde, and sayd: Lorde, thou arte God, which haste made heauen and earth, the see, and all that in them is, whych in the holy goost, by þe mouth of thy seruānt Dauid: * (our father) hast sayd: * Why dyd þe hearken rage, and the people ymagen vān thynges? The kynges of the earth rode vp, and the rulers came together, agaynste the Lorde and agaynste his anoynted.

And of a trueth, agaynste thy holy chyld Jesus (whō thou hast anoynted) both he-rode & also Poncius Pilate, with the Gentiles & the people of Israel, gathered them sel-ues together, (in thys cytie) for to do whatsoeuer thy hande & thy counsell determined before to be done. And now Lorde, beholde theyr threathenynges, & graūt vnto thy ser-uautes, that with all confidence they maye speke thy word. So shalt thou stretch forth thyne hande, that healyng & sygnes & wonders be done by the name of thy holpe chyld Jesus. And asone as they had prayed, the place moued, where they were assembled together, and they were al fylled with the holy goost, and they speake the worde of God boldely.

And the multitude of them that beleued, were of one herte, & of one soule: they ther sayde ayme of them, that oughte of the thynges whiche he possessed, was his owne: but they had all thynges common. And with greate power gaue the Apostles wptnes of the resurrection of the Lord Iesu. And great grace was with them all. Neither was there any among them, that lacked. For as many as were possessers of landes, or houses, sold them, & brought the pryce of þe thynges that were

The Actes

were sold, & layed it downe at the Apostles fete. And distribucyō was made vnto euery man, accordyng as he had nede. A

* Actes. i. b

And * Iosef, whych was also called of the Apostles, Barnabas (that is to say p sonne of consolacyon) beyng a Leuite, and of the countre of Cypris, whā he had lande, solde it, and layde the pryce downe at p Apostles fete.

The. v. Chapter.

C The dissimulynge of Ananias, & Sapphira is punis: shed. whiche are done by the Apostles, whych are taken, but the angel of God byngeth them quite of p: son. They are brought before the counsell. The sentence of Gamaliell. The Apostles are beaten, they reioyce in trouble

A Certayne mā, named Ananias with Sapphira, his wyf solde a possessyō, and kept a wape part of the pryce (his wyf also being of counsell) and brought a certayne parte, & layde it downe at the Apostles fete. But Peter sayde: Ananias, how is it, that Satthan hath fylled thynne hert, that thou shuldest lye vnto the holy goost, & kepe a wape parte of the pryce of the lande: Pertayned it not vnto p onely: and after it was sold, was it not in thyn owne power: Why hast thou conceaued thys thynge in thynne herte: Thou hast not lyed vnto me, but vnto God. When Ananias hearde these wordes, he fell downe, and gaue vp the gooste. And great feare cam on all them that herde these thynge. And the ponge men rose vp, and put hym aparte, and carped hym out, and buryed hym.

25 And it fortuneth, that (as it were aboute the space of thre houres after) his wyf came in, ignozaunt of that whych was done. And Peter sayd vnto her: Tell me, Solde ye not the lande for so much: And she sayd: yee, for so muche. Then Peter sayde vnto her: why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the sprete of the Lord: Behold, the fete of them which haue buryed thy husbande, are at the doze, & shall carpe the oute. Then fell she downe straghte wape at his fete, and yelded vp the gooste. And the pong men came in, & founde her deade, & carped her oute, & buryed her by her husbande. And greates feare came on all the congregaciō, & on as many as hearde it.

* Actes. v. b

* III. Mc. vi. a John. x. c
Actes. ix. b

C By the handes of the Apostles * were many sygnes and wonders shewed amonge the people. And they were al together with one accorde in * Salomons porche. And of other durst no man ioyne hym self to them, neuertheles p people magnified the. The nombze of them p beleued in the Lord bothe of men and women, grewe more & moze: in so muche that they brought the spyke into the stretes, and layde them on heddes and conches, that at the lest wape the shadowe of Peter whan he came by, myght shadowe some of them, & p they myght all be deliuered fro theyr infirmities)

There came also a multitude of the cyties rounde aboute vnto Jerusalem, bringyng speke folkes, and them which were vexed w vncleane spyrtes. And they were healed euery one.

* Then the chiefe prest rose vp, and all they that were with hym (which is the sect of the Saduces) and were ful of indignacyon, and layed handes on the Apostles, and put them in the comune prison. * But the angel of the Lord by nyght opened the prison doozes, & brought them forth, and sayde: go, & stande and speake in the temple to the people al the wordes of this lyfe. When they heard that, they entred into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the chiefe prest came and they that were with hym, and called a counsail togyther, and al the elders of p chyl-dren of Israel, and sente men to the prison, to fet them. When the mynisters came, and founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde, sayinge: the prison trulye founde we shut with all dyligence, and the keepers standyng without before the doozes. But when we had opened, we founde no man therein. When the chiefe prest and the ruler of the temple, and the hye prestes herde these thynges, they doubted of them, where vnto this wolde growe.

Then came one and shewed them: beholde, the men that ye put in prison, stand in the temple, and teache the people. Then wente the ruler of p temple, with ministers & brought them wythout violence. For they feared the people, lest they shulde haue ben stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the counsell. And the chiefe prest asked them, sayinge: * dyd not we straitlye commaunde you, that ye shulde not teache in this name: And beholde, ye haue fylled Ierusalem wyth poure doctrine, and intende to byngne * this mans bloude vpon vs.

Peter and the other Apostles answered, & sayde: * We ought moze to obeye God then men. The God of our fathers rayled vp Iesus, whom ye slewe, and hanged on tre: hym hath God lyft vp w hys ryght hande, to be a ruler & a Sauour, for to geue repentaunce to Israel, & forgeuenes of synnes. And we are recorderes of these thynges, which we saye, and so is also p holy goost, whom God hath geue to the that obeye hym. When they herde that, they claue asunder, and sought meanes to sle them. Then stode ther vp one in the counsell, a Pharysey, named * Gamaliell, a doctoure of la we (had in reputacion among all the people) & commaunded the Apostles to go also a lytle space, & sayde vnto them: Ye men of Israel, take hede to your selues, what ye entende to do, as touchyng these me. For before these dayes rose vp on Thersday, boastyng hym selfe, to whom resorted a nombze number of men, about a foure hundred, which was sayne: and they al which beleued hym, were scattered abrode, & brought to nought. After thys man, was there one Judas of Galile in the dayes of the tribute, & drew awaye much people after hym. He also persecuted and al, euen (as many as harkened to hym) were scattered abrode.

And now I saye vnto you: refrayne your selues from these men, and let them alone. For yf thys counsel or this worke be of men, it wyl come to nought. But and yf it be of God, ye can not destroye it, lest haplye ye be founde to stryue agaynst God. And to hym agreed the other: and when they had called the Apostles, they beat them, & commaunded that they shulde not speake in the name of Iesu, and let them go.

And they departed from the counsell, & reuoltinge, that they were counted worthy, to suffer rebuke for hys name. And dayly in the temple and in euery house they ceased not, to teach and prache Iesus Christ.

The. vi. Chapter.

Ministers (or deacons) are ordeined in the congregation to do seruice in necessary thynges of the body, that the Apostles maye applye only vpon the worde of God. Steuen is accused.

In those dayes (when the nombre of the dyscyples grewe) there arose a grudge amonge the Grekes agaynst the hebrues, because they wydowes were despyed in the dayly ministracion. Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayde: It is not mete, that we shulde leaue the worde of God and serue tables. Wherefore brethren loke ye out amonge you seuen men, of honest report, and full of the holy goost and wysdome, to whome we maye comitte thys busynesse. But we wyl geue oure selues continually to prayer, and to ministracion of the worde. And they saynge pleased the whole multitude. And they chose Steuen a man full of fayth & of the holy goost, and Philip, & Procorus, & Nicanor, and Timon, and Permenas, and Nicolas a conuert of Antioche. These they set before the Apostles: & when they had prayed, they layde theyr handes on them.

And the worde of God encreased, & the nombre of the disciples multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a greate company of the prestes were obedient to the fayth.

And Steuen, full of fayth and power, dyd great wonders & myracles amonge the people. Then there arose certen of the Synagoge, whych is called the Synagoge of the Lybertynes, and of Sirenytes, and of Alexandria, & of Celicia, and of Asia, dysputyng wth Steuen. And they coulde not resyst his wysdome, and the sperte, whych spake.

Then sent they in men, whych sayde: we haue hearde hym speake blasphemous wo:

des agaynst Moses, and agaynst God. And they moued the people & the elders and the scribes: and came vpon hym & caught hym, and brought hym to the counsell, & brought forth false wytnesses, whych sayd: This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous wordes agaynst this holy place and the lawe: for we herde hym say: thys Iesus of Nazareth shal destroye thys place, and chal chaunge the ordinaunces, whych Moses gaue vs. And all that sat in the counsell, looked stedfastlye on hym, and sawe hys face as it had bene the face of an angell.

The. vii. Chapter.

Steuen maketh answer to hys accusation, rebuketh the hardnecked Jewes, and is stoned vnto death.

Then sayd the chiefe prest: is it euen so? And he sayde: ye men, brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glorye appeared vnto oure father Abraham, before he dwelte in Charran, and sayd vnto hym: Get the out of thy countre, and from thy kynred, & come into this lande, which I shall shewe the. Then came he out of the lande of Chalde, & dwelte in Charran. And from thence, when hys father was deade, he brought hym into thys lande in which ye now dwel, & he gaue hym none inheritance in it, no nor the bredth of a fote: & promysed that he wolde geue it to hym to possesse, and to hys seede after hym, when as yet he had no chyld.

God verely spake on thys wyse: that his seede shulde sojourn in a straunge lade, and that they shulde kepe them in bondage, and entreate the euell. iiii. C. yeres. And the nacion (to whome they shalbe in bondage) wyl I iudge, said God. And after that whal they come forth and serue me in thys place.

And he gaue hym the couenaunt of circumcision. And he begat Isaac, & circumcised hym the eynge dape, and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelue patriarches. And the patriarches hauing indignacion, solde Ioseph into Egypt. And God was wth hym, & deliuered hym out of all hys aduersities, and gaue hym fauoure and wysdome in the syghte of Pharao kynge of Egypte. And he made hym gouernour ouer Egypte, and ouer all hys householde.

But there came a death ouer al the lande of Egypt & Canaan, and greate affliction vnto oure fathers soules no sustenance. But whē Jacob herde that there was come in Egypt he sent our fathers fyrst. And at the seconde tyme, Ioseph was knowne of hys brethren, and Iosephs kynred was made knowne vnto Pharao. Then sente Ioseph a message, & caused hys father to be brought, and al hys kynne. lxxv. soules. And Jacob descended into Egypte & and dyed both he and our fathers, and were caried ouer into Sichem

¶ and

The Actes

1 Gen. xxi. 3. and layde in the sepulchre. & that Abraham bought for money of the sonnes of Emor, & sonne of Sichem.

C But when the tyme of the promesse dūe nye (whych God had swoyne to Abraham) * the people grew & multiplied in Egypte tyl another kynge arose whych knewe not of Joseph. The same dealt subtelly w our kynred, and cuell intreated our fathers, and made them cast out theyr ponge chylidren, & they shulde not remayne alpye. * The same tyme was Moyses boine, and was acceptable vnto God, and nouryshe up in hys fathers house thre monethes. When he was cast out, Pharaos daughter toke hym vp, & nouryshe him vp for her owne sonne. And Moyses was learned in al maner of wysdom of the Egyptians, and was myghty in dedes and in wordes.

And when he was full forty yere olde, it came into hys hert, to vylter hys brethryn the chylidren of Israel. And when he sawe one of them suffer wronge, he defended him, and auenged hys quarel that had the harme done to hym, and smote the Egyptian. For he supposeth his brethryn wolde haue vnderstande, howe that God by hys hande shulde deliuer them. But they vnderstode not.

D And the next day he shewed hym selfe vnto them as they stroue, and wolde haue set them at one agayne, sayenge: Syys, ye are brethryn, why hurte ye one another? But he that dyd hys neyghboure wronge, thruste hym awaye, sayenge: * Who made the a ruler and a iudge ouer vs? wylt thou kill me, as thou dydest the Egyptian yesterdayer? * Then fled Moyses at that sayeng, and was a straunger in the lande of Madian, where he begat two sonnes.

* And when forty yeres were expyred, there appeared to hym in the wyldernes of mount Syna an angel of the Lord in a flabe of fyre in a bulshe. When Moyses sawe it, he wondred at the sight. And as he dūe neare to beholde, the voyce of the Lord came vnto hym. * I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, & God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Moyses trembled, and durst not beholde. The sayd & Lord to him. * Put of thy shoes from thy fete, for & place where thou standest, is holy grounde. I haue perspytly sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypte, and I haue hearde theyr groynge, and am come downe to deliuer them. And now come, and I wyl sende thee into Egypte.

E This Moyses who theyr forsoke (sayenge: * who made the a ruler and a iudge?) & same dyd God sende to be a ruler and a deliuerer, by the handes of the angell whych appeared to hym in the bulshe. And the same brought them out, shewing wonders and signes in Egypt, & in the red see, and in the wyldernes forty yeres. This is that Moyses, which sayd vnto the chylidren of Israel: * I prophete that & Lord poure God raple vp vnto you of your brethryn, like vnto me, hym shall ye heare.

This is he: that was in the congregaciō in the wyldernes wth the aungell, whych spake to hym in the mount Syna, and with our fathers. Thys man receaued the worde of lyfe to geue vnto vs, to whome our fathers wolde not obey, but cast it from them, & in theyr hertes turned backe agayne into Egypt, sayenge vnto Iard: * make vs goddes to go before vs. For as for thys Moyses that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, we wote not what is become of hym. And they made a calfe in those dayes, and offered sacrifice vnto the ymage, and reioyced ouer the workes of theyr owne handes.

Then God turned hym selfe, and * gaue them vp, that they shulde worshyp & boost of the sake, as it is wyrtten in the booke of the prophetes. * O ye of the house of Israel gaue ye to me sacrifices and meate offerings by the space of forty yeres in the wyldernes? And ye toke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch, and the starre of poure God Remphan, figures whych ye made to worshyp them. And I wyl translate you beynde Babylon.

Oure fathers had the tabernacle of wyrtnes in the wyldernes, as he had appoynted them, speakyng vnto Moyses: & ye shulde make it, accordyng to the fashō that he had sene. Whych tabernacle also oure fathers ye came after, * brought in wth Iosue into possession of the Gentyls, whom God dreane out before the face of oure fathers, vnto the tyme of Dauid: * whych founde fauoure before God, and wolde sayne haue founde a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. * But Salomon buylt hym an house.

* Howbeit he that is hyest of all, dwelleth not in temples made wth handes, as sayeth & prophete: * heauen is my seate, and earth is my fote stole. What house wyl ye buylde for me, sayeth the Lord: or which is the place of my rest: hath not my hāde made all these thynges?

Ye styffnecked and of vncircumcised hertes and eares: ye haue alwayes respyed the holy goost: * as your fathers dyd, so do ye. Whych of the prophetes haue not your fathers persecuted? And they haue slayne them which belued before of the cōpyng of that Just, whom ye haue nowe betrayed, & murdered. And ye also haue receaued the lawe * by the ministracion of aungels, and: haue not kept it.

* When they herde these thynges, theyr hertes claue asunder, and they gnashed on hym hym wth they: teth. But he beyng full of the holy goost, looked vp stedfastly with hys eyes into heauen, & sawe the glorie of God, and Jesus standynge on the ryght hande of God, & sayd: beholde, I se the heauens open, and y sonne of man standynge on the ryghte hande of God. Then they gaue a shoute with a loude voyce, and *Stopped they: eares, & ranne vpon hym all at once, & cast hym oute of the ctyte, and *stoned hym. And the wyrt-nes lapyd downe they: clothes at a poge mas-tere, whose name was Saul. And they ston-deruen callynge on and sayenge: Lorde Jesus, *receaue my sprete. And he kneeled downe & cryed wth a loude voyce: Lorde, laye not thys synne to they: charge. And when he had thus spoken, he fell aslepe. ¶

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

¶ Saul persecuteth the Christen. The Apostles are scatered abrode. Philip cometh into Samaria. Symon magus is baptised, he dyssemblyeth. Philip baptiseth the chamberlayne.

Saul *consented vnto hys death. And at that tyme there was a great persecucion against y cōgre-gacion whych was at Jerusalem and they were all *scatered abrode thoro-we out the regions of Jewry and Samaria, except the Apostles. But deuout men dresled strenen, and made great lamentacion ouer hym. As for Saul he *made hauocke of the congregacion, and entred into euery house, and dreyue out both men & women, & thrust them into pelson. Therefore they that were scatered abroade, wente euery where prea-chyng the worde of God.

¶ The came Philip into a ctyte of Sa-maria, & preached Christ vnto them. And y people gaue hede vnto those thynges which Philip spake w one accorde, hearyng & se-nyng the myracles whych he dyd. For *vnde-cleane spretes cryenge w loude voyce, came out of many y were possessed of the. And ma-ny taken wth palsy, & many that halsted, were healed. And there was greate ioye in that ctyte. ¶

But there was a certeyn mā, called Sy-mā, whych before tyme in y same ctyte vled wythcraft, & bewtyched the people of Sa-maria, sayenge y he was a man y coulde do great thynges. Whom they regarded, from the least to y greates, sayeng: this man is y power of God, whych is called greates. And hym they set much by, because that of longe tyme he had bewtyched the with sozeries.

¶ But allone as they gaue credēce to Philip-pes preachynge of y kyngdome of God, & of y name of Jesus Christ, they were baptised both men & womē. The Symōhim selfe be-leued also. And whē he was baptised, he con-tymed w Philip, & wondred, beholdyng the myracles and sygnes, whych were shewed.

¶ When the Apostles which were at Je-rusalem herde saye, y Samaria had receaued the word of God, they sent vnto the Peter & John. Whych when they were come downe prayed for the, y they myght receaue the ho-ly goost. For as yet he was come on none of the: but they were baptised onely in y name of Christ Jesu. ¶ Then layed they they: hā-des on the, & they receaued the holy goost. ¶

¶ When Symon sawe y thoro-we layenge on of the apostles hādes, the holy goost was geuen, he offered them money, sayenge: geue me also thys power, that on whomsoener I put the handes, he may receyue y holy goost. But Peter sayde vnto hym: thy money pe-rythe wth the, because thou haste thought *that the gyft of God maye be obteyned w money. Thou hast neyther parte nor felow-shyp in thys busyness. For thy herte is not ryght in the syght of God. Repent therefore of thys thy wickednes, and praye God, that the thought of thyne hert maye be forgiven the. For I perceyue that thou art ful of byt-ter gall, and wapped in iniquite.

¶ Then answered Symon & sayde: *praye ye to the Lorde for me, y none of these thynges whych ye haue spoken, fall on me. And they when they had testified and preached the worde of God, returned towarde Jeru-salem, and preached the Gospel in many cty-ties of the Samaritans.

¶ The angell of the Lorde spake vnto Philip, sayeng: aryse, & go towarde y south vnto y waye that goeth downe from Jeru-salem vnto the cite of Gaza, which is in the desert. And he arose, & wet on. And beholde, a man of Ethiopia (a chamberlayne, and of great authorite) with Candace quene of the Ethiopians, & had the rule of al her treasure *came to Jerusalem for to worshyp. And as he returned home agayne syttinge in hys charret, he red Clay the prophete.

¶ The the sprete sayd vnto Philip: go neare & ioyne thy selfe to yonder charret. And Phi-lip ran to hym, & herd hym red the prophete Clay, & sayd: Understādest thou what thou readeest? And he sayde: how can I, except I had a gypde? And he desyred Philip, that he wolde come vp, & syt w hym. The tenoure of the scripture whych he red, was this: *he was led as a shepe to be slayne: and lyke a lābe domme before his shearer, so opened he not hys mouth: Because of hys hableness he was not esteemed. But who shall declare his generacion: for hys lyfe is takē fro the earth. The chamberlayn answered Philip, & said: I praye the of whom speakest the prophete thys: of hym selfe, or of some other man?

Philip opened hys mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached vnto hym Jesus. And as they wet on they: waye, they came vnto a certen water, & the chāberlayn sayd:

* Actes. vi. b

111. a. 117. a

i. 110. 111. b

and. b. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

111. 111. b

The Actes

* Actes. 7. g

Sayd: Se, here is water * what doth let me to be baptysed: Philip sayde vnto hym: If thou beleue with al thyne hert, thou mayest. And he answered, & sayde: I beleue that Iesus Christ is y sonne of God. And he comaunded the charret to stande still. And they wet downe both into y water: both Philip and also the chamberlayn, and he baptysed him. And as sone as they were come out of y water, the sperte of y Lorde caught away Philip, and y chamberlayn sawe hym nomore. And he went on hys waye reioysynge: but Philip was founde at Azotus. And he walked thowout the countre, preachynge in all the cyties, tyll he came to Cesarca. I

Che. ix chapter.

Paul is converted, and confoundeth the Jewes Peter rapeth Tabitha.

* Actes. viii. a.
fro. a. rrb. b.
I. Cor. xv. b.
Gala. i. c

And Saul yet bretchynge out threathynge and slaughter agaynst the disciples of the Lorde, wente vnto the hye prestre, and desired of hym letters, to cary to Damasco, to the synagoges: that yf he founde any of thys waye, (whether they were men or women) he myght bynne the bounde vnto Jerusalem. And when he iourneyed, it fortuneth that as he was come nye to Damasco, sodenly there shyned rounde about hym a lyghte from heauen, and he fell to y earth & herde a voyce, sayenge to hym:

* Actes. xxi. b.

* Saul Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he sayd: what art thou Lorde? And the Lorde sayde: I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest. It is hard for y to kyche agaynst the pyckes. And he both tremblynge, and astonyed sayde: Lorde, what wylte thou haue me to do? And the Lorde sayde vnto hym: aryse, and go into the citie, and it shalbe tolde the, what thou must do.

* Luke. ix. b Actes. ix. f
and. xxi. f

The men whych iourneyed w him, stode amased, hearynge a voyce, but seying nomā. And Saul arose from the earth, and whē he opened hys eyes, he sawe no man. But they led hym by the hande, and brought him into Damasco. And he was thre dayes wythout syght, and nether dreyde eate nor drynke. And there was a certein discipule at Damasco, named Ananias, and to hym sayd the Lorde in a vision: Ananias. And he sayd: Beholde, I am here Lorde: and the Lorde sayd vnto hym: Aryse, & go into the strete (whych is called straghte) and seke in the house of Judas after one called Saul * of Tharsus. For behold he prayeth, & hath sene in a vision a man named Ananias comynge in to hym, & puttynge hys handes on hym, that he myght receaue hys syght.

* Actes. xxi. g
and. xxi. a

Then Ananias answered: Lorde, I have herd by many, of this man * how much euell he hath done to thy sayntes at Jerusalem: & here he hath authorite of the hye prestres, to bynde all that call on thy name. The Lorde

* Actes. viii. a.
fro. rrb. b.
I. Corin. xv. b.
Gala. i. c

sayd vnto hym: go thy waye, for he is a chosen vessel vnto me, to beare my name before the Gentyls, & kynge, & the chyldezen of Israel. For I wyl shewe hym howe great thynges * he must suffre for my names sake.

* Actes. ix. a.
I. Cor. ix. b.
I. Actes. ix.

And Ananias went hys waye, & entred into the house, and put hys handes on hym, and sayd: Brother Saul, the Lorde y appered vnto the in the waye as y camest, hath sent me, that y myghtest receaue thy syght, and be fylled wyth the holy goost. And immediately there fell from hys eyes as it had bene scales, & he receyued syght: and arose, and was baptysed, & receyued meate, & was comforted. Then was Saul certayn dayes wyth y disciples whych were at Damasco. And straghte waye he preached Christ in y synagoges, howe y he was y sonne of God but all y herde hym, were amased, and sayd: Is not thys he, that spoyled the whych called on thys name in Jerusalem, & came hyther for that entente, that he myght bynne them bounde vnto y hye prestres? But Saul encreased the moze in strength, & confounded the Jewes whych dwelt at Damasco, affirmynge that thys was very Christ. I

And after a good whyle, the Jewes toke counsell together, to kyl hym. But theye layenge awayte was knowen of Saul. And they watched y gates daye & nyghte to kyl hym. * Then y disciples toke him by nyght and put hym thowowe the wall, and let hym downe in a basket.

* I. Cor. ix. b.
I. Actes. ix.

And whē Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to couple hym selfe to y disciples: but they were all afrayde of hym, & beleued not y he was a discipule. But Barnabas toke hym, & brought him to the Apostles, & declared to them, howe he had sene y Lorde in the waye, & that he had spoken to hym, & howe he had done boldly at Damasco in the name of Iesu. And he had hys conuersacion wyth the at Jerusalem, speakynge boldlye in the name of y Lorde Iesu. And he spake & disputed agaynst the Grekes: but they wet about to ster hym. Whych when y brethren knewe, * they brought hym to Cesarca, & sent hym forth to Tharsus. Then had the congregacions rest thowout all Jewry, & Galile & Samaria, and were edified, & walked in the feare of the Lorde, and multiplied, by y comfote of the holy goost.

* I. Actes. ix.

And it chauced as Peter walked throug out al quarters: he came also to the sayntes, whych dwelt at Lydda. And there he founde a certayn mā named Eneas, whych had kept hys bed eyght yeres, and was speke of the pailse. And Peter sayd vnto hym: Eneas, the Lorde Iesu Christ make the whole: arise, & make thy bed. * And he arose immediately. And all that dwelte at Lydda and Cæsaron sawe hym, and turned to the Lorde. There

* I. Actes. ix. b.
I. Actes. ix. b.
I. Actes. ix. b.

There was at Joppa a certeyn woman a discipule named Tabitha (whych by interpretation is called Dorcas) the same was full of good woorkes & almes dedes, whych she dyd. And it chaunced in those dayes that she was sycke, & dyed. Whom whē they had buryed, they layed her in a chāber. But for as much as Lydda was nye to Joppa, & the disciples had hearde that Peter was there, they sente vnto hym, desyryng hym, that he wolde not be greued to come vnto them.

Peter arose, & came with them. And when he was come, they brought hym into a chāber. And al the wydowes stode rounde about hym, wepyng, and shewyng the coates and garmentes, which Dorcas made, whyle she was with them. And Peter put them all forth, and knelled downe, and prayed: and turned hym to the body, and sayd: Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat vp. And he gaue her the hāde, and lyft her vp. And when he had called the sayntes & wydowes, he shewed her almye. And it was knowen thowout all Joppa, and many beleued in the Lorde. And it fortuned, that he tarped many dayes in Joppa with one Symon a tanner.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

¶ The byson that Peter sawe. Howe he was sent to Cornelius. The heathē also receiue the sperte and are baptyzed.

¶ There was a certeyn man in Cesarea called Cornelius, a captayne of the souldyers of Italy, a deuoute man, & one that feared God w all his houlholde, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God alwaye. The same sawe by a byson euidently (about the nyynth houre of the daye) an angell of God comynge into hym, & sayenge vnto hym: Cornelius. When he looked on hym, he was afrayde, and sayde: what is this Lorde? he sayd vnto hym: Thy prayers and thy almes are come vp into remembrance before God. And nowe sende me to Joppa, & cal for one Symon, whose surname is Peter. He lodgeth with one Symon a tanner, whose house is by the see syde. He shall tell the, what thou oughtest to do. And whē the angell whych he spake vnto hym was departed, he called two of his houlholde seruantes, and a deuoute souldyer of the that dyd on hym, and tolde them all the matter, and sent them to Joppa.

¶ On the morowe as they wēt on they way, and hēwe nye vnto the citie, Peter wēt vp vpon the toppe of the house to praye, about the syxt houre. And when he wēred an hongred, he wolde haue eaten. But whyle they made ready, he fell into a traunce, and sawe heauen opened, & a certeyn vessel come downe vnto him, as it had ben a great sheete hapt at the foure corners, & was let downe to the earth, wherein were all maner of fourescored beastes of the earth, and vermes & wormes and foules of the ayer. And there came a voyce to hym, ryle Peter, kylle & eate. But Peter sayd: not so Lorde, for I haue neuer eaten any thyng that is commen or vncleane. And the voyce spake vnto hym agayne the seconde tyme: what God hath cleensed, & call not thou comen. This was done thysle, and the vessel was receyued vp agayne into heauen.

Whyle Peter also mused in himselfe what thys byson (which he had sene) meant: behold, men which were sent fro Cornelius had made inquirance for Simons house, and stode before the doze: and called out one, and asked whether Simon whych he was surnamed Peter were lodged there. Whyle Peter thought on the vision, the sperte sayd vnto hym: behold, men seke the: arise therfore, & get the downe, & go with them, & doubt not for I haue sent them. Peter went downe to the men whych were sente vnto hym from Cornelius & sayd: Behold, I am he whome ye seke, what is the cause wherfore ye are come? They sayd: Cornelius the captayne a iust man, & one that feareth God, & of good report amonge all the people of the Jewes, was warned by an holy angel to sende for thee into his house, and to heare wordes of the. Then called he them in, & lodged them.

¶ And on the morowe, Peter went awape with them, and certeyn brethren fro Joppa accompanied hym. And the thyrde daye entered they into Cesarea. And Cornelius wayted for them, and had called together his kinsmen and special frendes. And as it chaunced Peter to come in, Cornelius met hym, & fell downe at his fete, and worshypped hym. But Peter toke hym vp, sayenge: stande vp, for I my selfe also am a man. And as he talked with hym, he came in, and founde many that were come together. And he sayd vnto the: Ye knowe howe that it is an vnlawfull thyng for a man that is a Jewe, to company or come vnto an alicen: But God hath shewed me, that I shulde not call any mā comen or vncleane: therfore came I vnto you without delaye, as sone as I was sent for. I aske therfore, for what intent haue ye sent for me.

¶ And Cornelius sayd: Thys daye nowe foure dayes about thys houre, I sat fastyng & at the nyynth houre I prayde in my house: & behold, a man stode before me in byghte clothynge, & sayd: Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, & thyne almes dedes are had in remembrance in the syght of God. Sende men therfore to go to Joppa, & cal for Simon whose surname is Peter. He is lodged in the house of one Symon a tanner by the see syde: which as sone as he is come, shall speake vnto the. Then sent I for the immediatly, and thou hast well done, that thou art come. Nowe therfoze are we all here present befoze God, to heare all thynges that are commaunded vnto the of God.

Shalt haue

The Actes

Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayd: Of a truthe I perceyue that there is no respect of persones w God, but in all people, he y feareth him, & worketh ryght wylnesse, is accepted wyth hym.

Pe knowe the preachynge that God sent vnto the chyldre of Israel: preachynge peace by Iesu Christ, whych is Lorde ouer al thynges. Whych preachynge was publyshed thowowe all Jewry (and began in Galile, after the baptyme whych John preached) howe God anoynted Iesus of Nazareth w the holy goost, & with power. Whych Iesus went about doyng good, & healynge al that were oppressed of the deuell, for God was wyth hym. And we are wytnesse of all thynges whych he dyd in the lande of the Jewes and at Ierusalem: whom they slewe, and hanged on tre. Hym God rayled vp the thyrde daye, & shewed hym openly, not to al people, but vnto vs wytnesses (chosen befoze of God for y same intent) whych he dyd eate and drynke w hym, after he arose from death.

And he commaunded vs to preach vnto y people, & to testifye y it is he, which was ordained of God to be y iudge of quych & deed. To hym geue all the prophetes wytnes, y thowowe hys name whosoener beleueth in hym shall receyue remission of synnes.

Whyle Peter yet spake these wordes, y holy goost fell on all them whych hearde the preachynge. And they of y circuncision whych beleued, were astonnyed, as many as came wyth Peter, because that on y Gentyls also was shed out the gyft of the holy goost. For they hearde them speake wyth tonges, and magnifye God. Then answered Peter: can any man forbyd water that these shulde not be baptyfed, whych haue receyued the holy goost as well as we? And he commaunded the to be baptyfed in the name of y Lorde. The prayd they hym, to tary a fewe dayes.

The xi. Chapter.

Writer sheweth the cause wherfoze he went to y deachen. Barnabas and Paul preache vnto the heathen. Agabus prophesyeth a dearth for to come.

And the Apostles & brethren that were in Jewry, herde that the heathen had also receyued the worde of God. And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they that were of the circuncision contended agaynst hym, sayenge: Thou wentest into men vn circumcised, and dydest eate wyth them.

But Peter reherled the matter from the begynnynge, & expounded it by order vnto them sayenge: I was in y cite of Joppa, prayenge, and in a traunce, I sawe a vlyon, a certeyne vessell descende, as it had bene a greate sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me. Into the whych when I had fastened myne eyes, I sawe fyre, & sawe fourfoted beastes of y earth and vermen & wormes, & foules of the ayer. And I herde a voyce sayeng vnto me: aryse Peter, slaye, and eate. But I sayde, not so Lorde, for nothyng comen of vncleane hath at any tyme entred into my mouth. But the voyce answered me agayne from heauen: count not thou those thynges comen, whych God hath cleensed. And thys was done thre tymes. And all were taken vp agayne into heauen.

And beholde, immediatly there were thre men alreadye come vnto the house where I was, sent from Celsarea vnto me. And the sperte sayd vnto me, y I shuld go wyth them wythout doutynge. Whereouer, these thre brethren accompanied me, & we entred into the mans house. And he shewed vs, howe he had sene an angel in hys house, whych stode and sayde to hym: sende men to Joppa, and cal for Symon, whose surname is Peter: he shall tell the wordes, wherby both thou and all thyne house shalbe saued. And as I bega to preache, the holy goost fell on them, as he dyd on vs at the begynnynge. Then came it to me remembraunce, howe that the Lord sayd: y I hon baptyfed wyth water, but ye shalbe baptyfed wyth the holy goost. For asmuch then as God gaue them lyke gyftes as he dyd vnto vs, when we beleued on the Lorde Iesu Christ: what was y y I shuld haue wythstande God? When they hearde thys, they helde theyr peace, and glorified God, sayenge: then hath God also to the Gentyls graunted repentance vnto lyfe.

They also whych were scattered abrode thowow the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked thowowout vnto Phenices and Cyppers, & Antioche, preachynge the worde to no man, but vnto the Jewes only. Some of them were men of Cyppers and Syren, whych when they were come to Antioche, spake vnto the Grekes, & preached the Lord Iesus. And the harte of the Lord was wyth them, and a great nombre beleued and turned vnto the Lorde.

Epdynges of these thynges came vnto y eares of y congregacion, which was in Ierusalem. And they sent forth Barnabas, y he shulde go vnto Antioche. Whych when he came, & had sene y grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, y w purpose of hert they wolde continually cleaue vnto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the holy goost & of sapth: & much people was added vnto y Lorde. Then departed Barnabas to Charlus, for to seke Saul. And wher he had founde hym, he brought him vnto Antioche. And it

* ii. par. rir. c Roma. ii. b Ephr. vi. b Collo. iii. b Eccl. rrr. b
I Esay. lvi. b

* Mat. ii. b

* Ca. i. a Luk. i. a

* I. cor. rrr. b
I. cor. rrr. b
I. cor. rrr. b
I. cor. rrr. b

* Actes. ii. a

* Actes. vi. f

* I. cor. vi. a

* Actes. x. b

And it chanced that a whole yeare they had theꝝ conuersacion wth the congregacion there, and taught muche people: in so muche, that the disciples of Antioche were the first that were called Christen.

* In those dayes came prophetes fro the cite of Ierusalem vnto Antioche. And there stode vp one of them named Agabus, & signified by the sprete, that there shulde be great dearth thowow out all the world which came to passe in the Emperour Claudius dayes. Then the disciples euery man accordynge to his abylite, purposed to sende socour vnto the brethren whych dwelt in Jewry. Which thinge they also dyd, & sente it to the elders by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

¶ The xiiij. Chapter.

¶ Herode persecuteth the Christen. Killeth James, & putteth Peter in prison, whome the Lord deliuereth by an angell. The shamefull death of Herode.

AT the same tyme Herode the kynge stretched forth his handes to vere cer ten of the congregacio. And he killed James the brother of John wth the swerde. And because he sawe that it pleased the Jewes he proceeded further, and toke Peter also.

¶ Then were the dayes of swete breade. And when he had caught hym, he put hym in prison also, & deliuered hym to foure quaternions of souldyers to be kepte, entending after Easter to brynge hym forth to the people.

¶ And Peter was kept in prison. But prayer was made without ceasinge of the congregacion, vnto God for hym. And when Herode wolde haue brought hym out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betwene two souldyers, bounde wth two chaynes, & the keepers befoze the doze kepte the prison.

¶ And beholde, the angell of the Lord was there present, and a lyght shyned in the habita tion. And he smote Peter on the syde, & stre tched him vp, sayenge: aryse vp quickly. And his chaynes fell off from his handes. And an angell sayd vnto hym: geyde thy selfe, & bynde on thy sandales. And so he dyd. And he sayed vnto hym: cast thy garment about the, & folow me. And he came out & folowed hym, & wist not that it was truth whych was done by the angell, but thought he had sene a visi on. When they were past the first and the se conde watch, they came vnto the yron gate, that leadeth vnto the cite, whych opened to them by the owne accord. And they went out, and passed thowow one strete, and forth wth, the angell departed from hym.

¶ And when Peter was come to hym selfe, he sayd: now I knowe of a suerty, that the Lord hath sente his angell, & hath deliue red me out of the hande of Herode, and from all the waytynge for, of the people of Jewes. ¶ And as he considered the thinge, he came to the house of Mary the mother of one

John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together in prayer. * Actes. i. b

¶ As Peter knocked at the entre doze, a dam sell came forth to berken, named Rhoda.

¶ And when she knewe Peters voyce she ope ned not the entre for gladnes, but ran in, & told how Peter stode befoze the entry.

¶ And they sayd vnto her: thou art mad: But she as firmid that it was euen so. ¶ The sayd they: it is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doze, & sawe hym, they were astonied. * Actes. iij. c.

¶ And when he had beckened vnto them wth the hande, that they myghte holde theꝝ peace, he tolde them by what meanes the Lord had brought hym out of the prison.

¶ And he sayd: go shew these thynges vnto James & to the brethren. And he departed, & went into another place.

¶ As it was daye, ther was no lytell ado amoge the souldyers, what was become of Peter.

¶ When Herode had sought for him, and founde him not, he examined the keepers and commaunded them to be carped awaye.

¶ And he descended fro Jewry to Cesarea, and there abode. Herode was displeased wth them of Tyre & Sidon.

¶ But they came all wth one accord to hym, and made intercession vnto Blaesus the kynges chamberlayne, & desired peace, because theꝝ countrey was troublid by the kynges prouision.

¶ And vpon a daye appoynted, Herode arrayed hym in royal appa rell, & set hym in his seate, & made an oraci on vnto the.

¶ And the people gaue a shoute, sayenge: it is the voyce of a God, and not of a man.

¶ And immediatly the angell of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not God the ho noure, and he was eaten of wormes & gaue vp the goost.

¶ And the worde of God grewe and multiplied. And Barnabas and Paul returned to Jerusalem, when they had ful filled theꝝ office, and toke wth them John whose surname was Marke.

¶ ¶ The xiiij. chapter.

¶ Paul and Barnabas are called to preache amoge the heathen. Of Sergius Paulus and Elmas the sorcerer whiche were at Antioche.

There were in the congregacion that is at Antioche, certeyn prophetes, and teachers: as Barnabas and Symon that was called Neger, & Lucius of Cerene, and Manahen. Herode the Tetrarches noz felowe, and Saul.

¶ As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the holy goost sayd: sepa rate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke wherunto I haue called the.

¶ And when they had fasted & prayed, and layde theꝝ handes on them, they let the go. And they after they were sente forth of the holy goost, departed vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

¶ And when they were at Salamine, they shewed the worde of God in the sinagoges of the Jewes. And they had John to theꝝ minister.

¶ ¶ The xiiij. chapter.

¶ Paul and Barnabas are called to preache amoge the heathen. Of Sergius Paulus and Elmas the sorcerer whiche were at Antioche.

There were in the congregacion that is at Antioche, certeyn prophetes, and teachers: as Barnabas and Symon that was called Neger, & Lucius of Cerene, and Manahen. Herode the Tetrarches noz felowe, and Saul.

¶ As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the holy goost sayd: sepa rate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke wherunto I haue called the.

¶ And when they had fasted & prayed, and layde theꝝ handes on them, they let the go. And they after they were sente forth of the holy goost, departed vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

¶ And when they were at Salamine, they shewed the worde of God in the sinagoges of the Jewes. And they had John to theꝝ minister.

¶ ¶ The xiiij. chapter.

¶ Paul and Barnabas are called to preache amoge the heathen. Of Sergius Paulus and Elmas the sorcerer whiche were at Antioche.

There were in the congregacion that is at Antioche, certeyn prophetes, and teachers: as Barnabas and Symon that was called Neger, & Lucius of Cerene, and Manahen. Herode the Tetrarches noz felowe, and Saul.

¶ As they ministered to the Lord and fasted, the holy goost sayd: sepa rate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke wherunto I haue called the.

¶ And when they had fasted & prayed, and layde theꝝ handes on them, they let the go. And they after they were sente forth of the holy goost, departed vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus.

¶ And when they were at Salamine, they shewed the worde of God in the sinagoges of the Jewes. And they had John to theꝝ minister.

23 When they had gone thorow the ple vn to Paphos, they founde a certeyne sozcerer, (a false prophete, a Jewe) whose name was Barislu, whpche was wpth the ruler of the countre one Sergius Paulus a prudent man. The same ruler called vnto hym Barnabas & Saul, & despyred to heare the word of God. But Elimas * the sozcerer (for so is hys name by interpretacion) wythstode them, and sought to turne the ruler away fro the fapth. Then Saul (whpche also is called Paul) beyng full of the holy goost, set his eyes on hym, and sayd: O full of all subtilty & dyceptfulnesse, thou chyld of the deuell, thou enemy of all ryghteousnes: wylt þ not cease to peruerthe the strayght wayes of þ Lord? And now beholde, the hande of the Lord is vpon the, and thou shalt be blynde, and not se the Sunne for a ceason. And immediatly there fell on hym a myste & a darcknes, and he went about, sekynge thē that shuld leade hym by the hande. Then the ruler when he sawe what had happened * beleued, & wondred at the doctrine of the Lord.

24 When Paul departed fro Paphos, they that were w hym, came to Perga in Pamphilia: and * John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem. But they wandred thorow the countreys, and came from Perga to Antioche in Pisidia, & wente into the synagoge on the saboth dape, & sate doune. And after the lecture of the lawe & the prophetes, the rulers of the synagoge sent vnto thē, sayenge: Ye men & bzethzen, yf ye haue any sermon to exhorthe the people, saye on.

Then Paul stode vp, and * bekened with the hande for sylence, and sayd: Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, geue audience. The God of thys people chole oure fathers, and exalted the people, when they dwelte as straungers in the lande of Egypt, and * with an hye arme brought he them out of it, and about the tyme of fourty peares, suffred he thep: maners in the wylbernes. And he destroyed seuen nations in the lande of Canaan, * and deuyded thep: lande to them by lot. And afterwarde, * he gaue vnto thē iudges about the space of foure hundred and fiftye peares, vnto the tyme of Samuell the prophet. And afterwarde, they * despyred a kinge and God gaue vnto them: Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the trybe of Ben Jamin, by the space of fourty peares. And when he was put downe, he let vp Dauid to be thep: kynge, of whom he reported, sayenge: * I haue founde Dauid the sonne of Jesse, a mā after myne owne herte, whpche shall fulfyll all my wpll.

25 Of thys mans seed hath God (accor- dyng as he had promysed) broughte forth to Israel, a sauour, one Jesus, when John had fyrste preached befoze hys commynge

* the baptyme of repentaunce to Israel. And when John had fulfyllid his course, he sayd: * whom ye thynke that I am, þ same am I not. But beholde, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of hys fete I am not worthy to looke.

* Ye men and bzethzen, chyldzen of the generation of Abraham, and whosoer amonge you feareth God, * to you is thys worde of saluacion sent. For the inhabitants of Jerusalem & thep: rulers, because * they knewe hym not, noz yet the voyces of the prophetes whpche are reade euery saboth dape, they haue fulfyllid them, in condemnynge hym: * And when they founde no cause of death in hym, yet despyred they pylate to kyll hym. And when they had fulfyllid all that were wyrtten of hym, they toke hym downe from the tree, & put hym in a sepulchre. But God rapled hym agayne from death. * (the thyrde dape) and * he was sene many dayes of them whpche came vp with him from Galile to Jerusalem: Whpche are hys wytnesses vnto the people.

And we declare vnto you, howe that the promesse (which was made vnto þ fathers) God hath fulfyllid vnto thep: chyldzen (euē vnto vs) in that he rapled vp Jesus agayne, * I euen as it is wyrtten in the seconde psalme: * Thou art my sone, this day haue I begottē the. As cōcernyng that he rapled hym vp from death, now no more to returne to corrupcion he sayd on thys wyse: * The holy promyses made to Dauid, wpll I geue fapthfully to you. Wherefoze, he sayeth also in another place. * Thou shalt not suffer thyne holy to se corrupcion. For Dauid (after he had in hys tyme fulfyllid the wpll of God) * fell on slepe, & was layde vnto hys fathers, & sawe corrupcion. But he whom God rapled agayne sawe no corrupcion.

Be it knowen vnto you therfoze (ye men and bzethzen) that * thorow this mā is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes, and that by hym, all that beleue, are iustified fro all thynge, from whpche ye coude not be iustified by the lawe of Moyses. Beware therfoze, lest that fall on you, whpche is spoken of in the prophetes: * Beholde, ye despyssers and wonder, & peryshe ye: for I do a worke in youre dayes, whpche ye shall not beleue, though a man declare it you.

Whē the Jewes were gone out of þ cōgregation the Gentyls besought þ they wolde preache the worde to them the next saboth whē the cōgregation was broken vp, many of the Jewes and vertuous proselites followed Paul & Barnabas, whpche spake to them: * exhorted thē to cōtinue in the grace of God. * And the next saboth dape came almost the whole cytie together, to heare the worde of God. But whē the Jewes saw the people

* Erod. vii. a and. viii. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b

* Actes. xii. g

* Actes. xvi. c

* Erod. xiii. a

* Yosa. xiii. a Judi. i. a

* i. Re. viii. a
ii. Reg. x. a

* i. Re. xvi. a Calim.
Ist. i. c

* pla. cxxv. c
i. Reg. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

* Job. vi. b
Actu. viii. b

people they were full of indignacion & spake agaynst those thinges, whiche were spoken of Paul, spekyng agaynst it, & raylynge on it. Then Paul and Barnabas were bolde & sayd: it was mete * that the worde of God shulde fyrst haue bene preached to you. But seynge ye put it from you, and thynke youre selues unworthe of euery lastynge lyfe: lo, we turne to the Gentyls: For so hath the Lorde commaunded vs. * I haue made the a lyght to the ende of the worlde.

Whan the Gentyls heard this, they were glad and glorified the worde of the Lorde, & beleued, euen as many as were ordeyned vnto eternall lyfe. And the worde of the Lorde was published thowowre out all the regyon: But the Jewes moued the deuoute and honest women, and the chiefe men of the cytie, & reared persecucyon agaynst Paul and Barnabas, and expelled the out of their coostes: * But they spoke of the duste of their fete agaynst them, and came vnto Iconium. And the disciples were fylled with hope and with the holy goost. ¶

¶ The. xliii. Chapter.

¶ Paul and Barnabas preache at Iconium, com deleur, some were by sedicion. At Lystra they would do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it and exhort the people to worshyppe the true God. Paul is stoned: after that cometh he to Derba, Lystra, Iconium & to Antioche.

IN it fortunied in Iconium, that they wet both together into the synagoge of the Jewes, and so spake, that a greate multitude both of the Jewes & also of the Grekes beleued. But the vnbeleuyng Jewes, steyd vp, and vnguyetted the myndes of the gentyls agaynst the bretheren: Longe tyme abode they there, and quyt the selues boldly with the helpe of the Lorde, which gaue testimony vnto the worde of his grace, & graunted sygnes and wondres to be done by theyr handes. Wnt the multitude of the cytie was deuyded: and parte helde wyth the Jewes, & parte wyth the Apostles.

¶ When there was an assaunte made both of the gentyls & also of the Jewes with their rulers, to do them violence, and to stone them they were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra and Derba, cyties of Lycaonia, and vnto the regyon that lyeth rounde aboute, and there preached the Gospell. ¶ (and all the multitude was moued at theyr doctrine, but Paul & Barnabas tarried styll at Lystra.) And ther late a certayne man at Lystra weake in his fete, beyng a crepel from his mothers wombe, and neuer had walked. The same hearde Paul preache, whyche beholdynge hym, and perceauynge that he had sayd to be whole, sayde with a loude voyce: Maide vppyght on thy fete: And he stert vp, and walked. And whē the people sawe that Paul had done, they lyfte vp theyr voyces, sayynge in the speache of Lycaonia: & Goddes are come downe to vs in the paynes of men. And they called Barnabas Jupiter, & Paul Mercurius because he was the preacher. The Jupiters prest, which dwelt befoze theyr cytie, broughte orren and garlandes vnto the porche, and wolde haue done sacrifice wyth the people.

¶ Which when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul herde of, they rent theyr clothes, & ran in amonge the people, cryynge and sayynge: why do ye thus? We are mortall men lyke vnto you, and preach vnto you, that ye shulde turne from these vanyties vnto the lypynge God, which made heauen and erth and the see and all thynges that are therein: the which in tymes past suffered all nacions to walke in theyr owne wayes. ¶ Neuerthelesse, he left not hym self wythoute wytnes, in that he shewed his benefytes from beauf, in geuyng vs rayne and frutefull seasons fyllynge oure hartes with foodes & gladnes. And wyth these saynges, scarce refrayned they the people, that they had not done sacrifice vnto them.

¶ Thither came certayne Jewes from Antioche and Iconium: whych whan they had obtayned the peoples consent, & had stoned Paul, dreyue him out of the cytie, supposynge he had bene deed. Howbeit as the disciples stode rounde about him, he arose vp, and came into the cytie. And the nexte day he departed with Barnabas to Derba. And whā they had preached to that citie, & had taught many, they returned agayne to Lystra, and to Iconium and Antioche, and strenghtened the disciples soules agayne, and exhorted the to continue in the saythaff: myngng that we must theow moche tribulacyon entre into the kyngdome of God. And whan they had ordeyned them elders by election in euery congregacyon, and had prayed and fasted, they commended them to the Lorde on whō they beleued. And whan they had gone thowowe out Pisidia, they cam to Pamphilia, & whā they had preached the worde in Perga, they descended into the cytie Attalia, & thence departed by shyppe to Antioche from whēce they were commytted vnto the grace of God to the worke which they fulfilled. ¶ Whē they were come, and had gathered the congregacyon together, they repered all that God had done by them and howe he hadde opened the doore of sayth vnto the Gentyls. And there they abode longe tyme with the disciples.

¶ The. xlv. Chapter.

¶ A variance aboute circumcision. The Apostles petye the matter at Ierusalem. Paul & Barnabas preach at Antioche.

¶ 66 And

The Actes

* Gala. b. a

Ad certayn men which cā downe from Jewrye, taught the brethren * excepte ye be circumsised after the maner of Moles, ye cannot be saved. So whē ther was rpsen dyssencion & disputynge not a lttell vnto Paule & Barnabas agaynst them, they determyned p Paul and * Barnabas, and certayne other of the shulde go vp to Jerusalem vnto the Apostles and elders about thys questyon. And after they were brought on they wape by the congregaciō, they passed ouer Phenices and Samaria, declarynge the conuerstyon of the Gentyls, and they brought greate ioye vnto all the brethren. And whē they wer come to Jerusalem, they were receaued of the congregacion and of the Apostles and elders. And they declared all thinges that God had done by them. Then rose vp certayne of the secte of p Pharises, which dyd beleue saying that it was nedefull to circuncyse them and to commaūde them to kepe the lawe of Moles. And the Apostles and elders cam together, to reason of thys matter.

* Actes. i. b p salm. vii. c
i. pa. xxi. b. b

* Job. xvi. b and. xv. a.

* Actes. vii. g

And whē ther was moche disputynge, Peter rose vp, & sayd vnto them: Ye men & brethren, ye know how that a good whyle ago, God dyd chole amōge vs, p the Gentyls by my mouth shuld heare the worde of the Gospell, and beleue. And God whych * knoweth the hertes, bare them wytnes, and gaue vnto them the holy goost, euen as he dyd vnto vs, & put no difference betwene vs and the seynge p wyth sayth he * purifyed they hertes. Nowe therfore, why tempte ye God, to put on the disciples neckes the yoke: whych nether our fathers nor we were able to bere? But we beleue, that thowowe p grace of the Lorde Jesu Christ, we shalbe saued, as they do. Then all the multitude was peased and gaue audience to Barnabas & Paul, whych tolde what sygnes & wondres God had shewed amonge the Gentyls by them.

* Amos. ix. b

And whē they helde their peate, James answered, saying: Men & brethren, herke vnto me. Simeon told, how God at p begynning dyd vpsyt p gentyls, to receaue of the a people in his name. And to this agree p wordes of the prophetes, as it is writte: * After this I wyl returne, and wyl buylde agayne the tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe and that which is fallen in decaye of it, wyl I buylde agayne, and I wyl set it vp, that the resydue of me myght seke after the Lord & also the Gentyls vpon whom my name is named, sayth the Lord, which doth al these thynges: knowe vnto God are all hys workes fro p begynnyng of p worlde. Wherefore my sentence is, p we trouble not the: whych fro amonge the Gentils, are turned to God: but that we wypte vnto them, that they absteyne them selues * from fylchines of pma-

* Erod. xv. a ges, and from fornicacyon, and from strangled, and: from bloude. For Moles of olde tyme hath in euery cytie the p preache hym, in the synagoges, when he is red euery Sab both daye.

* Gen. ix. a Leui. xii. c
and. xvi. b

Then pleased it the Apostles and elders with p whole congregacion, to sende cholen men of they owne company to Antioche v Paul and Barnabas. They sent * Judas (whose sypname was Barsabas) and Syllas, whych were chefe men amonge the brethren, and gaue them letters in they bades after thys maner.

* Job. xii. a

The Apostles, and elders and brethren send gretinges vnto the brethren whych are of the Gentyls in Antioche, Syria and Cilicia. For as moche as we haue hearde, that certayne whych departed fro vs, haue troubled you wpyth wordes, and combyed poure myndes, saying: Ye must be circumsised, and kepe the lawe, to whom we gaue no loch commaūdemēt. It semed therfore to vs a good thyng, when we were come together wpyth one accorde, to sende cholen men vnto you, with oure beloued Barnabas and Paul, mē that haue icoparded their liues for the name of oure Lorde Jesu Christ. We haue sent therfore Judas and Syllas, whych shal also tell you the same thynges by mouth. For it semed good to the holy goost and to vs, to charge you with nomoze, the these necessary thynges: that is to say, that ye abstayne fro thinges offered to ymages, and from bloud, and from strangled, and from fornicacyon. From whych p ye kepe your selues, ye shal dowell. So fare ye well.

When they therfore were departed, they cam to Antioche and gathered p multitude together, & deliuered the ppsle. Which whē they had red, they reioyse of the consolacyon. And Judas & Syllas beyng p prophetes, exhorted the brethren with moch preaching, & strengthened them. And after they had tarpyed there a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto p Apostles. Notwithstandyng it pleased Syllas, to abyde there still: (but Judas departed alone to Jerusalem) Paul and Barnabas cōtinued in Antioche, teachyng & preaching p worde of the Lorde w other many.

But after a certayne space, Paule sayde vnto Barnabas: Let vs go agayne, & vilitate oure brethren in euery cytie where we haue shewed p word of p Lorde, & se how they do. And Barnabas gaue counsell to take wpyth them John, whose sypname was Marke. But Paul wold not take him vnto their company: whych departed fro them at Pamphilia, & went not wpyth the to the worcke. And the cōtencion was so sharpe betwene them, that they departed asunder one fro the other: so Barnabas toke Marke, & sayled vnto Cyprus. And Paul chole Syllas, & departed beyng

* Gen. xii. a Leui. xii. c
and. xvi. b

beinge commytted of the brethren vnto the grace of God. And he went thozow Cyria and Elycia, stablishyng the congregacions: (commāding to kepe þe preceptes of þe Apostles & elders.)

¶ The xvi. Chapter

¶ Timothy is circumcised. Paul preacheth at Miletus, and ther is he put in prison.

Then cam he to Derba & to Lystra. And beholde, a certayne dyscypple was ther named Timothy: a wo mans sonne which was a Jewesse & beleued: but hys father was a Greke. Of whiche reported well the brethren that were at Lystra & Iconiu. hym wolde Paul that he shuld go forth wþ hym, & toke and circumcised him, because of þe Jewes which wer in those quarters: for they knewe al, that hys father was a Greke. As they went thozow þe cities they deliuered them the decrees for to kepe, that were ordeyned of the Apostles and elders, which were at Jerusalem. And so wer the congregacions stablished in the sayth, & encreased in nombze dayly.

¶ When they had gone thozow out Phrygia: and þe region of Galacia, and were forbydden of the holy goost to preache the worde in Asia, they came to Mysia, and sought to go into Bithynia. But the spyrte suffered them not: but whā they had gone thozow Mysia they came downe to Troada. And a visyō appeared to Paul in the night. Ther stode a man of Macedonia and prayed him, sayng: come into Macedonia, & helpe vs. After he had sene þe visyō, immediately we prepared to go into Macedonia, beinge certified that the Lorde had called vs, for to preache þe gospell vnto the. When we loosed forth then frō Troada, we came wþ astrayte course to Samothracia, & þe nexte daye to Neapoli, and from thence to Philippi: whych is the cheste cytie in þe partes of Macedonia, & a free cytie.

We were in that cytie abydyng certayne dayes. And on þe Saboth dayes we wēt out of the cytie besides a ryuer, where men were wont to praye. And we satte downe, & spake vnto the women which resorted thither. And a certayne woman (named Lydia) a seller of purple, of þe cytie of Thyatira, whych worshipped God, gaue vs audyence. Whose hert the Lorde opened, that she attended vnto the thynges, which Paul spake. When she was baptised, & her housholde, she besought vs, sayinge: If ye thinke that I beleue on the Lorde come into my house, and abyde there.

¶ And she constrained vs.

¶ And it fortunēd as we went to praye: a certayn damsel possessed with a spyrte that prophesped, met vs, which brought her master, & masters moche vauntage wþ prophesying. The same folowed Paul and vs and cried, sayinge: * these men are the seruantes of the most hye God, which thewe vnto vs the waye of saluacyon. And thys dyd she many dayes. But Paul not conser, turned aboute, and sayde to the spyrte: I commaunde the * in the name of Iesu Christ, that thou come oute of her. And he came oute the same houre.

¶ And when her master and maistres sawe that þe hope of their gaynes was gone, they caught Paul and Syllas, and bzue the into the market place vnto the rulers & bzought the to the officers, sayinge: These men trouble oure citie seying they are Jewes & preach ordinaunces, which are not lawfull for vs to receaue, nether to obserue, seying we are Romanes. And the people rāne agaynst them and the officers rent theyr clothes, & commaunded the to be beate with rodde. And when they had beaten them sore, they cast the into prison, commaundyng the iapler of the prison to kepe them diligently: Which when he had receaued such commaundment, thrust the into the ynnner prison, & made theyr fete fast in the stockes.

¶ At mydnyght Paul & Syllas prayed, and lauded God. And the prisoners heard them. And sodenly ther was a greates earthquake, so that the foundacion of the prison was shaken, and immediatly all the doores opened and euery mans bandes were loosed. When þe keeper of the prison waked out of hys slepe and sawe the prison doores open, he dzue oute his sweerde and wolde haue killed him selfe supposyng that the prisoners had bene fled. But Paul cryed with a loud voyce, sayinge: do thy selfe no harme, for we are all heere.

¶ Then he called for a lyght, & sprange in, and cā tremblyng vnto Paul, and fell downe at the fete of Paul & Silas, and bzought them out, and sayd: Syllas: what must I do to be laued? And they sayde: beleue on the Lorde Iesus & thou shalt be laued & thy housholde. And they preached vnto him the worde of þe Lorde, & to all that were in his house. And he toke them þe same houre of the nyght, & washed their woundes, and was baptised & all they of hys housholde straght waye. And when he had bzought them into hys house, he set meat before them, and loyed that he wþ all hys housholde, beleued on God.

¶ And when it was daye, the officers sent þe ministers, sayng: let those men go. The keeper of the prison tolde thys sayng to Paul & officers haue sent word to lose you. Nowe therfore, get you hence and go in peace. The sayde Paul vnto them: they haue beaten vs openly vncōfessed, for all that we are Romanes, and haue cast vs into prison: & now wolde they sende vs awaye pruely: & we verely, but let the come them selues, & set vs out. When the ministers tolde these wordes vnto

The Actes

 0000000000

The. xvii. Chapter.

¶ Paul cometh to the Gallioes, wher the Jewes set a cytie on a rore. Paul escapeth and cometh to Athens where he preacheth the true and unknown God.

* 五五.五五五.五

* 202.550111

* 300n.rif.c

*John.B.S

* 20. 5000 b

When they heard of the resurrection fro death, some mocked, & another sayd: we will heare the agayne of this matter. So paul departed from amonge them. Howbeit cer taine men claue vnto hym and beleued: a monge

monge

monge the whyche was Dyonyfius a Senatoure, and a woman named Damaris, and other wyth them.

The. xviii. Chapter.

Paul preached at Corinthum, contynuing there a yere and a halfe, goeth agayne into Sp:ia, cometh to Ephesus Cesarea & Antioche. Of Apollos Aquila and Priscilla.

After thys, Paul departed fro Athens, & came to Corynthum, and founded a certayne Jewe named * Aquila, bozne in Pontus, lately come from Itale wyth hys wyfe Priscilla (because that the Emperour Claudius had chased all Jewes to departe fro Rome) and he dwelle vnto them, because he was of the same crafte, he abode wyth them, and brought: they crafte was to make tentes.
And he preached in þ synagoge euery Sab-both daye (setting forth in þ meane while þ name of þ Lorde Iesu) and exhorted the Jewes and the gentyls.

When Silas and Timotheus wer come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the spyte, to testifie to the Jewes that Jesus was very Christ. And when they sayde contrary & blasphemed * he shoke hys ray-ment and sayde vnto them: youre bloude be vpon youre owne heades: from hence forth will I go blamelesse vnto the gentyls. And he departed thence, and entred into a certayne mannes house, named Justus, a worshopper of God, whose house ioyned harde to the sy-nagoge. howbeit, one Crispus the cheefe ruler of the synagoge beleued on the Lorde w all his household, and many of the Corinthians whan they gaue audience, beleued, and were baptised.

Then spake the Lorde to Paul in þ nyght
* by a vylson: be not afrayde, but speake, & holde not thy peace: for I am with the, & noma shall invade the: that shal hurte the. For I haue moch people in thys citie. And he continued there a yere and fyre monethes, and taught them the worde of God.

When Gallio was ruler of the countre of Achaia, the Jewes made insurreccion wyth one accorde against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, saying: thys felowe counceleth men to worshop God contrary to lawe. And whā Paul nowe was about to ope his mouth, Gallio sayde vnto þ Jewes: yf it were a matter of wronge, or an euill dede (O ye Jewes) reason wolde þ I shulde heare you: but yf it be a questyon of wordes or of names, or of youre lawe, loke ye to it your selues. For I will be no iudge of such matters, and he dāue them from the seate.

Thē al the Grekes toke softenes the cheefe ruler of the Synagoge, and smote hym be-foze the iudges seate. And Gallio cared for none of those thynges.

Paul after thys, tarped there yet a good while, and then toke his leaue of the brythre and sayde thence into Cyria. Priscilla and Aquila accompanenge him. And * he shoke his head in Cēchrea, for he had a vowe. And he came to Ephesus and left them there, but he hym self entred into the Synagoge, and reasoned with the Jewes. When they despyred hym to tary longer tyme wyth them, he consented not, but had them farewell saying I must nedes (at thys feast that cometh) be in Ierusalem: but I will retorne agayne vnto you * yf God wyl. And he departed from Ephesus: and whā he was com vnto Cesarea and ascended vp and saluted the congregaciō he departed vnto Antioche: and when he had tarped there a while, he departed: and went ouer al the countre of Galacia and Phrygia by order, strengthynge all the discyples.

And a certayne Jewe named * Apollos, bozne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, and myghty in the scriptures.
The same was informed in the waye of the Lorde, and spake feruently in the synagoge, and taught diligently the thinges of the Lorde, & knewe but the baptyme of Iohn onely. And the same began to speake boldly in the sy-nagoge. Whō when Priscilla & Aquila had hearde they toke hym vnto the, & expounded vnto hym the waye of God more perfectly.

And whē he was disposed to go into Achaia the brythren wrote exhortynge the discyples to receaue hym. Whych whan he was come helped them moche whyche had beleued tho-rowe grace. For he overcame the Jewes myghtely, and that openly, shewing by the scriptures, that Iesus was Christ.

The. xix. Chapter.

Of the twelue men that were baptised at Ephesus & what myracles were done by Paul. Demetrius moued sedecyon in the citty.

Fortuned þ while Apollo was at Corynthū, Paul passed thorow the vpper coastes, & came to Ephesus, and founded certayne discyples, and sayde vnto them: haue ye receaued the holy goost, sence ye beleued? And they sayde vnto hym: no, we haue not hearde whether ther be eny holy goost or no. And he sayd vnto them, wher wyth were ye then baptised?
And they sayde: wyth Iohns baptyme. Thē sayde Paule: * Iohn verely baptysed wyth the baptyme of repentance, sayinge vnto the people that they shulde beleue on hym, which shulde come after hym: þ is on Christ Iesus. When they hearde thys, they were baptysed in the name of the Lorde Iesu. And whan Paule layde his handes vpon them, * the holye goost came on them, and they spake with tonges, and prophesied, and all the men were aboute twelue.

And

* engst.bff.c

* 0021.1.2

* 10 Cal. C.P.D. 2

After that the rage was ceased, Paule³ called the dyſcyples vnto hym, and toke hys leaue of them, and departed for to go into Macedonya. And when he had gone ouer those partyes, and had geuen them alonge exhortacyon, he came into Grece

Grace & there abode. iiii. monethes. And whē Jewes layde wayt for hi as he was about to sayle into Syria, he purposed to returne thorow Macedonia. Ther accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, & of Thessalonia, Aristarcus & Secundus and Gaius of Derba, & Timotheus: & oute of Asia Tychicus and Trophimus. These goyng before tarped vs at Troas. And we sayled awaye fro Philippios after the dayes of sweet bread, and cam vnto them to Troas in fyue dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

And vpo one of the Sabboth dayes, whā disciples cam together for to breake breed Paul preached vnto them (ready to departe on morow) & continued the preaching vnto midnight. And there were many lyghtes in the chamber, where we wer gathered together, & there sate in a windowe a certayne younge man (named Euticus) beyng falle in to a depe slepe. And as Paul was preaching he was the moze overcome wyth slepe & fell downe from the thyrde losse, and was takē vndeade. But whan Paule went downe, he fell on him & embzased hym & sayde: make nothyng a do, for hys lyfe is in hym. So when he was come vp agayn, & had broken the bread & eaten, and talked a longe whyle (euen tyll the moornyng) at the last he departed. And they brought the yonge man a lyue and were not a lytel comforted.

And we wēt afoze to Sypppe, & lowsed vnto Asson there to receaue Paul. For so had he appoynted, and wold hym selfe go a fote.
When we were come together at Asson, we toke hym in, & came to Mytilenes. And we sayled thence, and came the nexte daye ouer agaynst Chios. And the next daye we arri-ued at Samos, & tarped at Troglon. The nexte daye we came to Myleton: for Paule had determyned to sayle ouer by Ephesus, because he wold not spende tyme in Asia.
For he hasted (yf it were possible for him) to kype at Ierusalē p daye of Pentecoste. And fro Myletō he sent messāgers to Ephesus and called p elders of p congregaciō. Whiche whē they wer com to him, he layd vnto the:
Ye know fro the fyrst daye that I cam into Asia: after what maner I haue bene w you at all ceasons, seruyng the Lorde wyth all humblenes of mynde, and wyth many teares & temptacions which happened vnto me by the laynges awayte of the Jewes, because I wolde kepe backe nothyng p was profytable vnto you: but to shewe you and teach you openly, & thorow out euery house, witnessyng both to p Jewes, & also to the Grekes, p repentauce, that is toward God, & p sayth whych is toward our Lorde Iesu.
And now behold I go bounde in the spyte vnto Ierusalē, not knowyng the thynges p shal come on me there, but p the holy goost wytnesseth in euery cytie, sayng: that ban-des & trouble abyde me. But none of these thynges moue me: neyther is my lyfe deare vnto my selfe, that I might fulfil my course wyth lope, and the ministraciō (of the word) wh-which I haue receaued of the Lorde Iesu, to testifye the Gospell of the Grace of God.

And now beholde. I am sure, p hence forth ye all (thorow whō I haue gone preaching the kyngdō of God) shal se my face no moze Atherfoze, I take you to recorde thys daye that I am pure from the bloude of all men.
For I haue spared no labour, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God. Take hede therfoze vnto your selues & to all the flocke amonge whō the holy goost hath made you ouerseers, to rule the congregacion of God, whych he hath purchased wyth hys bloude.

* For I am sure of this, p after my departyng shal greuous wolues entre in amōge you, not sparyng the flocke. Moreover, of your owne selues shal men arise, speakyng peruerse thynges to drawe dyscyples after the. Therfoze awake, & remember, p by the space. of. iiii. yeres: I ceased not to warne eue-ry one of you night and daye wyth teares.

And now bryethē, I commēde you to God and to the worde of his grace, which is able to builde farther, and to geue you an inheritaunce amonge all the whych are sanctified.

* I haue despyed no mā's siluer, golde, or ve-sture: yee, ye your selues know that: these hādes haue ministred vnto my necessities, & to them that were wyth me. I haue shewed you al thynges, how p so labouryng ye ought to receaue the weake, & to remēber the wor-des of p Lorde Iesu, how that he sayde: it is moze blessed to geue then to receaue.

And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe & prayed wyth the all. And they all wepte soze and fell on Pauls necke, and kysed hym, sozowynge moost of all for the wordes whych he spake, that they shulde se hys face nomoze. And they conuayed hym vnto the Sypppe.

¶ The. xxi. Chapter. ¶

¶ Pauls iorney by Sypppe. Of whittippe & Euangelist, & Agabus the prophet, whiche warned Paul not to go to Ierusalem. He remayned stedfast in hys purpose and is taken in the temple.

Ad whan it chauced that we had launched forth, and wer departed from them, we came wyth a strayght course vnto Choon, and the daye folowynge vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara. And whan we had gotten a Sypppe that wolde sayle vnto Adenpces, we wente aboarde into it, and set forth. But whā Cyprus beganne to appeare vnto vs, we left it on the lyfte hande, and sayled vnto Syria, and cā vnto Tyze. For theze the Sypppe vnladed the burthen. And when

¶ 11. Tim. ii. b

¶ 1. Tim. iiii. a ¶ 11. Timo. iii. a ¶ 11. 1. Pet. ii. a
¶ and. iiii. a.
¶ Iudic. i. e

¶ Eccl. i. b. f
¶ 1. 1. Pet. ii. a ¶ 11. 1. Cor. vi. c ¶ and. vii. b.
¶ 1. Gene. iiii. c.
¶ 1. 1. Corin. ii. b.
¶ 11. 1. Pet. iii. b.

¶ Actes. xxi. b

The Actes

* Actes. ix. e
When we had foude bzethre, we tarped ther vii. dayes. And they tolde Paule thorow þe sprete, * that he shulde not go vp to Ierusalem. And whē the dayes were ended we departed and wente oure waye, and they all brought vs on our waye, wpth wyues and children tyll we were come out of the cylie.

* Actes. ix. e
And we kneled downe in þe hoze * & prayd. And when we had toke our leaue one of another, we toke wyppes, & they returned hom agayne.

* Actes. xi. b
And when we had full ended the course from Cyre, we wēt downe to Idolomaida, & saluted the bzethre, & abode with thē one day. The next dape, we that wer of Pauls company departed, and cam vnto Cesarea. And we entred into the house of * Philip þe Euangelist, which was one of þe seven, & abode wth hym.

* Actes. xi. b
The same man had foure daughters virgyns, which dyd * prophesy. And as we tarped ther a good many of dayes, ther cam a certain prophet from Iurie, named Agabus. When he was come vnto vs, he toke Pauls gerdell, & bounde hys fete & hādes, & sayd: Thus sayth þe holy goost: so shall the Jewes at Ierusalem bynde þe mā that owerth thys gerdell, and shal deliuer hym into the handes of the Gentyls.

* Actes. ix. e
When we hearde this both we and other which were of the same place, besought him that he wolde not go vp to Ierusalem. Then Paul answered, & sayd: what do ye weping and veringe myne herte? I am redy, not to be bounde onely, but also to dye at Ierusalem for þe name of the Lord Iesu. Whē we could not turne his mynd, we ceased, sayng: * the wpll of the Lorde be fulfilled. After those dayes we toke vp oure burthens, & went vp to Ierusalem.

* Actes. ix. e
* Ther wēt wpth vs also certayne of the disciples of Cesarea, & brought wpth them one Synason of Cyprus an olde discyppe, wpth whom we shulde lodge. And when we were come to Ierusalem, the bzethren receaued vs gladly. And on þe morow Paul went in wth vs vnto James. And all the elders came together. And when he had saluted them, he tolde by order all thynges, that God had wrought amonge the gentyls by his ministracion. And when they hearde it, they glorified the Lorde, and sayde vnto hi: Thou seest bzether, how many thousande Jewes there are which beleue, and they are all earnest folowers ouer the lawe. And they are informed of the, that thou teachest all the Jewes whych are amonge the gentyls, to forsake Moles: & sayt, that they ought not to circūcise their children, nether to lyue after þe customes. What is it therefore? The multitude muste nedes come together. For they shall heare that thou art com. Wotherfoze this, that we saye to the.

* Actes. xi. a
* We haue. iiii. men, whych haue a vowe on them. The take, & purifie thy selfe wpth the, and do cost on the, that they maye shawe their heades: and all shall knowe, that those thynges whych they haue hearde concernyng the, are nothyng: but that thou thy selfe also walkest and kepest the lawe. But as touching the gentyls which beleue * we haue written and cōcluded, that they obserue no soche thyng: saue onely that they kepe them selues from thynges offered to ydoles, and from bloude, and from strangled, and from fornicacy. Then the next dape Paul toke the mē, and * purgfyd him selfe wpth them and entred into the temple, declaringe that he obserued the dayes of the purificacio, vntyll þe offering shuld be offered for euery one of them.

* Actes. xi. b
And whā the seuē dayes were now almost ended, the Jewes whych were of Asia (whē they sawe hym in the temple) moued all the people, and layde handes on hym, cryng: mē of Israell, helpe. This is the mā, þe teacher all mē euery where agaynst the people & the lawe, and thys place. He hath also brought Grekes into þe temple, & hath polluted thys holy place. For they had sene wpth him one in þe cypre * Trophimus an Ephesian: whē they supposed þe Paul had brought into the temple. And all the cylie was moued, and þe people swarmed together. And they toke Paul and dreye hym out of the temple, and forth wth the doores were shut.

* Actes. xi. b
As they went about to kyl him, tidinges came vnto the hye captayne of the soudyers that all Ierusalem was moued. Which immediately toke soudyers & vndercaptaynes, and ranne downe vnto the. When they sawe the hyer captayne and the soudyers: they leste impryng of Paul. Then the captayne came neare and toke him, and commaunded him to be boūde wth two chaynes, and demaunded what he was, & what he had done. And some cryed one thyng some another amonge the people. And when he coude not knowe the certayntie for the rage, he commaunded him to be caried into þe castel. And when he cā vnto a steyre, it fortuneth that he was borne of the soudyers for the violence of the people. For þe multitude of þe pople folowed after, cryng: a waye wpth hym.

* Actes. xi. b
And whan Paul beganne to be caried into the castel, he sayde vnto þe hye Captayne: maye I speake vnto the? Which sayd: Cast thou speake Greke? Art not thou that Egyptian, whych before these dayes madest an vyroure: and leddest out into the wilderness iiii. thousande men þe were murderers? But Paul sayde: I am a man which am a Jewe of * Tharsus a cylie in Cyeill, a Cytie of no vyle cylie. I beseech þe iustre me to speake vnto the people. And when he had greeuē him lpcence, Paul stode on the steypes, * and beckend indened wyth the hande vnto the people : and when there was made a greatesplence he spake vnto them in the hebrue tonge, sayng.

¶ The. xxiij. Chapter.

¶ Paul answereth the Jewes. He is scourged and laide in prison agayne.

M

En, bzethrē, & fathers, hear pe myne and were whyche I make nowe vnto you. Whē they berde, that he spake in the hebrue tonge to them, they kept the more splence.

And he sayeth: I am verely a man whych am a Jewe borne in * Charism a cytie i Cicile: neuertheles, yet brought up in thys cytie, at the fete of: Gamaliel, & was diligent in the lawe of p fathers and was feruent mynded to Godwarde, as all are thys same daye, and * I persecu-ted thys waye vnto the death, byndynge & shyppynge into prison both men and women, as p chefe prest doth beare me wytnes, and all the estate of the elders: of whom also I receaued letters vnto the bzethren, and wente to Damasco to bynng them, (whyche were there bounde) vnto Jerusalem for to be punyshed.

And it fortuneth (that as I made my tourney & was come nye vnto Damasco aboute none) sodenly there shone frō heauē a greate lyght rounde aboute me, and I fell vnto the earth, and hearde a voyce sayenge vnto me:

Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered: what arte thou Lorde? And he sayde vnto me: I am Iesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. And they that were wyth me, sawe verely a lyghte, and were afraid: but they herde not the voyce of hym that spake wyth me. And I sayde: wat shall I do Lorde? And the Lorde sayd vnto me: Arise, and go into Damasco, and there it shalbe tolde the of al thynges, which are appointed for the to do. And when I sawe nothyng for the byghenes of p lyght, I was lede by the hande of them that were wyth me, and came into Damasco.

* And one Ananias a perfyte man, (and as pertaining to the lawe, haupng a good repute of al the Jewes, which there dwelt) came vnto me, and stode, and sayd vnto me.
Brother Saul, receaue thy lyght. And the same houre I receaued my lyghte, and sawe hym. And he sayde: the God of oure fathers hath ordeyned the before, that thou shuldest knowe hys wyll, and se the thyng that is fyndfull, and shuldest heare the voyce of hys mouth: for thou shalste be hys wytnesse vnto all men of those thynges, whyche thou hast sene and hearde. And now, why tarpest thou? Arise, and be baptysed, and walche awaye thy synnes* in callynge on the name of the Lorde. And it fortuneth, that when I was come agayne to Jerusalem, & prayed in the temple, I was in a traunce, and sawe hym, sayenge vnto me: Make hast and get the quickly out of Jerusalem: for they wyl not receaue thy wytnesse, that thou bearest of me.

And I sayde: Lorde, they knowe that I presoned, and bet in euery Synagoge them that beleued on the. * And when the bloud of thy witnes Steuf was shed, I also stode by, and consented vnto hys death, & kept the raymet of them that slewe hym. And he said vnto me departe, for: I wyl sende the farre hence vnto the Gentyls.

They gaue hym audience vnto thys woorde, and then lyfte vp theyr voyces and sayde: awaye wyth suche a felowe from the earth: for it is no reason that he shulde lyue.
And as they cryed, and cast of theyr clothes, and thue dust into the ayer, the captayne comaunded him to be brought into p castell, & bad that he shulde be scourged, and to be examined, p he myght knowe, wherfore they cryed so on hym.

And when they bounde hym wyth thon-ges, Paul sayde vnto the Centurion, that stode by hi: Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Romayn & vncōdemned?
When the Centurion hearde that, he wente and tolde the vpper captayne sayeng: What intendest thou to do: for thys mā is (a cytyen) of Rome.

¶ Then the vpper captayne came, & sayde vnto hym: tell me, art thou a Romayne? he sayd: Yee. And the captayn answered, with a great summe obtayned I thys fre dome.

And Paul sayde: I was fre borne. Then strayght waye departed frō him they which shulde haue examined hym. And the hys captayne also was afrayde, after he knewe that he was a Romaine, and because he had bounde hym.

On the morowe (because he wolde haue knownen the certentye wherfore he was accused of the Jewes) he losed hym frō hys bandes & comaunded the hys prestes & all the counsell to come together and * brought Paul forth, & let hym before them.

¶ The

The Actes

The xxiii. Chapter.

Paul cometh befoze the counsell. Debate arysed amonge the people, the captayne deliuereth hym. God comforteth hym.

Aul behelde the counsell, and sayde: men, and bʒethʒen * I haue lʒued in all good conscience befoze God vntyll thys daye. And the hʒe pʒest Ananias commaunded the that stode by, to smyte hym on the mouth.

Then sayde Paul vnto hym: God shall smyte the thou painted wal. * Syttest thou and iudgest me after the lawe: and comaundest me to be smytten contrary to the lawe? And they that stode by, sayd * reuplest thou Goddes hʒe pʒest? Then sayd Paul: I wyl not bʒethʒen, that he was the hʒe pʒest. For it is wʒyʒten: * thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people.

When Paul perceaued that the one parte were Saduces, and the other Pharises, he cryed out in the counsell: Men and bʒethʒen, * I am a Pharisei, the sonne of a Pharisei. * Of the hope and resurrection from death, I am iudged.

And when he had so sayde, there arose a debate betwene the Pharisees and the Saduces: the multitude was deuyded. * For the Saduces saye, that there is no resurrection, nether angel noʒ spʒete: But the Pharisees graunt both.

And there arose a great crye: and when the Scribes whʒe were of the Pharisees parte arose, they stroue sayenge: we fynde none euyl in this mā. Though a spʒete oʒ an angel hath aperead to hym, let vs not strue agaynst God.

And when there arose a great debate, the captayne (fearynge, lest Paul shulde haue bene pluckt asunder of them) commaunded the souldyers to go downe, and to take hym from amonge them, and to bʒynge hym into the castell.

* The nyght folowynge, God stode by hym, and sayde: be of good cheare Paul for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem: so must thou beare wytnesse also at Rome.

And when it was daye, certayne of the Jewes gathered them selues together, & made a vowe, sayenge: that they wolde neyther eate noʒ dʒynke, tyll they had kylled Paul. They were mo then fourty men, whʒch had made thys conspiracion.

And they came to the chefe pʒestres and elders, and sayde: we haue bounde oure selues wʒth a vowe, that we wyl eate nothyng vntyll we haue slayne Paul.

Nowe therfoze geue ye knowlege to the vpper captayne and to the counsell, that he bʒynge hym forth vnto vs to morowe, as though we wolde knowe somethynge moze perʒpʒe of hym. But we (oʒ euer he come neare) are ready to kyll hym.

When Pauls sʒsters some heard of theʒ layenge awayte, he wente, and entred into the castell, and tolde Paul. And Paul called one of the vnder captaynes vnto him and sayde: bʒynge thys younge man vnto the hʒe captayne: for he hath a certayne thynge to shewe hym. And he toke him, and brought hym to the hʒe captayne, and sayd: Paul the pʒesoner called me vnto hym, and pʒayed me to bʒynge thys younge man vnto the, whʒch hath a certayne matter to shewe the.

The hʒe captayne toke him by the hāde and went wʒth hym out of the waye, and asked hym: what is it þ thou haste to tell me? And he sayde: the Jewes are determined to despye the, that thou woldest bʒynge forth Paul to morowe into the counsell, as though they wolde enqʒyre somwhat of hym moze perʒpʒe. But folowe not thou theʒ myn-des: for there lʒe in wayte for hym of them, mo then fourty men, whʒch haue bounde the selues wʒth a vowe, that they wyl neyther eate noʒ dʒynke, tyll they haue kylled hym. And nowe are they redy, and loke that thou shuldest pʒomes.

The vpper captayne then let the yonge man departe, and charged hym, sayenge: le thou tell it oute to no man, that thou haste shewed these thynge to me. And he called vnto hym two vnder captaynes sayenge: make ready two hundred souldyers to go to Celarea, and horsmen thʒe scoze and ten: & speare men two hundred, at the thʒy d houre of the nyght. And deliuer them beastes, that they maye sette Paul on, and bʒynge hym safe vnto Felix the hʒe debyte.

(For he dyd feare lest happelpe the Jewes shulde take hym awaʒe, and kyll hym, and he hym selfe shulde be after warde blamed, as though he wolde take money,) and he wʒote a letter after thys maner.

Claudius Lysias vnto the most myghty ruler Felix, sendeth gretynge. * Thys mā was taken of the Jewes, & shulde haue bene kyllid of them. Then came I with souldyers, and resaued hym, and perceaued that he was a Romayne. And when I wolde haue knowen the cause, wherfoze they accused hym, I broughte hym forth into theʒ counsell: There perceaued I þ he was accused of questions of theʒ lawe. * But was not gyltye of any thynge woʒthye of death oʒ of bondes. And when it was shewed me, howe that the Jewes lapde wayte for hym, I sente hym straght wayte to the, and gaue commaundemente to hys accusars, that the the thynges, whych they haue agaynst him, they shulde tell befoze the fare well. Then the loudpers (as it was commaunded them) toke Paul, & brought hym by nyght to Antipatras. On the morowe they lefte the horsemen to go wyth hym, and returned vnto the castell. Whych when they came to Cesarea, (and deliuered the epytyle to the debytte) presented Paul also befoze hym. Whe the debytte had red the letter he asked of what countrey he was. And when he vnderstode that he was of Celicia * I wyll heare the (sayd he) when thyne accusers are come also: and he commaunded hym to be kepte in herodes iudgement hall.

¶ The. xxiij. Chapter.

¶ Paul is accused befoze Felix, he answereth for hym selfe.

After fyue dayes Ananias * the hye prestre descended with the elders, and wyth a certayn orator, named Tarullus, whych enformed the debytte agaynst Paul. And whe Paul was called forth, Tarullus beganne to accuse hym, sayenge: Seinge that we lyue in greate quietnes by the means of the, and that many good thynges are done vnto thys nation thowowe thy prouidence, that alowe we euer and in al places moost noble Felix wyth al thakes. Not wythstandynge, that I be not tedious vnto the, I praye the, that thou woldest heare vs of thy curtesye a fewe wordes.

¶ For we haue fonde this man a pestilent fellowe, and a mouer of debate vnto all the Jewes in the whole worlde, and a maynteyner (of sedition) of the secte of the Nazarites, whych hath also enforced to pollute the temple. * Whom we toke, and wolde haue iudged accordynge to our lawe: but the hye captayne Lysias came vpon vs, & wyth greate violence toke hym away out of our handes, commaundynge hys accusers to come vnto the. Of whome thou mayest (yf thou wylte enquire) know the certeynte of al these thynges, wherof we accuse him: The Jewes lyk wyle affermed: sayenge, that these thynges were euen so.

¶ Then Paul (after y the debytte hym selfe had beckened vnto hym y he shulde speake) answered: Wyth a more quyet mynde do I answer for my selfe, for as muche as I vnderstande, that thou hast bene of many yeres a iudge vnto thys people, because that thou mayst know, y ther are yet, but twelue dayes sence I wente vp to Jerusalem for to worshippe, and they nether founde me in the temple dysputynge wyth any mā, ether rayfynge vp the people, nether in the Synagoges, nor in the cytie. Neyther can they proue the thynges wherof they accuse me.

But thys I confesse vnto the, that after the waye (whych they call herespe) so woz: D Whyp I the God of my fathers, beleuyng al thynges whych are wyrtten in the lawe and the prophetes, & haue hope towards God, that y same resurrection of the dede (whych they them selues loke for also) shalbe, bothe of iust and vniust. And therfore * studie I to haue al waye a cleare conscience towarde God, and towarde men.

¶ But after many yeres, I came * and brought almes to my people and offerynge (and bowes) in the whych they founde me purified in the temple, nether wyth multitude nor yet wyth iniquetnesse: (and they toke me, & cryed, sayenge: awake to our enemy) howbeit ther were certeyne Jewes out of Asia, whych ought to be here present befoze the, & accuse me, yf they had ought agaynst me: or els let these same here saye, yf they haue fonde any euell doyng in me, whyle I stande here in y counsell: except it be for thys one voyce that I cryed standynge amonge them: of the resurrection from death am I iudged of you thys daye.

¶ When Felix hearde these thynges, he deferred them, for he kne we very well of that waye, and sayd: when Lysias the captayne is come downe, I wyll knowe the vrmooft of your matter. And he commaunded an vnder captayne to kepe Paul, and to let hym haue rest, & that he shulde forbyd none of his aquapntaunce to minister vnto hym, or to come vnto hym.

¶ And after a certayne dayes, when Felix came wyth hys wyfe Drusilla (whych was a Jewesse) he called forth Paule, and hearde hym of the sayth, which is towarde Christe. And as he preached of ryghtwysnesse temperaunce, and iudgement to come, Felix trembled and answered: So thy waye for this tyme: when I haue a conuenient season, I wyl sēde for the. He hoped also, that money shulde haue bene gyuen hym of Paul, that he myghte loose hym: wherfore, he called hym the oftener and comened wyth hym. But after two yere, Festus Doctus came into Felix to Rome. And Felix * wylling to shewe the Jewes a pleasure, lefte Paul in prison bounde.

¶ The. xxv. Chapter.

¶ The Jewes accuse Paul befoze Festus, he appealeth vnto the Emperoure, and is sent into Rome.

When Festus had receaued the office after thre dayes, he ascended fro Cesarea vnto Jerusalem. Then enformed hym the hye prestres, & the chiefe of the Jewes, of Paul.

¶ And they besought hym, and desired fauour agaynst hym, that he wolde sēde for hym to Jerusalem: and they layde awayte hym ii for hym for hym in the waye, to kyll hym. Festus answered, that Paul shuld be kept at Cesarea but that he hymselfe wolde shortly departe thither. Let them therfore (sayd he) whych amōge you are able, come downe to vs, and accuse hym, yf there be any faulte in the man.

The Actes

When he had taryed there amonge them more then ten dayes, he wente downe vnto Cesarea and the nexte daye sat downe in the iudgement seate, and commaunded Paul to be brought. Whiche when he was come, the Jewes whiche were come from Jerusalem, stode aboute hym, and layde many and greuous complayntes agaynst Paule, whiche they coulde not proue, as longe as he answered for hym selfe * yf he had neyther agaynst the lawe of the Jewes, neyther agaynst the temple, nor yet agaynst Cesar offended any thyng at all.

* Act. xxiij. c
and. xxviii. d.

Festus * wyllynge to do the Jewes a pleasure, answered Paul, and sayde: wyle thou go vp to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these thynges befoze me? Then sayde Paul: I stande at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged. To the Jewes haue I no harme done, as thou verp wel knowest. Yf I haue hurte them, or commytted any thyng worthe of death, I refuse not to dye. Yf none of these thynges are, where of they accuse me, no man maye deliuer me to the. I appeale vnto Cesar. Then spake Festus wth deliberacion, and answered: Thou hast appealed vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

And after a certayne dayes kynge Agrippa and Bernice came vnto Cesarea to salute Festus. And when they had bene there a good ceason, Festus rehearsed Pauls cause vnto the kynge, sayenge: * there is a certain man sette in prison of Felix, aboute whome when I came to Jerusalem, * the hye prestes and elders of the Jewes enuoumed me, and desyred to haue iudgement agaynst hym. To whom I answered: It is not y manner of y Romaynes, for sauoure to deliuer any mā, that he shuld perishe, befoze that he whych is accused, haue the accusers befoze him, & haue licence to answer for hymselfe, concerninge the crime layde agaynst hym. Therfore whē they were come hether, wth out any delaye, on the morowe I sat to geue iudgement, and commaunded the man to be brought forth.

Against whome, when the accusers stode vp, * they brought none accusation of suche thyng as I supposed: but had certeyn questions agaynst hym of theyr owne supersticion, & of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aloue. And because I doubted of such maner of questions, I asked hym, whether he wolde go to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these matters. But when Paule had appealed to be kepte vnto the knowledge of Cesar, I commaunded hym to be kepte, tyll I myght sende hym to Cesar. Agrippa sayde vnto Festus: I wolde also heare the man my selfe. To morowe, (sayd he) thou shalt heare hym. And on the morowe when Agrippa was come & Bernice, wth greate pompe, and were entred into the counsell house, wth the captaynes and chefe men of the cytie, at Festus commaundement was Paul brought forth. And Festus sayde: kynge Agrippa, and all ye men whiche are here present wth vs, yee thes man, aboute whome all y multitude of the Jewes haue entreated me, both at Jerusalem and also here cryenge, that he ought not to lyue any lenger. Yet founde I nothyng worthe of death, that he had commytted. Neuertheles, seynge that he hath appealed to Cesar, I haue determēed to sende hym. Of whom I haue no certen thyng to wyte vnto my lord. Wherfore, I haue broughte hym vnto you, & specially vnto y, O kynge Agrippa, that after examination hadde I myght haue somewhat to wyte. For me thin keth it vntreasonable, for to seide a prisoner, and not to thewe the causes which are layed agaynst hym.

The. xvi. Chapter.

¶ Kynge Agrippa heareth Paul, whiche telleth hym howe callinge from the begynnyng.

Agrippa sayd vnto Paul: thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. Then Paul stretched forth the hande, and answered for hym selfe: I thinke my selfe happy kynge Agrippa, because I shall answer thes daye befoze the, of all y thynges wherof, I am accused of the Jewes: namely because thou arte experte in al customes and questions whiche are amonge the Jewes. Wherfore I beseech the, to heare me pacifely. * I saynng that I haue lead of a chyld (whych was at the fyrst amōge myne owne nacion at Jerusalem) knowe all the Jewes whych knewe me from the begynnyng, yf they wolde testifye. For * after the moost strayttest secte of our religion, I lyued a Pharisee. And now I stāde and * am iudged for the hope of the promes made of God vnto our fathers: vnto which promes our twelue trybes (instātylly scrupynng God daye & night) hope to come. For whych hopes sake, kynge Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes. Wylde I shulde it be thought a thyng incredible vnto you, y God shulde rayle againe the dead? I also verelye thoughte in my selfe that I ought to do many contrary thynges, cleane agaynst the name of Iesus of Nazareth: * whych thyng I also dyd in Jerusalem. And many

* Act. xxiij. c
and. xxviii. d.

many of the saintes dyd I put vp in pryson and had receaued authorite of the hye prelates. And when they were put to death, I gaue the sentence. And I punished them in every synagoge, and compelled them to blasphemie: and was yet more mad vpon them, & persecuted them, euen vnto straunge cities. Aboute whych thynges as I wente to Damasco wth authorite and lycence of the hye Priestes: euen at mydday, (Whynge) I sawe in the waye a lyghte from heauen a-boute the bryghtnes of y^e Sunne whynne I roūd aboute me, and them which iourneyed wth me.

When we were all fallen to the earth, I herde a voyce speakynge vnto me, and sayynge in y^e hebreue toge: * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me: It is harde for the to lyche agaynst y^e prickes. And I sayd: Who art thou Lorde: And he sayde: I am Iesus whom thou persecutest, but ryls and stande vpon thy fete. For I haue appeared vnto the for thys purpose, to make the a minister and a wptnes both of those thynges whych thou hast sene, and of those thynges in the whych I wyl appeare vnto the, delpuerng the from the people, & fro the Gentyls, vnto whome now I sende the, to ope the eyes, that they maye be turned from darkenes to lyght, & from y^e power of Satan vnto God, that they maye receaue forgiveness of syn-nes, & inheritaunce amonge them whych are sanctified by sayth that is towarde me.

Wherfore (Whynge Agrippa) I was not disobediente vnto the heauenly visyon: but shewed fyrste vnto them of Damasco, and at Jerusalem, and thowowe out all the coastes of Jewrye, and then to the Gentyls that they shulde repent, & turne to God, and do such woorkes as become them that repent for thys cause the Jewes caught me in the temple, and wet about to kylle me. Seynge therfore y^e I haue obtayned helpe of God: I continue vnto thys dape, wptnessynge bothe to small and to greute, sayenge none other thynges, then those which the prophetes & Moses dyd saye shuld come: y^e Christe shulde suffer, & that he shulde be y^e fyrst that shulde ryls from death, & shulde shewe light vnto y^e people, & to the Gentyls. As he thus spake for hym selfe, Festus sayde wth a loude voyce: Paul, thou art besyde thy selfe, much learnynge doth make the mad. And Paul sayde: I am not mad (moost deare Festus) but speake forth the wordes of trueth & sobernes. For y^e knoweth of these thynges, before whom also I speake frely: neyther thyne I that any of these thynges are hydden from hym. For thys thyng was not done in a cozner. Whynge Agrippa bele-ueth thou the Prophetes: I wote wel that thou beleueth. Agrippa sayde vnto Paul:

Somwhat thou bypngest me in mynde for to become Christe. And Paul sayd: I wolde to God that not onely thou: but also al that heare me to dape were, not somwhat onely, but all together, such as I am, except thele bondes. And when he had thus spoken, the kyng rose vp, and the debite, and Bernice, and they that sat wth them. And wbe they were gone apart, they talked betwene them selues, sayenge: Thys man doth nothyng worthy of death, or of bondes. The sayd Agrippa vnto Festus: Thys man myghte haue ben let loose, yf he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

The xxvii. Chapter.

Paul shippeth towarde Rome. Julius the captayne entreated hym curteously, and at the laste they saille shippwale.

When it was concluded, that we shuld sayle into Italy, they deliuered both Paul, and certayne other preso-ners, vnto one named Julius, an vnder captayne of Cesars loudpers. And we entred into a shipp of Adramiciu, & loosed from lande apoynted to sayle by the coastes of Asia, one Aristarcus out of Macedonia of the countre of Thessalonie sayenge syl wth vs. And the next dape we came to Shi-don. And Julius curteously entreated Paul and gaue hym lybertie, to go vnto hys fren-des, and to refrehe hym selfe. And wbe we had launched from thence, we sayled harde by Cyppers because the wyndes were contra-rye. And when we had sayled ouer the see of Celicia and Pamphilia, we came to Myra whych is in Lycia.

And there y^e vnder captayne founde a shipp of Alexandria ready, that sayled into Italy, and he put vs therein. And wbe we had say-led slowlye many dapes, & scace were come ouer agaynst Cydon (because the wynde wythstode vs) we sayled harde by the coast of Candy, ouer agaynst Salmo, and wth muche woike sayled beyonde it, & came vnto a place whych is called the sayze hauens.
Nye wher vnto was y^e cytie of Lasea. When muche tyme was spent, and when saylynge was nowe icopardous, because also y^e they had ouerlonge fasted, Paul put them in re-membraunce, & sayd vnto them: Myrs I perceauie, that thys vyage wylbe wth hurte and muche damage, not of the ladinge and shipp onely, but also of poure lyues: Neuer-theles the vnder captayne beleued the gouerner & the mayster of the shipp more the those thynges whych were spoken of Paul. And because the hauen was not commodious to wynter in, many toke counsell to departe thence, yf by any meanes they myghte at-tayne

* Collo. iiii. a

* 1re. xxvii. e Actu. xxviii. e

tapne to Phenices & there to wynter, which is an haven of Candy, and lyeth towarde the southwyst and northwyst wynde. When the southwynde blew, they supposynge to obtayne theyr purpose, loosed vnto Alon, and sayled past al Candy.

D But not longe after, there arose agaynst theyr purpose, a flawe of wynde out of the northeast. And when the shyp was caught & coulde not resyst the wynde, we let her go, and draue wth the werher. But we were carped into an Ile whych is named Clauda, and had muche worke to come by a bote, whych they toke vp, and vsed helpe, & made fast the shyp, fearynge, lest they shulde fall into y^e Syrtes. And so they let downe a vessel, & were carped. The nexte daye (when we were tossed wth an excreadyng tempest) they lyghtened the shyp, and the thyrde daye we cast out wyth our owne handes the taklyng of the shyppe. When at the last, nether the Sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared and no small tempest lape vpon vs, all hope y^e we shulde escape, was then taken awaye. But after lōge abstinence, Paul stode forth in the myddes of them, and sayde: Syrs, ye shuld haue hearkened to me, and not to haue loosed from Candy, nether to haue brought vnto vs thys harme & losse. And nowe I exhorte you to be of good chere. For there shal be no losse of any mans lyfe amonge you, saue of the shyp onely. For ther stode by me thys nyght the angell of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, sayeng: feare not. Paul & thou muste be brought befoze Cesar. And lo, God hath geuen the all them that sayle wyth the. Wherefoze syrs be of good chere: for I beleue God, y^e it shalbe euen as it was tolde me. howbeit we muste be cast into a certayne ylande.

* Act. v. 38.

* Act. xviii. 11.

E But whē the fourtenth nyght was come (as we were saylynge in Aria aboute mydnyght) y^e shypmen demed, that there appeared some countre vnto them: & sounded, and founde it twenty feddoms. And when they had gone a lytel further, they sounded againe and founde. xv. feddoms. Then fearynge lest they shulde haue fallen on some rocke, they cast foure ancre out of the sterne, and wysshed for the daye. As the shypmen were about to flee out of the shyp (when they had let downe the bote into the see, vnder a colour, as though they wold haue cast ancre out of the foreshyppe) Paul sayde vnto the vndercaptayne and to the soudpers: excepte these abyde in the shyppe ye can not be safe. Then the soudpers cut of the rope of y^e bote, and let it fall awaye.

F And when the daye beganne to appeare, Paul besought them all to take meate, sayenge this is the fourtenth daye, y^e ye haue sayled & continued fastynge, receauynge no thyng at al. Wherefoze I praye you to take meate: for thys no doute is for youre helth: for & ther shal not an heer fall from the heed of any of you. And whē he had thus spoken, he toke bread and gaue thanks to God in p^{re}sence of them all: and when he had broke it, he beganne to eate. Then were they all of good cheare, & they also toke meate. We were all together in the shyppe, two hundred thre scoze & syrtene soules. And when they had eaten ynough, they lyghtened the shyp, and cast out the wheate into the see.

When it was daye, they knew not y^e lāde but the shyppe a certayne haven wth a banke, into the whych they were minded (yf it were possible) to thrust in the shyppe. And when they had taken vth the ancre, they committed themselves vnto the see, and loosed the rudder bondes and hoysed vth y^e mayne sayle to the wynde, and drewe to lande. And when they chaunced on a place, whych had the see on both sydes, they thrust in the shyp. And the foreparte stucke fast and moued not, but the hynder parte brake wyth the violence of the waues.

The soudpers counsell was to kyll the p^{re}soners, lest any of them, whē he had swome out, shulde runne awaye. But the vnder captayne wyllynge to saue Paul, kept them from theyr purpose, and commaunded that they whych coulde swimme, shulde cast the selues fyrst into the see, and scape to lande. And the other he comaunded to go, some on boardes, & some on broken peces of the shyp. And so it came to passe, that they escaped al safe to lande.

The xxviii. Chapter.

The vpper hurteth not Pauls hande, he healeth vs bl^{is} us father, and p^{re}acheth Christ at home.

A And when they were scaped, thē they knewe, that & the yle was called Mylete. And the straungers shewed vs no lytell kyndnes: for they kyndled a fyre, and receaued vs euerye one, because of the p^{re}sent rayne, and because of the colde. And when Paul had gathered a bondeill of spekes, and layde them on the fyre, there came a vpper out of the heate, and caught hym by the hande. When the straungers sawe the beast hange on hys hande, they sayd amōge them selues: no doute thys man is a murtherer: Whome (though he haue escaped the see) yet vengeaunce suffereth not to liue. And he shooke of the vpper in o the fyre, & felt no harme. howbeit th^y waped when he shulde haue swolne, or fallen downe dead so denyly. But after they had looked a greate whyle, & sawe no harme come to hym, they chaunged theyr myndes, and sayde: that he was a God.

In the

In the same quarters were landes of the cher man of the ple (whose name was Publius) whych receaued vs, & lodged vs thre dayes curteously. And it fortuneth that the lady of Publius laye speke of a feuer, and of a bloody fyre. To whom Paul entred in and prayed, and layde hys handes on hym & healed hym. So when this was done, other also which had dyscasses in the ple, came and were healed: whych also dyd vs greate ho-noure. And when we departed they laded vs wth such thynges as were necessary.

After thre monethes we departed in a shipp of Alexandry, whych had wyntred in ple, whose badg was Castor and Pollux.
And when we came to Cyzaca, we tarped ther thre dayes. And fro thence we fet a chpalle, & came to Regiu. And after one daye the south wynde blew, and we came ynext daye to Putilus: where we founde bethre, & were despyred to tarp wth the seuē dayes, and so came we to Rome. And from thence, when the bethzen herde of vs, they came to mete vs at Apiphorum, and at the thre ta-vernes. When Paul sawe them he thanked God, and wered bolde. And when we came to Rome, the vnder captayne deliuered the prisoners to the chefe captayne of the host: but Paul was suffred to dwell by hym selfe wth a loutper that kept hym.

And after thre dayes, Paul called the chefe of the Jewes together. And whē they were come, he sayde vnto them: Men & brethren, though I haue comytted nothyng agaynst the people or lawes of the Elders: yet was I deliuered prisoner fro Jerusalem into the hādes of Romaynes. Whych when they had examined me, wolde haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. But when the Jewes spake contrary I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar: not that I had ought to accuse my people of for thys cause then haue I called for you, euen to se you, and to speake wth you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound wth thys cheyne.

And they sayde vnto hym: we nether re-ceaued letters out of Jewry pertaynyng vnto the, nether any of the bethzen that came shewed or spake any harme of the. But we wyl heare of the what thou thyngest. For as concernyng thys secte, we knowe that e-uery where it is spoken agaynst. And when they had appoynted hym a daye, there came many to hym into hys lodgynge. To whom he expounded and testified the kyngdome of God & preached vnto them of Iesus: both out of the lawe of Moyses and out of the prophetes, euen from moynyng to nyght. And some beleued the thynges which were spoken, and some beleued not.

And when they agreed not amonge them selues, they departed, after that Paule had spoken one worde: wel spake the holy goost by Elap p prophete vnto our fathers, say-enge: So vnto thys people, and saye: With yours eares shall ye heare, and shall not vnderstande: and wth youre eyes shall ye se, and not perceaue.

For p hert of thys people is wored grosse & with theyr eares haue they had no luste to heare, and theyr eyes haue they closed: lest they shulde se with theyr eyes, & heare wth theyr eares, & vnderstande wth theyr hertes, and shulde be conuerted, & I shuld heale the.
Be it knowen therfore vnto you, p thys sal-uacion of God is sent to the Gentyls & they shall heare it. And when he had sayde these wordes, p Jewes departed from hym & had greate despiciens amonge them selues.

And Paul dwelt two yeaeres full in hys lodgynge, & receaued all that came in vnto hym, preachyng the kyngdome of God and teachyng those thynges which concerne the Lorde Iesus wth all confidence, no man for-byddynge hym.

¶ Here endeth the Actes of the Apostles.

hij iiii The

The Epistle of the Apostle saynt Paul to the Romaynes.

The fyrst Chapter.

¶ I woulde declarerh bys lout towarde the Ro-maynes, howerh what the Gospell is wryth the frute therof, and redukerh the deatly-nes of the brathen

¶ And the ser-uaunt of Iesus Christ called to the offyce of an Apostle * put a parte for the Gospell of God * whych he had promysed afore by his Prophetes in þe holy scriptures of his sonne, whych was bozne * (vnto hym) * of the seed of Dauid after the fleshe: and hath bene declared to be the sone of God wryth power after the sperte that sanctifyeth, sence the tyme þe Iesus Christ oure Lorde rose agayne frome death * by whome we haue receaued grace & Apostleshipp, that obedience myghte be geue vnto the sayth in hys name amonge al heathen, of whose nombze you be, the electe of Iesu Christ. ¶

To all you that be at Rome, beloued of God & sayntes by election. * Grace be wryth you and peace from God our father, and fro the Lorde Iesus Christ.

¶ Fyrst verely I thanke my God thorow Iesus Christe for you all, that your sayth is spoken of in all the worlde. For God is my wytnes (whome I serue. * Wryth my sperte in þe Gospell of hys sonne) þe wrythout ceasinge I make mencyon of you prayenge alwayes * in my prayers, þe by some meane, at the last (one tyme or other) a prosperous iourney (by the wyl of God) myghte fortune me, to come vnto you. For I longe to se you that I myghte bestowe amonge you some spiritual gyfte, to strength you wrythal that is, that I myght haue consolacion together wryth you, through the comen sayth whych both ye and I haue.

I woulde that ye shulde knowe (brethren) howe that I haue often tymes purposed to come vnto you * but haue bene let hither to, to haue some frute also amonge you, as amonge other of þe Gentils. I am better both to the Grekes & to the vngrekes, to þe learned and to the vnlarned. So that (as much as in me is) I am redy to preach the Gospell to you that are at Rome also. * For I am not ashamed of þe Gospell of Christ, because * it is the power of God vnto saluacion to euery one that beleueth, to the Jewe fyrste, and also to the Gentyll.

For by it is the ryght wysnes of God opened from sayth to sayth. As it is wrytten:
* the iust shall lyue by sayth.

For the wyath of God appeareth fro heauen agaynst all vngodlynes and vncryghtewysnes of men, whych wrythholde the truth in vncryghte wysnes: seynge * that it whych maye be knowen of God, is manifest among the, because God hath shewed it vnto the.
* For hys inuisible thynges (that is to saye hys eternal power and godhed) are sene, for as muche as they are vnderstode * by þe wokes from the creacion of the worlde: So that they are wrythout excuse because þe whē they knewe God, they glorifyed him not as God, neyther were thankfull but wered ful of vanities in the; ymaginacions. * And they; foolysly bert was blynded. When they counted them selues wylse, they became fooles * and turned the gloype of the immortall God, vnto an ymage, made not onely after the similitude of a mortall man: but also of bydes, and foure footed * beastes and of crepinge beastes. Wherefore, God gaue the vp, to vncleines, thorow þe lustes of they; owne bertes to despyle they; owne bodies amonge them selues: whych chaunged hys truth for a lye, and wo:shypped and serued þe thin-ges that be made, more then hym that made them, whych is to be prayled for euer. Amē.
Wherefore, God gaue the vp vnto shamefull lustes: * For euen they; wemē dyd chaunge the naturall vse into that whych is agaynst nature. And lykwylse also the men, lefte the naturall vse of the woman, and bzente in they; lustes one wryth another, * men with men wroughte fylthynges, and receaued to them selues the rewarde of they; errour, as it was accordeynge.

And as they regarded not to knowe God
* euen so God deliuered the vp vnto a leude mynde, that they shulde do those thynges whiche were not comely, beyng full of all vncryghteounesse, fornicacion, wrychednes, couetousnes, malycyousnes, full of enuye, murder

* Act. viii. a

* deut. xliii. c Actes. viii. e

* Mat. i. a
ii. Timo. ii. b

* Actes. ix. b

* i. Cor. i. a Gal. i. a

* i. John. viii. e
i. Cor. x. c

* i. Pet. i. a Collo. i. a

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

* 2. Cor.

murder, debate, discepte, euell condicioned, wylsperrers, backbypeters, haters of God, dyspynfull, proude, boasters, bypnyngers vp of euill thynges, disobedient to father and mother, wylhout vnderstandynge, couenaunte breakers, vnloyng, truce breakers, vnnier cyful. Whych men, though they knewe, the ryghteousnes of God: ^{* Considered not} howe they whych comyt such thynges, are woorthy of death, not only ^{* (they that)} do the same but also ^{* (they whych)} haue pleasure in them that do them.

The.ii. Chapter.

^{* He rebuketh the Jewes, whych as touchynge. Synne are lyke the Heathen.}

Iherfore art thou inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou be that ^{* ind-}gest. For in that same wherein thou iudgest another: thou condemnest thy selfe. For thou that iudgest, doest even the same self thynges. But we are sure, that the iudgement of God is accordynge to the trueth, agaynst them whiche comyt suche thynges. Thyngest thou this, O thou man that iudgest them whych do suche thynges, and doest euen the verye same thy selfe, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God: ^{* Either} despyest thou the ryches of his goodnes, & patience and longe sufferaunce, not knowynge: that the kindnesse of God leadech the to repentaunce?

But thou after thy stubbernesse, and hert that cannot repente, beapest vnto thy selfe wrath agaynst the daye of vengeaunce, wher shall be opened the ryghteous iudgemente of God, ^{* whych} wyl reward euerie man accordynge to his dedes: that is to saye, praple honoure and immortalite, to them which continue in good doinge, and seke immortalite. But vnto the that are rebelles, and that do not obeye the trueth, but folowe vnryghteousnes, shall come indygnacion and wrath, tribulacion and angurthe vpon the soule of euery man that doth euill: of the Jewe fyrst, and also of the Gentyle. To euery man that doth good, shall come praple, and honoure, & peace, to the Jewe fyrst, and also to the Gentyle. For ^{* there} is no respecte of persons, with God. For whosoever hath synned wylhout lawe, shall also perre wylhout lawe. And as many as haue synned in the lawe, shall be iudged by the lawe. For in the sight of God they ^{* are} not ryghteous whiche heare the lawe: but the doers of the lawe shall be iustified. For wha the Gentylis whych haue not the lawe, do of nature the thynges conteyned in the lawe: then they haupng not the lawe, are a lawe vnto them selues, whiche shewe the dede of the lawe wrytten in theyr hertes: while theyr consyence beareth wytnes vnto them, and also thei thoughtes, accusynge one another of excusynge, at the daye: wher the Lord shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, accordynge to my Gospell.

Behold, ^{* thou} art called a Jewe, & trustest in the lawe, & makest thy boast of God, and knowest his wyl, & allowest the thynges that be excellent, & art inourmed by the law: and beleuest that thou thy selfe art a guyde of the blind, alpyght of the whych are in darknes, an informer of the whiche lacke discrecion, a teacher of the vnlarned, whych hast the ensample of knowlege, & of the trueth by the law. Thou therfore which teachest another, teachest not thy selfe: ^{* Thou} preacheest, a man should not steale: yet thou stealest. Thou that sayest, a man should not comyt adoutryp breakes wedlocke. Thou adhourest ymages, & yet robbest God of his honoure. Thou that makest thy boast of the lawe, thou wyl breakynge the lawe dyshonourest God. For the name of God is euell spoken of amonge the Gentylis, thowowe you ^{* as it is} wrytten.

For circumcision verely auayleth, yf thou kepe the lawe. But yf thou be a breaker of the lawe, thy circumcision is turned to vncircumcysion. Therfore, yf the vncircumcised kepe the ryghte thynges contayned in the lawe, shall not his vncircumcysion be counted for circumcision: And shall not vncircumcysion whych is by nature (yf it kepe the law) iudge the, whych beynge vnder the letter and circumcision, doest transgresse the lawe: he is not a Jewe, which is a Jewe outwarde. Rather is it circumcision, which is outwarde in the fleshe. But ^{* he} is a Jewe whiche is byd wythin, and the circumcision of the herte is the true circumcision, which consisteth in the sperte, and not in the letter, whose praple is not of men but of God.

The.iii. Chapter.

^{* He sheweth what preferment the Jewes haue, and howe both the Jewes and Gentylis are vnder synne, and are iustified onely by the grace of God in Christ.}

What preferment then hath the Jewe? For what aduantagegeth circumcision? Surely very moche. ^{* fyrst} because ^{* ynto} the were comytred the wordes of God. What then thoughte some of them dyd not beleue? ^{* Shall} they vnbeleue make the promes of God without effecte? God forbyd. ^{* Let} God be true, and ^{* euery} man a lyar, as it is wrytten: ^{* yf} thou myghtest be iustified in thy saynges, and ouercome, when thou art iudged.

But yf oure vnryghtewesnes make the ryghtewesnes of God more excellent: what shall we saye? Is God vnryghteous, which taketh vengeaunce? I speake after the maner of me: God forbyd. For how then shall God iudge the worlde? For yf the trueth of God appere more excellent thowowe my lye, vnto his praple, why am I hence forth iudged as a synner?

a synner: and not rather (as me speake euill of vs, and as some aspyre that we sape) let vs do euill, that good maye come therof. Whose damnacion is iust.

¶ What then? Are we better then they? No, in no wyse. For we haue all readye proued, howe that both Jewes and Gentyls are all vnder synne, as it is wyrtten. * There is none ryghteous, no not one: there is none y vnderstandeth, there is none that seeketh after God: they are all gone out of the waye, they are all vnprytable, there is none that doth good, no not one. * They: thore is an open sepulchre, with they: tonges they haue disceined: the popson of aspes is vnder their lippes. * Whose mouth is full of cursyng & bytternes. * They: fete are swyfte to shed bloude. * Destruction and wretchednes are in they: wayes, and the waye of peace haue they not knowen. * There is no feare of God before they: eyes.

* We knowe that what thynges soener y lawe sayth, it sayth it to the which are vnder y lawe. That al mouthes maye be stopped, & that all the worlde maye be subdued to God, because that * by the dedes of the lawe ther shall no flesch be iustified in hys syght. For by the lawe commeth the knowledge of synne.

But now is the ryghteousnes of God declared wythout the lawe, for as much as it is allowed by the testimonie of the lawe and of the Prophetes. The ryghteousnes of God, cometh by the fayth of Iesus Christ, vnto all and vpon all them that beleue. (on hym.)

¶ Ther is no difference: for al haue synned, and are despytute of the gloire of God: but are iustified frely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christe Iesu, whome God hath set forth * to be y obtayner of mercy thowowe fayth, by y means of his bloude, to declare his ryghteousnes, in that he forgereth the synnes that are passed, whych God dyd suffer, to shewe at thys tyme hys ryghteousnes, y he might be counted iust, & the iustifier of him which beleueth on Iesus.

Where is then thy reioysyng? It is excluded. By what lawe, of workes? Naye: but by the lawe of fayth.

Therefore we holde, that * a man is iustified by fayth wythout the dedes of the lawe. Is he the God of the Jewes only? Is he not also the God of the Gentyls? Yes, euē of the Gentyls also. For it is God onely which iustifieth the circumcision that is of fayth, & vncircumcision thowowe fayth. Do we then destroie y lawe thowowe fayth? God forbid: But we rather mayntayne the lawe.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ He declareth by the example of Abraham, that fayth iustifieth, and not the law, no: the workes therof.

What shal we sape the, that Abraham our father (as pertayninge to the fleshe) did finde? If Abraham were iustified by dedes, the hath he wherin to reioyce: but not w god. For what sayeth y scripture: * Abraham beleued God, & it was counted vnto hym for ryghteousnes. To him that worketh, is the rewarde not rekened of fauoure, but of due tye. To hym y worketh not, but beleueth on hym that iustifieth y vngodly, is hys fayth counted for ryghteousnes. (acco: dyng to the purpose of the grace of God.) Euē as Dauid describeth y blessedfulnes of that man, vnto who God imputeth righteousness without dedes. * Blessed are they, whose vnyghteousnes are forgiven, and whose synnes are couered. Blessed is that man, to who the Lorde wyll not impute synne.

Came thy blessednes then vpo the vncircumcysion, or vpon the circumcysion also? For we sape, that fayth was rekened to Abraham for ryghteousnes. How was it the rekened? whan he was in the circumcysion: or whan he was in the vncircumcysion? * Not in y tyme of circumcysion: but when he was yet vncircumcysed. And he receaued the * sygne of circumcysion, as a scale of the ryghteousnes of fayth which he had yet bepyng vncircumcysed, that he shoulde be the father of all them that beleue, though they be not circumcysed, that ryghteousnes myght be imputed to them also: and that he myght be father of circumcision, not vnto the onely which came of the circumcysed, but vnto the also that walke in the steppes of the fayth y was in oure father Abraham, before the tyme of circumcysion.

For the promes (that he shoulde be y heire of the worlde) happened not to Abraham or to hys seide thowow y lawe: but thowow y ryghteousnes of fayth. * For yf they whych are of y lawe, be heyres, then is fayth but vayne and the promes of none effecte. Because the lawe causeth wrath. For where no lawe is, there is no transgression. Therefore by fayth is the inheritaunce geue, that it might come of fauoure: that the promes myght be sure to all the seed. Not to them only whych are of the law: but to them also whych are of the fayth of Abraham, * whych is the father of vs all. (As it is wyrtten: * I haue made the a father of many nacions) euē before God, whom he beleued, whiche restozeth the dead vnto lyfe: and calleth those thynges whych be not, as though they were.

Whych Abraham, contrary to hope, beleued in hope, that he shoulde be the * father of many nacions, acco: dyng to that whych was spoken: euē to shall thy seide be, (as the scripture sayth)

* Gal. iiii. 8

* Psalm. lxxv. 1

* Gal. iiii. 12
* Rom. i. 18
* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* John. i. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

* Gal. iiii. 12

of beauen, & the fande of the fee.) And he faynted not in the fayth, nor yet cōfydered hys awne body whych was now dead, euen when he was almost an hundred yere olde: nether yet that Sara was past chyldbearing. he stachered not at the promes of God thowowe vnbefle: but became stronge in fayth, and gaue God the prayse, beyng ful certified, that he which had promysed the same was able also to make it good. And thefoze was it rekened to hym for ryghteousnes.

* Neuerthelesse it is not wyrtten for hym onely, that it was rekened to hym (for ryghteousnes,) but also for vs, to who it shalbe counted (for ryghteousnes.) so that we beleue on hym that rayled vp Iesus our Lord from the dead: whych was deliuered for oure synnes, and was rayled agayne for oure iustification.

¶ The v. Chapter.

¶ The power of fayth, hope and loue: and howe death raygned from Adam vnto Christ, by whom onely we haue forgiuenes of synnes.

BEcause therfoze we are iustified by fayth, we are at * peace wyth God, thowowe oure Lord Iesus Christ: by who also it chaused vnto vs to be brought in thowowe fayth, vnto this grace, wherin we stande, & * reioyce in hope of the glorie (of the chryste) of God. Not onely: but also we reioyce in tribulacions: knowynge that tribulacion byngeth patience, patience byngeth experience, experience byngeth hope. And hope maketh not ashamed: because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hertes, by the holy goost whych is geuen vnto vs.

¶ For when we were yet weake, according to the tyme, Christ dyed for vs whych were vngodly: yet scarce wyll any man dye for a righteous man. Paraduſture for a good man durst a man dye. ¶ But God setteth oute hys loue toward vs, seynge that while we were yet sinners (according to the tyme) Christ dyed for vs. Much more then now (we that are iustified by hys bloude) shalbe saued from wrath thowowe hym.

¶ For yf when we wer enemyes, we were reconciled to God by the death of hys sonne: much more seynge we are reconciled, we shalbe preserued by his lyfe. Not onely this, but we also ioye in God by the meanes of oure Lord Iesus Christ, by whom we haue nowc optayned the attonement.

¶ Therfoze, as by one man, synne entred in to the worlde, and * death by the meanes of synne. Euen so deeth also went ouer al men, in so muche as all we haue synned. For euen vnto the lawe was synne in the worlde, but synne is not imputed, when ther is no lawe: neuerthelesse death raygned from Adam to Moyses, euen ouer them also that had not sinned wyth lyke transgressyon as dyd Adam:

whyche beareth the symilitude of hym that was to come.

¶ But the gyfte is not lyke as synne. For yf thowowe the synne of one, many be dead: muche more plenteous vpon many was the grace of God, & gyfte by grace: * which was of one man Iesus Christ.

¶ And yf gyfte is not ouer one synne: as death came thowowe one synne of one synned. For damnacion came of one synne vnto condemnation: but yf gyfte came to iustifye fro many synnes. For yf by synne of one, death raygned by the meanes of one: muche more they (whyche receaue aboundaunce of grace and of the gyfte of ryghteousnes) shal raygne in lyfe by the meanes of one (that is to say) Iesus Christ.

¶ Lyke wyse then as by the synne of one there sprange vpon eucl on all men to condemnation: euen so by the ryghteousnes of one, spryngeth good vpon all men to the righteousness of lyfe. For as by one mannes disobedience many became synners: so by the obedience of one, shal many be made ryghteous. ¶ But the lawe in the meane tyme entred in, yf synne shulde encrease. Neuertheater wher aboundaunce of synne was, there was more plenteousnes of grace. That as synne hadde raygned vnto death, euen so myghte grace raygne thowowe ryghteousnes, vnto eternall lyfe, by the helpe of Iesu Christ.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

¶ For so muche as we be deliuered thowowe Christ fro synne, we must fashion our selues to lyue as the true children of God, and not after our owne lustes. For the bypasse is rewarde of ryghteousnes, and synne.

What shal we saye the? Shall we continue in synne, that there may be aboundaunce of grace? God forbid. how shal we that are dead as touchyng synne, lyue any longer therein? ¶ Knowe ye not that * all we which are baptised into Iesu Christ are baptised to dye wth hym? We are buried then wth hym by baptyme, for to dye: that lyke wyse as Christ was rayled vp fro deeth by the glorie of the father, euen so * we also shuld walke in a newe lyfe. For yf we be grafte in deeth lyke vnto hym: euen so shal we be partakers of the resurrection: knowynge this, that oure olde man is crucified wth hym also, that the body of synne might utterly be destroyed, that hence forth we shulde not be seruantes vnto synne. For he that is dead, is iustified from synne.

¶ Therfoze yf we be deed wth Christ, we beleue, yf we shal also lyue wth hym: knowynge, that Christ beyng rayled fro deeth, & dyeth nomore. Death hath nomore power ouer hym. For as touchyng that he dyed, he dyed concernynge synne once. And as touchyng that he lyueth, he lyueth vnto God. Lyke wyse

I pke wyle conspdyre ye also, that ye are dead as touchyng synne, but are alpyue vnto God thowow Iesus Christ our Lorde. ¶ Let not synne raygne therfore in your mortall bo-dye, that ye shulde ther vnto obey by the lustes of it. Rather geue ye poure membes as instrumentes of vnyrghtowesnes vnto synne: but geue ouer your selues vnto God as they that of dead, are alpyue. And geue ouer poure membes as instrumentes of ryghtewesnes vnto God. For synne shall not haue power ouer you. Becaulse ye are not vnder the law but vnder grace.

¶ What then? Shall we synne, because we are not vnder the lawe: but vnder grace? God forbid. ¶ I knowe ye not, how that to whō souer ye commit your selues as seruauntes to obey, hys seruauntes ye are to whome ye obey: whether it be of synne vnto deeth, or of obedyence vnto ryghtewesnes: God be tha-ked, that though ye were the seruauntes of synne, ye haue yet obeyed with herte vnto the rule of the doctrine, that ye be brought vnto ¶ Ye are then made free from synne, and are become the seruauntes of ryghtewesnes. ¶ ¶ I speake grossly, because of the infirmite of your fleshe. As ye haue geuen your members seruauntes to vncleennes and to iniqui-tyte, (from one iniquyte to another) euen so now geue ouer your membes seruauntes vnto rightewesnes, that ye maye be sanctified. For whē ye were the seruauntes of synne ye wer voyde of rightewesnes. What frute had ye then in those thynges, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the ende of those thyngges is deeth. But now we are ye deliuered fro synne, and made the seruauntes of God, and haue poure frute to be sanctified, and the enduerlastyng lpe. For the reward of synne is deeth, but eternall lpe is the gyfte of God, thowow Iesus Christ our Lorde.

¶ The vii. Chapter.

¶ Christ hath deliuered vs from the lawe and deeth.
 ¶ Pau. sheweth what the fleshe and outwarde man is, & calleth it the lawe of the membes.

¶ Now ye not bzyethē (I speake to thes that know the law) how that the law hath power ouer a mā, as longe as it endureth.
 For the womā whych is in subieccion to a mā, is bounde by the lawe to the mā, as longe as he lyueth.
 But if the mā be dead: she is losed from the lawe of the mā. So then if whyle the mā lyueth she couple her selfe wyth another mā, she shalbe coulted a wedlocke breaker. But if the mā be dead, she is free from the lawe of the husband, so that she is no wedlocke breaker, though she couple her selfe w another mā.

Euen so ye also (my bzyethē) are dead concernyng the law by the body of Christ, that ye shulde be coupled to another (I meane to hym that is rylen agayne fro deeth) that we shuld bzyng forth frute vnto God. For whā we were in the fleshe, the lustes of synne whych were stered by the lawe, raygned in our members, to bzyng forth frute vnto deeth.

 But now we are deliuered from the lawe, and dead vnto it, wher vnto we wer in bondage, that we shulde serue in a newe conuer-sacion of the sprete, and not in the olde con-uersacion of the letter.

¶ What shal we saye then? is the law synne?
 God forbid: neuertheles I knew not synne but by the lawe. For I had not knowen what lust had meante, excepte the lawe had sayde: thou shalt not lust. But synne toke an occasion by the meanes of the commaundemēt and wrought in me all maner of concupis-cence. For verely wythoute the lawe, synne was dead. I once lyued wythout law: But when the commaundement came, synne reuyuēd, and I was dead. And the verpe same commaundement, which was ordeyned vnto lpe, was founde to be vnto me an occasiō of deeth. For synne toke occasiō by the mea-nes of the commaundemēt, and so dysceaued me, and by the same slewe me. Wherfore the lawe is holy, and the commaundement holy and iust and good.

¶ Was it then whych was good, made deeth vnto me? God forbid. Saye it was synne: the synne might apere (by it whych was good) to worke deeth in me: that synne by the commaundement myght be out of measure synfull. For we knowe, the lawe is spiritual: but I am carnal: solde vnder synne, because I allowe not that whych I do. For what I wolde, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I. If I do now that whych I wolde not, I consent vnto the law that it is good. So then now, it is not I that do it, but synne dwelleth in me. For I knowe, that in me (that is to saye in my fleshe) dwelleth no good thyng. For to wyl is present with me: but I fynde no meanes to performe the good that I wyl. For the good that I wolde, do I not:
 but the euill whych I wolde not, that do I.
 If I do that I wolde not, then is it not I that do it, but synne that dwelleth in me. I fynde then by the law, that when I wold do good euill is present with me. For I deyle in the lawe of God, after the inwarde man: But I se another lawe in my membes, rebellyng agaynst the lawe of my mynde, and subdu-yng me vnto the lawe of synne, which is in my members. ¶ Wretched man that I am: who shal deliuer me from this bodye subdued vnto deeth? I thanke God thowow Jesus Christe oure Lorde. So then, wyth the mynde I serue the lawe of God, but with the fleshe the lawe of synne.

¶ The viii. Chapter.

¶ The lawe

The lawe of f sprete geueth lyfe. The sprete of God maketh vs Gods chyldren and heyses with Christ. The aboundant loue of God can not be sperated.

If there is then no damnacyon to them whych are in Christe Iesu, whych walke not after the fleshe, but after the sprete. For the lawe of f sprete, of lyfe thowwe Iesus Christ, hath made me fre from the lawe of synne, and death. For what the lawe coulde not do (in as muche as it was weake because of the fleshe) that performed God, and sent hys sonne in the similitude of synfull fleshe, and by synne damned synne in the fleshe, that the ryghteousnes of the lawe, myghte be fulfilled in vs, whych walke not after the fleshe, but after f sprete.

For they that are carnal, are carnally minded. But they that are spirituall, are goodly minded. To be carnally minded, is deeth. But to be spirituallly mynded, is lyfe and peace. Because that the fleshy mynde is enemye agaynst God, for it is not obedient to the lawe of God, neyther can be. So then they that are in f fleshe, cannot please God.

But ye are not in f fleshe, but in the sprete: yf so be that the sprete of God dwell in you. Yf any mā haue not f spret of Christ, f sam is none of his. Yf Christ be in you, the bodye is dead because of synne: but the sprete is lyf for righteousnes sake. Wherefore, yf the sprete of hym that rayled vp Iesus from death, dwell in you: euen he that rayled vp Christ from death, shall quyen your mortall bodyes, because of hys sprete that dwelleth in you.

Wherefore brethren, we are debtors, not to the fleshe, to lyue after the fleshe. For yf ye lyue after the fleshe, ye shall dye. But yf ye (thowwe the sprete) do mortyfye the dedes of the bodye, ye shall lyue. For as many as are led by the sprete of God, they are the sonnes of God. For ye haue not receaued the sprete of bondage to feare any more, but ye haue receaued the sprete of adopcio, whereby we crye: Abba father. The same sprete certifyeth oure sprete that we are the sonnes of God. Yf we be sonnes, then are we also heyrres, the heyrres I meane of God, and heyrres annexed wryth Christ: yf so be that we suffer with him, that we maye be also glorified together wryth hym.

For I suppose that the afflictions of this lyfe, are not worthy of the glory, which shalbe shewed vps. For the seruient desyre of the creature abydeyth lokynge when the sonnes of God shall appeare, because the creature is subdued to vanyte, agaynst the wyll therof, but for hys will which hath subdued the sam in hope. For the same creature shalbe deliuered from the bondage of corrupcion, into the glorious lybertie of the sonnes of God. For we knowe, that every creature groweth with vs also, & tranapleth in payne euen vnto thys tyme.

Not onely it, but we also whych haue the fyrst frutes of the sprete, moze in our selues also, and wayte for the adopcio. (of the chryl dym: God.) eue f deliuerance of our body. For we are saued by hope. But hope that is sene is no hope. For howe can a man hope for that which he seyth. But and yf we hope for that we se not, then do we with patience abyde for it.

Lykewyle, f sprete also helpeth our infirmities. For we knowe not what to desyre as we ought: but the sprete maketh intercession for vs, with gronynge which ca not be expessed. And he that searcheth the vertes knoweth, what is f me anyng of the sprete for he maketh intercession for the sayntes accordynge to the pleasure of God.

We knowe that all thynges worke for the best vnto them that loue God, which also are called of purpose. For those whiche he knewe before, he also ordeyned before, that they shulde be lyke fashioned vnto the shape of hys sonne, that he myghte be the fyrst begotten sonne amonge many brethren. Dore ouer, whom he appoynted before, them also he called. And whom he hath called, them also he iustified: and who he iustified, them he also glorified.

What shall we the saye to these thynges? yf God be on our syde, who can be agaynst vs: whych spared not hys owne sonne, but gaue him for vs all: how can it be that with him he shulde not geue vs all thynges also? Alho shall lape any thyng to the charge of Gods chosen: it is God that iustifyeth: who is he that can condemne: it is Christ whiche dyed: yee, rather whych is cryen agayne, whych is also on the ryght hande of God, & maketh intercession for vs.

Alho shall separate vs from the loue of God: shal tribulacion: or anguysh: or persecucion: ether honger: ether nakednes: ether parell: ether swearde? As it is wrytten: for thy sake are we kylled all daye longe, & are counted as shepe apointed to be slayne. Neuerthelesse, in all these thynges we ouercome thowwe hym that loued vs. For I am surr, that neyther deeth, neyther lyfe, neyther Angels, nor rule, neyther power, neyther thynges present, neyther thynges to come, neyther heyghe, neyther lowe, neyther any other creature shalbe able to departe vs from the loue of God, whych is in Christ Iesu our Loyde.

The. ix. Chapter.

Whe complayneth vpon the harde hartes of the Iewes that woulde not receiue Christ, and howe the Iewes then are chosen in Christe.

I sape

I Saye the trueth in Chyſte, and lye not, (my conſcience alſo bearynge me witnes by þe holy goost) that I haue great heuynes, and continual ſorowe in my herte. For I haue wylſhed my ſelfe to be curſed from Chyiſt, for my brethren (my kinſmen as pertaynynge to the fleſhe) which are the Iſraelites. To whom pertayneth the adopcion, (of the chyldren) and the gloze, & the couenautes, & the lawe that was geue, and the ſeruice of God, and the promyſes: whole alſo are the fathers, & they of whom (as concernynge the fleſhe) Chyiſte came, whyche is God in all thynges to be prayſed for euer. Amen.

I ſpeake not theſe thynges, as though the wordes of God had taken none effecte. For they are not all Iſraelites, whyche are of Iſrael: nether are they all chyldren ſtrayght waye, that are the ſeed of Abraham. But in Iſaac ſhall thy ſeed be called: that is to ſaye they whyche are the chyldren of the fleſhe, are not the chyldren of God. But they which be the chyldren of promyſes, are counted the ſeed. For this is a worde of promyſes, about thys tyme will I come, and Sara ſhall haue a ſonne.

Not only this, but alſo Rebecca was with chyldre by one, eue by your father Iſaac. For per the chyldren were borne, when they had nether done good nether bad (that þe purpoſe of God by electyon, myght ſtande) it was ſayde vnto her, not by the reaſon of workes, but by the caller: the elder ſhall ſerue the yonger, as it is writte: Iacob haue I loued, but Eſau haue I hated. What ſhall we ſay the? is there any vnrigheteuſnes wyth God?

God forbyd. For he ſayth to Moſes: I wil ſhewe mercy to whome ſo euer I ſhewe mercy: and will haue compaſſion, on whome ſo euer I haue compaſſion. So lpereth it not the in a mans wyl or runnyng, but in the mercy of God. For the ſcripture ſayeth vnto Pharaos: Euen for thys ſame purpoſe haue I ſtored the vp, to ſhewe my power on the, & that my name myght be declared thowowe out all þe world: So hath he mercy on whom he wyl, and whom he wyl he maketh hard herted.

Thou wylt ſaye then vnto me: why then blameth he vs yet? For who hath bene able to reſyſt his wyl? But man, what art þe which diſputeth wyth God? ſhal the worke ſape to the workeman: why haſt thou made me on this faſhion: hath not þe potter power ouer the clay, euen of þe ſame lombe to make one veſſell vnto honoure, and another vnto diſhonoure? Eue ſo, God willing to ſhewe his wrath, and to make his power knowne ſuffered wyth longe patience the veſſels of wrath, ordeyned to damnacyon, and to declare the riches of his gloze on the veſſels of mercy whych he had prepared vnto gloze who alſo he called, not of the Jewes onely, but alſo of the Gentils. As he ſayeth alſo to Oſee: I wyl call them my people whyche were not my people: and her beloued whych was not beloued, (and her to haue obtained mercy, that had not opraigned mercy) And it ſhal come to paſſe, that in the place where it was ſayde vnto them: ye are not my people: there ſhall they be called the chyldren of the luyng God.

But Elaye cryeth concernynge Iſrael, though the nobze of the chyldren of Iſrael be as the lande of þe ſee, yet the remnant ſhal be ſaued. For he ſymlyſeth the worde verely, and maketh it ſhort in ryghtewelnes. For a ſhort worde wyl God make on erth. And as Elay ſayd before: except the Lord of Sab both had leſte vs ſeed, we had bene made as Sodoma, & had bene lykened to Gomora.

What ſhal we ſaye then? We ſaye, that the Gentyls whych folowed not ryghtewelnes, haue overtaken ryghtewelnes: eue the ryghteouſnes whych cometh of fayth. Contrary wyſe, Iſrael which folowed þe lawe of ryghtewelnes, could not attaine to þe lawe of ryghtewelnes. Wherefore: eue becauſe they ſought it not by fayth: but as it wer by the workes of the lawe. For they haue ſtumbled at the ſtomblinge ſtone. As it is writte: Behold, I put in Sion a ſtomblinge ſtone, & a rocke that me ſhal be offended at. And whoſoever belueth on hym, ſhall not be confounded.

¶ The .x. Chapter. ¶

The vnſaythfulnes of the Jewes.
Two maner of ryghteouſneſſes.

Rethere, my hertes deſyre & prayer to god for Iſrael is, þe they myght be ſaued. For I heare the recorde, that they haue a ſeruete mynde to Godwarde, but not according to knowlege. For they beynge ignorant of Gods ryghteouſneſſes, & goynge about to ſtablyſhe theyr owne righteouſneſſes, haue not bene obedient vnto þe righteouſneſſes of God. For Chyiſt is the fulfyllynge of the lawe, to iuſtifie all that beleue.

For Moſes wryteth of the ryghteouſneſſes whych cometh of the lawe, howe that the man which doth the thynges of the lawe, ſhal lyue thereby. But the ryghteouſneſſes whyche cometh of fayth, ſpeaketh on thys wyſe: Say not thou in thyne hert, who ſhall aſcend into heaue? (þe is euen to fetch Chyiſt downe from aboue.) Ether who ſhall deſcende into the depe? (that is euen to fetch vp Chyiſt a gayne from death.) But what ſayeth þe? The worde is nye þe, eue in thy mouth and in thyne herte.

Thys ſame is the worde of fayth, whych we preache deprache. For yf thou knowledg wth thy mouth that Iesus is the Lord, and beleue in thyn herte, that God rayled hym vp from deeth, thou shalt be safe. For to beleue wth the herte iustifieth: and to knowledg wyth the mouth, maketh a mā safe. For the scripture sayeth: * whosoouer beleueth on hym, shall not be confounded.

There is no difference betwene the Iewe and y^e gentyll. For one is Lord of all, whych is rygh vnto al y^e cal vpon hym. For * whoso euer doth call on the name of the Lord, shall be safe. How then shall they call on hym, on whom they haue not beleued: how shall they beleue on hym, of whō they haue not heard? how shall they heare, withoute a preacher? And how shall they preache except they be sent? As it is wyrtten: howe beautifull are the fete of them whych brynge tpynges of peace, & brynge tpynges of good thynges?

But they haue not al obeyed to the Gospel: For Elay sayeth: * Lord, who hath beleued our saynges? So then sayth cometh by hearynge, and hearyng cometh by the worde of God. But I aske: haue they not herd? No doute, * they: soude went out into all lādes: & their wordes into y^e endes of y^e worlde.

But I demaunde, whether Israel dyd knowe or not: First Moses sayeth: * I wyl prouoke you to enuy, by the that are no people: by a foolyshe nacyn I wyl anger you: Elay after that, is bolde and sayeth: * I am founde of them, y^e sought me not: I am manifest vnto them, that asked not after me. But agaynst Israel he sayeth: * al day lōge haue I stretched forth my hādes vnto a people y^e beleueth not, but speaketh agaynst me.

¶ The xi. Chapter.

All the Jewes are not cast away, therfore Paul war- neth the Gentyls that be called, not to be hpe mynded nor to despyce the Jewes, for the iudgements of God are depe and secreete.

I Hape then, hath God cast awaye hys people: God forbyd. For euen I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the trybe of Ben Jamin, God hath not cast awaye his people, which he knewe before. Wote ye not, what y^e scripture sayth of helias, how he maketh intercession to God agaynst Israel, saying: * Lord, they haue kylled thy prophetes, and dygged downe thyn alters: and I am leste alone, and they seke my lyfe. But what sayeth the answer of God vnto hym: * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seuen thousande mē, whych haue not bowed y^e knee to the ymage of Baall. Euen so also at thys tyme is ther a remnaunt leste accordyng to the electyon of grace. Yf it be of grace, then is it not now of woorkes. For then grace is no more grace. But yf it be of woorkes, then is it now: no grace. For then were deseruyng no more de- scripunge. What then? Israel hath not ob- tayne that whych he seaketh: but the electyō hath obtayned it. The remnaunt are blyn- ded accordyng as it is wyrtten. * God hath geue them y^e spere of vniquietnes: eyes that they shulde not se, and eares that they shuld not heare, eue vnto thys dape. * And Dauid sayth: Let their table be made a snare to take them with all, and an occasion to fall, and a rewarde vnto them. Let they^e eyes be blyn- ded that they so not: and howe thou downe they^e backe alwaye.

I saye then: haue they therfore stombled, that they shulde vterly fal away together? God forbyd: but thowowe they^e fal is salua- tion happened vnto the Gentyls, for to pro- uoke them wythall. Wherfore yf the fall of them be the ryches of the worlde, and the mi- nishynge of them the ryches of the Gentyls: how much more their perfytnesse? I speake to yon gentils, in as much as * I am y^e Apo- stel of y^e gentyls, I will magnifye myne of- fice, yf by any meane I maye prouoke them whiche are my fleshe, and myghte saue some of them. For yf the castinge awaye of them be the reconcylyng of the worlde: what shal the receaptyng of them be, but lyfe agayne from deeth? For yf one peece be holy, y^e whole heape is holy. And yf y^e roote be holy, y^e bzaū- ches shalbe holy also.

Though some of the bzaunches be broken of, and thou beynge a wylde olyuetree, wast grafte in amonge the, and made partaker of the rote and fatnes of the * olyue tree, beast not thy selfe agaynst the bzaunches. For yf thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not y^e roote but y^e roote the. Thou wylt say then: y^e bzaū- ches are broken of that I might be graft in. Thou sayest well: because of vnbelleue they were broken of, and thou stodest stedfast in sayth. Be not hpe mynded, but feare: for se- ynge that God spared not the natural bzaū- ches, take hede, lest it come to passe that he spare not the also.

Beholde therfore the kyndnes and rygo- rousnes of God: on them whych fell rygo- rousnes: but towarde the, kyndnes: yf thou cōtinue in hys kyndnes. O els thou shalt be dewen of, and they agayne: yf they byde not styll in vnbelleue, shalbe graffed in agayne. For God is of power to graffe them in a- gayn. For yf thou wast cut out of a natural wylde olyue tree, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a true olyue tre how much more shal the natural bzaūches be graffed in their owne olyue tree agayne.

I wolde not that thys secreete shuld be hyd from you my brythyn (lest ye shuld be wyle in your owne conceytes) y^e partly blyndnes is happened in Israel, vntyll the fulnes of the getyls be come in: and so al Israel shalbe saved

* Ro. vi. c Mat. xiii. h
John. vi. f
Act. xiii. f

* Roma. ix. a
i. Tim. ii. c
ii. Tim. i. c

* Jer. xi. c

* Ro. xiiij. a

The Epistle

Esaied. As it is wyrtten. * There shall come out of Syon he that doth deliuer, and shall turne awaye vngodlynes from Jacob. And thys is my couenaunt vnto the, wher I shall take awaye theyr synnes. As concerning þe gospel they are enemyes for your sakes: but as touchynge the election they are loued for the fathers sakes.

For verely, the gyftes & callinge of God are such, that it can not repent hym of the: for loke, as ye in tyme passed haue not beleued God, yet haue now obtayned mercy thorow theyr vnbelefe: euen so now haue they not beleued þe mercy whych is happened vnto you: that they also maye obtayne mercy. For God had wrapped all nacjons in vnbeleue, that he myght haue mercy on all.

O the depnes of the riches both of þe wysdome and knowledge of God: howe vnscheable are hys iudgements, and his wayes past fyndynge out: For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde? Or who hath bene hys counsellor? eithur who hath geuen vnto hym fyrst, & he shalbe recompened agayne. For of hym, and thorow hym, and for hym are all thynges: To hym be glorie for euer. Amen.

The. xii. Chapter.

The swete conuersacion, loue, and wo:ches of such as beleue in Christ.

I Beseech you therfore brethren, by þe mercifulnes of God, & ye make your bodys a quick sacrifice holy and acceptable vnto God: whych is your reasonable seruyng of God: and satisfaction not your selues lyke vnto thys worlde but be ye chaunged in your shape, by the renuyng of your mynde, that ye maye proue what thinge that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God is. For I saye (thorow the grace that vnto me geue is) to euery man amonge you, that no man stande hye in his owne conceyte, moze then it becometh hym to esteeme of hym selfe: but so iudge of hym selfe, that he be gentle and sober, accordyng as God hath deale to euery man the measure of sayth.

For as we haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office: so we beyng many are one body in Christ, and euery man amonge our selues, one anothers members. * * * * * Seynge that we haue dyuers gyftes accordyng to the grace that is geue vnto vs: yf any man haue the gyfte of propheteyp let him haue it that it be agreing vnto þe sayth. * Let hym that hath an office, wryte on hys office. Let hym that teacheth, take hede to hys doctrine. Let hym that exhorteth, geue attendaunce to his exhortacion. If any man geue, let him do it wth synghleness. Let hym that ruleth, do it wth diligence. If any man shewe mercy, let him do it wth cheerfulnes. Let loue be wthout dissimulation. Hate þe whych is euill, & cleaue vnto þe whych is good. Be kynde one to another wth brotherly loue. * In geuyng honoure, go one before another. * Be not slouthful in the busynesse whych ye haue in hande. Be feruent in the sperte. Applye your selues to the tyme Reioyce in hope. Be pacient in tribulacion. Continue in prayer: Distribute vnto the necessitie of the sayntes: * be ready to harbour. * Blesse them whych persecute you: blesse (I say) and curse not. Be merry wth them that are merry. Wepe also wth them that wepe. Be of lyke affectyō one towards another. Be not hye mynded: but make your selues equall to them of the lower sorte. * * * * * Be not wyle in your owne opinions. Recōpence to no mā euell for euell. Prouide afore hāde thynges honest. * (not onely before God, but also) in the syght of all men. If it be possible, (as much as is in you) lye peaceably wth all mē. Dearly beloved, auēge not your selues, but rather geue place vnto wrath. For it is wyrtten: * vengeance is myne, I wyl rewarde, sayeth the Lorde.

Therfore, yf thyn enemye hōger, fede him: yf he thyrst, geue hym dryncke. For in so doyng thou shalt heape coles of fyre on hys head. Be not ouercom of euell, but overcome euell, wth goodnes. *

The. xiii. Chapter. *

The obedyence of men vnto theyr rulers. * None hateth þe lawe. It is now no tyme to be: wthout þe wo:ches of darkness Et euery soule submyt him self vnto the auctorite of the hyer powers. For * ther is no power but of God. The powers that be are ordeyned of God. Who soeuer therfore respyeth power, respyeth þe ordinaunce of God. But they þe respyte, shall receaue to them selfe damnacion. For rulers are not fearefull to them that do good, but to them that do euell. Wylte thou be wthout feare of the power? Do well then: and so shalt thou be prayd of the same. For he is the minister of God, for thy welth. But and yf thou do that whych is euell, then feare: for he beareth not the swearde, for nought: for he is the minister of God, to take vengeance on him that doth euell. Therfore, ye must nedes obeie, not onely for feare of vengeance: but also because of conscience. And euen for this cause paye ye tribute. For they are Goddes ministers, seruyng for the same purpose. *

Geue to euery man therfore his due: * tribute to whō tribut belongeth: custome, to whome custome is due: feare, to whome feare belongeth: honoure, to whome honoure pertaineth. * Owe nothpyng to any man: but thys, that you loue one another. For þe that loueth another hath fulfilled the lawe for these commaundmentes. ¶ Thou shalt not commit aduontry: thou shalt not kyl: thou shalt not steale: thou shalt not bear false wit-nesse: thou shalt not lust, & so forth (yf there be any other commaundment) it is al com-prehended in thys sayenge, namely: * Loue thy neighbour as thy self. Loue hurteth not thy neighbour. Therefore is loue the fulfillynge of the lawe. ¶

¶ This also, we knowe the season how that it is tyme that we shulde nowe awake out of slepe. For nowe is our saluacion nerer then when we beleued. The nyght is passed the dape is come nye. Let vs therefore cast awaye the dedes of darkenes, and let vs put on the Armour of lyght. Let vs walke honestly as it were in the day lyght: * not in earynge and dypnyng, neyther in chaburynge and wantonnes, neyther in stryfe and enymyng: but put ye on the Lord Iesus Christ. ¶ And make not prouision for the flesh, to ful-fyll the lustres of it.

¶ The. xiiii. Chapter.

¶ The weak ought not to be despised. No man shulde despise another's conscience. Agayne, for outward things shulde no man condemne another.

In that is weake in the fayth, receyue: not in disputing & troublyng his conscience. One bele-ueth that he may eate all thing: Another which is weak eateth herbes. Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not. And let not hym whych ea-teth not, iudge him yf eateth. For god hath receyued hym. ¶ What art thou that iudgest another mans seruante whether he stande or fall, that pertayneth vnto his owne master? yea, he shalbe holden vp, that he may stande.
For God is able to make hym stande.

¶ Thys man putteth differēce betwene day and dape. Another man counteth all dapes alyke. Let euery mans mynde satisfie hym selfe. He that obserueth the dape, doth it vnto the Lord. And he that doth not obserue yf dape, doth it for the Lord also. He that ea-teth, doeth it to please the Lord, for he gyueth God thanks. And he that eateth not, eateth not to please the Lord wyth all, & geueth God thanks. For none of vs lyueth for hym selfe, & no man dyeth for hym selfe. For yf we lyue, we lyue vnto the Lord. And yf we dye, we dye vnto the Lord. Whether we lyue therefore, or dye, we are the Lordes. For Christ therfore dyed, and rose agayne, & re-uyned, that he myght be * Lord of deade & quycke.

¶ But why dost thou the iudge thy brother?
Either, why dost thou despise thy brother?
We shalbe all brought before the iudgemēt seate of Christ. For it is wyttē: as truly as I lyue sayth the Lord: * all knees shal bowe to me, & all tonges shal gyue prayse to God.

So shal euery one of vs gyue accomptes of hym selfe to God. Let vs not therefore iudge one another any moze.

But iudge thys rather, that no mā put a stombyng blocke, or an occasion to fal in hys brothers waye. For I knowe, & am fulcertified by the Lord Iesus, that there is nothyng comune of it self: but vnto hym yf iudgeth it to be comune: to him is it comune.
¶ If thy brother be grieved wth thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroye not hym wyth thy meat, for whom Christ dyed Cause not your treasure to be euil spokt of.
For the kyngdome of God is not meat and drynke: but ryght wysnes, and peace and ioy in the holy goost. For he that in these thyn-ges serueth Christ, pleaseeth God and is commended of men.

Let vs therefore folow those thyges which make for peace, and thynges wherwyth one may edify another. Destroye not the worke of God for a litel meates sake. ¶ All thynges are pure: but it is euell for that man, whych eateth wyth hurt of conscience. It is good nether to eat flesh, neither to drynke wyne, neither any thyng, whereby thy brother stombleth, either falleth, or is made weake. Hast thou sayth: haue it with thy self before god.
Happye is he, that condemneth not hym selfe, in the thyng which he alloweth. For he that maketh conscience, is damned yf he eate: because he eateth not of faith. For whatsoever is not of faith, the same is synne. ¶

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

¶ The infirmite and frailties of the weak ought to be borne wyth all loue and kynndes, after the ensample of Christ.

¶ Which are strōge ought to beare the frailties of the which are weak, and not to stande in our owne concey-tes Let euery mā please his neighbour vnto his welch and edifyenge. For Christ pleased not hym selfe: but as it is wyttē.
¶ The rebukes of them whych rebuked the, fel on me. ¶ Whatsoeuer thynges are wyt-ten afore tyme, they are wyttē for our ler-nyng, that we thow wth patience and cōfōrt of the scriptures, myght haue hope.

¶ The God of patience & cōsolation, graūt you, to be lyke mynded one to wardes another, after the ensample of Christe Iesu: * yf ye all agreynge together may wth one mouth prayse God, the father of oure Lord Iesus Christ. Wherefore, receyue ye one another, as Christ receyued vs, to the prayse of God.
And thys I saye, yf Iesus Christ was a ministre of the circumcision for yf truth of God to conferme the promyses made vnto the fathers: * that yf gentyls myght prayse God for hys mercy, as it is wyttē. ¶ For thys cause

* Math. x. 1.
Actes. x. 1.
1. Tyme. iiii. 1.
Marke. vii. 1.

* 1. Cor. x. 1.

* Sala. vi. 1.

* 1. Cor. x. 1.
1. Roma. xii. 1.

* 1. Cor. x. 1.

* Deute. x. 1.
1. 1. Cor. x. 1.
1. Gal. vi. 1.

The Epistle

* deut. xxxiii.
* 10. ca. xlii. a

* 2. cap. xi. a cause I wyl prayse the amonge the gentils, & synge vnto thy name. And agayne he saith * reioyce ye gentylls wth hys people. And a-gayne, & prayse the Lorde all ye gentylls, and laude hym al ye nacions together. And a-gayne Elap sayth: there shal be the rote of Iesse, & he shal ryse to raygne ouer the gentylls: in him shal the gentylls trust. The God of hope fyll you wth al ioye and peace in beleuyng: that ye may be ryche in hope, thow the power of the holy goost. R

I my selfe am ful certified of you (my bzethren) that ye also are full of goodnes, & fylled wth all knowlege, wyllyng to exhort one another. Neuerthelesse (bzethren) I haue somewhat moze boldlye wyrtten vnto you, partly to put you in remembraunce, tho-rowe the grace that is gyue me of God, that I shulde be y minister of Iesu Christ amoge the gentylls, and shulde minister the Gospel of God, y the offryng of the gentylls myght be acceptable, & sanctified by the holy goost I haue therfore wherof I maye reioyce tho-row Christ Iesu, in those thynges which per-tayne to God. For I dare not speake of any of those thynges, wherby Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the gentylls obedient, wth worde and dede, in myghty signes and wonders, by the power of the sperte of God: so that from Ierusalem & the coastes rourke about vnto Illiricum, I haue fylled all countreys wth the Gospel of Christ.

* 2. cap. xii. b.
and. 1. b. a.
Roma. i. b.

So haue I enforced my selfe to preache y Gospel, not where Christ was named, least I shulde haue buyt on another mans foundacion: but as it is wyrtte: * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall se: and they y hearde not, shall vnderstande. For this cause I haue bene ofte let (and am let as yet) that I coude not come vnto you: but nowe, seynge I haue nomoze to do in these countreys, and also haue ben despyous many peres to come vnto you, whensoever I take my iourney in to Spayne, I wyl come to you. For I trust to se you in my iourney, & to be brought on my waye thitherward by you, after that I haue somewhat enioyed your acquayntaunce.

* Actes. xi. b.
and. xlii. b.
1. Cor. xlii. a.
11. Cor. vii. a.
and. xi. a

Nowe go I vnto Ierusalem, and minister vnto the sayntes. For it hath pleased the of Macedonia & Achaia to make a certayne distribucion vpon the pooze sayntes, which are at Ierusalem. It hath pleased them vey-ly, and they detters are they. For yf the getylls be made partetakers of they spirituell thynges, they dute is to minister vnto the in bodely thynges. Wherfore I haue performed this, and haue brought them they frute sealed, I wyl come backe agayne by you into Spayne. I am sure that when I come vnto you, I shall come wth aboundaunce of the blessynge of the Gospel of Christ. R I besech you bzethren for our Lorde Iesu Christes sake, & for the loue of the sperte, that ye helpe me in my busynes wth your prayers to God for me, that I may be deliuered fro them which beleue not in Ierow: & that this my seruice, wherby I haue to do at Ierusalem maye be accepted of the sayntes, that I may come vnto you with ioye, by the wyl of god and maye with you be refreshed. The God * of peace be wth you all. Amen. R

The xvi. Chapter.

A chapter of salutations. He warneth them to be ware of mens doctrine, and commendeth vnto the sayntes godly men, that were iourers and bzethren in the truth.

Commende vnto you vbebe our syster (which is a minister of the congregaciō of Echrea) that ye receaue her in Christ, as it becometh sayn-tes, and that ye assist her in whatsoever busines she nedeth of your ayde For she hath suckered many, & myne owne selfe also. Grete Paulca and Aquila my helpers in Christ Iesu, wherby haue for my lyfe layde downe they owne neckes. Vnto whome not I onely gyue thanks, but also al the cogregacions of the gentils. I praye grete the congregacion that is in they house. Salute my welbeloued Ephnetes, which is y first frute of Achaia in Christ. Grete Mary wherby bestowed much labour on vs. Salute Andronicus and Junia my cosyns, and prisoners wth me also: wherby are wel taken amoge the Apostles, and were in Christ before me. Grete Amplias my beloued in y Lorde. Salute Urban our helper in Christ, and Stachis my beloued. Salute Appelles approued in Christ: Salute them thre, wherby are of Aristobolus household.
Salute Herodion my kynsmā. Grete them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lorde. Salute Tripheia & Tri-phosa, which laboure in the Lorde. Salute y beloued Persis, which laboured much in the Lorde. Salute Rufus chosen in y Lorde, and his mother & myne. Grete Asyncritus, y dilegon, herman, Patrobas, Mercurius, & the bzethren wherby are wth the. Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus and hys syster, & Olympa, & all the sayntes wherby are wth them. * Salute one another w an holy kyse The congregacions of Christ salute you.

* I beseeche you bzethren, marke them which cause diuision & gyue occasiōs of euil cōtrary to y doctrine, which ye haue lerned: & auoide them. For they y are such, serue not the Lorde Iesu Christ, but they owne bellyes, & wth swete and flatteringe wordes, deceiue the hertes of the innocentes. For your obedience is gone abyode vnto al men.
I am glad thow no dout, of you. But yet I wolde

I wolde haue you wylse vnto that whych is good, & to be innocent as cōcernyng euell. The God of peace shall treade Satan vnder your fete shortly. The grace of our Lord Iesu Christ be wyth you.

Tymotheus my workefelowe, & Lucius and Jason, and Socrater my kynsmen salute you: I Tercius salute you, which wrot this Epistle in the Lorde. * Sapus myne boost & the boost of all þe congregacion salute you. Crastus the treasorer of the cytie, saluteth you. And Quartus a brother saluteth you. The grace of oure Lorde Iesu Christ be wyth you all. Amen.

To him that is of powder to stablishe you, accordyng to my Gospell, & preachyng of Iesu Christ in utteryng of þe mystery which was kept secrete sence þe worlde began, but now is opened by þe scriptures of þe prophe- ties at þe cōmaūdemēt of þe euerlastyng God to stee vpon obedieñce to the fayth, publyshed amonge al nacys: To the same God, whych alone is wylse, be þe honour and prayse thowde Iesu Christ for euer. Amen.

This Epistle was sent to the Romaynes from Corinthum by Phebe, the that was the mynister vnto the con- gregacion at Cenchrea.

The first Epistle of saynt Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

The fyrst Chapter.

The comendeth the Corinthians, exhorteth the to be of one mynde, & rebuketh the dyspcon that was amonge them. Worshipp wylsdomme is for the wylsdomme before God: per there is no wylsdomme but in the despyed crosse of God.

In called an Apostle of Iesu Christ, thowowe þe wyl of God, and brother Soste- nes.

Vnto the congregacyon of God whyche is at Corin- thum. To them that are sanctified by Christ Iesu called sayntes with all that call on the name of oure Lorde Iesu Christ in euerye place, ether of theys or of oures.

* Grace be vnto you & peace fro God oure father, and from the Lorde Iesu Christ.

* I thanke my God alwayes on poure behalfe, for þe grace of God whych is geuen you by Iesu Christ, þe in all thynges ye are made ryche by hym, in all vteracye & in all knowledge, by the whych thynges the testi- mony of Iesu Christ was cōfirmed in you, so that ye are behynde in no gyft, waityng for the appearng of oure Lorde Iesu Christ, whych shall also strength you vnto the ende, that ye maye be bl- melesse in the dape. (of the commyng) of oure Lorde Iesu Christ. * God is saythfull, by whome ye are called vnto the felowshyp of hys sonne Iesu Christ oure Lorde. I beseeche you bre- thren by þe name of our Lorde Iesu Christ, that ye all speake one thyng, and that there be no dissencion amonge you: but þe ye maye be a whole body: of one mynde & of one mea- nyng. For it is thewed vnto me (my bre- thren) of you, by them whych are of þe house of Cloe, that there is stryfe amonge you. I speake of þe same þe euery one of you sayeth: I holde of Paul: I holde of * Apollo: I hold of Cephas: I holde of Christ. Is Christ de- upped: Was Paul crucified for you: eyther were ye baptyled in the name of Paul: I thanke God, þe I baptyled none of you, but Crispus & Sapus: lest any shulde saye, that I had baptyled in myne owne name. I bap- tyled also the house of Stephana. Further- moze knowe I not, whether I baptyled any man. (of you) or no.

For Christ sent me not to baptyse, but to C preache þe Gospell, not w wylsdomme of wor- des lest the crosse of Christ shulde haue bene made of none effecte. For the preachyng of the crosse, is to them þe perpshe, foolysnes: but vnto vs whych are saued * it is þe power of God. For it is wyrtten: * I wyll destroye the wylsdomme of þe wylse, & wyll caste awaye the vnderstandyng of þe pyudent. Where is the wylse: * Where is the scribe: Where is the dysputer of thys worlde: Hath not God made þe wylsdomme of thys worlde foolysnes:

For after that the worlde thowowe wyls- dome knew not God, in þe wylsdomme of God, it pleased God thowowe foolysnes of prea- chyng, to saue them that beleue. For * the Jewes requyre a signe, and the Grekes seke after wylsdomme. But we preach Christe cru- cifed, vnto þe Jewes an occasiō of fallyng, and vnto the Grekes foolysnes: but vnto them whych are called both of the Jewes & Grekes, we preach Christe the power of god and the wylsdomme of God. For the foolys- nes of God, is wyser then me: and the weak- nes of God is stronger then men. Brethren, ye se your callyng how that not many wylse men after the flesch, not many myghtye, not many of hye degree, are called: But God hath chosen the folysch thynges of the worlde to confounde the wylse. And God hath cho- sen the weake thynges of the worlde to con- founde thynges whiche are myghtye. And vyle thynges of the worlde, and thynges whych are despyed, hath God chosen, yet, & thynges of no reputacion, for to byng to nought thynges of reputacion, that no flesch shulde reioyce in hys presence. And of hym are ye, in Christ Iesu, whiche of God is made vnto vs, wylsdomme, and ryght wysnes, & sa- crifice, and redempcion. That accordyng as it is wyrtten: he whych reioyce shuld reioyce in the Lorde.

It is as it

The.ii. Chapter.

It is not eloquence and glorious painted wordes of worldly wysdome, that can dyspayre & conuerter soules vnto Christ, but the plain wordes of the scripture for they make mention of hym and hys crosse.

Ad I bryethen (whē I came to you) came not in gloriousnes of wordes, or of wysdome, shewyng vnto you the testimony of God. Neither shewed I my selfe I knew any thyng amonge you, saue Iesus Christ, euen the same that was crucified. And I was amonge you in weaknes, and in feare, and in much tremblinge. And my wordes and my preachyng was not wentyng wordes of mannes wysdome: but in the wyng of the sprete and of power, that your fayth shuld not stande in the wysdome of men, but in the power of God.

We speake of wysdome amonge them that are perfyte: not the wysdome of thys worlde, neither of the rulers of thys worlde (whych go to nought) but we speake the wysdome of God, whych is in secretes & lpyth hpyd, whych God ordeyned before the worlde, vnto oure glozpe: which wysdome none of the rulers of thys worlde knewe. For had they had knowledge, they wolde not haue crucified the Lorde of glozpe. But (as it is wyrtten,) * The eye hath not sene, and the eare hath not heard, neither haue entred into the herte of man, the thynges whych God hath prepared for them that loue hym.

But God hath opened them vnto vs by hys sprete. For the sprete searcheth al thynges, pee the bottome of Goddes secretes. For what man knoweth the thynges of a man: saue the sprete of man whych is within hym: Eue so the thynges of God knoweth no man, but the sprete of God. And we haue not receaued the sprete of the worlde: but the sprete whych cometh of God, for to know the thynges that are gyfte to vs of God: which thynges also we speake (not wyth wordes that mannes wysdome teacheth, but wyth wordes whych the holy goost doth teach) makinge spirituall comparisouns of spirituall thynges. The naturall man perceaueth not the thynges that belonge to the sprete of God. For they are but folysnes vnto hym. Neither can he perceauē them, because they are spirituallly examined. But he that is spiritual, discusseth al thynges: yet he hymselfe is iudged of no mā. * For who hath knowen the mynde of the Lorde, eyther who shall informe him: But we vnderstande the mynde of Christ.

The.iii. Chapter.

Paul rebuketh the sectes & saith vnto them, Christ is the foundacion of hys church. No man ought to reioyce in men, but in God.

Ad I could not speake (vnto you bryethen) as vnto spirituall: but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ. * I gaue you mylke to drynke, & not meate. For ye then were not stronge, nether are ye as yet. For ye are yet carnall. As longe were ly as there is amonge you eueryng, & stryfe and sectes: are ye not carnall, and walke after the maner of men: For whyle one sayeth I hold of Paul, & another: I am of * Apollo are ye not carnall: What is Paul: What thyng is Apollo: onely mynisters are they by whom ye beleue, euen as the Lorde gaue euery man grace. I haue planted, Apollo watred: but God gaue the encrease. So the nether is he that planteth any thyng, nether he that watreth, but God that geueth the encrease. He that planteth & he that watreth, are one. Euery man yet shall receaue hys rewarde, accordyng to hys laboure. For we are Goddes labourers, ye are Goddes husbande, ye are Goddes buyldyng: Accordyng to the grace of God geuen vnto me, as a wyle buylder haue I layde the foundacion. And another buyldeth thereon. But let euery mā take hede, howe he buyldeth vpon. For another foundacion can no man laye, then it that is layde: which is Iesus Christ. If any man buyld on this foundacion, gold, syluer, precious stones, tymber, haye or stoble: euery mannes worke shal appeare. For the daye shall declare, whych shal be shewed in fyre. And the fyre shall trye euery mannes worke, what it is. If any mannes worke be hath buyld vpon, vpon, he shal receaue a rewarde. If any mannes worke burne, he shal suffre losse, but he shal be safe hym selfe: neuer thelesse, yet as it were thowowe fyre.

* Knowe ye not that ye are the temple of God, and how that the sprete of God dwelleth in you: If any man defyle the temple of God, hym shall God destroye. For the temple of God, is holy, whych temple ye are. Let no mā deceaue hym selfe. If any mā seme wyle to hym selfe amonge you, let hym become a foole in thys worlde, that he maye be wyle. For the wysdome of thys worlde is folysnes wyth God. For it is wyrtten: * he cōspireth the wyle in theyr craftynes: And againe, * God knoweth the thoughtes of the wyle, that they be vayne. Therefore, let no man reioyce in men. For all thynges are poures, whether it be Paul, eyther Apollo, eyther Cephas: whether it be the worlde, eyther lpyte, eyther deeth, whether they be presente thynges, or thynges to come: all are poures: and ye are Christes, and Christ is Goddes.

The.iiii. Chapter.

The preachers are but mynisters. Judgement becometh only vnto God.

Let

Et I am thus wylle esteeme vs, euen as the mynisters of Christe, & stewardestes of the secretes of God. Furthermore it is requyred of the stewardestes that a man be founde faythfull. Wth me is it but a very small thyng that I shulde be iudged of you, ether of mans iudgement. No I iudge not myne owne selfe. For I knowe nought by my selfe: yet am I not thereby iustified. It is y^e Lorde that iudgeth me. Therefore iudge nothyng before y^e tyme vntyl the Lorde come, whych wyl lpghten thynges that are hyd in darkenes, & open the counsels of the hartes. And then shal euey man haue praple of God. ¶

These thynges (brethren) I haue for an ensample described in myne owne persone, & in Apollos, for poure sakes, that ye myghte learne by vs, y^e no man counte of hym selfe beyonde y^e, which is aboute wyttē: that one shal not agaynst another for any mā's cause: for who preferreth the? What hast thou, that thou hast not receaued? If thou haue receaued it, why reioycest thou, as though y^e hadde it not receaued it? Nowe ye are full: nowe ye are made ryche: ye raygne as kynnges wthout vs: and I wold to God ye dyd raygne, that we myghte raygne wth you.

For me thynketh, that God hath set forth vs, whych are y^e last Apostles, as it were men appoynted to death. For we are a gyltynge stocke vnto the worlde, and to y^e Angells, and to mē. We are foolles for Christes sake, but ye are wylle thowwe Christ. We are weake, but ye are stronge. Ye are honorable, but we are despyled. Euen vnto this tyme we hunger & thirst, and are naked, and are bofeted wth fysses, & haue no certayne dwellinge place, and labour, & woxyngge wth our owne handes. We are reuyled, & yet we blesse. We are persecuted, & suffer it. We are euell spoken of, and we praye. We are made as it were y^e fylthynes of y^e worlde the offcoursynge of, all thynges, euen vnto this daye.

I wyte not these thynges, to shame you: but as my beloued sones I warne you. For though ye haue ten thousande instructours in Christ: yet haue ye not many fathers. In Christ Iesu I haue begotten you thowwe y^e Gospel. Wherefore, I desyre you to folow me, as I folowe Christ. For this cause haue I sent vnto you Tymotheus, whych is my deare sonne, & faythfull in the Lorde, whych shal put you in remembraunce of my wayes that I haue in Christ, euen as I teach euery where in all cōgregacions. Some well, as though I wolde come nomore at you. But I wyl come to you shortly: y^e God wyl: & wyl knowe, not the wordes of them which well, but y^e power: for y^e kyngdome of God is not in wordes, but in power. ¶ What wyl ye? Shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or els in loue and in the sprete of softnesse?

The. v. Chapter.

¶ After what maner Paul cures the man, that had committed fornicacion wth his mother in lawe.

Here goeth a comen sayeng, that there is fornicacion amōge y^e, & a such fornicacion, as is not named amōge the gentyls: y^e one shulde haue his fathers wyfe. And ye well, and haue not rather forwed: y^e he which hath done this dede, myghte be put frō amonge you. For I verely as absent in body, but present in sprete, haue determined already (as though I were present) concernynge hym y^e hath done this dede, in the name of our Lorde Iesu Christ, wher ye are gathered together, & my sprete wth you, wth the power of y^e Lorde Iesu Christ: to deliuer hym vnto Satan, for the destruction of the fleshe, that the sprete maye be saued in the daye of the Lorde Iesus.

Poure reioysynge is not good: knowe ye not, that a lytle leuen soweth the whole lōpe of dowe? Pourge therefore the old leuen y^e ye maye be newe dow, as ye are swete bread. For Christe oure passouer is offered vp for vs. Therefore, let vs kepe holy daye, not wth olde leuen, neither wth the leuen of malicpousnes and wyckenesse: but wth the swete breade of purenes and truethe.

I wrote vnto you in a pylle, y^e ye shulde not company wth fornicatours. And I meant not at all of y^e fornicatours of this worlde, ether of the couetouse, or extorsioners, ether the ydolaters: for then muste ye nedes haue gone out of y^e worlde. But nowe I did wyte vnto you, that ye company not together, if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator: or couetouse, or a woxyngge of ymagines, ether a rayler, ether a dyonchard, or an extorsioner: wth hym that is suche, let that ye eate not. For what haue I to do, to iudge them y^e are wthout. Do ye not iudge them that are within? Them that are wthout, God iudgeth. But away the euell frō amonge you.

The. vi. Chapter.

¶ He rebuketh them for goyng to lawe to gether before the heathen and rejoyceth they be cleynesse.

Are one of you haunyng busynesse wth another, go to lawe vnder y^e wycked, and not rather vnder the sayntes? Do ye not knowe, that the sayntes shal iudge the worlde? If the worlde shal be iudged by you: are ye not good ynough to iudge smal tryples? knowe ye not howe that we shal iudge y^e aungels? howe muche more, maye we iudge thynges that pertyne to the lyfe? If ye haue iudgementes of worldly matters, take the which are

¶ It is despi-

The fyrst Epistle

despyled in the congregacion, and make them iudges. Thys I saye to youre shame. Is there utterly no wyle mā amonge you? What not one at al, that can iudge betwene brother and brother, but one brother goeth to lawe wyth another: and that vnder the vnbelaueys?

Nowe therfore, there is utterly a faute amonge you, because ye go to lawe one wyth another. Why rather suffer ye not wronge? Why rather suffer ye not your selues to haue harme: naye, ye your selues do wronge, and robbe: & that yf brethren. Do ye not knowe, howe yf the vnrightheous shall not inheret yf kyngdome of God: Be not deceaued. For neither fornicatours, neither wythpyppers of ymages, neither aduocaters, neither weak ynges, neither abusers of them selues wyth mankynde, neither theues, neither couetous, neyther dyonkardes, neither cursed speakers, neither pyllers, shall inheret the kyngdome of God. And such were some of you, but ye are washed: but ye are sanctified: but ye are iustified by the name of the Lorde Iesus, & by the sprete of our God.

I maye do all thynges, but *all thynges are not profitable. I maye do all thynges: but I wyl be brought vnder no mā's power. Meates are ordeyned for the belly, & the belly for meates: but God shall destroye both it and them. Let not the body be applyed vnto fornicacion, but vnto the Lorde, & the Lord vnto yf body. God hath rapled vp the Lord, and shall raple vs vp by hys power.

Ether knowe ye not, yf your bodies are the membres of Christ: shall I not take the membres of Christ, and make them the membres of an harlot: God forbidd. Do ye not knowe, that he whych coupleth hym selfe w an harlote, is become one body: & for two (sayeth he) shall be one fleche. But he that is iopned vnto the Lorde is one sprete.

Fle fornicacion. Every synne that a man doth, is wythout the body. But he that is a fornicator, synneth against his owne body. Ether knowe ye not, howe yf your bodies are the temple of the holy goost, whych dwelleth in you, whome ye haue of God, & howe that ye are not your owne: For ye are dearly bought. Therfore glorifye God in youre bodies, and in your spretes, which are Gods. H

The vii. Chapter.

Of marriage, virginitie, and wydothbrade.

A concernynge the thynges wherof ye wrote to me: *it is good for a mā, not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to a noyde whozdom let euery mā haue his wyfe: & let euery woman haue her husband. Let the husband gyue vnto yf wyfe due benenolēce. Lyke wyfe also to the wyfe vnto yf husband. The wyfe hath not power of her owne body: but yf husband. And lyke wyfe yf husband hath not power of his owne body: but the wyfe. *Wythdrawe not your selues one fro another, excepte it be wyth consent for a tyme, for to geue your selues to fastynge & prayer. And afterwarde come together agayne, lest Satan tēpt you for your incontinency. H

Thys I saye of fauoure, and not of commaundement. For I wolde that all mē were as I my selfe am: but euery mā hath his proper gyfte of God, one after thys maner, another after that. I saye vnto them that be vnmарyed and wyddowes: it is good for the, yf they abyde eue as I do. But and yf they can not abstayne, let the mary. For it is better to mary, then to burne.

Vnto the maryed comaūde, not I, but the Lorde: *let not the wyfe be seperated from the husband. Yf she seperate her selfe, let her remayne vnmарyed, or be reconcyled vnto her husband agayne. And let not the husbande put awaye hys wyfe from hym.

To the remnaunt speake I, not the Lord. Ef any brother haue a wyfe yf beleueth not, yf she be content to dwell with him, let hym not put her awaye. And the woman whiche hath to her husbande an infidele, & consent to dwell wyth her, let her not put hym awaye. For the vnbelaueyng husbande is sanctified by yf wyfe, & the vnbelaueyng wyfe is sanctified by the husbande. Ours were your children vncleane: but nowe are they holpe. But and yf the vnbelaueyng departe, let him departe. A brother or a syster is not in subiectiō to such. But god hath called vs in peace. For howe knowest thou (o womā) whether thou shalt saue thy husbande or no: Ether howe knowest thou (o man) whether thou shalt saue thy wyfe or no: but euen as God hath distributed to euery man.

As the Lorde hath called euery man, so let hym walke: and so ordeyne I in al congregacions. Yf any man be called beyng circūcised, let hym not adde vncircūcision. Yf any be called vncircūcised, let hym not be circūcised. Circūcision is nothyng, and vncircūcision is nothyng: but the keepynge of yf commaundementes of God.

Let euery man abyde in the same callinge, wherin he was called. *Art thou called a seruaunt: care not for it. Nevertheless yf thou mayest be fre, vse it rather. For he that is called in the Lorde, beyng a seruaunt, is the Lordes freman. Lyke wyfe he that is called beyng fre, is Christes seruaunt. Ye are dearly bought, be not ye the seruantes of men. Brethren, let euery man wherin he is called, the same abyde wyth God. If as concernynge xij. I haue no commaundement

*Gala. b. 2. l. 1.
Eph. b. 4.

Ecl. xxi. 11.
1. Cor. vi. 12.

*1. Cor. xii. 13.

1. Gene. ii. 2.
Math. xix. 4.
Marke. x. 2.
Eph. b. 5.

*Eph. b. 5.

*1. Tim. ii. 15.

*Eph. b. 5.

*Eph. b. 5.

*1. Tim. ii. 15.

dement of the Lorde: yet gyue I counsel, as one that hath obtayned mercy of the Lorde, to be fapthfull. I suppose therfore that it is good for the present necessite. For it is good for a man so to be. Arre thou bounde vnto a wyfe: seke not to be loosed. Arre thou loosed from a wyfe, seke not a wyfe. But if thou marry a wyfe, thou hast not synned. Lykewyse, if a virgyn marry, she hath not synned. He whicheleue suche shall haue trouble in theyr selues: but I fauoure you.

Thys saue I bryeth: the tyme is short.
It remayneth, that they which haue wyues be as though they had none: & they that wepe, be as though they wept not: & they that re-ioyce, be as though they reioyced not: & they that bye, be as though they possessed not: & they that vse thys worlde, be as though they used it not. For the fashion of thys worlde goeth awaye. & I wolde haue you without care. He that is vnmarrjed, careth for the thynges that belonge to the Lorde, howe he maye please the Lorde. But he that hath married a wyfe careth for the thynges that are of the worlde, howe he maye please his wyfe. There is difference betwene a virgyn and a wyfe.
The synge woman careth for the thynges that are of the Lorde, that she maye be holy both in bodye & also in sperte: Agayne: she is married, careth for the thynges that pertaine to the worlde, howe she maye please her husbād.
Thys I saye for your profyte, not to tangle you in a snare: but that ye maye followe it whych is honest and comly, and that ye maye cleaue vnto the Lorde without separacion.

If any man thinke that it is vncomly for his virgyn, if she passe the tyme of marriage, and if so nede requyre, let him do what he ly-keth, he synneth not: let them be coupled in marriage. Neuertheless he that purposeth su-erly in hys herte, hauynge no nede: but hath power ouer his owne wyl: & hath so decreed in his herte, that he wyl kepe his virgyn, doth well. So the, he that ioyneth his virgyn in ma-riage doth well. But he that ioyneth not hys virgyn in marriage, doth better. The wyfe is bounde to the marriage, as longe as her husbande lyueth. If her husbāde dye, she is at libertie to marry with whom she wyl, onely in the Lorde. But she is happier, if she so a-byde, after my iudgement. And I thinke ve-rely, that I haue the sperte of God.

The viii. Chapter.

He rebueth them that vse libertie to the chas-tite of other, and sheweth howe men ought to behaue the-mselfe such as be weak.

As touchynge thynges offered vnto ymages, we are sure that we all haue knowlege. Knowlege maketh a man swell: but loue edifyeth. If any man thynke that he knoweth any thyng, he knoweth no thyng yet as he ought to know. But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of hym.

As concerning eating of those thynges are offered vnto ydols, we are sure, that the ymage is nothyng in the worlde & ther is none other God, but one. And though ther be that are called Goddes, whether in heauē other in earth (as ther be goddes many, and Lordes many) yet vnto vs is there but one God, which is father, of who are all thynges, & we for him: & one Lorde Iesus Christ, by who are al thynges, and we by him. But euery man hath not knowlege. Some hauynge cōscience because of the ymage, vntil this houre, eat as a thyng offered vnto ymages: so they cōscience beyng weak is despised. But meat maketh vs not acceptable to God. Neither if we eate, are we the better.
Neither if we eate not, are we the worse.

But take hede, lest by any meanes this liberty of yours be an occasiō of falling to the ye are weak. For if some mā se that which hath knowlege, yet and eate of meate offered vnto ymages, shall not cōscience of him which is weak, be boldened to eate those thynges, which are offered to ymages: And so thorow thy knowlege shall thou weake brother perishe, for whom Christ dyed. When ye synne so against your brethren, & woulde they be weak cō-science, ye sinne against Christ. Wherefore if meat hurt my brother, I wyl neuer eat flesh lest I shoulde offende my brother.

The ix. Chapter.

Our lord rebueth the thyng that he maye do by the lawe. He rebueth them to runne on forth in the course that they haue begonne.

Am I not an Apostle? am I not fre: & haue I not sene Iesus Christe oure Lorde: Are ye not my worke in the Lorde? If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet am I vnto you. For the seale of myne Apostleshyp are ye in the Lorde. Wyne and were to them that aske me, is thys. Haue we not power to eate and to drynke: Haue we not power to leade about a woman a syster, as well as other Apostles, & as the brethren of the Lorde, & Cephas: Either onely I & Barnabas haue not power thys to do: Altho goeth a warfare any tyme at hys owne cost: who planteth a vyneyard, and eateth not of the frute therof: Or who feedeth a flocke and eateth not of the mylke of the flocke:

Saye I these thynges after the maner of me: Sayth not the law the same also: For it is wrytten in the lawe of Moyses. Thou shalt not moue thy mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne. Both God take thought for oren: Sayeth he it not altogether for oure sakes: For our sakes no doute this is wrytten: that he which careth shoulde care in hope and that he which threlieth in hope, shoulde be partaker of hys hope. If we lowe vnto you spirituall thynges, is it a great thyng if we reape your bodely thynges: If other I will be par-

*1. Corin. x. c

*1. cor. vii. g

*1. Tim. v. d

*1. Tim. ii. a

*Deut. xxi. b 1. Tim. v. c

*1. Tim. vi. b
1. Tim. vi. c be partakers of thys power ouer you, wher foze are not we rather?

* Actes. ix. a

Neuerthelesse we haue not vled thys po wer: but suffer al thinges, lest we shulde hin der the Gospell of Christ. Do ye not knowe, do w^e they which minister about holy thyn ges lyue of the sacrifice: They which wayte of the tēple, are partakers of the tēple. Eue so also dyd y^e Lozde o^rdayne: * y^e they whych preach the Gospell, shulde lyue of y^e Gospell.

* Math. x. b

* Actes. ix. g

* I. Cor. ii. e

* II. Cor. iii. b

* But I haue vled none of these thynge s. Neuertheles I wrote not these thynge s, y^e it shulde be so done vnto me. For it were bet ter for me to dye, then y^e any mā shulde take thys reioysynge fro me. For yf I preach the Gospell, I haue nothynge to reioyce of. For necessite is put vnto me. But w^e is it vnto me, yf I preach not the Gospell. Yf I do it w^e a good wyl, I haue a rewarde. But yf I do it agaynst my wyl, an offyce is comyted vnto me. What is my rewarde then? Verely y^e when I preache the Gospell, I make y^e Gos pell of Christ fre. y^e I my selfe not myne au thorite in the Gospell.

* Act. xli. a Gala. ii. a.

No, though I be fre fro all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men, that I myght wyne the mō. * Vnto the Jewes, I became as a Jewe, to wyne the Jewes.
To them that were vnder the lawe, was I made as though I had bene vnder the lawe * (when I was not vnder the lawe) to wyne them that were vnder the lawe. To the that wer wythout lawe, became I as though I had bene wythout lawe (when I was not with out lawe as pertaynyng to God, but vnder the lawe of Christ) to wyne the y^e were with out lawe. To the weake became I as weake to wyne the weake. In all thynge s I fashioned my selfe to al men, to saue at y^e least waye some. And thys I do for the Gospels sake, that I myght haue my parte therof.

* I. Cor. ix. g

* II. Cor. xli. b

* I. Cor. v. b

* Perceauē ye not, how that they whych ruine in a course, rūne al, but one receaueth the rewarde? So rūne, that ye may obtayne Euery mā y^e proueth masteries, abstayneth fro al thynge. And they do it to obtayne a crowne that shal perysh: but we to obtayne an euerlastyng crowne. I therfore so rūne, not as at an vncertaine thynge. So fight I not as one that beateth y^e ayer: but I tame my body, & bynge it into subieccion, lest by any meanes it come to passe, y^e when I haue preached to other, I my selfe shulde be a cast awaye.

Chrysostom's Chapter.

He feareth them w^eth the ensamples of the olde testa ment, and exhorteth them to a Godly conuersation.

* I

Brethren, I wolde not that ye shulde be ignoraunt, howe that our fathers were al vnder the cloud, and al passed thorow the see, and were all baptyfled vn der Moyses * in a cloude and * in the see: and

* I. Cor. xlii. b
* I. Cor. xliii. e

* dyd all eate of one spirituall meate and dyd all drynke of one maner of spiritu all drynke. And they dranke of that spiritu all rocke that folowed them, * whych rocke was Christ. I But in many of them had God no helyte: for they were ouerthrowe in the wylernes.

These are ensamples to vs, * that we shuld not lust after euil thynge, as they lu sted. And y^e ye shulde not be worshyppers of ymages, as were some of the, accordyng as it is writte: * The people sat downe to eat & drynke, & rose vp to playe. Nether let vs be despyled w^e fornicaciō, as some of the were despyled wyth fornicacion, & fell in one daye * xlii. thousand. Nether let vs tēpte Christe, as some of the tēted, & were destroyed of ser pentes. Nether murmur ye, as some of them murmured, & were destroyed of y^e destroyer.

All these thinges happened vnto the for en sables, but they are writte to put vs i remē braunce, whō y^e endes of the worlde are come vpon. Wherefore, let him y^e thynketh he stan deth, take hede, lest he fal. Ther hath none other tēptacion takē you, but such as folo weth y^e nature of man. But * God is sayth full: whych shal not suffre you to be tēpted aboue poure strength: but shal in y^e myddes of the tēptacion make a waye, y^e ye may be able to beate it. I Wherefore my deare belo ued, fye from worshyppynge of ymages.

I speake as vnto them which haue discre cion, iudge ye what I saye. Is not the cup of blessynge whych we bleste, partakynge of y^e bloude of Christ? is not the bread whych we breake, partakynge of the body of Christ? because y^e we (though we be many) yet are one bread & one bodye, in as much as we all are partakers of one bread: * (and of one cup.) Beholde Israel after the flesch. Are not they which eat of y^e sacrifice, partakers of y^e tēple

What saye I then? * y^e the ymage is any thynge: or that it whych is offered to yma ges, is any thynge? Aye, but this I saye: y^e the thynge whiche the getyls offer, they of fer to deuils, and not to God.

I wolde not that ye shuld haue fellow shyppe wyth y^e deuils. Ye can not drynke of the cup of y^e Lozde, and of the cup of deuyls.
Ye can not be the partakers of the Lozdes ta ble, and of the table of deuils. Ether do we prouoke the Lozde? Are we stronger the he?
I maye do all thynge, but * all thynge are not expedient. I maye do all thynge, but al thynge edifye not. * Let noman seke that whych is hys owne: but let euery man seke that whych belongeth to another.

What soeuer is solde in the fleshe mar ket, that eate, and aske no question for conscience sake. For the earth is the Loz des, and all that therein is. Yf any of them whych be beleu^e t, byd you to a feast, and ye be ye be disposed to go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, askyng no questyon for conscience sake. But and yf eny man saye vnto you: this is offered vnto ymages, eate not of it for his sake that sheweth it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lordes and all that therein is. Conscience I saye, not thynne, but of the other. For why is my lybertye, iudged of another mannes conscience? For yf I take my parte with thākes, why am I euill spoken of, for that thinge wherfoze I geue thākes?

Whether therfoze ye eate or dryncke, or whatsoeuer ye do, do all to the pzaple of God. For that ye geue none occasyon of euill, nether to the Jewes, nor yet to y gen-tys, nether to the congregacion of God: eue as I please all men in all thynges, not sekyng myne owne pzofer, but the pzophet of many, that they myght be saued.

¶ The .xi. Chapter.

¶ The rebuketh them for the abuse and misfozde of they had about the Sacrament of y body & bloud of Christ and dzynged them agayne to the yfll institucion.

BE ye folowers of me, as I am y follower of Christ. I commende you yezthen, that ye remember me in all thynges, and kepe the ordinances, euen as I deliuered them to you.
But I wolde haue you to knowe y Christ is the heed of euery man. And the man is the womans head. And God is Christs heed.
Euery man prapynge or pzophesyng hauynge eny thyng on hys heed, whameth hys heed. Euery woman y prapeth or pzophesyeth bare headed, dishonesteth hys head. For y is eue all one, as yf she were shauen. Yf the womā be not couered, let her also be shouen.
¶ Yf it be shame for a womā to be shouen or shauen, let her couer her head.

A man ought not to couer his heed for as moche as he is the ymage and glozy of God But the womā is the glozy of the man. For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man. Nether was the man created for the womans sake: but the womā for the mannes sake. For thys cause ought the woman to haue power on her heade, for the aungels sakes: neuerthelesse, nether is the man without the woman, nether the womā wthout the man in the Lorde. For as the woman is of the man, euen so is the man: by the woman: but all of God.

Judge in poure selues, whether it be comly that a woman prape vnto God bare headed. Woth not nature it selfe teach you, that it is ashamē for a mā yf he haue longe heere and a praple to a woman: yf she haue longe beere? For by heere is geuen her to couer her wythall. Yf any man lust to stryue, we haue no Locke custome, nether the congregacions of God.

Thys I warne you of, and commende not, that ye come not together after a better maner, but after a worse. For sytte of all when ye come together in the congregacyō, I here that there is dyscencion amonge you: and I partely beleue it. For there muste be lectes amonge you, that they which are perfect amonge you myght be knowe. ¶ When ye com together therfoze into one place, the Lordes supper can not be eaten. For euery man begynneth afoze to eate hys owne supper. And one is hungry, and another is dzyon ke. Haue ye not houses to eate and to dzyinke in? Despyse ye the cōgregacyō of God, and shame the that haue not: What shall I saye vnto you: what I praple you: In this praple I you not.

¶ That whych I deliuered vnto you, I receaued of the Lorde. For the Lorde Iesus the same nyght, in whych he was betrayed, toke bzeed: and whan he had geue thākes, he brake it and sayde: * Take ye, and eate: thys es my body, whiche is broken for you.
This do ye in the remembraunce of me. After the same maner also he toke the cup, whē supper was done, sayng: Thys cuppe is the newe testament in my bloude. Thys do as oft as ye dzyinke it, in remembraunce of me.
For as often as ye shall eate this bzeed, and dzyinke this cup: * ye shall shewe the Lordes death: tyll he come. Wherfoze, whosoeuer, that eat of this bzeed, and dzyinke of the cup of the Lorde unworthele, shall be gyltye of the body and bloude of the Lorde. * But let a man examē hym self, and so let him eate of the bzeed, and dzyinke of y cup. For he that eateth or dzyinketh unworthele, eateth and dzyinketh his owne damnacyō, because he maketh no differēce of y Lordes body. For this cause many are weake and sych amonge you, and many slepe. For yf we had iudged oure selues, we shulde not haue bene iudged But whē we are iudged of y Lorde, we are chastened, that we shulde not be dampned wyth the * worlde. Wherfoze my bzyethren whē ye come together to eate, tary one for another. Yf any man hōger, let hym eate at home, that ye come not together vnto con-demnacyō. ¶ Other thynges wyll I set in order, whē I come.

¶ The .xii. Chapter.

¶ The diuersitie of the gyftes of the holy goost geuen to the comforte and chynges of one another, as the members of a mans body serue one another.

Concernynge spiritual thynges I (bzyethen) I wold not haue you ignoraūt. ¶ Ye knowe that ye were gentyls, and went poure wayes vnto domme ymages, ¶ It v euen

tonge profeteth hym selfe: * he that propheseth, edifyeth the congregacyon. * I wolde that ye al spake with tonges: but rather that ye prophesed. For greater is he that propheseth, then he that speaketh with tonges except he expounde it: that the congregacyon maye haue edifyinge. Nowe brethren, yf I come vnto you speakyng with tonges: what shall I profet you, excepte I speake to you, ether by reuelacyon or by knowledge, or by prophesyng, or by doctrine?

Moreover, when thynges wythoute lyfe geue sound (whether it be a pipe or an harpe) except they make a distinccon in the soundes, howe shal it be knowne what is pyped or harped? For yf the trompe geue on vncer tayne voyce, who shal prepare hym selfe to the warre? Eue so like wyse when ye speake with tonges, excepte ye speake wordes that haue signyfycacyon, how shal it be vnderstande what is spokē? For ye shal but speake in the ayer.

Many kyndes of voyces are in the world, and none of them are wythout significacyon. Yf I knowe not what the voyce meaneth, I shalbe vnto hym that speaketh, an alier: and he that speaketh, shalbe an alient vnto me. Eue so ye: for as much as ye couet spretuall gyftes, seke, that ye maye excell, vnto the edifyinge of the congregacyon.

Wherefore, let hym that speaketh with tonge, praye, that he maye interpret also. For yf I praye with tōge, my sprete prayeth, but my vnderstandyng doth no good. What is it then? I wyll praye with the sprete, and wyl praye with vnderstandyng. I will synge with the sprete, and wyl synge with the vnderstandyng. For els, when thou blestest with the sprete, howe shal he that occupieth the rowme of the vnlearned, saye: Amen, at thy geuyng of thankes, sepyng he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest? Thou verely geuest thankes well, but the other is not edified. I thanke my God & I speake with tōges moze then ye all: Yet had I leuer in congregacyon to speake fpye wordes wyth my vnderstandyng to informacyon of other rather then ten thousande wordes with the tōge.

Brethren, be not ye chyliden in wytte. Howbest, as concernyng malyciousnes, be chyliden: but in wytte be perfect. In the law it is wrytten: With sondre tōges, and with sondre ppysses wyl I speake vnto this people, and yet for all that, wyl they not heare me, sayth the Lorde. Wherefore tonges are for a sygne, not to them that beleue: but to the that beleue not. Contrary wyse, prophesyng serueth not for them that beleue not: but for them whych beleue.

Wherefore, when all the congregacyon is come together, and all speake with tonges, ther come in they that are vnlearned, or they whych beleue not: wyl they not saye, that ye are out of your wyttes? But and yf all prophelye, and ther come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men. & is iudged of euery man, & so are the secretes of hys hert opened, and so falleth he downe on his face, and worshippeth God, & sayth: that God is in you of a trueth.

Howe is it then brethren? Is oft as ye come together, euery one of you hath a tōge, hath a doctryne, hath a tōge, hath a reuelacion, hath an interpretacyon. Let al thynges be don vnto edifyinge: Yf eny man speake wyth tōge, let it be by two or at the most by thre, and that by course, & let another interpret it. But yf there be no interpreter, let hym kepe sylene in the congregacyon, and let hym speake to hym selfe and to God.

Let the prophetes speake two, or thre, and let the other iudge. Yf eny reuelacyon be made to another that sytteth by, let the fyrste hold his peace. For ye maye al prophelye one by one, that all maye learne, & that al maye haue comforte. And the spretes of the Prophetes are in the power of the Prophetes. For God is not causer of stryfe: but of peace, as a (teacher) in all congregacyons of the sapientes.

Let youre women kepe sylene in the congregacyon. For it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but to be vnder obediece, as sayth the lawe. If they wyl learne eny thyng, let them aske their husbādes at home: For it is a shame for women to speake in the congregacyon. Sprōge the worde of God fro you ether came it vnto you onely? If eny man thynke hym selfe to be a prophet, ether spretuall: let hym knowe, what thynges I wryte vnto you. For they are the commaundementes of the Lorde. But and yf eny man be ignorant, let hym be ignorant. Wherefore brethren, couet to prophelye, and forsooke not to speake with tonges. Let al thynges be done honestly and in order. (amonge you.)

The. xv. Chapter.

The resurrection of the dead.

Brethren, as pertaynyng to the Gospell whych I preached vnto you, whych ye haue also accepted and in the whych ye contynue, by which also ye are laued: I do yow to wyt, after what maner I preached vnto you, yf ye kepe it, excepte ye haue beleued in vayne. For fyrst of all I deliuered vnto you, that whych I receaued: how that Christus dyed for oure synnes, agreyng to the scriptures: And that he was buried, and that he arose agayne the thyrde daye accordyng to the scriptures: & that he was sene of Cephas, then of the twelue: After that was he sene of mo then fpye hundred brethren a tōnce: of which many

* 1. Cor. xiv. 29

* Roma. xv. 14

* 1. Tim. ii. 12
Gen. ii. 18
1. Cor. xiv. 34

* 1. Cor. xiv. 34

* 1. Cor. xiv. 34

* 1. Cor. xiv. 34

The fyrst Epistle

many remayne vnto thys daye, & many are fallen a slepe. After that appeared he to Iames, then to all the apostles.

And last of all he was sene of me, as of one that was bozne oute of due tyme. For I am the least of the apostles, which am not worthy to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the congregation of God. But by the grace of God, I am I am. And bys grace which is in me, was not in vayne. But I labored more aboundantlye then they all, yet not I, but by grace of God which is with me: therfore whether it wer I or they, so we preache, and so haue ye beleued.

* Actes. iiii. a 11. a. & xiii. a.
and. xxi. b.
Gala. ii. c

¶ If Christ be preached how that he rose from the dead: howe saye some amonge you, that there is no resurreccyon of the dead: If there be no rplynge agayne of the dead then is Christ not rplyen agayne. If Christ be not rplyen agayne, then is oure preacheinge in vayne, and youre fayth is also in vayne. Ye and we are founde false wytnesses of God. For we haue testified of God, howe that he rapped vp Christ: who he rapped not vp, yf it be so that the dead rplye not agayne. For yf the dead rplye not agayne then is Christ not rplyen agayne. If it be so that Christ rose not agayne, then is your fayth in vayne, and ye are yet in your synnes. Therfore they which are fallen a slepe in Christ, are perished. If in this lyfe onely we beleue on Christe, then are we of all men moost myscreable.

* Collos. i. c

But nowe is Christ rplyen from the dead, & become the fyrst frutes of the that slepe. For by a mā came death, and by a mā came the resurreccio of the dead. For as by Adam all dye: euen so by Christe, shall all be made alpye, but euery man in bys owne order. ¶ The fyrst is Christ, then they that are Christes at bys commynge. Then cometh the ende, when he hath delyuered vp the kyngdome to God the father, when he hath put downe all rule and al auctoryte and power. For he must raygne: yll he haue put all his enemyes vnder is fete. The laste enemye that shalbe destroyed, is death: For he hath put all thynges vnder bys fete. But when he sayth all thynges are put vnder him, it is manifest that he is excepted, whych dyd put all thynges vnder him. Whē al thynges are subdued vnto hym, then shall the sonne also him selfe be subiect vnto him, & put all thynges vnder hym, that God maye be all in all. Els what do they, whych are baptised ouer the dead, yf the dead rplye not at al: Why are they then baptysed ouer the? Yee, and why stonde we alwaye then in leoperdy: By our reioysyng whych I haue in Christ Iesu our Lorde, I dye daily. That I haue fought w beastes at Ephesus after y maner of men, what auantagerth it me, yf the dead rplye not agayne: ¶ Let vseat and drynke, for to mo-

* Gal. ii. a
Eph. i. b
Eph. ii. c
Eph. iii. d
Eph. iv. e

* Eph. vi. d
Eph. vi. e

rowe we shal dye. Be not ye deceaved: euell wordes corrupte good maners. Awake truly out of slepe, and sinne not. For some haue not y knowledge of God: I speake thys to poure shame.

But some man wyll saye: howe arylse the dead: what bodye shall they come: Thou foole, y which thou sowest, is not quykened, excepte it dye. And what sowest thou: Thou sowest not that body that shalbe: but bare corne as of wheat, or of some other, but God geueth it a body at his pleasure, to euery seed his owne body.

¶ All fleshe is not one maner of fleshe: but ther is one maner of fleshe of men, another maner of fleshe of beastes, another of fylthes, & another of byrdes. There are also celestial bodyes, and there are bodyes terrestrial. But the glozy of the celestial is one, & the glozy of the terrestrial is another. Ther is one maner glozy of the sonne, and another glozy of the moone, & another glozy of y steres. For one starre differeth from another in glozy. So is the resurreccio of the deo. It is sowen in corrupcio, it rplyeth agayne in incorrupcio. It is sowen in dishonour, it rplyeth agayne in honoure. It is sowen in weaknes, it rplyeth agayne in power. It is sowen a natural body, it rplyeth agayne a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body: as it is also wyrtten: the first man: Adam was made a lyuing soule, and the last Adā was made a quyknyng sprete. Howbeit, y is not fyrst whych is spiritual. but that which is natural, and the y which is spiritual. ¶ The fyrst man is of the erth, erthy: the seconde man is the Lorde fro heauen. ¶ As is the erthy, soche are they that are erthy. And as is the heauenly, soche are they that are heauenly. And as we haue bozne the ymage of y erthy, so shal we beare the ymage of the heauenly.

This saye I bytethen that fleshe & blonde canot inheret the kyngdom of God. Neether doth corrupcion inheret incorrupcion. Beholde, I shewe you a mystery. ¶ We shal not all slepe: but y we shal all be chaunged, and that in a moment, in the twyncklinge of an eye by the last trompe. For the trompe shal blowe, and the dead shal rplye incorruptible, & we shalbe chaunged. For this corruptible must put on incorrupcion: and thys mortal must putt on immortallite.

When this corruptible hath put on incorrupcion, and this mortal hath put on immortallite: then shalbe brought to passe y saying that is writte: ¶ Death is swallowed vp in victory: ¶ Death where is thy synge: hell wher is thy victory: ¶ The synge of death is synne: and the strenght of sinne is the lawe: But thank y vnto God whiche hath geuen vs y

* 1 Cor. x. a

* 1 Cor. x. a

* 1 Cor. x. a

* 1 Cor. x. a 1 Cor. x. b

* 1 Cor. x. a

* 1 Cor. x. a

Christ

Christe. Therfore my deare bʒethren, be ye steadfast and vnmouable, alwayes tʒe in the woʒke of the Loʒde, foʒ as moche as ye knowe, howe that poure labour, is not in vayne in the Loʒde.

C The .xvi. Chapter.

¶ He putteth them in remembrance of the gathering in the poore Christe at Ierusalem, and concludeth his epistle wʒ the saluacions of certayne louyng bʒethren.

C Concernyng the *gatherynge foʒ the sayntes, as I haue ordeyned in the congregacions of Galacya, euen so do ye. Vpon some Saboth daye let euery one of you put a syde at home and laye vp whatsoeuer is mete, that there be no gatherynge when I come. When I am come, who soeuer ye shall allowe by your letters, them wyll I sende, to bʒynge poure lyberalitie vnto Ierusalem: And yf it be mete that I go also, they shall go wyth me.
I wyll come vnto you whan I go ouer to Macedonia. Foʒ I wyll go thowde oute * Macedonia. Wyth you perauenture I wyll abyde a while: oʒ els tary all wynter, that ye maye bʒynge me on my waye, whyther I loeuer I go.

I wyll not se you nowe in my passage: but I trust to abyde a while wyth you, yf God shall suffer me. I wyll tary at Ephesus, vntill the fyftieth daye. Foʒ a great doze and a frutesfull is opened vnto me: and there are many aduerlaries. Yf *Timotheus come se that he be wythoute feare wyth you. Foʒ he woʒketh the woʒke of the Loʒde, as I do: let no man therfore despyse hym: but conuaye hym forth in peace, that he maye come vnto me. Foʒ I loke foʒ him with the bʒethren.

¶ To speake of brother *Apollo (I certifie you that) I greatly desired him, to come vnto you wyth the bʒethren, but hys mynde was not at all to come at this tyme. Howbeit he will come, when he shall haue conuenient tyme.
Watche ye, stande fast in the fapth, quyte you lyke men, be stronge. Let all your bul-nes be done with loue.

Bʒethren, ye knowe the house of *Ste-phana (son of Fortunatus & Achaicus) howe yf they are the fyfth frutes of Achaia, and that they haue apoynted them selues to minister vnto the sayntes: I beseech you that ye be obediēt vnto luche, and to all that helpe and labour.
I am glad of the commynge of Stephana & Fortunatus and Achaicus: foʒ that whyche was lackynge vnto me on poure parte they haue supplied. Foʒ they haue comforted my spete and poures. Loke therfore yf ye knowe them that are luche.

The congregacions of Asia salute you.
Aquila and Priscilla salute you moch in the Loʒde, and so doeth the congregacion that is in theyr house: (with who also I am lodged) All the bʒethren grete you: * Grette ye one another wyth an holy kyffe. The saluacyon of me Paul with myne owne hand. Yf eny man loue not the Loʒde Iesus Christ, the same be Anathema Maranatha. The grace of the Loʒde Iesus Christ be with you: My loue be with you all in Christ Iesu. Amen.

C The first Epistle to the Corinthians, was sent from Philippios, by Serphana, and Fortunatus, and Achacus, and Timotheus.

The seconde Epistle

of Saynt Paule the Apostle to the Corinthians.

C The fyfth Chapter.

¶ The consolacion of God in trouble. The loue of Paule toward the Corinthians and his reasons that he came not vnto them.

Paul an apostle of Iesu christ by the wyll of God, and bʒo ther Timotheus.

Vnto the congregacion of God, whiche is at Corinthum, wyth all the sayntes whiche are in all Achaia. * Grace be with you, and peace from God our father and fro the Loʒde Iesus Christ.

* Blessed be God (the father of our Loʒde Iesus Christ) which is the father of mercy, and the God of all comfort, whiche comforteth vs in al our tribulacion, insomuche that we are hable to comforte them which are in any maner of trouble, with the same coforte, wherewith we oure selues are comforted of God. Foʒ as the *afflictions of Christ are pleteous in vs, euen so is oure consolacion plenteous by Christ.

Whether we be troubled foʒ your consola-cion and healeth: (oʒ whether we be comforted: it is foʒ your comfort and saluacion) which saluacyon sheweth her power, in that ye suffer yf same afflictions whiche we also suffer: oʒ whether we be comforted foʒ your consolacion and saluacion: oure hope also is stedfast foʒ you: in as moche as we knowe, howe that as ye are partakers of the afflictions, so shall ye be partakers also of the consolacion.

Bʒethren, I wolde not haue you ignorant of our trouble, whiche happened vnto vs in *Asia. Foʒ we were greued out of measure, * Act. xix. f. g passyng strength: so greatly yf we dyspayred euen of lyfe. Also we receyued an answer of death in oure selues, that we shoulde not put our trust in oure selues: *but in God whiche rapseth the deed to lyfe agayne, and whiche deliuered vs from so great a death: and doth deliuer

* Rom. f. a 1. Corin. f. a Gala. f. a
Eph. f. a
1. Pet. f. a
21. Petri. f. a

* Colo. f. a

* Act. xix. f. g

* 1. Reg. ii. b Deut. viii. a delyner. On whom we truste, that yet hereafter he wylly delyner, by the helpe of youre prayer for vs, & by the meanes of many per-sones, thanks maye be geuen of many * on our behalfe, for the gyfte geuen vnto vs.

* II. Cor. xiii. c.

C For oure reioysynge is thys, eue the testimony of oure conscience, that in synghenes (of better) and godly purenes, & not in fleschly wysdome, but by the grace of God, we haue had our conuersacion in y^e worlde, and most of all to you wardes. We wyte none other thynges vnto you, the that ye reade & also knowe. Pee, & I trust ye shal fynde vs vnto y^e ende, eue as ye haue founde vs partly: for we are youre reioysynge, eue * as ye are ou-res in the dape of the Lorde Iesus.

* I. Cor. xiii. c.

* I. Cor. xvi. a.

* And in thys confydence was I mynded first to haue come vnto you, that I myght haue had one pleasure moze wyth you, & to passe by you into Macedonia, & to haue comagayne out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth of you toward Jewrye. When I thus wyse was minded: did I vse lychtenes? Or thynke I carnallye those thynges whych I thynke, that w^e me shulde be * pee, pee, and naye naye? God is saytfull: for our preaching to you, was not pee and nay for Goddes sone Iesus Christ which was preached among you by vs (euen by me and Siluanus and Timotheus) was not pee & naye: but by him it was pee. for all the promises of God, by hym are pee: & are in hym Amen, vnto the lande of God thowowe vs.

* Rom. vii. f.
I. Cor. xvi. b.

E For it is God, whych stablysheth vs with you in Christ and standeth by vs, and hath annoynted vs, whych hath also sealed vs, and * hath geuen the earnest of the sprete in oure hertes.

* Rom. viii. a.
Eph. i. iii. c.

* I call God for a recorde vnto my soule y^e for to fauer you wyth all I came not any moze vnto Corinthu. * Not that we be Lorde des ouer your fapth: but are helpers of your ioye. for by fapth ye stande.

* I. Pet. v. a.

C The. ii. Chapter.

C De sheweth the cause of hys absence & exhorteth them to forgeue the man y^e was fallen, & to receaue him agayne wyth loue.

A But I determyned this in my self, that I wold not come agayne to you in heynnes. for yf I make you sorre, who is it y^e shuld make me glad, but y^e same which is made sorre by me? And I wrote thys same vnto you, lest yf I came vnto you, I shulde take heynnes (of better) of them, of whom I ought to reioyce. Thys confydence haue I toward you al, that my ioye is y^e ioye of you al. for oute of great afflicciō and anguyth of hert, I wrote vnto you wyth many teares: not y^e ye shulde be made sorre, but that ye myghte perceauē y^e loue, which I haue, most special ly vnto you.

If any man hath caused sorowe, the same hath not made me sorre, but partelye: lest I shulde greue you all. * It is sufficiente vnto the same mā, that he was rebuked of many.
So that nowe contrary wyse, ye oughte rather to forgeue hym, and comforte him: lest that same persone shuld be swallowed by ouer moche heynnes. Wherefore, I exhorte you, that loue maye haue strength ouer him. for thys cause verelye dyd I wyte, that I myght know y^e profte of you whether ye shulde be obedient in all thynges. To whom ye forgeue any thyng, I forgeue also. for yf I forgaue any thyng to who I forgaue it, for youre sakes I forgaue it, in the syght of Christ, lest Satan shulde pteuente vs. for hys thoughtes are not vnknewen vnto vs. I.

* I. Cor. x.

* When it was com to Troada for Christes Gospels sake (and a doze was opened vnto me of the Lorde) I had no rest in my sprete, because I founde not Titus my brother, but toke my leaue of them, & went awaye into Macedonia. Thanks be vnto God, which alwayes geueth vs y^e victorie in Christ and openeth the sauer of his knowledge by vs in euery place. for we are vnto God the swete sauoure of Christ among the that are saued, and amonge them which peryshe. * To the one part are we the sauoure of death vnto death. And vnto y^e other part are we the sauour of lyfe vnto lyf. And who is mete vnto these thynges? for we are not as the moste parte are, which chop & chaunge with the word of God: but eue out of pure-nes, and by the power of God, in y^e syght of God, so speake we in Christ. I.

* I. Cor. x.

C The. iii. Chapter.

C De prayeth the preachinge of the Gospel about the preachinge of the lawe.

Vnto begyn to prayse our sel-ues again. Rede we as to me other of Epistles of re-comendacyō vnto you or letters of recomendacyō fro you: Ye are our epistle written in oure hertes, whych is vnderstande and red of all mē, for as moche as ye declare y^e ye are y^e epistle of Christ, mynistred by vs and writte, not with ynke: but wyth y^e sprete of y^e liuinge God * not in tables of stone, but in
* fleschly tables of the hert.

* Rom. viii. a.
I. Cor. xvi. b.

* Suche trust haue we thowowe Christe to God warde, not that we are sufficient of oure selues to thynke any thyng, as of oure selues: but yf we be able vnto any thyng * y^e same cometh of God, whych hath made vs able to * mynistre the newe testamēt, not of the letter, but of the sprete. for y^e letter kyl-leth, but the sprete geueth lyfe.

If the

If the ministracion of deeth thow we the letters figured in stones was glorious, so þe children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moyses, for þe glory of his countenance (whych glorye is done away) why shal not the ministracion of the sprete be moche more gloriouse: for þe ministring of condemnacion be gloriouse: moche more both the ministraciõ of right welnes excede i glory. For no doute that which was there glorified, is not once glorified in respecte of this excedyng glory. For þe that which is destroyed was glorious, moche more that whych remaineth, is glorious.

Seynge then that we haue such truste, we be great boldnes & do not as Moyses which put a vayle ouer hys face, that the children of Israel shuld not se for what purpose that serued whych he is put away. * But they myndes were blynded. For vntill this daye remaineth the same courtyng vntaken awaye in the lecture of the olde testamente, which vayle shal be put awaye in Chyriste. But cū vnto this day when Moyses is rede the vayle hangeth before their hertes. Reuerthelesse: when they tourne to the Lorde, the vayle shalbe taken awaye. * The Lorde no dout is a sprete. And wher the sprete of þe Lorde is, there is lybertie. But we al behold in a myrroure the glory of the Lorde with his face open, and are chaunged vnto the same similitude, from glory to glory, euen as of the sprete of the Lorde.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ A true preache is diligent, he corrupteth not þe worde of God, but seeketh the honour of Chyrist, per though it be with the perill of hys lyfe.

herforse seying that we haue such an offyce, euen as God hath had mercy on vs, we go not out of kinde: but haue caste fro vs þe clothes of vnhonestye, & walke not in craftynes, net her handle we the worde of God dysceitfully, but open the trueth and re porte oure selues to euery mannes conscience in the syghte of God. * If oure Gospell be yet hyd, it is hyd amonge them that are losse in whome * the God of this worlde hath blynded the myndes of them wherbye beleue not, lest the lyght of the Gospel of the glorye of Chyrist (whych is þe ymage of God) shulde thynne vnto them.

¶ For we preache not oure selues, but Chyrist Iesus to be the Lord, and oure selues poure seruauntes, for Iesus sake. For it is God, that commaunded the lighte to thynne out of darcknes, which hath thynned in oure hartes, for to geue þe lyght of þe knowledge of the glorye of God, in the face of Iesus Chyriste.

But we haue this treasure in * erthen vessels, þe excellency of the power myght be Gods, & not oures. We troubled on euery syde, yet are we not without hope. We are pouertye, but not utterlye without som what. We lustre persecucyõ: but are not forsaken therein. We are caste downe: neuerthelesse we perthe not. We all wayes * beare aboute in the bodye, the dyinge of the Lorde Iesus that the lyfe of Iesu myghte also appere in oure bodye.

* For we whych lyue, are alwayes deliuered vnto deeth for Iesus sake, that the lyf also of Iesu myghte appere in oure mortal fleshe. So then, deeth worketh in vs, but lyfe in you. * But seyng that we haue the same sprete of fayth (acordyng as it is wyrtten: * I beleue, and therfore haue I spokẽ.) We also beleue, and therfore speake. For we knowe, that he whych rayled by the Lorde Iesus, shal rayle vp vs also by the means of Iesus, and shal set vs wyth you. For all thynges do I for youre sakes * that the plenteous grace by thanchelgeuẽ of many, maye rebounde to the prayse of god.

Wherfore, we are not weryed. But though oure outwarde man perthe, yet þe inward man is renewed daye by daye. * For our tribulacion whych is momentany and lyghte, prepareth an exceding and eternal waighe of glorye vnto vs, whyle we loke not on the thynges which are sene, but on the thynges whych are not sene. For the thynges whych are sene, are temporall: but thynges whych are not sene, are eternal.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

¶ The reward for suffering trouble.

For we knowe that þe of oure * erthy manciõ of this dwel linge wer destroyed, we haue a buildyng of God, an habitacyõ not made with handes, but eternal in heauen.

For therfore syghewe, desyringe to be clothed w our mansiõ which is from heauen: so yet, yf that we be founde clothed, and not naked. For we þe are in this * tabernacle, syghwe & are greued because we wolde not be vnclothed, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalyte myght be swallowed vp of lyf. he that hath ordeyned vs for this thyng, is God: * which verysame hath geuen vnto vs the earnest of the sprete.

Therfore, we are alwaye of good cheare, and knowe, that as longe as we are at home in the body, we are absent fro God. For we walke in fayth, not after outwarde appareance: Reuerthelesse we are of good comforte, & had leuer to be absent from the body and to be present with God. Wherfore, wher we be at home or from home, we endeuoure oure selues, to please hym. * For we muste all appeare before the iudgemẽt seate of Chyriste, that euery man maye receaue the workes of hys bodye acordyng to that he hath

* Gala. vi. 9

* Rom. viii. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* Rom. viii. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* Rom. viii. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

* 1 Cor. i. 1

hath done, whether it be good or bad.

¶ Sepnge then that we knowe, howe the Lorde is to be feared, we fare saye with men. For we are known well ynough vnto God. I truste also þ we are known in your consciences.

For we prayse not oure selues agayne vnto you, but geue you an occasiō to reioyce of vs, that ye maye haue some what agaynst them whyche reioyce in the face, and not in the hart. For yf we be to feruent, to God are we to feruente. Or yf we kepe measure, for your cause kepe we measure. For the loue of Christ constraineth vs, because we thus iudge that yf one dyed for all, then were all deed, and he dyed for all, that they whyche lyue, shulde not hence forth lyue vnto the selues, but vnto him whych dyed for them, and rose agayne. ¶

* 1. Cor. v. c.

¶ Wherefore, hence forth knowe we no man after the fleshe. In so moche though we haue knownen Christ after the fleshe, nowe yet hence forth know we him so nomore. Therefore yf eny mā be in Christ, he is a newe creature. Olde thynges are passed away, behold all thynges are become newe. Neuertheless, all thynges are of God, which hath reconcepled vs vnto him selfe by Iesus Christ, and hath geuen to vs þ office to preache the attonement. For God was in Christ, and made agrement betwene the worlde and him selfe, & imputed not theyr synnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the preaching of the attonement. Nowe then are we messengers in the rowme of Christ, eue as though God byd beseeche you thorow vs. So praye we you in Christes stede, that ye be reconcepled vnto God: for he made hym to be synne for vs, whyche knewe no synne, that we by his meanes shulde be that ryghtewelsnes, whych before God is allowed.

* 2. Cor. xiii. c.
Apoca. xxi. a 1 Roma. xiii. b Collo. i. c

* Collo. ii. c

* 2. Cor. xiii. b Roma. viii. a

The. vi. Chapter. ¶

¶ An exhortaciō to receaue the worde of God wth thankfulness and amendment of lyfe. The diligence of Ihu in the Gospel, and howe he warneth them to eschewe the company of the Heathen.

¶ Also as helpers exhorthe you þ ye receaue not the grace of God in vayne. For he sayth: I haue heard the in a tym accepted: and in the daye of saluacyon, haue I suckered the. Beholde, now is that accepted tyme: beholde, now is that daye of saluacyon. Let vs geue no occasiō of euill, that in our office be founde no faute: but in al thynges let vs behaue oure selues as the mynisters of God.

* 2. Cor. xiii. c

* 1. Cor. xiii. a

¶ In much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in anguishes, in stryppes, in prisonmentes, in stryppes, in labours, in watchynges, in fastynges, in purenes, in knowledge, in longe sufferynge, in kynndnes, in the holy goost, in loue vnfaigned, in þ word of truely

in the power of God, by þ armour of ryghteousnes of the ryghte hande and on the lyfte by honour and by dishonour: by euill repoynte and good repoynte: as dysceauers, & yet true, as vnkowen, and yet knowen: as bynging, and beholde, we lyue: as chastened, and not kylled: as sorrowynge, and yet alway mery: as pooze, and yet make many ryche: as haunyng not hyng, and yet possedynge al thynges. ¶

¶ O ye Corynthyans, oure mouth is open vnto you. Our herte is made large: ye are in no strypte in vs, but are in a strypte in your owne bowelles: I prompse vnto you lyke rewarde, as vnto chyldezen. Set your selues at large, and beare not ye the yoke wth þ vnbeleuers. For what feloshypp hath ryghtewelsnes wth vnryghtewelsnes? What company hath light wth darkness? What concord hath Christ wth Beliall? Either what parte hath he þ beleueth with an infidell? Or howe agreeth the temple of God wth Images: for ye are the temple of the lyuynge God (as sayde God) I wyll dwell amonge them and walcke amonge them and wyll be theyr God: & they shalbe my people. Wherefore com out from amonge them & separate your selues fro them (sayth the Lorde) and touch none vnclene thing: so wil I receaue you, & wyllbe a father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lorde almyghty.

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

* 2. Cor. v. c

The. vii. Chapter.

¶ An exhortaciō to receaue the promesses of God thankfully. The Corynthyans are commended for theyr obedience and loue towardes Ihu.

Spunge that we haue suche promyses (dearely beloued) let vs cleanse oure selues fro all fylthynges of the fleshe & sprete, and growe vp to full holines wth þ feare of God.

¶ Understande vs, we haue hurt no mā: we haue corrupte no mā: we haue defrauded no mā. I speake not this to condemne you: for I haue shewed you before, that ye are in oure hertes to dye and lyue wth you: I am verely bolde ouer you: I reioyce greatly in you. I am fylled wth comforte, and am excreadyng loyouse in all oure tribulacion. For when we were come into Macedonia, oure fleshe had no reske, but we were troubled on euery syde. Outwarde was fyghting, inward was fear. Neuertheless, God that comforteth the abiecte, comforted vs by þ commynge of Titus.

* Actes. xvi. c

* 11. Cor. x. c

¶ And not by his commynge onely: but also by þ consolaciō whyche we receaued of you: whē he tolde vs your desyre, your wepyng, your feruent mynde for me: so þ I reioiced þ more. For though I made you soye wth a letter, I repente not: though I byd repente. For I per- what the same epistle made you you sorpe, though it were but for a season. For I now reioyce, not that ye were sorpe, but that ye so sorowed that ye repented. For ye sorowed godly: so y^e in nothyng ye were hurt by vs. For godly sorowe causeth repentance vnto saluacion, not to be repented of contrary wyse, *worldly sorowe causeth death.

For behold, what diligence this godly sorowe that ye toke, hath wrought in you. It caused you to clear your selues. It caused indignacion, it caused feare, it caused despayre, it caused punishment. For in all thynges ye haue thewed your selues, that ye were cleare in y^e mater. Wherefore, though I wrot vnto you, I dyd it not for his cause that had done the hurt, neither for his cause that was hurt: but y^e your good mynde for vs myght appear amonge you in the syght of God.

Therefore, we are comforted, because ye are comforted: yee, and excedynglye the more ioyed we, for the ioye y^e Titus had: because his sperte was refreshed of you all. I am therefore not now ashamed, though I boasted my selfe to hym of you. For as all thynges which we spake vnto you are true, euen so our boastynge that I made vnto Titus is founde true. And his inward affection is more aboundant toward you, wher he remembreth the obedience of you al: how with feare & tremblynge ye receaued hym. I reioyce y^e I maye be bolde ouer you in all thynges.

¶ The. viii. Chapter.

¶ He putteth them in remembrance to helpe the poore sapntes at Jerusalem, accordynge as the Macedonians dyd.

I Certifye you brethren, of the grace of God, whych was geuen in the congregacions of Macedonia, howe that y^e aboundaunce of theyr reioysynge is, that they are tryed wth much tribulacion. And though they were excedyng poore, yet haue they geuen excedyng rychely, and that in syn-glenesse. For to theyr powers, I beare them recoorde, yee, and beyonde theyr power, they were wyllynge of theyr owne accorde, and prayed vs wth great instance, y^e we wold receaue theyr benefyte, and suffer them to be partakers wth other * in mynistringe to the sapntes. And thys they dyd, not as we looked for: but gaue theyr owne selues fyrst to the Lorde, and after vnto vs by the wyl of God: so that we coulde not but desyre Titus, to accomplysh the same beneuolence amonge you also, euen as he had begonne.

Nowe therefore, as ye are ryche in all parties, in sayth, in worde, in knowlege, in all feruentnes, and in loue, whych ye haue to vs euen so, se that ye be plenteous in thys beneuolence also. This saie I, now commaundyng but because of feruentnes. I do allowe y^e vnfaynednes of your loue toward other men. For ye knowe the lyberalitye of our Lorde Iesus Christe, that though he was * ryche, yet for your sakes he became poore that ye, thowowhys pouertie, myght be made ryche.

And I gyue counsell hereto. For thys is expedient for you, whych beganne not to do onely, but also to wyl a yere ago. Nowe therefore, performe the thyng whych ye beganne to do: that as there was in you a readynes to wyl, euen so, ye maye performe the dede: of that whych ye haue. For * yf there be fyrst a wyllynge mynde, it is accepted accordynge to that a mā hath, & not accordynge to that he hath not.

It is not my mynde that other be set at ease, and ye brought into combzaunce: but that there be egallnes now at this tyme: and that your aboundaunce maye sucke their lacke and that theyr aboundaunce maye supply your lacke: that there maye be equalite, agreyng to that whych is wrytten: * he that had muche, had not the more aboundaunce: and he that had a lytle, had neuer the lesse. Than kes be vnto God, whych put the same good mynde for you in the herte of Titus, whych accepted the requeste: yee, rather he was so well wyllynge, that of his owne accorde, he came vnto you.

We haue sente wth hym that brother, whose laude is in the Gospell thowowout all the congregacions: and not that onely, but is also chosen of the congregacions to be a fellowe wth vs in our iourney, concernynge this beneuolence that is ministred by vs vnto the people of the same Lorde, and to steepe by your prompte mynde.

For thys we eschewe, that any mā shuld rebuke vs in thys plenteous distribution, * that is ministred by vs, * (to the glory of God) and make prouision for honest thynges: not only in the syght of the Lorde: but also in the syght of men.

We haue sent wth them a brother of oures: whome we haue oft tymes proued diligent in many thynges: but nowe much more diligent. The great confidence whych I haue in you, hath caused me thys to do: partly for Titus sake, whych is my fellowe and helper as concernynge you: partly because of other whych are our brethren, and the messengers of the congregacions, & the glory of Christ. Wherefore, we wepe vnto them the profite of your loue, and of our * boastynge of you in the syght of the congregacions.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

¶ In this chapter doth he the same that he dyd in the chapter goynge before, that is, he moueth them to helpe the poore brethren at Jerusalem.

¶ Rk ¶

The seconde Epistle

* Acta. xi. b.
i. Corin. xvi. a
ii. Cor. viii. a Roma. xv. f

If the ministring to þe sayntes, it is but superfluous for me to writ vnto you: for I know the redines of youre mynde, wherof I boast my selfe vnto the of Macedonia, þe Achaia was prepared a yere ago: & your ensample hath prouoked many. Neuerthelesse, yet haue I sent these brethren, lest oure boastyng which I make of you, shuld be in vayne, in thys behalfe, þe ye (as I haue sayd) may prepare your selues: lest peraduenture þe they of Macedonia come to me, and fynde you vnprepared, we (I wil not say ye) shuld be ashamed in thys mater of boastyng.

Wherfore, I thought it necessarye to exhort the brethren, to come before hande vnto you, and to prepare your good blessinge promysed afore, þe it myght be ready, so that it be a blessinge, and not a defraudinge.

* prout. r. b.
Gala. vi. b

This yet I saye: he which loweth lytell, shal reape lytell: & he þe loweth (in geuyng) largelye and frelye, shal reape plenteously. And let euery man do, accordyng as he hath purposed in hys herte, not grudgynlye, or of necessitye. * For God loweth a chearful geuer

* 1. Cor. xiii. a and. r. b. a Eccle. xxi. b

God is able to make you ryche in al grace that ye in all thynges haue ynge sufficient vnto the vtmost, maye be ryche vnto al maner of good woorkes, as it is wyrtte: * He hath sparred abrode, and hath geue to the poore, hys rygheousnesse remayneth for euer. He that mynistreth seed vnto the sower, ministrate heade also for fode: and multiply your seede, and encrease the frutes of youre rygheousnesse, & that on all partes, ye maye be made ryche into all synghenes, whiche causeth thow we vs, that thankes are geuen vnto God.

* Gal. vi. b

For the offyce of thys ministracion, not onely supplieth the nede of the sayntes: but also is aboundaunt hertyn, that for thys laudable mynistryng, thankes myghte be geuen to God of many, whiche praye God for the obedience of youre consentynge to the Gospel of Christe, and for youre synghenesse in distybutynge to them, and to all me, and in theyr prayers for you, whiche longe after you for the aboundaunt grace of God in you. Thanques be vnto God, for hys unspeakable gyfte.

The .x. Chapter.

He toucheth the false Apostles, and defendeth hys authoritye and callinge

In Paul my selfe beseeche you by the mekenesse and softenes of Christ, which when I am present amonge you, am of no reputation: but am bolde toward you beyng absent. I beseeche you, that I nede not to be bolde when I am presente, woth that same boldnesse, where woth I am supposed to haue bene bolde, agaynst some, which repute vs as though we walked carnally. For though we walke in flesh, yet we do not warre fleshly. * For the weapens of our warrefare are not carnall thynges, but thynges myghty in God, to cast downe stronge holdes, where with we ouerthrowe counsels and euery hye thyng that exalteth it selfe agaynst the knowledge of God, and byyng into captiuite al imagination to the obedience of Christe, and are ready to take vengeance on all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. Loke ye on thynges after the vther appearaunce.

If any man truste in hym selfe that he is Christes, let hym consyder thys agayne of hym selfe, that as he is Christes, euen so, are we Christes. For though I boast my selfe somewhat moze of our auctorite (whiche the Lorde hath geuen vs to edifye, and not to destroy you) it shal not be to my shame: lest I shulde seme as though I wente aboute to make you afraide with letters. For þe epistles (sayeth he) are soze and strong: but his bodely presence is weake, and hys speache rude. Let hym that is suche thynke on thys wyse: that as we are in wordes by letters, when we are absent, suche are we in dedes, when we are present.

For we cannot fynde in oure hartes to make our selues of the nombze of the, or to compare our selues to the, which praye the selues. Neuerthelesse, whyle they measure them selues, woth the selues, & compare them selues woth them selues, they vnderstande nought. But we wyl not reioyce about measure: but accordyng to the measure of the rule, whiche God hath distributed vnto vs, a measure to reache euen vnto you. For we stretch not out our selues beyonde measure, as though we reached not vnto you. For euen to you also haue we come to the gospel of Christ, and we boast not our selues out of measure of other mennes labours. Yee, and we hope it wyl come to passe, þe when your fayth is increased amonge you, we shal be magnified accordyng to our measure moze largely, and that I shal preache the Gospel in thole regions which are beyonde you: & not to boast of thole thynges, which by another mans measure are prepared already. But let hym that reioyseth, reioyse in the Lorde: For he þe prayseth hym selfe, is not allowed but he whome the Lorde prayseth.

The .xi. Chapter.

Paul (under sufferaunce) commendeth hym selfe, & defendeth hys authoritye agaynst the false prophetes Vltre to God, ye could haue suffered I me a lytel in my foolyshnes: yee, ye do also forbear me. For I am gelous ouer you with godly zelousy. I led you to one man, that ye selues a chaste virgin vnto Christ to Christ. But I feare lest it come to passe þ as the serpente begyled Eue thowowe þys subtelt, euen so your wyttes shulde be corrupte fro the synghenes that ye had toward Christe. For þe þe þe cometh preache another Jesus the hym whom we preached: or þe ye receaue another sprete then þe which ye haue receaued, ether another Gospel then that ye haue receaued, ye myght right wel haue ben content. For I suppose that I was not behynde the these Apostles. But though I be inde in speakeynge, yet I am not so in knowlege. Howbeit amonge you, we haue bene wel knowe to the utmost what we are in al thynges. Wyd I therin synne, because I sub-mytted my selfe, that ye myght be exalted: & because I preached to you þe Gospel of God fre: I robbed other congregacions, & toke wages of them, to do you seruice. And when I was present w you, & had nede: I was chargeable to no man: for þe which was lackyng vnto me, þe brethren whych came fro Macedonia, supplied, & in all thynges I kept my selfe so þe I shulde not be chargeable to any man and so wyll I kepe my selfe.

¶ Of the trouth of Christ be in me, thys reioyngne shal not be taken from me in the regions of Achaia. Wherefore: Because I loue you not: God knoweth. Neuertheles, what I do, that wyll I do, to cut awaye occasyon fro them whych desire occasiõ: þe they myght be founde lyke vnto vs, in that wherein they reioyce. For such falsse Apostles are disceat-full workers, & falsio them selues lyke vnto the Apostles of Christ. And no maruayle: for Satan him selfe is chaiged into þe falsiõ of an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thyng though þys mynisters falsion them selues, as though they were the ministers of right wylnes: whose ende shalbe accorpyng to the þe dedes.

I save agayne, lest any man thynke that I am folpthe: or els euen now take ye me as a foole, that I also maye boast my selfe a ly-tel. That I speake, I speake it not after the Lorde: but as it were foolyshly, in this mater of boastyng. Seynge that many reioyce after the fleshe, I wyll reioyce also. For ye lustre foolles gladly, seynge ye your selues are wyle. For ye lustre þe a man bynng you into bodage, þe a man deuoure, þe a mā take þe a mā exalte him selfe, þe a man smyte you on þe face. I speake as cõcernyng rebuke, as though we had ben weake, (in thys behalte.)

¶ Howbeit, wherinsouer any man dare be holde (I speake foolyshly) I dare be hold also. For they are Ebryes, euen so am I. They are Isralites, euen so am I. They are pseed of Abraham, euen so am I. They are þe ministers of Christ (I speake as a foole) I am more. In labours more abowndant: In tryptes aboue measure. In þe more plenteously: In death ofte. * Of the Jewes spue tymes receaued I euery tyme. xl. strypes saue one. * Thysle was I beat w rodde, * I was once stoned, * I suffered thysle wypp-wache. Aght and dave haue I bene in the depe see. In tozneyng oft: in parels of waters: in parels of robbers: in icopardyes of myne owne nacion: in icopardyes amonge þe hethe: * in parels in þe cytie: in parels in wyldernes: in parels in the see: in parels amõge falsse brethren: in laboure & trauayle: in watchynges often: in hõger & thysle: in fastynges often: in colde and nakednes: besyde the thyn-ges which outwardly happed vnto me. I am combyrd dayly, and do care for all congrega-cions. * Who is weake, & I am not weake: who is offeded, and I burne not: þe I muste nedes boast, I wyll boast of þe thynges that concerne myne infirmities.

¶ The. xii. Chapter.

¶ I want to taken up into the thyrde heauen, and hearerth wordes not to be spoken.

The God & father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore knoweth that I lye not.
¶ In the cite of Damasco, the gouverner of the people vnder kynge Aretas layde watch in the cytie of the Damascens, & wold haue caught me: and at a wyndow was I let downe in a basket thowow þe wal, & so escaped I þys handes. Doubtes, it is not expedient for me to boast, I wyll come to visions & reuelacions of þe Lorde. I know a mā in Christ aboue fourtene yeres ago (whether he were in the bodye, I can not tell, or whether he were out of the bodye, I can not tell, God knoweth) howe that he was take up into the thyrde heauen. And I know the same man (whether in the bodye or out of the bodye, I cā not tell, God knoweth) howe that he was taken up into paradysse, and hearde secrete wordes, which no mā can vter. Of thys man wyll I boast, but of my selfe wyll I not boast, except it be of mine infirmities.
For though I wolde boast, I shall not be a foole: for I wolde save the trouth. Neuerthelesse, I spare you: lest any man shuld thinke of me, aboue that whych he seeth me to be, or that he hearerth of me.

And lest I shulde be exalted out of measure thowow þe excellency of the reuelacions: there was geuen vnto me vniquietnes tho-rowe the fleshe, eue the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I shuld not be exalted out of measure. For this thyng besought I the Lorde thysle, that it myght departe fro me. And he sayd vnto me: my grace is sufficient for the. For my strength is made par-fyt thowow weaknes. Verry gladly therfore wyll I reioyce of my weaknes, & þe strength of Christe maye dwell in me. ¶ Therfore, haue I delectaciõ in infirmities, in rebukes, lik it in necel-

The Epistle

in necessities, in persecutions, in anguythes for Christes sake. For when I am weake, then am I stronge.

I am become a foole in boasting my self.
Ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you. * For in nothyng was I inferior vnto y^e chief apostles, though I be nothing, yet y^e tokens of an apostle were wrought amonge you with al patience, and signes & wonders, and myghty dedes. For what is it, where in ye were inferior vnto other congregacions, except it be herin, that I was not chargeable vnto you. For geue me thys wronge. Beholde, nowe the thyde tyme I am ready to come vnto you: and yet wyl I not be chargeable vnto you. For I seke not poures, but you. For the chyldren ought not to laye by for the fathers and mo thers, but the fathers and mothers for the chyldren.

I wyl very gladly bestowe, and wyl be bestowed for your soules, though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued agayn. But be it, that I was not chargeable vnto you: neuertheles, when I was crafty, I toke you with gyle. Yp I pll you by any of them, whom I sent vnto you: I despyed Titus, & with hym I sent a brother. Yp Titus de fraude you of any thinge: walked we not in one sprete: Walked we not in lyke steppes?

Agayne, thynke you y^e we excuse our selues vnto you: we speake in Christ in y^e syght of God: but we do al thinges (dearly beloued) for your edifyenge. For I feare, lest it come to passe, that yf I come, I shall not fynde you such as I wold: & yf I shalbe foude vn to you such as ye wolde not. I feare lest ther be amoge you * debates, enuynges, wrath, stryfes, bakbitynges, whysperynges, swell ynges, & seditions: and that when I come agayne, God bypunge me lowe amoge you, & I be constrayned to bewayle many of them whych haue synned already, and haue not re pentid of the * vnclennes: and fornicacion & wantonnes whych they haue commytted.

The .xiii. Chapter.

He promysed to come vnto them, and exhorted the to coo^{re} them selues that he maye fynde the partyes and of one mynde

Nowe come I the thyde tyme vnto you: * in the mounthe of two or thre wytnesses shall euerye worde be sta blyshed. I tolde you before, and tel you be fore: & as I sayd when I was present wth you the second tyme, so wyte I nowe be punge absente, to them whych in tyme past haue synned, and to all other: that yf I come agayne, I wyl not spare, sayng that ye seke experience of Christe * whych speaketh in me, whych amonge you is not weake but is myghty in you. For though he was cruci fied in weaknes, yet lyueth he thowowe the power of God. And we (no doute) are weak in hym: but we shall lyue wth hym: by the myght of God amonge you.

* Examen your selues, whether ye are in the fapth or not. Proue poure owne selues. knowe ye not your owne selues, howe that Jesus Christ is in you: excepte ye be casta wayes, I truste ye shall knowe that we are not castawayes. I despye before God that ye do none euell, not that we shulde seme co mendable: but y^e ye shulde do that whych is honeste: & let vs be counted as castawayes.
We can do nothyng agaynst the truth: but for y^e truth. We are glad whē we are weake and ye stronge. Thys also we wyte for, eu^e poure partynes. Therefore wyte I the thynges beyng absent, lest when I am pre sent, I shulde vse sharpenesse, accordyng to the power * whych the Lorde hath geuen me to edifye, and not to destroye. fynallye by then, fare ye well, be partyte, be of good co forte, be of one mynde, lyue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe wth you.

* Crete one another in an holy kyffe. All the sayntes salute you. The grace of oure Lorde Jesus Christ, & the loue of God, & the felowshipp of the holy goost be with you al.
Amen.

The ende of the seconde epistle to the Corinthyans.

Sent from Philippos a cytie in Macedo nia, by Titus and Lucas.

The Epistle of the Apostle saynt Paul to the Galathians.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul reduked the, because they were fallen away from the Gospell, wherby they shoulde conuercion. may nfyre bys office and Apostleship, and declared hym selfe to be equall wth the bys Apostles

Paul an Apostle, not of men, nether by man: but by Je sus Christ, and by God the father, which raised him vp from death: and all the bre thren whych are wth me.

Unto the congregacions of Galacia. * Grace be with you, and peace from God the father, & from oure Lorde Je sus Christ, which gaue hem selfe for our syn nes to deliuer vs frome thys presente euyl worlde, accordyng to the wyll of God oure father, to whom be prayse for euer and euer.
Amen.

I mar (fro Chri. that ye are so soone turned called you by grace) vnto another

* 1. Cor. 11. a

* Act. 17. 9
11. Cor. 11. c
Eph. 1. 1. c
1. Reg. 11. a

* Gal. 3. b

* 1. Cor. 11. b

* Deut. 19. b
Mat. 18. c
John. 8. 1. c
Deut. 19. f

* Gal. 3. b

to another Gospell whych is nothyng els, but that there be some which trouble you. & intende to peruerthe the Gospell of Christ.
Neuerthelesse, though we our selues, or an angell from heauen, preache any other Gos-pell vnto you, the that whych we haue preached vnto you, let hym be acursed. As we sayde before, so saye I nowe agayne, pf any ma preache any other Gospell vnto you, the that ye haue receaued, let hym be acursed.
Do I nowe perswade men, or God? Other do I seke to please men? * For pf I had hetherto studyed to please men, I were not s seruaunt of Christ.

* I certifie you brethren, that the Gos-pell whych was preached of me, was not after the maner of men. For I nether receaued it, nor learned it of man, but by the reuelacion of Iesus Christ. For ye haue herd of my conuersacion in tyme past, in s Jewes way how that beyonde measure, * I persecuted s congregacion of God, and spoyled it, & preuayled in the Jewes waye aboue many of my copanions in myne owne nation: beyng a very feruent maintayner of the tradicions of the elders.

But when it pleased God, whych seperated me from my mothers wombe, and called me here vnto by hys grace, for to declare hys sonne by me, that I shulde preache hym amonge the heathen: immediatly I commended not of the matter wyth * Acth & bloude nether returned to Jerusalem, to the whych were apostles befor me: but wet my wayes into Arabia, and cam agayne vnto Damasco. Then after thre yere, I returned to Jerusalem to se Peter, and abode wyth hym syttene dayes. Other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lordes brother. The thynges therfore whych I wypte vnto you: beholde, before God I lye not.

* After that I came into s coastes of Si-ria and Cilicia, and was vnkownen as touching my person vnto the cōgregacions of Jewy, which were in Christ. But this they heard only, that he whych persecuted vs in tyme past, now preache th the sayth, which before he destroyed. And they glorified God in me. †

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

¶ We wythstandeth Peter in the face, and proueth that the lawe and circumcision are not necessarie to salua-cion.

¶ Then fourtene yeres thereafter, I wet vp agayne to Jerusalem: with Barnabas, & toke Titus wyth me. I wet vp also by reuelacion, & communed with the of the Gospell which I preache amonge the Gentyls (but specially) wth them: which were counted chefe, least I shoulde haue counted chefe, least I shoulde haue runne in vayne. Also Titus which was with me, though he were a Greke, yet was not copelled to be circumcised: and that because of incomers beyng false brethren, which cam in preuely to spyre out our libertie which we haue in Christ Iesu, that they myght bring vs into bondage. To whome we gaue no rowme, no not for the tyme (by waye of subieccion) because that the truth of the Gospell myght continue wyth you.

Of them whych seemed to be somewhat, what they were in tyme passed it maketh no matter to me. * God loketh on the outward apperaunce of no man. Neuerthelesse they which seemed great, added nothyng to me.
But contrary wise, whē they sawe that the Gospel ouer the uncircumcision was compt-ted vnto me, as the Gospell ouer the circūcision was compted vnto Peter. For he that was myghty in Peter in the Apostleshippe ouer the circūcision, the same was myghty in me amonge the Gentyls. When they perceaued the grace that was geuen vnto me, the James, Cephas, and Iohn, which seemed to be pylers, gaue to me and Barnabas the ryght handes of that felowshippe, that we shulde be Apostles amōge the heathen, and they in the circūcision: onely that we shulde remember the poore. * Wherin also I was diligent to do the same.

But when Peter was come to Antioche, I withstode him openly, because he was wo-thy to be blamed. For yer that certain came from James, he dyd eate wyth the Gentyls.
But whē they were come, he withdrew, and separated hym selfe from them, fearing the which were of the circūcision. And the other Jewes dissembled as well as he: in so much that Barnabas also was brought into their simulacion. But whē I saw that they wet not the ryght waye after the truth of the Gospell, I sayd vnto Peter before them al: pf thou beyng a Jewe, lyuest after s maner of the Gentyls, and not as do s Jewes: why causest thou the Gentyls to lyue as do the Jewes? For we whych are Jewes by nature, and not synners of the Gentyls, know that a man: is not iustified by the dedes of the lawe, but by the sayth of Iesus Christ: And we haue beleued on Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the sayth of Christ and not by the dedes of the lawe: because by the dedes of the lawe no fleshe shal be iusti-fied.

¶ Pf whyle we seke to be made ryghteous by Christ, we our selues are founde synners: is then Christ s minister of synne? God forbyd. For pf I buyde agayne the thynges whych I destroyed, then make I my selfe a trespasser. For I (thozow the law) haue ben dead to the lawe, that I myghte lyue vnto Christ. I am crucified wth Christ. Neuertheles I

The Epistle

les I pue: yet now not I, but Christ lyueth in me. The lyfe whyche I nowe lyue in the fleshe, I lyue by the fayth of y^e sonne of God * whych loued me, & gaue hym selfe for me. I despyse not y^e grace of God. For * yf righteounes come of the lawe, then Christe is dead in vayne.

* Ephe. v. a
* Rom. iiii. c

The. iiii. Chapter.

He rebuketh the vniuersallnes of the Galatians the whyche the vniuersallnes of the lawe, and declareth ne: uertheless that it was not giuen for y^e vniuersallnes

In the name of the Father, Amen. Whe folow the Galatians: who hath bewitched you, that ye shuld not beleue y^e truth: To whom Iesus Christe was described before the eyes & amonge you crucified. This only wold I learne of you whether ye receaued y^e spirit by the dedes of the lawe or by the preaching of the fayth: Are ye suche fooles, that after ye haue begonne in the sprete, ye nowe ende in the fleshe? So many thynges ye haue suffered in vayne, yf it be also in vayne. Moreover, he that ministrerth to you the sprete, & worketh myracles amonge you, doeth he it thoroowe the dedes of the lawe, or by preaching of the fayth? * Euen as Abrahā beleued God, & it was ascribed to hym for rpyghteounes. Ye knowe therfore, y^e they whyche are of fayth, y^e same are y^e childre of Abrahā.

* Gene. xv. b
* Roma. iiii. a
* James. ii. b

For the scripture sayng afore hande, that God wold iustifye y^e hethen thoroowe fayth, thewed before hāde glad tydynges vnto Abrahā sayenge: * In the shall all naciōs be blessed. So then, they which be of fayth, are blessed wth faythful Abrahā. For as many as are of the dedes of the lawe, are subiecte to the curse. For it is wyrtten: * cursed be every one that continueth not in al thynges which are writen in the boke of y^e lawe to fulfill them. That no mā is iustified by the lawe in the syght of God, it is euident.

* Gene. xii. a * and. xii. b

* Deu. xxi. b

* Abacuc. ii. a * Roma. vii. c
* Hebr. x. g
* Ieru. xxi. a
* Esch. x. b
* Roma. f. a

* Deu. xxi. b

* For the iuste shall lyue by fayth. The law is not of fayth: but the man that fulfillerth the thynges (contayned in the lawe) shall lyue in them. Christ had deliuered vs from y^e curse of the law, in as much as he was made accursed for vs: For it is wyrtten: * cursed is every one, y^e hangeth on tree, that the blessing of Abrahā myght come on the Gentyls thoroowe Iesus Christe, that we myght receaue the promes of the sprete thoroowe fayth.

Brethren, I speake after y^e maner of mā. Though it be but a mans testamēt, yet yf it be allowed, no mā despyseth it: or adderth any thyng thereto. * To Abrahā and bys seede were y^e promes made. He sayeth not in the seedes, as many: but in thy seede as of one, whych is Christ. Thys I saye, that the lawe whych beganne afterwarde, beyonde foure hundred and therty peares, doth not disanull the testament, that was confirmed

* Genes. xii. c
* Exod. xii. f
* Iudith. b. b * Actes. vii. a afore of God vnto Christwarde, to make the promes of none effecte. * For yf the inheritance come of the lawe, it cometh not now of promes. But God gaue it vnto Abrahā by promes.

Wherfore the scrueith the lawe? * It was added because of transgression (tyll the seide came, to whom the promes was made) and it was ordeyned * by angels in the bande of a mediator. A mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. * Is y^e law then against y^e promes of God? God forbyd. For yf ther had bene a lawe geuen whych could haue geuen lyfe: the no doute rpyghteounes shuld come by the lawe. But the scripture concluded all thynges vnder synne, that y^e promes by the fayth of Iesus Christ shuld be geue vnto them that beleue. * But before that fayth came, we were kepte vnder the lawe, and were shut vp vnto y^e fayth which shuld afterwarde be declared.

* Roma. vii. b
* Actes. x. b
* Ieru. x. b
* Ieru. x. b

Wherfore, the law was our scolemaster vnto Christe, that we shuld be iustified by fayth. But after that fayth is come, we are no lenger vnder the scolemaster. For ye are al childre of god, because ye beleue in Christ Iesu. For: all ye that are baptised haue put on Christ. Ther is no Jewe, neither Gentyl: ther is nether bonde, nor fre: there is nether man, nor woman. For ye are all * one in Christe Iesu. Yf ye be Christes, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heyes accorde to the promes.

* Roma. x. b
* Ieru. x. b

The. iiii. Chapter.

Paul sheweth that thoroowe Christ we be deliuered from the lawe, and rebuketh the vniuersallnes of the Galatians

Ad I saye, that y^e heye (as I longe as he is a chyld) dyffereth not from a seruaunt, though he be Lord of all, but is vnder tuters & gourners, vntill the tyme that the father hath appoynted.

Euen so we also, when we were chyldren, were in bondage vnder the ordinaunces of the worlde. But when the tyme was full come, God * sente bys sonne, made of a woman, and made bonde vnto the lawe, to redeme them which were bonde vnto the lawe: that we (thoroowe election) myght receaue the inheritance that beloggeth vnto the naturall sonnes. Because ye are sonnes, * God hath sente the sprete of bys sonne into our hertes cryenge: Abba father. Wherfore now, thou art not a seruaunt: but a sonne. Yf thou be a sonne, thou arte also an heye of God, thoroowe Christ. *

* Ieru. x. b
* Ieru. x. b

Notwithstandyng, whē ye knewe not God, ye dyd * wyse vnto them * whych by nature

* Ieru. x. b

nature are no Goddesses. But now after that we haue knowe God (ye rather are knowe of God) how is it that ye tourne agayne vn to the weake and * beggerlye ordinaunces, wherunto agayne ye desyre afreshe to be in bondage: Ye obserue dayes, and monethes, and tynes, and yeares. I am in feare of you lest I haue bestowed in you labour in vayne.

Wherfore, I beseech you be ye as I am: for I am as ye are. Ye haue not hurt me at all. Ye knowe howe thowowe infirmite of the flesch I preached the Gospell vnto you at fyrst.
And my trespacion whych was in flesche, ye despyed not nether abhorred: but receaued me as an angell of God: eue as Christ Iesus what is then your felicity: for I beare you record, yf it had ben possible ye wold haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue geue th to me. Am I therfore become your enemye, because I tell you the truth?

They are gelouse ouer you amysse. Yee, they intende to exclude you, that ye shuld be feruent to them warde. It is good alwayes to be feruent in a good thyng, and not only when I am present wth you.

Whyltel chyldren, of whom I traunple in byth agayne, vntyll Christ be fashioned in you, I wolde I were with you now, and coude chaunge my voyce: for I stande in a doubte of you. Tell me: ye that desyre to be vnder the lawe, do ye not heare of the lawe?
For it is wyrtten, that Abrahā had two sonnes: the one by a bonde mayde, & other by a fre womā. Yee, & he whiche was bozne of the bonde woman, was bozne after the flesch: but he which was of fre womā, was bozne by promysse. Whych thynges are spoken by an allegorye. For these are two testamentes, the one frome the mounte Syna, whych gendzeth vnto bondage, which is Agar. For mounte Syna is Agar in Arabia, and bozdzeth vpon the cytie, whych is now called Ierusalem, and is in bondage with her chylidren.

But * Ierusalem, which is a boue, is fre: which is the mother of vs all. For it is written. * Reioyce thou bare, that bearest no chyldren: breake forth and crye, thou that trauaylest not. For the desolate hath many mo chylidren, then she which hath an husbāde.
Wherfore, we are after Iahac, the chylidren of promysse. But as then he that was bozne after the flesche, persecuted hym that was bozne after the spire, euen so is it now. Ne-uerthelesse, what sayeth the scripture: * put awaye the bonde woman and her sonne. For the sonne of the bonde woman shall not be heire wth the sonne of the fre woman. So then brethren we are not chylidren of bonde woman: but of the free.

¶ The. v. Chapter

¶ He laboureth to drawe them awaye from circumsion, sheweth them the basayle betwixte the spire and the flesche, and the frutes of them both Sande fast therfore in the lybertie wherwyth Christe hath made vs fre, and wrappe not your selues a-gayne in * the yoke of bondage.

Beholde, I Paule saye vnto you, that yf ye be circumcised, Christe shall profyte you nothyng at all. I testifie agayne to euerye man whych is circumcised, that he is boude to kepe y whole lawe. Christe is become but in vayne vnto you. As many of you as are iustified by the lawe are fallen from grace.
We loke for, and hope in the spire to be in-stified thowowe sayth. * For in Iesu Christ nether is circumcision any thyng worth, nether yet vncircumcision but sayth * whych worketh by loue. Ye dyd runne well: who was a let vnto you, that ye shulde not beleue the trueth? * (consent vnto no man) Euen the counsell whych came not of hym that calleth you * I tell leuen doth leuen the whole lombe of dowe.

¶ I haue trust towarde you in the Lord, that ye shalbe none other wyse minded. But he that troubleth you, shal beare hys indigement whatsoeuer he be. Wherfore, yf I yet preache circumcision, why do I then yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse ceased. I wolde to God, they were separated from you, whych trouble you. Brethren, ye were called into lybertie: only * let not your lybertie be an occasion vnto the flesche: but by loue * (of the spire) serue one another. For all the lawe is fulfilled in one worde, whych is this: * thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe. Yf ye hyte and deuoure one another: take hede, lest ye be lykewyse consumed one of another.

¶ I saye: walke in the spire, and fulfill not the luste of the flesche. For the flesche insteth contrary to the spire, and * the spire contrary to the flesche. These are contrary one to the other, so that ye cannot do whatsoeuer ye wolde. But and yf ye be led of the spire, then are ye not vnder the lawe. The dedes of the flesche are manifest, whiche are these: aduoutry, fornicacion, vnclenes, wan-tones, worshipping of ymages, wythcraft hatred, variaunce, zeile, wrath, stryfe, sedy-cions, sectes, enuyenge, murder, drunkennes, glottonye, and such lyke: of the whych I tell you before as I haue told you in tyme past, that * they whych comyt such thynges shall not be inheritous of the kyngdome of God. Contrariwise, the frute of the spire is, loue, ioye, peace, long suffering, gentlenes, goodnes, faythfulnes, mekenes, tempera-cy. * Agaynst suche there is no lawe. They truely that are Christes, haue crucified the flesche wth the affections and lustes.

¶ Yf we lyue in the spire, let vs walke lik. iiii. in the in þe ſpʒete. Let vs not be deſprouſ of wayne glorie, prouokynge one another, enuyenge one another.

The .vi. Chapter.

He exhorteth them to brotherly loue, & one to beare with another. In the ende he warneth them to beware of circuncision.

Brethren, yf a man alſo be takē in any faute, ye whyche are ſpiritually, helpe to amende hym in the ſpʒete of mekenes: conſyderynge thy ſelfe, leſt thou alſo be tempted. * Beare ye one anothers burthen, and lo fulfyll the lawe of Chriſt. For yf any man ſeme to hym ſelfe that he is ſomewhat, when in dede he is nothyng, the ſame decea ueth hym owne mynde. Let euery man proue hym owne worke, and then ſhall he haue reioyſynge onely in his owne ſelfe, and not in another. For euery man ſhall beare hym owne burthen.

* Rom. 12. a

* Ro. 12. 1. c.

* Rom. 12. 1. c. & 1. Cor. 12. 1. b

* Job. 12. 1. b

* 1. Cor. 12. 1. b

* Let hym that is taught in þe worde, miniſter vnto hym þe teacheth hym in all good thynges. Be not deceaued. God is not mocked. For whatſoeuer a man ſoweth, that ſhall he alſo reape. For he that ſoweth in his fleiſhe, ſhall of the fleiſhe reape corrupcion. But he that ſoweth in the ſpʒete, ſhall of the ſpʒete reape lyfe euerlaſtyng. * Let vs not be wery of well doyng. For when the tyme is come, we ſhall reape without weryneſſe. Whyl we haue therfore tyme, let vs do good vnto al men, and ſpecially vnto them which are of the houſholde of fayth.

Ye ſe how large a letter I haue wyrtten vnto you with myne owne hande. As many as deſpyze withoutward apertuſe to pleaſe carnally, the ſame conſtrayne you to be circuncised, onely leſt they ſhulde ſuffer perſecucion for the croſſe of Chriſt. For they theſelues whych are circuncised, kepe not þe law, but deſpyze to haue you circuncised, that they myght reioyce in your fleiſhe.

* Gala. 3. a

* 1. Cor. 12. 1. c

God forþy that I ſhulde reioyce, but in the croſſe of our Lorde Jeſu Chriſt, whereby the worlde is crucified vnto me, & I vnto þe worlde. For in Chriſt Jeſu nether circuncision auayleth any thinge at all: no, vncircuncision: but a new creature. And as many as walke accordynge to this rule, peace be on the and mercy, & vpon Iſraell, that pertayneth to God. And hence forth, let no mā put me to buſynes. * For I beare in my body the markes of the Lorde Jeſu. Brethren, the grace of our Lorde Jeſu Chriſt be with your ſpʒete. Amen.

The Epistle vnto the Galathians was sent from Rome.

The Epistle of the Apostle saynt Paul to the Ephelians.

The fyrſt Chapter.

The euerlaſtyng ordinance and election of God in chuſynge of all me, thowgh Chriſt Jeſus hym ſonne, we are ordeyned vnto good workes, the dominion of Chriſt.

Praise an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt, by the wyll of God. To the ſayntes which are at Ephelus, & to the which beleue on Jeſus Chriſt.

* Grace be with you, and peace from God our father.

From the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt. * Blessed be God the father of oure Lorde Jeſus Chriſt, which hath blessed vs with all maner of ſpiritual blessing in heuſly thinges by Chriſt accordynge as he had choſen vs in hym, before the foundations of the worlde were layde, that we ſhulde be holy, and without blame before hym, thowgh we loue. Which ordeyned vs before thowgh Jeſus Chriſt to be beſyes vnto hym ſelfe, accordynge to the good pleaſure of hym wyll, to the prayſe of the glory of his grace, wherewith he hath made vs accepted thowgh we the beloued.

* By whome we haue redemption thowgh hym blood, euen the forgiuenes of ſynnes, accordynge to þe riches of his grace: wher of he hath miniſtered vnto vs abundantly in al wyſdome and prudence. And hath opened vnto vs the myſtery of hym wyll, accordynge to hym good pleaſure, whyche he had purpoſed in hym ſelfe, to haue it declared: whē the tyme was full come, that he myght ſet vp all thynges preſtyly by Chriſt (bothe the thynges whych are in heauen, & the thynges whych are in earth) eue by hym, by who we are made beſyes, and were therto predeſtinate accordynge to the purpoſe of hym by whoſe power all thynges are wrought accordynge to the purpoſe of hym owne wyll: þe we (which before beleued in Chriſt) ſhulde be vnto the prayſe of hym glory.

In whom alſo we beleue, forasmuch as we haue hearde the worde of truth, eue the Goſpell of poure ſaluacyon: wherin, when ye had beleued * ye were ſealed with the holy ſpʒete of promes whych is þe ernest of our inheritance, for the recoueryng of the purchaſed poſſeſſion, vnto the prayſe of hym glory.

Wherefore I alſo (after that I herde of þe fayth, whych ye haue in þe Lorde Jeſu, & loue vnto unto all p^rapntes) * cease not to gene than hes for you, makynge mēcyon of you in my prayers: that the God of oure Lorde Jesus Christ, the father of glorye, may geue vnto you the sprete of wple dome and reuelacion, by the knowlege of hym self, and lyghen y^e eyes of poure myndes, that ye maye knowe what the * hope is, where vnto he hath called you, and howe ryche the glorye is of hys inheritaunce vpon the sayntes, and what is the exceedynge greatnes of hys power to vs warde, which beleue accordynge to the wo-kyng of that his mighty power, whych he wrought in Christ, whan he rayled him fro the deyd, * and set him on his right hande in heauēly thynges, aboue * all rule, * power, and myght, and dominion, and aboue every name that is named, not in this worlde only, but also in the worlde to come: and * hath put all thynges vnder hes fete, * hath made hym aboue all thynges: the heed of the congregacyō, which is his body and the fulnes of hym, that fylleth all in all.

The ii. Chapter.

¶ He sheweth them what maner of people they were before they conuerted, and what they are now in Christ.

¶ And you hath he quickned wher as ye were deed in trespasses & synnes, in the whych in tyme passed ye walked, according to the course of this worlde, euen after the gouernour that ruleth in p^rayer, the spretē that nowe worketh in the children of vneleste * amonge whome we all had oure conuerfacion also in tyme past, in the lustes of oure fleshe, and fulfilled the wyll of the fleshe and of the mynde: and were by nature p^rchylidren of wrath, euen as well as other.

¶ But God which is ryche in mercy (for his great loue wherwith he loued vs, eue when we were deed by synnes) quickened vs together in Christ (* by grace are ye saued) * ray-led vs vp together with hym and made vs syt together with hym amonge them of heauen in Christ Iesu. That in tymes to come, he myght shewe the exceedynge riches of his grace, i kyndnes to vs ward thozow Christ Iesu. For by grace are ye made safe thozow fayth, and that not of poure selues. It is the gyfte of God and cometh not of workes, lest any man shulde boast hym selfe. For we are hys workman shyppe, created in Christ Iesu vnto * good workes, whych the God ordained that we shulde walke in them.

¶ Wherefore, remember that ye beyng in tyme passed Gētyls in the fleshe, wer called vncircumcysion from that whych is called * circumcysion in the fleshe, whych circumcysion is made by handes: remember (I saie) that at that tyme ye were * about Christ, beyng aliauntes from the comē wealth of Israel, and straungers from the testamentes of the promes haupnge no hope, and be-pyng without God in this worlde. But now by p^rmeanes of Christ Iesu, ye whych somtyme were farre of, are made nye by the bloude of Christ.

¶ For he is our peace, whych hath made of both one, and hath broken downe the wall that was a stoppe betwene vs, * hath also put awaye thozow hys fleshe, the cause of hatred, euen the lawe of commaundmentes conceyning in p^rlawe wyrtē, for to make of twayne one newe man in hym selfe, to makyng peace, * to reconcyle both vnto God in one body thozow the crosse, and shewe hatred therby: * came, and preached peace to you which were a farre of, and to them that were nye. For thozow him we both haue an intraunce, in one sprete vnto the father.

¶ Nowe therfore, ye are not straungers, and forēyners: but cytelins with p^rapntes * of the houthold of God: and are built vpo the * foundacyon of the Apostles and Prophetes, * Jesus Christe him selfe beyng the heed corner stone, in whom what buyldynge forer is coupled together, it groweth vnto an holy tēple in the Lorde, in whome ye also are buylded together, to be an habitacyon of God thozow the * (body) goost. ¶

The iii. Chapter.

¶ He sheweth the cause of his p^resentment, beyng the not to fapnt because of hys trouble: * prayeth God to make them stedfast in hys sprete.

¶ Of this cause, I paul am a p^resoner of Jesus Christ for you heytē: ¶ Ye haue herde of the mynistracyon of p^r grace of God * whych is geuen me to you warde. For by reuelacion shewed he p^r my-stry vnto me, as I wrote afoze in few wodes wherby when ye reade, ye maye vnderstāde my knowlege in the mystery of Christ whych mystery in tymes passed was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now declared vnto hys holy Apostles and Prophetes by the sprete: that the Gētyls shulde be inheritours also, and of the same body, and partetakers of his promes in Christ, by the meanes of the Gospell, where of I am made a minister, accordyng to p^r gyft of the grace of God which is geuen vnto me after p^r wo-kyng of hys power.

¶ Vnto me the * least of all sayntes is this grace geuen, that I shulde preache amonge p^r Gētyls p^r vnsearcheable riches of Christ and to make all men se, what the felowshyp of the mystere is, whych from the begyn-nyng of the worlde hath bene hyd in God whych made al thynges thozow Jesus Christ to the intent, that nowe vnto the rulers and powers in heuēly thynges, myght be knowe ak v by the

1. Cor. iii. b
Eph. ii. b
Act. xiii. b
Rom. ix. f
1. Cor. xv. e
Eph. i. b
1. Pet. ii. b

1. Cor. xiii. b
Gal. i. b

1. Cor. xiii. b

by the cōgregation, the manyfold wylsom of God, accordyng to the eternall purpose, whych he wrought in Christ Iesu our Lord by whom we haue boldnesse and entraunce with the confidence which is by the fapth of hym. ¶ Wherefore I desyre, y^e saynt not because of my tribulaciōs that I suffre for your sakes: whych is your prayse.

* Collo. 1. b

C For this cause I bowe my knees vnto y^e father of our Lord Iesus Christ, whych is father ouer all that is called father in heaue and in erth, that he wolde graunt you accor-dyng to the ryches of hys glozpe, that ye may be strenghted with myght by his spret in ther inner man that Christ maye dwel in poure hertes by fapth, that ye beyng rote and grounded in loue, myght be able to cōprehēde with al sayntes, what is the bredth and lēgth, deēpth and heygth: & to knowe the excellent loue of the knowlege of Christ that ye myght be fulfilled with all fulnes, whych cometh of God.

D Vnto hym that is able to do exceedyng aboundantly aboue al y^e we aske or thinke accordyng to y^e power that worketh in vs, be prayse in the congregacion by Christ Jesus, thowowe out all ages worlde withoute ende. Amen. **¶

The. iiii. Chapter. **¶

C He exhorteth them vnto mekenes, to lape asyd the olde conuersacion of grevynesse, and to walke in a newe lyfe.

* 1. Cor. vii. b

Therfore (which am a prisoner of y^e Lordes) exhorthe you, * that ye walke worthy of y^e vocaciō wher with ye are called, with all low-lynnesse and mekenesse, with humblenes of mynde, forbearynge one another thowowe loue, and be diligent to kepe the vnyte of the sprete thowow the bonde of peace, being one bodye, and one sprete, euen as ye are called in one hope of poure callynge. One Lord, one fapth, one baptyme, one God & father of all, which is aboue all and thowow all, and in you all. **¶

* Roma. xii. b
ii. Cor. xii. a 3. Gal. i. b

* John. 16. b

¶ Vnto every one of is vs geue grace, accordyng to the measure of the gyfte of Christ. Wherefore he sayth: & when he went vp an hye, he led captiue captiue, & gaue gyftes vnto men. That he ascended: what meaneth it: but that he also descended fyrste into the lowest partes of the erth: * he that descended, is euen the same also that ascended vp, aboue all heauens, to fulfill al thin-ges.

* 1. Cor. xii. b Mat. x. a
Luce. ix. a

C And the very same made some Apostles, some Prophetes, some Euangelistes, some Shepherdes and Teachers: to the edifyng of the sayntes, to the worke and mynistraciō, euen to the edifyng of the body of Christ, tyll we all come to the vnitie of fapth, and knowlege of the sonne of God, vnto a perfecte man, vnto y^e measure of the full perfyte age of Christe. ¶ That we hence forth shoulde be nomore children, * waueryng & carped about with every wynde of doctrine, by the wplynes of men, thowowe craftynes, wherby they laye a waite for vs to deceaue vs. But let vs folowe the tructh in loue, and in all thynges growe in hym, * whych is the heeb, eue Christ, in whom y^e all the bodye be coupled and knet together thowow out every ioynt wherwith: one ministreth to another (accordyng to the opera-cion as every parte hath hys measure) he increaseth the bodye, vnto the edifyng of it selfe thowowe loue.

* Collo. 1. b

* Eph. 1. b
Am. 9. c
Collo. 1. c

* Rom. xii. b 1. Cor. xii. b

* Roma. 1. b
1. Pet. ii. a

¶ This I saye therfore, and testifie tho-rowe the Lord, that ye hence forth walke not, * as other Gētyls, walke, in vanitie of theyr minde, whyle they are blinded in their vnderstandinge, beyng farre from a godly lyfe, by y^e meanes of the ignoraunce that is in them, and because of the blindness of their hertes: which beynge past repentaunce, haue geuen them selues ouer vnto wantōnes, to worke al maner of vncleannes, eue with gre-dynes. But ye haue not so learned Christe.
Yf so be that ye haue herde of him, and haue ben taught in hym, as the tructh is in Iesu: (as conceyue the conuersacion in tyme past) to lape from you that olde man, which is corrupte, accordyng to the deceauable lustes. ¶ ¶ To be renued also in y^e sprete of your mynde, and * to put on that newe mā, which after God is shapen in ryghteousnes and true holynes.

* Roma. 1. b
Collo. 1. a

* 1. Cor. xii. a

* 3. Gal. 1. b

* 2. Cor. xii. a
3. Gal. 1. b

¶ Wherefore, * put a waite lyenge, & speake every mā truth vnto his neyghboure, for as muche as we are members one of another.
* Be angre ye, and synne not: let not y^e Sonne go downe vpon your wraath, nether geue place vnto the backbyter. * Let hym that steale, steale nomore: but let hym rather laboure w his hādes y^e thinge whych is good, that he may geue vnto hym that nedeth. **¶

¶ Let not fylch communicaciō procede out of poure mouth: but y^e which is good to edyfie w all, as oft as neede is: y^e it may mynister grace vnto the hearers. And greue not ye y^e holp sprete of God * by whom ye are sealed vnto the day of redēpciō. Let all bytternes & fearlnes & wraath & rozyng & cursed spra-kyng, be put a waite from you, with al ma-liciousnes. Be ye courteous one to another, mercyfull, for geuyng one another, euen as God for Christes sake hath forgiven you.

* Roma. xii. b
ii. Cor. 1. b

The. v. Chapter. **¶

C He exhorteth them vnto loue, warneth them to be ware of all vncleannes, & teacheth howe to kepe obey theyr hādes, and howe to loue men ought to in terate theyr wyues.

Be ye therfore followers of god as deare chyldren, & walke ye in loue eue as Christ loued vs, and gaue hys selfe for vs an offeryng and a sacrifice

* 1. Pet. 1. b John. xii. b
1. Gal. 1. a

a sacrifice of a swete sauer to God. * As for fornicacyon and all vncleannes, or couetousnes let it not be once named amonge you, as it becommeth sayntes, or fflythpnes, or foolysh talkynge, or lecheryng, which are not comely: but rather geuinge of thanks. For this ye knowe that * no whoremonger, ether vncleane persone, or couetous persone, (which is a wortheppener of ymages) hath any enheritaunce in the kyngdome of Christ & of God

* Let no man deceaue you wpyth bayne wordes. For because of suche thynges cometh the wrath of God, vpon the chyldren of disobedience. Be not ye therfore compaynyons of the. Ye were somtyme darkenes, but nowe are ye lycht in the Lorde.

* Walke as chyldren of lycht. (For y frute of the spyrete consisteth in all goodnes, and ryghteousnes and truelyth.) * Searchynge what is acceptable vnto y Lorde. And haue no felowshyppe wpyth the vnfrutefull workes of darkenes: but rather rebuke the. For it is shame euē to name those thynges which are done of them in secrete: but all thynges, when they are brought forth by the lychte, are manifest. For whatsoeuer is manifest, that same is lycht. Wherefore, he sayeth: awake thou that sleepest, and stande vpp from death, and Christ shall geue the lycht.

* Take hede therfore howe ye walke circumspectly: not as vnwysse: but as wysse men: redemyng the tyme, because the dayes are euyll: Wherefore, be ye not vnwysse, but vnderstande what the wil of the Lorde is, and be not drunken with wyne wherein is excess: but be fylled with the spyrete, speakynge vnto poure selues * in psalmes and hymnes, & spiritual songes, synngynge and making melodye to the Lorde in your hertes, gruyng thanks alwayes for al thynges, vnto God the father in the name of oure Lorde Jesus Christ, submyttinge your selues one to another in the feare of God.

* Ye wemen, submyt your selues vnto poure owne husbendes, as vnto the Lorde. For * the husbande is the wyues heed, euen as Christ is: the heed of the congregacion, and the same is he y ministrerth saluacyon vnto the body. Therfore, as the congregacyon is in subieccion to Christ, lyke wyse let y wyues also be in subieccion to their husbades in all thynges. Ye husbendes, loue poure wyues, euen as Christ also loued the congregacion, and gaue him selfe for it, to sanctifye it, and clesed it in the founayne of water thorow the worde, to make it vnto him selfe a glorious congregacyon, wpythout spot or wrynkle, or any suche thyng: but that it shulde be holy, and wpythout blame. So ought men to loue their wyues, as theyr owne bodies. he that loueth his wyfe, loueth hym selfe. For no man euer yet hated hym selfe: but nor selfeth and cheriseth it, euen as y Lorde both the congregacyon. For we are members of hym body, of his fleshe, and of hym bones. * For this cause shall a man leaue father & mother, and shall be ioyned vnto his wyfe, & of two shall be made one fleshe. This is a greates secrete, but I speake of Christ and of y congregacyon. Neuer thelesse, do ye so, that euery one loue his wyfe euen as hym selfe, & let the wyfe reuerence her husbande.

The vi. Chapter.

Howe chyldren shulde behaue them selues towards their parentes. Seruauntes towards their maysters. An exhortacyon to the spiritual battayle.

* Chyldren, obeye your fathers & mothers in the Lorde: for that is right. & honoure thy father and mother. (the sam is y fyrst commaundement in the promes) that thou mayst prosper, & line longe on earth. Ye fathers moue not your chyldren to wrath: but brynge them vpp thorow the doctrine and informyacyon of the Lorde. Ye seruauntes, obeye them that are your bodye maysters, wpyth feare and tremblynge, euen wpyth the synghenes of poure herte, as vnto Christ: not doyng seruice vnto y eye, as they that go about to please men: but as the seruauntes of Christe, doyng the wyll of God from the herte wpyth good wyll, seruyng the Lorde and not men. Knowynge this, that whatsoeuer good thinge any man doth, y same shal be receaue agayn of God, whether he be bonde or fre. And ye masters, do euen y same thynges vnto the, puttinge awaye threatenynge. Knowynge, y pour master also is in heaue, * nether is ther any respecte of persone wpyth hym.

* Finally my bethren, be stronge thorow the Lorde and thorow the power of hym myght. Put on all the armour of God, that ye maye stande agaynst the assautes of y deuell. For we wrestle not agaynst blond and fleshe: but agaynst rule, agaynst power, agaynst wordly rulers, euen gouerners of y darkenes of this worlde, agaynst spiritual craftynes in heauenly thynges.

Wherefore, take vnto you y whole armour of God, that ye maye be able to resyst in the cruel daye, and stande persfyt in al thynges.

Stāde therfore, * and pour loynes girded with the truth, haupnge on the best plate yf ryghteousnes, and haupng shooes on your fete, that ye maye be prepared for y Gospel of peace: Aboue al, take to you the thyld of fapth, wherewith ye may quench al the fyre darteres of the wyched. And take the helmet of saluacyon, and the swearde of the spyrete, which is the worde of God. * And praye alwayes with all maner of prayer and supplicacyon

* Gene. ii. 2
Mat. xix. 6
Marke. x. 8
I. Cor. vi. 18
Eph. v. 3

* Collo. iii. 20
I. Tim. ii. 15

* Deu. x. 16

* II. Cor. x. 5
I. Tim. ii. 15
Collo. iii. 20

* I. Tim. ii. 15
I. Cor. x. 5

* I. Tim. ii. 15
I. Cor. x. 5

3 Collo. iiii. a

plicatio in the spere: and watche ther vnto wythall instance and supplicacyon for all saynctes and for me: that vter aunce maye be geuen vnto me þ I may open my mouth frely, to vter þ secretes of my gospel (wher of I am messenger in bondes) that therin I maye speake frely, as I ought to speake.

But that ye maye also knowe what condycyon I am in, and what I do, Tychicus the deare brother and faythfull mynister in the Lorde, shall shewe you of all thynges, whom I haue sent vnto you for þ same purpose, þ ye myght knowe what case we stode in, and that he might comferte your hertes. Peace be vnto the brethren and loue wyth fayth, from God the father and from the Lorde Iesus Christ. Grace be with al them wythch lone our Lorde Iesus Christe synce-ly. Amen

¶ Sent from Rome vnto the Ephesians by Tychicus.

The Epistle of saynte

Paule the Apostle to the Philippians.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ He exhorted them to encrease in loue, in knowlege, and experience of Godly lyuynge.

Paule and Timothe the ser-uautes of Iesu Christ. To all the saynctes in Christe Iesu, wythch are at Philip-pos wyth the Bpshoppes & Deacons.

Grace be vnto you and peace from God oure father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

* Roma. i. b
Collo. i. a

¶ I thanke my God wyth all remembraunce of you: alwayes in all my prayers for you, and praye with gladnes: because ye are come into the felowshipp of the Gospel from the fyrste daye vntyl now. ¶ And am surely certifyed of this, that he whiche hath begonne a good worke in you, shall per-forme it vntyl þ daye of Iesus Christ, as it becommeth me, to iudge I of you al, because I haue you in my herte: for as much as ye all are companions of grace wyth me, euen in my bondes, and in the defendynge and stablyshynge of the Gospel.

* Ephe. i. b

Because God is my recorde, howe greatly I longe after you al, from the very herte rote in Iesus Christe. ¶ And thys I praye, that poure lone may encrease yet moze and moze in knowlege, and in all vnderstandynge, that ye maye accepte the thynges that are most excellent, that ye maye be pure, & suche as offende no man vntyl the daye of Christ: beynge fylled wyth the frute of ryghteounes, wythch cometh by Iesus Christ vnto þ gloze and prayse of God.

I wolde ye shulde vnderstode (brethren) that the thynges wythch happened vnto me chaunced vnto the great furtheraunce of the Gospel: So that my bandes in Christ, are manifest thowout all the iudgement hal and in all other places: In so muche that many of the brethren in the Lorde beynge enco-raged thowout my bandes, dare moze boldly speake the worde wythout feare. Some preach Christ of enuye and stryfe, & some of good wyll. The one parte preache Christ of stryfe and not synce-ly, supposynge to adde moze aduersitye to my bandes. Agayn the other parte preache of loue, because they know that I am set to defende the Gospel.

¶ What then? So that Christ be preached any maner of way, whether it be by occasion, or of true meanynge, I am glad therof, ye and wyl be glad. For I knowe, that this shal chaunce to my saluacyon, & thowout your prayer and mynistryng of the spere of Iesu Christe accordynge to my expectacyon, and hope, that in nothyng I shalbe ashamed: but that wyth all boldnesse, (as alwayes euen so now also) Christe shalbe magnifyed in my body, whether it be thowout lyfe, or tho-row deeth. For Christ is to me lyfe, & deeth is to me auantage.

¶ If it chaunce me to lyue in the fleshe, that thinge is to me frutefull for the worke, and what I shal chose I wote not. For I am costrayned of these two thynges. ¶ I desyre to be loosed, & to be w Christ whych is muche & farre better. Acuerthelesse, to abyde in the fleshe is moze nedefull for you. And this am I sure of, that I shall abyde and continue w you al, for your furtheraunce & ioye of poure fayth, that your reioysynge may be the moze aboundant thowowe Iesus Christ in me, by my commynge to you agayne.

¶ Onely let poure conuersacyon be, as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ: that whether I come & se you, or els be absent, I may yet heare of your condycyon, that ye continue in one spere, and in one soule, labouring as we do, to maintayne the fayth of þ Gospel, and in nothyng fearynge your aduersaries, which is to them a cause of perdition, but to you of saluacyon, and that of God: for vnto you it is gyuen of Christ that not onely ye shulde beleue on hym: but also that ye shuld suffre for his sake, haupng euē such a fryght, as ye sawe in me, and nowe heare of me.

¶ The. ii. Chapter.

¶ He exhorted them to vniue and by other waye and to beware of stryfe and bayne gloze. And for a sure ensample, he laudeth Christ before them.

¶ These

If there be therfore any consolaciō in Christ, yf ther be any comfort of loue, yf ther be any felowshipp of spirite, yf ther be any copartison & mercy: fulfyll ye my ioye, yf ye be lyke mynded, haupnge one loue, beynge of one accord, and of one mynde, that nothyng be done thowowe stryfe or of wayne glozpe, but in mykenes of mynde, let euery man esteeme another better then him selfe. * Loke not ye euery man on hys owne thynges, but euery man on the thynges that are other mens.

* Let the sam mynde be in you whych was in Christe Iesu: whych when he was in the shape of God, thought it not robbery to be equall wyth God. * Neuerthelesse he made hym selfe of no reputacion, takynge on hym the shape of a seruaunte, and * became lyke vnto men, and was founde in hys apparell as a mā. he humbled hym selfe, and became obediēt vnto deeth, eue the deeth of a crosse.

* Wherefore, god also hath exalted him on hye and geuen hym a name whyche is aboue all names: that in * the name of Iesus * euery knee shulde bowe, both of thinges in heauē and thinges in earth and thinges vnder the earth, and that al tonges shulde confesse, that Iesus Christ is the * Lorde, vnto the prayse of God the father. * I

* Wherefore, (my dearly beloued) as ye haue alwayes obeyed, not when I was presente onely but now much moze in myne absence euen so worke out your owne saluaciō with feare and trembling. * For it is God which worketh in you, bothe the wyll and also the dede, euen of good wyll.

* Do all thinge wythoute murmure, and dysputynge, that * ye maye be suche as no man can coplayne on: and vnspayed sonnes of God wythout rebuke, in the myddes of a croked & peruerse nacion: amōge whom ye that ye shyne as lightes in the world, holdynge faste the worde of lyfe, that I maye * reioyce in the daye of Christe, how that I haue not runne in vayne, neyther haue laboured in vayne.

Per, and though I be offered vpon the offering & sacrifice of your fayth: I reioyce and reioyce with you al. For the same cause also do ye reioyce, and reioyce with me.

I trust in the Lorde Iesus, for to * sende Tymotheus shortly vnto you. * that I also maye be of good comforte, when I knowe what cause ye stande in. For I haue no man that is to lyke mynded to me, whych with so pure affecyon wyll care for youre matters. For all other seke theyr owne, and not the thynges which are Iesus Christes. Ye know the proffe of him, how that as a sonne with the father, so hath he wyth me bestowed his seruice in the Gospell. hym therfore I hope to sende, as sone as I knowe howe it wyll go with me. I trust in the Lorde, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

* But I supposed it necessary to sende brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my copanion in laboure and felowe souldyer, your Apostel, which also ministrereth vnto me at nede. For he longed after you all, and was full of heynnes, because that ye had herd saye, that he had ben sicke. And no doute he was sycke in so much that he was nye vnto deeth. But God had mercy on hym: and not on hym onely, but on me also, lest I shulde haue sorowe vpon sorowe. I sente him therfore the moze diligently: that when ye se hym, ye maye reioyce agayne, & that I maye be the lesse sorrowfull. Receaue him therfore in the Lorde with al gladnesse, and * make much of such: because that for the worke of Christ he wēt so farre, that he was nye vnto deeth, and regarded not hys lyfe: to fulfyll that whyche was lackynge on your parte towards me.

The.iii. Chapter.

He warneth them to beware of false teachers, who be called dogges and enemies of Christ, & reprooueth mannes owne ryghteousnes.

Moreouer, (bretthren) reioyce ye in * Lorde. It greueth me not to wyte one thyng often to you. For to you it is a sure thing. Beware of dogges, beware of euil workers. Beware of dissensio. * For we are circuncision, which serue God: in the spire, & reioyce in Christ Iesu, and haue no confidēce in the fleshe: though I myght also reioyce in the fleshe. Yf any other man thynketh that he hath wherof he myght truste in the fleshe, I haue moze: beynge circuncised the eght daye of the kynred of Israel, of the tribbe of Benjamin: an Ebzue bozne of Ebzues: as concerning the lawe, a Pharise: as concerning feruentnesse, I persecuted the congregacion as touchynge the ryghteousnes whych is in the lawe, I was vnrēbukable.

* But the thynges that were hauntage vnto me, those I counted losse for Christes sake. Yee, I thynke al thinges but losse for excellēce of the knowlege of Christe Iesu my Lorde. For whome I haue counted all thyng losse, and do iudge the but vyle, that I maye wyne Christ, and be founde in him not haupnge myne owne ryghteousnes of lawe: but that whyche is thowowe the fayth of Christ: euen the ryghteousnes which cometh of God thowowe fayth: that I maye knowe hym and the vertue of hys resurrec- cion, and felowshipp or vns passions, whyle I am conforable vnto oys (death) yf by any meanes I might attaine vnto the resurrection of the dead.

Not that

* Roma. 12. b
1. Thessa. 5. c.

* Roma. 11. b
Ephes. 1. c
1. Thessa. 1. a

* 11. cor. 11. a
1. Acte. 13. b
and. 13. b

* 1. cor. 13. b

E Not that I haue attayned vnto it already, or that I am already perfecte: but I followe, yf that I may comprehend that, where in I am comprehended of Christ Iesu. Brethren, I counte not my selfe that I haue gotten it as yet, but this one thinge I saye: I forget those thinges which are behynde, & endeuour my self vnto those thinges which are before, and (acordyng to the marke appointed) I preace to the rewarde of the hie callinge of God thowowe Christ Iesu. Let vs therfore as many as be perfecte, be thus wyle mynded, and yf ye be otherwyle mynded, God shal open the same also vnto you. Auert thelesse vnto that which we haue attayned vnto, let vs procede by one rule, that we maye be of one accorde.

* 1. Cor. xiii. c. and f. d.

* Rom. xli. c.

* 1. Cor. xli. b.

Brethren, be folowers together of me, and loke on them which walke euen so, as ye haue vs for an ensample. For many walke (of whome I haue tolde you ofte and nowe tell you wepyng) that they are yene mymes of the crosse of Christ, whose ende is damnacion, whose God is theyr belly & glory to theyr shame, which are worldly mynded. But oure conuersacion is in heauen, fro whence we loke for the saueour, eue y Lord Iesus Christ, which shal chaunge our vyle bodye, that he maye make it lyke vnto his glorious bodye, accordyng to the workyng wherby he is able also to subdue al thinges vnto hym selfe.

The. iiii. Chapter.

De salutem certam of the, exhorteth the to be of honest conuersacion, and thanketh the because of the provision, that they made for hym beyng in prison.

* Luke. x. c. Apoca. xlii. b. 21. Thes. v. d.

Herfore my brethren (dearly beloved and longed for) my hope and crowne, so continue in the Lord ye beloved. I praye Euodias, and beseeche Syntyche, y they be of one accorde in the Lord. Pea, and I beseeche the faythfull yockfelowe, helpe y women which laboured wyth me in y Gospel, and wyth Clement also, & wyth other my labour felowes whose names are in y booke of lyfe. Reioyce in the Lord alwaye and agayne I saye reioyce. Let poure softenes be knowen vnto all me: The Lord is euen at hande. Be carefull for nothyng: but in all prayer and supplication let poure peticions be manifeste vnto God wyth geuyng of thanks. And the peace of God (which passeth all vnderstandyng) kepe poure hertes and myndes thowowe Christ Iesu.

Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever thinges are true, whatsoever thinges are honest, whatsoever thinges are iuste, whatsoever thinges are pure, whatsoever thinges are comely, whatsoever thinges are of honest report: yf ther be any vertue, yf ther be any prayse, (of leauynge) those same haue ye in poure mynde, which ye haue bothe learned and receaued, herd also and sene in me: those thinges do, & the God of peace shal be wyth you. I reioyce in y Lord greatly, that now at the laste your care is reuyned agayne for me in that wherin ye were also carefull, but ye lacked oportynyte. I speake not because of necessitie. For I haue learned in whatsoever estate I am, therwith to be contente. I knowe how to be lowe and I know how to excede. Euery where and in all thinges I am instructed, both to be full and to be hongry, both to haue plenty and to suffre nede. I can do all thinges thowowe Christ which strengtheneth me. Notwithstandyng ye haue wel done, that ye bare parte with me in my tribulacion.

Ye of Philippios know also that in the begynnyng of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no congregaciō bare part with me, as concernyng geuyng and receauyng, but ye onely. For when I was in Thessalonica, ye sent once and afterwarde agayne vnto my necessity: not y I desire gyftes: but I desire aboundaunt frute on your parte. Neuertheles I receaued all, and haue plenty. I was euen fylled after that I receaued of Epaphroditus y thinges which were sente from you, an odoure of a sweete smell a sacrifice accepted and pleasaunt to God. My God shal supplie all your nede thowow his glorious riches by Iesu Christ vnto God & our father be prayse for euermore. Amen. Salute all the sayntes in Christ Iesu. The brethren which are with me, grete you. All the sayntes salute you, moost of all they which are of the Emperours household. The grace of our Lord Iesu Christ be wyth you all. Amen.

This Epistle was wyrtten from Rome by Epaphroditus.

The Epistle of saynte

Paule the Apostle to the Collosians

The first Chapter.

The grete shalke vnto God for theyr saynt, lowe hope: prayeth for theyr increase and sheweth howe we are the kyngdome of God, obtained by Christ, which is the head of the congregaciō.

Paule an Apostle of Iesu Christe by the wyl of God, & brother Timotheus.

To ysaies which are at Colossa & brethren y beleue in Christ. Grace be vnto you pon and peace from God our father, and fro the Lorde Jesu Christ.

* We gene thankes to God the father of oure Lorde Jesu Christ * alwayes for you in our prayers. For we haue herde of youre fayth in Christ Jesu, and of y loue which ye beare to all sayntes, for y hopes sake which is layd vp in store for you in heauē, of which hope, ye herd before by the true worde of the Gospell, which is come vnto you: euen as it is into al y world, & is fructfull: (& groweth,) as it is also amōge you, from the day in the whiche ye herde of it, and had experience in the grace of God thowow y trueth, as ye let ned of * Epaphra our deare felowe seruāt, whiche is for you a faythfull mynister of Christ whiche also declared vnto vs youre loue whiche ye haue in the spirete.

* For this cause we also, sence y dape we herd of it, haue not ceased to pray for you & to desyre, that ye myght be fulfilled with the knowledg of his wyll, in al wysedome and spiretual vnderstādyng, that ye myght walke worthy of the Lorde, that in all thin ges ye mape please * beyng fructfull in all good workes, and encreasyng in the know lege of God strenghted wyth al myght, tho rowe his glorious power, vnto all pacience and longe sufferynge wyth ioyfulness, I ge uynge thankes vnto the father, which hath made vs mete to be partakers of the inheri taunce of sayntes in ioy.

Whiche hath deliuered vs fro the power of darkenes, and hath traslated vs into the kingdome of his deare sonne * by whom we haue redempcion thowow his bloude, euen y forgeuenes of synnes: which is y image of y inuisible God, fyrst begottē of al creatures.
* For by hym were al thynges created, that are in heauē, and that are in earth: vlyble & inuisible: whether they be maistye or lordē shyp, cyther rule or power. Al thynges were created by him and for hym, and he is before all thynges, & by hym al thynges haue their beyng.

And * he is the head of the bodye, euen of the congregacyon: he is the begynnyng and
* fyrst begotten of the deede, that in all thyng ges he myght haue the preemynence. For it pleased the father, that in him shulde al ful nes dwell, & by hym to * reconcyte al thyng vnto hym selfe, & to set at peace by him tho rowe the bloude of his crosse, both thynges in heauen and thynges in earth.

And you * which were somtyme farre of and enemyes, because your mindes were set in euell workes hath he now pet reconciled in the bodye of his fleshe thowowe death, to make you holy, & vblameable, and wyth out faute in his owne syght, yf ye continue grouded and stablyshed in the fayth, and be not moued away from the hope of the Gos pel, wherof ye haue herde, howe y it is prea ched amonge all creatures which are vnder heauē, wherof I Paul am made a minister.

Nowe ioye I * in my sufferinges: for you and fulfyl that which is beynde of the pas sions of Christ in my fleshe, for his bodys sake, which is in the congregacyon, wherof I am made a mynister, accordyng to y ordy nauce of God, whiche ordinaunce was ge uen me vnto youwarde to fulfyl the worde of God, that * mynistry which hath bene hyd sence the world beganne, & sence the begyn nyng of generacions: * but now is opened to yps sayntes, so whome God wolde make known what y glorious riches of this mi nistry is amonge the Gentyls, whiche ryches is Christ in you, y hope of glory, whom we preache, warnyng all men, and teachyng al men in all wysedome, to make all men per fyte in Christ Jesu. Wherin I also labour & stryue, euen as farreforth as yps strength worketh in me myghtely.

The ii. Chapter.

What great care Paul took for all congregations.
He exhorteth the to be steadfast in Christ, to be ware of false teachers and woful wysedome, and describeth the false prophetes.

For I wolde that ye knewe howe great care that I haue for you and for them that are at Laodicia and for as many as haue not sene my persone in the fleshe, that their hertes might be comforted wch they are knyt together in loue, and in al ryches of ful vnderstādyng, for to knowe the mynistry of God the father and of Christ, in whome are hyd all the trea sures of wysedome and knowlege. * This I saye, lest any man shulde begyle you with entyslyng wordes. For though I be absent in the fleshe, yet am I with you in the spirete, ioyng and beholdyng your order, & pour steadfast fayth in Christ. As ye haue ther fore receaued Christ Jesu the Lorde, euen so walke ye in him, so that ye be rooted & buylt in hym, and stablyshed thowow fayth, as ye haue learned: and therein be plentrous wyth creuyng thankes.

* Beware, lest any man spoyle you tho rowe philosophye and dysceatful vanytie, after the tradicio of men, and after the ordy nauces of the worlde, and not after Christ.
For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of y god hed bodely, & ye are complete in him: which is the heed of al rule and power, by whome also ye are * circumcised wyth circumcyssion which is done wythout hādes, for as muche as ye haue put of the synfull body of the fleshe thowow the circumcission that is in Christ, in that ye are buryed with hym thowowe bap tyme, in whom ye are also rysen agayne the rowe fayth, that is wrought by y operation of God, whiche rayled hym from death.

* And ye

The fyrst Epistle

* Roma. vi. a Ephr. ii. a
Collo. i. c

* Gene. iii. c.
Ephr. xi. c
John. vi. c

* Ezech. viii. a and. i. a

* Gala. iiii. b

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. ii. a

* And ye when ye were dead thozow sinne and thozow the vncircūcyon of pour flesh, hath he quickened with him, and hath forgeuen vs all oure trespasses, & hath put out the hande wytyng y was against vs, consayned in the lawe writte, and that hath he taken out of the wape, and hath fastened it to hys crosse, and hath * spoyled rule and power, & hath made a shewe of them openly and hath triumphed ouer them in hys owne persone.

Let no man therfore trouble pour conscience about meat and dypnke or for a pece of an holy day, or of the newe moone, or of the Sabbath dayes, * whych are shadowes of thynges to come: but the body is in Christ. Let no mā make you shote at a wroȝ marke by the humblenes and holynes of augels, in the thynges which he neuer saw, being causeles putt vp wyth his fleschlye mynde, and holdeth not the heed, wherof all the body by iopntes and couples receaueth no pnyment and is knet together, & encreaseh wyth the increasynge that commeth of God.

Wherfore, yf ye be deed wyth Christ fro þ * ordinaūces of the world, why as thoughe ye pet lyued in the world, are ye led with tradicions: Touche not, tast not, handell not: whiche all pertyn thozowe the verpe abuse: after the comaundemētes and doctrines of men. Which thynges outwardly haue þ symilitude of the wysdome by supersticio and humblenes of mynde, and by hurtynge of the body, and in that they do the fleshe no woꝝ wyppye vnto the nede therof.

The. iiii. Chapter. ¶

¶ He putteth them in remembrance of the spiritual resurrection, to lape asyde all maner of corrupt lyuynge, to be frutefull in all godlynes and vertue, and sheweth al degrees therof oute.

If ye be the rylen agayne with Christ like those thynges whych are aboue, where Christe lytteth * on the ryghte hande of God. Set poure affeccyon on heauenly thynges, and not on earthy thynges. For ye are dead, and poure lyfe is hyd wyth Christ in God. When soeuer Christ (whych is our lyfe) shall shewe hym selfe, then shall ye also appeare wyth hym in gloꝝpe. ¶

Wortyfe therfore poure erthy members: fornicacion, vncleennes, vnmatural lust, euil concupiscence, and couetousnes, whych is worshippyng of ydoles: for whiche thynges sake the wrath of God vseth to come on the dysobediente chyldzen * amonge whome ye walked somtyme, when ye lyued in them.

But nowe put ye also a wape fro pou all such thynges: wrath, fearnes, maliciousnes, cursed speakynge, fylthy comunicacyon out of poure mouth. Lye not one to another, seynge that ye haue put of the olde man wyth hys woꝝkes, and haue * put on the newe mā which is renued into þ knowledge & pnyage of him that made him, * wher is nerher Getyll nor Jewe, circumcission nor vncircumcission, Barbarous or Sythian, bonde or fre: but Christ is all in all thynges.

¶ Therfore as electe of God, holy & beloved put on tender mercy, kindnes, būblenes of mynde, mekenes, longe suffrynge, for bearynge one another, and forgeuyng one another: yf any man haue a quarrel agaynst another: as Christ forgane you, euen so do ye. Aboue all these thynges put on * loue which is the bonde of perfectnes. And the peace of God rule in your hertes: to the whych peace ye are called in one bodye. And se that ye be thankfull. Let the woꝝde of Christ dwell in you plenteously with all wysdome. Teache & exhorte poure owne selues, * in psalmes and hymnes, and spiritual songes syngynge wit grace in your hertes to the Lorde. And * what soeuer ye do (in woꝝde or dede) do all in the name of the Lorde Jesu, geuyng thanks to God the father by hym. ¶

* Ye wyues, submytte poure selues vnto poure owne husbādes, as it is comely in the Lorde: Ye husbādes, loue poure wyues and be not bytter vnto them: * Ye chyldꝝ, obey poure fathers and mothers in al thynges, for that is wel pleasyng vnto the Lord. Ye fathers, prouoke not poure chyldꝝ: (to anger.) lest they be of a desperate mynde. * Ye seruantes, be obedient vnto the that are poure bodely masters in all thynges: not with eye seruyce as men pleasers, but in synglenes of hert fearing God. And what soeuer ye do, do it hertely, as though ye dyd it to the Lord, & not vnto men: knowynge, that of the Lorde ye shall receaue the rewarde of inheritaūce, for ye serue þ Lord Christ. But he that doth synne, shall receaue for hys synne. * Apyther is ther any respecte of personnes: * (with God)

The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ He exhorteth them to be feruent in prayer, to walke wysely vnto the that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ, and salueth them.

* Alters, do vnto poure seruantes that whych is iust & equal knowynge, that ye also haue a master in heauen.

* Continue in prayer, & watche in the same with thanks geuyng, prayeng also for vs: that God maye open vnto vs the doꝝe of vtertaūce, that we maye speake þ mystery of Christ (wherfore I am also in bondes) that I maye vter it, as it becometh me to speake. * Walk wisely toward them that are without, and lose no oportynyte. Let poure speache be alwayes well saued & powdꝝed wyth * salt, that ye maye know, how ye ought to answeꝝe euery mā. Of all my

* Roma. vi. a Ephr. ii. a
* Gala. ii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

* Ephr. i. b.
Ephr. i. a
I. c. p. iii. a

Of all my busynes that ye be certified by Tichicus, the beloued brother and faythful minister and fellowe seruant in the Lorde, whom I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that he myght knowe what ye do, and that he myghte comforte youre hartes wth one Onesimus a faythfull and beloued brother, whych is one of you. They shal thewe you of all thynges, whych are adoyne here.

* Tristarchus my person fellowe saluteth you, and * Marcus Barnabas sisters sonne touchynge whom, ye receaued commaundements. If he come vnto you, receaue hym:
* Jesus whych is called Justus, whych are of the circumcision. These only are my worke fellowes vnto the kyngdome of God whych haue bene vnto my consolation. * Epaphras the seruante of Christ, (whych is one of you) saluteth you, & alwayes laboureth seruently for you in prayers, that ye maye stande perfite and full, in all the wyll of God. For I beare hym recorde, that he hath a seruent mynde for you and them that are of Laodi-cia and them that are of Hierapolis. Weare Lucas the physician greeteth you, and * De-mas. Salute the brethren whych are of Laodia, and salute Hympas, and the cōgregacion, whych is in hys house. And whē the Epistle is read of you, make that it be read also in the cōgregacion of the Laodicians: that ye lyke wise reade the Epistle of Laodia. And saye to Archippus: take hede to the office that thou hast receaued in the Lorde that thou fulfyll it. The salutation by the hande of me Paule: remember my bondes the grace of our Lorde Iesu Christ be with you Amen.

¶ Sent from Rome by Tichicus and Onesimus.

The fyrst Epistle of S. Paule the Apostle vnto the Thessalonians.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ We thanke God for you, that they are so trustful in faith and good workes, & receaue the Gospell wth suche earnestnes.

Laul and Sylvanus and Timothe. Vnto the congrega-cion of the Thessalonians, in God the father, and in the Lorde Iesu Christ.

* Grace be vnto you, and peace from God the father, and from the Lorde Iesu Christ.
We geue God thanks: alwayes for you in makinge mencions of you in oure prayers wythout ceasinge, & cal you to remembrance because of the worke of youre faith, and laboure in the hope of oure Lorde Iesu Christ, in the lyght of God our father. * We knowe brethren (beloued of God) howe that ye are electe. For oure Gospell came not vnto you by worde onely, but also by power, and by the holy goost, and by muche certaynte, as * ye knowe, after what maner we behaued our selues amonge you, for youre sake. And ye became folowers of vs and of the Lorde receauynge the worde wth muche affliction wth ioye of the holy goost: so that ye were an ensample to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia. For from you sounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which ye haue vnto God, spred her selfe abrode in all quarters, so that it nedeth not vs to speake any thyng at all. For they the selues thewe of you, what maner of entrynge in we had vnto you and howe ye tourned to God from ymages, for to serue the lyuynge and true God, and for to loke for hys sonne * fro dea-uen, whome he rayled from death: * euen Iesu, whych deliuereth vs fro the wrath to come.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

¶ We putte them in mynde of the godly conuersacyon that he led amonge the (when he preached the Gospell vnto them) & thanke God that they receaue hys wordes so fruitfully, and earnestly hys absence.

Per ye youre selues (* brethren) know of our entrafice in vnto you, howe that it was not in dayne: but euen after that we had suffred before, * were * shamefully entrea-ted at Philippes (as ye knowe) then were we holde in oure God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God. in muche stryuinge.
For oure exhortacion was not to bypnye you to erreure, nor yet to vncleennes neyther was it wth gyle: but as we were alo-wed of God, that the Gospell shulde be com-mytted vnto vs: euen so we speake, not as they that * please men, but God, whych try-eth our hartes.

Neither led we our conuersacion at any tyme wth flatterynge wordes, as ye know: neither by occasion of couetousnes. * God is recorde: neither songe we prayse of men, neither of you, nor yet of any other. when we myght haue ben in authorite, as * Apostles of Christ, but we were tender amonge you, euen as a nurse cherissheth her chylde, so were we affectioned toward you, our good wyll was to haue dealete vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely: but also oure owne soules because ye were deare vnto vs.

¶ Perseuer-

The first Epistle

E Remember brethren our labour, and trouble. * For we laboured day & night because we wolde not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God. Pe are wylfulness, and so is God, howe hololy & iustly & vnblymeably we behaued oure selues amonge you that beleued as ye knowe, howe that we bare such affection vnto euery one of you, as a father doth vnto hys chyliden, exhortynge, comfortynge & beseechynge you, that ye wolde walke worthy of God, whych hath called you vnto hys kyngdome and glorie.

For thys cause thanke we God also with out ceasynge, because that whē ye receaued of vs the worde (wherewith ye learned to knowe God) ye receaued it not as the word of man: but euen as it was in dede, the word of God, whych worketh also in you that beleue. * For ye brethren became followers of the congregations of God whych in Jewrye are in Christe Iesu: for ye haue suffered lyke thynges of youre kynsmen, as we our selues haue suffered of the Jewes. Whych as they kylled the Lord Iesus, and theyr owne prophetes, euen so haue they persecuted vs, and God they please not, & are contrary to al me and hynder vs, that we shuld not speake vnto the Gentyls, that they might be saved, to fulfyll theyr synners alwaye. For the wrath of God is come on them, euen to the vtmost.

For as much brethren as we are kept fro you for a season, as concernynge the bodily presence (but not in the herte) we enforced y more to se you personallly wth great desyre. And therfore we wolde haue come vnto you I Paul once & againe: but Satā withstod vs: for what is oure hope of ioye or crowne of reioysynge? * are not ye it in the presence of our Lorde Iesus Christ at hys comynge? yes, ye are our glorie and ioye.

The.iii. Chapter.

E He sheweth howe greatly he was reioysed, when Timothy tolde hym of theyr fayth and loue Wherfore, sence we coulde no lenger forbear, we thought it good to remayne at Athens alone, and sente Timothy our brother and minister of God, and the helper forth of oure labour in the Gospel of Christ, to stablysh you, and to comforte you concerning our fayth: that no man shuld be moued in these afflictions. For ye pour selues knowe, that we are eue appoynted there vnto.

For when we were wth you, we tolde you before, that we shulde suffre tribulaciō, euen as it came to passe, and as ye knowe.

For thys cause when I coulde no lenger forbear, I sent that I myght haue knowledge of youre fayth, lest by some meanes the tempter had tempted you, and lest oure labour had bene bestowed in vayne.

But now lately, whē Timothy came fro you vnto vs, and declared to vs your fayth and poure lone, and howe that ye haue good remembraunce of vs alwayes, desyringe to se vs, as we also desyre to se you: Therfore brethren we receaued consolacion by you, in al our aduersite and necessite, through your fayth. For now are we alpye of ye stād fast in the Lorde. For what thanks can we recompence to God agayne for you, ouer all the ioye, that we ioye for your lokes before oure God: prayenge nyght and daye exceedingly, that we myght se you presently, & myght fulfyll thynges which are lackynge vnto your fayth.

God hym selfe oure father, and our Lord Iesus Christe shall gyde oure iorney vnto you: the Lord also shall increace you & make you flowe ouer in loue one towarde another and towarde all men, euen as we do toward you, that he maye make poure vertes stable & vnblymeable, in holynes before God our father, at the comynge of our Lorde Iesus Christ wth all sayntes.

The.iiii. Chapter.

E He exhorteth them to steadfastnes, to kepe them from synne & vncleynly ouersacrion, to loue one another redylyth pcelnes, and speaketh of the resurrection.

Inthermore, we beseech you (brethren) and exhorde you by the Lorde Iesus, that ye encrease more and more euen as ye haue receaued of vs, howe ye ought to walke and to please God. For ye knowe, what commaundementes we gaue you by oure Lorde Iesu Christ. For this is the wyl of God: euen poure holynes, that ye shulde abstayne from fornicacion, & that euery one of you shulde knowe: howe to kepe hys vessel in holynes and honoure, and not in the lust of concupiscence: as do yethen whych knowe not God, that nomā oppresse and defraude hys brother in bargaynyng: because that the Lorde is the auenger of al such thynges, as we tolde you before, and testified.

For God hath not called vs vnto vncleynes but vnto holynes. * He therfore y despyseth, despyseth not mā, but God whych hath sent y hys holy sperte amonge you.

But as touchynge brotherly loue, ye nede not, y wyte vnto you. * For ye are taught of God to loue one another. Per and that thyng verely ye do vnto al the brethren whych are in al Macedonia. We beseech you brethren, that ye encrease more and more, & that ye studie to be quyet, & to meble wth poure owne busynes, and * to worke wth poure owne handes, as we commaunded you: that ye maye behaue poure selues honestlye toward them that are wythoute, and that nothyng be lackynge vnto you.

* I wolde

* Act. 17. 5 11. Act. 18. 6
1. Cor. 15. 2

* Luke. 21. 2

* Dan. 5. 2

11. Cor. 1. 2
and. Phil. 2

* Act. 17. 18

* Ephe. 4. 2

* John. 15. 2
Actu. 15. 2
1. Cor. 15. 2
1. Tim. 4. 2

I wolde not brethen that ye shuld be ignorant concerninge them whych are fallen asleepe, that ye sorowe not as other do, whych haue no hope. For yf we beleue, yf Iesus dyed, & rose agayne: euen so them also whych slepe by Iesus, wyll God bringe agayne wyth him. For this say we vnto you in the worde of the Lorde, that we whych shall lyue, & shall remaine in the comynge of the Lorde, shall not come yer they whych slepe. For the Lorde hym selfe shall descende from heaue wyth a shoute and the voyce of the Archangell and trompe of God. And the deade in Christ shall aryse fyrst: then we whych shall lyue (euen we whych shall remaine) shall be caught vp wyth the also in the cloudes, to mete the Lorde in the ayer. And so shall we euer be with yf Lorde. Wherefore, comferte your selues one another with these wordes. I

The .v. Chapter.

Unto the church of the Thessalonians, & comynge of the Lorde, exhorteth them to watch, and to regards such as preache Gods worde amonge them.

Inally, of the times and seasons (brethren) it is no neede that I wyte vnto you: for ye poure selues knowe perfectly, that the daye of the Lorde shall come, euen as a thefe in the nyght. For whē they shall saye, peace & all thynges are safe, then shall soden destruction come vpon the (as sorowe cometh vpon a womā traulyng wyth chyld) and they shall not escape. But ye brethren are not in darkenes, that that daye shulde come on you as a thefe. Ye are all the chyldren of lyght, and the chyldren of the day. We are not of the nyght neither of darkenes.

Therefore let vs not slepe as do other: but let vs watch, & be sober. For they that slepe, slepe in the nyght: & they yf be dronken, are dronken in the nyght. But let vs which are of the daye, be sober, armed w the brest plate of fayth and loue, and with hope of saluation for an helmet. For God hath not appointed vs to prouoke wrath vnto our selues, but to obtayne saluation by the meanes of oure Lorde Iesu Christe: whych dyed for vs: that whether we wake or slepe, we shuld lyue together wyth hym.

Wherefore, comferte your selues together, & edifye every one another, eue as ye do. I

We beseeche you brethren, that ye knowe them: whych laboure amonge you and haue the ouersyght of you in the Lorde, and geue you exhortacion, that ye haue them in hie reputacion thowowe loue, for they workes sake, and be at peace wyth them.

We beseeche you (brethren) warne them yf are unruly, comferte the feble mynded, lyft vp the weake, be pacient toward all men.

Se that none recompence euyl for euyl vnto any man: but euer folowe that whiche is good, both amonge your selues, & to all men. Reioyce euer. Praye continually. In all thynges geue thanks. For this is the wyll of God thowow Christ Iesu toward you.

Quenche not the sperte. Despise not prophesynges. Examen all thynges, kepe that whych is good. Abstayne from all euill appearance. The very God of peace sanctify you thowowe out. And I praye God yf poure whole sperte, and soule and bodye, maye be preserved: so that in nothyng ye may be blamed in the comynge of oure Lorde Iesus Christe.

Faythful is he which called you, which wyl also do it. Brethren, praye for vs. Crete al the brethren wyth an holy kysse. I charge you in the Lorde, that this Epistle be red vnto al the holy brethren. The grace of the Lorde Iesus Christ be wyth you. Amen.

The fyrst Epistle vnto the Thessalonians was wyrtten from Athens.

The secōde Epistle of the Apostle saynt Paul to the Thessalonians.

The fyrst Chapter.

Unto the church of the Thessalonians, & comynge of the Lorde, exhorteth them to watch, and to regards such as preache Gods worde amonge them.

Paul and Silvanus and Timothyus.

Unto the congregacion of the Thessalonians in God our father, and in the Lorde Iesus Christ.

Grace be vnto you and peace from God our father, & from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

We are bounde to thank God alwayes for you brethren (as it is mete) because that your fayth groweth excedyngly, and every one of you swymmeth in loue toward and ether betwene poure selues, so that we oure selues boast of you in the congregacions of God, ouer poure patience & fayth in all your persecucions & tribulacions, that ye suffre, whych is a token of the ryghteous iudgement of God, that ye are counted worthy of the kyngdom of God, for whych ye also suffre. It is verely a ryghteous thyng wyth God that he recompence tribulacion to them that trouble you: and to you which are troubled, rest wyth vs, whē the Lorde Iesus shall

Al li New

The first Epistle

shewe hym selfe from heauen wth the angels of hys power, w^{ch} dampnge fyre, whych shall rendre vengeance vnto them y^e knowe not God, *and that obey not the Gospell of our Lorde Iesu Christ, *whych shalbe punnyshed wth euerlastyng damacio, from the presence of the Lorde, & from the glorie of hys power, *when he shal come to be glorified in his saintes, & to become maruelous in all them that beleue: because our testimo-nye that we had to you, was beleued eue the same daye. * Wherefore, also we praye alwayes for you, that our God wyl make you wozthy of hys callinge, and fulfyll al delectation of goodnes and the woꝝke of fapth, wth power: that the name of our Lorde Jesus Christ maye be glorified by you, and ye by him accordyng to the grace of our God, and of the Lorde Iesus Christ.

The ii. Chapter.

The sheweth them, y^e the daye of the Lorde shal not come till the departinge from the fapth come first: and therefore he exhorteth them not to be disceaue, but to stāde steadfast in the thynges that he hath taught them.

W^e beseeche you (brethren) by the comynge of oure Lorde Iesu Christe, & in that we shall assemble vnto hym, y^e ye be not sodenly moued fro poure mynde, noz be troubled, neither by spret, uether by woꝝdes, noz yet by letter whych shulde seme to come from vs, as though the daye of Christe were at hande. Let no man deceaue you by any means, for the Lorde shall not come excepte ther come *a departinge first, & that that synfull man be opened, the sonne of perdition, whych is an aduersarye: and is exalted aboue all, that is called God, or y^e is woꝝhypped: so that he doth syt *in the temple of God, boastynge hym selfe to be God.

Remember ye not, that when I was yet wth you, I tolde you these thynges: And now ye knowe what withholderth: eue that he myght be vttered at hys tyme. * For the mystery of synnfull man is alreadye woꝝke: till he whych nowe onely letteth, be taken out of the waye. And then shal that wycked be vttered, *whom the Lorde shal consume wth the sprete of hys mouth, & shal destroy with the apperaunce of hys comynge. * euen hym whose comynge is after the woꝝ-kyng of Satan, wth al lyenge power *signes and wonders and with al deceauableness of vnrightheousnes, amonge them that pe-ryste: because they receaued not the loue of the truthe, that they myght be saued. * And therefore God shall sende them stronge delusion, that they shulde beleue lyes: that all they myght be damned, whych beleued not the truthe: but hadde pleasure in vnrightheousnes.

But we are bounde to geue thanks alway to God for you (brethren beloued of y^e Lorde) for because that God hath from the begyn-nyng chosen you to saluacio, thowowe lan-ctifenge of the sprete, & thowowe beleuyng of the truthe, wher vnto he called you by our Gospell to obayne the glorie of our Lorde Iesu Christ.

Therefore brethren stāde fast, and kepe the ordinaunces whych ye haue learned: whether it were by oure preachyng, or by Epistle. Oure Lorde Iesu Christ hym selfe, and God and our father (whych hath loued vs, and hath geuen vs euerlastyng cōsolacion, and good hope thowowe grace) cōforte your bertes & stablyshe you in all good sayenge and doynge.

The iii. Chapter.

He bespyeth them to praye for hym, that the Gospell maye prosper, and geueth them warnyng to repproue the poore: and y^e they wyl not labour wth theyr han-des, that they shal not eate.

W^ethermore, brethren praye ye for vs, & that the worde of God may haue passage, and be glorified, as it is also wth you: and that we maye be deliuered from vnreasonable and frowarde men. For al men haue not fapth: but the Lorde is fapthfull, whiche shal stablyshe you, & preserue you from euell. We haue confidence thowowe the Lorde to you warde, that ye both do, and wyl do the thin-ges whych we comaunde you. And y^e Lorde guyde your bertes to the loue of God and to the pacience waytyng for Christ.

We require you brethren by y^e name of our Lorde Iesu Christ * y^e ye wthdrowe your selues from euery brother, y^e behaueth hym selfe inordinatly, & not after y^e institucion whiche he receaued of vs. For ye poure selues knowe, howe ye ought to folowe vs.
For we behaue not our selues inordinatly amonge you. Nether toke we bred of any mā for nought: but * wrought wth labour & sweate nyght & daye, & because we wold not be chargeable to any of you: not but y^e we had authoꝝite: but to make our selues an example vnto you to folowe vs. For whē we were wth you, this we warned you of, y^e yf any wolde not woꝝke, the same shulde not eate.

For we haue hearde sape that there are some which walke amonge you inordinatly, woꝝkyng not at al, but beynge busyd wth them that are luche, we commaunde and exhort, by oure Lorde Iesu Christ, that they woꝝke wth quietnes, and eate theyr owne bread: * Brethren be not ye werre in well doynge. * Yf any man obey not our say-enge, sende vs woꝝde of hym by a letter: and * haue no cōpanye wth hym, that he maye be ashamed. And couēt him not as an enemy but warne hym as a brother.

The very

The very Lorde of peace geue you peace alwayes, by all meanes. The Lorde be with you al. The salutation of me Paul to myne owne hande. This is the token in all Epistles. So I wryte. * The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be wth you all. Amen.

¶ Sent from Athens.

The fyrst Epistle of S. Paule vnto Timothe.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ The exhorteth Timothe to waite vpon his office: namely, to se that nothing be taught but Gods word. He sheweth also wherfore the lawe is good, and telleth þat Christ Iesus came into the worlde to saue synners.

Rule an Apostle of Iesus Christ, * by the commission of God our sauour, & Lord Iesus Christ, which is * our hope.

Vnto Timothe his naturall sonne in the fayth.

* Grace, mercy, & peace from God our father, & fro þe Lorde Iesus Christ our Lorde. As I besought the to abyde styl at Ephe sus (wher I departed into * Macedonia) euẽ so do, that thou commaunde some, that they folow no straunge doctrine, nether geue hede to fables and endles genealogyes, whych brede doubtles moze then Godlye edifyenge whych is by fayth, for the ende of the comaundement is * loue out of a pure herte, and of a good conscience, and of fayth vnfaigned: fro the which thynges, because some haue erred they are turned vnto vayne iagelynge, because they wolde be doctours of the lawe & yet vnderstande not what they speake, neyther wher of they asserme.

* We know, that the lawe is good, yf a man vse it lawfully: knowynge thys, * how that the lawe is not geue vnto a ryghteous man, but vnto the vnyghteous and disobedient, to the vngodly and to synners, to vnholy and vncleane: to murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, to malscars, to * whozomongers: to them that desyle them selues wth mankynde: to manstealers: to lyars, to perjured, and yf there be any other thyng þe is contrary to the wholsome doctrine, accordyng to the Gospel of the gloype of the blessed God, whych Gospel is com pted vnto me.

¶ And I thanke Christ Iesus our Lorde, whych hath made me stronge: for he counted me true, & put me in office wher as befoze I was a blasphemmer, * and a persecuter, and a Tyraunt. But yet I obtayned mercy, because I dyd it ignorantly thowow vnbelefe. Neuerthelesse, the grace of oure Lorde was excedyng abounnaunt wth fayth & loue, whych is by Christ Iesu. ¶

* Thys is a true sayeng (and by al meanes worthy to be receaued of vs) þat Christ Iesus came into the worlde, to saue sinners, of whome I am chese. Nor wthstandyng for this cause obtained I mercy, that Iesus Christ shulde fynd me on me all longe patience, to declare an ensaþle vnto the wyche shulde beleue on hym vnto eternal lyfe. So then vnto God, kyng euerlastyng, immo tall * inuisible, wyle onelye, be honoure and prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

¶ Thys commaundement comyt I vnto the sonne Timotheus accordyng to the prophesies, whych in tyme past were prophesied of the, that thou in them shuldest fyght a good fyght, hauyng fayth and good conscience: whych some haue put awaye from them, and as concernyng fayth haue made hyppocryse. Of whose nombze is * hymeneus and * Alexander whom * I haue deli uered vnto Satan, that they may lerne not to blasphemie.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

¶ The exhorteth to praye for all men. He wyl not haue women to be ouer costly appareled, nor to teach in the congregacion, but to be in silence, and to obeye their husbandes.

Exhorte therfore, that aboue all thynges, prayers, supplications & intercessions, & geuyng of than kes be had for all men: * for kyn ges, & for al that are in authorite that we maye lyue a quyet & peaceable lyfe, wth all Godlynes and honestye. For that is good and accepted in þe syght of God oure sauoure, whych wyl haue al men to be saued, and to come vnto the knowledge of the trouth. For ther is * one God, and one * mediator betwene God and man, euen the man Christ Iesus, whych gaue hym selfe a ran some for all me, that it shulde be testified at hys tyme, * where vnto I am ordayned a preacher and an Apostle. I tell the trouth in Christ and lye not: be ynge the teacher of the gentyls wth fayth and verite. ¶

I wyl therfore that the me * praye eue ry where, lystyng by pure handes without wyrt, or doubtyng. Lyke wyle also þe women, that they ataye them selues in comlye apparel wth shamesfastnes and discrete behaueour, not to byzoynded heare, ether golde or pearles, or costly aray: but as becometh women, that professe godlynesse thowowe good workes. * Let the woman learne in silence wth all subieccion. But I suffer not a woman to teache, nether to vsurpe authorite ouer the man: but to be in silence. For

¶ Adam

* Math. ix. d Marke. d. e Luce. xij. a
John. iii. c

* Collo. i. c

* 11. Tim. ii. e
11. Tim. ii. e
* Mar. xlii. a 1. Cor. x. b. a

* 11. Tim. ii. e Baruch. i. c

* 11. Tim. ii. e
1. Cor. x. b. a Gala. iii. c

* Roma. i. a
and. ii. e
11. Tim. i. c

* 11. Tim. ii. e

* 1. Cor. xlii. a

The first Epistle

Adam was fyrst fourmed, & the Eve. Adam also was not deceaued, but the woman was deceaued, and was subdued to the trasgression. For wythstandynge thowow bearynge of chylidren the shall be laued, yf they continue in fayth and loue, and holynes, wyth discrecion.

¶ The. iii. Chapter.

¶ What maner of man a byshop o: prest ought to be. The properties also requyred in a tracon o: mynister.

This is a true sayeng: Yf a mā desyre the offyce of a Byshoppe, he desyreth an honest worke. A Byshoppe therfore must be blameles the husbunde of one wyfe, diligent, sober, discrete, a keper of hospitalite: apte to teach: not geue to ouer much wyne, no fyghter, not greedy of fylthy lucre: but gentyl, abhorrynge fyghtynge, abhorrynge couetousnes, one yf ruleth well his owne house, one yf hath chylidren in subieccion with all reuerence. For yf a man can not rule his owne house, howe shall he care for the congregacyon of God: he maye not be a yonge scoler, lest he swell and fall into the iudgement of the euell speaker. He must also gaue a good report of them wyche are wythout, lest he fall into rebuke, and share of euell speaker.

Likewyse must the ministers be honest not double tonged, not geuen vnto muche wyne: nether greedy of fylthy lucre: but holdynge the mystery of the fayth wyth a pure conscience. And let them fyrst be proued, and then let the minister so, that no man be able to reprove them.

Euen so must they wyues be honest, not euill speakers: but sober and faythful in all thynges. Let the deacons be the husbandes of one wyfe, and suche as rule they chylidren well, and they owne householdes. For they that mynister well, get them selues a good degre & greates lybertie in the fayth, wyche is in Christ Iesu.

These thynges wyte I vnto y trustynge to come shortly vnto the: but and yf I tary longe, that then thou mayst yet haue knowledg, how thou oughtest to behaue thy self in the house of God, which is the congregacion of the lyuinge God, the pyllar & ground of trueth. And wythout doute great is that mystery of godlynes: God was shewed in the fleshe, was iustified in the sprete, was sene amonge the aungels, was preached vnto the gentyls, was beleued on in y worlde, and receaued vp in glory.

¶ The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ The prophesie of the latter dayes, & exhorteth yf meche to be diligent in readynge of the holy scripture.

The sprete speaketh evidently, that in the latter tymes some shall departe from the fayth, & shall geue hede vnto spretes of erreour, and deuelyshe doctrines of them wyche speake false thowowe pporispe, and haue they conscience marked with an hote yron. For bydding to mary, & comauynge to abstayne from meates: wyche God hath created to be receaued & wythgryunge of thankes, of them wyche beleue, & know yf trueth. For all the creatures of God are good, & nothyng to be refused, yf it be receaued with thankes geuyng. For it is sanctified by the worde of God & prayer. Yf thou put yf byeth in remembrance of these thynges thou shalt be a good mynister of Iesu Christ: wyche hath ben ordeyned vp in y wordes of y fayth & of good doctrine, which thou hast continually folowed. But cast away vngodly and olde wyues fables.

Exercyse thy selfe rather vnto godlynes. For bodely exercise profiteth lytell: but godlynes is profitable vnto al thynges, as a thyng which hath promyses of y lyfe that is now, & of the lyfe to come. Thys is a sure sayenge, and by al meanes worthy to be alowed. For therfore we both laboure and suffer rebuke, because we haue a stedfast hope in the lyuynge God, which is the sauour of all men, specially of those that beleue. Such thynges commaunde & teach. Let no man despyse thy yowth: but be vnto them that beleue, an ensample, in worde, in couersacion, in loue, in sprete, in fayth, in purenes.

Tyll I come, geue attendaunce to readynge to exhortacion, to doctrine. Despyse not the gyfte that is in the, which was geue the thowowe prophesye, wyth the laying on of handes by yf authorite of presthode. These thynges exercise, and gyue thy selfe vnto them, that it moye be sene, howe thou profyttest in all thynges. Take hede vnto thy selfe, & vnto learnynge, & continue therein. For yf thou shalt so do, thou shalt saue thy selfe, and the that heare the.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

¶ The teacheth hym howe he shall behaue hym selfe in rebukynge of al degrees. An exhortacion to godlynes.

Re buke not an elder, rygozously: but exhorthe him as a father: the yonger men, as byethen: the elder women, as mothers: the yonger as sisters, with al purenes. Honour wyddowes which are true wyddowes. Yf any wyddow haue chylidren or neuwes, let the learne fyrst to rule they owne houses godly: & to recompense they elders. For that is good and acceptable before God. She yf is a true wyddow & freddlesse, putteth her trust in god, & continueth in supplications & prayers nyght & daye. But she yf lyueth in pleasure, is deade, euen yet alpyue. And these thynges comaunde that they maye be wythout rebuke. But yf any proude not for his owne (and specially for the of his household) yf same hath denyed the fayth, and is worse then an infidell.

Let not

B Let no wyddow be chofte vnder the fcore peare olde, & fuche a one as was the wyfe of one mā, & well reported of men, in good woꝝ hes: yf ſhe haue brought vp chyldꝛ, * yf ſhe haue lodged ſtraingers, yf ſhe haue waſhed the ſayntes fete, yf ſhe haue mynſtered vnto them whych were in aduerſitie, yf ſhe haue bene continuallye geuen vnto all maner of good woꝝkes. The yonger wyddowes refuſe. For whē they haue begon to ware woton agaynſt Chriſt, they wyl mary, haupng damnation, becauſe they haue caſte awaye theyꝝ ſpyrit ſayth. And alſo they learne to go from houſe to houſe ydle: yee, not ydle onely but alſo tatlers and buſybodyes, ſpeakyng thynges whych are not comly.

I wyl therfore that the yonger women
* mary, to beare chyldꝛ, to guyde the houſe and geue none occaſion to the aduerſary to ſpeake euyl. For many of them are already turned backe, & are gone after Satan. And yf any man oꝝ woman y beleueth haue wydowes, let them mynſter vnto them, and let not the congregacion be charged: that there māpe be ſufficient for them that are wyddowes in dede.

C The elder that rule well are worthy of double honoure, moſt ſpecially they whiche laboure in the woꝝde & teachyng. For ſcripture ſayth: * thou ſhalt not moſell y mouth of the oꝝe y treadeth out the corne. And the labourer is worthy of hys reward. Agaynſt an elder, receaue none occaſion: but * vnder two oꝝ the wytnelles. Them that ſynne rebuke openly, that other alſo māpe feare.

I teſtifie before God & the Lorde Jeſus Chriſt & the electe aūgels, that thou obſerue theſe thynges wythout haſtyneſſe of iudge-ment, & do nothyng partially. * Laye hādes ſodenly on no man, nether be partaker of other mens ſynnes: kepe thy ſelf pure. Wrynke no lēger water, but * uſe a lytle wyne for thy ſtomackes ſake and thyne often diſeaſes.

Some mennes ſynnes are opē before hāde and go before vnto iudgemēt: & ſome mens ſynnes folowe after. Lyke wyſe alſo good woꝝkes are manifeſt before hande, and they that are other wyſe, can not be hyd.

¶ The vi. Chapter.

¶ The dutye of ſeruauntes towarde theyꝝ maſters. Agaynſt ſuche as are not ſatysfied wyth the woꝝde of God. Agaynſt couetouſnes. A good leſſon for ryche men.

Et as many * ſeruauntes as are vnder the yoke, counte theyꝝ maſters woꝝthy of all honoure. that the name of god & his doctrine be not cuyl ſpoken of. Se that they whych haue be leuyng maſters, deſpyle the not becauſe they are byethzen: but rather do ſerupce, for as much as they are beleuyng and beloued and partakers of the benefyte.

theſe thynges teache & exhoꝝte. * Yf any man folowe other doctrine, and encline not vnto the whoſome woꝝdes of our Lorde Jeſu Chriſte, & to the doctrine whych is accor-dyng to godlynes, he is puſt vp, & knoweth nothyng: but waſteth hys byaynes aboute queſtions & ſtryfe of woꝝdes, wherof ſpring cnyue, ſtryfe, raylynges, euyl ſurnynges vaine diſputacion of men that haue corrupt myndes, and that * are robbed of the truth: whych thynke, that lucre is godlynes. For them that are ſuche ſeparate thy ſelfe. God-lynes is great rycheſſe. * Yf a man be content wyth y he hath. * For we brought nothyng into the worlde, neyther māpe we cary any thyng out.

But when we haue fede and rapmēt we muſt therwith be content. They that wil be ryche fall into temptacion and ſnares, & (of the deuill) & into many ſolyſhe & noyſome luſtes, which drawne men into perdition, & de-ſtruction. For couetouſnes of money is the rote of all euill: whych whyle ſome luſted after, they erred from the ſayth, & tangled the ſelues wyth many ſorowes. But thou man of God, ſaye ſuche thynges. Folowe ryghte ouſnes, godlynes, ſayth, loue, paciēce, meak-nes. Fyght the good fyght of ſayth. Laye hande on eternall lyfe, where vnto thou art alſo called, and haſt profeſſed a good profeſ-ſion before many wytnelles.

I geue y charge in y lyght of god, * which quickeneth al thynges, & before Jeſu Chriſt (which vnder Poncius Pylate wytnelled a good wytnellſyng) y thou kepe y comaunde-mēt, & be wythout ſpote and vntebukeable vntyll the appearyng of our Lorde Jeſus Chriſt. * whych appearyng (in hys tyme) he ſhall ſetwe, that is bleſſed & myghty onely, kyng of kynges, & Lord of Lordes, whych onely hath immortalite, and dwelleth in the lyght that no man can attayne. * Whome no man hath ſene, nether can ſe, vnto whom be honoure and rule euerlaſtyng. Amen.

Charge the whych are ryche in this worlde that they be not hye mynded, nor * truſte in vncertayne ryches, but in the lyuyng God (whyche geueth vs a bouduſty all thynges to enioye them) y they do good: that they be rych in good woꝝkes: y they be redy to geue & glad to diſtribute: & layenge vp in ſtoꝝe for the ſelues a good foundation agaynſt y tyme to come, y they māpe obtayne eternall lyfe.

O Timothe, ſaue that whych is greūe the to kepe, and anoyde vngoodlye vanities of vopces and oppoſicions of ſcience ſaſſye ſo called: whyche ſcience whyle ſome profeſſed they erred as concernyng the ſayth. Grace be wyth the.

¶ Sent from Laodicia, whych is the cheſt cytie of Phrygia Pacariana.

II liti. The

The seconde Epistle

The secōde Epistle of the Apostle saynt Paul vnto Timothee.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul exhorteth Timothee to steadfastnes and patience in persecucion, and to cōspire in the doctrine that he had taught hym. A commendacion of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the wyl of God, accordyng to the promys of lyfe, whych is in Christ Iesu.

To Tymothee hys beloued sonne.

Grace mercy and peace from God the father, and from Iesu Christ our Lorde.

* Act. xxi. a Roma. i. a
Philip. iii. a

I thanke God, * whom I serue from myne elders wyth pure conscience, that wythoute any ceasynge I make mencion of the in my prayers nyght and daye, desyring to se the, myndfull of thy teares: so that I am fylled wythiope, wen I call to remembraunce the vnfayned fayth that is in the, whych dwel-lyst in thy graund mother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice: & I am assured that it dwelleth in the also.

* 1. tim. ii. a
1. tim. vii. c.

Wherefore I warne the that thou stee by the gyfte of God whych is in the, * by þ put tyng on of my handes. * For God hath not gyue to vs the sprete of feare: but of power, and of loue, and of sobrenes. * Be not thou therfore ashamed of the testimonye of oure Lorde, nether be ashamed of me: whych am hys pzeloner: but suffre thou aduersite wyth the Gospell, accordyng to þ power of God, whych * laued vs, and called vs wyth an holy callinge, not accordyng to our dedes, but accordyng to hys owne purpose and grace, whych was geuen vs thowowe Christ Iesu (before the worlde beganne) but is now declared openly by the appearynge of our sa-mioure Iesu Christ, * whych hath put away death, and hath brought lyfe and immortalite vnto lyght thowowe the Gospell: & wher-vnto I am apoynted, a preacher & Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentyls: for the whych cause I also suffre thesethynges: Reuerthelesse, I am not ashamed. For I knowe, and am sure, that he (in whome I haue put my trust) is able to kepe that whych I haue committed to his keepynge, agaynst that daye.

* 1. Cor. ix. a Hebr. x. a Roma. i. a
1. Tim. ii. b

So that thou haue the ensample of the holysome wordes, whych thou hast hearde of me with fayth and loue that is in Christ Iesu.
That good thyng whych was commytted to thy keepynge, holde fast thowowe þ holy goost, whych dwelleth in vs. This þ know-west, howe that all they whych are in Asia,

* 1. tim. i. b Titus. ii. b
1. Pet. ii. a

be turned fro me: of whych sort are Higelus and Hermogenes. The Lorde geue mercy vnto the householde of Onesiphorus for he ofte refreshed me, * & was not ashamed of my chayne: but when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, & founde me.
The Lorde graunt vnto hym that he maye fynde mercy wyth the Lorde at that daye.
And in how many thynges he ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

The ii. Chapter.

As in the first chapter, so here he exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer many, & to abide in the wholesome doctrine of our Lorde Iesu Christ.

Thou therfore my sone, be stryde in þ grace (þ is thowowe Christ Iesu) & in the thynges that thou hast herd of me be many wytnes-ses. The same comytte thou to faythful men, whych shalbe apte to teach other also. Thou therfore suffre afflictions as a good souldper of Iesus Christ. No man þ warreth, entagleth hym selfe with worldly busynes, & that because he maye please hym whych hath chosen hym to be a souldper. And though a man stryue for a mastery, yet is he not crowned, excepte he stryue lawfullye.

* The husbandman þ labourer, must fyrst receaue of the frutes. Consyder what I saie The Lorde geue the vnderstandynge in all thynges.

Remember that Iesus Christ * of the seide of Dauid, rose agayne fro death accordyng to my Gospell, wherin I suffre trouble as an euell doer, euen vnto bodes. But þ word of God was not bounde. Therfore * I suffre all thynges, for the electes sakes, that they myght also obayne the saluacion, whych is in Christ Iesu, wyth eternall glorie.

It is a true sayeng * for yf we be deed w hym, we shal also lyue wyth hym. * Yf we be patient, we shal also raygne wyth hym.
* Yf we denye hym, he also shal deny vs. Yf we beleue not, * yet abyde he faythfull. he can not denye hym selfe. Of thesethynges put them in remembraunce, and testifie before the Lorde, that they folowe no contencious wordes: whych are to no profyte, but to the peruertynge of the hearers.

Study to shewe thy selfe laudable vnto God, a workman that nedeth not to be shamed distributynge the worde of truth iustly * As for vngodly vanities of voyces, passe thou ouer them. For they wyll encrease vnto greater vngodlynnes, & they: wordes shal fret euen as doeth the disease of a cancre: of whose nombre is: * hymeneus and Philetus, whych (as concernynge the truerth) haue re-ced, sayenge, that the resurrection is past all redy, and do destroye the fayth of some.

But the sure ground of God standeth styll, and hath this seale: * þ Lord knoweth them that

* 1. Tim. ii. a

that are his. And let every man that calleth by the name of Christ, depart from iniquite.
For withstandinge * in a greate houle are not onely vessels of golde, and of syluer but also of wood and of erthe: some for honoure and some vnto dishonoure. If a man therfore poure him selfe fro such like me, he shal be a vessel sanctified vnto honoure, mete for the vles of the Lord, and prepared vnto all good workes.

Lustres of yowth auoyde, but folow ryghtewnes, sayth, loue and peace, with the that call on the Lord with a pure herte. * Forsake and vnclearned questyons put from the knowynge, & they do but gendre stryfe.
The seruauit of the Lord must not stryfe: but be gentle vnto all men * apte to teache, and one that can suffre & euyl with meaknes, & can informe them that resist. (the trust) yf that God at euery tyme wyl geue them repentaunce, for to knowe the truth: & that they maye come to them selues agayne out of the snare of the deuyll, whiche are holden captiue of hym at his wyl.

The. iii. Chapter.

¶ He prophesyeth of the perelous tymes: setteth oute pocesses. Persecucion for the Gospel.

In these laste dayes shall come perelous tymes. For men shal be louers of theyr owne selues, conetous, boasters, proude cursed speakers, disobedient to fathers and mothers, vnhankfull vngodlye, vnkynde, trucebreakers, false accusers, riatous, fcarce, despisers of them whiche are good, traytours, heady, hie mynded, grede vpon voluptuousnes moze then the louers of God, hauinge a similitude of godlynesse, but haue denyed the power therof: and soch abhorre. For of this sorte are they * whiche entre into houses, and byynge into bondage women laden with synne, whiche women are led with diuers lustres, euil learnynge, & neuer able to come vnto the knowledge of the truth.

* As Iannes & Iambres withstode Moses, euen so do these also resist the truth: ¶ Men they are of corrupt myndes, and lewde as concerninge the sayth: but they shall preuaile no lenger. For theyr madnes shal be bittered vnto all men euen as theyr was, but thou haste sene the experience of my doctryne, fallow of lyuynge, purpose, sayth, longe sufferynge, loue pacifce, persecucyons, and affliccyons whiche happened vnto me at Antioche, at Iconium, and at Listra: whiche persecucyons I suffered patiently. And fro them all, the Lord deliuered me. Yee, and all they that wyl lyue godly in Christ Jesu, shall suffer persecucion. But the euyl men and disceauers shall waxe worse and worse, whyl they decrease and are decreased them selues.

¶ But continue thou in the thinges whiche thou hast learned, which also were commynted vnto the, knowynge of whom thou hast learned them, and for as moche also as * of a chylde thou hast knowe the holy scriptures which are able to make the lerned vnto sal-uacyon thowme & sayth whiche is in Christ Jesu. * All scripture geuen by inspyracyon of God, is profitable to teache, to improve, to amende and to instruct in ryghewesnes, that the man of God maye be perfecte & prepared vnto all good workes.

The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ He rebueth Timothe to be feruent in the worde & to suffer aduersite, maketh mencion of his owne death, and propheth Timothe come vnto hym.

Testifye therfore before God, and before the Lord Iesu Christ, whiche shall iudge the quicke and deed at his apperaynge in his kyngdom, preache thou the worde, be feruent, in season, & oute of season. Improve, rebuke, exhort, with all longe sufferynge and doctryne. For the tyme wyl come, when they shal not suffer whollome doctryne: but after their owne lustres shall they (whose eares yteche) get the an deepe of teachers, and shall wythdrowe theyr eares from the truth, and shal be turned vnto fables. But watche thou in all thynges suffre affliccyons, do the worke thowme lye of an Euangelyst, fulfyll thyne offyce vnto the vtmost. ¶ (Be sober)

For I am nowe ready to be offered, and the tyme of my departynge, is at hande. I haue foughte a good fygh, I haue fulfilled my course. I haue kepte the sayth. Fro hence forth there is layde vpon me * a crowne of ryghewesnes, whiche the Lord (that is a rygherous iudge) shall geue me at the daye: not to me onely, but vnto all them also that loue his commynge. Do thy diligence & thou mayest come shortly vnto me.

For Demas hath forsaken me, and lo-ueth this present worlde, and is departed vnto Thessalonica. Crescens is gone to Ga-lacia, Titus vnto Dalmacia. Onely Lucas is with me. Take Marke, and bringe him with the, for he is profitable vnto me for my nuytacion. And Tychicus haue I sent to Epheus. The cloke & I left at Troa-da with Carpus, (when I comest) bringe with the, and the booke, but specially the partchement. Alexander the copper Smyth byd me moche euyl: the Lord rewarde hym accordynge to his dedes, of whom be thou ware also. For he hath greatly wythstande oure wordes.

¶ I b. At my

The Epistle

At my fyrst answerynge, no man assysted me, but all forsoke me. I praye God, that it maye not be layde to theyr charges: Norwithstandyng the Lorde, assysted me, and strenghted me, that by me the preaching shulde be fulfilled to y^e utmost, and that all y^e Gentyls shuld heare. And I was deliuered out of the mouth of the Lyon. And the Lorde shall deliuer me from all euill doyng, and shal kepe me vnto hys heuynly kingdom. To whom be prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

* Acte. xix. a.
Roma. i. b. a.
ii. Tim. i. b.
* Acte. xix. b.
and. xxi. f.

Salute Prisca and Aquila, & the household of Onesiphorus, Erastus abode at Corinthum. * Trophimus haue I left at Myletum syke. Do thy diligence, that thou mayest come before wynter. Eubolus greeteth the, and so doth Pudens, and Lynus, Claudia, and all the brethren. The Lorde Iesus Christ be with thy spirite. Grace be with you. Amen.

The secōde Epistle vnto Timothe, was wrytten from Rome, when Paul was presented the seconde tyme vnto the Emperoure Nero.

The Epistle of saynt

Paul vnto Titus.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul exhorted Titus to ordeyne presbiter or byshoppen in euery cytye, & declareth what maner of men they ought to be that are choosen to that office, and chargeth Titus to rebuke suche as withstande the Gospell.

Paul the seruaunt of God, & apostle of Iesu christ accordyng to y^e fayth of goddes electe, and accordyng to the knowledge of ther trueth, whych is after godlynes in y^e hope of eternal lyf, which

* God (that cannot lye) promysed before the world beganne: but hath opened his word at y^e tyme appoynted thowre preachyng, whych is commytted vnto me, accordyng to the commaundement of God oure sauoure To * Titus hys naturall sonne after the commen fayth.

* Grace mercy & peace fro God the father & from the Lord Iesu Christ oure sauoure.

For this cause left I the in Creta, y^e thou shuldest refoyme the thynges that are vnperfect, & shuldest ordeyne elders in euery cytye, as I had appoynted the. If any be blamelesse, the husbāde of one wyfe, haunyng faytfull children, whych are not slaundered of spote, nether are disobedient: * For a byshoppe muste be blamelesse, as the steward of

* i. Tim. iii. a.

God: not stubborne, not angrye: not geuen to moche wyne, no fyghter, not geue to flye. thy lucre: but a keeper of hospitalyte, one y^e loneth goodnes: * (prudent) sobre, ryghteous godly, temperat, and suche as cleueth vnto the true woꝛde of doctryne, that he maye be able also to exhorte by wholsome learning & to improve them that save agaynst it.

For there are many vnrule and talkers of vanite, and disceauers of myndes, specially they that are of the circumcysion, whose mouthes must be stopp'd * whych peruer whole houses, teaching thynges which they ought not, because of fylthy lucre. One of the selues (euen a prophete of theyr owne) sayd: The Cretians are alwayes lyars, euill beastes, slowe belyes. This wytnes is true wherfore rebuke thou the sharply that they maye be founde in y^e fayth, not takyng hede to Jewes fables and commaundementes of men that turne awayne the trueth. * Vnto y^e pure, are all thynges pure: but vnto the that are defyled and vnbeleuyng, is nothyng pure: but euen the mynde and consyence of them is defyled. They cōfesse y^e they knowe God: but with the dedes they denye hym seing they are abominable and disobedient, & vnapt vnto enery good woꝛke.

The ii. Chapter.

He telleth hym howe he shall teache all degrees to becaue them felices.

But speake thou y^e thynges which become wholsome learning. That y^e elder mē be sober, sage, discrete, founde in the fayth, in loue, in patience: the elder * women lyke wyse, that they be in suche raynt as be cometh holynes, not beinge false accusars, not geue to moche wyne, but that they teache honest thynges, to make the younge women sobre mynded, to loue theyr husbādes, to loue theyr chyldre, to be discrete, chaste, huswylly, good, obedient vnto theyr husbādes, that the woꝛde of God be not euyl spokē of. Yong mē lyke wyse exhorte, that they be sobre mynded.

* In all thynges shewe thy selfe an ensample of good woꝛkes in the doctryne, with honestye, grauitye, and with the wholsome woꝛde whych cannot be rebuked: that he whych wrythstandeth, maye be ashamed, haunyng no euell thyng to save of you.

* Exhorte seruauntes, to be obedient vnto theyr owne masters, and to please the in all thynges, not answeryng agayne, nether to be pickers, but y^e they shewe all good faythfulnes, that they maye do woꝛthypp to the doctryne of God oure sauoure in all thynges. * For y^e grace of God, that byngeth saluacion vnto all men, hath appeared and teacheth vs that we shulde denye vngodlynes and * woꝛdly lustes, and that we shulde lyue soberly, and ryghteously, and godly in

* Eph. vi. a.
i. Pet. ii. b.
Colo. iii. b.
i. Tim. vi. a.

* i. Tim. vi. a.

to Titus & Philemon Ro. lxxxvi.

The Epistle of saynte

Paul vnto Philemon.

¶ De r. forseth to deare of the sayth and loue of Philemon, whiche he despyseth to forgeue hys seruaunt Ones-timus, and leuynge to receiue hym agayne.

Iulij psoner of Iesu Christ and brother Timothe.

Vnto Philemon the be-loued, and oure helper, and to the beloued Appia, and to Archippus oure felowe soudier and to the congrega-cyon that is of thy house.

* Grace be vnto you and peace, fro God oure father, & from the Lorde Iesu Christ.

I thanke my God, makynge mencyon alwayes of þ in my prayers, when I heare of thy loue & sayth, which thou hast toward the Lorde Iesu, and towarde all sayntes, so that the fellowship of thy sayth is featefull in the knowledge of every good (worke) whiche is in you towarde Iesu Christ. For we haue greute loye and consolacyon in thy loue: because that by the (brother) the sayn-tes hertes are comforted.

¶ Therfore, though I myght be bolde in Christ to commaunde the that, whiche was thy dewtie to do: yet for loues sake I rather beseeche the, though I be as I am, euen olde Paul, & now a prisoner of Iesu Christ. I beseeche the for my sonne: * Onesimus who I haue begotten in my bondes, (whiche in tyme passed was to þ unprofitable but no-we profitable both to the & to me) whom I haue sent home agayne. ¶ Thou therfore receiue hym, & is to lape myne owne bowels, who I wold sayne haue retayneth with me þ in thy steade he myght haue ministered vnto me in the bondes of the Gospell. Reuer-thelesse, without thy mynde wolde I do no-thinge, & the good whiche thou desir, shulde not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

For hapely he therfore departed for a season, that thou shuldest receaue hym for euer net now as a seruant: but about a seruant, euen a brother beloued, specially to me: but howe moche more vnto the, both in þ felds, and also in þ Lorde. If thou count me therfore a felow, receaue hym as my selfe. If he haue done the anye hurt, or owech þ ought, þ lape to my charge. (I Paul haue written it wth myne owne hãde) I will recõpense it. So that I do not lape to the, howe that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe also. Euen so brother, let me enioie the in þ Lorde: Comforte my bowels in the Lorde.
Trustynge in thine obedience. I wrote vnto the, knowynge, that thou wilt also do more then

thys present worlde, lokynge for that blessed hope and apparencyng of the glory of the great God, & of oure sauoure Iesu Christ, whiche gaue hym selfe for vs, to redeme vs from all vnrigheteousnes, and to pouрге vs a peculyer people vnto him selfe, & feruet ly guen vnto good workes. These thinges speake, and exhort, & rebuke, with al feruentnes of commaundyng. * Se that no man despysethe.

The.iii. Chapter.

¶ Of obedience to soche as be in auctorite. ¶ De warned Titus to beware of folysh and unprofitable questyons.

¶ Arne the * that they submytte them selues to rule & power: that they obey þ offycers: & they be ready vnto every good worke:
that they speake euyl of no man: & they be no fegh-ters, but gentyle, theywynge all mekenes vnto all men. For we oure selues also were sotyme folysh the dysobedyent, deceaued, seruynge diuerse lustes, and voluptuousnes, lyuynge in malyciousnes and enuye, full of hate hatynge one another.

¶ But after that the kyndnes and loue of oure saueoure God to manwarde appeared, * not by dedes of ryghtewesnes whiche we wrought, but accordynge to his mercye he saued vs: by the fountayne of the newe byth, & remynge of the holy goost, whiche he shed on vs abundantly, thowowe Iesus Christ oure saueoure, that he iustified * by his grace, shulde be made hepyes accordynge to þ hope of eternall lyfe. ¶ Thys is a true saynge.

¶ Of these thinges I wyl that thou certi-fye, that they whiche beleue in God, myght be diligent to go forwarde in good workes for these thinges are good and profitable vnto men. * folysh questyons, and genea-logies, and brawlynge, thowowe stryppynge aboute þ lawe, auoyde: for they are vnprofitable and superfluous. ¶ A man that is an auctor of sectes, * after the fyrst and the seconde admonicyon auoyde: knowynge, that he (that is soche) is peruered & sinneth euen damned by hym selfe.

¶ When I shall sende Artemas vnto the, or Tychicus be diligent, to come, to me vnto Nicompolis: For I haue determyned there to winter. Bynge Zenas þ lawear & Apollos on theyr iorney diligently, & nothing be lackynge vnto the. And let oures also learne to excel in good workes, as far forth as nede requyret, that they be not vnfructfull. All þ are to me, salute þ. Gete the that loue vs in the sayth. Grace be wth you all. Amen.

¶ Wrytten from Nicopolis a citty of Macedonia.

The Epistle

then I say: Moreover, prepare me lodgings for I truste that thou shalt helpe of poure prayers, I shall be geuen vnto you. Ther salute the, Epaphras my fellowe prisoner in Christ Iesu, Marcus, Aristarcus, Demas, Lucas, my helpers. The grace of oure Lord Iesu Christ be with your spirite: Amen.

¶ Sent from Rome by Onesimus a seruant.

The Epistle of saynte

Paul the Apostolic vnto the hebreues.

¶ The fyrst Chapter. ¶

¶ Nowe God dealt touchyng wth them of the olde tyme in sendyng them hys prophetes, but moche more mercy hath he shewed vs in that he sent vs his owne sonne of the most excellent gloze of Iesus Christ, whiche in all thynges is lyke to hys father.

¶ In tyme paste diuersly & many wayes, spake vnto faders by prophetes: but in these laste dayes he hath spokē vnto vs by his owne sonne, whom he hath made heyre of al thynges: by whō also he made f woꝛlde. ¶ Whiche (sonne) be- pynge f byghthnes of hys gloze, & the very ymage of hys substance culpyng all thynges wth the woꝛde of hys power, hath by hys owne person pouged oure synnes, and speteth on the ryght hande of the maiestye on hye: beynge so moche more excellent then the aungels, as he hath by inheritaunce obteyned a moze excellent name then they.

* Col. 1. c.
1. ap. 1. 1. 1.

¶ For vnto whiche of f aungels sayde he at eny tyme: ¶ Thou art my sonne, this daye haue I begotten the: And agayne: I will be hys father, and he shall be my sonne. And agayne, when he byngeth in the fyrste begotten sonne into the woꝛlde, he sayth: ¶ And let all the aungels of God woꝛshyppe hym. And vnto f aungels he sayth: ¶ He maketh hys aungels spytes, and hys mynystres a flame of fyre. But vnto f sonne he sayth. ¶ Thy seate (O God) shall be for ever and euer. The scepter of thy kingdome is a ryght scepter. Thou hast loued ryghteousnes, and hated iniquite. Wherefore, god, euē thy God hath anoynted the wth the oyle of gladnes aboue thy felowes.

* 1. Col. 1. c. 1.

¶ And thou Lord in the begynnyng hast layde f foundation of the erth. And the heauens are the woꝛkes of thy handes. They shall perishe, but thou endurest, and they all shall waxe olde also as doth a garment: & as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them, & they shall be chaunged. But thou art euen the same and thy peres shall not faile. ¶ Vnto which of f aungels sayd he at eny tyme: ¶ Hye on my ryght hande, tyll I make thyn enemyes thy foꝛe foote: Are they not all ministringe spytes, that are sent to minystrer, for they lakes whiche shall be heyses of saluacyon.

¶ The ii. Chapter.

¶ He exhorteth vs to be obedynt vnto f newe lawe which Christ hath geuen vs and not to be offended at the infirmyte & inwe deuyte of Christ, because it was necessary that oure sakes he shoulde take soche an humble state vpon him that he myght be lyke vnto hys byethren.

¶ Herfor, we ought to geue f the moze earnest hede to f thynges f are spokē vnto vs, least at anye tyme we perishe. For yf the woꝛde which was spokē by aungels was stedfaste: And euery trasgression & disobedience receaued a iust recompense of rewarde howe shall we escape, yf we despyse so great saluacyō, which at f fyrst began to be preached of the Lord him selfe, and was confyrmed vnto vs ward, by them that heard it? ¶ God bearynge wytnes thereto, both wth spygnes and wonders also & wth diuers miracles, and gyftes of the holy gooste, accordyng to hys owne wyll.

¶ For vnto f aungels hath he not subdued the woꝛlde to come, wherof we speake, but one in a certayne place wytnessed, sayinge, ¶ What is man: that thou art myndfull of hym? ¶ O the sōne of man, that thou visitest hym! ¶ Thou madest hym a lytle lower then the aungels: f hast crowned hym wth honoure & gloꝛy, and f hast set hym aboue the woꝛkes of thy handes. ¶ Thou hast put all thynges in subieccio vnder hys fete. In that he put all thynges vnder hym, he left nothinge that is not put vnder him. ¶ Auert the lesse, we se not yet all thynges subdued vnto hym: but hym that was made lesse then the aungels, we se that it was Iesus, whiche is crowned wth gloꝛy and honour for the sufferynge of deeth: that he by the grace of God, shoulde tast of deeth for all men.

¶ For it became him, for whō are all thynges and by whom are al thynges (after that he had brought many sonnes vnto gloꝛy) f he shoulde make the Lord of they saluacyō perfecte thowowe assyrcyons. ¶ For both he that sanctifyeth and they whiche are sanctified, are all of one. ¶ For whiche causes sake he is not ashamed to call them byethren, sayinge: I will declare thy name vnto my f byethren, in the myddes of the congregacion wyl I prayse the. And agayne: I will put my trust in hym. And agayne: beholde, here am I and f chyldren whom God hath geuen me.

¶ For as moche then as f chyldren are partekers of fleshe & bloude, he also hym selfe lyke-

* 1. Col. 1. c. 1.
1. Col. 1. c. 1.

lyke wyse toke parte woth them that (tho-rowe deeth) he myght expell hym that had laid hyppye ouer deeth, that is to saye p de-uyl, and that he myght deliuer the, whych thowwe feare of deeth were all theyre lyfe tyme subdued vnto bondage. For he in no place taketh on hym p aungels: but the seed of Abrahā taketh he on hym. Wherefore, in all thynges it became hym to be made lyke vnto hys bzyethren, p he myght be mercifull, and a fapthfull hys Dyste in thynges concernynge God, for to pouрге the peoples synnes. For in that it fortunied hym selfe to be tempted, he is able to sucke the also that are tempted.

The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ He requyeth vs to be obeynt vnto the worde of Christ, whiche is more worth then p ceremonial lawe of Moyses. The punishment of such as will nedes harden theyr hartes.

¶ Therefore holy bzyeth, partakers of p celestial callynge consyder p ambatsador & hys prest of oure professyō Christe Iesus, howe p he is fapthfull vnto hym p put him in p offyce, euen as was Moses in all hys house. For loke howe moche honoure he (p hath buylded a house) hath more then the house it selfe, so moche honour he is couēted worthye of more then Moses. For euery house is buylded of some mā.
But he p ordeyned all thynges is God. And Moses verely was faithfull in all his house as a minister, to beare wytnes of those thin-ges whiche were to be spoken afterwarde.
But Christe as a sonne, hath rule ouer the house, whose house are we, p we holde faste the confydence and the reioysynge of that hope, vnto the ende.

¶ Wherefore (as the holy goost sayth:) to daye p ye wyl heare hys voyce, harden not your hartes, as in the prouokynge, in the daye of temptacyon in the wylernes, wher poure fathers tempted me, proued me, and sawe my workes. xl yeres. Wherefore I was greued with p generacyon, and sayde: They do all wape erre in theyr hartes: they verely haue not knowen my wayes, so p I sware in my wrath: they shal not enter into my rest: Take hede bzyeth, lest at any tyme there be in anye of you a frowarde hert subiect vnto vnbefese, that he shulde departe from the lpyngge God: but exhorte ye one another dayly, whyle it is called to daye, lest anye of you were harde harted thowwe the deceptfulnesse of synne.

¶ We are made partetakers of Christ, p we kepe sure (vnto the ende) the begynnynge of the substance, so longe as it is sayde: to daye p ye wyl heare his voyce, harden not your hartes, as in the prouokynge, for some when they hearde, dyd prouoke: howe be it not al p came out of Egypt by Moyses. But whō was he despleased. xl. yeres: Was he not despleased with the that had synned, whose carcases were ouer throwen in the desert: To whom Iware he that they shuld not enter into hys reste, but vnto them that were not obedient: And we se, p they coulde not enter in, because of vnbefese.

The. iiii. Chapter.

¶ The Sabbath is rest of the C. d. pten: punishment of vnbefese: the nature of the worde of God.

¶ Et vs fear therefore, lest eny of you (forlakynge p promes of enterynge into hys reste) shulde seme at anye tyme to haue bene disapoynted.
For vnto vs is it declared, as well as vnto them. But it profited not them, that they hearde the word: because they which hearde it, coupled it not with fapth. For we which haue beleued, do enter into hys reste, as he sayde. Eue as I haue sworne in my wrath: they shal not enter into my reste. And that spake he verely lōge after that the workes were made, and the foundacyon of p worlde layde. For he spake in a certayne place of p seuenth daye, on this wyse. * And God dyd rest the seuenth daye from all hys workes.
And in thys place agayne: They shal not enter into my rest.

¶ Seynge therefore it foloweth, that some muske enter ther into, and they (to whom it was first preached) entred not ther for vn-befese sake, he appoynteth a certayne daye after so lōge a tyme laying in Dauid (as it is rehearsed) this daye p ye wyl heare hys voyce, hardē not your hartes. For p Iosua had geuen the rest, then wolde he not afterwarde haue spoken of another daye. There remayneth therefore yet a reste to the people of God. For he that is entred into hys reste hath ceased also from hys owne workes, as God dyd from hys.

¶ Let vs study therefore to entre into that rest, lest eny man fall after the same ensample of vnbefese. For the worde of God is quycke, and myghy in operacyon, and that per then eny two edged swerde: & entred through, euen vnto the diuidynge a sonder of the soule and p sprete, and of the ioyntes and the mary: & is a discerner of the thoug-tes and of the intentes of the hert: nether is ther eny creature that is not manifest in the syght of hym: But all thynges are naked and open vnto p eyes of hym, of whom we speake.

¶ Seynge then, that we haue a great hys prest which is entred into heauen (euen Jesus the sonne of God) let vs holde p profes-syon: a (of oure hope) For we haue not an hys preste, which cannot haue compassyō on oure infirmities: but * was in all poyntes tempted, lyke as we are: but yet wythout synne.
Let vs therefore go boldly vnto the * seate of grace

The Epistle

of grace, that we maye obtayne mercy, and fynde grace to helpe in tyme of nede.

The. v. Chapter.

Christ is oure hye p[re]ste, and leade of grace, & more excellent then the hye p[re]stes of the olde lawe.

Euery hye p[re]ste that is take from among men, is ordeyned for men, in thynges pertaynyng to God: to offer gyftes and sacryfices for synne, whiche can haue compassyon on the ignorant, and on them p[er]re out of the waye, for as moche as he hym selfe also is compassed w[ith] infirmyte. And for y^e same infirmities sake he is bounde to offer for synnes, as well for hym selfe, as for the people. And no man taketh honoure vnto hym selfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

Eue so Christ also glorified not him selfe, to be made the hye p[re]ste: but he that sayde vnto hym, *thou art my sonne, thys daye haue I begotten the, glorified hym. As he sayeth also in another place: *thou art a p[re]ste for euer after the order of Melchisedech. Which in y^e dayes of his fleshe, whan he had offered by prayers and supplications, w[ith] stronge cryng and teares (vnto hym that was hable to laue him from deeth) and was hearde because of his reuerence, though he were y^e sonne of God, yet learned he obedience, by these thynges whiche he suffered: & he beyng perfecte, was the cause of eternal saluacion vnto all them that obeyed hym: and is called of God an hye p[re]ste, after the order of Melchisedech.

Wherof we wolde speake many thynges but they are harde to be vttered: seynge ye are dull of hearinge. For when as concerninge the tyme, ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye nede agayne, that we teache you the fyrst principles of the word of God: and are become soche as haue nede of *milk: and not of stronge meate: for euery man that is fed w[ith] milk, is inperyte in the word of ryghteousnes. For he is but a babe. But stronge meate belongeth to them that are perfecte, eue those, whiche (by reason of vse) haue they^r wittes exercised to discerne both good and euill.

The. vi. Chapter.

He goeth faste vnto the chynge that he began in the laste ende of the fyfte chapter, & exhorteth the not to saynt, but to be steadfast and patient: for so moche as God is sure in hys promysse.

Therfore, leaunyng the doctrine, y^e pertayneth to the begynnyng of Christen men, let vs go forth vnto perfection, not layenge agayne the foundacyon of repentance from deed wykes and of saynt towarde God, of baptisnges, of doctrine, and of laynge on of handes, and of resurrection from deeth, and of eternall iudgement. And so wyl we do *If God permytte.

* Actes. iij. b and. v. b. c

For it can not be that they whiche were once lyghted, and haue tasted of the heauenlye gyfte, and wer become partakers of the holy goost, and haue tasted of the good word of God, and the power of the world to come: *yf they fall awaye (and as concernyng the selues crucifie the sone of God a frende, and make a moche of hym) that they shulde be reuened agayne by repentance.

For the earth why: h drynkerh in y^e rayne that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes met for them that dresse it, receaueth blessinge of God. But that ground which beareth thornes and byars, is reproboued, & is nye vnto cursyng: whose ende is to be burned. Auert theselle (deare frendes) we trust to se better of you, and thynges which accompany saluacio, though we thus speake. For God is not vnryghteous: *y^e he shulde forget poure worke and labour that procede of loue, whiche loue ye shewe in hys name, which haue ministered vnto y^e sayntes and yet minister. Pee, & we desyre, y^e euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the full stabyltyng of hope, euen vnto y^e ende, that ye saynt not, but be folowers of them, whiche thowowe saynt and patience receaue the inheritaunce of the promysse.

For when God made promys to Abraham because he had no greater to sweare by: he swore by him selfe, sayng: Surely I wyl blesse the, and multiplye the in dede. And so after y^e he had tarped patiently, he enioyed the promys. For men verely swore by hym that is greater then them selues, and *another to confyrme the thyng, is to them an ende of all strepe. So God wyllynge very abundantly to shewe vnto the heyyes of promys, the stableness of hys couasyl, added an oth: that by two immutable thynges (in whiche it was vnpossyble that God shulde lye) we myght haue a stronge consolacion. whiche hitherto haue fled, for to holde fast y^e hope that is set before vs, whiche hope we holde as an ancre of the soule both sure and stedfaste, whiche hope also entereth in, vnto those thynges which are wryth in the vayle, where the foze runner is for vs entred, euen Jesus, that is made an hye p[re]ste for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

The. vii. Chapter.

He compareth the p[re]sthood of Christ vnto Melchisedech, but to be farre more excellent.

Hys Melchisedech kyng of Salem (whiche beyng p[re]ste of y^e most hye God, met Abraham, as he returned agayne from the slaughter of y^e kynges, and blessed hym: to whom also Abraham gaue tythes of all thynges) fyrst is called by interpretacyon kyng of ryghteousnes: after that, kyng of Salem (that is to saye to save, Kyng of peace) without father without mother, without hymne, and hath neither beginning of dayes, neither yet ende of lyfe: but is likened vnto þe sonne of God and continueth a preste for ever. Consider what a man this was, vnto whom also the patriarche. Abrahā gaue tythes of þe spoyle. And verely * those chyldren of Leuy, which receaue the offyce of the prestes, haue a commaundement to take (accoydinge to the lawe) tythes of the people, þe is to saye, of theyr brethren, yee: though they spounge out of the lopnes of Abrahā. But he whole tyred is not counted among them, receaued tythes of Abrahā, and blessed hym þe had the promyses. And no man denieth, but that he whiche is lesse, receaueth blessing of hym whiche is greater. And here men that ope, receaue tythes. But there he receaueth tythes of whom it is wytnessed, that he lyueth. And to save the trueth, Leuy him selfe also which vseth to receaue tythes payed tythes in Abrahā. For he was yet in the lopnes of hys father whan Melchisedech met Abrahā.

* Gen. xii.

* If nowe therfore perfectyon came by þe presthod of þe Leuytes (for vnder that presthod the people receaued the lawe) what neded it furthermoze, þe another preste shulde be called after the order of Melchisedech, and not after the order of Aaron: For yf the presthod be translated, then of necessity must the lawe be translated also.

For he of whiche these thynges are spoken pertayneth vnto another trybe, of whiche neuer man serued at the aultare. For it is euident that oure Lord spounge * of the trybe of Iuda, of whiche trybe spake Moyses no thyng concerninge presthod. And it is yet a moze euident thinge, yf after the similitude of Melchisedech there arple another preste, which is not made after the lawe of the carnall commaundement: but after þe power of þe endlesse lyfe. (For after this maner doth he testifie * thou art a preste for ever, after þe order of Melchisedech) Then þe commaundement that wot afoze, is disannulled, because of weaknes and vnprofitablenes. For the lawe bzought nothyng to perfectyon: but was an introduccyon to a better hope, by whiche we drawe nie vnto God. And therfore is it a better hope, because þe thing was not done without an othe. For those prestes were made without an othe, but this preste with an othe, by him that sayde vnto hym.

* The Lord sweare, and wyll not repent: Thou art a preste for ever after the order of Melchisedech. And for þe cause was Iesus a stablysher of a better testament.

And amonge them many were made prestes, because they were not suffred to endure by the reason of deeth. But this mā (because he endureth ever) hath an enterlastyng presthode: wherfore, he is able also ever to save them to the uttermost, that come vnto God by hym, saynge, he ever lyueth * to make intercession for vs.

For soche an hve preste it became vs to haue, whiche is holy, harmlesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, made hys then beauen. Which nedeth not dayly (as yoder hve prestes) * to offer vp sacrifice, fyrst for hys owne synnes, and the for þe peoples synnes. For þe dyd he once, when he offered vp hym selfe. * For the lawe maketh men prestes, which haue infirmyte: but the woze of the oth þe come fence the law, maketh the sonne preste, which is perfecte for evermoze.

The viii. Chapter.

The offyce of Christ is moze wothe then the preste: for he is the offyce of the olde lawe, whiche was imperfekte, and therfore abrogate.

Of the thynges which we haue spoken, this is þe ppth: that * we haue soche an hve preste as lytteth on the right hāde of the seate of maiestye in heauē, and is a mynister of holy thynges, and of þe true tabernacle, which God pyghe, and not mā. For euery hve preste is ordeyned to offer gyftes and sacrifices: wherfore it is of necessity, that this man haue some what also to offer. For he were not a preste, yf he were on þe earth where are prestes, that accooyng to þe lawe offer gyftes which serue vnto the enlample, and whadoue of heauenly thynges: euen as the answere of God was geue vnto Moyses, whē he was about to synthe þe tabernacle. * Take heede (sayde he) that thou make all thynges accooyng to the patrone whiche is shewed to the in the mount.

But nowe hath he obtayned a presthode so moche the moze excellent, as he is the mediator of a better testament, which was conformed in better promyses. For yf þe first testament had bene soche, þe no faute coulde haue bene founde in it, then shulde no place haue bene sought for the seconde. For in rebukynge them, he sayth vnto them. * Beholde the dayes come (sayth the Lord) and I will synthe vnto the house of Israel, and vpon þe house of Iuda, a newe testament: not lyke þe testament that I made with theyr fathers in that daye, when I toke them by the handes, to leade them out of the lande of Egypte. For they continued not in my testament, and I regarded the not sayth the Lord.

For this is the testament, þe I will make with the house of Israel: After those dayes (sayth the Lord) I will put my lawes in theyr myndes, & in theyr hertes I will wyte the, and I wyll be theyr God, and they shal be my people. And they shal not teache euery man hys neyghboure, and every mā hys brother, sayinge: knowe þ Lord: for they shall knowe me, from the least to the moſte of them: for I wyl be mercyfull ouer they: vnygde- welnes, & they synnes and they iniquities wyl I thinke vpon nomore. In that he ſayth a newe teſtament, he hath woꝛne out þ olde: for that whych is woꝛne out & wexed olde, is redy to vaniſhe awayne.

The .i. Chapter.

The pꝛeſent & worthynelle of the olde teſtament and howe ſaſſe the newe eſpelieth it.

In the olde teſtament then had verely ordinaunces, and ſeruinges of God, and woꝛdely holynes. For ther was a foꝛe tabernacle made, wherein was the lycht, and the table, & the brewe bꝛed, whych is called holy. But wꝛthin þ ſeconde vable was ther a tabernacle, which is called holpreſt of all, whych had the golde ſenſer, and the arcke of the teſtament ouer- layde roundabout wꝛth golde, wherein was the golden pot with * Manna, and * Archaes rodde, that lꝛong and * the tables of the teſtament. Over the arcke wer the Cherubims of gloꝛy, ſhadowynge the ſeate of grace. Of whych thynges we cannot nowe ſpeake particularly.

When theſe thynges were thus ordeyned, the pꝛeſtes went alwayes into the ſpylke tabernacle, whych executed the ſeruyce of the holy thynges. But into the ſeconde wꝛth the hꝛe pꝛeſte alone: once every yeare: not with out bloud: whych he offered for hym ſelfe, & for the ignoraunces of þ people. Altherwꝛth the holy goost thys ſignified, that the waꝛe of holy thynges was not yet opened, whyl as yet the ſpylke tabernacle was ſtandynge. which was a ſimilitude for þ tyme then pꝛeſent, in which were offered gyftes and ſacrifyces, that coulde not make the miniſter perfecte as partaynyng to the conſcience, wꝛth onely meates & dꝛynches, & diuers waſhynges and inſtyppynge of þ fleſhe, which were ordeyned vntyll the tyme of reſormacion.

But * Chꝛiſt beyng an hꝛe pꝛeſte of good thynges to come, came by a greater and a moꝛe perfecte tabernacle, not made with hādes: that is to ſaye, not of this buydynge, nether by the bloude of goates and calves: but * by hys owne bloude he entred in once into the holy place, and founde eternal redemption.

For þe * bloud of oxen and of goates & the aſhes of a ſponge howe, when it was ſpyꝛchled, purifyeth the unclene, as touchynge þ purifyng of þ fleſhe: howe moche moꝛe ſhall the bloude of Chꝛiſt (whiche thowꝛe þ eternal ſpyꝛte, offered hym ſelf with out ſpot to God) pouꝛge pouꝛ conſcience from dꝛed woꝛkes, for to ſerue the lꝛuyng God.

And for this cauſe is he the * mediatour of the newe teſtament, þ thowſolwe death which chaunced, for the redemption of thoſe tranſgreſſours that were vnder þ ſpylke teſtament: they which are called, mygde receyue þ promiſſe of eternal inheritaunce. For where as is a teſtament, there muſt alſo (of neceſſite) be the deſth of him þ maketh the teſtament: for the teſtament taketh auctorite when me are dꝛed: for it is yet of no value, as long as he that maketh þ teſtament is alꝛue: for which cauſe alſo nether the ſpylke teſtament was ordeyned without bloude. For when Moſes had declared all the comādemēt to all the people accordynge to the lawe, he toke þ bloude of calves and of gootes, with water & purple wolle, and yſope, and ſpyꝛchled both the boke, & all the people, ſayinge: * this is the bloude of the teſtament, whiche God hath appoynted vnto you. Moꝛeouer, he ſpyꝛchled the tabernacle w bloude alſo, & all the mynſtꝛyng veſſels. And almoſt all thynges are by the lawe pouꝛged w bloud, & without the dꝛyng of bloude is no remiſſiō.

It is nede then, þ the ſimilitudes of hea- nely thynges be purifyd with ſuche thynges: but that þ heaenly thynges them ſelues be purifyd with better ſacrifyces then are thoſe. For Chꝛiſt is not entred into the holy place: that are made with hādes (which are ſimilitudes of true thynges) but is entred into very heauen, for * to appeare now in the lycht of God for vs: not to offer hym ſelfe often * as the hꝛe pꝛeſte entred into þ holy place every yere with ſtraunge bloude, for then muſt he haue often ſuffred ſyns the woꝛlde began. But nowe in the ende of the woꝛlde, hath he appeared ones, to put ſynne to lycht by the offeryng of hym ſelfe. And as it is appoynted vnto all men, þ they ſhall ones dꝛe, and then cometh the iudgement: euen ſo Chꝛiſt was ones offered, to take awaye the ſynnes of many, & vnto the that loke for hym, ſhall he appeare agayne without ſynne vnto ſaluacon.

The .i. Chapter.

The olde lawe had no power to ciente awayne ſynne, but Chꝛiſt dꝛd it wꝛth offeryng of hys bodye ones for all. An exhortacon to receyue this goodnelle of God thankfully with patience and ſtedfaſt fayth.

In the lawe (haupng the * ſhadowe of good thynges to come, and not the very ſaſſon of the thynges themſelues) can neuer with thoſe ſacrifyces whiche they offer, peare by peare continuallye make the conuers there vnto perfect. For wolde not then thoſe ſacrifyces haue craſſed to haue ben offered, by cauſe that þ offerers ones pouꝛged ſhoulde haue had no moꝛe conſcience of ſynnes: Reuertheleſſe, in thoſe ſacrifyces, is there mencyon made of ſynnes euery yere. For the bloude of oxen and of gootes can not take awaye ſynnes.

Altherſoꝛe

Wherfore, whē he cometh into the worlde he saith: * Sacrifice and offeringe I wollest not haue: but a bodie hast I ordeyned me: Burnt offeringes also for synne hast I not allowed. Then sayd I: lo, I am here. In the begynnyng of the booke it is wyrtten of me, that I shuld do thy wyll, o God. A boue, whē he saith: sacrifice & offering, & burnt sacrifices and synne offeringes thou woldest not haue, nether hast I allowed the (whiche yet are offered by þe lawe) then sayde he: Lo, I am here, to do thy wyll, O God: he taketh awaye the fyre to stablyshe the latter, by whiche wyll we are made holy, euen by þe offeryng of þe body of Iesu Christ once for all.

And euery prest is ready dailie ministeryng an offeringe often tymes one maner of oblacion, whiche can neuer take away synnes. But this man after he hath offered one sacrifice for synnes, is let downe for euer on þe ryght hande of God, & fro hence forth carryeth wyl-lys for euer he made hys fote stole. For wyth one offeringe hath he made partyte for euer, them that are sanctified. The holy goost him selfe also beareth vs recorde, euen when he solde befoze: This is the testament that I will make vnto the: after those dayes (sayeth the Lozde) I will put my lawes in theyr hartes, & in theyr myndes will I wyrtte the, & theyr synnes & iniquities will I remembre nomore. And where remission of these thynges is, ther is nomore offeringe for synne.

Whyng therfore brethren, þe by the meanes of þe bloude of Iesu: we haue lybertie to enter into þe holy place, by the new and luyng day whiche he hath spard for vs, throughe the vayne (þe is to saye, by his fleshe.) And whyng also þe we haue an hie prest which is ruler ouer þe house of God, let vs drawe nye vnto a true herte in a sure sayth, spycked in our hartes & the euil conscience put awaye & washed in our bodys with pure water: let vs kepe þe profession of our hope, wout waueryng (for he is saythfull & promysed) & let vs consyder one another, to the intēt that we may prouoke vnto loue, & to good workes, not forshakynge þe fellowshipe þe we haue among our selues, as the maner of some is: but let vs exhortē one another, & so much the more, because yee see that the daye draweth nye.

* For yf we synne wylfully after that we haue receaued the knowledge of the trouth, ther remaineth nomore sacrifice for synnes but a fearful lokynge for iudgement, and violent fyre, whiche shall deuoure the aduersaries. He þe despiseth Moses law, dyeth wyllout mercy: vnder twoz of wyse wyntnesses: how much sozer (suppose yee) shall he be ponyshed which treadeth vnder fote the sonne of God: & coueteth the bloud of the testamēt, wherwith he was sanctified, as an vnholpe thyng, & doth dishonour to þe spyrte of grace

For we knowe hym that hath sayd: * It belongeth vnto me to take vengeance. I will receyue sayth þe Lozde: And agayne: þe Lozde shal iudge his people. It is a fearful thyng to fall into the handes of the luyng God.

Call to remembraunce the dayes that are passed, in the whiche after yee had receaued lyght, yee endured a great fyght of aduersities, partly whyle all men wondred and gased at you for the shame & tribulation that was done vnto you: partly, whyle yee became companions of them whiche so passed theyr tyme. For yee became partakers also of the afflictions whiche happened thorow my bōdes, & toke in worth the spolynge of youre goodes, & that wyth gladnes: knowynge in your selues, howe that yee haue in heauen a better & an enduryng substance. Cast not awaye therfore your confidence, whiche hath a great recompence of rewarde. For yee haue nede of patience, that after yee haue done the wyll of God, yee may receaue the promys.
For yet a very lytel whyle, & yee shall come wyll come, and wyll not tary. But the iust shall lyue by sayth. And yf he wythdrawe hym selfe, my soule shal haue no pleasure in hym. It is not we that wythdrawe our sel-ues vnto damnacion, but we partayne vnto sayth, to the wympynge of the soule.

The xi. Chapter.

What sayth is, and a comendacion of the same. The first part becometh of the fathers in olde tyme.

E sayth is a sure confydence of thynges, & whiche are hoped for, & a certapntie of thynges whiche are not sene. For by it the elders obteyned a good report.

Thorowe sayth we vnderstande, that the worlde was ordeined by the worde of God, and that thynges which are sene, were made of thynges which were not sene. * By sayth Abel offered vnto God a more plentiful sacrifice then Cayn: by whiche he obteyned wytnes that he was ryghteous, God testifyng of hys gyftes: by whiche also he bepynge deade, yet speaketh.

By sayth was Enoch translated, that he shulde not se death: nether was he founde: for god had taken him awaye. For afore he was takē away, he obteyned a good report, þe he pleased God: but wythout sayth it can not be þe any mā shulde please him. For he þe cometh to God, must beleue that God is, & that he is a rewarder of the that seke hym.

By sayth: Noe beyng warned of God, eschued the thynges whiche were as yet not sene, and prepared arkē to the sauynge of hys household, tho: we the whiche arke, he: condemned the worlde, & became heye of the ryghte wytnes whiche is accordynge to sayth.

By sayth: Abraham, whē he was called Abm Obeyd

Heb. xix. 11.
Rom. 8. 13.

Heb. 11. 1.
Rom. 1. 1.
Gal. 3. 1.

Gen. 1. 1.

Act. 17. 1.
Rom. 1. 1.
Gen. 1. 1.

Gen. 1. 1.
Eccle. 1. 1.
and. 1. 1.

Gen. 1. 1.
Eccle. 1. 1.

Gen. 1. 1.

Gen. 1. 1.
Rom. 1. 1.

The Epistle

obeyed, to go out into a place, whych he shuld afterwarde receaue to inheritaunce: & he wot out, not knowynge whether he shulde go.

Be sayth he remoued into p lande of promes, as into a straunge countre, when he had dwelt in tabernacles: & so dyd Isaac & Jacob hepyes with him of p same promes. For he looked for a cytie haupnge a foundacyon, whose buylder and maker is God.

* Gen. xxi. 2. * Thozowe sayth Sara also receaued strength to coceauc and be with chylde, and was deliuered of a chylde whē she was past age, because she iudged him saythful whych had promysed.

* Gen. xxi. 2. And therfore sprāge therof one (cut of one) whych was as good as deade: * so many in multitude as are the starres in p skaye, & as p lande, p which is by p see thore, innumerable.

* Job. xlii. 2. * These al dyed accordynge to sayth, when they had not receaued p promyses: but * saw them as farre of, and beleued them, and saluted them, & confessed, that they were straungers and pylgryms on the earth. For they that saye lychethynges declare, that they seke a countre. Also yf they had ben myndful of the countre, fro whēce they came out, they had leasure to haue returned agayne: but nowe they desyre a better (that is to saye) a heauenly. Wherfore God him selfe is not ashamed * to be called they: God for he hath prepared for them a cytie.

* Gen. xxi. 2. * By sayth Abraham offered by Isaac, when he was p oued, and he offered hym be-ryng hys only begottē sonne, in wch he had receaued the promyses. And to hym it was sayde, in Isaac shal thy seide be called: for he cōsidered, that God was able to rāple by a gayne fro deat. Therfore, receaued he hym also for an ensample of p resurreccō. * By sayth dyd Isaac blesse Jacob and Esau, con-ccrnyng thynges to come.

* Gen. xxi. 2. * By sayth Jacob whē he was a dyeng, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, & bowed hym selfe toward the toppe of hys scepter.

* Gen. l. 13. * By sayth Joseph when he dyed, remembred the departynge of the chylde of Israel, & gaue cōmaundement of hys bones. * By sayth Moses when he was bozne was byd the monethes of hys father and mother because they saw he was a proper chylde: nethe feared they the kynges cōmaundement.

* Exo. ii. 2. * By sayth Moses when he was great, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter, & chose rather to suffre aduersitie wyth the people of God, then to enioye the pleasures of synne for a season, and esteemed the rebuke of Christ greater ryches then the treasures of Egypt. For he had respect vnto the rewarde.

* Exo. xli. 2. * By sayth he forsoke Egypt & feared not the scarcenes of p kyng. For he endured, cut as though he had sene p whych is inuisible.

* Thozow sayth he ordeyned p passcomer and the effusion of bloude, lest he p destroyed the fyrst bozne, shulde touche them.

* By sayth they passed thozowe p reed sea as by dype lande: whych when the Egypciā had assayed to do, they were drownded. * By sayth the walles of Jericho fel downe after they were compassed aboute seven dayes.

* By sayth p barlot Raab perswaded not to them that were disobedient, whē she had receaued the spyres to lodgynge praisably.

And what shall I more saye: for the tyme wyl be to thozte for me to tell of Gedon, of Barach, & of Soplon, & of Jephthar, & of David also: & Samuel, & of the prophetes. * Which thozowe sayth subdued kyngdomes wrought ryghteousnes: obteyned p promyses: * stopped the mouthes of lybs: quenched p violence of fyre: * escaped p edge of the sword: * out of weaknes, were made strong: * valiant in fyght: turned to flyght: p armys of the aliantes: the wem receaued they: dead rāpled to lyfe agayne.

Other were racked, & wolde not be deliuered, that they myght inherite a better resurreccion. Agayne, other were tryed to moe kynges & scourgynges, moze ouer with bondes & prisonment: * were stoned, were hanged asunder, were tēpted, were slayne w sword, walked by & downe in shepe skynnes, and goates skynnes, beyng destitute, troubled & vered: which mē p woilde was not worthy of: they wādzed in wyldernes: & in mountaynes, and in denmes, and caues of earth.

And these al thozow sayth obtayned good reports, & receaued not the promyses, because God had prouyded a better thing for vs, that they without vs shuld not be made persyte.

Chapter.

An exhortacion to be pacient & steadfast in trouble & aduersite, vpon hope of certayn spage rewarde. A cōm-mendacion of the newe testamēt above the olde.

Wherfore, let vs also (syrnge that we are cōpassed wyth so greate a multitude of witness) * lay a way al that presseth downe, & the synne that hangeth so fast on, let vs runne wyth patience vnto the battayle that is set before vs, lokynge vnto Iesus the captayne & finisher of our sayth, which (for the roye p was set before hym) abode the crosse, & deliuyed the shame, & is set downe * on the ryghte hande of the throne of God. Consider therfore, howe p he endured such speakynge agaynst hym of synners lest ye shulde be werped and saynte in your myndes. For ye haue not yet respyred vnto bloud, stryunge agaynst synne. And haue for gotten the exhortacion, whych he speaketh vnto you as vnto chylidren: my sonne, deliuyse not thou p challenyng of the Loyde, nethe saynt, when p arte rebuked of hym: for whome p Loyde loueth, hym he chasteneth: yet per, he scourgeth every sone þe receaueth. þe endure chastenynge, God offeth him selfe vnto you as vnto sonnes. What sone is he whom the father chasteneth not? þe be not vnder correccion (wherof al are partakers) then are ye bastarides, and not sonnes. Therfore sayng we haue had fathers of our fleshe whych corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: shall we not much rather be in subieccion vnto the father of spytes, and lyeue? And they verely for a fewe dayes, nured vs after their owne pleasure: but he nurtereth vs for our profite, to the intent that he maye mynister of hys holynes vnto vs.

No maner chastelynge for the present tyme semeth to be iopous, but greuous: neuertheless afterwarde, it byngeth the quyet frute of ryghteousnes, vnto them whych are exercised therein.

* Stretch forth therfore þe handes whych were lett doone, and the weake knees: and let that ye haue straght steppes vnto poure sete, lest any haltinge turne you out of the waye: yee let it rather be healed. Followe peace wth all men and holynes: wthout the which no man shall se þe Lord. And loke that no mā be destitute of the grace of God, lest any roote of bytternes spyngge by and trouble, & thereby many be deuyled: þe be no fornicator, or vncleane persone, as Elau * whyche for one meale of meate solde hys byttryng. For ye knowe howe that afterwarde when he wolde by enheritaunce haue obtayned blessinge, he was put by. For he founde no place of repentance, though * he soughte it wth teares.

For ye are not come vnto the mount þe is toucht, & vnto burnynge fyre, nor vnto storme, & darkenes, and tempestes of weder, and sounde of a trompe, and the voice of wordes: whyche * voyce, they (that hearde it) wylshed awaye, that the comunicacion shuld not be spoken to the. For they coulde not abyde that whych was commaunded.

* þe a beast touche the mountayne, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart: so terrible was the sight which appeared. Moses sayde: I feare & quake. But ye are come vnto the mount syon, and to the cytie of the lyuynge God, þe celestial Ierusalem: and to an innumerable spyght of angels, and vnto the cōgregation of the spyt boine sonnes, whych are wyrtten in heauen, and to God, the iudge of all, & to the spytes of iust & perspyte men, and to Iesus þe mediator of þe newe testamēt, and to the * lyuynge of blood that speaketh better then the * bloude of Abel.

¶ We that ye despyse not hym, þe speaketh. For þe they escaped not, whych refused hym that spake on erth: muche moze shall we not escape, þe we turne awaye from hym, that speaketh from heauen: whose voyce then spake the erth, and nowe hath declared sayenge: yet once moze wyll I make, not þe erth onely, but also heauen. Where as he sayeth yet once moze, it signifieth the remouynge awaye of those thynges whyche are shakē as of thynges which haue ended theyr course: that the thynges whych are not shakē, may remayne. Therfore, þe we receaue the kyngdom whych cā not be moued, we haue grace wherby we maye so serue God, and that we maye please hym wth reuerence: and godly feare. For our God is a consuming fyre.

The xiii. Chapter.

The exhortaciō to loue, to hospitalite, to thynke vpon such as be in aduersite, to mapercapne wedlocke, to auoyde couetousnesse, to make muche of them that preach Gods word, to beware of straunge leauynge: to be content to suffer rebuke wth Christ, to be thankfull vnto God, & obedient vnto such as be in authorite.

¶ Et brotherly loue continue. * Be not forgetfull to lodge straungers. For therby haue dyuers men lodged angels vnto uares. Remember them that are in bondes, euen as though ye were bounde to the your selues. Be myndfull of them which are in aduersite, as ye whyche are yet in the bodie. Wedlocke is to be had in honoure amonge all men, and the bed vndespiled. As for those keepers and aduocaters God shall iudge them. Let your conuersacion be wth out couetousnes and * be content wth such thynges as ye haue alreadye. For he hath sayd: I wyll not fayle the, neither forsake the: so that we maye boldlye saye: the Lord is my helper, and I wyll not feare what mā maye do vnto me. Remember them whyche haue the ouersyght of you, whych haue spoken vnto you the worde of God. Whose sayth let that ye followe, & consyder the ende of theyr conuersacion.

Iesus Christ yesterday and to daye, and the same continueth for ever. ¶ Be not carped aboute wth dyuers and straunge leuynge. For it is a good thyng that þe be stablyshed wth grace, and not wth mannes, which haue not profyted the that haue had theyr palyne in them. We haue an autter, wherof they may not eate, whych serue in the tabernacle. * For the bodies of those beastes whose blood is brought into the holy place by the hye prest to purge synne, are burnt wthout the tentes. Therfore Iesus also sanctifye the people wth hys owne blood, suffered wthout the gate. Let vs go forth therfore vnto hym, out of the tentes, and suffer rebuke wth hym. For here haue we no continuynge cytie: but we seeke one to come.

¶ By hym therfore do we offre sacrifice of laude alwayes to God: þe is to saye, the frute of those lyppen, whych confesse his name. To hym is do good

* Eccl. xix. a
Act. 1, a
Rom. 1. a.
100 p. 111. 3

West. Ky. 1 Hosue. x. a
i. Det. b. a

Went from Italy by Timotheus.

The first Chapter.

CDe exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, and thankfullie to receaue the woꝝde of God, true religion oꝝ deuoty: on what it is.

*Job. rld. 97 Sapi. fil. 9
Roma. b. 9

Job. xlii. c Eccl. vii. c Math. xii. a Luke. xi. b

* 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032, 2033, 2034, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042, 2043, 2044, 2045, 2046, 2047, 2048, 2049, 2050, 2051, 2052, 2053, 2054, 2055, 2056, 2057, 2058, 2059, 2060, 2061, 2062, 2063, 2064, 2065, 2066, 2067, 2068, 2069, 2070, 2071, 2072, 2073, 2074, 2075, 2076, 2077, 2078, 2079, 2080, 2081, 2082, 2083, 2084, 2085, 2086, 2087, 2088, 2089, 2090, 2091, 2092, 2093, 2094, 2095, 2096, 2097, 2098, 2099, 2100, 2101, 2102, 2103, 2104, 2105, 2106, 2107, 2108, 2109, 2110, 2111, 2112, 2113, 2114, 2115, 2116, 2117, 2118, 2119, 2120, 2121, 2122, 2123, 2124, 2125, 2126, 2127, 2128, 2129, 2130, 2131, 2132, 2133, 2134, 2135, 2136, 2137, 2138, 2139, 2140, 2141, 2142, 2143, 2144, 2145, 2146, 2147, 2148, 2149, 2150, 2151, 2152, 2153, 2154, 2155, 2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, 2160, 2161, 2162, 2163, 2164, 2165, 2166, 2167, 2168, 2169, 2170, 2171, 2172, 2173, 2174, 2175, 2176, 2177, 2178, 2179, 2180, 2181, 2182, 2183, 2184, 2185, 2186, 2187, 2188, 2189, 2190, 2191, 2192, 2193, 2194, 2195, 2196, 2197, 2198, 2199, 2200, 2201, 2202, 2203, 2204, 2205, 2206, 2207, 2208, 2209, 2210, 2211, 2212, 2213, 2214, 2215, 2216, 2217, 2218, 2219, 2220, 2221, 2222, 2223, 2224, 2225, 2226, 2227, 2228, 2229, 2230, 2231, 2232, 2233, 2234, 2235, 2236, 2237, 2238, 2239, 2240, 2241, 2242, 2243, 2244, 2245, 2246, 2247, 2248, 2249, 2250, 2251, 2252, 2253, 2254, 2255, 2256, 2257, 2258, 2259, 2260, 2261, 2262, 2263, 2264, 2265, 2266, 2267, 2268, 2269, 2270, 2271, 2272, 2273, 2274, 2275, 2276, 2277, 2278, 2279, 2280, 2281, 2282, 2283, 2284, 2285, 2286, 2287, 2288, 2289, 2290, 2291, 2292, 2293, 2294, 2295, 2296, 2297, 2298, 2299, 2300, 2301, 2302, 2303, 2304, 2305, 2306, 2307, 2308, 2309, 2310, 2311, 2312, 2313, 2314, 2315, 2316, 2317, 2318, 2319, 2320, 2321, 2322, 2323, 2324, 2325, 2326, 2327, 2328, 2329, 2330, 2331, 2332, 2333, 2334, 2335, 2336, 2337, 2338, 2339, 2340, 2341, 2342, 2343, 2344, 2345, 2346, 2347, 2348, 2349, 2350, 2351, 2352, 2353, 2354, 2355, 2356, 2357, 2358, 2359, 2360, 2361, 2362, 2363, 2364, 2365, 2366, 2367, 2368, 2369, 2370, 2371, 2372, 2373, 2374, 2375, 2376, 2377, 2378, 2379, 2380, 2381, 2382, 2383, 2384, 2385, 2386, 2387, 2388, 2389, 2390, 2391, 2392, 2393, 2394, 2395, 2396, 2397, 2398, 2399, 2400, 2401, 2402, 2403, 2404, 2405, 2406, 2407, 2408, 2409, 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413, 2414, 2415, 2416, 2417, 2418, 2419, 2420, 2421, 2422, 2423, 2424, 2425, 2426, 2427, 2428, 2429, 2430, 2431, 2432, 2433, 2434, 2435, 2436, 2437, 2438, 2439, 2440, 2441, 2442, 2443, 2444, 2445, 2446, 2447, 2448, 2449, 2450, 2451, 2452, 2453, 2454, 2455, 2456, 2457, 2458, 2459, 2460, 2461, 2462, 2463, 2464, 2465, 2466, 2467, 2468, 2469, 2470, 2471, 2472, 2473, 2474, 2475, 2476, 2477, 2478, 2479, 2480, 2481, 2482, 2483, 2484, 2485, 2486, 2487, 2488, 2489, 2490, 2491, 2492, 2493, 2494, 2495, 2496, 2497, 2498, 2499, 2500, 2501, 2502, 2503, 2504, 2505, 2506, 2507, 2508, 2509, 2510, 2511, 2512, 2513, 2514, 2515, 2516, 2517, 2518, 2519, 2520, 2521, 2522, 2523, 2524, 2525, 2526, 2527, 2528, 2529, 2530, 2531, 2532, 2533, 2534, 2535, 2536, 2537, 2538, 2539, 2540, 2541, 2542, 2543, 2544, 2545, 2546, 2547, 2548, 2549, 2550, 2551, 2552, 2553, 2554, 2555, 2556, 2557, 2558, 2559, 2560, 2561, 2562, 2563, 2564, 2565, 2566, 2567, 2568, 2569, 2570, 2571, 2572, 2573, 2574, 2575, 2576, 2577, 2578, 2579, 2580, 2581, 2582, 2583, 2584, 2585, 2586, 2587, 2588, 2589, 2590, 2591, 2592, 2593, 2594, 2595, 2596, 2597, 2598, 2599, 2600, 2601, 2602, 2603, 2604, 2605, 2606, 2607, 2608, 2609, 2610, 2611, 2612, 2613, 2614, 2615, 2616, 2617, 2618, 2619, 2620, 2621, 2622, 2623, 2624, 2625, 2626, 2627, 2628, 2629, 2630, 2631, 2632, 2633, 2634, 2635, 2636, 2637, 2638, 2639, 2640, 2641, 2642, 2643, 2644, 2645, 2646, 2647, 2648, 2649, 2650, 2651, 2652, 2653, 2654, 2655, 2656, 2657, 2658, 2659, 2660, 2661, 2662, 2663, 2664, 2665, 2666, 2667, 2668, 2669, 2670, 2671, 2672, 2673, 2674, 2675, 2676, 2677, 2678, 2679, 2680, 2681, 2

* 15 cm. 572.

C
 (C.O.) (H.L.)

John, S. and, S.D.

1918-1919
Cm. 1, 2

EX-100, 101, 102
103, 104, 105

① 1000.00

Page 143

¶ The.ii. Chapter.

¶ Be forbiddeth to have any respects of persons, and not to beak of earth where no bones are.

M y brethren, esteeme not the sayth of our Lord Iesus Christ & Lord of glory * with respect of persons. For yf ther come into poure company a man wearyng a gold rynge, clothed in goodly aparel, & ther come in also a pooze man in vyle rayment, & ye haue a respecte to hym that weareth the gape clothynge, & say vnto hym: Spyt thou here in a good place: & saye vnto the pooze: Stande thou there, or syt here vnder my foot stole: are ye not parciall in poure selues, and haue iudged after euill thoughtes?

Herken my deare beloued brethren. Hath not God cholen the pooze of thys worlde, such as are ryche in sayth, and heyres of the kyngdom, whych he promysed to them that loue hym? But ye haue despylled the pooze. Do not ryche men exerce tyranie vpo pou, and drawe pou befoze the iudgemēt seates: Do not they speake euil of that good name whych is called vpon ouer pou?

Yf ye fulfyll the royall lawe, accordynge to the scripture. * (Thou shalt loue thyne neyghbour as thy selfe) ye do wel. But yf ye regarde one person moze then another, ye comyt synne, and are rebuked of the lawe, as transgressours. Whosoener shall kepe the whole lawe, and yet saye in one poynt, he is gylty of al. For he that sayd: Thou shalt not comyt adulterye, sayde also: thou shalt not kyll. Though thou do none adulterye, yet yf thou kyll, thou arte become a transgressour of the lawe. So speake ye, and so do, as they that shal be iudged by the lawe of lybertye. For he shall haue iudgemēt without mercy * that sheweth no mercy: and mercede reioyleth agaynst iudgement. F

What auayleth it my brethren, though a mā saye he hath sayth, yf he haue no dedes? Can sayth saue hym? Yf a brother or a syster be naked & destitute of dayly foode, & one of you saye vnto them: departe in peace, God sende you war mnes & fode, notwithstanding ye geue the not those thynges whych are ned full to the body, what shal it helpe? Euen so sayth, yf it haue no dedes: is deade in it selfe.

But some mā wyl saye: I haſt sayth, & I haue dedes: shewe me thy sayth by thy dedes: & I wyl shewe the my sayth by my dedes. Beleeuest thou that ther is one God? Thou doest well. The deuels also beleeue, & tremble.

But wylt thou deride, (Thou wayne man) yf sayth without dedes is deade? Was not Abrahā our father iustified thowowe workes, whē he had offered Isaac hys sone vpo the auter? Thou seest, howe that sayth wrought w his dedes, & through the dedes was the sayth made partye: & the scripture was fulfilled, whych sayeth: Abrahā beleued God, and it was reputed vnto hym for ryghtwysnes: & he was called the frende of God. * Yese then howe that of dedes a mā is iustified, and not of sayth onely. Lythe-woyle also, was not Raab the harlot iustified thowowe workes, * when she had receaued the messengers, and had sente them oute another way? For as the body, without the sprete is deade, euen so sayth without workes is deade also. F

The.iii. Chapter.

What good & euill cometh thowowe the tonge. The durtie of such as be lecherous. The difference betwixte the wysdome of the Gospell, & the wysdome of this world.

My brethren, * be not euery man a master, knowinge howe we shal receaue the greater damnacion: for in many thynges we synne all. * Yf a man synne not in worde, yf same is a partye mā, & able also to tame all the body. Beholde, we put byttes into the horses mouthes, & they maye obeye vs, & we turne aboute all the bodye of the. Beholde also yf wyppes, whych though they be so great, & are bypuren of scarce wyndes, yet are they turned about wth a verpe finall helme whycher soeuer yf violence of yf gouernour wyl. Euen so the tonge is a lytell member also, and boasteth great thynges.

Beholde, how great a thyng is a lytel fyre kyndleth, and the tonge is fyre, cuē a world of wyckednes. So is the tonge set amonge oure members, that it defyleth the whole body, and setteth a fyre all that we haue of nature, and is it selfe set a fyre euen of hell.

All the natures of beastes, and of byrdes, and of serpentes, & thynges of the see are meked and tamed of the nature of man. But yf tonge can no man tame. It is an vnruyle euill, ful of deadly popson. Ther with blesse we God the father, and therwith curse we men, * which are made after the symilitude of God. Out of one mouth proceedeth blessinge and cursinge. My brethren these thynges ought not so to be. Doth a fountayne sende forth at one place swete water and bytter also? Can the fygge tree: my brethren beare olyue beries: ether a vyne beare fygges? So can no fountayne geue both salt water and freische also. Yf any man be wysle and endued wth knowledge amonge pou, let hym shewe hys workes out of good conuerſacion wth mekenes of wysdome.

But yf ye haue bytter enuyng & stryfe in poure herte, reioyce not: neyther be lyars agaynst the truth: For such wysdome descendeth not fro aboue: but is erthy, naturall, & byuelysh. For where enuyng & stryfe is, ther is vnitableness, & al maner of euil workes. But the wysdome that is fro aboue, is spysse pure, the peasable, getle, & easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good frutes, without iudginge, without simulation: yee, & yf frute

Wm iii of

The fyrst Epistle

of ryghtwysnes is sowne in peace, of them that mayntene peace.

The. iiii. Chapter.

Warre and fygthynge cometh of voluptuousnes. The frendshipp of the worlde is enemye before God. An exhortacion to fipe slander and the banite of this lyfe.

Rom whence cometh warre, and fygthynge amōge you: come they not here hence: euen of youre lustes, that fygth in your members: Pe lust, and haue not. Pe enuye and haue indignacion, and can not obtayne. Pe fygth & warre. Pe haue not because ye aske not. Ye aske & receaue not, because ye aske amplye: euen to consume it vpon your lustes. Pe aduouterers, & women that breake matrimonye: knowe ye not howe that the frendshipp of the worlde, is enemye wyth God: wholo euer therfore wybe a frende of the worlde, is made the enemye of God. Eyrher do ye thynke p the scripture sayeth in vayne. The spete p dwelleth in vs, lusteth euen contrarye to enuye: but geueth more grace. (wherfore be sayeth: God respyeth the proude, but geueth grace vnto the lowlye.)

* Gal. 1. b
* 1. Iohn. 11. c

Submyt your selues therfore to God: but resyst p denell, and he wyll sipe from you. Draue nye to God, and he wyll draue nye to you. Cense your handes pe synners, and purge your hertes pe wauerynge mynded.

* 1. Pet. 3. a. j

Suffre afflictions: & mourne, & wepe. Let your laughter be turned to mournynge, and your ioye to heynnes. * hūble your selues in the syght of the Lorde, & he shal lye you vp. Backbyste not one another, brythre. He that backbysteth his bzother, & he p iudgeth his bzother, backbysteth the lawe, & iudgeth the lawe. But and pf thou iudge the lawe, thou arte not an obseruer of the lawe: but a iudge.

* 1. Ro. 12. a
* 1. Pet. 1. b
* 1. Pet. 1. b

Ther is one lawe geuer (and iudge) whych is a ble to saue and to destrope. What art thou that iudgeth another? So to now ye that say: to daye & to morowe let vs go into suche a cytie, and continue there a peare, and bye & sel, and wynde: and yet can not ye tell, what shal happē on the morow. For what thyng is your lyfe? It is euen a vapour, that apereyth for a lytell tyme, & then he vauysmeth awaye: For that ye oughte to saye: * pf the Lorde wyl, and pf we lyue, let vs do thys oz that. But now ye reioyce in your boastynges. All suche reioysynge is euell. Therfore to him that knoweth how to do good, and doth it not, to hym it is synne.

* Act. 1. b
* 1. Pet. 1. b

* Luke. 11. b

The. v. Chapter.

The threatenynge the wycked wch men, exhorteth by: to pacyence, to beware of swearyng. One to knowlege his fautes to another, one to pray for another, and one to laboure to byng another to the trouth.

O to now ye ryche. Wepe, and howle on your wretchednes p shal come vpo you. Your ryches is corrupte, youre garmentes are moth-eaten. Your golde & syluer is cankered, and p rust of them shalbe a wytnes vnto you, and shal eate your fleshe as it were fyre.

Ye haue heaped treasure together (cum wryth to your selues) in your last dayes. Behold, the byre of labourers whych haue reaped downe youre felde (whych byre is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth: & the cryes of the whych haue reaped, are entred into p eares of p Lorde Sabaoth. Ye haue lyued in pleasure on the earth, & bene wantō. Ye haue noysyshed your hertes, as in a day of slaughter. Ye haue condemned and kyled the iust, and he hath not respyed you. * Be pacient therfore brythren, vnto the commynge of the Lorde. Beholde, the busbande mā wayteth for the precious frute of the earth, and hath longe pacience ther vpon, vntyll he receaue p early and the later rayne. * Ye ye also pacient therfore, and seile youre hertes, for the commynge of the Lorde draweth nye. Grudge not one agaynst another brythren lest ye be damned. Beholde, the iudge standeth before the doze. Take (my brythre) the ppropetes for an ensample of sufferynge aduersite, and of pacience, whych spake in the name of the Lorde. * Beholde, we count them happy whych endure. Ye haue heard of the pacience of Job, and haue knowen what ende p Lorde made. For the Lorde is very ptyciful & mercifull.

But aboue al thynges my brythre: * Swearē not, neyther by heauen, neyther by earth, neyther any other of be. Let your pee be pee, and your naye naye: lest ye fall into ypocrisy. Pf any of you be vexed, let hym praye. Pf any of you be mercy, let hym syngē psalmes. Pf any be diseased amonge you, let hym cal for the elders of the congregacion, and let them praye ouer hym, & * anoynte hym with oyle in the name of the Lorde, and the prayer of fayth shal saue the sycke, and the Lorde shal rayse hym vp: and pf he haue comyted synnes they shalbe for geuen hym.

Knowledge your fantes one to another: and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. For the feruent prayer of a ryghteous man auapleth muche. Helpas was a man vnder infirmities euen as we are, and he prayed in hys prayer that it myghte not rayne: * and it rayned not on the earth by p space of thre yerres & syxe monethes. And he prayed agayne, and the heauen gaue rayne, and the earth brought forth her frute.

Brythren pf any of you do erre from the trouth and another conuerter hym, let p same knowe that he whych conuertereth the synner from goynge astraye out of hys waye, shal saue a soule from death, and shal hyde p multitude of synnes.

The ende of the epistle of Saynt James.

The

The fyrst Epistle of Saynt Peter the Apostle.

The fyrst Chapter.

It sheweth that thow we the aboute and mercy of God we are begotten agayne to a lypely hope, & howe such must be tryed: how the saluacion in Christ is no newes, but a chynge prophesied of olde. It sheweth them to a godly conuersacion, for so much as they are nowe borne a newe by the woide of God.

Peter an Apostle of Iesu Christ, to them that dwell here and there as strangers thorowout Pontus, Galacia, Capadocia, Asia, and Bithunia, electe accordyng to foz knowledge of God the father thow to f sanctifieng of the spire unto obedience and sprynklyng of f bloud of Iesus Christ.

Grace be with you & peace be multiplied Blessed be God f father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, which accordyng to his aboudat mercy begat vs agayne unto a lypely hope (by that that Iesus Christe rose agayne fro death) to an enheritaunce immortal & undefyled, & that perissheth not, reserved in heauen for you, which are kept by the power of God thow fapth, unto saluacio, which is prepared already to be shewed in f last tyme in the which ye reioyce, though nowe for a season (yf nede requyre) ye are in heynes tho-rowe many folde temptacions, that the trial of your fapth beyng much moze precious the gold f perissheth (though it be tryed w fyre) myght be foude unto laude, gloiy & honoure at f apperyng of Iesus Christ, whō ye haue not seie, & yet loue hym, in whom eue nowe, though ye se hym not, yet do you beleue, & reioyce with hope vnspeakable & glorious recreaunce the ende of your fapth, eue the sal-uacion of your soules.

Of which saluacion haue the Prophetes enquyred and seached, whiche prophesied of f grace f shuld come unto you, seaching when or at what tyme the spire of Christe (which was f the) shuld signify, which spire testified before, the passions that shuld happen unto Christ, & the gloire that shuld follow after, unto which Prophetes it was also declared, that not unto the selues, but unto vs, they shuld minister f chynge which are now shewed unto you of the, whiche (by the holy goost sent downe fro heauē) haue in the Gospell preached unto you the tynges, whiche the angels desyre to beholde.

Wherefore gyde by the lopynes of poure mynde, be sober, & truste partly on f grace that is brought unto you (by f declarng of Iesus Christ) as obedient chyliden, that ye gyue not your selues ouer unto your old lustres by whiche ye were led, when as yet ye were ignoraunt of Christ: but as he whiche called you is holy, eue so be ye holy also in al maner of conuersacion, because it is wyrtten Be ye holy, for I am holy.

And yf so be that ye cal on f father, which without respecte of persone indgeth: accor-dyng to euery mans woise, se that ye passe the tyme of your pylgremage in feare.

For as much as ye knowe, how f ye were not redeemed wyth corruptible thynges (as spiner & gold) fro your wayne conuersacion, which ye receaued by the tradycion of the fathers: but w the precious bloude of Christ, as of a lambe undefyled, and wythout spot whiche was ordeyned before hande, euen before y, woilde was made: but was declared in the last tymes: for your sake, whiche by hys meanes do beleue on God, f rayled hym up from death, and glorified hym, that ye myght haue fapth and hope towarde God: euen ye whiche haue purified your soules tho-rowe the spire, in obeyng the trueth with brotherly loue vnsayned, se that ye loue one another wyth a pure herte feruently: for ye are borne a newe, not of mortall seed, but of immortal, by the woide of God, whiche lyueth and lasteth for euer.

For all fleshe is grasse, and all the glory of mā is as f floure of grasse. The grasse wyddereth, & the floure falleth a waye, but the woide of the Lorde endureth euer. And thys is the woide, whiche by the gospel was preached unto you.

The ii. Chapter.

It sheweth men to lape asyde all byre, to absteyne from fleshy lustes, and obeye worthy rulers. How ser-uaunt shulde beh. ne them selues to wards there masters. It sheweth to suffer after f ensample of Christ Wherefore lape asyde al ma-liciousnes & al gyle, & sai-nednes & eumpe & al backbytyng: & as new borne babes, desyre ye f mylke (not of the body but of the soule) which is wout discreat: yf ye may growe thereby (unto saluacion)

Yf so be that ye haue tasted, howe gracious the Lorde is, to whō ye come, as unto a lyuynge stone, disallowed of mē, but chosen of God and precious: and ye as lyuynge stones are made a spiritual house an holy presthode for to offer vp spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Iesus Christ. Wherefore it is conteyned also in the scripture: behold I put in Sion a stone to be layde in f cheff corner, elect and precious, & he that beleueth on hym shal not be confounded. Unto you therfore whiche beleue he is precious: but unto them whiche beleue not the stone which the Qm iiii. buylders builders refused, the same is begon to be the beade of the corner, & a stone that men stom-ble at, and a rocke wherat they be offended whych stöble at the worde, & beleue not that where on they were set. But ye are a chosen generacion, a royal * presthode, an holy na-cion, a people which are wöne: that ye shuld shewe þ virtues of hym, þ called you out of darknes into hys marvelous lyght, * which in tyme past were not a people, but are now the people of God: whych some tyme hadde not oþtayne mercy, but nowe haue obtayne dmercy. ¶

✠ * Dearly beloued, I beseeche you as straungers and pilgryms, abstayne * from fleishly lustes, which fight against the soule se that ye haue honest conuersacion amöge the Gentyls, that where as they backbyte you as euell doers: they maye se your good workes, and praysle God in the daye of visi-tacion.

✠ Submyt your selues therfoze vnto all maner ordinaunce of mā for the Lordes sake, whether it be vnto the kyng, as vnto the chefe beade: other vnto rulers, as vnto them that are sent of hym, for the punishment of euell doers, but for the laude of them, that do wel. For so is the wyl of God, that wyth well doyng ye maye stoppe the mouthes of foolys & ignoraunt men: as fre, & not as hauynge the lybertie for a cloke of malicious-nes, but euen as the seruantes of God. * ho noure all men. Loue brotherly felowshyp.
Feare God, honoure the kyng.

✠ Seruantes obey your masters with feare, not only þf they be good & courteous: but also though they be frowarde. * For it is thāke woorthye ¶ þf a mā for conscience towarde God endure greife, & suffer wronge vndersted. For what praisse is it, þf whē ye be bus-fitted for your faultes, ye take it paciēty?
But þf when ye do wel, ye suffer wronge and take it paciēty, thā is ther thāke wöth god

For here vnto verely were ye called: for Christ also suffered for vs: leauynge vs an eniample, that ye shulde folowe hys steppes, whych byd no synne, neyther was there gyle founde in hys mouth: which whē he was reuiled, reuiled not agayne: when he suffered, he threatened not: but committed the vengeaunce to hym that iudgeth ryghteouslye * which his owne self bare our synnes in his bodpe on the tree, that we beyng deliuered from synne, shulde lyue vnto ryghteousnes.
Whose whyle stypes ye were dealed. For ye were as shepe goynge astraye: but are nowe turned vnto the shepperde and byshoppe of your soules. ¶

The .iii. Chapter.

¶ Whose whyle stypes ye were dealed. For ye were as shepe goynge astraye: but are nowe turned vnto the shepperde and byshoppe of
your soules.

¶ Pherowse: ye wyues be in subie-cion to your husbendes, that euell they whych obeye not the worde, may without the worde be wöne by the conuersacion of the wyues, wöple they beholde your chaste conuersacion coupled w feare. Whose apparell shal not be outward wyth brydged heare, and hangynge on of golde, ether in puttynge on of gorgeous ap-parell: but let the hyd man which is in þert be wythout al corrupcion, so that the sperte be at rest and quyet: whych sperte is before God a thyng muche set by. For after this maner in the olde tyme byd the holy wöme, whych trusted in God, tyer them selues, and were obediente vnto theyr husbendes, euen as Sara obeyed Abraham, and called hym Lorde: whose daughters ye are, as laige as ye do well, and are not afrayed for anye terroure.

¶ Pherowse ye men, dwel wyth the acco-rdynge to knowledge: geupng honoure vnto þ wyfe, as vnto the weaker vessel, & as vnto them that are deppes also of þ grace of lyfe that your prayers be not hindred. ¶ In conclusion, be ye al of one mynde, of one herte, loue as hertzen, be pytiefull, be courteous, * (not) not rebryng euell for euell, or rebuke for rebuke: but contrary wyse, blese: knowynge that ye are ther vnto called, euen that ye wulde be heyyes of the blessing. * For he that doeth longe after lyfe, and louteth to se good dayes, let hym retyraue hys tonge fro euell & hys lippes that they speake no gyle.
Let hym eschue euell, and do good: let hym seke peace, & ensue it. For the eyes of þ Lord are ouer the ryghteous, and hys eares (are open) vnto theyr prayers. A gayne: the face of the Lorde is ouer them that do euell.

¶ Wherouer, who is it that wyl harme you þf ye folowe þ which is good? ¶ Ye * happye are ye, þf any trouble happen vnto you for ryghteousnes sake. * Be not ye afrayed for any terroure of them, neyther be ye troubled but sanctifye the Lorde God in your her-tes. ¶ Be readye alwayes to geue an an-swere to every mā that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, & that wyth meakenes and feare, dauynge a good conscience * that where as they backbyte you as euell doers, they maye be ashamed, that falsely accuse your good conuersacion in Christ.

¶ For it is better (þf the wyl of God be so) that ye suffer for well doyng, then for euell doyng.

¶ * For as much as Christ hath once suffered for synnes, the iuste for the iniuste, to bryng vs to God, and was killed, as pertaining to the fether: but was quickened in the sperte.

In whych sperte he also dwelle and pre-sente vnto the fether that were in prison, which som e

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

* 1 Cor. xii. 2
1 Tim. ii. 2

some tyme had bene disobedient, when the longe suffering of God was once looked for in the dayes of Noe: * whyle the Arche was a preparyng: * wherin fewe, that is to saye viii. soules, wer saued by the water, lyke as * baptysme also now saueth vs, not the puttyng awaye of the fylthe of the flethe, but in that a good conscience consenteth to God by the resurrection of Iesus Christe, which is on the ryght hande of God: * and is gone into heauen, * angels, powers, and myghte subdued vnto him.

The. iiii. Chapter.

The exhorteth men to reasse from synne, and no man to suffer as an euell doer, but as Christen men.

E As much the as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flethe, arme ye poure selues lyke wyle with the same mynde for he which suffereth in the flethe, craseth fro synne that he hence forwarde shuld lyue (as muche tyme as remaineth in the flethe) not after the lustes of me, but after the wyl of God. For it is sufficient for vs, that we haue spent the tyme that is past of the lyfe, after the will of the * Gentyls, walke in wantonnes, lutes, in excelle of wyne, in excelle of eatinge, in excelle of daryng (in dyonhous) and abominable ydolatre.

And it seemeth to them an incontinent thynge that ye runne not also wyth the vnto the same excelle of yote, & therfore speake they euill of you, which shal gyue accoupt to him, that is ready to iudge quicke & deed. For vnto this purpose verely was the gospel preached also vnto the deed, that they shulde be iudged lyke other men in the flethe, but shuld lyue before God in the spyt. The ende of all thynge is at hande.

* Be ye therfore sober, and watch vnto prayer. But aboue all thinges haue feruent loue amog your selues. For loue shal couer the multitude of synnes. * Be ye herberous one to another, & wythoute grudgyng. As euery man hath receaued the gyfte, euen so mynister the same one to another, as good ministers of the manyfolde grace of God. If any man speake, let hym talke as the wordes of God. * If any man mynister, let hym do it as of the abilitie, whych God ministreth vnto hym. That God in all thynge maye be glorified thowowe Iesus Christe, I to whome be prayse and dominio for ever and euer. Amen.

Dearly beloued, maruayll not that ye are proued by fyre (which thinge is to trye you) as though some straunge thynge happened vnto you: but reioyce, in as muche as ye are partakers of Christes paysons: that when his gloze appereth, ye may be mery & glad. * If ye be rayled vpon for the name of Christ happye are ye. For the gloze and the spytte of God resteth vpon you. On their part he is euell spoken of, but on your parte he is glorified.

Be that none of you be pumshed as a murderer, or as a thefe, or an euell doer, or as a busy body in other mens matters. If any man suffer as a chastytē mā, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorify God on this behalf. For the tyme is come, that iudgement must begynne at the house of God. If it fyrst begynne at vs, what shal the ende be of them which beleue not the Gospel of God? And * if the ryghteous scarcely be saued: where shal the vngodly & the sinner appeare? Wherefore, let the that are troubled accordyng to the wil of God comyt their selues to him w well doyng, as vnto a faythful creatoure.

The. v. Chapter.

The special exhortacion for all byshoppes and presbyters exhorteth young persons to submyt them selues to the elder, and euery one to loue another.

The elders whych are amonge you, I exhort, whych am also an elder, & a wytnes of the afflictions of Christ, & also a partaker of the gloze that shalbe opened. * Feede ye Christes flocke, as much as lyeth in you, takyng the ouersyght of them, not as compelled thereto, but wyllyngly. * as a goodly shep: not for the desyre of filthye lucre: but of a good mynde, * not as though ye were lordes ouer the parishes: but * that ye be an ensample to the flocke. * (as that wyth good will) And whē the shepherde shal appere, ye shal receaue, * an incorruptible crowne of gloze. Lyke wyle ye peger, submyt your selues vnto the elder. Submyt your selues euery man, one to another: knet your selues together in lowlynes of minde. For God resisteth the proude, & geueth grace to the humble. * Submyt your selues therfore vnder the myghty hande of God, that he maye exalte you, when the tyme is come. * Cast all your care vpon hym: for he careth for you.

Be sober and watch, for your aduersarye the deuell as a roaryng Lyon: walketh about, sekyngh whom he may deuoure: & wherest he standeth in the fayth, knowyng, that the same afflictions are apointed vnto you by then that are in the worlde. But the God of all grace whych hath called vs vnto his eternal gloze by Christ Iesus, shal his owne selfe (after that ye haue suffered a lytel affliction) make you perfecte: sette, strenght and stablish you. To him be gloze and dominion for ever and euer. Amen.

By Syluanus a faythfull brother vnto you (as I suppose) haue I written breifly, exhortyng and testifyng, how that this is the true grace of God, wherin ye stande. The congregacion of them whych at Babilon are companions of poure electyon, salu-

Am v. teth

The.ii. Epistle

teth you, and so doeth Marcus my some.
*Greete ye one another with þe kyfle of loue.
Peace be with you all, which are in Christe Jesu. Amen.

The seconde epistle of Sapnt Peter.

The fyrst Chapter

¶ For so much as the power of God hath geuen be al thynges pertainyng vnto lyfe, be exhorted be to make our calling known by good workes, & frutes of sapth be maketh mencyon of hys owne deeth.

Symon Peter a seruaut, and an A-postle of Iesus Christ, to the which haue obtained lyke pzeious faith wyth vs thozowe the ryghteounes of our God and sauour Iesus Christe.

*Grace be vnto you, and peace be multiplied thozowe the knowlege of God and of Iesus our Lord. Accordyng as hys godlye power hath geuen vnto vs all thynges that pertaine vnto lyfe and godlynes, thozowe the knowlege of him that hath called vs by gloze, and vertue, by the whych are geuen vnto vs excellent and moost greate promyses, that by the meanes therof ye myght be *partakers of þe godly nature, þe ye flye the corruption of woꝛldely lust.

And herunto geue all diligence in youre fapth mynister vertue: in vertue knowlege *in knowlege temperaunce, in temperaunce patience: in patience godlynes: in godlynes brotherly kyndnes, in brotherly kyndnes loue. For þe these thynges be amonge you, and be plenteous, they wyll make you þe nether shalbe ydle nor vnfruteful in þe knowlege of our Lord Iesus Christ. But he that lacketh these thynges, is blynde & gropeth for the waye wyth his hande, and hath forgotten, that he was poured from hys olde spynes.

Wherfoze brethren, geue the moze diligence for to make your callinge & eleccio sure by good workes. For þe ye do such thynges, ye shal neuer fall. Pet. and by thys meanes an enteryng in shalbe mynistered vnto you aboundantly into þe euerlastyng kyngdome of oure Lord and sauour Iesus Christ.

Wherfoze, I wyll not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembraunce of such thyn-ges though ye knowe them your selues, and be stablyshed in þe present trueth. Not wyth standyng I thynke it mete (as longe as I am in þe tabernacle) to steepe you by þe puttyng you in remembraunce, for as much as I am sure, þe thozely I muste put of thys my tabernacle, & euen as oure Lord Iesus Christe shewed me. I wyll euer also geue my diligence, that ye maye haue wherwyth to steepe by the remembraunce of these thynges after my departyng. For we haue not folowed deceatfull fables, wher we opened vnto you the power and comynge of oure Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe hys maiesty: euen then verely wher he recreaned of God the father honoure and glorye, and when ther cam such a voyce to him from the excellent gloze. This is my deere beloued sone, in whom I haue delite. Thys voyce we herde com fro deaue, whan we were wyth hym in the holy mounte.

We haue also a ryght sure woꝛde of propheticke, wher vnto ye take hede, as vnto a lyght that shyneth in a darcke place, ye do well, vntyll the dape dawne, and the dape starre aryse in youre vertes. So that ye fyrst know this: that no prophesye in scripture hath any priuate interpretacion. For the scripture came neuer by the wyll of man: but holy me of God spake, as they were moued by the holy goost.

The.ii. Chapter.

¶ The propheseth of falsse teachers, and sheweth ther punishment.

Ther wer falsse prophetes also amonge the people euen as ther shalbe falsse teachers amonge you: whych pre-ly shal bringe in damnable sectes (euen denyng the Lord that hath bought them) & byngyng vpon them selues swyre damnacion & many shal folowe they: danable wayes, by whome the waye of trueth shalbe euell spoken of, and thozowe couetousnes shal they wyth fapned woꝛdes make marchan-dys of you, whose iudgemente is nowe not farre of, and they: damnacion slepeth not.

For þe God spared not þe angels that synned, but cast them downe into hell, and deli-uered them into chaynes of darkenes (to be punished) to be kepte vnto iudgement: nether spared the olde woꝛlde, but laued. For the ryght preacher of ryghteoussnes, & brought in the floude vpon the woꝛlde of the vngod-ly, and turned the cyties of Sodom and Gomoz into ashes: ouerthrowe them, damned them, and made on them an ensample vnto those that after shalde lyue vngodly. And iust. Lot vexed wyth the vnclenly conuer-sacion of the wycked, deliuered be. For he beyng ryghteous, & dwellyng amonge the in leyng and hearpyng, vexed hys ryght-eous soule from dape to dape wyth they: vnlawful dedes. The Lord knoweth how to deliuer the godly out of temptacion, & to reserue the vnjuste vnto þe dape of iudgement for to be punished: but cheseth them þe walke after the fleshe in the luste of vnclennes, and despyse authoritie. Presumptuous are they, and stubbozne

and stubborne, whyche feare not to speake cuppil of the that excell in woꝛshippe. When angels whych are greater both i power & might, receaue not of þe Loꝛde raplyng in-gemit agaynst the selues. But these as but beastes, naturallly byoughte forth to be taken and destroyed, speake cuppil of the thyn-ges þe they vnderstande not, & shall peryshe in theyꝝ owne destruccyon, & receaue the re-warde of vnrpyghtewlnes.

They couit it pleasure to lyue delyciously foꝛ a season. Spottes they are & fleythynes: whych lyue at pleasure in their owne discrea-nables wayes, feasting & scoꝛnyng you: hauynge eyes full of adnourtie, & þe canot cease from synne: beggynning vnstable soules. Her-tes they haue excercysed wpyth robz. They are cursed chyldzen whych haue forsake the right waye, and are gone astray folowynge the * waye of Balaam the sonne of Bosoꝛ: whych loued the rewarde of vnrpyghtewlnes: but was rebuked of hys iniquitie. The same and domine beaste, speakynge wpyth mannes voyce, foꝛbade the madnesse of the Prophete.

* These are welles wythout water: cloudes that are, caried wpyth a tpeest, to whom the myst of darchnes is reserued foꝛ euer. Foꝛ when they haue spoken the grete swelling wordes of vanprie, they entpfe thezowe lustes in the volupetuousnes of the fleshe, them that were cleane escaped: euen them þe nowe lyue in erreure: while they promes them lybertie, where as they the selues are þe bonde seruauntes of corrupcion: * Foꝛ of whom a ma is ouer come, vnto þe same is he brought in bondage. * Foꝛ yf they (after they haue escaped from the fleythynes of the woꝛlde thozow the knowledge of the Loꝛd and the saupour Iesu Chꝛyst) are yet taged agayne therin, and ouercom: then is the latter ende woꝛse wpyth them then the begynnynge. Foꝛ it had bene better foꝛ them, not to haue knowen the waye of ryghtewlnes, them after they haue knowne it, to turne from the holy commaundement þe was geuen vnto them: But the same is happened vnto the that is bled to be spoken by þe true pꝛouerbe. * The dagge is turned to his owne vomet agayne and þe sow þe was walshed is turned agayne to her walowynge in the myer.

¶ The.iii. Chapter.

¶ Cot þe dape of þe Loꝛd: whose longe taryenge is saluacib.

This is the seconde epistle that I now write vnto you dearly beloued, wher with I tere by your syncre mynde, by puttyng you in remembraunce, that pe maye be myn defull of the woꝛdes (whych were tolde befoꝛe of the holy Prophetes) and also the commaundement of vs whych be Apostles of the Loꝛde and saupour.

* This fyrst vnderstande, that ther shall come in the lasse dapes, mockers: (in discreat fynesse) whych wyll walke after theyꝝ owne lustes, & saye: Where is the promes of hys commynge? Foꝛ sence the fathers dyed, all thynge continue in the same estate wherin they were at the begynnynge. For this they knowe not (and that wylfully) how that þe heauens a great whyle ago were, & the erth out of the water appeared by thozowe the water, by the woꝛde of God: by the whych thynge the woꝛld that then was, perpyshed beyng ouerrunne wpyth water. * But the heanes and erth whych are now, be kept by hys woꝛde in stoze, and referred vnto tpe, agaynst the dape of iudgement & perdicpon of vngodly men.

Dearly beloued, be not ignorant of thys one thynge, howe that * one dape is wpyth þe Loꝛde as a thoulande yere, & a thoulande yere as one dape. The Loꝛd that hath promised, is not slacke, as some me count slack-nes: but is patient to vs warde: foꝛ asmoche as he wolde haue no man losse, but wyll re-creame all men to repentaunce.

¶ Neuerthelesse * the dape of the Loꝛd wyll come as a thefe in the nyghte, in the whych dape, the heauens shall passe awaye in maner of a tempest, and the elemētes shall melt wpyth heat: the erth also & the woꝛkes that are therein, shall burne. Scyng the that all these thynge shall perishe, what maner persons oughte pe to be in holy conuersacion, and godlynes: lokyng foꝛ, and hastynge vnto the commynge of the dape of God, by whiche the heauens shall perpysh wpyth tpe, & the elemētes shall melt wpyth heate: * Ac-cordinge to the wyddome geuen vnto hym hath writte vnto you, yee, almoost in euery epistle, speakynge of such thynge: amonge whych are many thynge harde to be vnder-stode, which they that are vnlearned & vnstable, peruert, as they do also þe oþer scriptures vnto their owne destruccib. Pe therfoꝛe beloued, (scynge pe be warned afoꝛe had) beware, lest pe, wpyth oþer men be also plucked away thozow the erreure of the wpyched, and fall from your owne stedfastnes: but grow in grace, & in the knowledge of oure Loꝛde and saupour Iesu Chꝛyst.
To whom be gloꝛy both now and foꝛ euer.

Amen.

The

The .i. Epistle

The fyrste Epytyle of Saynt Iohn the Apostle.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ True wytnesse of the everlastynge worde of God.
The bloude of Christe is the purgacion from synne.
No man is without spawe.

Ihat which was from the beginnyng, whiche we haue hearde, whiche we haue sene with oure eyes, which we haue looked vpon and our handes haue handled of the worde of the lyfe. And the lyfe appeared, and we haue sene and beare wytnesse, and shew vnto you *that eternall lyfe whiche was with the father, & appeared vnto vs. That whiche we haue sene and hearde, declare we vnto you, that ye also maye haue felowshyp with vs, & that our felowshyp maye be with the father, and his sonne Iesus Christ. And this write we vnto you, that (ye maye receyue, and that) your ioye maye be full.

* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.

* Heb. 1. 1.
* 2. Ioh. 1. 1.
* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.
* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.
* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.
* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.

And this is the trydynge which we haue herde of hym and declare vnto you that God is lyght, and in hym is no darkenesse at all.
¶ If we saye, that we haue felowshyppe with hym, and walke in darkenesse, we lye, and do not the truthe. But and if we walke in light euen as he is in lyght, then haue we felowshyppe with hym, and * the bloude of Iesus Christ his sonne cleanseth vs from all synne.
* ¶ If we saye that we haue no synne, we deceave oure selues, and the truthe is not in vs: & if we knoweledge oure synnes, he is faythfull & iust, to forgiue vs oure synnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighthe wenes.
If we saye we haue not synned, we make hym a liar, and his worde is not in vs.

¶ The .ii. Chapter.

¶ Christ is oure aduocate. Of true loue, & howe it is tryed.

Iptell chyldren, these thinges write vnto you, that ye synne not. And if eny man synne, we haue an aduocate wyth the father, Iesus Christ, pryncypal and he it is that obtayneth grace for oure synnes, not for oure synnes onely: but also for the synnes of all the worlde. ¶ And herby we are sure that we knowe hym, if we kepe his commaundementes. * He that sayth I knowe hym, and kepeyth not his commaundementes is a liar, & his veritie is not in him.
¶ But whoso kepeyth his worde, in hym is the loue of God perfect in dede: herby knowe we that we are in hym. He that sayth he by-deth in hym, ought to walke eue as he walked.

* 1. Ioh. 1. 1.

¶ Brethren, I write no newe commaunde-ment vnto you: but that olde commaunde-ment, which ye haue had fro the begynnyng.

The olde commaundement is the worde, which ye haue hearde from the begynnyng.
Agayne, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that is true in hym, and the same is true also in you: for the dercknes is past, and the true lyght now shyneth. ¶ He that sayth howe that he is in the lyght, & yet ha-teth his brother, is in dercknes euen vntill this tyme. He that loueth his brother, aby-deth in the lyght, and there is none occasion of euill in hym. He that hateth his brother is in dercknes, & walketh in dercknes: and can not tell whither he goeth, because that dercknes hath blynded his eyes.

¶ Abes I write vnto you, howe your synnes are forgiue you for his names sake.
I write vnto you fathers, howe that ye haue knowen him that is from the begynnyng.
I write vnto you yonge men, howe that ye haue ouercome the wicked: I write vnto you lytell chyldren, howe that ye haue knowen the father. I haue wryten vnto you fathers, howe that ye haue knowen hym that is from the begynnyng. I haue wryte vnto you yonge men, howe that ye are stronge, and the worde of God abyrdeth in you, & ye haue ouercome that wycked.

¶ He that ye loue not the worlde, neither the thynges that are in the worlde. If eny man loue the worlde, the loue of the father is not in hym. For all that is in the worlde (as the lust of the fleshe, and the lust of the eyes, & the pryde of lyfe) is not of the father, but of the worlde. And the worlde passeth a waye and the lust therof: but he that fullylleth the will of God, abyrdeth for ever.

¶ Iptell chyldren, it is the last tyme, and as ye haue herde howe that Antichrist shal comeuen now are ther many begonne to be Antichristes all redy, wherby we knowe, that it is the last tyme. ¶ They went out fro vs, but they wer not of vs. For if they had ben of vs, they wolde no dout haue continued wyth vs. But that it myght appeare, that they were not of vs.

¶ Neuerthelesse, ye haue an oymnt of him if is holp, & ye knowe all thynges. ¶ I haue not wryten vnto you, as though ye knewe not the truthe: but as though ye knewe it (& knowe also) if no lye cometh of truthe. ¶ Who is a liar, but he that denyeth that Iesus is Christ: the same is Antichrist, that denyeth the father & the sonne. ¶ Whosoever denyeth the sonne, the same hath not the father.

¶ He that knoweth the sonne, hath the father also. ¶ Let therefore abyde in you that same wyche ye hearde from the begynnyng. If that wyche ye hearde fro the begynnyng shal remayne in you, ye also shal contynue in the sonne, and in the father. And this is the promys that he hath promysed vs, euen eternall lyfe.

The

These thinges haue I written vnto you, concerninge the that disceane you. And the anoyntinge whych ye haue receaued of hym dwelleth in you. And ye neede not, that eny man teache you: but * as I anoyntinge teacheth you: of all thinges, and is true, and no lyer, and as is hath taught you, euen so byde therein. And now be babes abyde in hym: that when he shall appeare, we maye be bolde, & not be made ashamed of hym at hys comynge. If ye knowe that he is righteous, knowe also I euery one whych doth ryghte-nes, is bozne of hym.

The. iiii. Chapter.

The singular loue of God toward vs: and howe we agayne ought to loue one another.

Beholde, what loue the father hath shewed on vs, that we shuld be called * (as be in dede) I * sonnes of God. For thys cause I wolde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not hym. Dearly beloved, now are we I sonnes of God & yet it doth not appeare, what we shalbe. But we knowe, that when it shall appeare, we shalbe lyke hym. For we shall se hym as he is. And euery mā that hath thys hope in hym, pourgeth him selfe, euen as he also is pure. Whosoener committeth synne, committeth vnyrghteousnes also, and synne is vnyrghteousnes. And ye knowe, that he appeared, to take awaye oure synnes, and in hym is no synne. As many as byde in hym, synne not: whosoener synneth, hath not sene hym, nether knowne hym.

Babes, let no man deceaue you. he that doeth ryghteousnes, is ryghteous, euen as he is ryghteous. he that committeth synne, is of the deuyll: * for the deuyll sinneth since the begynnyng: for thys purpose appeared the sonne of God, to lowse the woikes of I deuyll. Whosoener is bozne of God, synneth not: for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot synne, because he is bozne of God. In thys are the chyldren of God knowne, and the chyldren of the deuyll. Whosoener doeth not ryghteousnes, is not of God, nether he that loueth not hys brother.

For this is the tidynge, that ye hearde from the begynnyng, that ye shuld loue one another, not as I Capn whych was of that wicked, and slewe hys brother. And wherfore slewe he hym? Because hys owne woikes were euyl, and hys brothers good. * Waruaple not my brethren: though I wolde hate you. We knowe, that we are translated from deeth vnto lyfe, because we loue the brethren. * he that loueth not hys brother, abideth in deeth. Whosoener hateth his brother, is a mā slea. And ye knowe, I no man slea, hath eternall lyfe abydinge in hym.

herby perceaue we loue: because he gaue hys lyfe, for vs: & we ought to geue oure lines for the brethren. But whoso hath thys woikes good and * seyth hys brother haue neade, and shusteth vp hys compassion from him: how dwelleth the loue of God in hym? If babes, let vs not loue in woide, nether in tonge: but in dede & in veritie. I herby we knowe, that we are of the veritie & can quyet oure hertes befoze hym. For yf oure herte condempne vs, God is greater the oure herte, and knoweth all thinges. Dearly beloved, yf oure herte condempne vs not, then haue we trust to God warde: * what soeuer we aske we receaue of hym, because we kepe his commaundementes, & do those thinges which are pleasinge in his syght.

And this is hys commaundement, I we beleue on the name of hys sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue commaundement. And he that keepeth hys commaundementes, dwelleth in hym, & he in hym, and herby we knowe that he abyde in vs, eue by the sprete which he hath geuen vs.

The. v. Chapter.

Difference of spretes, & howe the sprete of God maye be knowne from the sprete of erreure. Of the loue of God and of oure neyghbours.

Dearely beloved * beleue not euery sprete: but proue I spretes, whether they are of god or not, for many faile prophetes are gone out into the woide. herby shall ye knowe I sprete of God. Euery sprete that confelleth that Iesu Christ is come in the fleshe, is of God. And euery sprete whych confelleth not that Iesus Christ is come in the fleshe, is not of God. And thys is that sprete of Antichrist, of whiche ye haue hearde, howe that he shulde come: and euen now he already is he in the woide.

Lyttell chyldren, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the woide. They are of the woide, therefore speake they of the woide, and the woide heareth them. We are of God. he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he I is not of God, heareth vs not. herby knowe we the sprete of veritie, and the sprete of erreure.

Dearly beloved * let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God. And euery one that loueth, is bozne of God, and knoweth God. he that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue. In thys appeared I loue of God to vs warde, because the * God sent his onely begotten sonne into the woide, I we might lyue thowow hym. he is loue, not I we loued God, but I he loued vs, & sent hys sonne to be the agrement for oure synnes.

Dearly beloved, yf God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another. * Roman hath sene God at eny tyme. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, & hys loue is perfect in vs. herby knowe we I we dwell in hym,

* Deut. 30. 6
* Mat. 23. 17
* Mat. 23. 18
* Mat. 23. 19
* Mat. 23. 20
* Mat. 23. 21
* Mat. 23. 22
* Mat. 23. 23
* Mat. 23. 24
* Mat. 23. 25
* Mat. 23. 26
* Mat. 23. 27
* Mat. 23. 28
* Mat. 23. 29
* Mat. 23. 30
* Mat. 23. 31
* Mat. 23. 32
* Mat. 23. 33
* Mat. 23. 34
* Mat. 23. 35
* Mat. 23. 36
* Mat. 23. 37
* Mat. 23. 38
* Mat. 23. 39
* Mat. 23. 40
* Mat. 23. 41
* Mat. 23. 42
* Mat. 23. 43
* Mat. 23. 44
* Mat. 23. 45
* Mat. 23. 46
* Mat. 23. 47
* Mat. 23. 48
* Mat. 23. 49
* Mat. 23. 50
* Mat. 23. 51
* Mat. 23. 52
* Mat. 23. 53
* Mat. 23. 54
* Mat. 23. 55
* Mat. 23. 56
* Mat. 23. 57
* Mat. 23. 58
* Mat. 23. 59
* Mat. 23. 60
* Mat. 23. 61
* Mat. 23. 62
* Mat. 23. 63
* Mat. 23. 64
* Mat. 23. 65
* Mat. 23. 66
* Mat. 23. 67
* Mat. 23. 68
* Mat. 23. 69
* Mat. 23. 70
* Mat. 23. 71
* Mat. 23. 72
* Mat. 23. 73
* Mat. 23. 74
* Mat. 23. 75
* Mat. 23. 76
* Mat. 23. 77
* Mat. 23. 78
* Mat. 23. 79
* Mat. 23. 80
* Mat. 23. 81
* Mat. 23. 82
* Mat. 23. 83
* Mat. 23. 84
* Mat. 23. 85
* Mat. 23. 86
* Mat. 23. 87
* Mat. 23. 88
* Mat. 23. 89
* Mat. 23. 90
* Mat. 23. 91
* Mat. 23. 92
* Mat. 23. 93
* Mat. 23. 94
* Mat. 23. 95
* Mat. 23. 96
* Mat. 23. 97
* Mat. 23. 98
* Mat. 23. 99
* Mat. 23. 100

The.ii. Epistle

in hym, and he in vs: because he hath geuen vs of hys sperte. And we haue sene, & doctryne, that the father sent þe sonne to be the sauour of the worlde. Whosoener confesseth, þe Iesus is þe sonne of God, in hym dwelleth God, & he in God. And we haue knowen and beleued the loue þe God hath to vs.

D God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, & God in him. Here in is the loue perfect in vs, þe we shuld haue trust in the daye of iudgement: For as he is, euen so are we in this worlde. Ther is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare, for feare hath paynfulnes. He þe feareth, is not perfect in loue.

We loue him, for he loued vs fyrst. If a man saie, I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a liar. For howe can he þe loued not hys brother whom he hath sene, loue God whom he hath not sene? And thys comaundement haue we of hym: þe he whych loueth God, shulde loue his brother also. I

The. v. Chapter.

To loue God, is to kepe hys comaundementes. Forth ouercometh the worlde. Forth ouercometh the worlde. Forth ouercometh the worlde.

Whosoener beleueth that Iesus is Christ, is borne of God. And euery one þe loueth hym whych begat, loueth him also which was begotten of hym.  John. xiii. 1.* By this we knowe, þe we loue the chylde of God when we loue God, & kepe his comaundementes. For thys is the loue of God, þe we kepe his comaundementes, & his comaundementes are not greuous.  1. Cor. xii. 3.* For all that is borne of God, ouercometh the worlde. And thys is the victorie that ouercometh the worlde, ene oure sayth. Who is it þe ouercometh the worlde: but he whych beleueth, that Iesus is the sonne of God?

This Iesus Christ is he that cam by water & blood, not by water onely: but by water and blood. And it is the sperte that beareth wptnes, because the sperte is trueth. (For there are thre whych beare record in heuyn, & earth, & water, & þe holy goost. And these thre are one.) And there are thre whych beare record (in earth) þe spert and water, and bloude: & these thre are one. If we receaue the witness of me, the witness of God is greater. For this is the witness of God (that is greater) which he testified of his sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God, hath the witness in hym selfe: I he that beleueth not God, hath made hym a liar because he beleued not þe record þe God gaue of hys sonne. And thys is the record, howe that God hath geue vnto vs eternall lyfe, & thys lyfe is in hys sonne. He that hath the sonne hath lyfe: & he that hath not the sonne of God, hath not lyfe.

These thynges haue I wyrtte vnto you that beleue on the name of the sonne of God that ye maye knowe, how that ye haue eternall lyfe, & that ye maye beleue on the name of the sonne of God. And thys is the trueth that we haue in hym: that  yf we aske any thyng accorde to hys wyll, he beareth vs.* And yf we know that he hear vs what soeuer we aske, we know, that we haue the peticions, that we desyre of hym.

If any man le hys brother synne a synne not vnto deeth, let him aske, & he shall geue hym lyfe for the that synne not vnto deeth. Ther is a synne vnto deeth, for whych saie I not þe a man shuld praye. All vnygderwesnes is synne, & ther is synne not vnto deeth.

We knowe, that whosoener is borne of God, synneth not: but he that is begotten of God, kepeth hym selfe & that wycked toucheth hym not. We knowe, that we are of God, and the worlde is all together set on wyckednes. We knowe, that the sonne of God is come, and hath geue vs a mynde to knowe hym whych is true: & we are in hym that is true, through his sonne Iesu Christ. Thys same is very God, and eternall lyfe. Hane kepes youre selues from ymages. Amen.

The seconde Epistle

of Saynct John.

We wyrtte vnto a certayn lady, reioysed that her chylde was in þe trueth, & dyrected them vnto loue & warden them to beware of such dyrectours as depe that Iesus Christ came in the fleshe, prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, & to haue nothing so do with them that bringe not thys leuynge.

Ihe elder to the electe lady and her chylde, whom I loue in þe trueth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the trueth for þe truethes sake whych dwelleth in vs and shalbe in vs for euer.

With vs shall be grace, merce, & peace from God the father & from the Lord Iesus Christ þe sonne of þe father, in trueth & loue.

I reioysed greatly, that I founde of thy chylde walkinge in trueth, as we haue receaued a comaundement of the father. And now beseech I þe lady, not as though I wrot a newe comaundement vnto the, but that same which we haue had frō the begynnyng that we shulde loue one another. And this is the loue, that we shulde walke after hys comaundement.

This comaundement is: that as ye haue hearde frō the begynnyng, ye shulde walke in it. For many deceauers are entred into the worlde, whych confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the fleshe. This is a deceiver and an Antichrist. Loke on youre selues that we looke not that we haue wrought: but that we maye haue a full reward. Who sooner trasgredyeth & bydeth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not god: he p endureth in p doctrine of Christ, hath both p father & p sonne. If ther come eny vnto you, & bring not this learning, him receaue not to house: nether byd hi God spede. For he p bydeth hi God spede, is partaker of hys euill dedes. (Scholde, I haue tolde you before, that ye shulde not be ashamed in daye of the lord.) I had many thinges to wyte vnto you, neuerthelesse I wolde not wyte w paper and ynke: but I trust to come vnto you, and speake w you mouth to mouth, that oure ioye maye be full: the sonnes of thy electe sister grete the. Amen.

soeuer

The thynde Epistle of Saynt John.

He is glad of Gargus, that he walketh in the truth: exhorteth them to be louynge vnto the poore Christen in theyr persecucion, sheweth the danger of dealing with Diotrephes, and the good reporte of Demetrius.

The elder vnto p beloued Gargus whō I loue in the truth. Beloued I wyll be in all thinges that thou prosperedest, and lastedest well, euen as thy soule prospereth. For I reioysed greatly, when the brethren came, and testified of the truth that is in the, howe thou walkest in the truth. I haue no greater ioye, the for to heare, howe that my sonnes walke in veritye. Beloued thou doest faythfully, what soeuer p doest to the brethren, and to straungers, whyche beare wytnes of thy loue before p congregacion. Whiche brethren if thou bynne for wardes of the; ioyne (after a godly sort) thou shalt do well: because that for hys names sake they wyl forthe: and toke nothinge of the Gentyls. We therfore ought to receaue such, that we myght be helpers to the truth. I wrote vnto the congregacion: but Diotrephes whych loneth to haue the preeminence amonge them receaueth vs not.

Wherfore yf I come, I will declare hys dedes which he doeth, testyfyng on vs w malicious wordes, nether is therewith confest. Not onely he hym self receaueth not p brethren: but also he forbydeth the p wolde, and thrusteth them out of the congregacyō.

Beloued, folowe not that which is euill, but that which is good. He that doeth well is of God: but he that doeth euill, seyth not God. Demetrius hath good reporte of all men & of the truth it selfe, yee, and we oure selues also beare recorde, & ye knowe, that oure recorde is true. I had many thinges to wyte: but I wyl not with ynke and penne wyte vnto the. I trust I shal shortly se the and we shal speake mouth to mouth. Peace be vnto the. The louers salute the. Grete p louers by name.

The Epistle of saynte Jude.

He rebuketh such as beynge blynded w theyr owne lutes, resist the truth. He exhorteth vs to exorte one another, to praye in p holy goost to continue in loue to loke for the comynge of the Lord.

Iudas the seruaunt of Iesus Christ p brother of James. To them which are called, & sanctified in God p father, & preserved in Iesu Christ. Greeting vnto you and peace and lone be multiplied.

Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to wyte vnto you of the comen saluacyon, it was nedeful for me to wyte vnto you, to exhorte you, that ye shulde continually labour in the fayth, whyche was once geuen vnto p sayntes: for there are certayne vngodly me craftely crept in, of whych it was wytten afore tyme vnto suche iudgement. They turne p grace of oure God vnto wantannes, and denye God (whyche is the onely Lord) and oure Lord Iesus Christ.

My mynde is therfore to put you in remembrance: for as moche as ye once knowe this, howe the Lord (after that he had deliuered p people out of Egypt) destroyed them whyche afterwarde beleued not. The angels also which he pe not their fyre estate, but leste their owne habitacyon, he hath reserved in euerlastynge chaynes vnder darkness vnto p iudgement of the grete daye. *euen as Sodom & Gomorre, and the cyties aboute them (whyche in lyke maner defyled the selues with fornicacyō, & folowed straunge fleshe) are set forth for an ensample, & suffer the payne of eternall fyre. Lyke wyse, these beynge disceined by dreames, despyle the fleshe, despyse rulers and speake euill of them that are in auctorite.

Yet Michael the archangel when he stroue agaynst the deuyll, and disputed about the body of Moyses, durst not geue rapling sentence, but sayde, the Lord rebuke the. Wnt these speake euill of those thynges whyche they knowe not: and what thynges they knowe naturally (as beastes which are without reason) i those thynges they corrupte the selues. Also be vnto the, for they haue folowed p waye of * Cam, & are utterly geue to the erreure of Bala for inhers sake: & perill the in p treason of Coze. These are spotted whych of your kindnes feast together, w out feare, lynyng lawlesse, and after their owne pleasure. Cloudes they are with out water, carped about of wyndes, trees w out frute at gatherynge at geatheringe tyme withered, & wyse deed, & plucked up by frottes. They are pragynge waues of f le, fomyng out their own Ham. They are wandrynge sterres, to whome is reserved the myst of darknes for euer.

* Apoca. i. b
* Cap. i. c

Enoch the seventh from Adam prophesied before of such, sayinge. * Beholde, the Lord shall come with thousands of sayntes, to geue iudgement agaynst all men, & to rebuke all that are vngodly amonge the of all they vngodly dedes, which they haue vngodly commytted, and of all they cruell speakynge, whiche vngodly synners haue spoken agaynst hym.

E These are murmurers, cōplayners, walkyng after their owne lustes, whose mou-thes speake proude thynges. They haue me in greate reuerence because of aduantage.
But ye beloved, remēber the wordes which were spoken before of the Apostles of oure Lorde Jesu Christ, how that they tolde you * that there shulde be begylers in y last tyme whiche shulde walke after they owne vngodly lustes. These are makers of sectes, flethlye, haupnge no sprete.

* Actes. 17. f.
i. Tim. iii. a.
ii. Tim. iii. a
ii. Pet. 2. a
and. 19. a

But ye derlye beloved, edifye poure sel-ues in your most holy fapth, prayinge in the holy goost, and kepe your selues in the loue of God, lokynge for the mercy of oure Lord Jesu Christe, vnto eternall lyfe. And haue compassion of some, separatinge them, and other saue with feare, pullynge them out of the fyre. * (and haue compassion on the other) & hate the fylthy besture of the flethe.

Unto him that is able to kepe you frō synne, & to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glozy to toyne. * (at the comynge of oure Lorde Jesu Christ) to God oure saynour: (thow Jesu Christ oure lord) which onely is wyle be glozye, maiesty, dominion, and power, * (before al wo: ldes) now and euer. Amen.

The reuelacyon

of Saynt John the diuine.

Happy are they that heare the wordes of God & kepe it. He wyrteth to the seven congregacions in Asia, sech seven candelstiches, and in the myddes of them, out lyke vnto the sonne of man.

The fyrst Chapter.

In the reuelacyon of Jesu Christ which God gaue vnto him, for to shewe vnto his seruauntes, thynges whiche muste shortly come to passe. * And when he had sent, he shewed by hys Angell vnto hys seruaunt John, whiche bare recorde of the wordes of God, and of the testimony of Jesu Christe, and of all thynges that he sawe. Happy is he that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of the prophesie, and kepe those thynges which are wrytten therin. For the tyme is at hande.

John to the seven congregacions in Asia.
Grace be vnto you and peace, frō hi whiche is and which was, and whiche is to come, & from the seven spretes which are before hys trone, & frō Jesu Christ, whiche is a fapth full wytnes, & fyrst begotten of the deyd: & Lorde ouer the kynges of the erth. Unto hym that * loued vs, and wylshed vs from oure synnes in his owne bloude, & made vs kynges and Priestes vnto God hys father, be glozy and dominion for euermore.
Amen. * Beholde, he cometh with cloudes, & all eyes shal se him, & they also which pearsed hym. And all kynredes of the erth shal wape. * (ouer him) Eue so: Amen. I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and y en-dyngge, sayth the Lorde almyghty, which is and which was, and which is to come.

I John poure brother, and companio in tribulaciō, and in the kyngdome & patience in Jesu Christ, was in the yle that is caled Pachmos, for y worde of God, and for the witnessing of Jesu Christ: I was in y spret on a sondaye, and herde behynde me a great voyce, as it had bene of a trompe, sayinge: I am Alpha and Omega, the fyrst and the laste. That thou seyst, wyrt in a boke, and sende it vnto the seven cōgregacions which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, & vnto Smyrna and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Chia-tira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicia.

And I turned backe to se the voyce that spake to me. And when I was turned: I sawe seue golden candelstiches, & in y myd-des of the candelstiches, one lyke vnto the sonne of man, clothed with a lynne garnēt downe to the fete, and gyyd about the pappes w a golden gyrdle. His heed, & hys hea-res wer whyte, as whyte woll, & as snowe and hys eyes were as a flame of fyre: & hys fete lyke vnto brasse, as though they bent in a fornaçe, and hys voyce as the sounde of many waters. And he had i his ryght hade vii. starres. And out of hys mouthe went a sharpe two edged swerde. * And hys face shone, euen as the sonne in his strength.

And when I sawe him, I fell at his fete, euen as deed. And he lapde hys ryght hande vpo me, sayinge vnto me: feare not. * I am y fyrst & the laste, and am a lyue, and was deyd. And behold: I am a lyue for euermore and haue the keyes of hel & of death. Wryte therefore the thynges whiche thou hast seene, and the thynges whiche are, and the thynges whiche must be fulfilled here after: y mylty of the. vii. starres whiche thou sawest in my ryght hade, and the. vii. golden candelstiches. The. vii. starres are the messengers of the. vii. cōgregacyōs. And the seven can-delstiches

whyches which thou sawest, are the seven congregacions.

The. ii. Chapter.

He exhorted foure congregacions to amende, and sheweth the rewards of hym that overcometh.

Vnto the messenger of the congregacion of Ephesus wyte: these thynges sayeth he, that holdeth the seven starres in his right hande, and that walketh in the myddes of the seven golden candelltyches. I knowe thy workes, & thy labour, and thy pacience, and how thou canst not forbear them whych are euell: and hast examined them whych saye they are Apostles, and are not: and hast founde them lyars, and hast suffred. And hast pacience: and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not faynted. Fewer theles I haue somewhat agaynst the, because thou hast lefte thy fyrst loue. Remember therfore frome whence thou arte fallen, and repent, and do the fyrst workes. Or els I wyll come vnto the thozel, and wyll remoue thy candelltyche out of thy place, except thou repent. But thyss thou hast, because thou hatest the dedes of the Apocallitans: whych dedes I also hate. Let him that hath eares, heare what the sprete sayeth vnto the congregacions. To hym that overcometh, wyll I geue to eate of the tree of lyfe, whych is in the myddes of the Paradise of God.

C And vnto the angell of the congregacion of Smyrna wyte: These thynges sayeth he that is fyrst, & the last, which was deade, and is aljue. I knowe thy workes & tribulacion and pouertie, but thou arte ryche. And I knowe the blasphemy of them, whych call them selfes Jewes & are not: but are the congregacion of Sathan. Feare none of those thynges, whych thou shalt suffre. Beholde, the denyll shall cast some of you into prison, to tempte you, and ye shall haue tribulacion ten dayes. We sayethfull vnto the death, and I wyll geue the a crowne of lyfe. Let hym that hath eares, heare, what the sprete sayeth to the congregacions. He that overcometh, shall not be hurte of the seconde death.

D And to the messenger of the congregacion in Pergamos wyte: Thys sayeth he, which hath the sharpe swearde with two edges: I knowe thy workes, & where thou dwellest, even where Sathanas seat is, and thou kepest my name, & hast not denyed my sayth. And in my dayes Antipas was a saythfull wytnes of myne, whych was slayne amonge you, where Sathan dwelleth. But I haue a fewe thynges agaynst the: because thou hast there, them that mayntayne the doctrine of Balaam: whych taught in Balake, to put occasion of synne before the chylidren of Israel, that they shoulde eate of meate dedycate vnto ydoles, and comyt fornicacion. Eue so haste thou them that mayntayne the doctrine of the Apocallitans, whych thynges I hate. But be conuerted, or els I wyll come vnto the thozel, and wyll fynde agaynst the with the swearde of my mouth. Let hym that hath eares, heare, what the sprete sayeth vnto the congregacions. To hym that overcometh, wyll I geue to eat of the tree of lyfe, and wyll geue hym a whyte stone, and in the stone a newe name wyrtten, whych noman knoweth, sayunge he that receaueth it.

And vnto the messenger of the congregacion of Thyatira wyte. Thys sayeth the sonne of God whych hath eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre, & his fete are lyke brasse: I knowe thy workes, & thy loue, seruyce, and sayth, and thy pacience, & thy dedes, whych are mo at the last the at the fyrst. Notwithstandyng I haue a fewe thynges agaynst the, because thou sufferest that woman: Iesabel, whych called her selfe a prophetesse, to teache and to deceaue my seruantes, to make them comyt fornicacion, and to eate meates offered vp vnto ydoles. And I gaue her space to repent of her fornicacion, and she repented not. Beholde, I wyll cast her into a heed: and them that comyt fornicacion with her, into great aduersyte, excepte they turne from the; dedes. And I wyll slay her chylidren with death. And all the congregacions that knowe, that I am he whych searcheth the reynes & her Into you I saye, and vnto other of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this leynynge & which haue not knowen the depues of Sathan (as they saye) I wyll put vpon you none other burthen, but that whych ye haue already. Holde fast tyll I come, & who loouer overcometh & kepeyth my workes vnto the ende, to hym wyll I geue power ouer nacjons, & he shall rule them with a rodde of yron: & as vessels of a potters, shall they be broken to shewers. Eue as I receaued of my father, so wyll I geue hym the moynynge starre. Let hym that hath eares, heare, what the sprete sayeth to the congregacions.

The. iii. Chapter.

He instructeth and enfourmeth the Angells of the congregacions, declaringe also the rewards of hym that overcometh.

Ad wyte vnto the messenger of the congregacion of Sardis: this sayeth he that hath the seven spretes of God & the seven starres. I knowe thy workes, thou hast a name that thou lyuest, and thou arte deade. Be awake, and strengthe the thynges whych remaine, & are ready to dye. For I haue not founde thy workes & partys before God. Remember therfore, how thou hast receaued & herde, & holde faste, & repent, An

Pr thou

The Reuelacion

*1. Pet. v. 8
11. Pet. 10. 6

* If thou shalt not watche, I wyll come on the as a thefe, & thou shalt not knowe what houre I wyll come vpon the. Thou haste a fewe names in Sardys, whych haue not defyled the; garmentes, & they shall walke wth me in whyte, for they are worthy. He that ouercometh, shalbe thus clothed in whyte araye, and I wyll not put out hys name out of the booke of lyfe, and I wyll confesse hys name before my father, and before hys Angels. Let him that hath eares heare, what the sperte sayeth vnto the congregacions.

* 2. Cor. xii. 1
Job 30. 6

B And wyte vnto the angell of the congregacion of Whyladelphia: thys sayeth he that is holy and true, which hath the keye of Dauid: whych openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth. I knowe thy woekes. Beholde, I haue set before the an open doze, and no mā can shut it, for thou haste a lytell strength, and haste kepte my sayenges: and haste not denyed my name. Beholde, I make them of the congregacion of Sathan, whych call them selues Jewes, and are not, but do lye: Beholde, I wyll make them that they shall come, and worshyp before thy sete: and shal knowe, that I haue loued the.

C Because thou hast kept the wordes of my pacience, therefore I wyll kepe the from the houre of tēptacion, whych wyll come vpon all the worlde, to tempte them that dwel vpon the earth. Beholde, I come shortly. Hold that whych thou haste, that no man take awaye thy crowne. hym that ouercometh, wyll I make a pyllar in the temple of my God, & he shall go nomore out. And I wyll wyte vpon hym, the name of my God and the name of the cytie of my God, newe Jerualem: whych cometh downe out of heauen from my God, and I wyll wyte vpon hym my newe name. Let hym that hath eares, heare, what the sperte sayeth vnto the congregacions.

D And vnto y messenger of the congregacion whych is in Laodicia, wyte: Thys sayeth (Amen) the saythfull and true wytnes, the begynning of the creatures of God. I knowe thy woekes, that thou arte neither colde nor hote: I wolde thou were colde or hote. So then because thou arte betwene both, and ne ther colde nor hote, I wyll spewe the out of my mouth, because thou sayest: I am ryche and increased wth goodes, and haue nede of nothyng, and knowest not, how thou art wretched & myserable, and poore, and blynd and naked. I counsell the to bye of me golde tryed in the fyre, that thou mayest be ryche: and whyte raimēt, that thou mayst be clothed, & thy fylthy nakednes do not appeare, and an oynēt thyn eyes wth oyle saluē that thou mayest se.

* 11. Cor. v. 8

* As many as I loue, I rebuke, & chasten. Be seruent therfore, and repente. Beholde, I stande at the doze and knoche. If any mā heare my voyce, and open the doze, I wyll come in to hym, and wyll suppe wth hym, and he wth me. To him that ouercometh wyll I graunte to syt wth me in my seate, euen as I ouercame, & haue sytten wth my father in his seate. Let hym that hath eares heare, what the sperte sayeth vnto the cōgre gacions.

The. iiii. Chapter.

C He seyth the heauen open, and the seate, and oyle syt: syng vpon it, and xiiii. seates about it wth. xiiii. el ders sytting vpon them, and foure beastes prayse God daye and nyght.

After thys I looked, and beholde a doze was open in heauen, and fyrst voyce whych I herde, was as it were of a troyet talkyng wth me, whych said: come vp hyther, and I wyll shewe y thynges whych must be fulfilled here after. And immediately I was in the sperte: and beholde, a seate was set in heauen, and one sat on the seate. And he that satte was to lōke vpon, lyke vnto a Iasper stone & a Sardyne stone. And ther was a rayne bowe aboute the seat in syght lyke to an Emerald. And aboute the seate were. xiiii. seates. And vpon the seates. xiiii. elders sytting, clothed in whyt rayment, and had on theyr heades crownes of golde.

And out of the seate proceeded lychtenynges, & thondynges, & voyces, & there were seuen lāmpes of fyre, burnyng before the seate, whych are the seuen spertes of God. And before y seate ther was a see of glasse, lyke vnto Cristall, and in the myddes of the seate, & rounde aboute the seate were foure beastes ful of eyes before and behynde. And the fyrst beast was lyke a lyon, & the seconde beaste lyke a calfe, and the thyrde beaste had a face as a man, & the fourth beast was lyke a flyenge Egyle. And the foure beastes had eche one of them. vi. wynges about him, and they were full of eyes within. And they had no rest daye nether nyght sayenge. * holy, holy, holy, Lozde God almyghty, whych was, and is, and is to come.

And when those beastes gaue gloz and honour & thankes to him y satte on the seate, (whych lyueth for euer & euer) the. xiiii. elders fell downe before hym y sat on y throne & worshipped hym that lyueth for euer & cast theyr crownes before y throne sayeng: thou arte worthy O Lozde (our son) to receaue gloz, and honour, & power, for thou hast created all thynges, and for thy wylls sake they are, and were created.

The. v. Chapter.

C He seyth the lambe opening the doze, and therwith the foure beastes, the. xiiii. elders, and y angell prayse the lambe, and do hym worshippe.

And I sawe in þe ryght hande of him that sat in the throne, a boke wyrtten wythyn on the backsyde, sealed with seven seales. And I sawe a stronge Angel, which preached with a loude voice: Who is worthy to open the boke, & to loke the seales therof. And no man in heauē nor in earth ne ther vnder the erth, was able to open þe boke neether to loke theron. And I wept much because no man was founde worthy to open & to reade the boke, neether to loke theron.

B And one of the elders sayd vnto me wepe not: Beholde, a lyon of the tribe of Iuda, þe rotye of Dauid, hath obtayned to open þe boke, and to loke the seven seales therof. And I behelde, and lo in the myddes of the seate, and of the foure bestes, and in þe myddes of the elders, stode a lambe as though he had bene kylled, hauynge seven hornes, & seven eyes, whiche are the seven spyttes of God sente in to all the world. And he came, and toke the boke out of the ryght hande of hym that sat vpon the seate.

C And when he had taken þe boke, the foure bestes and .xxiii. elders fell downe befoze the lambe, hauynge (euery one of them) harpes & golden vialles full of odours, whiche are the prayers of sayntes, & they songe a newe songe, sayenge: thou art worthy to take the boke, & to open the seales therof: for þu wast kylled, & hast redeemed vs by thy bloude out of all kynredes, & tōges, & people, & nations and hast made vs vnto our God, kynges, & prestes, and we shall raygne on the earth.

D And I behelde, and I herde the voyce of many aungels about the throne, & about the best and the elders, and I hearde thousande thousandes, sayenge in a loude voyce: Worthy is the lambe that was kylled to receaue power, and ryches, & wyldom, and strength, and honour, & gloze, & blessinge. And al the creatures whych are in heauē, and on þe erth & vnder the erth, & in the see, and all that are in them, herde I sayenge: blessinge, honoure, gloze, and power be vnto hym that sitteth vpon the seate, & vnto the lambe for euermore. And the foure bestes sayd: Amen. And the .xxiii. elders fell vpon theyr faces, and worshipped hym that lyeth for euermore.

The. vi. Chapter.

The lambe openeth the .ii. seales, and many thynge folowes the openinge therof.

And I sawe, when the lambe opened one of þe seales, and I herde one of the foure bestes saye, as it were þe noyse of thunder: come and se: and I sawe. And he holde there was a whyte horse: and he that sat on him hadde a bowe, and a crowne was geuen vnto hym, and he wente forth conqueringe & for to ouercome. And whē he hadde opened the seconde seale, I herde the seconde best saye: come and se. And ther wente out another horse that was reddy, & power was geuen to hym that sat theron, to take peace from the earth, and that they shoulde kyl one another. * And ther was geuen vnto hym a great swerde.

B And when he had opened the thyrde seale I herde the thyrde best saye: come & se. And I behelde, & lo, a blacke horse: & he that satte on hym, had a payre of balafices in his hāde. And I herde a voyce in the myddes of þe foure bestes, say: a measure of wheate for a peny and thre measures of barley for a peny & oyle & wyne se thou hurte not. And when he had opened the fourth seale, I herde the voyce of the fourth best saye, come and se: & I lokēd. And behold a pale horse: and his name that satte on hym was death, & he folowed after him, and power was geuen vnto the ouer the fourth parte of the earth, to kyl wth swerde and wth hunger, and wth death, that cometh of vermen of the earth.

C And when he had opened the fyfth seale, I sawe vnder the altire the soules of them that were kylled for the woꝝde of God, & for the testimony whych they had, & they cryed wth a loude voyce, sayenge: howe longe taryest thou Lorde, holpe & true, to indge & to avenge our bloude on the þe dwel on the erth. And longe whyle garments were geuen vnto euery one of them. And it was sayd vnto them, that they shoulde reste yet for a lytle season vntill the nombꝛe of theyr felowes, and brethren, & of them that shoulde be kylled as they were, were fulfilled.

D And I behelde, whē he had opened þe syxt seale: & lo, ther was a great earthquake and the sunne was as black as sacke cloth made of beere. And the moone wered al, euen as blond, and the starres of heauen fel vnto the earth, euen as a fygge tree casteth frōme her vntymelye fygges, when she is shaken of a myghtye wynde. And heauen vanyshed awaye, as a scroll when it is rolled together. And all mountaynes and ples, were moued oute of theyr places. And the kynges of the erth, and the great men, & the ryche men, and the chiefe captaynes, and the myghtye men, and euery bondman, and euery free man, hid them selues in dennew, and in rockes of the hylles: & and sayde to the hylles and rockes: fall on vs, and hyde vs from the presence of hym that sitteth on the seate, and from the wrath of the lambe: for the great day of his wrath is come, and who is able to endure?

The. vii. Chapter.

The seyth the seruantes of God sealeth in theyr doges heades out of al nacōs & people, whych though they suffer trouble, yet the lambe sheweth them, leadech them to the folowynge of the lymyng water, and God shal wypp awaye all teares from theyr eyes.

An ii And

The Revelation

Ad after that I sawe foure aungels stande on the .iiii. corners of the earth holdynge f foure windes of the earth that the wynde shuld not blowe on the erth, nether on the see, nether on any tree. And I sawe another aungel ascende from the ry- lyng of the sunne, whyche had the seale of f lyupnge God, & he cryed with a loude voyce to the foure aungels to whome power was geue to hurte f earth & the see sayenge: hurt not the earth nether the see, nether the trees, fpl we haue sealed the seruautes of our God in theyr foreheades.

B And I herd f nombze of the whych were sealed, & they were sealed an. C. & .xliiii. of all the trybes of the chyldren of Israel. Of the trybe of Iuda were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Ruben were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Gad were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Aser were sealed. xii. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed. xii. Of f tribe of Manasses were sealed. xii. Of the tribe of Simcon were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Leuy were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Iacar were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Zabulon were sealed. xii. Of the trybe of Ioseph were sealed. xii. Of f trybe of Ben Jami were sealed. xii.

C After this I behelde, & lo, a great multitude (which no ma coulde nombze) of al nacions & people, & togges, stode before the seate, & before the labe, clothed with loge whyt garmentes, & palmes in theyr handes, & cryed wyth a loude voyce, sayenge: saluacion be ascribed to hym that sytteth vpo the seate of our God, and vnto the labe. And all the aungels stode in the copale of the seat, & of the elders & of the foure beastes, & fel before the seat on theyr faces, and woymypped God, sayenge: Amen. Blessynge & gloze & wylidome & thakes, and honoure, & power, & myght, be vnto oure God for euermore. Amen.

D And one of the elders answered, sayenge vnto me, what are these which are arayed in longe whyt garmentes, & whence came they? And I sayd vnto hym: Lozde thou wotest. And he sayd to me: these are they, which cam out of great tribulacion, and made theyr garmentes large, and made them whyte by the bloude of the lambe: therfore are they in the presence of the seate of God & serue hym day & nyght in hys temple, & he that sytteth in the seate wpll dwell amonge them. They shall hunger nomoze, nether theyr, nether shall the done lyght on them, nether any heate. For the lambe whych is in the myddes of f seate shall fede them, & shall leade the vnto fountaynes of lyupnge water, & God shal wype awaye all teares from theyr eyes.

The .viii. Chapter.

C The seuenth seale is opened, there is silence in hea- uen, the foure aungels blowe theyr trompettes, & great plagis folowe vpon the earth.

Ad whē he had opened the seneth seale, there was silence in beauen aboute the space of half an hour. And I sawe a. iiii. aungels standynge before God, and to them were geuen seuen trompettes. And another aungell came and stode before the aulter, ha- ypnge a golden senser, and much of odoures was geuen vnto hym, that he shulde offre of the prayers of all sayntes vpon the golden aulter, whych was before the seate. And the smoke of the odoures which came of f pray- ers of all sayntes, ascended vp before God out of the aungels hande. And the aungell toke the senser, and fylled it with fyze of the aulter, and caste it into the earth, and voices were made, and thondynges and lyghtnynges, and earthquake.

And the seuen aungels whych had the seue trompettes, prepared them selues to blowe. The fyrst aungell blew, & there was made hayle & fyze, which were myngled w bloud, and they were cast into f earth: & the thyrde parte of the erth was set on fyze, & the thyrde parte of trees was burnt, and al grene grasse was byt. And f secōde aungel blew: & as it were a great mountayne burning with fyze was cast into the see, and the thyrde parte of the see turned to bloude, and the thyrde parte of the creatures whych had lyfe, dyed, and the thyrde parte of shyppes were destroyed.

And the thyrde aungell blew, & ther fell a greate starre from heauen, burnynge as it were a lampe, & it fell into the thyrde parte of the ryuers, & into fountaynes of waters, & the name of the starre is called woymwod. And the thyrde parte was turned to woym- wod. And many men dyed of the waters, be- cause they were made bitter. And the fourth aungel blew, & the thyrde part of the sunne was smytten, & the thyrde part of f moone, and the thyrde parte of starres: so that the thyrde part of them was darkened. And the dape was smytten, that the thyrde parte of it shulde not shyne, and lykerwyle the nyght. And I behelde and herde an aungel flyenge thowowe the myddes of heauen, sayeng with a loude voyce: Woo, woo, to the inhabyters of the erth, because of the voyces to come of the trompe of the thye aungels, whych were yet to blowe.

The .ix. Chapter.

C The fyrst and fyrst aungel blowe theyr trompettes the starre falleth from heauen: the locustes come oute of the smoke. The fyrst wo is past: the foure aungels f were bolde are loosed, & the thyrde part of me is bylled.

And the fyrst aungell blew and I sawe a starre fall from heaue vnto the erth. And to hym was geue the keye of the botomlesse pyt: And he opened the botom lesse pyt, & the smoke of the pyt arole as the smoke of a greate fornaise. And the sunne, & the aye the ayer were darkened by the reason of the smoke of the pyt. And there came out of the smoke locustes vpon the earth, & vnto them was geuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power. And it was commaunded them, that they shulde not hurt the grasse of the erth: nether any grene thinge nether any tree: but onely those me whych haue not the seale in theyr foreheades. And to them was commaunded, that they shulde not kyll the, but that they shulde be vexed. v. monethes, and theyr payne was as the paine of commeth of a scorpion, wher he hath stonge a man. * And in those dayes shall men seke death, & shall not fynde it, and shall desyre to dye, & death shall fle from them.

And the similitude of the locustes was lyke vnto horses prepared vnto battayl, and on theyr heades were as it were crownes, lyke vnto golde, and theyr faces were as it had bene the faces of me. And they had here as the beere of womē. And theyr teeth were as the teeth of lyons. And they had habbergions, as it were habbergions of lyon. And the founde of theyr wynges, was as if solide of charrettes, when many horses runne together to battayl. And they had tayles lyke vnto scorpions, & ther were stynges in theyr tayles. And theyr power was to hurt men v. monethes. And they had a kynge ouer the, whych is the aungel of the bottomlesse pyt, whose name in the hebrew tonge, is Abaddon, but in the Greke tonge, Apollyon, that is to saye: a destroyer. One wo is past, & beholde, two woos come yet after this.

And the fyrte aungel blew, and I herde a voyce from the foure corners of the golden altier, whych is before God, sayenge to the fyrte aungel, whych had the trope: Lose the foure aungels, whych are boude in the great ryuer Euphrates. And the foure aungels were losed: which were prepared for an hour for a daye, for a moneth, and for a yere for to slaye the. iii. parte of men. And the nombze of hoysmen of warre were. xx. thousande tymes. x. And I herde the nombze of them: & thus I sawe & hoyses in a vision, & them & late on them, haupage fyre habbergions of a Jacinct couloure, & byrmstone, and the heades of the hoyses were as if heades of lyons.

And out of theyr mouthes went forth fyre & smoke, & byrmstone. And of these thre was the thyrde part of me kyllled: that is to saye, of fyre, smoke, and byrmstone: whych proceeded out of the mouthes of them: For theyr power was in theyr mouthes & in theyr tayles, for theyr tayles were lyke vnto serpentes, & had heades, & wyth the they dyd hurt: And the remnaunt of the men whych were not kyllled by these plagis, repented not of synnes of theyr handes that they shulde not worshippe deuyls, and ymages of gold and syluer, and brasse, and stone, and of woode, whych nether canse, nether heare, nether go. Also they repented not of theyr murder, and of theyr sorcery, nether of theyr fornicacion, nether of theyr thefte.

The .x. Chapter.

The aungel hath the boke open: he swereth theyr shalbe nomme: he geureth the boke vnto Ihon, whych eateth it vp.

And I sawe another mighty aungel come downe from heauē clothed w a cloude, & & rayne bow vpon his heed. And his face as it were if sunne, & his feete as it were pylers of fyre, & he had in his hande a lytell boke open, & he put his ryght fote vpon the see, & his lyft fote on the erth. And cryed wyth a loude voyce, as when a lyon roareth. And when he had cryed, seue thunders spake theyr voyces. And wher the. vii. thunders had spoke theyr voyces, I was about to wyte. And I herde a voyce from heauen, sayenge vnto me: seale vp those thynges whych the vii. thunders spake, and wyte them not.

And the aungel whych I sawe stode vpon the see, & vpon the earth, lyft vp his hande to heauen, and swore by hym that lyueth for evermore, which created heauen, & the thynges that therein are: (And the erth and the thynges that therein are) and the see, & the thynges which therein are: & there shulde be no longer tyme but in the dayes of the voyce of the seuerthe aungel, when he shal begyn to blowe: euen the mystere of God shalbe synnyshed, as he preached by his seruantes the prophetes.

And the voyce which I herde fro heauē, spake vnto me agayne, & sayde: * go & take the lytle boke whych is open in the hande of the aungel whych standeth vpon the see, and vpon the erth. And I went vnto the aungel & sayd to him: geue me the lytel boke, and he sayde vnto me: take it, & eate it vp, & it shall make thy belly brytter, but it shall be in thy mouth as swete as honye. * And I toke the lytel boke out of his hande, & eate it vp, and it was in my mouth as swete as honye: & as sone as I had eaten it, my belly was brytter. And he sayd vnto me: thou must prophesy agayne amonge the people, and nations, and tonges, and to many kynges.

The .xi. Chapter.

The temple is measured. The seconde wo is past.

And then was geuen me a reed like vnto a rod, & it was sayd vnto me. Kyle and meate the temple of God, & the altier and them that worshippe therein, and the quere that is wythin the temple, cast out and meate it not: for it is geuen vnto the Getyls, and the holy cytie shall they treade vnder foote. xlii. monethes. And I will geue power vnto my two wytnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousande, two hundred and. lx.

An iii. dayes.

The Reuelacion

dapes clothed in sacke cloth. These are two olyue trees, and two candelltyckes, standing befo: the God of the earth.

B And yf any man wyl hurt the, syze shal procede out of they: mouthes, and consume they: enemyes. And yf any man wyl hurt them, theys wyse muste be kylled. These haue power to shut heauē, that it rayne not in the dapes of they: prophesying: and haue power ouer waters to turne them to bloude, & to smyte the earth wth all maner plagis, as often as they wyl.

And when they haue synned they: testi monye, the beast that came out of the bottō- lesse pyt shal make warre agaynst them, & shal ouercome them, & kyl them. And they: bodyes shal lye in the stretes of the great cy tie, whych spiritually is called zedome and Egypte, where oure Lorde was crucified. And they of the people & kynredes, & tonges & they of the nations, shal se they: bodyes iii. dapes and an halfe, & shal not suffre they: bodyes to be put in graues. And they shal dwell vpon the earth, & all reioyce ouer them and be glad, and shal sende gyftes one to another for these two prophetes vered them shal dwell on the earth.

C And after. iii. dapes & an halfe, the spyzete of lyfe from God entred in to the. And they stode vp vpo they: fete, and great feare cam vpon the whych sawe them. And they herde a great voyce fro heauen, sayenge vnto the: Come vp hither. And they ascended vp into heauen in a cloude, and they: enemyes sawe them. And the same houre was ther a great crathquake, and the tenth parte of the cytie fell, and in the earthquake were slayne names of men seuen. W and the renaunt were feared, and gaue gloze to the God of heauē. The seconde woo is past, & beholde, & they: de woo wyl come anone.

D And the seuenth angell blewe, & ther were made grete voyces in heauen, sayenge: the kyngdomes of this worlde are our Lordes, and hys Christes, & he shal raygne for euer moze. Amen. And the. xliii. elders, whych sate befoze God on they: seates, fell vpo their faces, & worshipped God sayenge: we geue the thanks O Lorde God almyghty: which arte and wast, & arte to come, for thou haste receaued thy great might, and hast raygned. And the naciōs were angry, and thy wraath is come, and the tyme of the deade that they shulde be iudged and & thou shuldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruauntes the prophetes and sayntes, & to them that feare thy name small & great & shuldest destroe the, whych destroe the earth. And & temple of God was opened in heauē, and ther were sene in his temple, & arcke of hys testament, & ther folowed lyghtenynge, and voyces, and thōdynge, and earthquake, and much hayle.

The. xii. Chapter.

The seuenth angell blew hys trumpet. Ther appeared in heauen a woman clothed wth the sunne: Michael spaketh wth the dragon, which persecuted the woman.

And ther appeared a great wonder in heauē: A woman clothed w the sunne, & the mōne vnder her fete, & vpon her head a crowne of. xii. starres. And she was w chylde, & cryed tranaplynge in by:th, & payned redy to be deliuered. And ther appeared another wōder in heauē, for beholde, a great red dragon hauynge. vii. heades, & ten hornes and leuē crownes vpon his heades: and hys taylor dwe the thyrde parte of the starres (of heauen) and cast them to the earth.

And the dragon stode befoze the woman whych was ready to be deliuered: for to deuoure her chylde as soone as it were bozne. And she brought forth a man chylde, whych shulde rule all naciōs wth a rod of yron. And her sonne was taken vp vnto God, and to hys seate. And the woman fled into wyl- derneffe, where she had a place, prepared of God, that they shulde fede her there a. lii. hundred and. lx. dapes.

C And there was a great battayl in heauen Michael and hys angels fought wth the dragon, and the dragon fought & hys angels and preuayled not, nether was they: place founde any moze in heauen. And the grete dragon, that olde serpent, called the deuyll & Sathanas, was cast out. Which deceaueth all the worlde. And he was cast into the erth and hys angels were cast out also (wth hym).

And I hearde a loude voyce, sayenge: in heauen is now made saluacion and strenght & the kyngdome of our God, and the power of hys Christ. For (the accuser of oure bretheren) is cast downe, whych accused the befoze (our) God daye and nyght. And they ouertame hym by the bloude of the Lambe, and by the word of they: testimony, and they loued not they: lyues vnto & death. Therefore reioyce heuens, & ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabytors of the earth, and of the see: for the deuyll is come downe vnto pou, whych hath great wraath, because he knoweth & he hath but a shorte tyme.

D And whē the dragon sawe & he was caste vnto the erth, he persecuted & womā, which brought forth the mā chylde. And to the wo man were geuen two wynges of a grete Eagle, that she myght flye into the wilderness into her place, where she is noryshed for a tyme, tymes, & halfe a tyme, fro the ptesence of the serpent. And the dragon cast out of hys mouth water after the womā as it had bene a ryuer, because she shulde haue bene caught of the floude. And the erth holpe the womā and & earth opened her mouth & swallowed vp the ryuer, whych & dragon cast out of his mouth mouth. And the dragon was wroth wth h^e woman, and wente, and made warre wth the remnant of hys sede, whych kepe the commandmentes of God, & haue h^e testymony of Ie^sus Christ. And he stode on the see lande.

¶ The. xiii. Chapter.

¶ A beast cometh out of the see wth seven he^{ad}es and ten hornes. Another beast cometh out of earth wth two hornes.

And I sawe a beast ryse out of the see, hauynge seuen hea^{des}, & ten hornes, and vpon his hornes ten crownes, and vpon hys head, the name of blasphemye. And the beast whych I sawe, was lyke a catt of the mountayne, and hys fete were as the fete of a beare, & hys mouth as h^e mouth of a lyon. And the dragon gaue hym hys power and hys seate, and great authorite: and I sawe one of his heades as it were wounded to death, and hys deadly wounde was healed. And all the worlde wondred at the beast, they worshypped the dragon, whiche gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshypped the beast, sayng: who is lyke vnto the beast? who is able to warre wth hym?

And there was geuen vnto hym a mouth, that spake great thynges & blasphemyes, & power was geuen vnto hym, to do. xlii. monethes. And he opened hys mouth vnto blasphemye agaynst god, to blasfeme his name and hys tabernacle, & them that dwell in heauen. And it was geuen vnto hym to make warre wth the saintes, & to ouercome them. And power was geuen hym ouer al kynred, and people, and tonge and nacion, and all h^e dwell vpon the earth worshypp hym: whose names are not wyrtten in the boke of lyfe of the lambe, whych was kylled fro the begynninge of the worlde. Yf any man haue an eare let hym heare. He that leadeth into captiuitie, shall go into captiuitie: * he that kylleth wth a swerde, muste be kylled wth a swerde. Here is the pacience, and the sayth of the sayntes.

And I behelde another beast comyng v^out of the earth, and he had two hornes lyke a lambe, & he spake as dyd the dragon. And he dyd all h^e the fyrste beast coude do in his presence, & he caused the earth, & them which dwell therein, to worshypp h^e fyrst beast whose deadly wounde was healed. And he dyd great wonders, so that he made fyre come downe from heauen in the syghte of men. And deceaued the that dwell on the earth, by the meanes of those sygnes whych he had power to do in the syghte of h^e beast, sayng to the that dwell on the earth: that they shuld make an ymage vnto the beast, which had the wounde of a swerde, and dyd lyue.

And he had power to geue a sprete vnto the ymage of the beast, & that the ymage of the beast shulde speake, and shuld cause that as many as wolde not worshypp h^e ymage of h^e beast, shulde be kylled. And he made all, both small & great, ryche & poore, fre & bonde, to receaue a marke in they^r ryght handes o^r in they^r foreheddes. And that no man myght bye o^r sell, saue he that had the marke o^r the name of the beast, other the nombze of hys name. Here is wysdome. Let hym that hath wth count the nombze of the beast. For it is the nombze of a man, and hys nombze is syre hundred, threescore and syre.

¶ The. xiiii. Chapter.

¶ The lambe standeth v^ond the mo^{unt}ayn, & the vnder: spied congregacion wth hym. The angel exhorteth to the feare of God, and relecth of the fall of Babylon.

And I lokyd, & lo, a lambe stode v^ond the mo^{unt}ayn, & wth hym an. C. & xliiii. thousand hauyng hys & (name & hys) fathers name wyrtten in they^r foreheddes. And I herde a voyce fro heauen, as the sounde of many waters, & as the voyce of a great th^{un}der. And I herde the voyce of harpers harpyng wth they^r harpes. And they songe as it were a new songe, befoze the seat, & befoze the foure beastes, & the elders, & no man coude learne h^e songe, but h^e hundred & xliiii. thousand, whych were redemed fro fethy. These are they, whych were not defyled wth women for they are virgins. These folowe the labe wthther soeuer he goeth. These were redemed fro men, beyng the fyrst frutes vnto God and to the labe, and in they^r mouthes was founde no gyle. For they are wthout spot befoze the throne of God.

And I sawe another angel flye in myddes of heauen hauyng the euerglastyng Gospell, to preache vnto them h^e syt & dwell on the earth, & to al nacions, kynredes, & tonges & people, sayng wth a loude voyce: * Feare God, & geue honour to hym, for the houre of his iudgement is come: & worshypp hym that made heauen & earth, & the see, & fountaynes of water. And there folowed an other angel sayng: * Babylon is fallen is fallen that great cytie, for she made al nacions drynke of the wyne of her fornicacion.

And the thyrde angel folowed hym sayng wth a loude voyce: Yf any man worshypp the beast & hys ymage, & receaue his marke in hys forehead, o^r on his hande, h^e same shal drynke the wyne of h^e wrath of God, which is poured in the cuppe of his wrath. And he shalbe punysshed in fyre and byrmstone, befoze the holy angels, and befoze the lambe.

And the smoke of they^r torment ascendeth v^ouermoze. And they haue no rest day noz nyght, whych worshypp the beast and his ymage and whosoever receaueth h^e pynt of his name. Here is the pacience of sayntes.

An. liii. here

The Reuelacion

Here are they that kepe the commaundementes and the sayth of Iesu.

And I herde a voyce from heauē sayeng vnto me: wytte. Blessed are the dead, which here after dye in the Lorde, euen so sayth the sperte: that they rest fro theyr labours, but theyr workes folowe them.

D And I looked, and beholde a whyte cloude and vpon the cloude one syttinge lyke vnto the sonne of mā, haupnge on hys heade a golden crowne, and in his hande a sharpe sykkel. And an other angell came out of the temple, cryenge wyth a loude voyce to him that sat on the cloude: * Chyuste in thy sykkel & repe for thy tyme is come to repe, for the cozne of the earth is rypp. And he sate on the cloude thrust in hys sicke on the earth, and the earth was reped.

* Joel. ii. e

And another aungell came out of the temple, which is in heauē, haupnge also a sharpe sykkel. And another aungell came out fro the autler, whych had power ouer fyre, & cryed wyth a loude crye to hym that had the sharpe sykkel, and sayde: truste in thy sharpe sykkel, and gather the clusters of the earth, for her grapes are rypp. And the aungell thruste in hys sharpe sykkel on the earth, & cut downe the grapes of the vyneparde of the earth: and cast the into the great wynefat of f wrath of God, & the wynefat was troden without the cryte, & bloude came out of the fate, euen vnto the hylle byrdels, by f space of a thou lande, and. vi. C. furlonges.

The. xv. Chapter.

The seuen aungels, haupnge seuen vyalles full of wrath.

A And I sawe another sygne in heauen great and maruelous, seuen aungels, haupnge the seuen laste plagis, for in them is fulfyllid f wrath of God. And I sawe as it were a glassye see, impugled with fyre, & the that had gotten victoie of the beast, and his ymage, and of the nobre of hys name, stāde on the glassye see, haupng f harpes of God, and they sange the songe of Moyses the seruaunt of God, and the songe of the lābe, sayenge: Great, & maruelous are thy workes: * Lorde God almyghtye, iuste and true are thy wayes, thou kyng of sayntes. Who shall not feare o Lorde, & glorify thy name? For thou onely arte holy, & all gentyls shall come and worship before the, for thy iudgements are made manifest.

* Esay. xli. c.
Joel. ii. a

B And after that, I looked, and beholde, the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen, and the seuen aungels came out of the temple whych had the seuen plagis, clothed in pure and bypght lymen, and haupnge theyr byrles gyrded wyth golden girdles. And one of the foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen aungels seuen golde vyalles full of the wrath of God, whych he gyfte for euermore. And the temple was ful of f smoke of the gloire of God and of hys power, and no man was able to entre into the temple, tyl the seuen plagis of the seuen aungels were fulfyllid.

The. xvi. Chapter.

The aungels poure out theyr vyalles full of wrath.

A And I herde a great voyce out of the temple sayeng to the seuen aungels: go your wayes, powze out your vyalles of wrath vpon the earth. And the fyrst aungell wente, and powzed out hys vyal vpon the earth, & there fell a noysome, and a soze boch vpon the men whych had the marke of the beast, & vpon them whych worshypped his ymage. And the secōde aungell shed out hys vyal vpon the see, and it turned as it were into the bloude of a dead man: and euery lypunge thynge dyed in the see. And the thyrde aungell shed out hys vyal vpon the ryuers and fountaynes of waters, & they turned to bloude. And I herde an aungell saye: Lorde, whych arte and wast, thou arte ryghteous and holy, because thou hast geuen suche iudgements, for they shed out the bloud of sayntes, & prophetes, & therfore hast thou geuen them bloude to drynke: for they are worthy. And I herde another saye: eue so Lorde God almyghtye: true and righteous are thy iudgements.

And the fourth aungell powzed out hys vyal on the sunne, & power was geuen vnto hym to bere men wyth heat of fyre. And the men raged in great heat: & spake euil of the name of God, whych hath power ouer those plagis, & they repented not of theyr euil dedes, to geue hym glozy. And the fyfte aungell powzed out hys vyal vpon the seate of the beast, & hys kyngdome waxed darke, & they gnewe theyr tonges for sorow, and blasphemed the God of heauē for sorowe & payne of theyr sores, and repented not of theyr dedes.

And the syxte aungell powzed out his vyal vpon the great ryuer Euphrates, and the water dyed vp, that the wayes of the kynges of the east shuld be prepared. And I sawe thre vnclene spertes lyke frogges come out of the mouth of the dragō, & out of f mouth of the beast, and out of f mouth of the fals prophet: for they are the spertes of deupls workynge myracles, to go out vnto the kynges of the earth and of the whole worlde, to gather them to the battayle of f great day of God almyghtye. * Beholde, I come as a thefe. happye is he that watcheth, and keepeth hys garments, lest he walke naked, and men se hys fylthynges. And he gatbe-

red

* mat. xxiv. c.
ii. Pet. iii. c.
i. Cor. v. c.

red them together into a place called in the hebreue tonge Armagedon.

And the seuenth aungell powred out his viall into the ayre. And ther came a greate voyce out of heauen fro the seate, saying, it is done. And ther folowed, voyces, thōdyn- ges, and lpghtenynghes, & ther was a greate erthquake, suche as was not sence me were vpon the erth, so myghy an erthquake & so great. And the greate cytie was decayed in to thre partes, and the cyties of all nacyns fell. And greate Babylon came in remem- brance before God, to geue vnto hyr & cup of the wyne of the fearcenes of hys wraethe. Euerie ple also fled awaye, and & mountay- nes were not founde. And ther fell a greate hayle (as it had bene talentes) out of heauē vpon the men, & the men blasphemēd God: because of the plage of the hayle, for it was great, and the plage of it soze.

C The. xviij. Chapter.

He describeth the woman spytege vpon the beaste with ten hoynes.

AD there came one of & seuen aūgels, whych had & seuen vyalles: and tal- ked with me, sayinge vnto me: come, I wyll shewe vnto the, the iudgement of & greate whoze that sytteth vpon many wa- ters, wth whome haue comypted forni- cacion the kynges of the erth, and the inha- byters of the erth are droncken w the wyne of hyr fornicacyō. And the sprete carped me awaye into the wyldernes. And I sawe a woman syt vpon a rose colozed beaft, ful of names of blasphemye, whych had seue hea- des and ten hoynes. And the woman was arayed in purple & rose coloure, and decked with golde, p̄cious stone, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hande, ful of abho- minacions and fylthines of her fornicacyō. And in her forheade was a name wyrtten, a mistery, great Babylō the mother of whoz- dom and abhominacions of the erth. And I sawe the woman drōcken wth & bloude of sapnetes, and wth the bloude of the wyl- nelles of Iesu. And whē I sawe her: I wō- dzed with great meruayle.

And & aungell sayde vnto me: wherfoze maruaylest thou? I wyll shewe the the my- stery of & womā, and of the beaft that bea- reth her, whych hath seuen heades and ten hoynes. The beaft that thou seest, was, and is not, and shall ascēde out of & vortomlesse pyt, and shall go into perdycon, & they that dwell on & erth shall wondze (whose names are not wyrtten in the boke of lyfe from the begynnyng of the worlde) when they be- hold the beaft & was and is not. And here is a mynde that hath wylsome.

C The seue heades are seuen mountaynes, on whych the woman sytteth, they are also seue kynges. & yue are falle, and one is, and another is not yet come. And when he com- meth, he must cōtine the a shorte space. And the beaste that was, and is not, is euen the epygt, and is one of the seuen, and shall go into destruccyon. And the ten hoynes whych thou sawest are ten kynges whych haue re- ceaued no kyngdom as yet, but shall receaue power as kynges at one houre w the beaft. These haue one mynde, and shall geue their power and strength vnto the beaste. These shall fyghe wth the lambe, and the lambe shall ouercome the. * For he is Lord of Loz. * 1. Tim. vi. 8. des, and kyng of kynges, and they that are on hys syde, are called, & chosen, & fapthfull.

And he sayde vnto me: the waters whych thou sawest, where & whoze sytteth, are peo- ple and folke, & nacyns, and tōges. And the ten hoynes, whych & sawest vpon the beaft, are they that shall hate the whoze, and shall make her desolate & naked, and shall eate her flethe, & burne her with fyze. For God hath put in theyr hertes to fulfyll hys wyll, & to do with one consent, for to geue their kyng- dome vnto the beaste, vntyll the wordes of God be fulfyllled. And the woman whych thou sawest, is that greate cytie, whych rap- gneteth ouer the kynges of the erth.

C The. xviij. Chapter.

The louers of the worlde are sorry for the fall of Ba- bylon, but they that be of God haue cause to reioyce for her destruccyon.

AD after that, I sawe another aū- gell come fro heauen, haupng great power, and the erthe was lpghtened wth hys byghenes. And he cryed mygh- tely with a stronge voyce, sayinge: * Great Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and is become the inhabitation of deuyls, and the holde of all fowle spretes, and a cage of all vncleane and hatefull byzdes, for all nacyns haue droncken of the wyne of the wraeth of her for- nicacyon. And the kynges of the earth haue comypted fornicacyon wth her, and the marchaūtes of the earth are waxed ryche of the aboundance of her pleasures.

And I herde another voyce from heauē, & saye, come awaye from her my people, & ye be not partakers of her synnes, and & ye re- ceauē not of her plagēs. For her synnes are gone vp to heauē, & God hath remēbzed her wyckednes. Rewarde her eue as she rewar- ded you, & geue her double accordyng to her wythes. And powze in double to her in the same cuppe whych she fylled vnto you. And as moch as she glorified her selfe and lpued wantōly, so moche powze ye in for her of pu- nyshment and sorowe, for she sayde in her selfe: * I syt beyng a quene, & am no wyd- dow, and shall se no sorowe. Therfore shall her plagēs come in one daye, deeth, & sorow and hunger, & she shall be bzēt wth fyze: for strōge is & Lord God whych shall iudge her. An v And

The Reuelacyon

And the kynges of the erth shall bewepe her and wale ouer her, whych haue comyt- ted fornicarys with her, & haue lpyed wan- tonly with her, when they shal se the smoke of her burnynge, & shal stande a farre of, for feare of her punysshment, sayinge. * Alas,

* Jer. li. a

D Alas, that great cytie Babylon, p myghtie citie: for at one houre is thy iudgemēt come And the marchauntes of the erth shal wepe and waple in them selues, for no man wyl bye thes warre eny moze, the ware of golde & syluer, & pprecious stones, nether of pearle, and raynes, and purple, and skarlet, and all thyngne woode, & all maner vessels of puerp, & al maner vessels of most pprecious wodde, & of bzasse & yron, & (and marble) & synamon, and odours, & opntmētes, & franckinsence, & wyne, & oyle, and fyne flour, and wheate, beastes and shepe, and hoxsles, and charetes and bodyes, and soules of men.

* Jer. li. b

And p apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed fro the. And al thynges whych were deyntie, and had in price, are departed fro the, & thou shalt fynde the nomoze. The marchauntes of these thynges whyche were wered ryche, shal stāde a farre of from hir, for feare of p punysshment of her, wepyng and waplyng, and sayinge: * Alas, Alas, p great cytie, that was clothed in raynes and purple, and skarlet, and decked wyth golde, and pprecious stones, and ptarles: for at one houre so great ryches is come to nought.

* Jer. li. b

And euery thypppe gouerner, and all they that occupied thypppes, and thyppmen whych woꝝke in the see, itode a farre of, and cryed, when they sawe the smoke of her burnyng, sayinge: what cytie is lyke vnto this great cytie? And they cast dust on thes heedes, & cryed wepyng, & waplyng, & sayd: * Alas, Alas, that great cytie, wheryn were made ryche all that had thypppes in the see, by the reason of her cokynnes, for at one houre is she made desolate.

* Jer. li. b

G Reioyce ouer her thou heauen, & ye holy Apostles and pꝛophetes: for God hath ge- uen your iudgement on her. And a myghty aūgel toke vp a stone lyke a great millstone and cast it vnto the see, sayinge: wyth suche violence shal that great cytie Babylon be caste, and shalbe founde nomoze. And the voyce of harpers, and musiciens, and of py- pers, and trompetters shalbe herde no moze in the: and no crafter man, of whatsoener craft he be, shalbe founde eny moze in the. And the sounde of a myll shalbe herde no moze in the, & (and candle light shalbe no moze burnyng in the) and the voyce of the byrgdegrom and of the byrde, shalbe herde nomoze in the for thy marchauntes wer the great men of p erth. And wyth thyne inchauntmēt were de- ceaued all nacions: and in her was founde p blonde of the pꝛophetes, and of p sayntes, and of all that were slayne vpon the erth.

The. xix. Chapter.

¶ Waple is geuen vnto God for iudgyng the wyse, and for auengyng the blonde of hys seruauntes. The aūgel wyl not be woꝝshipped. The soules and byrdes are called to the slaughter.

Ad after that I hearde a greate voyce of moche people in beauf sayinge: Al- leluya Saluacyon & gloꝝy & honour & power be ascribed to the Loꝝde our God, for true and ryghteous are hys indgements, for he hath iudged p great woꝝke which byd corrupt the erth with her fornicacion, & hath auenged the blonde of hys seruauntes of hys hāde. And agayne they sayde: Alleluia. And smoke rose vp for euermoze. And the. xliii. elders, and the. iiii. bestes fell downe, & woꝝ- shipped God that late on the seate, sayng: Amen, Alleluya. And a voyce came out of p seate, sayinge: pꝛayse our Loꝝde God all ye p are hys seruauntes, & ye that feare hym both small and great.

And I herde p voyce of moche people eue as the voyce of many waters, & as p voyce of strōge thondꝛinges sayinge: Alleluia, for the Loꝝde our God omnipotēt rapꝛyeth. Let vs be glad and reioyce, and gꝛue honoure to hym, for the mariage of the lambe is come, and hys wyfe made her selfe ready. And to her was graunted, that she shulde be arayed with pure and goodly raynes. For p raynes is p ryghtwylnes of sayntes. And he sayde vnto me, wypte, * happye are they whiche are called vnto the supper of the lambes ma- riage: And he sayde vnto me: these are p true saynges of God. And I fell at his fete, to woꝝshype hym. And he sayde vnto me: se p do it not. For I am thy felow seruaūt, & one of thy byrdes, euen of them p haue the testy- mony of Iesus. Woꝝshype God. For p te- stimony of Iesus is the spꝛete of pꝛophecy. And I sawe heauen open, & beholde, a wyhte hoꝝse: & he f sat vpon hym was called fapth- full & true, & in ryghtwylnes he doth iudge & make battayle. His eyes were as a flāme of fyre: & on his heade were many crownes: & he had a name wyttē, that no man knewe but he hym selfe. * And he was clothed wyth a vesture dypte in blonde, & hys name is called p woꝝd of God. And p warriars which were in heauen, folowed hym vpon wyhte hoꝝses, clothed with white and pure raynes: and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swerd that with it he shulde synpte the heathen. And he shal rule them wyth a rod of yron, and he trode p wynefate of fearnesse and wyth of almighty God. And hach on his vesture and on his thygh a name wyttē: kyng of kynges, and Loꝝde of Loꝝdes.

* eua. iiii.

* eua. iiii.

And I sawe an aūgel stande in p sonne and he cryed with a loude voyce, sayinge: to all p soules that lye by the myddes of hea- uen: come and gather pour selues together vnto into the supper of the great God, & ye may eat the fleſhe of kynges, and the fleſhe of hye captaynes, and the fleſhe of myghty men, & the fleſhe of hoſtes, and of the that ſyt on them, & the fleſhe of all free men and bonde men and of ſmal and great. And I ſawe the beaſt, and the kynges of the earth, and their warriers gathered together to make bataill agaynſte hym that ſat on the hoſte, and agaynſt hys ſoudyers.

And the beaſt was taken, and wpyth hym that falſe prophete that wrought myſacles before hym, wpyth whych he deceaued them that receaued the beaſtes marke, and them that worſhypped hys ymage. Theſe both were caſte quykly into a ponde of fyre burnyng with byrmſtome: and the remnaunt were ſlayne wpyth the ſwearde of hym that ſat vpon the hoſte, whych ſwearde proceded out of hys mouth, and all ſ foules were fulfylled wpyth theyr ſclſy.

¶ The. xx. Chapter.

The dragon is bounde for a. 1000. yeres. The deeth of the, and receant iudgement.

AND I ſawe an Aungell come downe from heauen, hauyng the keye of the bottomleſſe pyt, and a great chayne in hys hande. And he toke the dragon that olde ſerpent, whych is the deuyl and Sata-nas, and he bounde hym a thouſande yeres: and caſt hym into the bottomleſſe pyt, & he ſhut hym vp, and ſet a ſeale on hym, that he ſhulde deceaue the people nomore, tyll the thouſande yeres were fulfilled. And after that he muſt be loſed for a lytell ſeaſon.

B And I ſawe ſeates, and they ſat vpon the, & iudgement was geuen vnto them: and I ſawe the ſoules of them that wer beheaded for the wyſnes of Jeſu, and for the worde of God: & whych had not worſhypped ſ beaſt, nether his ymage nether had take his marke vpon theyr forheades, or in theyr handes: & they lyued, and ragyned wpyth Chyiſt a. 1000. yere: but the other of the deeth men lyued not agayne, vntyll the thouſande yere were fynlyſhed. This is ſ fyrſt reſurreccyon. Bleſſed and holy is he, that hath parte in ſ fyrſte reſurreccyon. For on ſuche ſhall the ſeconde deeth haue no power, but they ſhalbe ſ bye ſtes of God and of Chyiſt, and ſhall ragne with him a thouſande yere.

* And when ſ thouſande yeres are expy-red, Satan ſhalbe loſed out of hys pzeſon.
¶ And ſhall go out to deceaue ſ people, whych are in the foure quarters of the erth, Gog & Magog, to gather the together to battaile, whole nombze is as the ſande of the ſee: and they went vp in the playne of the erth: & copaſſed the ſtetes of the ſaynetes about, & the beloued citie. And fyre came downe fro God out of heauen, and deuoured the: and the de-uyl that deceaued the, was caſt into a lake of fyre and byrmſtome. where the beaſt and the falſe prophetes ſhalbe tormented daye & nyght for euermoze.

And I ſaw a great whyte ſeate, and him that ſate on it, from whole face ſced awaye both ſ erth and heauen, and their place was nomore founde. And I ſawe the deeth, both great and ſmal ſtande before God. And the bokes were opened, and another boke was opened, which is the boke of lyfe, & the deeth were iudged of thoſe thynges whych were wpytten in the bokes accordyng to their de-des: and the ſee gaue vp her deeth which wer in her, and deeth and hell deliuered vp the deeth, whych were in them: & they were iudged euery mā accordyng to his dedes. And deeth and hell were caſt into the lake of fyre Thys is the ſeconde deeth. And whoſoeuer was not founde wpytten in the boke of lyfe, was caſt into the lake of fyre.

¶ The. xxi. Chapter.

In theſe chapter is deſcrybed the newe and ſpirt small Ierusalem.

ND I ſaw a newe beaue & a new earth. For ſ fyrſt beaue, & ſ fyrſt earth were vaniſhed awaye, and ther was nomore ſee. ¶ And I

John ſawe ſ holy cytie, new Ierulaſe come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a byrde garnyſhed for her huſbade. And I herde a greaue voyce out of beaue ſayinge beholde, the tabernacle of God is wpyth me, and he wyll dwell wpyth them. And they ſhall be his people, and God him ſelfe ſhalbe wpyth them, and be theyr God. ¶ And God ſhall wype awaye all teares fro theyr eyes.
And there ſhalbe nomore deeth, nether ſorowe, nether crye, nether ſhall ther be any more payne, for the olde thynges are gone.
And he ſate vpon the ſeate, ſayde: ¶ Be-holde, I make all thynges newe. ¶ And he ſayde vnto me: wyte, for theſe wordes are ſaythfull and true.

And he ſayde vnto me: it is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng & the ende I wyll geue to hym that is a thyrſt, of the well of ſ water of lyfe, fre. he that ouer-commeth ſhall enheret all thynges, and I wyll be hys God, and he ſhalbe my ſonne.
But the fearfull and vnbeleuyng, and the abhomynable, & murderers, & whoymdgers, and ſozcerers, and ydolaters, and all lyars ſhall haue their parte in the lake whych burnyth wpyth fyre and byrmſtome, whych is the ſeconde deeth.

And there came vnto me one of ſ ſeuē aun-gels which had the ſeuē vyalles full of the ſeuē laſt plagis: & talked wpyth me ſayinge: come hyther, I wil ſhewe the the byrde, the lādes wyte. And he carped me awaye in the ſpirt

The Reuelacyon

spete to a great and an hye mountayne, and he shewed me the great cytie holy Ierusalem. descendyng out of heauen from God: buyng the byghenes of God. And her buyng was lyke vnto a stone most precious, euen lyke a Jasper cleare as Cristall: & had walles greate & hye, & had. xii. gates and at the gates. xii. aungels: and names wyrtten, whyche are the names of the. xii. trybes of Isracc: on the Eastsyde. iii. gates, and on the Northsyde. iii. gates, and towards the South. iii. gates, and fro the west thre gates, and the wall of the cytie had. xii. foundations: and in them the twelue names of the lambes. xii. apostles.

And he that talked with me, had a golde reede to measure the cytie wyth all and the gates therof & the wall therof. And the citie was built. iiii. square, and the length was as large as the bredth, and he measured the cytie with the. (same) reede. xii. M. furlonges: and the length & the bredth, and the heyth of it, were equall. And he measured the wall therof. an. cxliiii. cubytes: the measure that the aungel had, was after the measure that man vseth. And the buildyng, of the wal of it was of Jasper. And the cytie was pure golde lyke vnto cleare glasse, and the foundations of the wall of the cytie were garnished wyth all maner of precious stones.

The fyrste foundacyon was Jaspis, the seconde Saphyre, the thyrde a Calcedony, the fourth an Emerald, the fyft Sardonix, & syxte Sardoos, the seuenth Chrysolite, the eyght Serall, the. ix. a. Topas, the tenth a Crisoprasos, & eleuenth a Jacynthe, & tweluenth an Amatist.

The twelue gates were twelue pearles, every gate was of one pearle, and the strete of the cytie was pure golde, as thowowe they nunge glasse. And I sawe no temple therein.

For the Lorde God almyghty & I lambe are the temple of it. * And the cytie hath no neede of the sone, nether of the mone to lyghten it. For the byghenes of God dyd lyght it, and the lambe was the lyght of it. And people whyche are saued shall walke in the lyght of it. And the kynges of the earth shall buyng they gloze. (And honoure) vnto it. * And the gates of it are not shut by daye.

For there shall be no vyght there. (And in: to it shall they buyng the gloze & honoure of the narcons.) And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, nether whatsoener worketh abhominacion or maketh lyas: but they only which are wyrtten in the lambes boke of lyfe.

The. xii. Chapter.

The ryuer of the water of lyfe, the feruour and lyght of the cytie of God. The Lorde geueth euer hye seruantes warning of thynges to come the aungell will not be wo:shipped. To the wo:re of God maye nothyng be added nor mynysht.

And he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of lyfe, cleare as Crystall: procedyng out of the seate of God, and of the lambe. In the myddes of the strete of it, and of ether syde of the ryuer, was ther woode of lyfe: whyche bare twelue maner of frutes: and gaue frute every moneth: and the leues of the woode serued to heale the people wyth all: And there shall be no curse, but the seate of God and the lambe shall be in it: and hys seruantes shall serue him. And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in theyr foreheddes. * And there shall be no vyght there, and they neede no candle, nether lyght of the sunne: for the Lorde God geueth the lyght, and they shall raygne for evermore.

And he sayde vnto me: these sayinges are saythfull and true. And I Lorde God of the holy Prophtes sent hys Aungell to shewe vnto hys seruantes, the thynges whyche must shortly be fulfilled. Beholde, I come shortly. * Happy is he that keepeth the sayinge of the prophecie of this boke. I am John, whyche sawe these thynges and herde them. And whan I had herde a sene, I fell downe to wo:shyppe before the feete of the aungell, whyche shewed me these thynges. And he sayde vnto me: se thou do it not, for I am thy felowe seruaunt, & the felowe seruaunt of thy brethren the Prophtes, and of them which kepe the sayinges of (the prophecie of) this boke. But wo:shyppe God.

And he sayde vnto me: seale not the sayinges of this prophecie of this boke. For the tyme is at hande. he that doeth euill, let hym do euill still: and he which is fylthy, let hym be fylthy still: and he that is ryghteous, let hym be moze ryghteous, and he that is holy, let hym be moze holy. And beholde, I come shortly, and my rewarde is wyth me, to geue euery man accordyng as hys dedes shall be. I am Alpha and Omega, the begynnyng and the ende: the fyrst and the last. Blessed are they that do hys commaundementes, that they power maye be in the tree of lyfe, and maye entre in thowowe the gates into the cytie. * For wythout shall be dogges and inchaunters, and who: mongers, and murderers, & ydolaters, and whosoener loueth or maketh lealpynges.

I Iesus sent myne Aungell, to testifie vnto you these thynges in the congregacions. I am the rote and the generacyon of Dauid and the byghthe moynge starre. And the spete and the byghthe come. And let hym that heareth, saye also: come. * And let hym that is a thy:ste: come. And let whosoener will take, of the water of lyfe, fre.

I testifie vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this boke: * If any man shall adde vnto these thynges, God shall shall adde vnto hym the plagis þat are wyrtten in this boke. And yf any man shall mynistr the wordes of the boke of this prophesie, God shall take a waye his parte out of the boke of lyfe, & out of þe holy cytye, and from the thynges which are wyrtten in this boke. he whiche testifieth these thynges sayeth: be it. I come quickly. Amen.

Even so come Lord Jesu.

The grace of our Lord

Jesu Christ be with you all.

Amen.

The ende of the newe Testament.

A table to fynde the Epistles and Gospels usually red in the church, after Saint Chrysostome's use, wherof þe first is the Epistle, & the other the Gospel: whose begynnynges þat shall fynde in þe boke marked wyth a crosse, & the ende wyth halfe a crosse, & conteyned wyth in the letters.

A. B. C. D. &c.

On the first sondaye in Advent

This also we Roma. xiii. c.

And whan they dye nye Math. xxi. a.

On the wednesdaye

Be patient therfore brethren Jaco. v. b.

The begynnynges of Mar. i. a.

On the frydaye

Hearken vnto me Esa. li. a.

In those dayes came John Math. iii. a.

On the seconde sondaye in Advent Whatsoever thynges Roma. xv. a.

And there shalbe synnes Luke. xxi. e.

On the wednesdaye

Thus sayth the Lord zacha. viii. a.

Clerely I save vnto you Math. xi. b.

On the frydaye

I haue set watchmen Esa. lxi. b.

John beareth wytnesse John. i. b.

On the thyrde sondaye in Advent

Let a man charytefully esteeme vs. i. Cor. xiii. a.

Whan John begynne Math. xxi. a.

On the wednesdaye

This is the wordes Esa. li. a.

And in the syxt moneth Luke. i. c.

On the frydaye

There shall come a rod Esa. xi. a.

And Mary arose in Luke. i. b.

On the iiii. sondaye in advent

Reioyce in the Lord Philip. iii. a.

And this is the recorde John. i. b.

On the wednesdaye

Be glad than Ier. ii. f.

And this remoure of Luke. vi. c.

On the frydaye

Be glad and reioyce zacha. ii. c.

Take hede, beware War. viii. b.

On Chrysmas euen

Paul the seruante Roma. i. a.

Whan his mother Mary Math. i. c.

On Chrysmas nyght at the i. masse

For the grace of God Titus. ii. b.

And it chaunced in those Luke. ii. a.

At the seconde masse

But after that the hyndocles Titus. iii. a.

The shepherdes spake to Luke. ii. c.

At the thyrde masse

God in tyme past Iher. i. a.

In the begynnyng was John. i. a.

On launcet Herens daye

Herens full of synnes Ier. vi. c.

Wherfore beholde I send Math. xxi. b.

On S. John the Euangelistes daye he that feareth God Eccl. x. a.

Followe me. Peter turne John. xxi. f.

On chyldecmasse daye

And I loked and loo Apoc. xxi. a.

In angell of the Lord Math. ii. c.

On the sondaye after Chrysmas

And I save that the daye Gala. iii. a.

And his father and mother Luke. ii. c.

On the peaces daye

For the grace of God Titus. ii. b.

And whan the cyght daye Luke. ii. c.

On the thirte euen

For the grace of God Titus. ii. b.

But whan herode was Math. ii. b.

On the twelfe daye

Get the by by tyme Esa. li. a.

Whan Iesus was borne Math. ii. a.

On the first sondaye after xii. daye

O Lord I wyll thanke the Esa. li. a.

The next daye after xii. John. i. b.

On the ii. sondaye after xii. daye

And I beseeche you therfore Roma. xxi. a.

Whan he was twelue Luke. ii. c.

On the iii. sondaye after xii. daye

Seynge that we haue Roma. xxi. b.

And the thyrde daye John. i. a.

On the iiii. sondaye after xii. daye

Be not wyse in poure Roma. xxi. c.

Whan Iesus came Math. xxi. a.

CC

The Table

| | | | |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------|
| On the .v. sondaye after, xii. daye | | And it was at Jerusalem | John. x. e |
| Owe nothyng to any man | Roma. xiii. a | On the frydaye | |
| And whan he entred into | Math. viii. c | Lorde, all they that for | Jer. xvi. e |
| On the .vi. sondaye after, xii. daye | | Then gathered the bygh | John. xi. f |
| But ye on therfore | Collof. iii. b | On palme sondaye | |
| The kyngdom of heauen | Math. xiii. d | Let the same mynde be | Philap. ii. a |
| On leptauesima sondaye | | Ye knowe that after two | Math. xxvi. a | | Decrease ye not howe y they | i. Cor. ix. d | On the wednisdaye | |
| The kyngdome of heauen | Math. xx. a | Who hath geuen | Esa. lili. a |
| On leragesima sondaye | | The feast of swete brende | Luke. xxi. a |
| Pe lustre foolcs gladly | ii. Cor. xi. b | On good frydaye | | | Whan moche people were | Luke. viii. a | The Lorde spake vnto | Ero. xii. a |
| On Quinquagesima sondaye | | When Iesus had spoken | John. xviii. a |
| Though I spake | i. Cor. xiii. a | On Easter euen. | | | Iesus toke vnto him the | Luke. xvi. d | Yf ye be therfore rylen | Collof. iii. a |
| On Ashwednisdaye | | Upon an eueninge of the | Math. xxviii. a |
| Howe therfore sayeth | Joel. ii. c | On Easter daye | |
| Wherouer whan ye fast be | Math. v. a | Pourge therfore the olde | i. Corin. v. b |
| On the frydaye | | And whan the sabboth was | War. xvi. a |
| Crye now as loude | Esa. l. viii. a | On the mondaye | |
| Ye haue hearde that it is | Math. v. g | But Peter openyd | Actu. x. d |
| On the fyft sondaye in lent | | And beholde two of them | Luke. xxiii. b |
| We also as helpers | ii. Cor. vi. a | On the tuesdaye | |
| Then was Iesus led of | Math. xiii. a | Ye men, and bzyethen, ye child | Actu. xiii. d |
| On the wednisdaye | | Iesus stode in the myd | Luke. xxiii. d |
| And the Lorde sayde | Ero. xxi. ii. c | On the wednisdaye. | |
| Then certayne of y scrybes | Math. xli. d | Ye men of Israell, why | Actu. xiii. c |
| On the frydaye | | Afterwarde byd Iesus | John. xxi. a |
| The same soule that | Ezech. xvi. e | On the thursdaye | |
| After thys was | John. v. a | The aungell of the Lorde | Actu. v. ii. c |
| On the seconde sondaye in lent | | Wary stode without at | John. xx. b |
| Furthermoze bzyethen | i. Thessalo. iii. a | On the frydaye | |
| And Iesus went | Math. xv. c | For as moche as Christ | i. Pet. ii. c |
| On the wednisdaye | | Then the eleuen discyples | Math. xxviii. d |
| But Marдох though | hesser. xli. d | On the laterdaye | |
| And Iesus goynge vp to | Math. xx. b | Laye a wape therfore | i. Pet. ii. a |
| On the frydaye. | | On the fyft daye of the | John. xx. a |
| Cursed be the man | Jer. xviii. b | On the fyft sondaye after Easter. | |
| I can of myne owne | John. v. c | For all that is bozne of | i. John. v. a |
| On the thyrde sondaye in lent | | The same daye at nyght | John. xx. b |
| Be ye therfore the | Eph. v. a | On the seconde sondaye after Easter | |
| And he was callynge out | Luke. xi. b | Christ also suffred for | i. Pet. ii. d |
| On the wednisdaye | | I am the good shepherde | John. x. b |
| Honoure thy father | Erod. xx. b | On the thyrde sondaye after Easter | |
| Then came vnto Iesus | Math. xv. a | Dearely beloued I | i. Pet. ii. c |
| On the frydaye | | After a whyle, and | John. xvi. c |
| And the congregacyon had | Rume. xx. a | On the fourth sondaye after Easter | |
| Then came he into | John. xiii. a | Euery good gyfte | Jaco. i. c |
| On the fourth sondaye in lent | | But nowe I go my wape | John. xvi. b |
| For it is wyrtten that | Gala. iiii. e | On the .v. sondaye | |
| Iesus went | John. vi. a | And se that ye be doers | Jaco. i. d |
| On the wednisdaye | | Uerely ye. whatsoeuer ye shall. | John. xvi. f |
| And Eze. xxxvi. e | Elay. i. c | On the mondaye | |
| And Iesus goynge by | John. ix. a | knowledg poure fautes | Jaco. v. d |
| On the frydaye | | Yf any of you shall | Luke. xi. a |
| And after these actes | iii. Reg. xvi. c | On the tuesdaye | |
| A certayne man was spch called | John. xi. a | Jerpote therfore | i. Timo. ii. a |
| On the .v. sondaye in lent | | And when Iesus sat ouer | War. xii. d |
| But Christ beyng | hebze. ix. e | On the wednisdaye | |
| Whych of you can rebuke | John. viii. f | The multitude of the | Actu. xiii. g |
| On the wednisdaye | | These wordes spake Iesus | John. xvii. a |
| And the Lorde spake | Leuit. xix. a | On the Afcenpon daye | |

The table.

| | | | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|
| The fyrst treatyse | Actu. i. a | And he sayde also vnto | Luke. xvi. a |
| Afterwarde he appeared | Mar. xvi. c | On the .x. sondaye | |
| On the sondaye after the ascencion | i. Pet. iiii. b | Pe knowe that pe were | i. Corin. xii. a |
| Be ye therfore sobze and | John. xv. d | And as he was come | Luke. xix. f |
| But whan the conforter | | On the eleuenth sondaye | |
| On Wytsondaye euen | Actu. xix. a | Brethren as partaynyng. | i. Corin. xv. a |
| It fortuneth, wyle apol. | John. xiiii. b | And he tolde thys | Luke. xviii. b |
| Pe loue me, kepe my | | On the twelvethe sondaye | |
| On wyfsondaye | Actu. ii. a | Haue we such trust | ii. Corin. iii. a |
| And whan the dayes | John. xiiii. c | And he departed | Mar. vii. d |
| Of a man loue me | | On the .xiii. sondaye | |
| On the mondaye | Actu. x. f | To Abzaym and hys | Gala. iii. c |
| And he commaunded vs | John. iii. c | happy are the eyes | Luke. x. d |
| For God so loued the | | On the .xiiii. sondaye | |
| On the tewe daye | Actu. viii. c | I saye walke in the spyete | Gala. v. c |
| Whan the Apostles | John. x. a | And it chaunced as he | Luke. xvi. c | | Alerely, verely. &c. he that | | On the .xv. sondaye | |
| On the welmsdaye. | Actu. ii. c | Pe we lyue in the spyete | Gala. v. d |
| But Peter stepped vp | John. vi. e | Roman can serue two | Matth. vi. d |
| Roman can come vnto | | On the .xvi. sondaye | |
| On the thursdaye | Actu. viii. a | Wherfore I desyre | Eph. iii. b |
| Then came Philip into a cytie | Luke. ix. a | And it fortuneth after | Luke. vii. b |
| Jesus called the tewe lue | | On the .xvii. sondaye | |
| On the frydaye | Actu. ii. d | I therfore whiche | Eph. iii. a |
| Pe men of Israell, heare | Luke. v. d | And it chaunced | Luke. xiii. a |
| And it happened vpon a daye | | On the .xviii. sondaye | |
| On the laterdaye | Actu. xiii. f | I thanke my God | i. Corin. i. a |
| And the nexte Sabbath | Luke. xiii. f | But when the Pharyses | Matth. xxi. d |
| And when he was rylen | | On the .xix. sondaye | |
| On trinite Sondaye. | Actu. iii. a | To be reuewed | Eph. i. a |
| After thys I loked, and | John. iii. a | He entred also | Matth. ix. a |
| Ther was a man of the | | On the .xx. sondaye | |
| On corpus Christi daye | i. Corin. xi. d | Take hede therfore | Eph. v. d |
| That whiche I deliuered | John. vi. f | And Jesus answered | Matth. xxii. a |
| For my fleshe is meate | | On the .xxi. sondaye | |
| On the fyrst sondaye after trinite | i. John. iiii. b | Finally my brethren be ye | Eph. vi. b |
| God is loue, and he that | Luke. xvi. e | And ther was a certayne | John. iiii. f |
| Ther was a certayne | | On the .xxii. sondaye | |
| On the seconde sondaye after trinite | i. John. iii. c | I thanke my God in | Philip. i. a | | Maruayle not my brethren | Luke. xiii. d | Therfore is the kyngdome | Matth. xviii. a |
| A certayne man made | | On the .xxiii. sondaye | |
| On the thyrde sonday after trinite | i. Pet. v. b | Brethren be followers | Philip. iii. d |
| Submyt your selues | Luke. xv. a | Then went the Pharises | Matth. xxi. b |
| Then resozted vnto hym | | On the .xxiiii. sondaye | |
| On the fourth sondaye after trinite | Roma. viii. a | For thys cause we also | Coloss. i. b |
| For I suppose that the | Luke. vi. f | Whyle he thus spake | Matth. ix. c |
| Be ye therfore mercy | | On the last sondaye after trinite | |
| On the .v. sondaye after trinite | i. Pet. iii. b | Beholde, the tyme come | hiere. xxi. b |
| In conclusion be ye | Luke. v. a | After these thynges | John. vi. a |
| It came to passe that whan | | On the wyndisdaye in the Em- | |
| On the .vi. sondaye after trinite | Roma. vi. a | ber wehe afoze Wyghelmasse | |
| knowe ye not, that | Matth. v. c | Beholde the tyme come | Amos. ix. d |
| For I saye vnto you. | | And one of the company | Mar. ix. d |
| On the .vii. sondaye | Roma. vi. d | On the frydaye | |
| I speake grossly be | Mar. viii. a | O Israell turne the nowe | Osee. xiii. a |
| In those dayes whan | | And one of the Pharyses | Luke. vii. f |
| On the eyght sondaye | Roma. viii. c | On the laterdaye | |
| Therfore brethren | Matth. vii. b | For there was afoze tabern. | Hebr. ix. a |
| Beware of falle | | A certayne man had | Luke. xii. b | | On the .ix. sondaye | i. Cor. x. b | In the dedication of the | |
| We shulde not lust after | | churche. | |

And

The Table

And I John sawe the
And he turned in, and Apocal. xxi. a.

Luke. xix. a

There endeth the table of the Epistles and Gospels of the Sondayes.

There followeth the table of the Epistles & Gospels whiche are vled to be red on dyuers saynctes dayes in the yere.

On saynct Andrewes dayes For to beleue with Roma. x. a Jesus walkynge by Matth. xiii. c On the conception of our Lady
As the vyne haue I Eccle. xxi. c
The boke of the generacion Matth. i. a On S. Thomas the Apostles daye Therefore are ye not Ephel. ii. d But Thomas one of John. xx. f On candelmasse daye.
Beholde, I wyll sende Malach. iii. a And whan the dayes Luke. ii. d On S. Mathias the Apostle And in those dayes Peter. Actu. i. c In that tyme Jesus Matth. xi. d On the daye of the Annunciaciō of Geyng of our Lady.
Whereouer God spake vnto Ach. Ela. vii. b
And in the syxt moneth Luke. i. c On S. George daye Counte it all maner ioye Jacob. i. a
I am the true vyne John. xv. a On S. markes daye
But now every one of Ephe. iii. a
I am the true vyne John. xv. a On S. Phillippe and Jacobs daye Then shall the ryghteous Sap. v. a And he sayde vnto his. John. xiiii. a

On the Natiuite of S. John Baptist Herken vnto me ye Esa. xlii. a When Elisabeths tyme Luke. i. f On S. Peter & pauls daye At the same tyme Actu. xii. a Jesus came into the Matth. xvi. c On S. Mary Magdalenes daye Whoso synneth Prouer. xxii. b And one of the Maryes Luke. vii. f On S. James the Apostles daye
Now therefore ye are not Ephel. ii. d
Then came to hym Matth. xx. c On the Assumpcion of oure lady.
In all these thynges Eccle. xxi. b It fortuneth that as they Luke. x. g On S. Bartylmeus daye.
Now therefore ye are not Ephel. ii. d
And there was a styfe Luke. xxi. c On the natiuite of our lady
As the vyne haue I Eccle. xxi. c
The boke of the generacion Matth. i. a On S. Mathies daye
The lyphenes of foure Ezech. i. b And as Jesus Matth. ix. a On S. Michaels daye
And he shewed it Apocalyp. i. a In that houre came the Matth. xvi. a On S. Lukes daye
The lyphenes of foure Ezechiel. i. b After thys appoynted Luke. x. a On S. Simon and Judes daye
But we knowe that Roma. viii. e This commaunde I you John. xv. e On all halowe daye
And I sawe another Apocalyp. vii. a Jesus leyng the people Matth. v. a On all soules daye
I wolde not brethren i. Thessalo. iii. d Then sayde Martha John. xi. c

The ende of the table.

The ende of the newe Testament:

and of the whole Bible, fynished in Maye, Anno. M. CCCC. xli.

A dñs factū est istud.

aptist rlix.a uke.i.f
a.rli.a rvi.c pe rri.b e.vii.f ve ef.ii.d b.xx.c
.
rlii.b ae.r.g ef.ii.d
rxi.e rlii.c ch.i.a
ch.i.b p.ix.a pp.i.a out.a iel.i.b he.r.a
viii.e n.xv.e vii.a p.v.a lii.d n.xi.c